

A N
I L L U S T R A T I O N
O F T H E
H O L Y S C R I P T U R E S ,
B Y
N O T E S and E X P L I C A T I O N S
O N T H E
O L D and N E W T E S T A M E N T .

I N W H I C H ,

The U S E F U L O B S E R V A T I O N S of former C O M M E N T A T O R S will be made U s e of.

The different T R A N S L A T I O N S of the B I B L E into various L a n g u a g e s taken Notice of, to explain difficult T E X T S .

The O B S E R V A T I O N S of the most learned Men applied, and such new N O T E S added, as will greatly explain the N A T U R E and S P I R I T of the H O L Y S C R I P T U R E S , shew the G R A C I O U S D E S I G N of G O D in every Part of them, unfold the S U B L I M E T R U T H S they teach, more particularly that great and wonderful M Y S T E R Y of the R E D E M P T I O N of M A N K I N D by J E S U S C H R I S T :
Clear the seeming difficult Accounts of Things found therein, and set to V i e w the great U s e , I M P R O V E M E N T , and D E L I G H T , we may gather from them.

L O N D O N :

Printed for R. G O A D B Y , in Sherborne; and sold by R. B A L D W I N , Bookseller, in Pater-noster-Row; by the Bookfellers of Oxford and Cambridge, and by all others in Town and Country.

---

M,DCC,LIV.

P R E F A C E.

IF we not too much convinced of it by Experience, it would be scarcely credible, that Things of the most inestimable Value, should be looked upon by us with Indifference, and that the Possession of them should only make them lose their Value with us; perhaps this is in nothing more verified than in the Indifference with which we, who are so fully possessed of them, look upon the Oracles of GOD, the HOLY SCRIPTURES; a Treasure of more Worth than Thousands of Gold and Silver, and whose Value is above every Thing we can possess: When God, the great Lord of all Things, made Choice of a particular People to deliver such things by peculiar Privileges and Favour, that they had the Oracles of God, or those Writings, in which his Will and Directions for their Conduct were declared, committed to them, were reckoned among the Chosen. The Spirit of Truth in St. Paul speaking of the Advantages which God in his Mercy had granted to his People, says, they were everlastingly that "CHIEFLY, because unto them were committed the Oracles of GOD." And another Scripture after having enumerated sundry Instances of GOD's Power, Wisdom, and Goodness, concludes all, as tho' it was the greatest Act of his Goodness, with, "He freely bestowed his Oracles and Judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so with any Nation: And as for his judgments, they are true: ye the Lord. Even that divine Person who is filled the true Light of this World, who came from Heaven, and who knew all Things which appertain to His Father, that great and true GOD who inhabiteth Eternity, who came a Light into the World, that he might give Light unto them who abide in Darkness, pronounced what ought to have the greatest Influence on every one who heard the Name of JESUS, SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES. And when he was about to ascend the Cross, and had received all Power, the first Gift he bestowed upon his beloved Disciples, who had been his Companions and Followers during his Abode here, was, "to open their Understanding, that they might understand the SCRIPTURES."

When such great Things are said of these Sacred Writings, we must needs conclude, if we will consider at all, that they must be of the great Value, and contain Things of infinite Importance to us: And if we can look upon them with a careless Eye, it can arise only from our not duly considering what they are, and how much they relate to us. It may, therefore, be of Use, before we enter upon this Work, to consider what the SCRIPTURES are, and how nearly they concern us.

First then, We learn through them, that we are not Beings by Chance, but that the Almighty and Holy ONE, who inhabiteth the Heavens, is our MAKER; That this Earth, or World, with all its Beauties, was made and prepared on purpose for a Habitation for us, and that we are placed here, by the direct Will of God, to enjoy all the Delights, and be the Head of this whole Creation. We learn, likewise, from the Scriptures, what otherwise would always perplex and trouble us, namely The Origin of Evil, and how it first came into the World; so that we are here by freed from the slavish Fears which, on this Account, torment and harass those People, who have not the Light of the Scriptures; in either entertaining an Opinion that God is a capricious Being, who minds not any of the Affairs of this World, or concerns himself about the Work of his Hands; or that there are two Self-existent independent Beings contained in the Mass of Matter, in Opposition to each other, one of which created all the Evils that are in it, and delights in being their author; for we are fully assured by these Divine Writings, that there is but one God who made and rules the World; that He created every Thing good; that He hath a most tender Love for Mankind; that He is the certain Rewarder of all those who diligently seek Him; that the Evil that is in this World, or even our great Destroyer Death, which seems to make us a Thing of Nought, a Shadow that passes away, is not a Part of his Nature, but was brought into the World by Sin, or Man's own Disobedience to his Creator: And we are further informed by the Scriptures of what is laid down to us, namely That though Man, entirely by his own Disobedience and Folly, brought himself from a State of perfect and never ending Happiness into a State of Pain and Misery, ending in Death, or a Deprivation of all Sense of Being. Yet his gracious Creator had Compassion on him, and, in his infinite Wisdom, laid the Plan of his Redemption from Misery and Death to everlasting Life and Felicity. A glorious Prospect which the Sacred Books lay open to us; for it is by the Holy Scriptures only that Life and Immortality are brought to Light. O heavenly Balm for all our Woes! O bright hopes to comfort us in all our Troubles! O divine Light to dispel all our Darkness! O welcome Deliverance from the Bondage of Sin, and all the Horrors of the Grave; no where are any of you to be found, but in these Sacred Writings; that are our noble CHARTER, which informs us of all our glorious Privileges; that the STRING of DEATH is taken away; that the Bonds of the Grave are broken; that everlasting GLORY is in Store for all, who will accept it upon the Terms which INFINITE PERFECTION has prescribed; that Consolation, Assistance, and Support, will be granted us by the great LORD of ALL THINGS; that our transient Afflictions are only meant to fit us for eternal and unpeakable Happiness.

I wish if we love God we succeeded by will be happy in the next world

Happiness; that our Life here is no more than a PASSAGE to a heavenly Canaan, to Regions of immortal Bliss and GLORY. After having duly considered what great Things these are, and how vastly they increase our Hopes and Happiness here, let us with the warmest Gratitude acknowledge the distinguishing Grace it has pleased the Father of Mercies to bestow on us, on whom the Light of the Scriptures hath shined; for nothing is more certain, than That those of all Ages and Countries, where this TRUE LIGHT shineth not, sit in Darkness and the Shadow of Death: For though the Mercies of GOD which are in CHRIST JESUS, in all Likelihood extend to them in the End, yet during their Continuance in this World, they have no HOPE, all is involved in the thick Clouds of Ignorance and Error; they have no ASSURANCES of any of these glorious Things; all is dreadful Doubt and Uncertainty with them. For any Thing they know the gloomy Grave closes over them for ever: They have no immortal Glories set in their View; the Eye of Faith in them pierceth not into the Heavens; for how can they believe when they have not heard; or how can they know what has not been declared unto them: And can we then, who have the unsearchable Riches of GOD's Grace to Man declared to us, who have all these great Things revealed to us, who have the Assurance of these glorious Hopes, look with Indifference on those Divine Writings, wherein the Declaration of them is made; rather ought they not to be our constant Meditation and Study, our Delight all our Life long?

From these too we may learn, what the wisest of Mankind were in the profoundest Ignorance of before, and are still where the LIGHT of the GOSPEL does not shine: The Spirit of Truth, as well as all History and Experience, has made us certain That the World by Wisdom (viz. of their own) knew not GOD; that is, they did not so know Him as to form any worthy Conceptions of Him, or render him a proper Worship and Obedience; as St. Paul says, "They glorified him not as GOD, but became vain in their Imaginations, and their foolish Heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became Fools; and changed the Glory of the uncorruptible God, into an Image made like to corruptible Man, and to Birds, and four footed Beasts, and creeping Things." It is the Scriptures ~~only~~ that have taught Mankind that GOD is a SPIRIT, and must be worshipped in SPIRIT and TRUTH; that there is no Manner of Likeness of Him to be made of any Thing that is in Heaven above, or in the Earth beneath, or in the Waters under the Earth; for that HE IS ABOVE ALL, AND BEYOND ALL.

Vain indeed, and foolish to the highest Degree were the Imaginations of Mankind about the GODHEAD; nothing so absurd, nothing so unseemly, nothing so abominable and impious, but what they imagined of their God or Gods, and the Worship they paid them was of the same Sort. But the Holy Writings describe GOD, such as it becomes a MAKER and GOVERNOR of a World to be, as a BEING infinitely WISE, POWERFUL, GOOD, HOLY, JUST, PURE; as the MAKER of ALL, as the PRESERVER and DIRECTOR of ALL, as the LOVER of MANKIND; and the Worship they prescribe to Him is a reasonable Service, such as seems to be consonant to such a BEING, and may be truly called, as St. Paul styles it, The good, and acceptable, and perfect Will of GOD. No inhuman Sacrifices are here prescribed to please HIM; no rigorous useless Penances; no arbitrary slavish Acts of Submission; no costly Gifts or Offerings; no first born to be given to appease His Wrath, the Fruit of our Bodies for the Sin of our Souls. Nothing like these is the Worship that the Scriptures tell us GOD is pleased with: To do Right and Justice to one another, to be kind and merciful to our Brethren, to break the Bands of Wickedness, to undo the heavy Burthens, and to let the Oppressed go free; to deal our Bread to the Hungry, to bring the Poor that are cast out to our House; not to rigorously exact all our Dues, not to speak ill of our Neighbour, to have no Strife and Debates amongst us; when we see the Naked to cover him, and to satisfy the afflicted Soul: In a Word to do every Thing that will increase the Happiness of each other, to purify our Hearts from all sordid and disgraceful Affections, to go out from the Bondage of Sin and Corruption, not to be Slaves to Vice, but to become rational, noble, godlike; these are the Things which the GOD of the SCRIPTURES requires of us, if we do these, when we call, the Lord shall answer, when we cry, He shall say, Here I am. This is the Service He expects from us: A Service which is a PERFECT FREEDOM. What need we search for any other Mark of the Divinity of the SCRIPTURES? Nothing but the TRUE GOD could prescribe such a SERVICE as this to his Creatures, which is founded only in promoting our Happiness, not in enlarging his Authority.

Another Thing of great Importance to us, which we can learn only from the Scriptures is, What is the True Happiness of MAN. Many and various have been the Enquiries of all Ages after this. Man is placed here amongst various Objects and Pursuits, with a strong Desire of finding True Happiness, which he aspires after, but feels that he does not possess: Whither then shall he turn? which Way shall he take? He searcheth on his Right-hand, and it is not there; and on his Left-hand but he cannot find it: This is the State of Man.

Cicero, the greatest and best Philosopher that Rome ever had, tells us, that the Sentiments, even of the wisest Men, were so various and different on this Head, that it was almost impossible to reckon them all, at the same Time that he mentions no less than twenty different Opinions about it; and just as much at a Loss have the wisest Men in different Ages and Countries been at about this Point, so necessary to be known: But we, who have the ORACLES of GOD committed to us, are informed, in few Words, wherein this truly consists; that to fear GOD, and keep his COMMANDMENTS, is the WHOLE of MAN. Every Thing that relates to him consists in this. He needs search no further; he needs be no longer doubtful, This is his true and highest FELICITY; this his right WAY; this the POINT where all his Hopes must center.

It will be necessary here to add something of the OLD TESTAMENT in particular, because the reading of it is, at present, too much neglected, even by well-disposed Persons. Many are apt to imagine, though very erroneously, that the Old Testament Part of the Bible was designed only for the Jews, and is of little or no Use to Christians: But we are taught quite otherwise in the NEW TESTAMENT; for it is therein we find our BLESSED SAVIOUR exhorting his Disciples to SEARCH the SCRIPTURES, (that is, the Old Testament;) for they are they (says he) which testify of me. It is not in this Place only, but in several others that our divine Teacher JESUS CHRIST, recommends the reading and meditating on the Writings of Moses and the Prophets. It is of the Old Testament St. Paul speaks, when he says that, Whatsoever Things were written afore- time,

time, were written for our Learning; and speaking of what had happened to the Israelites, he says, That all these Things happened to them for Examples, and were written for our Admonition, upon whom the Ends of the World are come: It is of the OLD TESTAMENT he speaks, when he says, The Holy Scriptures are able to make us wise unto Salvation, through Faith in CHRIST JESUS: And it is of this he adds, All Scripture is given by Inspiration of GOD, and is profitable for Doctrine, (viz. to teach what ought to be known and believed;) for Reproof, to reprove such false Doctrines as ought to be rejected;) for Correction, (viz. of Vices in Men's Lives and Conversation;) for Instruction, (viz. to instruct in Precepts of a good Life and Christian Conversation: That the Man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good Works. ~~And the NEW TESTAMENT is built upon the OLD, we have certain Proof of, by the frequent Quotations made by CHRIST and his Apostles, out of the Histories, Prophecies, and other Passages of the OLD TESTAMENT; and more particularly when CHRIST, after his Resurrection, met the two Disciples going to Emmaus, we are told, (having first reproached them with not having sufficiently attended to the Writings of the OLD TESTAMENT;) That beginning at Moses, and all the Prophets, he expounded unto them in all the Scriptures, the Things concerning himself: And when he afterwards appeared to all his Disciples together, he said unto them, These are the Words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all Things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalms concerning me.~~

On the Knowledge of what is contained in the OLD TESTAMENT, depends the perfect Understanding of our Divine Religion. "In these Writings we may contemplate all the Steps of Providence, relating to the " Salvation and Redemption of Mankind in the several Ages of the World, and by a Comparison of all " the Parts may discern that CHRIST was indeed the END of the LAW, and of all Promises made to the " Fathers: That all the Deliverances given by GOD to his People were but Shadows, and as it were an " Earnest of the great Deliverance he intended to give by his SON: That all the Ceremonials of the Law " were Representations of the Substance of the GOSPEL: That the Atonical Sacrifices and Priesthood " were Figures of better Things to come." There are even whole Books in the NEW TESTAMENT, which no one can rightly understand who has not read the OLD with some Care and Attention; as the Epistle to the Hebrews, and some other Parts. Moreover whoever will read and meditate on the prophetic Writings of the OLD TESTAMENT, will find an astonishing LIGHT dart from them; will discover BEAUTIES which they were Strangers to before; and will have a more lively Sense of the MAJESTY of GOD, and a stronger Confirmation of the TRUTH and CERTAINTY of RELIGION, than they can have otherwise. Nothing can be conceived a more convincing Proof of the Being of GOD, nothing a more undeniable Argument that he governs all Things, and that the Scriptures are his WORD, than to see the exact Completion of ~~some~~ ~~ancient Prophecies, which were in the Hands of the Jews, such as we now have them, many Ages before the Coming of our LORD.~~ To sum up all, the Writings of the OLD TESTAMENT teach us, that there is a GOD, or a DIVINE OMNIPOTENT BEING who made this World, and that he preserves and governs all Things in it; ~~that his CARE extends to the minutest Particular and directs ALL;~~ that he dispenses GOOD and EVIL; that he is perfectly GOOD and RIGHTEOUS, and will reward every Man according to his Works. This is shewn in the OLD TESTAMENT by GOD's establishing Kingdoms and destroying them, making Nations flourishing and miserable; by his exercising a SOVEREIGN POWER not only over what is outward and visible, but over the Heart and Mind, turning them as he pleases from one Resolution to another according to his Designs; giving all necessary Qualities to those he means to favour, and taking away Counsel and Prudence, Strength and Courage, from those he means to destroy; by his calling the Famine, the Sword, and the Pestilence, to punish the Ungrateful and destroy the Proud.

In the OLD TESTAMENT we meet with RULES and MODELS for all Ranks and Conditions. Rich and Poor, Husbands and Wives, Fathers and Children, all find there most excellent Instructions upon every Branch of their Duty. In it we may find Precepts of great Use to promote Justice, Charity, Purity, Temperance, Patience, and other Virtues; exalted Sentiments of Piety, and the most exalted Patterns of Devotion; here we are taught how we ought to be affected with the MAJESTY of GOD, and reverence and adore the SUPREME BEING: With what Pleasure and Delight we ought to meditate upon the wonderful Works of CREATION and PROVIDENCE; with what Gratitude and Fervency of DEVOTION we ought to extol His PERFECTIONS, and praise Him for all his MERCIES; that we ought to pay the highest Regard to GOD's HOLY COMMANDMENTS, and account those Advantages inestimable which PIETY procures to its true Votaries. Here we are taught to trust in GOD, to call upon Him in Time of Need, to submit with Resignation to the DIVINE WILL, and to have Recourse to GOD's MERCY, by Repentance, when we have offended Him.

To say thus much of the OLD TESTAMENT seemed necessary, (because the reading of it at present is too much disused, to the great Disadvantage of Religion and Piety) without however intending to depreciate the New; which has indeed perfected the OLD; and we find greater Light in the GOSPEL than in the LAW: Moses and the Prophets speak in the OLD TESTAMENT; but in the NEW it is JESUS CHRIST, ~~the Son of GOD, of whom it is said, This is my beloved Son, hear him.~~

From what has been said, which is a just Description of the HOLY SCRIPTURES, it is evident that they are Writings, which contain Things of the greatest Importance to us, and most worthy to be enquired into; but in VAIN do they contain them if we do not read them, or if we read them so as not to profit by them. The Scriptures may be read, and yet no Advantage ensue, if we read them in a slight cursory Manner; and therefore we ought always to be in a proper Disposition for it, when we take THEM into our Hands.

The first necessary Disposition is ATTENTION; that is, When we read, our Minds should be free, composed, and disengaged from other Thoughts. Above all, we must take heed, that our Heart be not disordered by our Passions; for the Heart and the Passions are the great Cause of Distraction and Inattention in Reading, as well as in Prayer; the MIND naturally dwelling upon those Things, which have taken Possession of the HEART. For this Reason, it is convenient to make Choice for Reading, of those Seasons in which we are disengaged from other Things, and particularly the Morning. It is likewise of great Use before we begin to read, to stir up our ATTENTION, by seriously considering what we are going about, and reflecting, that

by before June

by the
sup.
m
the

that when we read the SCRIPTURES, GOD speaks to us, and by his WORD desires to make us holy, and bring us to everlasting LIFE. To secure Attention, we must likewise read with Dedication, and allow ourselves Leisure to weigh and consider well what we read.

Secondly, We must read frequently and diligently. No one can be sufficiently acquainted with the SCRIPTURES, without making them familiar by frequent reading. Regular and frequent Reading gives us an Opportunity of meditating on them the more; whereas those who read but seldom, will never furnish their Minds, much less fill their Hearts, with what is contained in those SACRED BOOKS. Besides, a constant and careful Reading will give us a greater Relish for GOD'S WORD; which the more we read, and meditate, the more Beauties we discover in it; the more it enlightens the Understanding, and sanctifies and rejoices the Heart.

Thirdly, We must read with Judgment and Discretion, if we would rightly understand the Sense of the SCRIPTURES, and discern the Use we are to make of them. One of the Ways to prevent mistaking the true Sense of Scripture, is to have a constant Eye to the Design which the SACRED WRITERS had in View, to examine upon what Occasion, and to what End they speak; to observe the CONNECTION of what is said, with what precedes, and what follows; and to compare what we read with other Passages which may serve to explain it. We must never lose Sight of the END and DESIGN of what is said, if we desire to discover the true MEANING of GOD'S WORD. This we must be particularly careful to do in the Books and Chapters which are Doctrinal.

If a right Judgment be necessary in order to understand the SCRIPTURES, it is not less useful in order to discover the Improvement we are to make of them. To this End, it must be considered, that the great Design of the SCRIPTURES, and the true Use they should be applied to, is to produce in us true FAITH, and the Love of GOD, and thereby bring us to ETERNAL LIFE. These Things are written (says St. John) that ye may believe that Jesus is the Son of God, and that believing ye might have Life through his Name. St. Paul says likewise, that the Epistles which were written after time, were written for our Learning; that we, through Patience and Comfort of the Scriptures, might have Hope. This is the natural and genuine Effect of Revelation: Its Doctrines are revealed, that we may receive them with FAITH; that they may purify our Hearts, and lead us to love and fear GOD; its COMMANDMENTS were given, that we may keep them; its PROMISES and THREATENINGS tend wholly to persuade us from that which is evil, and induce us to that which is good; and the EXAMPLES which the SCRIPTURES set before us have the same Tendency. Therefore, whenever we read the SCRIPTURES, we must endeavour to discover, first, what is of Use to instruct and improve us; and then, what tends to sanctify us, and bring us to GOD; that what we read may always excite us more and more to PIETY, and dispose us to live a GODLY LIFE. Moreover, it is of great Importance, for every one to take Notice of what particularly concerns himself, and what bears the greatest Affinity to our own Circumstances and Needs: In this impartial Application to ourselves, of what we meet with in GOD'S WORD, consists the right Use of this Book.

Fourthly, The SCRIPTURES must be read with SUBMISSION and OBEDIENCE OF FAITH. Since it is GOD who speaks in them, we have nothing to do, but to be well assured, that we rightly understand their MEANING, which is never difficult in Things necessary to SALVATION; and then, we are with Submission and Docility to receive whatever they reveal, and make that the RULE of our FAITH and PRACTICE.

Fifthly, This SUBMISSION must take Place, likewise, in the Promises and Threatnings contained in the SCRIPTURES; that is, when they declare the HAPPINESS of the LIFE to come, or the PUNISHMENTS of the WICKED, we ought no more to doubt of the CERTAINTY of those Promises and Threatnings, than if we now saw the COMPLETION of them, and the great DAY OF RETRIBUTION was already come. This is one of the principal Effects of FAITH: Peace, says St. Paul is the Substance of Things hoped for, and the Evidence of Things not seen. The last Disposition with which the SCRIPTURES ought to be read, is PIETY and DEVOTION. This Disposition is the principal, and includes all the rest. He that reads the SCRIPTURES must have a Love for TRUTH and VIRTUE; should have a Heart inclined to GOOD, and sincerely desirous to know the Will of GOD, and to do it: And there is no better Way to prepare to bear the Voice of GOD, than to call upon Him, and draw up our Hearts unto Him.

It remains only to say something of our Undertaking, but as that will best speak for itself in the Execution, we shall here only observe, that no Expence, Care, or Pains, will be spared to render it useful; the NOTES, EXPLICATIONS, and OBSERVATIONS, will be such as will be of real SERVICE, those of less Use, with which many Commentators do too much abound, and which would swell the Work to too great a Bulk, will be omitted: However, all important Matters will be fully treated of. And, agreeable to this Plan, it has been thought necessary to treat of the Matters contained in the three first Chapters of Genesis very largely; for these three Chapters being the FOUNDATION on which all the SCRIPTURES are built, unless these are well understood, we cannot have a clear and full Idea of the NATURE or SPIRIT, END or DESIGN of the HOLY SCRIPTURES.

The Beauty and Goodness of the Paper and Letter on which the WORK is printed, (though an extraordinary Expence to the Undertakers, will, we hope, give Satisfaction and Pleasure to the Purchaser. It cannot be yet determined what Number of Sheets the Whole Work will make, but it will be brought into as narrow a Compass as the Nature of the Design (to be well executed) will admit of. That the Undertakers are desirous to render it at as moderate a Price as possible, is evident from their fixing it at so low a Rate per Sheet.

May that Divine BEING who ONLY is wise, enlighten our Understanding that we may see the wondrous THINGS of his LAW, may He guide our Pen, bless our Endeavours, enlarge and purify our Thoughts, that we may write to his HONOUR, and the Reader's ADVANTAGE.

---

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED GENESIS.

---

The A R G U M E N T.

[illegible][illegible]

They were to be as always near GOD, though He is invisible; they were to fix the Eye of the Mind on Things at a Distance, as if they were present; they were to make little Account of the Things of this Life, as expecting far better; they were to look unto GOD as every Thing, as the Author and Finisher of their Faith, that is, as their CREATOR and PRESERVER, all their Livings, and then exceeding great REWARD at last.

Such the Book of GENESIS describes to be the Sentiments of the good and holy Men of the first Ages of the World; and all the particular Circumstances of their Lives are recorded at large, that they might remain as perpetual Examples how Men are to walk in the World, and what Sentiments of Mind, with their Behaviour, with what Expectations, and on what their chief Attention is to be fixed. And to further instruct Men to avoid Evil, some Account is given of the Wicked, their Character very strongly described, the Violence and Impiety of their Actions, and, what is still more useful, the Imaginations, Thoughts, or Principles of their Hearts fully displayed; and then as fully to quote the Rewards of the others: They are described as proud and vain; they have no Thought or Belief of GOD being their CREATOR, PROVIDER, and REWARDER; they think every Thing of their Happiness rests in themselves; they are therefore greedy of Power and Riches, and as Conscience become Oppressions of their Fellowes; they have no future Expectations, therefore are Lovers of the World; they have no Regard to Things invisible or distant, but fix all their Considerations on the present ones.

This is the Description that MOSES gives of the Disposition and Actions of Men in the first Ages of the World, after the Fall, and the different Ways they pursued to Happiness. And if we will enter into our own Hearts, and consider the Ways of Men, we shall find that it is a true Picture of the Disposition, Behaviour, and Pursuits of Men at this Day. Just such is the Faith of the truly Good, that GOD is their CREATOR, PRESERVER, and REWARDER, and that to obey His Commandments is their only true Happiness. Just such is their cheerful Submission to whatever Afflictions His Wisdom thinks proper to lay upon them, and firm Belief that every Thing in the End will work together for their Good. In the same Manner do they live, as always seeing GOD, though he is always invisible; so do they fix their Eyes on Things distant and invisible, as though they were present and seen. Such is their Assurance that GOD's Promises shall all be fulfilled to the least Tittle, notwithstanding every Obstacle that may oppose them. So small is their Esteem of this World, as expecting a far more exceeding Weight of Glory. Such are their glorious Hopes, that the Time will come when their grand Adversary shall be put down, when Death shall be swallowed up in Victory, when they shall be exalted to an incorruptible Inheritance, that fadeth not away, to a Dwelling in the HEAVENS, not made with Hands, and be made joint Heirs and Sons of GOD, with their GREAT HEAD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST.

In the same Manner do we see in MOSES'S Description of the Wicked of the first Ages, what they are now. II. find those to be proud and insolent, oppressive and unjust, covetous, and greedily thirsting after the Things of this World, Lovers of all sinful Pleasures; and of these all, and which forms the Root of all the rest, WITHOUT FAITH, that is, without having any Regard to GOD, as concerning Himself such as he does here, or as a Rewarder of those who serve Him; without any Hope in the Promises made by Him to Man; without any future Expectations, minding only the present Time.

These are the two different Characters, which not only MOSES, but all the Scriptures throughout, give us of Man ; and describe the one as being beloved of GOD, as always taken Care of by Him, and as sure to be greatly rewarded by Him at the last ; the other as at Enmity with GOD, as left without His peculiar Care, as walking always in the Ways of Destruction, as sure to be punished in the End.

It is by attending to these two Characters, as described in the Writings of MOSES and the other Scriptures, that we may be fully and rightly instructed in our Duty; and, in doing so, the Scriptures will be to us as St. PAUL describes them to be, "Profitable for Doctrine, for Reproof, for Correction, for Instruction in Righteousness, to make us perfect, and thoroughly furnished unto all GOOD WORKS."

MOSES's Historical Account includes the Transactions of 2369 Years from the Creation to the Death of the Patriarch Joseph.

T H E

FIRST BOOK OF MOSES,

C A L L E D

G E N E S I S.

C H A P. I.

1 The creation of heaven and earth, 3 of the light, 6 of the firmament, 9 of the earth separated from the waters, 11 and made fruitful, 14 of the sun, moon, and stars, 20 of fish and fowl, 24 of beasts and cattle, 25 of man in the image of God. 29 also the appointment of food.

N the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was without form, and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

In the Beginning, relates only to the Commencement of that Time when these created Things were made, for God had existed before from all Eternity. He began before all Time, and without Beginning, and He made all Things out of nothing by the Exertion of his Omnipotence, which is called his Word. That is, both made the Substance of which they are all formed, and gave them those particular Forms which they at present bear. The Heaven (or the Heavens, as it is in the Hebrew) and the Earth, import the whole World and all Things, that are therein, visible and invisible. The Word in the Hebrew, which we translate CREATE, signifies to bring into Being that which had no Existence before.

The Earth, when first brought into Being, was a confused Fluidity, or soft Mass, without Order or Beauty, Furniture, or Ornament, wholly covered with a thick Darkness, till the Spirit of God, or the Energy of the Divine Power, moved or acted upon the Waters, or rather the Fluidity of this Mass, to bring it into Order and Beauty, and to make it produce all those excellent and admirable Things, both Vegetables and Animals, which are now on the Face of the Earth.

St. Augustine says, that this is to be understood not as if the Spirit of God really moved in, or on the Waters, but that it was above, or superior to all the confused Mass, by its wonderful and sovereign Power, ordering or disposing all Things as it saw fit, like as the Will or Mind of the Architect is carried above, or is superior to the Materials he is about to build with, considering and disposing them according to his Pleasure, and the Rules of his Art. Some Jewish Writers intitle this, The Spirit of MERCIES; others, The Spirit of the LIVING GOD; and others, The Spirit of the MESSIAS, OR CHRIST.

3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night: and the evening and the morning were the first day.

It is likely that the Light was at first impressed in some Part of the Heavens, whose Revolution distinguished the first three Days, and the fourth it was restrained into the Body of the Sun, or of all the other Stars; but in a different Degree.

6 ¶ And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament, from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

The Word which we translate Firmament, signifies in the Hebrew an Expansion, by which some understand all the immense Space between this Earth and the highest Heaven; others only the Region of the Air, so necessary to the Life of all Creatures, which being at first confused in the Mass of the Elements, was now separated from it. By the Waters above the Firmament some understand the Waters appropriated to the different Planets, others only the Waters contained in the Clouds; tho' the Scripture seems to place Waters in or above the highest Heavens, Ps. civ. 3. and cxlviii. 4. but does not declare the Nature, nor the Use of them. Whatsoever they are, it is not said that they were taken or raised out of this lower Mass. The Hebrew Word for Heaven likewise seems to imply something of Water in their Composition. The Waters below, do here also signify the Water and the Earth mixed together, or the Fluid Mass spoken of V. 2.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven: and the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

Viz. he liked and approved of his Work, and took Delight in it, to preserve it.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit-tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven, to divide the day from the night:

but only that by His Word, God made them to abound or be filled with living Creatures. The Scriptures do no Way countenance, that any Thing was brought into Being, by spontaneous Generation, that is, from any other Bodies or Materials; as the Vulgar still imagine (though very falsely) that Worms, &c. are really produced or created from other corrupted Bodies; whereas, it is only the Eggs of those Creatures, hid in those corrupted Bodies, that produce them; so the Waters at first only abounded with the Creatures, after they were produced, but did not produce them; for even the minutest Insect was, and must needs be formed and fashioned by the Will and Wisdom of the GREAT CREATOR, or it never would have been in Being.

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the Earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind : and God saw that it was good.

This Expression, And GOD from that it was good, might here, and where it is else made Use of, be translated, And GOD looked upon this as good; for, as St. Austin says, we are not to think that these Things appeared good to GOD, only after they were created, as if he did not know before what they would be; but that the Meaning is, he approved of them after they were made, as finding them entirely agreeable to His Will, and the Ideas of his infinite Wisdom. The Latin Word, which we translate good, signifies in its full Sense, excellent, agreeable, pleasant.

However wonderful, however worthy of Admiration, Praise and Adoration, what we have already considered is, still higher Wonders are now presented to our Eye. And God said, Let the Waters bring forth abundantly the moving Creature that hath Life: However much we may be astonished at the stupendous Vastness and Magnificence of inanimate Matter, the least Piece of it that has Life bestowed on it, is still more admirable. Who can conceive the Nature of Life? we see it daily all around us, but we cannot comprehend it. All that we know of it is, that it enables Millions and Millions of Creatures to act as it were of themselves, and to seek and obtain such Enjoyments as give them a sensible Pleasure; but how it does this, surpasses all Understanding. We know, indeed, that every living Creature is most exquisitely made; that there are innumerable fine Nerves, strong Sinews, and stronger Muscles, that enable them to act; that the Blood is continually circulating through an amazing Number of inconceivably fine Ducts or Channels: All these are indeed most marvellous, but still the Life of Animals is something yet beyond, and we can reach no more of its Nature, than that it is such an amazing Property, as, if we think at all, must carry up our Thoughts to that Almighty Being, who dwelleth in the Heavens, and who could alone bestow so wonderful a Blessing, and not upon one only, but upon Millions and Millions.

Let us carry our Thoughts down to the Bottom of the Waters : Behold how innumerable and surprizing a Multitude of Creatures are here ! all acting as it were of themselves, all enjoying Life or feeling the Blessing that has been bestowed on them, and pursuing and obtaining those Enjoyments which afford them sensible Pleasure. How various are their Forms ! How different their Magnitudes from the small Shrimp to the stupendous Whale, whose Bulk affrights and astonishes us !

But let us turn our Eye from hence, and behold the Fowl that fly above the Earth in the open Firmament of Heaven : How numerous, how various, how beautiful are these ! See with what Ease and Agility they support themselves on the light Air ! With what incredible Swiftness do they range about the airy Regions ! What towering Heights do they ascend above the Reach of Man ! And let us hearken for a Moment to the Concert of their Music, the first Praise which God received from Nature, and the first Song of Thanksgiving which was offered to him, before Man was formed. All their Sounds are different, but all harmonious ; and all together compose a Choir, which Men have but poorly imitated.

And God said, Let the Earth bring forth the living Creature after his Kind, &c. Here wherever we turn, what Claim of all Applause ! whether we cast our Eyes to the Cattle upon a thousand Hills, to the noble and useful Horse, or to the Oxen strong for our Labour ; whether to the fierce and mighty Beasts who make the Forests their Habitation, or to the gentle, entertaining, sensible Behaviour of our faithful Dog, and other domestic Animals ; whether to the industrious Bee, who with so much Skill prepares for us a delicious Composition, beyond what we ourselves can make, or to the Worm who cloathes us in so gorgeous Array from its Bowels.

[illegible]

It is owing to that Almighty God, who is the Father of B-p'ien-ai-ai-ai-p'ien, that every God, who is the Father of the blind or obliged are, in his own proper way, has made the things that all of them taken for a duty, and that they have done their Yung, till they were obliged to give up, and that in so fulfilling the great duty, God, who is the Father of the Father of Man, that I will be able to give you the things that the immortal Number of the things that are not even milled; and we always find that the things that are only for our Want, but not for the things that are the things that God, who thus, through all Ages, filled all Things with Plenitude.

20 ¶ And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

This Manner of Confidentiality of the Person of the Holy Virgin is her eternal Will, and with this Example, with which she is the only in the Creation of Man, related to the whole of the other Creatures.

The Scriptures, in many Places, affirm, That all Things on Earth were made by or through our Great High and Mighty JESUS, the beloved Son of GOD; in St. John's Gospel He is called THE WORD; and without Him nothing was made. See St. John, Ch. i. V. 1. &c. where this great Truth is most expressly declared.

It is remarked by some of the Fathers, that God having made all Creatures by His Command or Word only, saying, Let there be light, and there was light, does, when He comes to create Man, enter up, as it as though it were something greater, than all He had yet created, to mark out the Dignity of the Human Nature, which was to be the End and Master-piece of all His Works on this Globe. And was also created the last, after the Earth was quite completed, and embellished with every Thing useful or beautiful, and all the other Creatures that were to live up to it to-morrow; that he might be seen to fit it up into a most magnificent Palace, and habitation, of which he was to be the Architect and Builder.

What we have hitherto considered, however wonderful, but the lowest of God's Works:—and a higher does His Creation rise, to manifest made in his own Image; and to his own Image. Let us first, our Father, Father of all that we see, and we do, and we shall soon cry out with Rapture, "O God, the Lord that made us, for we are wonderfully made." Need I mention the exquisite Workmanship and Command of our whole Bodies, the Finest and Utmost of the most perfect Structure of our Bones, the Strength of our Muscles, the Elasticity of the Sinews, and the wonderful and perpetual Circulation of the Blood through amazingly minute and almost innumerable Ducts or Vessels; the surprizing Alteration our Food daily undergoes to fit it for our Nourishment; and the admirable Sensations of Seeing, Hearing, Feeling, Tasting, and Smelling; these all, tho' passing Wonder, we may perhaps think not peculiarly to belong to us, as being bestowed likewise on the Brutes. But let us behold with Complacency and Gratitude, that subtle and exact Form which God has given us; which, by its Majesty, declares Man the Lord of the Creation.

By our STATURE and ERECT POSTURE, we can with Ease behold and contemplate the Heavens, as well as the Earth, and so find out God in all his wonderful Works. We alone seem framed to be Spectators of them. We can cast our Eyes all around us, take in a glorious Hemisphere of the Heavens, and an ample Horizon on Earth, with all its ravishing Beauties.

Let us next consider our HANDS, another distinguishing Mark of our Superiority: How excellently useful are these! how adapted to all our Occasions! how readily do they supply all our Wants! how do they administer to all our Desires! what is it we cannot perform with our HANDS? Let us reflect what amazing and admirable Works they have executed!

Other peculiar Properties we may discern, that God has graciously bestowed upon us superior to the rest of the Creation : Such as the admirable FACILITY OF SPEECH which Man enjoys beyond every Creature. How amazing this ! that our Tongue should so easily and readily, upon every Occasion, be able to model, and vary our Voice, that we are enabled to make known to each other every Thought of our Mind, every Want we have, every Duty we feel, that we can hold as long Discourses as we please, and converse of Subjects with each other, for our mutual Pleasure, and Improvement !

But still more than these, our SOUL or MIND make us superior to every Creature on Earth ; for it is in that we are the Image of our Creator, the LIKENESS of GOD HIMSELF. But an Angel's Tongue is not able to describe, nor perhaps an Angel's Knowledge to comprehend, the Nature and Wonderfulness of this divine Part of us. However we know and feel enough of it, " to be filled with the most profound Admiration of the Majesty, Power, and Wisdom of the ETERNAL CREATOR, when we consider the noble Faculty, the vast Reach and Compass of our Understanding, the prodigious Quickness and Pervasiveness of it, the thoroughness of its Subtilty, the Invention, the Reasoning, the Power of its Wisdom, the great Depth of its Mystery, and the vast Extent of its various Operations."

Let us think a little what an amazing Thing our Memory is, what a vast Variety of Things it retains, how, when we are every Day conversing with flesh Objects, it still preserves those we conversed with many Year past. Who can comprehend where it lays up these Things ? By what Means does it keep them all separate and distinct, so as not to confuse each other ? How can it possibly hold such a Multitude within its narrow Compass ? By what Means does it present them to us distinct and clear, when we have Occasion to recall them ? All this is indeed too high for us ; we cannot reach it, we can only wonder and adore.

Let us now reflect a little on that Property of the Soul called Traversal. But who can measure its Height and Depth ? Who can keep it within it ? It reaches the Heavens in a Moment, and quickly pierces to the Center of the Earth ; it ranges every where, and leaves no Place unsearched ; it ascends unto, and finds out the Nature, Magnitude, and Motions of the celestial Bodies, Sun, Moon, and Stars, tho' at such an immense Distance ; it penetrates into the Bottom of the Earth and the Depths of the Sea, to discover what they contain. Let us call before our Eyes the wonderful and various Inventions, Engine, Instruments, Machine, Movements, Tools, Trades, Arts, and Science, which Man has thought upon and found out : But who can comprehend by what Means he effected all these ? It is past our Understanding !

But admirable as the Properties we have mentioned are, they are the lowest Capacities of our Soul ; for it is IMMORTAL, capable of HOLINESS, GOODNESS, JUSTICE, MERCY and TRUTH ; capable of contemplating and admiring the Works of GOD, and seeing that ALL is GOOD.

It is true, Sin has sadly defaced this glorious Image ; but blessed, for ever blessed be GOD, who has more than created us ; who hath redeemed us through his only beloved Son, who has not only made us, but re-made us ; and enables us daily by his Grace, to put on the New Man, which is renewed in Knowledge, after the Image of Him that created him. And shall we, who have been twice made the Sons of GOD, after his own Image, by our own Neglect and Folly degrade ourselves into the Likeness of Brutes ? No ! Let us stir up all our noble Faculties, and continually remember our High ORIGIN ; that we are the Sons of the MOST HIGH, and have Power bestowed upon us, by the Assistance of his Grace, to become like Him, by the Practice of HOLINESS, GOODNESS, JUSTICE, MERCY, and TRUTH.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him : male and female created he them.

In the most obvious Sense of the Words, Man's Image created in the Image of GOD, may refer to the Make of his Body, and signify that he was formed not after the Fashion of any other of the living Creatures, but was made in a Pattern higher than they ; a more excellent Form than theirs was given to him : But the Words of MOSES bear also a further Sense, viz. That GOD created Man to be immortal, and made him an IMAGE of his own Eternity. And this explains our SAVIOUR'S calling the Devil a Murderer from the Beginning, (John viii. 4.) in that he had acted contrary to the Design of GOD, concerning the Life of Man ; in that, when GOD had created Man in his own Image, to be an Image of his own Eternity, to be immortal, through the Envy of the Devil, Death came into the World by SIN. But it refers still more to the SOUL, as said above.

The Female is here spoken of by Way of Anticipation, to gather together the Creation of Mankind, in its two Sexes ; for Woman was made afterward, though within the sixth Day. And MOSES does not here shew in what Manner the Man was created, as intending to do it afterwards.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it : and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

And GOD said, Let them come forth : still more Subject for our Praise and Gratitude. GOD could have only created Man with Powers and Abilities to obey every Thing that His Nature required, but he gave him Dominion over all the Fish of the Sea, the Fowls of the Air, and the Beast of the Earth. Had not this unlimited Commission been given, how could we possibly have brought every Creature to our Use and Service, or been secure from their Violence ? Would the Owl had not the Advantage made him ignorant of his own Strength and our Weakness, suffered us to have brought his Neck under the Yoke ? Would the Horse have received the Bridle into his Mouth, or suffered us to bestride his Back ? Would the mighty Elephant have suffered almost a Child to lead him ? How could we bring under Subjection the Fowls of the Air, who have Wings always ready to fly above our Reach ; or the Fish, who hide themselves in the deep Water ? Or how could we overcome the Strength and Fierceness of Lions, Tigers, and other wild Beasts ; or the flourishing Horns of our Power, that we may find out and subdued that enormous Creature Leviathan, or the great Whales, had not GOD said, Let them come forth : and by this Means, by giving them the Power of the Earth, and the Virtue of this Authority, given them, and Understanding to bring them all into Subjection, and in great Part upon those Creatures who were naturally stronger than their Lord, a Fear and a Dread of him.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed : to you it shall be for meat.

By the Mention of the Herb yielding Seed, or being fully seeded, as the Hebrew signifies, and the Tree yielding fruit, whose Seed or Kernel was in itself, it appears that every Thing was created in its full Maturity, from whence it seems to follow, that the World was created in September, which was the Beginning of the Autumnal Equinox, before the Prophets left Egypt.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat : and it was so.

It is worth our observing here, that GOD in his Creation and Providence, has Respect to the Well-being and Happiness of the smallest and meanest Thing that hath Life : His Beneficence and Love is universal, extending to ALL. And the same gracious Mandate, which ordained sufficient Food for Man through all Ages, whilst the Earth shall abide ; ordained it likewise for the meanest and most helpless Worm that crawleth upon the Earth. It is with Respect to this, that we find David in praising GOD, often calls upon every Creature on Earth, even Worms and creeping Things, to join with him in rendering Thanks and Praise to GOD. The Consideration of this should incline us to be merciful to our Beasts, and to every Creature, however despicable it may seem.

31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

And did GOD then, who possesses all Perfections and Beauty, see that all Things he had made were very good ? Did he who dwelleth in the glorious Heavens look with Pleasure and Complacency on the Things of the Earth ? And shall we through Inattention let them pass unheeded and unnoticed by us ? No ! Let us consider them but a little, and we shall presently discover amazing Beauty, Magnificence, and Goodness. When we have once begun, we shall find no End ; but still discover more and more Tokens of the infinite Power, exuberant Goodness, and ravishing Loveliness of GOD who made the WORLDS.

" But who can express the mighty Acts of the LORD, or shew forth all his Praise ? Not only Man, but Angels and Archangels cannot reach it."

" O ! how desirable are all His WORKS ! Who can be filled with beholding His GLORY ? How shall we be able to magnify Him ? for He is Great above all His WORKS ! Who hath seen Him, that he might tell us ? And who can magnify Him as He is ? There are yet hid greater Things, than these be ; for we have seen but a few of His WORKS."

" O LORD ! Very wonderful are thy WORKS ! In Wisdom hast thou made them all ! The Earth is full of thy Riches ! O that Men would therefore praise the LORD for His Goodness, and declare the Wonders that He doeth for the Children of Men ! That they would offer Him the Sacrifice of Thanksgiving, and tell out His WORKS with Gladness."

We likewise are taught in this Verse a very important Truth, viz. That whatever Evil of any Kind is now in the World, whether in the Works of Nature, or the Works of Man, has been brought into it by SIN ; for that not any Thing but what was perfect, lovely, and excellent, was created by GOD.

1 The first sabbath. 7 How man was created. 8 The description of the garden of Eden, 10 and the river that watered it. 17 The tree of knowledge only forbidden. 19-20 The naming of the creatures. 21 The making of woman, and a situation of marriage.

THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

Here let us stop and consider what we have been reading of, viz. a plain and circumstantial Account how the Place we live in was formed; how the Grass, Herbs, Trees, Fruit, and Flowers, came to grow upon it; how the innumerable Kinds of Fish, Fowl, Beasts, and Insects, were first produced on it; and how we ourselves came into Possession of it. We are informed in the foregoing Chapter, that there was a Time when this Earth was not; but that at length God, or that incomprehensible Being, who has been from Everlasting, the Self and Being. One who inhabits Eternity, saw proper in his infinite Wisdom, that he might extend his Goodness in the Communication of Happiness, to form this Earth, or Place we dwell on; providing every Thing necessary to make it a most convenient Abode, and adorning it with every Thing pleasant and lovely. That he fit that glorious Body the Sun in the Heavens, to give Light and Heat during the Day; and the Moon, as a lesser Light, to cheer (without disturbing with too great Heat and Lustre) the Darkness and Repose necessary to the Night. That he prepared for the Waters that capacious Bed we call the SEA, and that thus having provided every Thing fit and good, he last of all made Man Himself, and ordained him to be the Head of all the Creatures he had thought proper to place on the Earth; and alone capable of enjoying the whole, and, in Consequence, of rendering to him a just Tribute of Praise, for creating the Earth and all that is therein.

Here then is our Beginning; we are the Offspring of God who dwelleth in the Heavens, the Work of his Hands. This then is our End; to become the Mouth of the whole Creation, in praising and magnifying God, that his Name may be great on Earth, as it is in Heaven. Angel and Archangel, Cherubs and Seraphs, love, praise, and adore him there: We were ordained to love, praise, and adore him here. Let us, then, never forget our Original; let us not content ourselves with thinking we are born of our Parents, and seek no further; for if we reflect ever so little, we shall see that our Parents could not have given us Birth, unless that Power had been implanted in them by some superior Being. For it is evident they act only as Instruments, seeing they cannot give Birth to us at what Time they please, nor form us according to their Fancy; nor know in the least how we are shapen in the Womb. Thus by the Light of the Holy Scriptures, what a different Prospect opens to our View!

By these we learn, that we are not Beings by Chance, but that the GREAT ONE who inhabiteth the Heavens is our MAKER; that we are not the Children of Men from all Eternity, but the Offspring of God Himself; that we do not come into this World by Accident, or to no End, but by the direct Will of God, to enjoy all the Delights, and be the Head of the whole earthly Creation, that we may join with the Angels that are in Heaven, in praising and magnifying his Goodness for ever. How are we raised by this knowledge of our Original! And is then God our FATHER? Let us live like the Children of the Most High. Is God our MAKER? Let us not by Sin dishonour his Workmanship. Has God created all these good Things, and made us Lords over them? Let us continually give him Thanks and Praise.

We likewise are taught here another important Truth, which, if attended to, would correct many of the Evils and Crimes of Life, viz. That we are all truly Brethren one to another. We have all one Maker or Father, which is the Great God, who dwelleth in the Heavens; and the Scriptures likewise assure us, that we have all proceeded from the Loins of one and the same Man. How then can Envyings and Malice, and Pride and Wrath, and Cruelty and Uncharitableness, subsist between us? Thou who art envious and malicious, say, art thou of so base a Mind as to envy and wish Ill to thy own Brother? Nature reproaches thee, and thou art ashamed to say it. Know then, that every Man thou enviest, is truly thy Brother. Thou who art proud and haughty, and lookest with Contempt and Insolence on those thou foolishly thinkest beneath thee, know that they are the Children of God as well as thee, and bear his Image like thyself; and that they are even thy very Brethren according to the Flesh, as we are all descended from one common earthly Parent. Thou who art subject to Anger and Wrath, moderate thy Fury, for it is thy Brother thou art angry with. Thou who exercise Cruelty and Oppression, stop thy impious Hand; dost thou believe thyself the Offspring of God? if so, know that God, thy Father, is all Love and Tenderness; and hast thou, then, a Heart to cruelly use and oppress thy Brother, who is the chief Work of God upon Earth, as well as thyself; and who, as a Man, is beloved by God? therefore be assured, that for this God will bring thee into Judgment.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made: and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

By the Word RESTED, we are not to understand that God was weary with the Works of Creation, but only, that he had been six Days in creating different Things, he had finished and completed and perfected according to the Plan of his good Pleasure, and ceased on the seventh Day from creating any more on this earthly Globe. Accordingly, by all Account of the Antiquities of the Earth, we have not the least Reason to think that since a single Fly, the minutest Insect, or the least Vegetable, or the least Inist, the Species or kind of which did not exist within the first Creation.

Had any Thing upon Earth come in existence since the first Creation, viz. By the Word of God, or by the direct Will of God, in the Course of near 6000 Years, we should have had some new Kinds of Animals appearing, or some new Sort of Plants, or Vegetables appearing upon Earth, which had never existed before. But not the least Thing of this Kind has happened, though the Writings still remaining of very diligent Observers, are for more than 2000 Years back; so that this seems to be a corroborating Proof of Man's Account, that God created out of every Thing that is upon the Face of the Earth, and every Plant of the Field, before it was on the Earth, and every Herb of the Field before it grew. And then the Creator having executed the designed Plan, according to his good Pleasure, created no more Thing more here. But he could not create any more, as he still continued to work, as he would have created more Things would have led to the destruction of the world, as he continually supported and upheld it.

The Day on which God created the world, was a most blessed and sanctified, that is, different from all other Days, in a peculiar Manner; that is, that the first Day of the first Day, was to commemorate the Production of the first World from nothing, and to render the Great Creator the most solemn Tribute of Praise. And that the whole Creation might be it were the Picture of this Day, it was so ordered, that for the Beasts as well as Men, every Thing was to be made, that the Swell of Gratitude and Praise might break out from every Breast. And we have reason to think, that Adam and his Descendants, employed every Return of this Day in singing Praises to God, with a Heart overflowing with Joy and Gratitude. When Mankind were multiplied, it was Reason to think they met together on this Day, that their voices might be more grand and solemn.

And, as each morning Flare increased, and

In the world and in the Heavens.

This was the Practice of the first Ages of Man: And what more reasonable, what more pleasing one, than that God should extol with rapturous Hearts, Him who had given them the World, who created a World for them, a most noble and beautiful one, and who gave them all good Things? And surely, when the Reason now to come into our solemn Assemblies, with Hearts overflowing and enraptured with Love and Praise. We have not only the Creation of our World and our first Parents to commemorate and celebrate, but we have more than one Cause: we have our Redemption to magnify. Let us then, on the first Day of the Sabbath, thus commune with our Father. There was a Time when all that the Eye beholds, all that the Heart feels, all that delight the Heart, was not in Being: when the broadest Floor of the Earth, covered with Trees and Plants, was not so, nor the magnificent Canopy of the Sky spread abroad: but a Gracious Being, whose Power and Wisdom is incomprehensible, built it for the Habitation of Men, of whom I am one, and at the same Time created them with Powers to enjoy, and gave them Dominion over all that was therein. Magnify the Lord, therefore, O my Soul, with all thy Strength, and forget not such glorious Things as these! See what a glorious Habitation thou hast! Does it not deserve thy loudest Praise? Thy Enjoyments are numerous and delightful! Wilt thou not thank the Giver? Then art now going into the solemn Assembly, to give him Thanks and Praise. O! exert every Faculty! Let thy Heart be warmed to Rapture! Let the Wings of Praise carry thee up to Heaven! O! think on the mighty Wonders of a glorious World created from nothing! Think on the Benefits that accrue to thee therefrom! But if these are not sufficient to warm thy Heart with the Glow of Gratitude, think upon thy Gracious SAVIOUR, who came down from Heaven to bring thee thither, who laid aside his Glory, to crown thee with Glory and Honour, who was wounded for thy Transgressions, who bled for thy Iniquities, who laid down his Life on Earth, that thou mightest have Life and Immortality with him in the Heaven! Canst thou be cold and languid about these? Canst thou forbear to join in the Praises of thy God and SAVIOUR? Wilt thou sit with Indifference and Inattention, whilst they are rehearsing? If so, surely thy Heart is not right within thee!

There

There is Room from Scripture, as well as from the Position of the Things, to believe, that as soon as God had finished the Creation of the Earth, it appeared so glorious a World to his own Designation, as well as to all the various Orders of beings, whether Angel or Archangel, Cherubim or Seraph, or whatever other were at that Time in Being, that they all joined in one universal Chorus of Praise and Adoration to God, for this new Instance of his Wisdom, Power, and Goodness to the whole. Heavens resounded with Hallelujahs, and even the Sons of God, who had always dwelt around his Throne, and drank of the River of Pleasure which are at his Right Hand, then felt a fresh Accession of Joy. It is God himself that tells us this in the Book of Job: Will thou tell them (saith He to Job) when I laid the Foundations of the Earth, declare if thou hast Understanding? Whereupon are the Foundations of the Earth laid, or by whom was the Corner-Stone thereof laid? When the Morning Stars sang together, and all the Sons of God shouted for joy?

4 ¶ Then the generations of the heavens and of the earth, when they were created; in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens,

This according to the Signification of the Hebrew, might be expressed with greater Strength and Clearness, "This is the History of the Heavens and the Earth, when they were brought into Being; of the Earth and the Heavens, at the Time they were created by the Lord God."

5 And every plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field, before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

What we translate here BUT, would be more properly rendered (and is so by other Translations) NEITHER; the Meaning of the Verse is, not so much as a Mist ascended from the Earth to water any of its Surface.

We are too apt to attribute every Thing to Natural Causes: This seems to be the great Weakness of Human Nature, and we very rarely extend the Eye of the Mind to discern God, the GREAT CREATOR and PRESERVER working in all these; without whose enlivening Influence they would avail nothing. Because we see that the Earth now produces all Sorts of Trees, Herbs, and Plants, as it were by its own Nature, and that the Rain which comes down from Heaven, renders it fruitful; our Thoughts are apt to stop here, and think these the first Causes of the Production of all that Variety of Herbs, Trees, Fruits, and Flowers, which so delight our Sight, and are of such exceeding great Use to us for Food and other Occasions. Even the wisest of the Philosophers, tho' they thought that the Earth itself was created, yet they imagined that it afterwards produced of itself, by a certain natural Fertility, with the Help of Rain or Water, every Thing which grows upon it; but by the Light of the Scriptures we are informed, contrary to all the Imaginations of Human Wisdom, that by the Word of God only all Things were made; that there is not a Plant which God did not create and fashion before it was in the Earth, nor a Herb which he did not make before it grew; and that he had made them all before either Rain or Dew had watered the Earth, or the Earth had had any Tillage from the Hand of Man. Things were so far from being produced at first by the natural Causes that we now attribute them to, that these very Causes did not so much as exist at that Time; For God had not then caused it to rain upon the Earth, nor so much as a Mist ascended from the Earth, to water any of its Surface. God did not at first make Thing grow up to Maturity, but he commanded them into Being in full Maturity. Let us then have it always in our Thoughts, that every Thing we see growing upon the Earth, was brought into Being by the Will and Power of God only; and that the Ability which the Earth now has, with the Assistance of the Rain or Dew from Heaven, of nourishing and bringing to Perfection what is sown or planted in it, is no more than an Instrument which God thinks fit to make Use of, to continue in Being those Things which he has created.

7 And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

We are not to imagine, that what is here said of breathing into Man's Nostrils the Breath of Life, is to be taken in a literal Sense. What is here meant, is, That the Life and Soul of Man had a different Original or Beginning from his Body, and was made distinct, which they were not in any other Creature: The one we are expressly told was fashioned from, or out of Dust taken from the Ground; the other was not fashioned of any material Element, but was an immediate Influx, or Inspiration of Vitality, or the Spirit of Life from God. And in Consequence, this Spirit, or reasonable Soul of Man, on its Dissolution from the Body, returns again to God, who gave it. "The Dust shall return unto the earth as it was, and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it." Eccles. xii. 7.

That the Spirit of Life in Man differs from that in Beasts, is manifest from what is said of the Creation of it; for it is said in the former Chapter of Beasts, that God only said, Let the Water bring forth the living Creatures after their Kind, and Beasts of the Earth, &c. But it is written of Man in the foregoing Chapter, that God said, Let us make Man in our own Image, &c. and here, that He breathed into him the Breath of Life. Therefore, as the Beasts by God's Command received their Life from the Materials of Earth and Water, so are they again dissolved into the same: But the Spirit of Life in Man being immediately from God, must return to Him again.

8 ¶ And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

Most other Translations, except our's, renders this, And the Lord God had planted; for the Garden was undoubtedly planted on the third Day of the Creation, when God caused all the Plants and Trees to spring out of the Earth: For God, who does every Thing wisely, and with abundant Goodness, first prepared a most delightful Mansion for Man, before he brought him into Being. The Signification of the Word EDEN is, A PLACE OF DELIGHTS: And undoubtedly this was so in the highest Degree.

Many have been the Conjectures in what Part of the World this Garden was; but the most general and probable Opinion is, that it was situated in some Part of Chaldea, or Babylonia. The learned and ingenious Dr. Shuckford thinks, that from the Description of the River which watered the Garden, we may pretty nearly fix upon the Spot. The Garden of Eden, according to Moses, bordered upon a River made up of a Confluence of four Streams, one of which was the Euphrates, the other the Tigris. The Question then is, (says Dr. Shuckford) Is there a Place in the World where these two Rivers and other Streams join? I answer, there is, viz. at the South-East Extent of the Province of the now Irak Arabi of the Turkey's Empire, which was the ancient Chaldaea; at the Place where the Turks now have a Fortification called Korna, at which Place the Tigris or Tigris, and Euphrates, with some other lesser Streams, fall in and make one River. Let us enquire further, Do these Rivers thus joined continue to run in one Stream, as Moses mentions his River of Eden to have run down from Eden to the Garden of God? I answer, They run in one united Channel down to Bassora: From hence they are parted, and run in Streams navigable even by large Ships, in different Channels into the Persian Gulph.

The Course of the Euphrates is to be traced in all noted Writers of Geography: And it is plainly to be seen, in all the Tracts of the Country it passes through, that in no Point, but that one I have mentioned, it can be found to come to a Confluence with other Rivers, to make one Stream as Moses describes; and to part again, before it runs into the Sea. And if, as I measure it from Korna to Bassora, be not above 60 Miles, we bring our Enquiry after the earthly Paradise within a narrow Compass; and however inconsiderately some may be disposed to ridicule the Enquiry, we may reasonably conclude we cannot be far from the Spot which was the Garden of Eden, any where in the Confines of the Flow of this River between Korna and Bassora.

9 And out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food: the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

The Tree of Life was so called, because God had put such Virtue in its Fruit, as would keep Man's Body in a perpetual and equal State of Health, Life, and Strength, free from Diseases, Decay, and old Age. It was besides set in Paradise, as a Sign or Token of his Continuance in that Life, so long as he should persevere in Righteousness and Obedience; and was a Figure of CHRIST residing in Heaven, (which is the true Paradise) to be the only Means of communicating the spiritual and everlasting Life. Rev. ii. 7. 22. 14.

The Tree of Knowledge was so called by God, because from that Adam was taught what was the true Rule of Good and Evil, viz. THE WILL OF GOD; and because that in eating of it, he would prove how great a Happiness he had lost, and how much Evil he had brought upon himself, by not following the Will of God.

Some have objected to this Account, and asked, How there could be in Nature Trees that could bear such Fruits as seem to be ascribed by Moses's Account to the Tree of Knowledge and the Tree of Life: But a little Consideration will give us Satisfaction on this Head, and furnish us with an Answer; for if any one should ask us concerning Baptism: what Sort of Water can that be, which can give the Washing of Regeneration? or, concerning the LORD'S Supper; what can we come to of the nature of the Nourishment or Juices of that Bread and that Wine, from the eating and drinking of which we may be made Partakers of the Body and of the Blood of Christ? Would it be, who thinks liberally upon the Benefits intended to the doing of these Things, as God has commanded them, find himself at a Loss to understand either Matter? or would he apprehend the Things so commanded to be a mere Allegory; and that we are not invited literally to eat real Water, or to eat and drink real Bread and real Wine? Rather, how much more ready may we be and apprehend, that as we eat the Bread and drink the Wine, which God has commanded, in Obedience to His Will, that it may be God will be unto us according to His Word, to give us eternal Life, to raise us up at the Last Day; even so might Adam, having done the Will of God, when God should direct him, have intended perfect Obedience, and taken of the Tree of Life, and eaten and have lived forever. And as we come to be clothed with Water as Christ hath required, and God will give us of his Holy Spirit, both to the end to do, above what we otherwise will be able of our own Strength, presumptuously assuming to stand in our own Strength without him; so might Adam, naturally upright, not to have eaten of the forbidden Tree, and he would have continued in his Holy Obedience, and not have corrupted himself, and his Wife before God.

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pison: that is, it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold.

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onych-stone.

13. And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river—Hed Kel, that is it, which goeth toward the east of Arfina. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And the Lord God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, to dress it, and to keep it.

16 And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat :

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it : for in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely die.

Viz. Thou shalt from that Moment become Subject to Death, or a Privation of Being.

Let us not pass over this Verse in a cursory Manner; let us not be contented with the literal Sense of the Words only, but consider what it is they teach us, in their real Meaning. As the whole Foundation of the Scriptures, as well as of our Happiness, is built upon the great Lesson that is taught us in this Verse. When we are taught here then, is this, That Man, though adorned with so much Glory, though endowed with such noble Qualifications, when he first came out of the Hand of God, though he was intounded with all Things necessary and delightful, though he was constituted the Lord of the whole earthly Creation, yet God, who knew his Frame, and that he was but the Creature of his Hand, made out of the Dust of the Earth, knew that his Supreme Happiness and Safety must consist in his Connexion and Communication with his CREATOR, in hearkening to his Voice, and obeying his Words; in whatever he should be pleased to make his Will known to him; for however high Prerogatives, how great soever a Share of Happiness, however excellent Perfections the CREATOR may bestow upon his Creatures, yet, as He is the Spring, the Fountain, the Beginning, and the End, the ALL in ALL; so it must needs be the Supreme Happiness of his Creatures to be dependent on, and have a Connexion with Him. However full the River may be, it will soon be dry, unless the Communication with its Fountain be kept open; and however full the Happiness, and however excellent the Perfections of Creatures, yet, as they must by the Nature of Things be finite, or confined within certain Bounds, consequently their triest Happiness must be in having a Connexion with their CREATOR, and in having the firmest Persuasion of Mind that He is their LORD and GOVERNOR, and that they are dependent on Him for every Thing.

This Connexion with, and Dependence upon the CREATOR, must necessarily create the supreme Happiness of every Creature, whether Angel or Man; for as Happiness must arise in Proportion to the Possession of the Perfections or Attributes which can attain it; consequently the Creature who rests upon the CREATOR, (who alone possesses Power and Wisdom to an infinite Degree,) and takes Him

[illegible]

Counts of Income Tax Returns
(1990)

[illegible]

Thus Abraham, to enjoy God's gracious Promise to him, and become the Head of mighty and many Nations, was constrained to leave his Country, and kindred, and Father's House, and, according to Human Calculation, to wander a poor outcast in an unknown Land. Thus the Seed people, that he bore, were constrained to become a wandering people. The Law was not given, till it was contrary to Human Calculation, and contrary to Revelation, which God lay much upon Abraham, that he should found a fine Institution of Humanity, to be a Blessing to all the Conscience of such Revelations, which were contrary to Human Calculation, to be obeyed nevertheless, till the People should be weary, or demand of them, for the sake of their Liberty, and Liberty of Conscience, to be given, his own Land, in the Valley of the Euphrates, and the Country upon River Tigris, and the People of the Hebrews were bound to obey the Rites, and to be obedient to the Laws of the Law by this. And in this manner, at the birth of Adam, was given the Institution, not to eat of the Fruit of the Tree, that was called the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, and the first Commandment, to be given Agreement with the Law, and in the Scriptures of a like Nature, was Moses that he should frequent Revelation, when God was constrained to make a Revelation, that it approves itself, in the way of God to lead Man through the World, to his own good, in this Point, after the Law, and the Law in Principle, though he might be subject to the Law, as the different Circumstances of different Ages might require, from the very Beginning of Man, to the End of Time, and to continue the same, so that the Law be fulfilled.

Had not Adam eaten of the forbidden Tree, he would have continued in the Habit of GOD'S Grace, and not have corrupted himself in his Way before God: Not that Meat, or the abstaining from any Meat, recommended unto God: Man and Beast might have eat or not eat, and there might have been neither the better or the worse, had there not been the Commandment of God to the contrary. The Tree was in all Likeness like that of the other Trees of the Garden, pleasant to the Eye, and good for Food; but the Prohibition was to point out and inculcate, that Man was to keep himself in the Habit of GOD'S Grace, not to take upon him self to be his own independent Director, but entirely depend on his

[illegible]

The Principle is, said to be established by the Command concerning the forbidden Tree, which we have observed, That our first Parents, having sufficient Powers to direct themselves in all Things and Circumstances which belonged to their Condition, were to have proceeded in the Dark, under the Direction of God's Command, and to have made it their Wisdom and Understanding, whatever God should enjoin them, strictly to do thereafter; as Moses tells the Israelites, Deut. x. 6. "Behold, I have taught you Statutes
"and Judgments, even as the Lord my God commanded me :
"Keep, therefore, and do them ; for this is your Wisdom and Un- "derstanding." And the Consequence of our first Parents rejecting to be under this Direction, to follow instead thereof what seemed agreeable in their own Eyes, and desirable in their own Judgment, might naturally plant in them the Root, from whence have come all the Shoots that have been the great Perversion of Human Life; which duly considered, must lead us, not to think of the positive Command given our first Parents, that it was a Thing indifferent, or of no real Moment; rather, to use the Words of St. Paul, equally applicable to this the Beginning of Revealed Religion, as to the End and Completion of it, God, in giving our first Parents the Law of the forbidden Tree, abounded towards them in all His Grace and Providence, to give them, such Creature as he had made them, a Law, which observed as it ought, would in its natural Effect, have been their Life and Salvation.

We may speculate at Random as we please upon this Subject; but if what has been Fact is at all to guide us, we cannot but observe that the Beginning of Error, being once admitted, notwithstanding God's immediately proceeding to denounce and ascertain the terrible Punishment he had declared should be the Wages of it, yet the Error itself did not cease, although it could not be again committed in the same Fact that was Adam's Transgression; rather it grew in the World luxuriant and abounded. We read of one Person in the first World, that most eminently walked with GOD, in the Obedience of Faith: Enoch so herein pleased God, as to be translated; others there were who were found faithful in their Generations, in what had been revealed to them; but in the general, the Principle of doing what seemed right in their own Eyes, appears to have so greatly prevailed, that Lamech, a Descendant from Cain, some Centuries before Adam died, thought so differently from what God had most expressly commanded concerning Man and Wife, (Gen. ii. 24.) that he introduced Polygamy, Gen. iv. 19. And the World in general, in little more than the then Age, and half an Age of a Man, was become so corrupt in Man's departing from God and His Laws, to follow the Imaginations of their own Hearts, that to preserve Right and Truth from perishing from off the Face of the Earth, it became the Will of God (eight Persons only saved) to destroy the World.

And in Truth, this is still the great Error of our Lives : This is the Cause of all our present Sin and Misery : We are still bent to follow whatever seem agreeable in our own Eyes, and desirable in our own Judgment. We will not rest in the Help of God's Covenant, but follow our own Cogitations. We do not look for Happiness when it should be found, in God our Creator, but in Things. We do not look to be wretched, though He be wretched, or joyful, though He be joyful, but in our own Covetous Desires, make Him our Centre, but Gravitate. We cannot trust Him with providing for us, what is suitable and convenient, in the Manner that seems best to him, but we shall not depend all on our own Designs. Alas! how often, like Adam, do we cast the Words of our Creator, Crook to head our Back, to hearken to the Dictates of our own weak Minds! How often do we put forth our Hand to take of the forbidden Fruit! Alas! how much do we take ourselves out of the Hands of God's Covenant, to follow our own! Thou who art wholly busied all thy Life in carking and restless Cares, to provide for us, and canst rest upon nothing but thy own Providence and ever busy Sollicitude, without having any Dependence on thy Creator; that canst never be easy till thou hast gathered so much Wealth and Power as thou foolishly thinkst can set thee above Necessities, what dost thou, but like unhappy Adam, eat of the forbidden Tree, to become as God, independent, and a Self-Provider and Director? but, like him, gainst nothing but Trouble and Sorrow, Melancholy, and Frustration. All which thou mightst have avoided, hadst thou been content to have been dependant on God thy Creator, instead of being desirous to depend on thyself. Ah! What Heart-It Pains! what anxious Disquiet! what corroding Cares! what joyless Days! what disgraceful Actions! what shameful Crimes! might we avoid in our Passage through this Life, would we but look upon a God as the only Owner of all Things, who giveth and taketh away according to His Will; and would we but have Confidence in His Promises, That if we only love Him shall lack nothing. We are in Effect every one of us placed here in the same Circumstances as Adam was in Paradise; every Thing necessary is provided for us, and all we will but only do, is the Garden, that is, exercise ourselves with an Idol Industry in that Station, whatsoever it is, wherein we are placed, leaving the rest to our Good Creator; we should for the most Part pass our Day here with Ease and Tranquillity.

Thou who preferrest Sin, and followest the Dictates of thy Taste, not regarding the great and precious Privilege of eternal Life made thee by God, through His beloved Son; What dost thou, but like Adam, pluck of the fatal Tree of Knowledge; and thou wilt soon know too well, that thou hast thereby lost the Tree of Life.

Considered in the Light we have stated it, which seems a just and true one, the Command of not eating of the forbidden Tree, is far from being a Command of no Moment, and purely arbitrary, as some have represented it; but was really such as had a natural Tendency to produce the Happiness of Man, was suitable to his Nature, and necessary to be given him; and which being broken, it could not otherwise be in the Reason and Nature of Things, as God had made them, unless He had created Things anew, but that the Punishment and Ruin of Man must take Place; as otherwise Man would not have had a Way back to Honour, to Glory, to Perfection.

Ah ! wretched Mortals ! In vain do ye seek Happiness by any other Means, than by returning to God, and making Him your Director and Dependence, as His Wisdom first ordained that we should do. The more we return to this our original State, the more we create our Happiness. “ Come unto me all ye that are heavy laden, and I will give you Rest,” said the Son of God. It is only by returning to Him, that we can ever find Rest : All other Things are vain ; they may tempt us, they may promise us great Matters, but it is only to deceive and mislead us, like unhappy Adam, from a Paradise of Delight and Rest, to a wide World of Troubles ; whose Thorns will wound us, whose Briars will torment us, and whose unsatisfactory and ungracious Nature will afford us little else but Toil and Sorrow : But RELIGION, the Balm of Life, the Anchor of Hope, the Dispeller of Fears, the Haven of Rest, will carry us into the Arms of HIM, who is mighty to save from every Trouble : Defended by His Shield, though Afflictions spring out of the Dust, they shall not hurt us ; supported by His Power, though the Mighty rage, they shall not prevail against us ; guided by His Wisdom, though Snares and Evils encompass our Paths, we shall escape them all. In vain may be our Toil for Riches to secure us, but our Trust in Him will never be in vain ; the Arrows of Affliction may reach the very Pinnacle of Greatness, and Cares and Terrors climb up to us, however high we place ourselves ; but He is a Tower of Defence, a Place of Safety, a Rock of Salvation.

18 ¶ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone : I will make him an help meet for him.

The Words which our Version renders An Help-meet for him, might be translated, An Help-meet that shall be his Likeness. ADAM, before the Woman was created, heard the Voice of GOD declare, That it was not good that he should be alone, and that therefore he would make another Person after his Likeness, to be with him. This consequently disposed Adam to receive Eve with the greater Readiness and Pleasure when she was created. But it may be asked how Adam, having never before heard Words, should understand the Meaning of what the Voice of GOD spoke to him, as well on this as on the subject of eating of the forbidden Tree; but we may fully answer the Question by saying, How did the Angels, and I believe the very Demons of Creation, as GOD foreboded, mutually know Words, and the Meaning of Words, in Tongue, or Language, never heard or read, uttered by them? The Spirit of GOD in both Cases, shined in the Mind the Idea, in addition to a Hearing, was given to him, and perceived; which the Word spoken would have necessarily led a knowledge of such Words in a natural Way, by nature of the 19 And out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air, and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature that was the name thereof.

We are not to understand by this Verbi, that God now at this Juncture created any living Creatures; any way, the Word should rather have been rendered agreeable to what I am Verifying, for I created and formed; for they are not a Relation that God now made them, but a Recognition of what had been before related, that God had been the Creator of both of the Birds and the Cat, they for (Gen. i.) none of which were now made at this Time; for the one were created a Day sooner than Others, (v. 22.) the other on the same Day, but earlier and before him, (v. 24. 25.)

In like Manner, the Word all in the 20th Verse, And All things were made by Me, and without Me, was nothing that was made. All does not mean that All was at the same time, gave Name to all being Created; but are rather a Remark, that the Names of the Creatures were given by All Men, and by no other; not now all at once, for it would absurdly would have been too much for him, but then and then occasionally, some at one Time and some at another, in the Pursuit of his Line, a Incident happened to give Occasion to his speaking.

[illegible]

The Question here to be asked is, What did God bring unto the Man? Our English Version, following only 11 Translations, say, that is, every Beast of the Field, and every Fowl of the Air; for these are the Words which we must refer to. But we are to observe, that the Word that is not in the Hebrew Text. According to M. S., the Name given by Adam was, to him. The Provan is of the regular Number, not plural. And the next Sentence specifies this more fully; the Word, being not as we render the Text, that beast or creatures Adam called every living Creature. There is no Word in the Text for every. The Hebrew Words say, Whom every Adam called that, the living Creature. That was the Name of, not them, but the Text says that was the Name of him.

Thus the Poet before us appears to say, that God brought unto Adam, not all the living Creatures; for the Poet says no such Thing. God indeed made all the Creature, and M here recognizes this Truth: But God brought unto Adam but one Creature only, to see what he would call it; Adam who respon gave it a Name, and what he thus called it, that was the Name of it. God was pleased herein to bring Adam to a Trial, to shew him how he might use Sounds of his own to be the Names of Things: God called him to give a Name to one Creature, and hereby put him upon seeing how Words might be made for this Purpose. Adam understood the Instruction, and pleased according to it. For so M says: Adam gave Names to all Cattle, and to the Fowl of the Air, and to every Beast of the Field.

The Names of the Creatures were not given by any express Words from the Voice of God, but were of Adam's own making, as he proceeded to the Sounds of his own to be the Name of Thing, as himself designed the Names of them. God, as we have said, brought Adam to name one Creature: Adam had the Sense and Understanding to see hereby, how he might make Words, and make Use of them. And accordingly in the Progress of his Life, as the Creatures of the World came under his Observation, he used this Ability, and gave Names to them all.

Whatever Adam heard and understood from the Voice of God, Methuselah does not hint him to have attempted to speak a Word, until God called him to try to name some of the Creatures; and here was the first Attempt Adam made to speak: But after he had been called to this Trial, we find him able to name the Woman, and in like Manner all other Things, as his Occasions required; God having by this first Call or Direction shewn him in what Manner the Power he had given him could be employed.

20 And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field : but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

The Leitfaden, Beispiel, Übung, and Probeklausur are not hard to read, and a fair amount of the Leitfaden is devoted to the definition of a permutation. In the 1991 edition, the Beispiel is devoted to the definition of a permutation, and the Übung is devoted to a new Abbildung (a mapping) which is a permutation. The Probeklausur is devoted to a new Abbildung (a mapping) which is a permutation. The Leitfaden and Beispiel are devoted to the definition of a permutation. The Übung is devoted to a new Abbildung (a mapping) which is a permutation. The Probeklausur is devoted to a new Abbildung (a mapping) which is a permutation.

21 And the Lord God is discerning in all upon Adam, and the serpent, and the woman, and the child, and the serpent, and the woman, and the child,

[illegible]

22 And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her to the man.

21 And Adam said, This is now in my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Eve, now, because she was taken out of Adam.

The Second Chapter of Genesis must be a Continuation of the First. A Supplement to the first, wherein is related the manner of the Creation, in which Thing there had to be done, was perceived by Adam, who would place them in Order as they were created, and the Order is hinted in the first Chapter, we may read from the First Verse of the second Chapter to the twenty-third, immediately after the twenty-seventh Verse of the first Chapter: So God created Man in his own Image, in the Image of God created he him: Male and Female created he them. And then follow an Account of the Manner in which this was done, viz. the Male first formed of the Dust of the Ground, placed in a Garden, acquainted with what was his Duty there, and that it was not good for him to be alone: called upon by God to give Names to the particular Creatures; and then thrown into a deep Sleep, during which God took a Rib from him, and formed thereof the Female or Woman. And now both the Male and the Female being created, God gave them both the general Blessing, and said unto them all that Moses mentions in the twenty-eighth, twenty-ninth and thirtieth Verse of the first Chapter; and thus the two Chapters entirely agree, and one compleats the other, for it is almost needless to remark, that there is no Manner of Contradiction between the first Chapter's giving them Leave to eat of every Tree upon the Face of all the Earth, when the second shews plainly, that of one Tree in the Garden they were not to eat. It is only to be observed that the forbidden Tree was one Tree only, and that growing in the Garden: There was no forbidden Tree out of the Garden all over the World. The Restraint, as to one Tree, was enjoined to be observed by them within their Garden, but wherever they went out of their Garden into the Earth to replenish and subdue it, all was common.

1165

They named the living Creatures as they found Opportunities of seeing, and conversing them; and upon the Seventh coming in their Way, and being observed by them, he said, Human Voice. They were now the fifth Novices, and not to have remembered that a Creature could thus speak, which occurred to them, to think what is recorded, that the Novices were called to see the Beginning of the Flood, and the Deluge. Had the Seventh's speaking to them been to come in the Beginning of their Lives, as to be before they had any Observations of the other Creatures, they would have been Novices of the Seventh's being heretofore silent to other Animals; for they might have expected, that all other Animals might have spoken to them in the same Manner. Many Days, therefore, may reasonably be imagined to have passed between their Creation and the Seventh's thus speaking to them; as many as we can imagine must have intervened, before they could know the general Concerning the living Creatures, that none of them, but the Seventh only excepted, had any Power to speak to them. But we ought to remark, that they were not as yet Master of so much Knowledge as to know that this to speak could not be within the natural Powers of a Brute Creature, for it gave them neither Fear nor Amazement. Had they apprehended the Seventh's speaking, to have been an unheard miracle, and unnatural, they would, as Methuselah did, when he saw the Bull leaping with Fire, and not convinced, have turned aside to see this great Sight; they would have been greatly confounded at what could be the Meaning of so unnatural a Prodigy. But, as Methuselah repented, they heard what was said to them, and undisturbed and unmoved as they would have been by any other new, but ordinary Incident, that could have come under their Observation; so agreeably hitherto, we ought to fix the Time of Eve's being tempted. It was not until she and Adam had observed in the general of the Animal Creation, that none of them had the Gift of Speech; and they could not have observed this of the several Species of Creatures in the World in a very short Time. It happened before they knew it to be a miracle, or a thing for an Animal to speak, and therefore it unpassionably did happen in their Lives.

The Reason of Things will compel us to say, that a competent Thinker must have perked, before our first Parents could know enough to be able to kindle in their Hearts even a Concept of defiling to be wife, or a Notion of becoming so, without our Opposition to their MAKER.

Man calls the Serpent NATHAN. It is the general Word for a serpent used throughout the Old Testament, and was perhaps the original Name which Adam gave this Animal. The Word signifies an Adversary, or Foreteller of Things to come. It appears to have been Adam's Manner in naming Things, to consider some Particular observed of them, and from that to name them: Thus knowing Eve to have been taken out of him, Himself being Adam, he called her Sarah, which we render Woman. And thus he afterwards gave her another Name, and called her Chamah, or Chamah, Eve; as soon as he was told she was to bear Children, and be the Mother of all [Cō] of all her Seed, or all their Descendants who were to derive Life from them: So here the SERPENT in his speaking, foretelling that they should have their Eyes opened, and be as Gods, Adam called him the Deceiver, or Foreteller of what was to come. [Verbal]. If this may be admitted, it will further hint Adam to have lived some Time before the Temptation: for in the first Instant of Life, before he had had any kind of Practice both of Eye and Understanding, to consider the Difference between seeing and knowing immediate Objects, and considering and pronouncing Things that afterwards should be, he would not have been able in any way to give the SERPENT a Name implying such a considered Sentiment concerning him.

Moses does not hint that Eve had to go any where from the Place where she had eaten, to carry off the Fruit of the Tree to her Husband : But she took of the Fruit of the Tree, and did eat, and gave also unto her Husband with her, and he did eat. The Point treated proceeds without any Discontinuance : Her Husband was with her at the Time she eat : She eat and reached to him, and he partook of what she had taken, and eat also. The SERPENT indeed spake to Eve only, and she only replied to him : She admitted his Temptation; and added a Sentiment of her own to strengthen it. The SERPENT told her she should in eating become wise : She had no Fear of being over wise, though the Danger threatened was, that she should therein destroy herself ; but professed herself to see, that the Tree was good for Food, and that it was pleasant to the Eyes, and a Tree to be desired to make one wise ; she considered not, not knowing, that there could be no Wisdom, nor Understanding, nor Counsel against GOD : And Adam, we read, hearkened unto the Voice of his Wife. Eve, by what she added to what the SERPENT had said, led her Husband to be deceived also. This we take to be the true Meaning of what the Scriptures declare to us upon the Subject : But it will be said, There are much greater Points than what we have mentioned, that ought here to be well explained ; as,

1. How is it possible that a Serpent should speak, as Moses supposes? We answer, we have so clear a Judgment of the natural Capacity and Abilities of the Brute-Creation, that we may be allowed to say, 1. That the SERPENT could not of himself be able to speak the Words which Moses relates to have come from him.

[illegible]

The Principles of Political Economy is a book that has been read by every student of political economy, and it is one of the most valuable books in the world. It is a book that has been read by every student of political economy, and it is one of the most valuable books in the world. It is a book that has been read by every student of political economy, and it is one of the most valuable books in the world.

[illegible]

iii. 221.

(1) The Commission has been informed that the Government of the Republic of the Philippines has agreed to accept the Commission's findings and recommendations in the case of the late President Ferdinand E. Marcos. The Commission has also been informed that the Government of the Republic of the Philippines has agreed to accept the Commission's findings and recommendations in the case of the late President Ferdinand E. Marcos.

[illegible][illegible]

Thus we came to tell, but that God's permitting an Apostate Spirit to tempt the new Race of Man, might be of great Use to an infinite Number of various Orders of Beings, Angels, Arch-Angels, &c. so it showed them that there was no Power or Device that could prevail against God to destroy any of His Works; that his Wisdom was infinite, and knew how to turn every Evil into Good,

Fernando de Alencar, Pau-Brasil, by GORDON,
JAMES MONTGOMERY, and others, pp.
160. New York: The Century Company.

that His Care and Love extended to all His Works, and consequently, His Love was born from the Attack of the malevolent Angels, and that His Sovereignty was His and universal Love, and by Law, that the Christian Spirit prevailed in his Army, against Evil Men, yet that this, through the angelic Word, and Love of GOD, ordaining His beloved Son as a Ransom, "Marked" a new way to the Race of Man to a higher Race of Being, and more perfect Happiness; they could not but consider Him a GREAT BEING who presided over them, in a more full and regal Light, as the GOD of Love to all His Creature, than they had ever done before; and, perhaps, they never before had had such an extraordinary Influence, that He was the King, Power, the Wisdom, and the Goodness, Ever and Ever. And it is not improbable, that all Heavenly Armies with more than usual Gladness resounded with Hallelujahs, like those the great MILITARY supports on the Occasion, in the following Words:

Great and st. Work, JEHOVAH; infinite Thy Power: What Thought can measure THEE? or Tongue Relate Thy Deeds: -----
 Who compare THEE, mighty King? or bound Thy Power? or English, the proud Attempt
 Of Man to emulate, and their Corrupt, vain,
 Their oft repeated; while impiously, the thought Thine to surpass, and from Thee with bare
 The Number of thy Worshippers. Who quit
 To let, THEE, against the Purge of Justice
 To set up the name of MY MIGHT: His End
 To make good to them, what he call'd st more GOOD.

[illegible][illegible]

We are to consider further, that all Obedience must be free, or it can neither be a Proof of Faith and Submission to the Governor, or render Him any Honour or Pleasure, nor can it give Virtue or Praise to the Governed. It therefore does not seem consistent even with our Apprehensions of the Order of Things, that God should use any absolutely compulsive Force to prevent the Fall of Man, or that he should take away from him all Possibility of falling. For this would have been to destroy the very Nature of Allegiance, Faith, and Love towards himself, and of Virtue and Praiseworthy in Man; therefore, all that seems agreeable to the Nature of Things was, that God should make Man, as we have Reason to think he really did,

Sufficient to have food, though free to fall.

And while our Reason can thus justify the Ways of God, in not preventing Evil from coming into the World in the Manner it did, we may at the same Time see most abundant Reason to adore and magnify His wonderful Wisdom and Goodness, who ballanced this Evil by so great a Good as the Salvation of Mankind by JESUS CHRIST; which displayed to all Orders of Beings, in the fullest and most glorious Manner, His unsearchable Wisdom, Power, Justice, and Goodness. What tho' Sin, and Misery, and Death, have by our first Parents Fall, come into our present State, and most must reign upon all, until the Son we are in be accomplished; God hath ordained that Christ shall reign in the Right hand into Eternity Everlasting, by his CHRISTDOM, and by an Everlasting Adie, from Christ, shall all be made live. And so that was drawn from Prophet, GOD at the same Time prophesied, saying that he might enter into the loss of Heaven. And that he was drawn from the Tree of Life, lost an eternal life, possessing God's exceeding Love, gave him at the same Time an eternal inheritance with Himself, to sit together at a King and Her with Jesus CHRIST in the Kingdom of GOD.

From the View of the great Plan we may in some Measure comprehend the amazing Height, and Depth, and Length, and Breadth of the Wisdom and Power, and Goodness, and Glory of GOD, in all the Plan of Creation; and, besides this, we must acknowledge, that we cannot be competent Judges of the Works of GOD, and that, therefore, there may be many more most wise Designs in GOD'S Council, which has been effected by what has happened to Man. For many wise and good Ends may be answered by the Actions of a superior Being, which seem very unaccountable and strange, and even monstrous, to an inferior one. Thus the Brutes in no wise comprehend the Reasonableness or Meaning of those various Actions of ours, whereby we sometimes use them in one Way, sometimes another: Our superior Reason sees the Ends and Use of them, and thereby produces their Welfare, as well as our own. Thus Childhood in no wise comprehends the Reasonableness of that Discipline he is put under, and that Pain he is obliged to, tho' through it he obtains in the End the most useful and desirable Things. GOD only knows what the present Situation of Man, may not contribute to the Benefit of some other Orders of Being. How they who stand in the most immediate Presence of GOD, are affected by the Service rendered to Him, by Beings who live by Faith and not by Sight, is more than we can tell; we at least have Reason enough to make us think, that they are Spectators of all we do, and must therefore influence in our Behaviour.

But it has been objected, that supposing I was inclined to do sweet great Ends, that an evil Spirit should tempt me to do my our first Parents, yet that he should be permitted to tempt them in the same manner of doing it, as described by M. That the Temptation of a Spirit should be made Use of by an evil Parent Spirit, and this only to persuade our first Parents to do a Thing, not for either good nor evil, to eat of the Fruit of a Tree only because God had bid den him not to eat of it. All this does in no wise seem to be the Procedure of a subtle and intelligent Being. It seems more natural that such a Being would have endeavoured to have put evil Thoughts and Inclinations, into their Minds. But to this it may be replied, that this is so far from being a reasonable Objection, that it rather proves the Truth of the Account, as in this it appears to prove the Power, Wisdom, Goodness, and Justice of the SUPREME BEING, and that He orders all Things wisely, and in proper Measure. Had he permitted any evil Spirit to have suggested or instilled evil Thoughts and Desires into the Minds of our first Parents, this would have been an unequal Conflict, and no Way left for Man to escape; GOD therefore did not permit the Tempter to use this Method, but one in which Man stood upon an equal or superior Footing, and could not be drawn aside but by the Disobedience and Naughtiness of his own Heart; and there was besides, in the very Nature of Thing, a Reason why the Tempter, even supposing him left at his own Choice, should rather persuade Man to break a positive Command of God, however immaterial and less criminal in its own Nature, than to commit an immoral and vicious Act; for in the one Case, he would if he succeeded sap the very Foundations, but in the other, only deface some particular Part, which might possibly be soon repaired.
 Absolute Obedience to all God's Command, was the very Foundation Stone of Man's Happiness; it was to be the Light to his Paths, a Guide to his Ways, the Direction of his Life, the Summit of his Felicity, his Beginning and his End, his All in All.
 When therefore the Tempter had persuaded Man to seek for Happiness in any other Way, than in hearkening to and obeying God's Word or Direction, (and that this was done in persuading him to eat of the forbidden Fruit is evident) he in a far more effectual Manner ruined the Happiness of Mankind, than if he had persuaded him to commit any Act, the most immoral in its own Nature. Shame and Repentance, and his Experience of the Worthless-nesses and Deformity of Sin, might in this Case, perhaps, have soon through God's Mercy, restored and brought back Man; but when the Seeds were once sown in his Heart, that he could become happy independent of God; all was overthrown, the Connexion between the Creature and Creator was destroyed, the destined Ordinance or Dispensation of God for Man, the very Means or Spring of Happiness and Order cut off, and consequently Misery and Disorder introduced.

Can we doubt of this being so ? alas ! alas ! our own sad Experience may convince us of it. How glorious a World do we still live in ! how many Blessings does it produce ! how much Happiness is it capable of affording, did but Men think their Happiness to consist only in obeying the Will of God, and hearkening to His Words ; instead of foolishly thinking that it can be found in Riches, or Grandeur, or Pleasure, or in any other Thing but GOD. Agreeable to this, it is a most certain Truth, that the more. Man returns to Gong, the only friend he has left, and is dependent on his Creator, the only person he can trust. He is a man of the desert. As he is, he has a story to tell.

[illegible][illegible]

That the Incident of Wahgah is recorded by the Esquimaux of Ellesmere Bay, and is probably probably, possibly, or significantly, in which bears the same Esquimaux name. Thus, when Hagan, with her Son Lumak, had wandered for a time in the Wilderness of Esquima, without Water, and their Child were in Danger of perishing for Want of a Supply, Mak said, "The Land opened to me, and she gave a drink."

We have no Reason to suppose, that Man meant here to imitate us, of a Miracle being done: Undoubtedly the Weather in the same Place before the Law fit, as it was afterwards, and the People might be in Reality as open before the Law fit Weather, as when they eclipsed it; but they then turn'd them to the Place where the Sun was, and saw what before they had not observed. And thus, according to Man's Expression, was having their Eyes opened. And in the same Sense Man writ it of our first Parents; and possibly he the rather made Use of it here, as the Teacher is much inclin'd to signify some extraordinary Advantage; but all this is nullified by eating of the Fruit, was only to perceive, in a stronger Manner than they had ever done before, that they were sinners. This was all that he was intended to.

The next Question is, In what Sense did they know themselves to be naked? And here, Dr. Crackent says, both later Commentators, and many ancient and grave Writers, have immediately tried. It is generally thought (says he) that Nakedness now first became a Shame. But Moses in no wise gives any such Intimation: He tells us of a very different Passion here raised by it; it gave them Fear. Adam was not ashamed, but afraid; he was in fear, and therefore hid himself: And it is obvious to see the just Reason he had for this Sense of his Condition. The Word which we render NAKED, has indeed in the general this its most obvious Signification; but it is used in other Senses by a Sort of Metaphor in many Places of the Scriptures: And in the Place before us particularly we ought to take it, as it is used in the Book of Jeh: Hell (says that Writer) is [Naked] naked before him, and Destruction has no Covering, (i. e.) Hell and Destruction lie open, not concealed from the Eye, nor in any Way covered from the Vengeance of GOD.

And how natural was it for them, going in the Paths of this Theory, to be reminded to consider how to guard against him who had severely threatened what they had committed? Alas! their Eyes now told them they had no Covering; neither could they think how to find a Shelter that might protect them: However, they attempted to do the best they could, They sewed Fig-leaves together.

The next shew them what the particular Things were which they were to expect; or how or when they were to be accomplished. In the same Manner, we find the ancient Prophecy did not always particularly intend what was revealed to them, to be by them given to all over the World. Thus the Prophet Daniel tell us; viz. after a very extraordinary Vision, which he reports in his last Chapter, immediately add, "I have seen, but I cannot tell." I saw, O my Lord, But I could not tell of that Thing. And the Spirit of God, given unto him, says, to thee I will give the Secret of the Book. Neither is there any Reason to imagine the same Prophet, as it hath been said, had wrote down what had been revealed unto him concerning the Rise of Christ; as some have thought. For Perpetua, exactly understood, what Manner of Time was before signified before-hand, or how that which was revealed to him was to be fulfilled in the Flesh, is not clear. It is true, that St. Paul writes, On the third Day he shall rise again. Or that their Reason to think that Daniel, to whom it had been foretold, that His Soul should not be left in Hell, neither should God's Holy One fall into Corruption, could have hence been able to deduce, that Christ, or even any one of his, Daniel's Descendants, should be dead and buried; and on the third Day be raised from the Dead? Or that even Moses, who recorded the Words which GOD had thus spoken to our first Parents, and afterwards that in Abram's Seed all the Nations of the Earth should be blessed; and afterwards that Isaac should come of the Tribe of Judah, and to wit, that GOD would give the Patriarch a Prophet from among their Brethren like unto him, that they should hear him; can we say that Moses could have explained, as St. Paul was able afterwards to shew, who the particular Person was, that was to be this Seed of the Woman, the Seed of Abraham, the Servant, the Prophet who was to come, and in what particular Manner all that had been foretold should in Him be fulfilled? Prophecy was designed to point before-hand to some thing which was afterwards more fully to be revealed, to create in those unto whom it was given, Expectation of Things not yet fully explained to them; which Things were in the Process of Ages to be further enlarged and opened, as GOD should think fit; and more to shew the Contents of them; until, when the Time was come that the whole was fulfilled, they unto whom the Things foretold were accomplished, might look back, and by going from the Beginning what had been said, before say on but GOD knew how these Things should be, might hereby have a new Method than could possibly have been contrived for any other End, to shew them, that the Things thus foretold, and thus accomplished, were of GOD: And such is that Series of Promise or Predictions began in the Words now spoken by GOD to our first Parents, enlarged, and more specified as to their Meaning, by some farther Prophecies given in after Ages; until, at the End of about four thousand Years, a Person appeared, in whose Life and Death, Resurrection and Glory, the whole of what had been foretold, was clearly seen to be fulfilled truly and literally; but yet so foretold and so fulfilled, as that no man before the Things were come to pass, ever so understood the Prophecies, as to think that thus would be the Event of them: Whereby it was the more demonstrably proved, that the whole was GOD'S Word; for, as He only could declare the End from the Beginning, mark out truly before-hand the Traces of his own deep Counsels and Designs; so what had been foretold by him, was always so imperfectly understood, as to be looked for by Men quite otherwise than it came to pass: And therein it became evident, when it was come to pass, that no Human Contrivance was in the fulfilling it, any more than in the foretelling it; for had there been Human Conspirence in it, it would have been brought about to have been fulfilled in quite another Manner.

It appears, therefore, from this View of what may be called similar Incidents, that tho' our first Parents might understand from what was spoken, that the Enemy who had hurt them would at length be conquered; yet, it is probable, they were not informed who this Enemy was, nor what the Contest was that should be with him, and against him, nor how, nor by whom in particular, he should be subdued. But notwithstanding this, there is no Ground for thinking, that they apprehended any Thing here said, to concern or relate to the Serpent, as an Animal; had they understood GOD to mean, that there should be continual War between Mankind and Serpent, that the Serpents should bite the Heels of Men, and that Men should crush and bruise to Pieces the Heads of Serpents, we should certainly have had some Account of the Endeavours of Mankind in the first Ages to have destroyed these their Enemies. And indeed nothing would have been more natural, had the Words been understood in this Light, than for our first Parents to have endeavoured instantly, to have bruised the Head of this their Enemy. But we find not the least Intimation of this Sort: And if it be allowed, that having no Weapons then, they might be afraid it might bruise their Heel, it is unaccountable that they should never afterward, contrive themselves, or put their Posterity upon doing it, some Method of destroying this hostile Creature: And had this been the Case, as we have an Account of the Inventors of all useful Arts and Contrivances for the Benefit of Mankind, there would certainly have been some Mention made of those who had exerted themselves in so important a Matter, as finding out Ways of destroying this grand Enemy, between whom and the Human Race there was to be perpetual

When the first of these was written, the title of the tract was "The Right of to Hunt the Wolf." The tract was packed in a box, and sent to the was preserved in the "Ark of the a hundred to Mr. and Mrs. [name] from a set of other Circulars. Un-be, than the Society, that the to themselves, and that the they considered to be the being paid and sent by the by publishing the tract of Mr. [name]
 "The Right of the Woman to
 "to be the first of the "Hail!" It is a mark of the
 A man to be a principal Party
 "The Right of the Woman to
 "The Right of the Woman to
 "The Right of the Woman to Woman only, and the Seed and her Seed. New Woman, because he ther indeed could any Seed of the Woman be Woman was taken out of

[illegible]

We who live in these last Days of the World, unto whom in the Gospel, the Kingdom of GOD is come, may go on to see what the Purpose of GOD is, which was the Beginning of the Foundation of the World; but is now most manifest. We may see JESUS CHRIST, a Manifestation of GOD, of the Seed of the Woman, most literally speaking, as born of a Virgin; descended from DAVID, who was of the Seed of Abraham, a Descendant of our first Parents; and may know of this one Person, that he is to conquer that old Serpent, called a Devil, a Satan, who deceived the whole World, of whom we may consider the Words to have come, that were spoken by the Serpent to Eve; tho' our first Parents saw him not, neither understood that they came from him. We may further understand, that by the Power of CHRIST, this the great Enemy of Mankind will be cast down, whereby will finally be accomplished in a most literal and true sense, all that the Text before us first intimated, and all that has been since said pursuant thereto, either by immediate Revelation from GOD Himself, or by the Mouth of all His Prophets since the World began.

The Words of the 14th and 15th Verses of this Chapter, seem to have been literally spoken by the Voice of GOD, and the former Part of them in the Way of Apophrophe to the Serpent, but for the Instruction of ADAM and EVE; for that the Serpent did not know the Words, nor the Meaning of them, nor was in any wise affected by them; but that ADAM and EVE were herein remonstrated to, and informed how basely they had been deceived, and by hearkening to how abject and contemptible an Animal. The invisible Agent, whose Words the Serpent had spoken, was undoubtedly at this Fruit; this Supposition is founded upon what is said in the sixth Verse of this Chapter, And when the Woman saw that the Tree was good for Food, and that it was pleasant to the Eyes, and a Tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the Fruit, &c. For, they say, (say the Espousers of this Opinion) could plainly know from her Senses, that the Tree was desirable to the Eye, it was impossible she could know that it was good for Food, but from the Example and Experiment of the SERPENT. It was also impossible she could know, that it was desirable to make wise, but by the Example of the SERPENT, whom the Law from a Brute become a rational and vocal Creature, as she thought by eating that Fruit. It is likewise thought by some, that the SERPENT was before of an erect and very beautiful Form, and that its present Condition is the Effect of the Sentence passed on him; for they argue, that as the Serpent was the Instrument of Evil, (who it was in itself incapable of any Guilt) it was highly proper that GOD should degrade it, to let ADAM and EVE see, that the WICKED SPIRIT, who had employed the Serpent's Organs to their Hurt, was not able to defend his own Instrument from immediate Disgrace; and it was likewise proper, that some signal Mark of Vengeance should be executed against the Instrument of Evil, in Manifestation of God's invincible Abhorrence of Guilt; and the Punishment of the Serpent was also a Sign, that the Devil should be punished and overcomen. Others suppose the Devil chose to have transacted the Whole himself, under what Form or Appearance they pretend not to determine, and that the Form SERPENT is used metaphorically, to denote immediately this WICKED Being.

But whether we think this, or that a real Serpent appeared under the Management of the Evil Being, says the learned Bishop of London, it makes no Difference in Regard to the main Point. For it being agreed on both sides, that an evil Being was the Tempter, it signifies little in this Respect, whether he was only called a serpent, or whether he made use of a serpent, as the instrument of his Deceit. “As to myself,” says he, “how do you fully resolve I rejected much Temptation, and so I cannot” “thus Case, the more inclined I am to think, that a real Serpent” “was seen by E. E.” “That the Devil was the Tempter, (which is the chief Matter) we are informed by Him who knew all Things. Our Saviour plainly declares this, in His Parable of the Tares, and his Exposition of it, Matth. xiii. 39. &c.”

Our SAVIOUR explains this Parable, and applies it to GOD'S Government of the World, for the Instruction of his Disciples, to whom it was given, to know the Mysterium of the Kingdom of Heaven. The Field is the World, the good Seed are the Children of the Kingdom, the Tares are the Children of the Wicked One. -----Here then our SAVIOUR had the great Point before him; How came Evil into the World? All the Answer he gives to it is, the Enemy that soweth the Tares is the Devil. Could our LORD be ignorant of the History of the Fall, and of the first Introduction of Evil into the World? Or could he forget it when he was accounting for the Work of Providence, with respect to the Beginning of Evil, that every where abounded? He does not indeed enter into the curious Questions relating to the Origin of Evil, but he tells us who first brought it in, the Devil. The Devil, therefore, was that very Serpent who tempted Eve, that Enemy who sowed those Tares, which have overpread the World.

When our LORD tells us, that the good Seed was sown by THE SON OF MAN, and that the good Seed are the Children of the Kingdom, and the Tares are the Children of the Evil One, can we doubt whether he had in View that Part of the Prophecy, I will put Enmity between thee and the Woman, and between thy Seed and her Seed. As our LORD has expressly told us, that the Enemy who brought Evil into the World, was the Devil, he has as clearly, it attended to, told us, that the Rethrone of Righteousness, was that very Seed, promised to the Woman, who was to bruise the Serpent's Head. The good Seed he sows was sown by THE SON OF MAN. Who is this Son of Man? Every Man, every Son of Man is not a Sower of good Seed. Far other Sense. THE SON OF MAN then must denote some particular Person, distinguished from all other Children of Men: Let us see who this may be. Every Man is undoubtedly a Son of Man, and may be so tiled; but THE SON OF MAN emphatically, and distinguished from other Sons of Men, is a Title never applied to any other Person but to our SAVIOUR. That it is emphatically, and in a peculiar Sense applied to him, may be seen in considering what is ascribed to him in the Gospel in Virtue of this Character: The Son of Man hath Power to forgive Sin, Matth. ix. 6. And in the Exposition of the Parable now before us, we read, the Son of Man will send forth his Angels, and they shall gather out of his Kingdom all things that offend, and them which do Iniquity, and shall cast them into a Furnace of Fire, &c. Matth. xiii. 41. 42. The Son of Man shall sit on the right Hand of the Power of God, Luke xxii. 69. and to mention but one Place more: God hath given him Power to execute Judgment, because he is the Son of Man, John v. 27.

Can any of these Things be affirmed of any other Son of Man ? Can every or any Son of Man forgive Sins ? or judge the World ? and yet this Judgment is committed to him, BECAUSE he is the Son of Man. Considering him then as a Man, and yet entitled to be stiled emphatically THE SON OF MAN, what is there to distinguish him from all other Sons of Men ? If he is indeed THAT SEED promised to the Woman, who was to bring the Seed sown in Her, through whom were to be manifested all the prophecies of Mercy and Judgment uttered by our Lord and Prophet, as the plain Reason why he is called the Son of David, being that, by Son foretold, on whom the Hopes of the World rested from the Beginning.

As such a victim, being the Seed of the Woman, and the Son of Man, to the Deity, as probably he is under the form of a serpent, is for the time being the Great Serpent, and wicked spirits, and Men are fiend Serpents and fiend Men, and are denominated a Brood of the Devil. The fiend himself, the Great Fiend, the Condemner, is fiend the Devil, and Satan is the fiend the Devil. Revelation. We see then, that the Conflict between the Right and Wicked, between Righteous and Wicked acts, has for ages, fighting been carried on by the Serpent and his Seed on the Snake, and the Son of Man, the Seed of the Woman, on the other, engaged to the ancient prophecy given at the fall of the Devil is called the Last One, to Conquer is called the Just One. The Serpent under the influence of the Last One, and the Son of Man, have had perpetual strife to condemn, or condemn the World.

It is very remarkable too, that the same God has been the great Object of Idolatry in almost all Ages and Countries; so that if we reflect how extensive this kind of Idolatry has been, how it has spread over the whole World, we may justly perhaps think the first Prophecy has been more literally accomplished, than it is generally supposed; and that the Cross, the emblem of our redemption with his blood, and the box of Noah, the Ark of our Salvation, have been in perpetual Ministry, and have continued the appointed Time comes for destroying the Powers of the Evil One.

Thus we have endeavored to do our duty, by the count of the great Father, who has made us men, by whom I speak, even the Father of Nature, as well as in the World, and who has justly come from the Throne of GOD, to save Ourselves, and who has made Man's death necessary, by some Means, and deduced his original birth. His original birth but they can go farther, I will tell you youd then Reader, that's His original birth of Truth, as per the Father, and the and the Perceptions of the Father, and the what is full of many more to say, and the Father Love, found out a way of redeeming Man, and only restoring Him, and exchanging him to and Perfection. That's the Father, and the worth our very frequent and true Religion.

We may likewise learn from what he hath related, how we may be drawn aside from GOD to our Del. actions, by our own Lusts, and the Indulgences of this Evil Spirit, who is so seduced by that which cannot be, God's Work, that even he so violently, not only against Flesh and Blood, your own Conscience, and Inclinations, but against Providence, and Powers, and the Rulers of Darkness in high Places, by which means he can be meant, but this great Ap. Spirit and his Afflictions. Think you that it was Adversity only he meant to destroy? No; he tells us about his own strong Lusts, and his own Indulgences. He is intent to our first Parents, so does he to us, by stirring up in us our own Heats to persuade us, that we may rejoice in GOD. He is often intimating, that God's Dispositions towards us are swift and generous, and prompting us to enter into League with our GOD. He cannot bear to see more than at first, that Man should have any Dependence on his Creator, therefore he is continually setting before our Eyes the Omnipotency of Riches and Power, to secure us from Evil and bestow Happiness, and consequently pushing us on to make it our first Care to obtain them. In every Thing he represents to us our own Strength and Wisdom, as our chief Support and Stay: Alas! how fond does he succeed in all this! and then he exalts with Joy, for he knows that Man must always be miserable, when he places his Dependence on any Thing but his Creator. Oftentimes he assures us, that what GOD has forbid may be enjoyed with Pleasure and Advantage: Sometimes he flatters us with specious Hopes of great Things, from what will produce nothing to us, (like the forbidden Tree) but Misery and Evil. Thus various Ways does he draw us to Destruction, and all like as he dealt with unhappy Eve, under the Appearance of promoting our Good. Such are the Delusions which daily beguile us, such are the Suggestions of our own corrupt Inclinations, or of our great Adversary, the Devil: And these are exactly the same in their Nature, as those which deceived our first Parents, viz. "Setting up for ourselves, independent of God, and seeking our Happiness in other Things than He has placed it."

The Holy Scriptures are Truth itself, therefore they are the same in every Part. They teach the same Doctrine, the same Faith, the same Principles, and describe the Human Nature just the same, throughout from the Beginning to the End of them. Thus we find the first Temptation, in the Beginning, was in direct Opposition to the Word of God: In Deuteronomy 7, and St. Matthew we are taught, that Man liveth by every Word that pro- in Eden we were happy, and of the Prince of Eternal Life, that are in Christ Jesus, which will enable us to partake and patiently continue in Well doing. Through Faith we may pass through this World a Stranger and Pilgrim, looking for another Country, and a City whose Builder is GOD. By Faith we become Inheritors of the Promises, and the Remembrance of Rewards. Thus, in the beginning, Abel offered unto GOD a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, in that he had Respect to the Promises of GOD: They brought therefore unto God the firstborn of their flock, and embraced them, and were made accepted of him, as being Righteous for the Righteousness of Abel, who was a Good and Upright Man, and being the firstborn of Abel, who was GOD's firstborn, as being from the Seed of the Woman. The Christian many Writers are of Opinion, that the Offering which Abel brought, was a propitiatory Sacrifice for sin, an Offering of Freedom or Licence to a Divine Command given to our first Parents in the Fall. At which Time GOD having determined what should be the Fulfillment of Time, be the true Propriety and Justice of the World, namely, Cain, who by his wickedness, should be the great Redemption, thought fit to appoint that Abel should be saved by Way of Redemption for the Time then present, by presenting that Offering, which was afterwards to be made by the Seed of Neph.

[illegible]

That Abel's Sacrifice was of this kind, is manifestly proved by what I have said in Hebrews, in the fifth Verse of the 11th Chapter. God is more willing to accept Sacrifices than Cows. Now the Nature, of which several Instances, all of the same Nature, are given in this Chapter, as well as of Abel's, is the Belief of something declared by GOD : and in Consequence of such Belief, the Performance of some Action enjoined by GOD. Therefore, if GOD at that Time had made no Declaration, or given no Command about Sacrificing, there would have been no more of the Faith treated of in this Chapter, in Abel's Sacrifice than in Cain's Offering. But Abel acted by or through Faith ; that is, believed what GOD had then promised, That the Seed of the Woman should bruise the Serpent's Head. In Consequence of such a Belief, he offered such a Sacrifice for his Sins, as GOD had appointed to be offered, until the Seed should come. And he came a Prisoner for Crime and Punishment, and brought the Atonement appointed for Sin. Cain appears before GOD as a just Person, wanting no Repentance ; he brings an Offering in Acknowledgment of GOD's Goodness and Power, but no Atonement in Acknowledgment of his own Weakness.

We have nearly a parallel Case spoken of in the Gospel, which is exactly similar in its Nature and Circumstances to that of Care and Bar. viz. the Pharisee and the Publican, who went up into the Temple to pray. St. Luke xviii. 12. The Pharisee, like Care, brought his Tithes and Offerings, to the Lord, and returned out in thanksgiving; but the Publican concluded a Prayer, saying, GOD be merciful to me a Sinner. The judgment which our SAVIOUR passed upon each two, may let us see the Grounds of the Difference between the Offerings of Care and Bar. and why GOD had not Respect to CARE'S. “For he said (St. Luke) of himself, this Man (viz. the Pharisee,) exalted himself above all that he offered; whereas the other (viz. the Publican) abased himself; and he that humbled himself, shall be exalted.”

5 But unto Cain, and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

6 And the Lord said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

Here GOD is pleased in the first Rising of Cain's Anger and Envy, to reason with him, in order to turn him from it; and tells him, that he had no just Cause to be angry, for that if he did well, he would be accepted as well as Abel; but if he did not well, Sin lay at his Door: By which is meant, either that it was his own Fault, and he had no one to blame but himself; or rather, as many Commentators render and understand it, A SIN-OFFERING laid at the

[illegible]

8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother : and at carn : to pals with they were in the field, that Cain rofe up againft Abel his brother, and flew him.

Here, alas! my eye began to be visited the friendship between the Strong and the Weak. The evil power soon brought forth Fruit: The Faces of the Wicked One, to my young eye, among the White, Ala! unhappy Earth! I saw the dreadful Effects brought into the World by your murdering your Brethren, your Cruelty to the Weak and old; that first Act of Violence in the World, perpetrated in the Garden of Eden, to guard it, until the very last Impulse of the Passion, which, in the very Father of Nations, could create a Brother to deny a Brother's Name, and your first murdering his black and red Native, in the very Moment of his birth, the Murder of a Brother; not even the Voice and the Name of GOD then.

Q And the Lord said unto Cain, Why art thou so downcast?
Why brother? And he told him, saying, I have sinned: but how know I? I have sinned: but how shall I find grace in thy sight?

What shall prove me SLY? I'll be HONEST, and so I will PROVE it, by the way, that I am not a LIAR, and so I will tell you, I have had a great deal of love from many

10. And he said, You had thought that some of my brothers had cut the umbilical cord with the ground.

11 And now ye that curse him in the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive his blood from thy hand,

12 When thou till't the Ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength. A fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

Thus deceitful are the Hopes of the Wicked: Thus base they become the Beguiling, and thus wild they be, alas! to the Lord. C. 2. And Design in killing his Brother, not to have made himself great and flourishing, and to have enjoyed a continu'd Companion with him, with GOD or Man: But he was disappointed, as every Christian is. The Countess was Patient, and so was our Son, for Severus, &c. He was a young, a pious, a good, a husbandly and pious, and a good sort of Person, who, in our Favour, was not a Rival, in what we esteem his Merit. He was not so lively, nor so good, that happy Countess, with the Duke, when it was the Age of the World, and his with our Prince was to be a Friend, and a Friend, and a Friend, and a Friend, to live among this Friend, with Countess, and our Prince, that the Son of what he had done should be a Friend, and a Friend, and a Friend, as to our King, in the form of the Countess, and of the World, as a Friend, not fit to live and be Friend, amongst them.

Thus we see, that it is the Beginning of the Hope of the Wicked that he has God; he ever obtained what he pronounced by his Prophet Isaiah, I have Peace, with the Lord, so the Holy Spirit
"For ye, I pray you, as Balaam & Job," yet ye never knowed
"prophecy which is the Sword of your Father's Staff over them;"
"ye will, and will tire, without Bounds or end." Can the
"P." give us "What Man?" Can the Eagle fly without Water?
"Will it if it eat meat Greenly, and not cut it up, until it be fire"
"any more Herb? So are the Paths of all that forsake GOD; and do "
"Hope: till Hope shall perish!"--And thus will it ever be! We may promise ourselves great Things from Wickedacts, but we shall be deceived; for since Man was placed on the Earth, the triumphing of the Wicked is short, and the Joy of the Hypocrite but a Moment.
THE DECEITFULNESS OF SIN, as the Apostle calls it, has been ever, and will be, the same: It has always promised, but never performed. Let us therefore, whenever the first Thought enters our Mind that we can better our Condition by any wicked and unlawful Means, remember that it is a Certainty which no Precaution whatever can prevent, that we can never establish our lives by INQUIRY, but that our Hopes founded upon WICKEDNESS shall be cut off. Neither let us be deceived by the Appearance of the Wicked; for his Trust is a Spider's Web; he shall lean upon his Hypoc, but it shall not stand; he shall hold it fast, but it shall not en-

[illegible]

27. ¶ And Adam knew his wife again, and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, said he, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew.

And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos: then began men to call upon the name of the Lord.

The latter Part of this Verse may be translated according to the Hebrew, and I have made them as Fishes in the Sea, and as Birds in the Field; when upon the Sentence of the Lord, they were called upon the Lord, before this Time, is plain to us by the Offerings of Cain and Abel. What is related here seems to be, that some of them thus called began to be diligent in God's Word, and busy about the Affairs of their lives, a Life of Faith, Hope, and Charity, and thus they were saved, believing in Promises and Declaration, weeding out Sin with a pure and holy Heart. And I suppose that the meaning of the Redemption here was to come, when men should be saved alive, by calling themselves by the Name of the Lord, and being diligent in His Word, and diligent in the Service of His Lord, and probably to parted them from the World, and to give them a Communion with the Father of all, and with the Son of GOD, and lived without the Law. And I suppose that the meaning of Him, naming some of the Patriarchs, which he here made, which we are told to them by their Prophecy, is, that he had to future Things, but minding only the present, he was not to fore-discover'd, who ever thou art, that will be saved, will not be saved, nor turn aside from thy Way, because thou wilt find many, and too many, in all Stations and Conditions, I earned a well as Unlearned, Rich as well as Poor, High as well as Low, Wise (at least in the Eye of the World) as well as Foolish, living without GOD in the World, concerning themselves not about Him, paying Him no Worship, regarding not His Word or Declaration delivered to us in the Holy Scriptures, as if they were but idle Tales; looking not to a better State, to a City in the Heavens, where Father is GOD; to everlasting Life and Happiness, but minding only the present Things of this World. For we are informed by the Scriptures, that this has ever been the Case, since Men were created on the Earth. The World has ever been divided, since the Fall of Man, between those who served GOD, and those who served him not: His sincere Worshippers have always appeared to be the smallest Part: How, and why this is so, is known only to GOD. We cannot understand at present the Reason of many Things, and the Scriptures are silent on this Head: they only give us the promise, that Time will come when there shall be a restoration of all Things, and Righteousness shall dominion.

And yet even this is far from the worst of it. That however corrupt the World has been, however corrupt a member of the Church may have been, in Comparison with the Whole of Man- kind, yet there has always been, and at all times, a GOD has never left the World without some to bear Witness to Him, and the TRUE GOD, in the Obedience of His Commandments: True Believers, and sincere and pious Worshipers of GOD, have always been. It was of most degenerate Times, that GOD told his Prophet Ezekiel, who thought that he was the only true Worshiper left, " Let mine I tell me yet in them and Men of Israel, who have not left their Gods: Blind"---We likewise find most comfortable "Thoughts" that GOD knows and observes those who serve Him, however mingled they may be amongst a corrupt Generation; they are never overlooked or caregated by Him. The Multitude of the Wicked does not hinder GOD from nurturing those who remain faithful to Him. The Prophet Malachi, speaking of those who feared the Lord amongst a Multitude of those who regarded Him not, says, " The Lord hearkened and heard them, (even in " their private Conversation;) and a Book of Remembrance was " written before Him for them that feared the Lord, and that " thought upon His Name. And they shall be mine, saith the " LORD OF HOSTS;) in that Day when I make up my Jewels, (or " SPECIAL TREASURE;) and I will spare them as a Man spareth his " own Son that loveth him. Then shall ye return, and shall be- " taken the Egyptians, and the Wicked, between him that loveth " GOD, and him that loveth Him not." Malachi, Ch. 3. V. 16.

One great Design of the Scriptures seems to be to show us, that through all Ages, the FAITHFUL have always been known and re-generally a Gold Medal. The only exception was the 1900 Olympic Games, when the American team was awarded a Silver Medal. The American team was awarded a Silver Medal in 1900, a Gold Medal in 1904, a Silver Medal in 1908, a Gold Medal in 1912, a Silver Medal in 1916, a Gold Medal in 1920, a Silver Medal in 1924, a Gold Medal in 1928, a Silver Medal in 1932, a Gold Medal in 1936, a Silver Medal in 1940, a Gold Medal in 1944, a Silver Medal in 1948, a Gold Medal in 1952, a Silver Medal in 1956, a Gold Medal in 1960, a Silver Medal in 1964, a Gold Medal in 1968, a Silver Medal in 1972, a Gold Medal in 1976, a Silver Medal in 1980, a Gold Medal in 1984, a Silver Medal in 1988, a Gold Medal in 1992, a Silver Medal in 1996, a Gold Medal in 2000, a Silver Medal in 2004, a Gold Medal in 2008, a Silver Medal in 2012, a Gold Medal in 2016, a Silver Medal in 2020, and a Gold Medal in 2024.

C H A P T E R 5.

1. The general significance of the study of the history of the world.

THIS is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him :

2. Male and female created by cloning, and I'll tell them, and call them name Male, and I'll tell them they were created.

The giving of an Xmas bonus to the 100,000 employees of the industrial sector of the country has been a record in the history of the country, and it is a very gratifying fact.

3. And, since  $\lambda$  is an integral,  $\lambda \in \mathbb{Z}$ , and by (2)  $\lambda \in \mathbb{Z}$  in this case, so  $\lambda \in \mathbb{Z}$ , and  $\lambda \in \mathbb{Z}$  has  $\lambda \in \mathbb{Z}$ .

I beg to inform you that the Committee on the subject of the Massachusetts Agricultural Experiment Station, and the Massachusetts Agricultural Experiment Station, have been organized, and the following members have been elected:—
 The following were elected:— they were elected:— in the year 1881, the following were elected:— will to the end of the year 1881, the following were elected:—
 gers, and at the end of the year 1881, the following were elected:— gith and preserve the Committee on the subject of the and to the Hon. the President of the Board of Agriculture.

[illegible][illegible]

4 And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters.

5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years : and he died.

6 ¶ And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and begat Enos.

7 And Seth lived after he begat. Two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years : and he died.

As GOD made, so He orders all Things. In the Beginning of the World, and so after Noah's flood, the long Life of Man, as it was of absolute Necessity to the more improved people, of the 12 And God looked upon the earth, and behold, it was corrupt : for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me ; for the earth is filled with violence through them : and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

The Lord reigneth, let the People tremble ! He sitteth between the Cherubims, let the Earth be moved ! He ruleth by His Power for ever ; His Eyes be ! in the Nations : And such as will not believe, shall not be able to exalt themselves. Thou, even Thou, art to be feared ! And who may stand in thy Sight when thou art angry ? The Frowns of Man shall turn to thy Praise ; and the Frowns of them thou shalt restrain. The Lord reigneth ! He is clothed with Majesty, the Lord is clothed with Strength ! PL. xcix. 1. lavi. 6. lxxvi. 7. xciii. 7. 10. Whatever mighty Men of Renown there were, at this Time, however much they prided themselves in their great Strength, however much they trusted in Violence, and boasted that by their own right Hand, and the Strength of their Arm they would establish themselves ; yet when GOD came to Judgment with them, they were, with all their mighty Strength and Power, as Chaff before the Wind, or as Stubble before the Fire. Behold (says the LORD) I will destroy them from the Face of the Earth : Thus impotent is all the Strength of the Wicked !

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher-wood : rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shall pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of : The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

From the Measure of a Cubit, it appears that the Length of the Ark was 150 Yards, the Breadth 25 Yards, and the Height of it fifteen Yards. It is highly worth being mentioned and reflected on, that notwithstanding the Experience of above four thousand Years since, yet human Ingenuity cannot now contrive, any Proportions better adapted than that of the Ark were, not only to resist the Force of the Waters and Winds, but also for all the Purposes it was intended for.

About the Beginning of the last Century, Peter Jansen, a Dutch Merchant, caused a Ship to be built, answering in its respective Proportions to those of Noah's Ark ; the Length of it being 120 Feet, the Breadth of it 20, and the Depth of it 12. At first this was looked upon as no better than a fanatical Vision of this Jansen, and whilst it was building, he and his Ship were made the Sport of the Seamen, &c. But afterwards it was found, that Ships built in this Fashion were, in the Time of Peace, beyond all others most commodious for Commerce ; because they would hold a third Part more, without requiring any more Hands, and were found far better Runners than any made before.

Thus we have a collateral Proof, no ways inconsiderable, that the SPIRIT of GOD, from whom cometh all Understanding, directed in this Matter.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above ; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof : with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And behold, I, even I do bring a flood of waters upon the earth to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven : and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

Mankind are strongly inclined to attribute every Event to NATURAL CAUSES, tho' it is the Hand of GOD that does it. The Scriptures, therefore, frequently represent GOD as endeavouring to rectify this Error in the Human Mind, and teaching Man that it is HE who doeth all Things. Behold, it is I, even I that doeth this Thing. Thus in this Place, we find Him declaring to NOAH, I, even I, do bring a Flood of Waters upon the Earth, to destroy all Flesh ; to prevent any future Supposition of Mankind afterwards, that the Flood had proceeded from any natural Causes, without the immediate Will and Agency of GOD.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant : and thou shalt come into the ark ; thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons wives with thee.

Whenever GOD is spoken of in Scripture as establishing a Covenant with any one, we must not confine it to that particular Person, or even his Family, but as made with the whole World, or all Mankind in him. Agreeable to this, the Son of Sirach, speaking of the Covenant made with Noah, says, that an everlasting Covenant was made with him, Eccles. xlv. 18.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee : they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle of their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind : two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee ; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 Thus did Noah ; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

If ye are of me, says our blessed Saviour, ye will keep my Commandments. Thus the same Principle is taught throughout the Scriptures. To fear God, and keep His Commandments, is the Wisdom of Man. This is the ONE THING necessary, this is the great and only Point we need to regard ; this is our LIGHT, our LIFE, our SUPPORT, and the LIFTER-UP of our Head. Noah did according to all that God commanded him, and thereby prepared an Ark to the saving of his House. We may observe that this is mentioned of Noah, twice within a few Verses, as it were to raise our Attention to such an important Lesson.

C H A P. VII.

1 Noah with his family, and the beasts, entered into the ark
17 The beginning, manner, and duration of the flood.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou, and all thy house into the ark : for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

Here we have a Declaration from GOD himself, that He had distinguished, observed, and remarked, all the Ways or Actions of Noah, amidst the Multitude of the degenerate World.

2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female : and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

By clean Beasts are meant, those appointed by GOD for Sacrifice.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female ; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

Here we find assigned the Reason, in GOD'S Courts, for the Preservation of Man and Animals in the Ark, viz. to keep seed alive upon the Face of the Earth. GOD could have preserved Noah from the Wrath that was to come, by taking him to Himself, as He did Enoch. He could, after having destroyed every Species of Animals, with His Word only have created an entire new Race, upon the Face of all the Earth ; but this was not consistent with the Purposes of His Wisdom. The great APOSTLE SPIRIT would undoubtedly have triumphed, to have seen one Order of GOD'S Works or Creatures entirely ruined and blotted out from the Face of the Creation, by his malicious Attempts. All Orders of Beings would have undoubtedly trembled, to have seen him prevail in one Instance : If even the meanest of GOD'S Works, had been entirely destroyed or annihilated, by any Means of his, he would have gained the audacious Point he aimed at, To sit in the Throne of God. It is therefore, that the Power and Wisdom of GOD has been ever since employed, instead of destroying, in producing a GREATER GOOD from the EVIL He has wrought, and bringing back Things not only to their first Perfection, but to a still higher Degree.

GOD'S Ways are far above our Ways : Wisdom is the first Principle of all His Actions. We may look upon the destroying of the whole World by the Flood, as a most terrible and severe Judgment, and undoubtedly it ought to be a Warning to us how we commit Sin, according to the arguing of St. Peter, 2 Peter 2. 5. yet we think not of GOD as HE is, if we suppose that like a provoked Human Being, He brought all this Destruction for REVENGE. No ; it was His WISDOM and His GOODNESS that produced it : For Mankind being grown universally corrupt, to a very extraordinary Degree, it was the highest Act of WISDOM and GOODNESS to succeeding Generations, to take them away from the Earth, that the Generations to come might proceed from a good Stock, instead of a corrupt one ; for we find, that in general, the Branches will partake much of the Nature of the Root from whence they spring. And accordingly, through this Means, and other succeeding wise Alterations, which GOD made in His Dispensations to Man, there is a great Probability, that the World, in general, has never since been so universally and presumptuously wicked and impious. The Scripture in no Part of it speaks of the State of the Corruption of the World, in the three last Terms as it does here. GOD at all Times seeth all His Works from the Beginning to the End; and therefore we in no Manner judge of them aright, by confining them apart, and as having no farther Respect than barely to the Action we are examining. GOD'S Wisdom and Power are so great, that a single Action of His may, and in all Probability does, tend to and produce several Causes and Good Ends.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights: and every living substance that I have made, will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

GOD here expressly tells the exact Time the Rains should last, to take away all Room for imagining they proceeded from natural Causes.

5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old, when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

We generally fix the Idea of something like a Chest to the Word Ark; but the Hebrew Word Tah is to be covered, and is derived from one which signifies to cover, or to be covered; and may therefore here denote a House, or Place, or Shed; and it is like the Ark was a long Range of buildings, with a sloping Roof, something like one of our large Barns, but only divided into several Stories. The Cyprian Wood of which it was made, is supposed to be what we now call the Cypress, and that is a Wood which is so warm, or so covering Animal will touch. It has been doubted by some, whether the Ark could be capable of containing two of every sort of Creatures, with Provisions necessary to feed them for a whole Year, for so long it appears Noah lived in the Ark. But this arises from taking Things at face, without duly considering them. Thus we are apt to think that the different kinds of Creature on the Earth are almost innumerable: And yet, upon a distinct Enquiry, it is found that all that are now known, are not a hundred different sorts of Beasts, and not two hundred or Birds: The far greatest Part of these are of no great Bulk, and many of them exceeding small; so that some Writers have plainly demonstrated, that all the Creatures in the Ark could not take up more Room than five hundred Horses: And considering that the Ark was divided into three Stories, it included a vast Space, and must be capable of holding a most prodigious Quantity. It is amazing, and scarcely credible, what a Number of Men, what a Quantity of Provisions, and all Things necessary, what a Store of Goods, a Ship of the First Rate will carry; and according to the Calculation made of the Dimensions of the Ark, it was larger than forty Ships of a thousand Ton each.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth, 9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the self-same day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them into the ark:

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

It seems purposely repeated three or four Times in this Chapter, that every Creature went into the Ark Male and Female, to make us attentive to what we have before observed, That every Thing that exists at this Day, is the same as was created in the Beginning.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth: and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lit up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth: and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

This Verse deserves our attentive Reflection. We find it here said, that All the high Hills, that were under the whole Heaven, were covered by the Waters. In this particular Circumstance being recorded, there has arose an Evidence to the World, of the Certainty of this important Fact, which will exist as long as the World endures: for examine the highest Eminences of the Earth, and they all, with one Accord, produce the Spoils of the Ocean deposited upon them on that Occasion; the Shells and skeletons of Sea Fish, and Sea Monsters of all Kinds. The Shells, the Appennine, the Pyrene, the Libanus, and Atlas, and Ararat, every Mountain of every Region under Heaven, where search hath been made, from Japan to Mexico, all concur in one uniform, universal Proof, that they all had the Sea spread over their highest summits. Search the Earth; you shall find the Mould-deer, Native of America, buried in Ireland; Elephants, Natives of Asia and Africa, buried in the Midst of England; Crocodiles, Natives of the Nile, in the Heart of Germany; Shell Fish, never known in any but the American Sea, together with entire skeletons of Whales, in the most inland Regions of England. Trees of vast Dimensions, with their Root and Top, and even also with Leaves and Fruit, at the Bottoms of Mines and Quarries; and that too, in Regions where no Tree of that Kind was ever known to grow; nay, where it is demonstrably impossible they could grow.

If you ask how all this could be: How Shells could float in the Water, to as to reach and to rest on the Top of Mountains, or how both they and other Creatures should sink so deep into the Earth, as to be found at the Bottom of Mines and Quarries? We answer, that all these Events perfectly demonstrate Moses's Account of this Matter to be incontestably true; since all these Events could plainly come to pass, according to his Account of the Matter, but are utterly impossible and unimaginable upon any other Principles. We now see Shells of all Kinds constantly thrown upon the Shore, by the working of the Sea; and therefore, when all Parts of the Earth became Shores by the gradual Swelling of the Waters, it is obvious that they all must have Sea Shells successively thrown upon them: And forasmuch as, in all Probability, no Fish were destroyed for Food before the Flood, it is evident that Shell Fish, as all others, must have been in prodigious Quantities in the Sea at that Time.

Besides this, Moses tells us, that the Fountains of the great Deep were broken up on this Occasion. Now the rushing up of the Waters through these Fountains must, of Necessity, cause so prodigious a Commotion in the Sea, as would throw up the heaviest Bodies from the Bottom of the Ocean; and this working of that huge Flood, added to the incessant Agitation of the Rains and Tides for so many Days together, were sufficient to throw Bodies of almost any Weight, and much more such light Bodies as Shells, upon the Tops of the highest Mountains. And as the breaking up of these Fountains of the Deep, is abundantly sufficient to account for any Effect of the Deluge, now observable upon the greatest Heights of the Earth, so the Return of the Waters into the Bowels of the Earth, through the same Channel, when GOD shut up the Fountains of the Deep, must of Necessity carry Bodies of all Kinds back with them again, into the Bowels of the Earth.

And thus it comes to pass, that the Heights and Depths of the Earth, equally and incontestably confess the mighty Power and signal Interposition of GOD, in the Destruction of the old World, by a Deluge of Waters, for the Wickedness of them that dwelt therein.

This great Event we find likewise is had in Remembrance over all the Earth; and in every Part of the known World there is a Tradition of it, though confused; and the Inhabitants of all Parts give some Account of the Manner of the Restoration of Mankind: From whence it appears, that there has been an universal Tradition over all the Face of the Earth, that the first Race of Mankind were destroyed by a Deluge of Waters.

Several learned Men have formed Calculations of the Number of Inhabitants on the Earth before the Deluge, and suppose upon a moderate a moderate Computation, there were at least two Millions of Millions of Souls, which they think a greater Number than what is at present on the Earth.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail ; and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man.

22 All in whose Nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

By what is said here, it appears, that there was no Destruction of Water Animals.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

Thus was the Race of Sinners swept from the Face of the Earth: A terrible Example to all succeeding Ages! All their Power, their Numbers, and their mighty Strength, availed them nothing. When GOD arose to Judgment, all their Pride was blasted, and they were scattered like a stubble. With what horror did they see the increasing Waters all around to over-whelm them, without any Place to fly to! How did those who lived where Noah did, wonder at the Strangers of his Labitation, so far beyond all that they looked for! How gaping and gazing for August's Spout, did they look upon themselves! "The Lord hath consumed the strong hold in Durance, and a Prisoner's Reprieve!" "He hath dissolved the Gate of the Mighty, He is the Lord that is to be feared!" "His Reward is with the Lowly, and his Gift is for the Meek!" "The Most High, for with His Right Hand He will be loved, and with His Arm does He protect them."

From considering this terrible Judgment, we may reflect, that Men's living careless and indifferent, without thinking on GOD, or fearing His Power, is no Proof that GOD does not observe them, and is not preparing to execute Judgment upon them.---Never can Men be more careless or indifferent, less fearing GOD, or less expecting what is about to happen to them, than the Inhabitants of the World were, before the Flood came upon them : They did eat, they drank, they married Wives, they were given in Marriage, until the very Day that NOAH entered into the Ark, and the Flood came and destroyed them all.---And thus, do Men still . They are entirely thoughtless about what perhaps is just coming upon them ; they are quite easy and at Rest, when perhaps Judgment is already gone forth against them ; they are entirely busied and wholly taken up with eating and drinking, marrying and giving in Marriage, buying and selling, planting and building, and with various other vain Projects ; whilst the Menager of Death is already on his Way to take them with an irresistible Hand from all that their Soul delights in.

This is an Observation and Reflection that our BLESSED SAVIOUR has made on the Occasion before us, and has often said, that not common Judgments only, but that even the great and terrible Day of the LORD, the End of the World shall come, when it is not in the least expected, and whilst Men are living thoughtless and indifferent, as if there was no GOD, or no Judgment to come. “As it was in the Days of Noah, so shall it be also in the Days of the Son of Man.” St. Luke, Ch. xvii. V. 26.

But though this is, and will be, the Practice of the World, yet our GREAT LORD and SAVIOUR, who knoweth what is fit for Man, has left this repeated Advice to all that will give Ear to his Words, "Watch and pray, for you know not when the Hour cometh." Which is true, both of our own Dissolution, and of that of the World in general.---This great and tremendous Day, because all Things seem to continue the same for a long Succession of Ages, hath little or no Effect upon our Minds; and we think Things will always remain so; but we may reflect, that undoubtedly the Inhabitants of the World before the DELUGE, thought just in the same Manner: They had had the Experience of many Ages, that no such Deluge of Waters had ever happened in the World, and after NOAH had even pronounced it, they saw several Years roll round without any Alteration; they therefore concluded, and made themselves sure that all Things would still remain the same, and continued in this Assurance and Security, till the very Moment that the Fountains of the Great Deep were broken up, and the Windows of Heaven were opened to destroy them. And thus St. PETER assures us, "The Day will come, (as a Thief in the Night) in which the which the Heavens shall pass away with a great Noise, and the Elements shall melt with fervent Heat, the Earth also, and the Works therein."

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

As we here come to the Period of what may be called the old World, it will be useful to take a Review of what has been said of it, especially in Respect to GOD'S Decisions, and his Dealings to Mankind, the Declarations He has made, the Promises He has given them. For this is the great Foundation of all our View fixed upon, this is about the Decisions.

But then, We find that GOD placed a Propitius in the Hearts of the Angels, and Enjoyment, but, a well highly affected with the Love of God, and on Him, at the Foot of the Cross, He died, to save the World. When Man had forfeited this, by his Disobedience, we find GOD at the same Time that He passed on Him, the Curse of the Serpent, giving him Hopes of being reconciled to God, by the Promise of a Seed from the Woman, (Gen. 3. 15.) the Head of the Serpent; that is, gain an entire Victory over him. At the same Time, from the Creation of our first Parents, and from other Reasons, we find that GOD, in the next Chapter, it is probable, GOD did not expect that some Kinds of Beast should be taken, or offered as a Sacrifice, in Offering to Him, to turn away His Wrath from Sinners, who might obtain Pardon by Repentance, and not be condemned.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

This it was declared by GOD to ABRAM, that he should have a Son, as is mentioned in this Chapter; that he would get him from his Country, he kindled, and he took of the Fire, to add upon it he would throw unto him, then he would make of him a great Nation, and bless him, and make his Name great, and make him a blessing, that in him all the Families of the Earth should be blessed. ABRAM believed this particular Declaration of GOD to him, and in Consequence went forth from his Country, and his Father's House, and thereby inherited all these Promises. Thus it was declared to GOD by SARAH, that she should have a Son, when he was past Age : This she believed, and therefore she did herself to conceive Seed, and was delivered of a Child, because she was past Age.--If we will examine them, we shall find every one of the Instances mentioned in the 11th Chapter of Hebrews, to be exactly the same in their Nature as the above, and having of some particular Thing, declared to them by GOD, and the obtaining of that very Thing by their Belief. And therefore, as P. 16. It is noted was translated that he would not see Death, it must needs be according to the Sense of this whole Chapter, that he received a Declaration, or Revelation from GOD, that there was another World, where, through GOD's Grace, Men might have Entrance to Life, not only by Repentance and through Remission of Sins. This Enoch believed, and accordingly obtained it, by being translated thither.

1 2 3 4 5 6

Besides this, according to some learned and ingenious Writers, Most gives Intimation, that this Declaration of another World was made to Enoch, by what he has recorded in the 26th Verse of the 4th Chapter of Genesis; for there are Instances in the Scripture, that the Hebrew Word Hochan, which we translate NOAH, may signify Hope. Then had Men Hope, in calling upon, or being called by the Name of the LORD.---Thus then we find there is Ground to believe that GOD was pleased to give Hope to Man of another and better World, so early as Enoch, whom St. James calls the Seventh from Adam. For that Enoch made a publick Declaration to the World of all that GOD declared to him, seems beyond Doubt from what St. James says of him, viz. For he prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand, and at that time he will execute Judgment upon all."

In the last Part of the old World, we find GOD giving a Proof that the whole Earth was His, and all that is therein; that every Thing was by His Will only, and that He could utterly destroy the Earth, and all the Inhabitants thereof, whenever He saw fit. And that Men might know that this was so, he publicly declared that he would destroy all the Inhabitants of the Earth, and the Manner in which he intended to do it, one hundred and twenty Years before he put it in Execution, that all succeeding Generations might know that it was HE, even HE, that had done it, and from hence learn to fear HIM, before whom all the Nations are as a Drop of the Bucket, and are counted as the small Dust of the Balance, yea, even are less than NOTHING, as Isaiah.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Re. God's ordering, the water, of the flood abate, till they are entirely dried up from off the earth. 15 Noah, being commanded by God, to come out of the ark, with his family, and all the creatures. 20 He buildeth an altar, and offereth sacrifice. 21 which God doth smell, and promiseth to curse the earth no more.

AND God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged.

GOD cannot forget at any Time: The Word REMEMBERED here therefore signifies not a Recollection of GOD, but that He shewed by Effect that NOAH was in His Remembrance, and even all the Cattle that was in the ARK. If GOD indeed has in Remembrance the Beasts of the Field, what steady Assurance ought we to have, that He will never forget those that serve Him?

2 The fountains also of the deep, and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained.

From the fortieth Day of the Deluge, in which, it seemeth, the Waters ceased to encrease: yet remained high five whole Months, and then began to decrease.

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 ¶ And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

Viz. Came a-ground, tho' the Hills were not quite uncovered, because this great Vessel drew much Water. The common Opinion is, that this Country was Armenia. See Isa. xxxvii. 38. Jer. li. 27.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made.

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

Which, it is likely, was made Choice of because of the Quality of that Bird, which is, to fly far and then return home, generally bringing somewhat in his Bill; and so doth the Dove.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground.

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark: for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

Because that tho' the Tops of the Hills were bare, yet the Earth was all dirty and softened.

10 And he stayed yet other seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark.

11 And the dove came into him in the evening, and lo, in her mouth was an olive-leaf pluckt off: So Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

According to the Custom of Doves, A Leaf, or a little Branch: Hence it is gathered, that GOD preserved the Plants miraculously, or most Part of them, a Year under the Water. And, indeed, it is not said, that He caused any of the Roots, or Seeds of them, to be kept in the Ark, as He had done of the Beasts.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days, and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 ¶ And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the face of the ground was dry.

We cannot suppose that NOAH could remove the Roof of the ARK, and therefore it seems likely that it had another Covering besides, probably made of Skins, like that which we read was over the Tabernacle, which is expressed by the same Hebrew Word; and the Use of it was probably to hang over and defend the Windows or Openings of the ARK in bad Weather.

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, saying,

16 Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons wives with thee.

We here may observe NOAH's Attention to GOD, as his true Director in all Things: As he had entered into the ARK by His Command, so, though he saw the Earth was dry, and undoubtedly was very desirous of coming forth from so long a Confinement, yet he waits with Patience GOD's Will, and goes not forth till he bids him.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 ¶ And Noah builded an altar unto the LORD, and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt-offerings on the altar.

We find here NOAH, as soon as he came out of the ARK, offering a Burnt-Offering to GOD of every clean Beast, and of every clean Fowl, that had been preserved in the ARK with him.

If we consider this as merely the Action of NOAH, infligated by his own Fancy, it must appear strangely unaccountable that he should take those very Beasts and slay them, which had been preserved with so much Care, by GOD's own Appointment in the Ark. We must therefore conclude, that the Sacrifice of living Creatures, was a Thing that GOD had himself appointed, and was an indispensable Duty, which NOAH thought it was absolutely necessary for him to perform, tho' there were then so few Creatures in the World. And upon Enquiry we shall find, not only NOAH thinking this an indispensable Duty, not to be omitted upon any Account, but that all People and Nations over the whole Face of the Earth, till CHRIST the GREAT SACRIFICE was offered, thought the same.

That, Secret, is obtained universally, for many Ages, over all the Region of the known World, is well known. That the Practice distinct pre-eminently dictate of Reason, is evident, because, unimpaired & often never could antecedently dictate, that degrading servitude of our inferior Creature, could be an Office of a GOD, & of a man the contrary. Also, that it does not, is a strong Demand of Nature, is undimable; for no Man will say that we have any natural Instinct, or Appetite to gratify, in pillaging the blood of an innocent, most office Creature upon the Earth, and humanely Burying on an execution. Nor could there be any Temporal or eternal Aspect, to do this, in those Ages, when the whole Universe was surrounded by Fire, or when, there were only a few weakly abstruse Men left; as there is all the Reason in the World to believe, that, at least, the religious Part of them did, for the first six or hundred Years from the Creation.

It therefore cannot be accounted for, how they prevailed so universally in the World, otherwise than from divine Appointment; or how any Practice could obtain in the World, to which Mankind were neither urged by any Dictate of Reason, or by any Instinct or Demand of Nature, nor by any Interest of any Kind; but, quite the contrary, in direct Contradiction to every Principle of Reason, and Nature, and Interest; (for the Destruction of innocent and useful Creatures, is against Reason, against Nature, and against Interest) how such a Practice could prevail, and prevail universally, is impossible to be accounted for, but from some powerful and irresistible Influence of Example, or Intjunction of Authority. And what Example could have such Influence, except that of Adam, or what Authority could have such Power, except that of GOD, is utterly incredible.

We find that GOD gave Abraham Proof of His Acceptance of his Sacrifice; and also gave Testimony of His having done so, in that Act of Adoration. And from hence we may clearly infer, that Sacrifices were of divine Institution. For, it is certain, that the Destruction of an innocent Creature, is not, in itself, an Honour to GOD; and, therefore, nothing but Duty could make it acceptable. And nothing, but the Command of GOD, could make it a Duty, in the Case before us. We know, that no Being has any Right to the Lives of the Creature, but their Creator, or they, on whom he confers that Right. And it is certain, that GOD had not yet given Man a Right to the Creatures, even for necessary Food: And much less, for unne- cessary Cruelty. And therefore, nothing but His Command, could create a Right to take away their Lives.

It is also evident, that killing an innocent Creature, cannot, in its own Nature, be properly said to be doing WILL. And therefore, since Abel is acknowledged by GOD to have done WILL, in killing the Firstlings of his Flock in Sacrifice, it is evident, he must have done this, for some very good and just Reason; and what Reason could justify him in doing it, but the Command of GOD?

In Truth, no Action is just or good, otherwise than as it is conformable to the Will of GOD, either revealed, or established in the Nature of Things: And that this Action was conformable to the divine Will, could only be known by Revelation, i. e. by being commanded. And therefore it Righteous of it, in Abel, could only arise from Obedience. And, that Obedience could justify it, can be no Doubt to any Man, who knows, that Obedience was acceptable with God their Sacrifice; and to him, than the Fat of Rams, 1 Sam. xv. 22.

Again; St. Paul assure us, that Abel offered a more excellent Sacrifice than Cain, by Faith: And what it is Faith is, he explains in several Instances, viz. Obedience to a particular Thing declared by God, as we have already taken Notice, in the last Note of the foregoing Chapter. And can we have any Doubt that Abel's Faith also consisted in Obedience, and an Assurance of being acceptable by that Obedience, tho' in an Act of Duty, otherwise most unlikely to be pleasing to GOD: as that of the Destruction of His innocent Creatures, certainly was. An Action, than which, nothing could be more, in Appearance, ill fitted to appease the divine Wrath, or obtain the divine Favour. And yet, a ready Obedience to that GREAT BEING, who commanded it, made the Action and the Actor righteous. And it is evident, nothing but such a Faith, as prompted Abel to that Obedience, ever could make such an Action acceptable to GOD, in any Man whatsoever, from the Foundation of the World. And, indeed, What less than a Command from GOD, whenever they committed a Sin, that the Sin might not remain, and lie at their Door, could have induced Men to bring an innocent, and to them harmless Animal, to offer its Blood on Account of their own Transgression? Time and Custom may reconcile us to almost any Thing; but it is difficult to avoid the Reflection, that when Mankind came first to this Service, it would truly rent their Hearts, to see as it were DEATH, unto which they knew themselves must one Day come; to have displayed before their Eyes its Pangs and Agonies, inflicted by themselves on a Creature that had no Demerit; merely because they had themselves committed some Offence against their GOD.-----Such a Service could not but cause them both to think upon the Victim, and upon themselves:

As to the F.V. Log, the only one of the kind in the land of the F.V. Log, the only one of the kind in the nation of F.V. Log, the only one of the kind in the back at, was with a M. V. Log, the only one of the kind in the court of the F.V. Log, the only one of the kind in the Mind were teaching, and they were the only one of the kind in the for nothing could be done, and they were the only one of the kind in the amount of compensation, and they were the only one of the kind in the it, possibly to be done, and they were the only one of the kind in the a Service, and they were the only one of the kind in the

[illegible]

And what Institution could be more fully, or more judiciously, than that of Sweden, for Sweden, for Sweden, teaching it : two Points.

And, Sir, that not that nature of the GOD will be any evidence of Mercy on the Sinners, but that the Mercy of GOD is a Kingdom of Love that cannot

[illegible]

21. And the Lord view them, and have mercy on them: and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again visit the ground any more for this iniquity: for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again visit any more every thing living, as I have done.

This is only a Manner of speaking, suitable to our Times; and signifies, that Nathan's Frick and Gratitude was a pleasing to GOD, as the most agreeable Odours are to us.

What is rendered here, for the language, &c. would be much better rendered verbiage, &c. as the Roman Word here translated for, has often the Signification of verbiage.

22 While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

The sacred Writings carry with them peculiar Marks of Truth, which bear Witness to them in every Age, and will continue to do so till the End of Things. Near four thousand Years have rolled round since Moses recorded that Seed-Time and Harvest should never cease on the Earth; and during all that Time, though nothing is more uncertain in its own Nature than Weather, yet have they never been known once to fail on the Earth; for though in some particular Countries have sometimes been punished, probably for the Wickedness of those who dwell therein, with irregular and unfruitful Seasons, yet at the same Time has the rest of the World been blessed with more than common Plenty; and in general all the World over, through every Age, the Seasons have kept their due and constant Course: Summer and Winter, Day and Night, have never ceased—Nothing but the Will and Promise of the ALMIGHTY could ever fix this never-varying Order. The more we consider it, the more we shall discern that it is the Covenant of the ALMIGHTY. And it seems almost impossible for it to have entered into the Thought of Man to have positively asserted that Seed-Time and Harvest, and a regular Succession of Season, would never cease on the Earth, unless he was really admitted into the Secret of the ALMIGHTY, and had some Declaration made him, that it was His Eternal Purpose. So wise a Man as Moses, would not have asserted a Thing in his Writings as a Certainty, which, according to natural Causes, might possibly happen contrary the very next Year; for that it is not impossible, according to natural Causes, but that Seed-Time and Harvest, and the Succession of Seasons, might fail all over the Earth, is very evident, because they have sometimes failed in some particular Countries; and the Reason over them has been as Iron, and the Earth as Brui, and the Land hath not yielded her Increase, neither the Trees of the Land yielded their Fruits. Now if this can happen (notwithstanding the established Order of Nature) in one Country, it may in the same Manner happen over the whole Face of the Earth. We must therefore conclude, that what is recorded in this Verse, was an express Declaration of the ALMIGHTY GOD, and that the never failing Succession of Seed Time and Harvest, which the Earth enjoys, is owing to His, whole FATHERLINESS (as the Psalmist expresses it) in maintaining His Covenant by giving us Rain, both the former and the latter in its Season, and giving unto us the appointed Weeks of Harvest.

C H A P. IX.

1 God blesseth Noah and his Sons, and gives them dominion over the beasts of the field, the fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea. 2 Grants them a new Covenant for Noah, but forbids the eating of their blood. 3 Describes the rainbow as a token, or sign, that it should be a Covenant with Noah and all the earth, that it should be a sign of the promise of rain, as a token of the Covenant. 4 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 5 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 6 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 7 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 8 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 9 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 10 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 11 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 12 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 13 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 14 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 15 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 16 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 17 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 18 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 19 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 20 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 21 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 22 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 23 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 24 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 25 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 26 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 27 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 28 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 29 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 30 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 31 Noah and his Sons are blessed. 32 Noah and his Sons are blessed.

AND God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

We now come to a new Period of the World, or rather to a new Phenomenon of it; a Fact or to extraordinary a Nature, as requires to be attended to. We have already observed, that it would be derogatory to GOD, to think that He destroyed a whole World, merely in Anger. Our GOD is a God of Love; it is His Will, that nothing should change, to that even the severity of His Justice is by His Wisdom made an Act of Mercy, and letting us know. GOD destroyed the whole World, except a very small Remnant, by the Waters of the Flood; but it was to raise a better out of its Ruins, and in Mercy to the Generations unborn. This we shall soon discern, if we examine attentively what passed in Regard to this great Occurrence.

This Matter hath been most excellently and clearly treated by a very learned Writer, whom we shall follow on this Occasion. We have already seen, that as soon as Noah was born, his Father Lamech pronounced (undoubtedly by a Divine Inspiration) that he should comfort them concerning the Work and Toil of their Hands, because of the Ground which the Lord had cursed. When GOD informs Noah of his Design to destroy the World, he adds, But with thee will I establish my Covenant. Lamech expected, in Virtue of GOD's Promise, a Deliverance from the Curse of the earth, and foresees that Deliverance would come through his Son. When GOD threatens to destroy the Earth, and complete the Curse He had laid on it, He thinks upon His Covenant, and promises Noah the Benefit of it. What Covenant was this, that had such immediate Relation to the Destruction of the World? What could it be but the very Promise which Lamech saw should be made good to Noah, and which is here actually conveyed to Noah by a new Promise? The Words, I will establish my Covenant, must relate to a Covenant then subsisting, and not to a Covenant afterwards to be made; as will be evident to those who will examine the Import of this Phrase in Scripture.

The Flood being over, GOD declares, I will not again curse the Ground any more for Man's Sake. It appears from this Declaration, 1. That the Flood was the Effect of that Curse which was denounced against the Earth for Man's Sake. 2. That the old Curse was fully executed and accomplished in the Flood. In Consequence of which Discharge from the Curse, a new Blessing is immediately pronounced upon the Earth; While the Earth remaineth, Seed-Time and Harvest, and Cold and Heat, and Summer and Winter, and Day and Night shall not cease. Gen. viii. 22. This is called a Covenant between GOD and the Earth, Ch. ix. Ver. 13. And a Covenant with Noah and his Seed, and with every living Creature, of the Fowl, of the Cattle, and of every Beast of the Field, Ver. 8. 9. 10. and in Truth a Blessing on the Earth, is properly a Blessing not only on Man, but on all living Creatures which subsist on the Earth: And it is with Respect to this Covenant that the Psalmist breaks forth into the Admiration of GOD's Goodness. Thy Mercy, O Lord, is in the Heavens, and thy Faithfulness reacheth unto the Clouds: Thy Righteousness is like the great Mountains, thy Judgments are a great Deep: O Lord thou preservest Man and Beast. Psal. xxxvii. 5. 6.

When Adam was first formed and placed on the Earth, he had several Blessings and Privileges conferred on him by GOD. These were forfeited by the Fall. What will you say, if you see these very Blessings restored again to Noah and his Posterity after the Flood? Whether this be the Case or no, will soon appear upon a Comparison of the Blessings given to one and the other. To Adam and Eve GOD said, Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the Earth, Gen. i. 28. To Noah and his Sons he says, Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the Earth, Gen. ix. 1. To our first Parent it is said, Have Dominion over the Fish of the Sea, and over the Fowl of the Air, and over every living Thing that moveth upon the Earth, Gen. i. 28. To Noah and his Sons it is said, The Fear of you and the Dread of you shall be upon every Beast of the Field, and upon every Fowl of the Air, and upon all that moveth upon the Earth, and upon all Fishes of the Sea; into your Hand are they delivered. Gen. ix. 2.

To Adam and Eve are granted for Food, every Herb bearing Seed, and every Tree, in the Field, is the Fruit of a Tree yielding Seed, Gen. i. 29. Noah and his Sons have a larger Charter—Every moving Thing that hath Life shall be Meat for you, even as the green Herb hath Liven you all Things, Gen. ix. 3. The Blessing upon the Earth at the Creation was, Let the Earth bring forth Grass and Herb yielding Seed, and the Field bring forth Fruit after its Kind, and you shall eat of it upon the Earth, Gen. i. 11. The Blessing after the Flood is, While the Earth remaineth, Seed-Time and Harvest shall not cease, Gen. viii. 22. In the Beginning, The Lights in the Firmament were appointed to divide the Day from the Night, and to be for Seasons, and for Days and Years, Gen. i. 14. After the Flood the new Blessing is, that Cold and Heat, and Summer and Winter, and Day and Night shall not cease, Gen. viii. 22. Tell me now, what is there bestowed in the first Blessings, that is wanting in the second? What more did Adam enjoy in his happiest Days, what more did he forfeit in his worst, with Respect to this Life, than what is contained in these Blessings? If he neither had more, nor lost more, all these Blessings we see expressly restored to Noah and his Posterity; and can we still believe that the Curse upon the Earth remains?

All this laid together amounts, I think, to this; that the old Curse upon the Ground was finished and completed at the Flood. And when the whole Race of Men (right only excepted) were destroyed, the Serpent had sufficiently builded the Heel of the Woman's Seed; and the Time was come to destroy the World with Respect to this Part of the Curse, so fully executed. Accordingly a Blessing is once more pronounced on the Earth, and a Covenant of temporal Prosperity confirmed to Noah, and by him to all Mankind, making good the Prophecy of his Father at the Time of his Birth, Thy sword shall comfort us, &c.

We may think perhaps that we see but little Effect of this new Blessing; that the Life of Man is still Labour and Toil; that he still eats the Bread of Sorrow and Carefulness in the Sweat of his Brow; and that the Earth still abounds in Thorns and Thistles. Such Complaints as these are but the Effect of Prejudice: Men speak in this Case as if they thought there were no Thorns and Thistles till after the Fall, but that they were created on Purpose to be a Curse; for if there were such Things, as undoubtedly there were before the Fall, why should we expect to have them removed by the Restoration of the Earth?

For what Employment do we imagine Man was made? For a little Sleep, a little Slumber, and a little folding of the Hands to sleep? Surely this was not the Case: Even in Paradise it was Adam's Business to dress and to keep the Garden. How much Labour this required we cannot tell; some it required without Doubt. After the Fall, Labour increased and multiplied, and continued to be very burthensome unto the Time of the Flood: And GOD's Promise of regular Seasons after the Flood, seems to intimate that they were very irregular and confused before: Which one Circumstance will account for all the Change we suppose. When the Case was in the old World during the Curse, may probably be collected from the Curse denounced against Israel when disobedient: I will break the Price of your Power; and I will make your Heaven as Iron, and your Earth as Brui, and your Strength shall be spent in vain: For your Land shall not yield her Increase, neither shall the Trees of the Land yield their Fruits, Levit. xxvi. 19. 20.

The Labour of one Man is now sufficient for the Support of a great many; and consequently a great Majority of Mankind are exempted from the Necessity of labouring in the Earth, and by that Means are at Liberty to be employed in those Pursuits of Knowledge, and those Conveniences and Ornaments of Life, which can alone make it desirable to reasonable Creatures: And it is justly doubtful, whether Thorns and Thistles, which were demonstrably a Curse to Adam, are not now rather Blessings to his Posterity; agreeable to GOD's great Privilege of Power and Wisdom, to produce Good out of Evil. There is no Grounds to imagine that Thorns and Weeds had no Existence before the Curse: How vexatious they might have been from that Time till the Flood, is impossible to say; that now, since the Distinction of Property, Thorns are a vast Blessing to the Earth, is undeniable. That Thistles are here put for Weeds in general, is taken for granted; and, I believe, every candid Man will find upon Enquiry, that Weeds now answer so many excellent Ends and Uses in Life, as render them rather a Blessing than a Curse.

We meet with frequent Allusions to this Covenant with Noah in later Times, and later Books of Scripture. The Son of Sirach tells us, That an everlasting Covenant was made with him, Ecclesi. xlv. 18. or, as it is translated by some, The Covenant of the Age was given him: For Noah was the Father of the Age, and had the

Covenant

Beasts, cruelly whipped to Death, Tortured, afflic-tious, lowed, and other cruel manner Cruelties made Use of on the poor Animals to Death or Food, under the Notion of making them obedient. O barbarous Cruelty! scarcely to be named, it is not too well known; How changed is the Image of GOD in us by the GREY CUCK VIOLENCE under every His Violence. We beat down the Image of GOD in our Hearts, and thus we are not fit to be the Image of GOD in our Hearts, which is the Image of GOD in our Hearts, for GOD is LOVE, and thus He is His Anger for our cruel Usage of those Beings which He created to enjoy Pleasure during their short Existence, and which He looks upon with Tenderness and Compassion.

1. GOD was thus carefully merciful in Respect to taking away the Live of Animals for necessary Food, how hardly duplicating matter be it. 2. S. 1. (never ever commonly practised it may be) to take away the Live of Animals, or any ways cruelly torture them, nor use them to any Manner of Use. It is the Joy of GOD to be good to the Weak. His Benevolence extends to the meanest Creatures, as we may learn from many Passages of Scripture. And so, therefore, we must certainly and warily destroy even the least Part of that general Happiness which He wills, we must not count how many duplicating before Him.---Though this is a matter generally little thought of, yet it is deserving of our Respect, as in the end of it we ought to aim at, to be as like GOD in our Actions, as the Weakness of our Nature will admit of.

Let me explain to you what we have said on this Head, was one Reason of the Propitiation given here : But undoubtedly there was another. GOD, we have already taken Notice, had appointed the Flood or Labe of the Creature as an Atonement for Sin, in Way of Type, of the precious Blood of our Blessed Saviour : could not but be a Type of the Atonement of the Sins of the whole World : It being necessary, therefore, that this important Truth, that Propitiation peracta per Blood should always be strictly impressed on the Mind of Man, it was not fit that Blood should be used for any other Occasion, or even for Food.

In the 7th & 8th I have had a Distribution of Blood, and this very Reason given for it, Exaltation, Yn. 10 &c. I have ever since there I say, 'th' Heart of Israel is at the Spring, 'that I have say'd you, that with any Manner of Blood, I will not let it be. For I have said that I will let it be. Blood, and I will let it be from among the People; for the Lord, the Lord, is the Blood, and I have given you that for the Altar to make an Atonement for your Soul; for as it might be transferred, I have offered you that to make Atonement upon the Altar for your Soul, 'th' Heart, I will let it be the Church, not Israel, No Soul of you for that Blood, neither will I let it be for that, no, neither will I let it be for that Blood.' For it is the Blood that maketh an Atonement for the Soul.

An ancient 7 of Commemoration upon the Books of Mos, paraphrases the Words pretty justly: "The Soul (says he) of all "Flesh is in the Blood, and for that Reason I have choien the "Blood of all the Beasts to make an Atonement for the Soul of "Man." GOD appointed that the Blood of the Creatures should be offered for the Sins of Men, and therefore required that it should be religiously set apart for that Purpose.

If we examine the Mosaic Law, we shall find it strictly agreeable to this Section. In some Places the Blood is appointed to be offered on the Altar, in others, to be poured on the Ground as Water; but these Appointments are easily reconcilable, by considering the Reason of each of them. Whilst the Israelites were in the Wilderness, and the Tabernacle near at Hand, they were ordered never to kill any Thing to eat, without bringing it to be killed at the Door of the Tabernacle, in order to have the Blood offered upon the Altar. But when they came into the Land of Canaan, and were spread over the Country, and had a Temple at Jerusalem, and were commanded strictly to offer all their Sacrifices there only, it was impossible to observe the Injunction before named; they could not come from all Parts to Jerusalem to kill their Provision, and to offer the Blood upon the Altar. Against this Difficulty Moses provided in the Book of Deuteronomy, which is an Enlargement and Explanation of the Laws in Leviticus. The Substance of what he has ordered in this Matter, is as follows: That when they should come over Jordan to dwell in Canaan, and there should be a Place chosen by GOD, to cause his Name to dwell there, they were to bring all their Offerings to that Place, and to take Heed not to offer any Offerings elsewhere. But if they lived so far from the Temple, that they could not bring the Creatures up thither which they killed to eat, they had Leave to kill and eat whatsoever they had a Mind to, only instead of offering the Blood, they were to pour it upon the Earth as Water, and to take Care that they eat none of it. Thus the pouring out the Blood upon the Earth was appointed, where Circumstances were such that an Offering of it could not be made; and agreeably hereto, when they took any Thing in Hunting, which probably might be so wounded as not to live until they could bring it to the Tabernacle, to offer the Blood upon the Altar, they were to kill it, and pour out the Blood, and cover it with Dust.

There is still another Reason given by some, for GOD's Prohibition of eating Blood, &c. That by its Nature, if used as Food, it would create a Savage and bloody Disposition in us, as all Creatures that eat Flesh are observed to be; that it is likewise unwholesome, and might often bring into the Body very fatal Disorders; for as the gross Humours and all Disorders are seated and begin in the Blood, and oftentimes vitiate it long before any Part of the Body, consequently the eating of the Blood may many Times prove pernicious, and perhaps fatal; when the Body of the Animal drained from its Blood, would prove a wholesome and salutary Food.

Upon these Accounts, and as a constant and perpetual Testimony of the precious Blood of CHRIST being shed for our Sins, some think the eating of Blood at this Day neither expedient or lawful; and they think what was written by the Apostle, intended together, to the Gentile Converts, still obligatory upon Christians. Act. xv. 22. Then pleased it the Apostles and Elders, with the whole Church, to send John Mark of their own Company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief Men among the Brethren; And wrote Letters by them, in this Manner, That we have heard, that certain have gone out from us here, troubling you with Words, saying that ye ought to be circumcised, and keep the Law; to whom we gave no such Commandment: It seemed good unto us, being agreed with one Accord, to send John Mark unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul. For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater Burden than these necessary Things; That ye abstain from Meat offered to idols, and from Blood, and from Things of like kind, and from Fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well.

According to this it appears, that the Apostles, influenced by the HOLY GHOST, determined that the Gentils were not obliged to Circumcision, and the other various Rules of the Levitical Law; yet that it was an indispensable Obligation on them, to abstain from Blood and Things strangled, as we see in Acts. But on the other Side, it is argued, That this was only a temporary Order of the Apostles, suited to the particular Circumstances of Things at that Time; that the GOSPEL sets us at Liberty from all such Obligations; that there are many Passages which declare, that Meats and Drinks are nothing, as to any particular Sinfulness in the using of one more than another; that what goes into the Mouth defileth not the Man; that all Things are clean and pure; that every Creature of God is good, and may be received, if it is received with Thanksgiving, for it is sanctified by the Word of God and Prayer.

But upon an attentive Examination we shall find, that Expressions seem to speak of Things in general, not to be to be taken into consideration in many Things; but in no Manner to declare the Lawfulness of those Things, which were prohibited by an express Decree of a general Assembly of the Apostles, under the Influence of the HOLY GHOST. Nor does it any ways clearly appear, that this apostolic Prohibition was intended only for those Times, or that it was ever let aside; and, therefore, as the eating of Blood and Things strangled may be avoided, and cannot profit, there seems, at least, to be most Reason for abstaining from them. However, let the Apostle's Advice upon this Occasion never be forgotten, lest we commit a much greater Evil than either eating or not eating, viz. Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not, judge him that eateth, Rom. xiv. 3.

Thus we see this great Point of a DYING SAVIOUR, was prefigured through all Times, to those to whom GOD was pleased to make known His Will. Tho' the old World was destroyed, and the new began in Noah, a righteous Seed; yet still we find, the Sacrifice of living Creatures an indispensable Duty; or that the Offering of a Life was necessary for the Remission of Sins, or for an Atonement.

As we go on in the Scriptures, we shall find this great Truth still inculcated. What other Reason can possibly be given for this, or what more striking Evidence can be had, that it was the ONE PURPOSE of GOD, from the Foundation of the World, that Salvation should be brought to lost Mankind, by the Offering of the precious Life and Blood of our most adorable SAVIOUR, JESUS CHRIST? For that Sacrifices, in themselves, were nothing to GOD, tho' appointed by him, GOD himself tells us in the Book of Psalms, I delight not, says he, in the Blood of Bulls or of He-Goats.

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require ; at the hand of every beast will I require it ; and at the hand of man, at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man.

The Expression here of the Hand of every Beast, is a peculiar Idiom of the Hebrew Tongue, and the Word here rendered Hand, also signifies Strength or Power; so that the Meaning of it in this Place is, that GOD will require the Blood of Man from the Strength or Power of every Beast; or rather, as it is in the Original, of every living Creature, that is, from the Strength and Power of the whole Brute World; and also, at the Hand, or from the Strength of Man: Even at the Hand of every Man's Brother. No Consideration, no Power whatever, we here find is to screen the MURDERER: GOD here denounces, that He would, as it were, arm the whole Creation against him.----The Holy Scriptures carry with them peculiar Marks of Truth, which will always bear Witness to them. Moses here records, that GOD absolutely;

olutely denounced a sure Vengeance upon every Murderer, and that He would assuredly bring him to Punishment. Above three thousand Years have past since Moss wrote this, and during this long Succession of Years, all History bears Witness, that the Murderer has ever been punished.

GOD has often so visibly interposed in the Discovery of Murderers, by very extraordinary Means, so as to bring the Murderer to Punishment, of which there are many remarkable Instances, recorded in the Histories of all Ages and Countries, that He bears Witness to Himself, and to the Holy Scriptures in this Place, that He has surely denounced a Vengeance on all Murderers. And this has been the general Opinion of all Mankind, as may be learnt from the Writings of all Nations; and we have a remarkable Proof of it, in the twenty-eighth Chapter of the Acts of the Apostles; where it is related, that the Barbarians, on the little Island where St. Paul was shipwrecked, observing that a Viper had fastened on his Hand, from the Sticks wherewith a Fire had been kindled to dry and refresh him, immediately concluded that he was a Murderer, whom tho' he had escaped the Sea, Vengeance could not suffer to live.

In Fact, every Country has furnished such extraordinary Instances of Murderers being brought to Punishment, by extraordinary and unthought of Means, that the HAND or PROVIDENCE of GOD appears as visible in it, as if He was to appear in all His glorious Majesty to punish the Offender Himself.

When the Murderers have been too great for the Hand or Power of Man, GOD Himself has destroyed them in so unceremonious a Manner, as made them Examples of Punishment to all Mankind. Thus Herod, Sylla, and Philip the Second of Spain, three notorious Murderers, were eaten up by Worms from their own Bowels. Nor is the Instance of some few Murderers not being brought to Light, any Proof of the Murderer going unpunished; for there have been known Instances of Murderers being taken up and put to Death in distant Countries, for Crimes which they were not guilty of; who, when such Evil had taken hold of them, saw plainly themselves that it was for the shedding of Man's Blood that Judgment had overtaken them.

Many Instances of this Sort probably happen, which are not known; so that though Murders are sometimes never found out to the Knowledge of Man, yet we ought not to suppose from thence, that the Murderer goes unpunished; but that assuredly, by some Means or other, the Blood that he hath shed is required at his Hand.

Whatever then Human Nature may be capable of, in Countries where the Word of GOD is not known, it must be the most presumptuous Madness, the highest Folly, as well as Wickedness, for those who know it, to do that which they know will inevitably bring sure Destruction on their own Head. Let it then sink deep into our Hearts, let it be always fixed in our Memory, That GOD who seeth all Things, that GOD who can do all Things, and punish when He pleaseth, that GOD who cannot lye, has declared to us, That He will require the Life of Man, and that who so sheddeth Man's Blood, by Man shall his Blood be shed. Let us not flatter ourselves with the least Hopes of escaping on such an Occasion; for GOD is TRUTH, and His Word will certainly stand. Can we imagine we can go from His Presence, who is present every where? If we were to take the Wings of a Dove, and fly to the uttermost Parts of the Earth, there would His Hand take hold of us. Can we think to escape His Sight, which becometh afar off? His Sun seeth all Things upon Earth daily; and can we suppose He Himself does not behold in every Place? The Works of all Flesh are before Him, and nothing can be hid from His Eye. Can we hope to screen ourselves from His Power, who can aim the whole Creation against the Wicked? For all Things rejoice to execute the Commandment of GOD; they hold themselves ready, and when He ordereth, they will obey His Word exactly.

We ought too seriously to consider from the Prohibition recorded here against the shedding of Man's Blood, whether any Rules of Custom, or what is called Honour, will justify us in destroying the Life of Man, who is made in the Image of GOD, or whether the Blood that we shed in this Manner will not be required by GOD at our Hands. We find it is required of the Beasts of the Field, who strictly speaking (being irrational) can not be guilty of any Crime in killing a Man, which they have no Understanding about; but GOD seems to have intended to show by this, that the Life of Man was so divine, that scarce any Circumstance would excuse the taking of it away; and that therefore any Creature that had done it, though indeed innocent in itself as to any Crime, should be immediately put to Death, to prevent its doing any further Damage to the Life of Man.

We may likewise infer from this Place, that all abusing, wounding, or maiming of the Body of Man, must be highly displeasing to GOD's Sight, because Man is made in His IMAGE; and whoever does Violence to, or disgraces this, must needs offend Him.

6 Who so sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man.

7 And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply, bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, behold I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you,

The Scriptures are only in this sense, that GOD alone doth every Thing, and no Creature is able to do any Thing. Gen. 1. 26. Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. So that however little we may contribute to anything, owing to any natural Cause, but to this very Covenant which GOD has made with Noah, as the Representative of all succeeding Generations, which the World shall stand, that we have need of His Blessings, Cold and Heat, Summer and Winter, Day and Night.

10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you, from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

We find here, that however little we consider the Brute Creatures, however barbarously we often use them, however little Right we may think they have to any Part of the Goodness of the Creation, yet are they included with Man in GOD's Covenant, in Respect to the Blessings of the Earth. GOD's Mercy is over all His Works, over every Creature that is with you, and of every Beast of the Earth. What then, therefore, would certainly deprive any of them of their Enjoyments which are agreeable to their Nature, when we put them to uncessant Pain and Torment, and harass them, truly there is some Reason to think that by so doing we offend against that ethereal Order of general Harmony, and harmony which GOD intended to be by Creation when He brought forth the Light.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you: neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood: neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

By what is said here, GOD does not intend to establish any particular Place or Country, by so doing as now, a Flood of Waters, which has happened many Times since Noah's Flood; but that he would never again destroy all Flesh, and the Earth entirely, by the Water of a Flood, as he had done them.

12 And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

GOD having declared this His gracious Covenant to Noah and his Sons, to assure them further of it, was pleased to give them a Sign or Token of it, which might always be a Matter of Confidence and Assurance to them, and all succeeding Generations, that the World would never again be destroyed by a Flood of Waters, by reminding them that GOD (for whom it is impossible to lye) had covenanted that it should never be so destroyed. This was, His Bow in the Clouds, or what we call the RAINBOW.

Writers have differed in their Opinions whether this was its first Appearance, or whether it appeared before the Flood. Some argue, that as the Rainbow is formed by a Reflexion of the Sun's Rays shining on the Cloud from whence the Rain falls, therefore if there were Clouds and Rains before the Flood, which they suppose there was, they infer from thence that the Rainbow must have then sometimes appeared. They likewise observe, that the Word in the Hebrew, which we translate I do set, does not signify so, but, I do give, or appoint, or appropriate my BOW in the Clouds for a Sign, &c. And that the Expression MY BOW, seems to imply it was then in Being, and a well-known Thing: And they argue, that GOD might as well give that which was before in Being for a Memorial, Sign, or Token, as cause any new Appearance for that Purpose. But this Supposition does, upon Examination, by no Means seem either agreeable to what we find done by GOD upon like Occasions, which are recorded in the Scripture, or indeed to the Intent of the Design, in giving such Tokens; for when GOD gives a Sign in the Heavens, or on the Earth, of any Prophecy or Promise to be fulfilled, it must needs be by something new, or by some Change wrought in Nature; whereby He testifies to us, that He is able and willing to stand to His Promise. And agreeable to this, we find throughout the Scriptures, that whenever GOD was pleased to give a Sign in Confirmation of any Thing He had said, it was always something new and extraordinary. Thus, when a Sign was given to Abraham, of a Promise made to him, it was the extraordinary Appearance of a SMOOKING FURNACE and a BURNING LAMP passing between the Pieces of the Beasts, he had cut asunder in Sacrifice. When a Token or Sign was given to Moses, that he should re-20 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years : and he died.

C H A P. X

1 The sons of Noah : 2 The sons of Japheth : 6 The sons of Ham : 8 The sons of Shem : 21 The sons of Shem.

NOW these are the generations of the sons of Noah : Shem, Ham, and Japheth : and unto them were sons born after the flood.

2 The sons of Japheth ; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

To Japheth's Posterity Europe and the Northern Asia : The Memory of him remained amongst the Heathens under the Name Japheth. Gomer is thought to be the Father of the Cimbrians, a Northern Nation of Europe. Magog was the Father of the Sythians, Ezek. xlviii. 2. Madai of the Medes, Isa. xli. 2. Javan of the Ionians, Isa. lvi. 6. and Tubal of the Hebrews, or Assyrians, Isa. lvi. 1. Meshech, by the Affinity of the Name, and the Northern Situation, is supposed to be the Father of the Macedonians. Tiras was the Father of the Thracians.

3 And the sons of Gomer ; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

The Jews believe that Ashkenaz was the Father of the People of Germany, Isa. xli. 1. Riphath was the Father of the Ripheans in the farthest Northern Parts, 1 Chron. i. 6. Togarmah is supposed to be the Father of some Northern Nation hitherto unknown, Ezek. xlviii. 12. and xxxviii. 13. The Jews believe that the Turks were his Posterity.

4 And the sons of Javan ; Elisha, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

From Elisha descended the Elians in the lesser Asia, Ezek. xlviii. 12. Tarshish was the Father of the Chaldeans, where the City of Tharshis was, Ezek. xlviii. 12. and Jon. i. 3. And Kittim the Father of the Macedonians, Num. xxiv. 24. Dan. vi. 30. 1 Mac. i. 1. Now under this Name, and others which have a plural Termination, it seems, ought to be understood the Head with all its Descend. Dodanim was the Father of the Epirotes, or the Albanians of Europe, in which Country stands the City of Dodana.

5 By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands ; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

Here and elsewhere by the Name of the Isles, are meant the Islands of the Mediterranean Sea, and in general all the Provinces of Europe, which are encompassed and divided by that Sea, Jer. xvi. 22.----Affix this seems to be added, to shew that this Separation was after the Confusion of Languages, at which Time, GOD, by a Miracle, caused every Race to take a separate one to itself.

6 ¶ And the sons of Ham ; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan.

Cush was the Father of the Ethiopians, on both Sides of the Arabian Sea ; Mizraim, the Father of the Egyptians ; and Phut the Father of the Phutians, a People of Africa, Ezek. xlviii. 10. and xxxviii. 5.

7 And the Sons of Cush ; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabrah, and Raamah, and Sabtechah : and the sons of Raamah ; Sheba, and Dedan.

From Seba and his Brethren, have the Countries and Nations of Arabia, the Sabeans, Sabateans, Caulateans, &c. taken their Names. Finally, Cam peopled the South, Japhet the North and West, and Shem the East.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod : he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

Nimrod was the first after the Flood that presuming upon his Strength and Courage, set up an absolute Dominion, such as some were before the Flood, instead of the milder Government of Fathers of Families, of the First-born, and of the Wise, &c. His Name was used by Way of Proverb or Speech, to express great Strength and Valour : It is probable his Lot chanced to fall in a Place greatly infested by wild Beasts, and he applied himself to Hunting, and cleared the Country of them ; from which he obtained the Name of the Hunter. Before the Lord is a Manner of speaking expressing great Eminency : From his Valour and Success in this, it is probable, he raised himself to be a King, and is supposed to be the first in the World.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the Lord : wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

Nimrod's Reign began in these Cities, but afterwards it extended itself a great deal further.---Babel this Name being given after the Confusion of Languages, it is very likely that Nimrod did also then begin his Reign.---Shinar that is, Mesopotamia, viz. the Land situate between the two Rivers Euphrates and Tigris, and that is the Meaning of the Greek and Hebrew Name.

11 Out of that land went forth Ashur, and builded Nineveh, and the city of Rehoboth, and Calah, Ashur was the Son of Shem, v. 22. And it seems that Ashur, not being able to endure Nimrod's Tyranny, who usurped other Men's Dominions, (as Chaldea, which Nimrod had seized upon, was Shem's Part) went away beyond Tigris, where he founded the Empire of Assyria, whose chief City was Nineveh, Isa. xliii. 17. and afterwards destroyed that of Babylon, till such Time as Nineveh being also destroyed by the Medians ; Babylon or Babel, did rise again in the Days of Nebuchadnezzar the great.

12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah : the same is a great City.

13 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Ananim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim,

These were the Fathers or Founders of divers Countries of Africa. Lehabim was the Father of the People of Lybia.

14 And Pathrusim, and Casluhim (out of whom came Philistim and Caphtorim.

15 ¶ And Canaan begat Sidon his first-born, and Heth,

These mentioned here, and in the following Verses, with their Nations, are the Inhabitants of that Country which GOD did afterwards bestow upon His People.

16 And the Jebusite, and the Emorite, and the Girgasite,

17 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,

18 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite : and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar, unto Gaza ; as thou goest unto Sodom and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lashah.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

21 ¶ Unto Shem also the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born.

Shem was the first Stock of the Children of Eber or the Hebrews, GOD's People ; in which Branch Shem is honoured and blessed, as Cam is cursed in Canaan's.

22 The children of Shem ; Elam, and Ashur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

From Elam came the Persians, or Part of them, Asa. ii. 9. Ashur was the Father of the Assyrians, Lud the Father of the Lydians, and Aram the Father of the Syrians.

23 And the Children of Aram ; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

These are the Fathers of divers Nations of Syria.

24 And

24 And Arphaxad begat Salah; and Salah begat Eber.

27 And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg, for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

Police Division. JOKAN people the uniform Police of the State, and possibly degrading those who were their political enemies. Many of that Name.

26 And Joktan begat Almedad, and Shethph. and Hazarmavech, and Jerah, 27 And Hadoram, and Ufal, and Diklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these ~~were~~ the sons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest unto Sephar a mount of the east.

31 There are the sons of Shem after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.

22 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations : and by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

Here then we see the Obedience of all the different Nations now on the Earth: Which may teach us, to look upon all Men, of whatever Country or Nation, however different in Manners and Customs, with Respect to their own Good Nature, and Affections. For, in Reality, however separated, we are all BRETHREN, as being descended from one and the same Stock or Family.

C H A P. XI.

1 Only one language in the world. 2 The language of Babel. 3 These different languages came among mankind. 4 The generations of Shem down to Abraham, to show the origin of the people of God. 51 Terah got's out of Chaldaea, and got's to at Haran in the Land of Canaan, where he dieth.

AND the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech.

It is very plain, though the fertling of all Nations by the Sons of Noah, is related in the foregoing Chapter, yet what is related in this was previous to it : The Thing in general is related in the foregoing Chapter, how it came to pass, in this.

Learned Men are of different Opinions as to what was the first Language. The Dispute lies between the Hebrew, Chaldee, Syrian, and Arabic: One of which is generally allowed to be it. The Arguments for the Syrian and Arabic are but few and trifling; therefore it lies between the Chaldee and Hebrew, and they seem to stand upon an equal Footing. These two Languages are very much alike, and some learned Men suppose them at first to have been the very same. So that, upon the Whole, we may conclude, that the Hebrew was the first and only Language that Mankind spake, till what is related in this Chapter happened.

2 And it came to pass as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar ; and they dwelt there.

They journeyed from about the Mountain of Azurat, where the Ark rested, seeking a larger and more commodious Country, for their Families, which were increased. Shinar is the same which is, after called Mesopotamia.

3 And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.

By Slime is meant a Bitumen or pitchy Substance ; with which, according to the Accounts of Travellers who have been on the Spot, the Country about Babylon abounds.

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven, and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

[illegible]

"For our Dear Father, Friend, and Brother, we are glad to see that Mr. G. Hall, our Dear Friend and Brother, has been appointed Pastor, upon a vast Plain, where many of our Dear Brethren are scattered, but potentiated to supply the wants of the long Manly of W. and C. Union, and W. and C. Union is visible, our Dear Father and Brother, the Dear Father and Brother are strong, and to be Dear Father and Brother, the Dear Father and Brother watched. The Dear Father and Brother, the Dear Father and Brother and friendly Communication, which way at the Dear Father and Brother our Dear Father and Brother, and that Dear Father and Brother purposes, as the Dear Father and Brother, the Dear Father and Brother reach unto the of the Dear Father and Brother, the Dear Father and Brother of Union, and friendly Communication, the Dear Father and Brother Land-Mark to us, throughout the whole Extent of this vast Plain, and to make our Correspondence easy, as the Dear Father and Brother make it commodious. The glorious Purposes, we are well able to effect united, but divided, we shall be inconfutably, and im-peris inglorious, and estranged over the Face of the Earth."

If we take it in the Sense of our Translation, to build a new Nazareth, which includes in it becoming our vi and row, where we consider how natural Vanity is to the Human Breast, how Man is always aspiring to be great and mighty, we may readily conceive that they entertained vain Thought of executing some mighty Project; for all the Pride and Magnificence of their Ancestors were defaced, and utterly destroyed by the Destroyer, without the least Remains or Memorial of their Grandeur! Consequently, the Earth was now a clear Stage, whereon to erect new and improved Monuments of Glory and Grandeur to themselves. And being assured by GOD Himself, that the World should be destroyed no more in the same Manner, they had Reason to believe that when ever Monuments of Magnificence they should now erect, would last in Proportion to the Strength of the Structure, and Durableness of the Materials. And to the first, it will be allowed that no other Structure ever vied with this in Point of Strength, except the Pyramid; and whether it was through Necessity or Choice, is hard to say, but certainly they chose the most durable Materials for their Structure, that this World affords, since right good Brick (Clay, thoroughly burnt, and such was that of which this Building wholly consisted,) is found to out-last Marble, and to be more durable even than Metals of any kind; and the Clay or Bitumen which they used instead of Mortar, give such a Firmness to Brick, as makes it stronger than either Rock or Iron.

It is notorious that Vanity has been the very Principle which has ever prompted and invited Mankind in all the Works and Monuments of Magnificence of later Ages ; and as Human Nature has always been the same, it is reasonable to conclude that this was one Motive for the building of the TOWER OF BABEL.

Some have indeed imagined, that they did it with the vain Thought of securing themselves from the Anger of HEAVEN, from being destroyed by any other Flood. But as the Scriptures give not the least Intimation of this, as they do not even seem to make it an impious or wicked Undertaking, and as it seems highly probable that if this had been their Design, they would have chosen some high Mountain to have built it on, and not a Plain or low Land, therefore there does not seem any great Foundation in this Conjecture.

The British People, therefore, were full with the obvious Sense of a just and necessary Claim, and I concluded we shall be able to the People to show that we were in fact, that the British Perfection was the presentment of the People, that is, they were coming to be as true as the People, and it is only they know Secretary and oblige them to put that in the British for the Necessity of Life, and the only reason for the People's Head Quarters, and it is the only reason would be to send them for a Sign of Direction, or a Sign of the People's Direction, and in fact, as a Plain,

[illegible]

Then I seriously and attentively consider I will show us this to have been the Cause for being excommunicated, and having excommunication could not be vicious in itself, nor could it any way contribute to any kind of Wickedness, or to any ill Consequence, we expect of being excommunicated from each other, and as a natural Influxion of enjoining on any civil connected Society or Kingdom. That they had the Threat of enlarging their Power in what they were doing, was neither evident from what I then said, nor from any other thing I said, and was nothing more than a supposition, and a mere conjecture. Which I was far from saying, but they were endeavouring to increase their Power, and to extend their Influence.

7 And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

We must have a Minister take the Vice-Chancellor to the field. Perhaps the Minister of Agriculture, GOD bless him, and the Minister of Education, GOD bless him, and the Minister of Health, GOD bless him, to report to GOD concerning the Minister of Health, for the Minister of Health is doing more than he was actually to come down on the field to do.

6 And the Lord said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language : and thus they begin to do : and now nothing will be refrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

The latter Part of this Verse can mean no more, than that they would not imagine vain and proud Things, and go on with foolish and hurried Designs; for that they could be, and were restrained by GOD, appears from what follows. Some Commentators think it should be translated not to envy; And envy all not to love; and to love all not to be proud; and to be proud not to be angry; &c.

7 Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.

We here find another most remarkable Fact recorded in Relation to Mankind; a Fact that Experience proves did happen one Time or other, viz. A Deluge of Languages amongst Men. For it is a very extraordinary Phenomenon, though the Commonness of it makes us not regard it, that Mankind, who are alike all the World over, in Regard to their several Organs and Parts of their Body, should yet speak so many Languages in the various Parts of the World, each different from one another, and absolutely unintelligible to those of any other Country. Thus, when we reflect that all Mankind sprang from one Man at first, whether we suppose this Earliest of the whole Human Race was created not only a rational but a speaking Creature, or whether we suppose (which seems most probable) that GOD instructed him in the Use of Speech after his Creation, yet both Ways it is evident all his Descendants must speak one and the same Language, and could know no other. It is therefore entirely beyond the utmost Comprehension of Reason; nor can any natural Causes be assigned how there came so many different Languages upon the Face of the Earth. The Holy Scriptures acquaint us, that GOD Himself caused it; and indeed, upon Consideration, it seems impossible it should come to pass by any other Means, than by the Power of GOD.

Here then we have another remarkable Evidence, which will endure as long as the World remains, That GOD is KING, and reigneth on the Earth, that he doeth whatso ever pleaseth him therein, and directeth the way of every Thing according to His INFINITE WISDOM, so as to produce the GREATEST GOOD to the Children of Men. The more we consider what is recorded here, the more we shall see Reason and the Undeveloped Will, and the power of GOD, and the universality of His Providence, in everything in ALL, and that He is always working to produce a new AFTER-Group; and that in these ages, and yet to come, there is no cessation.

We took Notice in our Notice on the Tenth Chapter, of the Means in a Civilized World, Likened to his, in the Progress of Living, and to him, Mr. P. Teacher, we further observed, that even the Delinquency of the White World, is not entirely to be excused, or to be looked upon as an Act of the White and Good World, in the City of Heaven, and that the chief Delinquency of it was, to produce an Anti Evidence, the better to Mislead the Heaven and Human Community, and to cause a Delinquency in Two Cities, Heaven and Earth, which contributed much to the great Degeneracy and Corruption of the old World; viz. the great Length of their Lives, which contributed to fill them with Pride and Envy, as tho' they were immortal; and consequently in being in Peace and Long age, and, consequently, connected into one vast Society. For all the Experience of Human Nature proves, that Evil Communication corrupts Good Men, and, consequently, that when Evil once begun, and enters into a Society, it will finally corrupt the Whole. And, therefore, the whole World being in Peace and Long age, and thereby connected into one vast Society, by strict Ties and mutual Interchange; it is evident, that when Evil and Degeneracy had once gained any Head, it would become universal, and to the whole World be corrupt and full of Violence, as we read it was, before the Deluge. For Peace and Long age is another true and certain Consequence of Peace Society or Government, for as Peace, Justice, Long age, Abundance, and Long life, and consequently Peace and Long age, are the natural Consequences of Peace, when there is no Check upon it; so, consequently, however good and peace and long age, a full Part of these large Government may be, yet, it is certain, and the Experience of all Ages shew in which, that the Evil Government will suffer Violence, be grievously oppressed, and in Evil be abundantly multiplied.

That what we have said of Wickedness becoming general, and Violence increasing by Men of vast Greatness, and of the Corruption of the Earth, and that this would be sufficient to justify the Punishment of the whole World, and to fill it with Violence, is supported by all our Prophecy, confirmed by the Testimony of the Scripture themselves, in what they relate of the old World, seem to indicate; for it is sufficiently plain from them, that Wickedness made an extremely rapid Progress, by the People all being so, and that what preserved Noah and his Family in the Part, was the Sons of Noah being separated by some peculiar Particularity from the rest of the World: As soon as they became one People with them, the Wickedness became general, and the whole Earth was corrupt and full of Violence.

This would always have been the sad State of Mankind, wicked as I corrupt, and the most Part oppressed, enslaved, and miserable : But the Lord is King, the Earth may be glad thereof, the Mankind may rejoice at it.—And let us here admire His infinite and admirable Wisdom, as well as Goodness, who by this one Act, not only at that Time, but to the End of the World, prevented universal Wickedness, and universal Oppression and Violence ; for there are so many Barriers fixed against the spreading of these great Evils, as there are Societies in the World differing in Language, Interest, and Manners. For the Virtue, good Government, and Industry of all Societies, is kept alive either through Emulation, or Fear of the neighbouring Societies ; for whatever Society is most virtuous, will by the natural Course of Things come to have Dominion over others that are less so. And in like Manner, it is evident Oppression cannot become general, while the Earth is divided into distinct Societies, because whenever the Members of any one are oppressed, they may and will call in some other Society to relieve them, or else take Refuge in some other.

But besides this, other GREAT GOOD arose to Mankind from this Act of GOD; for as Mankind had now no Connection, or indeed Pleasure in keeping together, as they could not understand one another's Language, each Tribe or Family who spoke the same Language, separated from the others, and removed into other Places, as either Chance or Lot directed them; whereby they were spread Abroad, and the whole Earth peopled in a much shorter Space of Time than it would otherwise have been. And from thence arose an ESSENTIAL GOOD to the World, which has continued ever since, and will as long as the World endures; for as each Tribe settled in a different Country, and became there one PEOPLE, distinct from all the other Parts of the World, so consequently they exerted their whole Strength of Mind and Body in making the greatest Advantage of, and carrying to the highest Perfection and Improvement, all the Product and Qualities of that particular Spot in which they were settled; for it was truly to them the whole World, as they had nothing to do with any other Part. By this Means, as we see it is now in large Works, where every one has his Part assigned him, the Work is much better executed, and in a shorter Time, than it would otherwise be, if all were to work promiscuously at it: So the Earth, by this Division of it, undoubtedly received a greater Improvement, and in a much shorter Time, than it would otherwise have done.

The

The more we consider it, the more we shall find it great Happiness that has come to the World from the Dispensation here recorded; for now Mankind are employed to every Part of the Earth for the mutual Benefit of each other, they are each bound in bringing to Perfection the particular Product of their Division, in order to exchange for the Products of some other Division, where they are equally employed in bringing their respective Products to Perfection. Thus every Thing is carried on for the greatest Good of the Whole, without Envy or Contention, without Strife or Contention, without Negligence or Supercity; and the whole Earth is become a well-ordered Family, wherein every one has his respective Place. O! how unsearchable is GOD! How Great is His Wisdom! And how Great is His Power!

This great Incident of the Confusion of Language, and the Dispersion of Mankind, happened about one thousand Years after the Flood. It is thought about forty different Languages arose at that Time; for we are not to imagine that there were a many different Languages; there were Men at Babel, so that none of them understood one another; but only that every Family, or perhaps all those Families which GOD designed to make one Colony in the following Dispersion, had a peculiar Language given to them, so that they understood each other, though they could not understand or be understood by others.

8 So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence : upon the face of all the earth : and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel, because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth : and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

The Word BABEL signifies Confusion.

10 ¶ These are the generations of Shem : Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood.

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah.

13 And Arphaxad lived after he begot Salah four hundred and three years, and begot sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber.

15 And Salah lived after he begat fiber four hundred and three years, and begat Sons and daughters.

16 And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat Peleg.

17 And Liber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu.

19 And Peleg lived after he begat Reu two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

20 And Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat Serug.

21 And Reu lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nahor.

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat Terah.

25 And Nahor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah, in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees.

29 And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai; and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah.

But Sarra was born a little before the year of the Lord 600. A certain king of the tribe of Manassas married a daughter in-law, his son Verand' was, and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chaldees, to the land of Canaan; and they came out thence and dwelt there.

32 And the day of His coming shall be as fire : and he will burn up the five vessels : and he will parch the wheat.

[illegible]

( 1 ) , ( 2 ) , ( 3 ) , ( 4 )

[illegible]

NOW the Lords had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, & from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee.

We are now coming to a very remarkable Period, and Interposition of the divine Providence; we are now approaching to Times of greater Light, to clearer and more distinct Prophecies, and more nearly referring to GOD'S CHARACTER and Attributes of MERCY and GOODNESS towards Mankind, manifested by the REVELATION of His Son. This Period opens at the Call of ABRAHAM, and runs through the Law and the Prophets, ending where the GOSPEL of CHRIST begins, and continues.

We find no new Prophecy given to Noah after the Flood, nor to any of his Children till the Call of Abraham. The Religion of Isaac was not his; the Power and Sovereignty of God were not mainly employed in the Duties, and in the Dispensing of Blessings upon a few Persons, till the latter, and came to well deserved to the succeeding Generation, that Religion wanted no other Support: But now, when Idolatry prevailed, and the World was in Danger of being quite lost to true Religion, without the Interposition of GOD, the Word of Prophecy was renewed.

We therefore here find Him making a Declaration to the Head of one particular Family, to go out from his Country, and his Kindred, and his Father's House, to a Land that He would show him. We find Him entirely separating this Family and its Descendants from the rest of the World by peculiar Customs, and Laws, making frequent Declaration, to them of His Will, and manifesting Himself unto them by signs, and Wonders, and Appearances.

How soon the World after the Deluge corrupted their Ways, and lost the Knowledge of the True GOD, and changed the Glory of the incorruptible---into an Image made like to corruptible Men, we cannot certainly know; but this we certainly know, that in Abraham's Time Idolatry had spread far and wide, and taken deep Root even in the Family of Shem, and in that Branch of it particularly from which Abraham descended. This being the Case, it is highly probable that true Religion had entirely failed in the World, had not GOD visibly interpolated to preserve such a Remnant of it as was necessary for the Accomplishment of His Great Design to restore Mankind.

If we consider now the whole World lost to all Sense of Religion, estranged from GOD, and void of all Hopes towards Him, and suppose one Family chosen out merely for their own Sake to be delivered from the general Corruption and Misery, without any View or Design towards the general Good of Mankind, it gives too mean and partial a View of GOD ; therefore we must consider it as a Method of PROVIDENCE working towards the great End always in View, the general Restoration of Mankind from the CURSE of the FALL, as the opening of that Scene which we to

1. And I will make thee a great Nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing.

2. And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all Families of the earth be blessed.

In this and the two foregoing Verses, we find GOD promising great blessings to Abram, and accordingly we find in his History, that he was greatly prosperous in all his Affairs, beginning from the time that he came out of Ur, the Chaldean, unto the time that he came to Canaan. GOD is the Author of all Blessings; He is the Bestower of all good Things; He ordereth every Thing; He disposeth our Lot, and fixeth our Habitation, and His blessing is never; Nothing can hinder its taking Effect, the most powerful Obstacles in the Way signify nothing. Abram was an entire Stranger in the Land, and it was already possessed by a very powerful People, that GOD promises to give to his Seed, and which accordingly never did possess. If we have GOD'S Blessing, we have every Thing; and if we will but trust in him as faithfully, and love him with a true Heart as he should, we may be assured He will be true to us.

Abram is a Pattern to us how we ought to live in this World, in a constant and close Dependence on the Great GOD, who dwelleth in the Heavens. He will watch over us, and prosper us in all that we set our Hearts to do; He will be our Father, our Friend, our Saviour; He will lead us by a secret way, the way of the World, and bring us to a Land that is well watered, to a heavenly Canaan, to the Kingdoms prepared for us in the Heavens, where there is no more sorrow or pain, where all is Peace, Joy, and Glory.

But to come to this, we must, like Abram, give Him our whole Heart, and give up all that we have, and all that we are, to Him; we must leave all to Him, that GOD may do with us as He will, and direct us in all that we do, that nothing may withstand His Will, and that He doth whatsoever pleaseth Him on the Earth. We must, like Abram, believe, that our WHOLE HAPPINESS depends on obeying His Will; and that, while we do this, however unfavourably Circumstances may appear for us, yet all Things are working for our GOOD.

Abram went out from his own Country and Kindred, where he undoubtedly enjoyed Honor, Power, and Plenty, to go he knew not whither, to become a Stranger in another Country, to meet with Dangers and Difficulties; but he trusted in GOD who had promised, that He was able to perform his Word, and that He was able to bring it to pass. He believed that the Favour of GOD was a Reward more than every Thing, more than all the Advantages he left in forsaking his own Country, more than all the Obstacles and Disadvantages that presented themselves on his going he knew not whither, into a strange Country.

Let us then follow his Example, and among all the various Scenes of this World, amidst all its Changes, amidst all the Circumstances of our Affairs, let us look up to GOD, to the Disposer of our Lot; let our chief Endeavour be to gain His Favour, and then let us rest firmly assured that whether in Life or Death, whether in Prosperity or Affliction, all Things will work together for our Good: Let us not mind the Aspect of Things; let us not be disheartened, however much they may seem against us, but rest firmly in Hope that GOD is able to do all Things, and will never forsake us.

This is the great and useful Lesson we may learn from the Example of Abram: And the Holy Scriptures agree in this Doctrine, as they do in all Truths, throughout. In the New Testament we are taught by a greater than Abram, the very same Lesson: Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness, and all these Things shall be added unto you.

The latter Part of this Verse deserves a very attentive Consideration: In thee shall all Families of the Earth be blessed. This must needs relate to something more than Abram's being great and prosperous; for however great he might be, and however virtuous, yet we cannot suppose his Influence could extend so far as to make all the Families of the Earth blessed; neither in the Sequel of his History, do we find any Thing of so extraordinary a Nature in his Fortune, as to worldly Grandeur, as to make the whole Earth happy. He himself, though he was blessed with temporal Blessings, yet was a Sojourner in a strange Land all his Life; and his Posterity possessed but a very small Part of the Earth. We must therefore conclude, that the great Promises made by GOD to Abram, had Respect to better Things than merely temporal Riches and Grandeur; for though Abram had his Share of these, yet there was nothing peculiar of these to Abram and his Posterity only. There were before Abram, and have been since, many great and powerful Nations of another Kindred, who arrived to great Prosperity, and left a numerous Issue behind them, in Virtue of GOD'S common Blessing. The Promises therefore made to Abram must needs signify something more than common Blessing. And we see all this possibly be, in which all the Families of the Earth are to be blessed, but that the GREAT GOOD of ALL the Descendants of all Nations, the Seed which was to bring the Saviour's Seed, should be brought into the World in the Family of Abram. This was the distinguishing Promise and Covenant made with him. This was the peculiar Favour. This was the glorious Privilege granted unto Abram. Which we shall see more clearly, as we go on; for in the 22d Chapter it is expressly pointed out, that this Happiness should not arise from Abram in Person, but from his Seed. GOD, as we have already seen, had made a Declaration as soon as unhappy Man fell from his first Estate, that he should be restored again, and that the Seed of the Woman should bruise the Serpent's Head, that is, entirely overcome him. This Promise had been delivered down (at least amongst those who believed in GOD) to this Time; but above two thousand Years had now passed, without Mankind having any Knowledge from whence this Seed, this Deliverer, was to arise. GOD was pleased now to make the Declaration, that he should arise from the Seed of Abram; whereby the Hopes of the Patriarchs were raised and augmented, as this long-expected Seed, the Heir of Adam, of which they knew nothing more before, than that He was to come, was now fixed to arise from the Descendants of one particular Man then in Being.

Besides this, to give them further Hope and Assurance, this Great Seed, this Deliverer of Mankind, this Son of GOD, the SAVIOUR of the World, began now to manifest himself to Mankind, by frequent Appearance to them. There is no Ground from the Scripture to conclude, that there was any Divine Appearance to Mankind, till the Time of Abram; for though there might be the Divine Shewings, or luminous Appearance, which seems to be no more than a Cloud of exceeding great Light, (though this does not appear certain from what is said in the Scripture,) yet we may observe that nothing more is mentioned on any Occasion of GOD'S declaring Himself to Mankind, than that THE LORD SAID, till the 7th Verse of this Chapter, in which it is said, THE LORD APPEARED TO ABRAM, and from this we have frequent Mention of a DIVINE APPEARANCE.

4 So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Haran; and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan, and into the land of Canaan they came.

6 ¶ And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Sichem, unto the plain of Morch. And the Canaanite was then in the land.

7 And the LORD appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

It is natural here to enquire how Abram, and those who were favoured with Revelations, could certainly know them to be Divine. GOD manifested Himself to them several Ways: He sent them prophetic Angels; He appeared to them by Night in Dreams; He illuminated their Minds by extraordinary Impressions; He made His Voice to be heard by them. In all these, the Manner of distinguishing such Manifestations must have been different. 1. As to Dreams: Doubtless such Representations must have been perspicuous and lively, so as to make a strong Impression upon their Minds, even much stronger than ordinary. And though it is impossible for us, who never had Experience of such Divine Intercourse, to explain how this was done, yet we may be sure that GOD would not suffer His Servants to be so imposed upon, as to mistake the Operations of evil Spirits, or the Workings of their own Fancy, for Revelations from Himself. Probably, the Dream was confirmed by some Sign exhibited to them when awake. As to Visions that were presented to their Minds when broad awake, these were more easily discerned. They were commonly introduced with a distinct Voice, without the Appearance of any visible outward Object, and that so loud as even to awake them when asleep, as it did Samuel, 1 Sam. iii. Sometimes the Voice was sent out of the Clouds, or from Heaven, as it was to Abram, Ch. xii. 11. 15. Sometimes out of the Midst of Fire, Ex. xix. 20. Still without any visible Speaker, Deut. iv. 15. 16. Job xxxviii. 1. At other Times GOD, or one of His Angels, appeared to them in a Human Form, as Gen. xviii. 2. Jud. xiii. 6. Isa. vi. 1. Ezek. i. 26. And it is probable, that whenever we meet with this Expression, The LORD appeared, as in the Passage before us, their flesh Appearance was such as to shew a Human Form. As to the Risk of our imagining them to be Persons from Illusions of the Imagination. 1. There could be no Illusion when the Voice was heard from Human, as that from the Top of Sinai. So St. John compares the Voice of CHRIST appearing to him, in that Vision which he had, Rev. i. 12. to the Sound of a Trumpet; say, to the Musical Tone of a Sea, or many Waters together. Verbe 15. 2. When the Voice proceeded from such Places, where no Human Creature was, nor could be; as when Elijah heard a Voice from the Mount Sinai, 1 Kings. 19. and the Isaiah, from the Clouds. Sometimes too, distinguished from any speaking in Human Form, by the Majesty of his Countenance, or from unusual Light on his Face, Isa. vi. 1. The Archangels are said to have known one of the Persons in the midst of the fiery Furnace, to be an Angel, or one of the Sons of GOD, Dan. iii. 25. with 2. 5. 6. Sometimes too, the Persons appearing performed Actions miraculous, and surpassing Human Power, Gen. xv. 17. Jud. xiii. 17. &c.

It was at this Time to Abraham, as we have observed in the Note on the 3d Verse, that any Divine Light first appeared unto Man. And according to the Opinion of many learned Men, and according to the Reason of Things, it seems to have been our Blessed SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. There is a Passage in the New Testament, (Gal. Heb. x. 56.) which may be brought to support this: Our SAVIOUR there tells the Jews, that Abraham had seen His Day, and rejoiced at it. It seems plain from considering this Passage, that our SAVIOUR meant that Abraham had a personal Sight of Him, and not merely a Sight by FAITH; for it appears from attending to the Occasion, that our SAVIOUR spoke it to hint to the Jews that He was a greater Person than what they took Him to be, for that He not only now appeared, and lived amongst them, but that he had existed Ages before, and had been seen by Abraham. The plain the Jews took it in this Sense, by their Reply, "We would not have said so, for we have not yet fifty Years old, and thou hast said that Abraham saw thee." And our SAVIOUR agreed by His Reply, that they had taken His Words in the Sense He meant them, "Ye said not so, but ye are true, Verily I say unto you, My Father Abraham saw Me." And we find Abraham built his Altars not unto the invisible GOD, whom Moses has seen at any Time, but unto the LORD who appeared unto him. And in all the Accounts which we have of his Prayers, we find they were offered up in the Name of the LORD.

8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, Leaving Beth-el on the west, and Hai on the east : and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.

9 And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

10 ¶ And there was a famine in the land: and Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he find unto Sarah his wife, Behold now I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon.

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife, and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

Alas, how frail and weak is Human Nature ! how deep-rooted in us the Principle of SELF-WISDOM and SELF-DEPENDENCE ! This great Error, by the Arts of the Evil One, ruined our first Parents in their first Estate, and it still prevails in us universally ; we are always for depending on ourselves, for trusting to our own Prudence and Wisdom, rather than on GOD. Our grand Adversary, who is always watching to destroy us, takes every Occasion of sowing this destructive Seed in our Hearts, and from thence arises all the Unhappiness of our Lives, and, oftentimes, our utter Ruin.

Abraham, who had Faith in GOD to leave his Country, his Kindred, and his Father's House, to go into a strange Land; and who had thereupon received a Declaration from GOD himself, who cannot lie, that He would bless him in every Thing, and protect him in all his Ways; that He would bless them that blessed him, and curse those that cursed him; Abraham, who had seen the Glory of GOD by the divine Appearance to him, from whence he could not but judge of his Power, does here forget the Rock of his Strength, and that GOD doeth all Things on Earth, and ruleth over the Devices of the Wicked. He cannot be easy to trust in him for Protection and Deliverance, and, therefore, flies for Shelter to his own Wisdom: Ah, fatal and

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

14. ¶ And it came to pass that when the women came into Egypt, they said unto Joseph, we be sold here into bondage, and we have said unto our lord, we have no father and no land.

It appears as if the Account we have of the Chelone is not a travelling one, but confined to the land; for this Time we find it only in the dry, sandy, and open Ground enough, and not in the low and damp places, nor with the Black and Red, and find convenient to be taken from kindle and flint, without doing hurt to the Chelone. Molestation seems any Perform.

15 The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and she was taken into Pharaoh's house.

10 And he intrusted Abram well for his flock, and he had sheep, and oxen, and camels, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and she-asses, and camels.

17 And the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abram's wife.

Though Abraham had, by depending on his own Wisdom instead of GOD, brought his Wife into great Danger; yet GOD was pleased, by an Exercise of that Power which Abraham was afraid to trust to, to deliver her unharmed. Alas! How many Evils should we bring upon ourselves by trusting to our own Wisdom, w<sup>h</sup>at not GOD the God of Love and Goodness? though by our Actions we declare that we will not have Him to rule for us, yet He graciously averts the Evils which we should often bring upon our own Heads.

Even a wife Heathen could say of the Prayers of Men to Heaven, that were they always to be granted, Men would bring down Curses on themselves. And this may with equal Truth be said of our Action, as well as Wishes; for if a kind Providence did not often blast many of our Schemes and Purposes, we should often ruin ourselves, by our own Wisdom, which we are always so fond of trusting to. Let us therefore cheerfully submit ourselves to the UNERRING WISDOM of GOD in all our Ways, nor foolishly think an evil has befallen us, when the Purposes of our own Wisdom are disappointed.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? Why saidst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

It is not to be supposed that Abraham walked through all the Land immediately, and at once, but that he conveyed it all in Process of Time, by moving his Tent from one Place to another.

18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the Lord.

C H A P. XIV.

1 The war between the King of Sodom, and the King of Shinar, and the King of Elam, and the King of the Amorites. 2 The King of Sodom, and the King of Shinar, and the King of Elam, and the King of the Amorites, took Abram's goods. 3 Abram's goods were taken. 4 Abram's goods were taken. 5 Abram's goods were taken. 6 Abram's goods were taken. 7 Abram's goods were taken. 8 Abram's goods were taken. 9 Abram's goods were taken. 10 Abram's goods were taken. 11 Abram's goods were taken. 12 Abram's goods were taken. 13 Abram's goods were taken. 14 Abram's goods were taken. 15 Abram's goods were taken. 16 Abram's goods were taken. 17 Abram's goods were taken. 18 Abram's goods were taken. 19 Abram's goods were taken. 20 Abram's goods were taken. 21 Abram's goods were taken. 22 Abram's goods were taken. 23 Abram's goods were taken. 24 Abram's goods were taken. 25 Abram's goods were taken. 26 Abram's goods were taken. 27 Abram's goods were taken. 28 Abram's goods were taken. 29 Abram's goods were taken. 30 Abram's goods were taken. 31 Abram's goods were taken. 32 Abram's goods were taken. 33 Abram's goods were taken. 34 Abram's goods were taken. 35 Abram's goods were taken. 36 Abram's goods were taken. 37 Abram's goods were taken. 38 Abram's goods were taken. 39 Abram's goods were taken. 40 Abram's goods were taken. 41 Abram's goods were taken. 42 Abram's goods were taken. 43 Abram's goods were taken. 44 Abram's goods were taken. 45 Abram's goods were taken. 46 Abram's goods were taken. 47 Abram's goods were taken. 48 Abram's goods were taken. 49 Abram's goods were taken. 50 Abram's goods were taken. 51 Abram's goods were taken. 52 Abram's goods were taken. 53 Abram's goods were taken. 54 Abram's goods were taken. 55 Abram's goods were taken. 56 Abram's goods were taken. 57 Abram's goods were taken. 58 Abram's goods were taken. 59 Abram's goods were taken. 60 Abram's goods were taken. 61 Abram's goods were taken. 62 Abram's goods were taken. 63 Abram's goods were taken. 64 Abram's goods were taken. 65 Abram's goods were taken. 66 Abram's goods were taken. 67 Abram's goods were taken. 68 Abram's goods were taken. 69 Abram's goods were taken. 70 Abram's goods were taken. 71 Abram's goods were taken. 72 Abram's goods were taken. 73 Abram's goods were taken. 74 Abram's goods were taken. 75 Abram's goods were taken. 76 Abram's goods were taken. 77 Abram's goods were taken. 78 Abram's goods were taken. 79 Abram's goods were taken. 80 Abram's goods were taken. 81 Abram's goods were taken. 82 Abram's goods were taken. 83 Abram's goods were taken. 84 Abram's goods were taken. 85 Abram's goods were taken. 86 Abram's goods were taken. 87 Abram's goods were taken. 88 Abram's goods were taken. 89 Abram's goods were taken. 90 Abram's goods were taken. 91 Abram's goods were taken. 92 Abram's goods were taken. 93 Abram's goods were taken. 94 Abram's goods were taken. 95 Abram's goods were taken. 96 Abram's goods were taken. 97 Abram's goods were taken. 98 Abram's goods were taken. 99 Abram's goods were taken. 100 Abram's goods were taken.

AND it came to pass in the days of Amraphel King of Shinar, Arioeh king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations;

2 That these made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela which is Zoar.

3 All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea.

These five Cities stood in that goodly Valley, which, since their Overthrow, is become a Sea, or large Receptacle of Water, called from the great Quantity of Salt, or Bitumen, wherewith it is impregnated, the SALT SEA, or SALT LAKE.

4 Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

The Inhabitants of Sodom were some of the Descendants of Canaan, whom Noah had pronounced should be the Servants of Shem; and the King of Elam, to whom we find by this Verse they were tributary, was a Descendant from Shem. So soon did this Prophecy begin to be fulfilled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, and smote the Rephaims in Ashteroth Karnaim, and the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in Shaveh Kiriathaim, 6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto El-paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned, and came to En-mishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that dwell in Hazezon-tamar.

8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela (the same is Zoar) and they joined battel with them in the vale of Siddim;

9 With Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioeh king of Ellasar: four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of slime pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there: and they that remained fled to the mountain.

By Slime Pits is meant Pits or Wells of Bitumen, or a pitchy Matter with which the Country abounded.

11 And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took Lot Abram's brother's son (who dwelt in Sodom) and his goods, and departed.

13 And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: and these were confederate with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, the Lord being with him, and pursued them unto Dan.

The Riches of the Patriarchs were not in Gold, or Silver, or Gems, or Jewels, but in the Quantity of Cattle, they were rich in. The Number of Servants to look after them.

15 And he divided himself and his servants, and his servants by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

16 And he brought back all the goods, and brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

Though Lot seems to have ill treated Abraham, yet we find as soon as he heard of his being in Danger, he immediately generously flew to his assistance, even at his own manifold Hazard, in attacking a victorious Army with such a Handful of Men. And from this we may learn, that when our Duty calls upon us, however perilous the Danger, we ought to engage in it with Courage and Valour; trusting in GOD, who is able to deliver by a few as well as by many, 1 Sam. xiv. 6. We may further observe, here, that Abraham does not any ways reproach Lot, after having rescued him, with his former Behaviour, but treats him kindly and affectionately. An instructive Lesson, that we ought to forget Injuries, as tho' they had never happened.

17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him, in the valley of Shaveh, which is the King's Camp.

Lot was probably the King of Sodom, and was the Son of the King of the Amorites, who was killed in the 14th Verse, at the same Place.

18 And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God.

Salem is supposed to be what was afterwards called Jerusalem; Melchizedek was a Canaanish Priest thereof, who is said to have both that Office, and also the same Person in those Days. We find him here, though he was no Party in the War, hospitably bringing out Refreshments to Abraham and his Men, agreeable to the Custom of the Primitive Ages, of always hospitably entertaining Strangers, whenever they came in their Way, and even seeking all Opportunities of doing it. How much was this loving like Brethren, as all Mankind truly are!

The Name Melchizedek signifies King of Peace, and herein he was the Figure of Christ; the King of Peace, and the Prince of Peace. And Salem is Jerusalem, Ps. lxxvi. 2. and signifies Peace, Heb. vii. 2. wherein he also figured Christ, whose whole Administration is to work Peace, Ephes. ii. 14, 15, and 17. And in Him Justice and Peace have killed each other, Ps. lxxvi. 1. and Isaiah in Ch. xxxii. v. 17. saith, the Love of Justice is Peace; and in Isaiah ix. 6. Christ is called the Prince of Peace; and here Melchizedek has nothing to do with the War, but governed his Place in Peace. He was without Doubt of very eminent Piety, and worshipped GOD in a right Manner, having due and worthy Notions of him. And accordingly we find him in the two next Verses, styling GOD the Possessor of HEAVEN AND EARTH, and thereby acknowledging that He is ALL IN ALL, that He doth every Thing on the Earth, that He is the LORD and GIVER of ALL. He, therefore, instead of going into Encomiums on Abraham's Valour and Conduct, bleisseth the Most High GOD, the Possessor of Heaven and Earth, for his Victory; and attributes it all to his Blessing; and therefore he adds nothing to Abraham, but only a fervent Prayer that he might be rewarded with a Continuance of the divine Blessing. In this indeed he imitated every Thing for him, as it includes all Things. Such as we find the Sentiments of Melchizedek here to be, such ought our's to be in every Thought. Such Ideas ought we to have of GOD in all our Ways; that he is truly the LORD and Possessor of ALL THING, in Heaven and in Earth; and that, therefore, he can do whatsoever pleaseth him, and give us whatsoever in his infinite Wisdom, he seeth fit.

19 And he blessed him and said, blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth:

20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all.

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And

Ideas of him, which are suitable to his Nature, and, consequently, must needs be pleasing in his Sight, and through his Goodness counted for Righteousness. But GOD is, as well to regard, as to regard a Being, to regard any Thing we do merely, if it respects himself: Can a Man be profitable unto God? (says Eliphaz to Job) Is it any Gain to the Almighty that thou makest thy Words gold? Is it a Pleasure to him that thou sayest, Behold I am righteous, lest thou be angry with me? or what rewardeth He of thy Hand? GOD'S FELLOWSHIP and GLORY will be the same, tho' Man and Angels refuse to honour him. He has essential GLORY and Felicity in Himself; and all the Service and Honour he receives from his Creatures, whether they be Men, or Angels, or Arch-Angels, or Cherubims, or Seraphims, are nothing to him any further than as it promotes their own Happiness. Like as when we admire the Sun, our seeing of his Light does not increase it, it makes it not greater, but only makes it OUR'S; and when we turn away our Eyes, that glorious Planet suffers no Eclipse, and is not at all darkened or injured, nor does HE thereby lose his Light, but WE.

As therefore FAITH in GOD is so highly spoken of in the Scriptures, it must be because it is most highly BENEFICIAL to MAN, and, indeed, nothing can be more so, as this is the DIVINE CHAIN which holds the CREATURE and the CREATOR together. It is the Ladder which Jacob saw in his Vision, whose Foot is on the Earth, and its Top in the Heavens. It is by this that Man ascends to GOD, and becomes a Partaker, as it were, of his divine Attributes: He may comfort himself for his Want of Foresight, because he sees GOD who is OMNISCIENT: He need not regret his Want of Strength, because he is joined to Him that is ALLMIGHTY. In a Word, FAITH makes poor, weak, ignorant Man POWERFUL in the Power of GOD, wise in his Wisdom, HAPPY by his Happiness. It makes him reap the Benefit of every divine Attribute, and lose his own Insufficiency in the FULLNESS of INFINITE PERFECTION. These are some of the precious Benefits of FAITH, but there are not all, for Man, indeed, (as the holy Scriptures assert) lives by every Word that proceedeth out of the Mouth of God. His Nature is such that he hath absolute Need of being kept in the Hand of God's Council, of being directed by Him in all His Ways, of being instructed by Him in what is TRUTH and RIGHTNESS; consequently, the SUPREME HAPPINESS OF MAN must consist, in daily deriving from the Heart, all the Declarations of His Will that GOD is pleased to make to him, however contrary they may seem to be to our Understanding, and therefore this is counted to him for Righteousness. This is the meaning of St. Paul when he is speaking of Abraham's Faith, which was imputed to him for Righteousness: Now, (says he) it was not counted to him for Righteousness, that it was imputed to him, but for our sake; but why, for us, the Apostle goes on to tell, because we are in the same Circumstance as Abraham was, and therefore this is recorded of him as an Example of Hope and Practice; for to us (likewise) it shall be counted, if we believe in Him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the Dead, who was delivered for our Offences, and was raised again for our Justification. The Meaning of which seems to be, that as Abraham, notwithstanding the Deadness of his own Body, and the Barrenness of Sarah's Womb, notwithstanding all the Improbability and almost impossibility that his Seed, from his own Bowels should be as numerous as the Stars of Heaven, believed it should be so, because GOD declared it; and thus BELIEVED GOD was pleased to count to him for Righteousness. So in like Manner may we rest assured, from this Example, recorded in the Scriptures, that our Faith and firm Belief in GOD's Declaration, made to us in the same Scripture, shall be counted to us for Righteousness; particularly, if we believe from the Heart in that great and wonderful Mystery, (however much it may be above our Thoughts and Apprehensions, and however impossible it may seem to us) that God has raised up Jesus our Lord from the Dead, that He gave Him to the World that He gave his only begotten Son, that all power was committed to Him for our Offences, and raised Him for our Justification. And in Consequence of this Belief, if we stagger not through Unbelief, but with assured Confidence believe the Promise given to us, by the same GOD as gave them to Abraham, viz. the Resurrection of our Bodies from the Grave after they have seen Corruption, and the living for ever in Mansions of Bliss in the Heavens; which are Things so far above us, so much beyond all natural Things, that they can be brought near to us only by FAITH, and then all Things that are not nor can be done: Such a Faith as that of Abraham, who against Hope believed in Hope; who regarded not the Difficulties that lay in the Way, or the Strangeness of the Thing, but was strong in Faith, being fully persuaded that what God had promised he was able also to perform.

And in like Manner must we act, in Respect to the precious Promises of Eternal Life declared to us by GOD in the Gospel. Though they are  afar off, we must see them as present ; though they are not yet done, we must look up on them as done, because He that has promised is faithful, and not only so, but He is also able to perform what He has promised. What, though we all go down to the Grave, the House of Darkness ; What, though after our Skin, Worms destroy our Body, yet He that has promised is able to raise us up at the last Day ; and He will most assuredly do so, because He has promised ; for He is faithful, and can never forget His Preamble: Here, the Children of God, a remnant of the 144,000 Jews and Gentiles, gathered at the heavenly altar, stand against all the reigning defective Powers of the Kingdom, the reigning Dominion over us of the Cross.

Upon this eternal Rock, is GOD promysed, we have the Example of Abel, who by his Sacrifice, was Vnto, though not is, Deified, to be a Father of the Faithful, though none but a Father of a few, as Abel was, for we have GOD promysed, Vnto them, who by their known Body was now deified, by the same Body, Abel
the first Sacrifice, a text, Heur of Hebrews, Heur 11. 4.
And that our of his deified Body, should be the Womb, Seed should grow, in manner, as the Seed, which cause that GOD be promysed, And in the text, Heur 11. 4. deified, his eyes beheld the promise, Heur 11. 4. Heur 11. 4.
all later Age, not only our Example, but a Father of the Faithful, Assurance as we ought to have in Abel, Heur 11. 4. Heur 11. 4. whence all our Happiness must flow, and our Abel 11. 4.
net, and Power in raising a greater, than Abel 11. 4. itself, from the Body of a Woman, who was the first Cause, must have died Christ.

[illegible]

This Abraham, and the Isaac mentioned in the text, were a Son, and it was designed that the Son should be manifest to the world during that time in the time of his resurrection, and also by the Blazing in Pentecost, which was that time of his resurrection, and no visible sign of it, yet by the Abraham and the Isaac, as the Apostle says, Heb. x. 7. and page 1004. that it was not in High. That is, he was at stand in the high, and he was at stand accordingly, and he had a glory from the windows of heaven open, and he was at stand upon the Isaac.

And, if he is not actually in Communion with GOD, he cannot claim any Science, without this Faith; for a GOD is an invisible Being to Man, and the Things that by long testimony cannot be brought out of that State of Ignorance. Man can only believe Things; therefore, by believing Things not seen, as tho' he did see them, it is tho' we are united to GOD, yet by Faith we do the same as if we were, that is, we are moved and affected in the same Manner as if he was present to us, and, as the Apostle says of Abel, we are as near to him as if he were, Heb. xi. 27. For GOD may exist with all his divine and glorious Attributes, and yet we not be influenced by them, unless we feel him or bring him near to us by Faith: He that can do so, (as the Apostle says) believes that he is in, Heb. xi. 6. that is, that he is thoroughly convinced of his Existence, and believed the things which he had actually seen him. And as we cannot feel GOD, yet we cannot know any Thing that is due to his Nature, or his great Relations we stand to him, or what is his pleasure to him, but by Faith; that is, by most fully coming from the Heart, those Declarations which he has made to his Word, or his Acts, the same as if we were actually to see him, and receive his Commands immediately from his Mouth; nor can we believe (as the Apostle observes, without) we most fully believe, it is a Dis-WARDER of it that did enlighten them.

In the same Manner, it is impossible for us to live in our present State, without Feeling God has prepared for them that do His, and the Things which He has prepared against the Day of Wrath for them that do Evil: So that there can only affect us by Faith, that is, by being moved or affected by the same, on Account of GOD's Declaration of them, as if we had actually seen them; and, we must, by Faith, have an assured Trust and Reliance on GOD, for the Performance of all those Promises and Declarations, which he has made to us, otherwise they can have no Effect upon us. And this is the Reason that Faith is so highly extolled in the Scriptures, and made the Root of all our Conduct towards GOD, because it leads immediately to the Practice of Virtue and Holiness, the Conditions on which all the Promises of GOD are founded.

FAITH over-comes the World, says the Apostle. All its Temptations, all its Allurements, all its Engagements, all its Promises submit to FAITH. In Exact Reasoning, or Moral Behaviour toward GOD, is a struggle between SENSE and FAITH: The Temptations to Sin are the Pleasures of the SENSE, the Inclinations to VIRTUE are the Pleasures of the SPIRIT. These are only seen by FAITH: Those are the Objects of every SENSE. On the Side of VIRTUE all the Motives, all the Objects of Love are seen. On the Side of VICE stand the formidable Powers of SIN, PASSION, and AFFECTION. Where the Faith is established in the Fullness of Faith, the heavenly Host prevails, and VIRTUE triumphs over all the Works of DARKNESS. But where Faith is terns, Sin enters, and is served by every evil Passion of the Heart.

We shall easily discern, by reflecting a little, that if we have Faith, as at the Entrance of Things not yet, and to make Things to pass a Substance or Reality to us, as if they were present; the Glories of Heaven, the Rivers of Pleasure, and the Furnace of Joy at GOD's Right Hand, immortal Life, and never-ending Happiness, the most pure Joys that must arise from being admitted into the Presence of GOD, and an innumerable Company of Angels, Cherubims and Seraphims, and Jewels of all sorts, the most venerable Magnificence, the august Splendor, the incomprehensible Beauty, the ravishing Harmony of Heavens, where eternal Mansions of Bliss are prepared for us. All these are such great and glorious Things, that if they were brought near to us by Faith, we could never be persuaded to lose our Interest in them, by any of the Abacements of Sin, or by any Thing this World could give; all the Enjoyments of which, are, at the best, but short and transitory. And if we could be so foolish as to chide the Lark, yet the Worm that never dith, the Fire that is never quenched, the Lust that never ceases, the Anguish of Soul, that is prepared for every one that worketh Evil, if seen as present by the Eye of Faith, would certainly deter us from the Pleasures of Sin. For what can it profit us to gain the whole World, if we thereby lose our Soul?

7 And he said unto him, I am the Lord that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it.

Though no Mention of it is made in the 12th Chapter, where we have the first Account of Abram's leaving his Country, viz. Ur, of the Chaldees, to go into the Land of Canaan, that it was done by the express Order of GOD, yet from the 11th Verse of the 12th Chapter, and from this Verse here, it is plain it was then done in Obedience to GOD's Command: And from thence St. Paul, in the Acts of the Apostles, expressly declare, that the Glory of GOD appeared unto Abram in Mesopotamia, or Ur of the Chaldees, before he dwelt in Canaan, or Haran.

8 And he said, Lord God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

Here we find Abram (for the higher Confirmation of his Faith) asking of GOD some miraculous Sign and Pledge of the Certainty of so great an Event. It is probable too, from the 13th, 14th, 15th, and 16th Verses, that Abram's Request means no more, than that GOD would vouchsafe to let him know when the Promise should be accomplished, and what Signs should foretell the Event to himself or his Posterity: In the same Sense as the Disciples say to CHRIST, Lord, when shall these Things be, and what shall be the Sign of thy coming? Matth. xxiv. 3.

9 And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.

10 And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not.

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcases, Abram drove them away.

This seems to have been ordered by GOD, as a Sign of the Covenant he was entering into with Abram, to give the Land of Canaan to his seed, as mentioned in the 18th Verse; it being an usual Practice in those Times, to make or confirm Covenants by dividing the Beasts which were sacrificed on such Occasions, and the Parties who contracted passing between the Parts of the Beasts, thus divided. We find an express Intimation of this Custom, Gen. xxxi. 18, 19. The Signification of this Rite was as much as to say, Thou shalt not be divided, and cut in Pieces, if I violate the Oath which I have now made in the Presence of GOD.

12 And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him.

An extreme Horror and Consternation (for so Darkness metaphorically signifies in Scripture, as Isa. lxxviii. 6. and cvii. 14.) seized his Mind, or such an Horror as seizes those who are struck with some extraordinary Appearance in the Dark. This Horror seized him in Consequence, as it would seem, of GOD's representing to his Imagination the dreadful Oppressions that were to befall his Posterity in Egypt.

13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them, and they shall afflict them four hundred years.

These four hundred Years are to be counted from the Birth of Isaac, who was the Seed to whom the Promise was made, Gen. xvii. 19. And in this Space of Time three Things were to befall Abram's Seed, which are here distinctly named; as a to Isa. vii. 6. 1st. That they should be a Stranger in a Land not their own, and to Isaac and Jacob were. 2dly. That they should serve (and so they did in Egypt, Gen. xlvii. 6. with Exod. i. 11, 13, 14. 3dly. That they should be afflicted: And to the Israhelites were very grievously, and that for a considerable Time before they came out of Egypt. From the Birth of Isaac to the coming out of Egypt, were just four hundred Years.

14 And also that nation whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward they shall come out with great substance.

Here we have a clear Proof of GOD's knowing what will come to pass through all Times, and that however much the Affairs of the World may seem to be ordered and governed by the Inhabitants of the Earth, yet that GOD's Providence superintends and directs in all. Here we have the State of a particular Nation marked out for four hundred Years to come, and distinguished by very remarkable Events, of which there were then no Appearance. It is the incommunicable Character of GOD, to see into FUTURETY: In the Scriptures we often find Him challenging the false Deities to foretell what is to come: Share the Things that are to come hereafter, that we may know ye are Gods, Isaiah. xli. 23. &c.

We may likewise further observe, that these Events came to pass seemingly by Accident, and in the natural Course of Things, tho' it is plain GOD ordered them; and therefore we have Reason to conclude that GOD at all Times, and in all Countries, and even Families, does order those frequent Changes, Revolutions, and Accidents which happen to them, as best suit with the Purposes of His infinite Wisdom and Goodness, though they all seem to us to happen by natural Causes, and as it were by Chance. Thus we may observe, that the Seed of Abram were not, nor did not return into the Land of Canaan, till it became fit in the Wisdom of GOD's Providence, or Government of the World, to punish the Iniquity of the Amorites, then come to such an Height, that it was not consistent with GOD's Wisdom or Justice to suffer them to go any longer unpunished.

15 And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age.

Here we may observe how GOD speaks of the Death of a good Man, not as a Matter of Terror and Lamentation, and Loss and Destruction, but rather as a Subject of Gain and Comfort: Thou shalt go to thy Fathers in Peace, out of the Reach of all Trouble, and Pain, and Sorrow. And what can this Expression, Thou shalt go to thy Fathers, &c. mean, but that his Soul should go into some peaceful State of Existence, where it should again join with the Souls of all his Ancestors or Progenitors. That this Expression here could not be intended only to express his being buried with his Ancestors, is plain, both because his being buried is expressed in another Sentence; and still more, because we read after that his Body was so far from being deposited in a Sepulchre with his Ancestors, that it was deposited in a Country which had no Manner of Communication with that of his Fathers.

16 But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.

Though GOD had determined to give the Land of Canaan to a chosen People, yet so just is he in his Ways, that he will not dispossess the present Inhabitants of it till they have forfeited it by their evil Deeds, till their Iniquity is full.

17 And it came to pass, that when the sun went down and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.

Some Commentators imagine, that by this Symbol GOD designed to represent to Abram the future State of Abram's Posterity; the smoking Furnace signifying, Israhel's Misery in the Land of Egypt, and the burning Lamp, their happy Escape and Deliverance; for, according to Scripture Phrase, the going-down of the Sun, and Darknels, usually note Calamities upon People, Amos viii. 9 and 10. Isaiah v. 30. viii. 22. and ix. 12. and a fiery Furnace is used for the like in Mal. iv. 1. Psal. xvi. 9. Lam. v. 10. Luke xii. 23. Egypt in Deut. iv. 20. and Jerem. xl. 4. is called an Iron Furnace; and in Isaiah lxvi. 1. the Salvation of GOD.

GOD's People is likened to a burning Lamp. Others, on the contrary, think that it was to notify his own immediate Presence; since both Smoke and Fire are, in several Parts of Scripture, mentioned as Emblems and Representations of the Divine Appearance. And, therefore, as it was a Thing customary, and especially in Chaldeas, (from whence Abraham came) for Persons covenanting together, to pass between the Pieces of the Sacrifice; so GOD did it in this Type and Emblem of Himself. But a late learned Writer thinks, that the Hebrew Word which we translate pass in this Verse, should be translated burnt; and that the Meaning is, that the Pieces of the Sacrifice first smoked, and then caught into a Flame, and were quite consumed.

18 In that same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river the river Euphrates:

19 The Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and the Kadmonites, 6 Doyant v. Egyptian Slaves

This Promise was accomplished in the Days of Solomon and David. See 2 Sam. viii. 3. and 2 Chron. ix. 26.

20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims, 21 And the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Sarai continuing barren, giveth her maid Hagar to Abram. 2. v. 1. up the promised seed through her. 4 When Hagar has conceived, she fights Sarai: 6 And being thereupon hardly dealt with by Sarai, she goeth away, but is met on the way by an angel, who rebuketh her back; but at the same time tells her, that her seed shall be exceedingly multiplied. 15 Ishmael is born.

NOW Sarai Abram's wife bare him no children: and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar.

2 And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold now, the LORD hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her: and Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

We may observe in Abraham a noble Example of CONTINENCE and MODERATION. Though he was blessed with very great Riches, and vast Abundance of every Thing, yet he did not suffer himself to be corrupted by Luxury, which is too often the Attendant of Plenty. Though he had a Number of Maid-Servants, as well as Men, yet he seems, like Job, to have made a Covenant with his Eyes, not to look upon a Maid.

Though the taking of more than one Wife was begun so early as Lamech, and undoubtedly continued to be practised by many, yet Abraham, though so rich and powerful, contents himself in Obedience to GOD's Command given to Adam, with one; and this, though she lay under the disagreeable Disadvantage of being barren, and in those Times particularly, when the Expectation of the promised Seed made Barrenness be looked upon as the greatest Curse and Misfortune. Considering all these Circumstances, the Continence of Abraham is highly worthy of being remarked and admired. It was not but through the Solicitations of his Wife, that he goes in unto another. Sarai finding herself continue barren, and knowing the Promise of GOD, that a great Nation, or rather many Nations, should arise from Abraham, has Recourse to this Piece of Human Wisdom, to bring it to pass: She seems to have entertained no Notions that though she had continued barren so long, and was now stricken in Years, yet that GOD could give her a Child whenever He pleased; and therefore she persuades her Husband to go in unto her Maid, that she might obtain a Child by her; or, as the Hebrew Words signify, be builded by her, that is, have the Satisfaction of becoming remarkable, by giving Beginning to great Nations; for all Children, born of Bond Maids, were, according to the Custom of those Times, considered as the Children of those they were Bond-Servants to; and Hagar being Sarai's own Maid in particular, (for so it seems she was,) the Children born of her would be reckoned as Sarai's.

3 And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

Though Abraham by foregoing children, and by foregoing a great Promise from GOD, that a Nation should come out of his own Bowels, yet, as no Mention had been made whether it was to be by the Means of Sex, it is not unlikely but that he might think that he was to have the promise fulfilled by some other way, and that this Disposition and Advice of GOD was not to be followed.

4 And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, she despised her mistress was despised in her eyes.

Here the Scripture gives us another Instance of how often Jealousy and Vexation we often bring upon ourselves, by depending too much upon our own Wisdom, and thinking to obtain a great good Thing for us. And also, that we ought never to attempt doing any Thing to pass, however good and profitable it may be, by any Means than GOD has expressly forbid or allowed. GOD had declared in the Beginning that Man should love his Wife, and they two should be one Flesh; whereby all Plurality of Wives, and any Separation of them two, by the Admission of a third Person, was absolutely denied; so that had Abraham and Sarai thought aright, they would not have taken it is Method to frustrate the Promise of GOD, without an express Permission from Him to have done so. And we here may see the Wisdom and Goodness of this Divine Command; for what Quarrels, what Disputations, what Disquiets, what Vexations, what Troubles do we here see arise from acting contrary to this Command, brought down by a mutual Consent and Desire of both Parties? Had GOD's Commands are Wisdom and Goodness, as intended for our good; for the ill Consequences in Abraham's Case, that arose from any particular Circumstances in the Case, but not from the Command itself; and the ill Effects of any way looking upon the Marriage of a Man and two, by admitting more to partake of the Privileges which are annexed to it, whether it be done by Coverture, or even by marrying of more than one; for I do not think it possible, throughout the whole World, and after the Privilege of that thousand Years, during which Yenus is different Countries have been practising that Coverture, Plurality, Adultery, and Bigamy, have not seen in the Union of two only; for the time of Abraham's life, Jealousy, Disquiets, and other Evils, now a common Country Practice, did so long reign in the Family of Abraham, that they could not be removed, and has been the Practice of Abraham's Country, to have more Wives than one; yet we know the History of these Nations, what Disquiets, what Unhappiness, what Crimes have arisen from it. It is too shocking to be related, how many cruel Murders have been the Consequence of it, what Malignities, what Loss of the Children, how many of one Mother have been reared up at the Breast of another, the one regarded, the other wholly neglected, and very frequently inhumanly sacrificed to the Advantage of the other. These ill Consequences have often evidently appeared, and we may well presume there are many more unknown, but the perpetual Jars, Unanimity, Discord, and Disquiet, which is almost impossible, in the Nature of Things, that it should be otherwise; for no Man can so equally divide his Affection between two Objects, as not to give Occasion for Jealousy, Disquiet, and Trouble, to the one or the other of them.

We may add here a Remark of Particular, founded in Nature against the Union of more than two, which is so strong, that it demonstrates what is said of this Union of two only, in the 2d Chapter of Genesis, must needs come from GOD; which is, that by the Observation of learned Men it is found that in all Ages, and throughout the World, there are about twenty-two Males born to twenty one Females; so that it must be an unavoidable Consequence, that if one Man has many Wives, some others must go without any, which shews the Practice is unjust in its Nature, and attended with ill Consequences. And we may here further observe, how carefully the great Creator has been to guard against this; for by causing a somewhat greater Number of Males to be born than Females, he has provided against the Waste which is made of Men by Wars and other Accidents, which Women are not exposed to. So that, upon the Whole, there seems to remain in every Country, and at all Times, one Man for one Woman, fit and of a proper Age to be joined together in the Marriage-Union.

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong is upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the LORD judge between me and thee.

6 But Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, thy maid is in thy hand: do to her as it pleases thee. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

Here Abraham paying Regard to the prior Right that Sarai had in him, entreats her kindly, and gives her entire Power over her Maid, though she had conceived by him.

And

other, viz. to oblige him to have it, and by returning he will all the Victory, and the Spoils, to the Great General, his Lordship, and his Excellency, who ruled the Country, but then a strange Disturbance broke out in the Yavok Kurb Army; and after two Years spent, he was glad to dispose of the small Remains of his Forces. The first Impediment of the War, to his Victory, was that most remarkable, that the Times they were attacked by the Emperor's Forces, were such, which is related by an Heathen Historian, viz. Dei. When the King of Togach besieged the City of the Tigones, who were called And and denominated from Togach. He relates, that a storm is in Summer, attacked the City, the whole Heavens dark with Thunder; Rainbows were seen in the Sky, both continued and recurring often, by the Rains, violent Storms, Hail, and Thunder-bolts, fell upon them; and that all they were repeated, when they returned to the Mouth of the City; and that as soon as they returned to refresh themselves with a Repast, a Shower of Fire, lighting both on the And and And, and And, and all that they eat or drank melt into a Sea; so that by these Things, the Emperor was forced at last to raise the Siege, and retire with his Army into his own Dominions.

[illegible]

About eighty Years after, the Emperor Septim. Severus besieged the same City with a numerous Army, and a formidable Train of Military Engines, the most stupendous and most destructive that were ever devised; disdaining that the Higuerens should stand out still against the Romans, when all the rest about them lay subdued; but he had no better Success than Caesar; and Dr. de Thou, who gives an Account of this Expedition, as well as of that under Probus, again remarks that GOD protected the City; who, by the Emperor, called back that Idol, identifying it with the Idol of Deodara, and promised the Emperor from taking it, when he was sent back by the SOLDIERS.

And well might the Historian make this Remark, for it appears that the Emperor being at last repulsed with Loss of Men and Munition, made great Preparations for the second Assault, in which (after a great Loss of his Soldiers) he overran Part of the City Wall, so that an Entrance lay open into the City. But just at that Time the Emperor caused a Ransom to be demanded, on which the Besieged would come to treat for Peace, to obtain which, he thought they would discover where the vast Treasures which were supposed to belong to their Temple of the Sun, were hid; and which he thought might be lost, if the City was sacked, and the Inhabitants destroyed. But the Hagarens continued resolute the whole Day, giving no Intimation of their Desire of any Treaty of Peace. On the Morrow following, when the Emperor would have renewed the Attack, the Euro-pean Soldiers, before most resolute, would make no Attempt to enter at the Breach; and the Syrians, enforced to take the Service, had a grievous Repulse: No Persuasions, no Promises, no Threats, could engage the Europeans to renew the Attack; so that though after the Breach in the Walls, the Conquest in Martial Life appeared so easy, that one of Sezerus's Captains confidently undertook to effect it, if he could have but five hundred and fifty European Soldiers assigned to the Attack, yet the Emperor could do no more than reply in a distracted Rage, Where find I find so many Soldiers? and so departed into Palatine. And yet this very Emperor was beloved and revered by his Soldiers almost to Adoration, and was so severe in Discipline, and so high in Authority, that he could a little before this, turn back his Army at a Word in the Midst of Fight and Fear; but could not now influence them to assault the Enemy, when they were almost at their Mercy. A Fact so extraordinary, that it appears to be manifestly the Interposition of that mighty Being, who at his Pleasure pourreth Contempt upon Princes, and bringeth the Council of the Heathen to nought. It may be added, that the Hagarens stood single in this Extremity, against the whole Roman Power; for Dio expressly says, that not one of their Neighbours would assist them. And we may likewise observe that the

[illegible][illegible]

13 And she called the name of the Lord, that spoke unto her, Thou God of Abraham and Isaac,
 I have I also here looked after him that speaketh:

[illegible]

14. Wherefore the well was called B'en ha-hai-ro; behold, it is between two seas, between the sea of the living and the sea of the dead.

For the first time, the Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law will publish an issue devoted to the study of the health care system in the United States. The journal is a multidisciplinary journal that publishes research on the health care system in the United States. The journal is published by the American Public Health Association (APHA).

ing. An' I hope to be a member of Abner's church some time, wh' he is an Elder, I'm sure.

178 And Ibrahim, a few days and nights old, when Hagar took Hammad to Abyss.

C H V P. VII.

[illegible]

AND when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the Lord appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect.

[illegible]

We may observe here, that GOD reveal'd Himself to Abraham, and through him to all Mankind, under the Name of Father, 2. P. L. SHADDAI, that is, the Almighty, Father of the World, Thou; the ALMIGHTY GOD. And this indeed is a Name, or Attribute of great Comfort to all Believers, whether they be Men or Angels. What a boundless Satisfaction it taketh, if in Him we look up to as our Helper, is All-sufficient, that He, who, in Him, is able to do all Things: What a Security, that He will direct all our Steps! What, or what Power can hurt us? What Accidents in the World can ever injure us, when He who protects us is Almighty: And therefore nothing can make our Condition so happy as to walk before Him. And the GOD that promis'd to Abraham, as a fit Consequence, after having declar'd His being All-sufficient; Heb. beac Me, and I will be a Father to you (that is, keep me always in thy Mind by Father and friend; trust to Me in all thy Ways, depend with Confidence upon My Providence, and regulate all thy Actions according to My Will and Command.

2 And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 And Abram fell on his face : and God talked with him, saying,

4 As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations.

As in a Covenant both Parties contract, so in this Covenant and to the ninth, GOD was both the Part of the Covenanting, that is, he sets forth his Promises to Abraham, and therefore it begins, Abraham. And from the ninth to the thirteenth Verse, is declared what was to be Abraham's Duty, or his Part of the Covenant in respect of GOD.

5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram; but thy name shall be Abraham, for a father of many nations have I made thee.

ABRAHAM signifies only Mighty Father; but ABRAHAM, The Father of a Multitude.

6 And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee; and kings shall come out of thee.

7 And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant; to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

Here we have a most glorious Declaration made to Abraham: Such an one as may well fill our Hearts with the highest Joy, whenever we read it. Here the LORD, who in the ninth Verse had declared himself to be the Author of the Covenant, declares that he will be a GOD unto Abraham, that he will establish his Covenant with him, and that he will make him a Father of many Nations. Here the Author of the Covenant, declares that he will be a GOD unto Abraham, that he will establish his Covenant with him, and that he will make him a Father of many Nations. Here the Author of the Covenant, declares that he will be a GOD unto Abraham, that he will establish his Covenant with him, and that he will make him a Father of many Nations.

8 And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan for an everlasting possession; and I will be thy God.

9 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou and thy seed after thee, in their generations.

10 This is my covenant, which ye shall keep between me, and you, and thy seed after thee; Every man-child among you shall be circumcised.

11 And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your fore-skin, and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you.

This Ceremony was a Sign, or Token, or Memorial, to those that came under it, that they were to serve GOD in Faith, believing that a certain Reward of those that feared him; that they were to look up to him as their Saviour or Support, their Governor, their Director, their All-sufficient, their Everlasting Reward. It signified that they were to forego all Things, and to obey all Things which GOD commanded. It was also a Badge, or Characteristic, which was to distinguish Abraham's Seed, or the Worshipers of the True GOD, from other Nations who worshipped false Gods or Idols.

12 And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man-child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

We are not to imagine from this, that all the Men of Abraham's House were to be forced to Circumcision; for then it could not be called a Token of a Covenant, which implies a mutual and willing Agreement between both Parties; but Abraham was to persuade them to it, and if they consented not, to keep them no longer in his House.

14 And the uncircumcised man-child whose flesh of his fore-skin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people: he hath broken my covenant.

By the Expression Eight days, there is no Reason supposed an upon Defining out of the Covenant, that he was to be excluded from the Society of the true Worshipers of GOD.

15 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarah thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah; for she shall bear thee.

SARAI signifies My Prince; but SARAH, Princess of a Multitude.

16 And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her: yea, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of people shall be of her.

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall I indeed be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?

It is probable, that this laughter was only an Emotion of Joy, and not as Sarah's mentioned in the last Chapter from Envy.

18 And Abraham said unto God, O that Ishmael might live before thee!

19 And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly: twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation.

21 But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year.

This Thing contains the Chapter's purpose to be strictly attended to, in order to understand them thoroughly. We have seen in the foregoing Chapters, frequent Mention of GOD's entering into a Covenant with Abraham, and promising some great Advantage or blessing not to Abraham's Family only, but to all the Families of the Earth, through or in his Seed. In this Chapter we find this great Covenant is confined or established with one particular Seed of Abraham's, viz. Isaac to be born of Sarah, while his other Seed Ishmael is excluded from any Part of it; though at the same Time Promises of great temporal Blessings on him are given. In the 2d Verse of this Chapter, GOD says to Abraham, I will make my Covenant between me and thee, and will make thee exceedingly; and in the 4th Verse He adds, Thou shalt be a Father of many Nations.

At the 7th and 8th Verses, GOD promises to establish an everlasting Covenant with him and his Seed after him, to give him and them all the Land of Canaan for an everlasting Possession, and to be thy God.

Here are two Covenants, mentioned together in the Compass of a few Verses, or else the same Covenant repeated with this Difference, that in the last Place it is tiled an everlasting Covenant, and the Land of Canaan is assigned for an everlasting Possession; with this remarkable Addition, that GOD promises to be the God of Abraham, and of his Seed after him. As this is the first Time that this peculiar Character assumed by GOD, of being the God of Abraham, and of his Seed, occurs in Scripture; and it is evidently connected to the Promise of the everlasting Covenant. Which Connexion seems to be the true Foundation of our Saviour's Argument from this Expression, to prove the Resurrection of the Dead; as the Connexion of the Promise of the Land of Canaan to the everlasting Covenant, seems to be the Reason of treating the Land of Canaan as a Type or Sign of Heaven. This Character of GOD, thus connected to the everlasting Covenant, is likewise a plain Intimation, that two distinct Covenants are mentioned in this Place, and not the same repeated again. In the 17th Verse of this Chapter, Abraham receives an express Promise that he should have a Son by Sarah his Wife, within the Compass of a Year, and that the everlasting Covenant should be established with Isaac his Son, and his Seed after him. Abraham had at that Time a Son of thirteen Years old, born of Hagar the Egyptian; to whom the Angel of the Lord had appeared when he was with Child of this Son, and promised to multiply his Seed exceedingly, that it should not be numbered for Multitude, Ch. xvi. 10. This Promise therefore of a numerous Posterity flourishing in the flesh, though Part of the Promise given to Abraham, as we have seen before, is no Part of the everlasting Covenant, confined to Isaac, exclusively to all the natural Sons of Abraham. This appears likewise from what is said here, where this Promise is limited to Isaac.

Isaac Abraham, when he here receives the Promise of a Son by his Wife, put up a Petition, whatever the Occasion of it was, for his Son Isaac; "O Lord, I humbly request thee." To which he receives this Answer; "As for himself, I have heard thee: But I have said, I will not, neither will I, and will not: I will give thee twelve Princes, and I will make thee a great Nation." Immediately it follows, "But my Covenant will I establish with thee, when Sarah shall have borne thee a Son." Can any Thing be plainer to show that the Covenant, to be established with Isaac and his Seed, was of a very different Kind from the Covenant given to Isaac, of making him his Seed, of making him Father of Kings and Princes, and of raising him into a great Nation? And yet this very Covenant was given originally to Abraham; he was to have a numerous Posterity, to be Father of Kings, and of a great Nation. Isaac was admitted to the Benefit of this Covenant as well as Isaac, and yet expressly excluded from that which GOD emphatically calls My Covenant, and the everlasting Covenant; an undoubted Evidence that GOD's Covenant with Abraham was founded on better Hopes than those of mere temporal Prosperity. This Distinction of two Covenants in the Case of Isaac and Isaac, made by GOD Himself, is the Foundation of St. Paul's Argument to the Galatians: "It is written, saying, that Abraham had two Sons, the one by a Bond-Maid, the other by a free Woman: But the Son of the Bond Woman was born after the Flesh; but the Son of the free Woman was by Promise: Which Things are an Allegory of the two Covenants." And whoever is capable of considering what is related concerning this Matter in this Book of the Hebrews, will evidently see that there are indeed two Covenants, and two such Covenants as fully justify the Apostle's Reasoning upon this Point.

Since then the Promise of temporal Prosperity, made to Abraham, and his Seed after him, are evidently distinct from the Subject Matter of the everlasting Covenant made with him, as I hinted to Isaac, and Jacob, and afterwards to the Tribes of Israel, and lastly to the Family of David; it remains to be considered, what the Subject of the Covenant so limited, is. If we look back to the Call of Abraham, and the Promise which accompanied it, there we shall find, that after enumerating the temporal blessings which were to descend from Abraham to his Posterity, one Blessing is added, in which all the World has an Interest, and which was to be conveyed to them through Abraham and his Seed; “Behold,” says “GOD, I will all the Families of the Earth be blessed.” Whatever Abraham understood by this, we think verily he could not understand it as his Children at this Day understand it, who expect, in Virtue of the Promises made to the Fathers, to be Lords of the World, and to have Dominion over all People: A Universal Blessing this to all Nations, that they should fall from their natural Liberty, and become subject to the Dominion of one People! None but a Tew can see the Happiness of such a State; the Nations of the Earth, if left to their Choice, would all refuse this great Blessing for themselves. But before we enquire into the special Meaning of this Blessing upon all Nations, we must see whether this universal Blessing, to be revealed in due Time, was truly the Matter of GOD’S special, His everlasting Covenant with Abraham. We have seen already that Ismael was excluded from this special Covenant, and Isaac admitted to it; we have the Covenant of GOD with Ismael, and the Covenant of GOD renewed with Isaac, both preserved in this Book of Genesis; and it is observed that the two Covenants, as to worldly Prosperity, are nearly the same, but they differ in this, the Covenant with Ismael says nothing of the Blessing to all Nations; the Covenant with Isaac expressly renews this very Promise: In thy Seed shall all the Nations of the Earth be blessed, Gen. xvi. 4. A plain Proof further, that the special Matter of GOD’S Covenant, limited from Abraham to Isaac, exclusive of Ismael, consisted in the Promise of this universal Blessing, to be conveyed through Abraham and Isaac, and their Posterity, to all Mankind.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

Probably in some resplendent Cloud, that filled the whole Heavens with Glory.

23 ¶ And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their fore-skin, in the self-same day, as God had said unto him.

24 And Abraham was ninety years old and nine when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the fifth section, Abraham circumcised, and named the son.

[illegible][illegible]

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the Egyptians, were circumcised with him.

We have before us, today, I wish what I hope, We see, Almighty GOD, come forth, I believe, in His goodness and mercy, in order to direct us in the future and Direct us in the Way, directing to protect the Growth of our beloved country, the Country of the United States of America, As we see, Chapter with the various, and the growth, there are the, extremely Way.

[illegible]

Now, that affection was intended to impress truth upon the Mind of his Household; and that he actually did so, we are assured by GOD himself, Gen. xlviii. 10. "I am God," saith GOD, "thy Father and thy Lord" (Elohim, Heb. Eloah) "and I have said unto thee, I will be unto thee a Father, and thou shalt be unto me a People."

And, indeed, it was scarce possible it should be otherwise, with such a low hanging in his Family, and all the Ministeries of Divine Service, vested to him, and under such a freely and generously ample of true Faith, Piety, and Virtue, in him. And we find, that, in fact, his Son, and most perfect Character among all the Patriarchs, sent to fetch that Son a Wife from amongst his own Kinsmen, is the most accomplished Instance of Fidelity, Piety, and Duty to GOD, and a firm Conviction in the immediate Superintendence, and Interposition of his Providence, that was ever yet heard of in a Man of that Character; --- and, as we have all the Reason in the World to believe, that all the rest of his Sons and Servants, were as well and as carefully trained up in true Virtue and the FEAR of GOD as these, (as long as they continued with him) how natural, and reasonable must true VIRTUE and true RELIGION be diffused among Mankind, by their Means, as they themselves were diffused among Mankind?

That Ceremony, could no other wife obtain among Mankind, than from divine Institution, appears from the plain Reasoning in the World; because for painful and for inconvenient a Rite, and in some Cases (as that of St. James's) to dangerous, which had no Foundation either in Reason, or Nature, or Necessity, or the Interest of any particular Set of Men, could never obtain in any Nation, but from the Injunction of some high and irresistible Authority; and such only, in the present Case, could be the AUTHORITY of GOD. And, in general, the plain Reasoning with which we demonstrated Sacrifices to be of divine Institution, will hold full as strong here.

First, because there could be no Priest-craft in the Case ; for we read of no such Thing as a Priest of the Race of Abraham for 400 Years after this Initiation ; nor had Priests any Employment from this Rite, nor was it then peculiar Business. --- And, in the next Place, we believe it will be allowed, that Cruelty, &c. is necessary Pain to ourselves and our Children, hath its true Foundation in Nature, as Cruelty to the Creatures : and, therefore, nothing but the same Authority which established one, could establish the other.

Let

For example, there is, to compute the  $\beta$  Regions of that iteration.

[illegible]

He had a lot of a lot in Propit of a Son from Abingby GOD.
 - The Abingby was King of the 1st. At Abingby, by a Bond with a son and his wife, some new Year, 1781, was given, when his Father and his Mother, and his Hopes of a son, was 1781, and his Mother, the Son of GOD's great friend, 1781. He is now a son of the Son of GOD, by his Wife, and the most Memorable, a pulled to go to a kit, with him, in all his own Probability, to be a son of that Father, and yet he, only, infinitely.
 How glorious and how great is this! And how admirably all the Circumstances of the Abingby made, to perpetuate the Memory of its wife, the Abingby, to make it memorable and illustrious to the world, and the 1st.

[illegible]

But, besides all this, the Covenant made with W. L. G., was first to be, and to be the Attention of all Mankind. It was a Covenant of universal Concern; in the Name of the Father were to be Signatories. And most Regions of the then known World had Men of their own Nation, Men of Credit and Veracity, to attest the Truth and Certainty of the Covenant to them. And, therefore, both Curiosity and Interest, would naturally excite Men to attend to this Matter, and to examine it with Care; and a careful Examination of such Truths, as Men find it their Interest to embrace, seldom fails to end in Conviction.

And whoever considers how equally and universally the Name of Alcibiades hath been, from the earliest Times, and still is, extended over all the East, will have no Reason to believe this a light or a groundless Speculation.

Doubtless the main Reason of this Infatuation was to separate a particular People to the Service of GOD, by such a Distinction as should demonstrate them to be of divine Original, as being no otherwise to be accounted for; and in that Demonstration be a perpetual, a lasting, and an infallible Proof of his Covenant with Abraham. And God's Proof of it is, as hath confounded the whole Infidel World, from the King of Jarran the Apostate Emperor, to the De-

This was a "win-win" option for both Ireland and Scotland. For Ireland, it was a US-Celtic link, a source of GDP; and for Scotland, it was a link to the Celtic Tiger, the appearance of which in the early 1990s was making Manchester the World's most important financial event, the future of which was hanging on the British Main.

2. And he lift up his eyes and looked, and lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent-door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

And find, My Lord, if now I have found Thee in my sight, I am not away, I pray thee, from thy Kneel.

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.

And I will fetch a mortar of bread, and comfort ye your hearts; after that you shall pass on: for therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do as thou hast said.

What a bravissimo Picture of HOPEFULITY is here!—how am-able, and how highly worthy to be imitated by us, whenever Occasion calls for it. There are no fewer tears or angers passing by his eye, but he runs out to meet them; he does not try to bury them, but turns them with the well-reporting Impertinency, that they should not pass by. He turns what might have been a crying into a Rant, and a Rage. Though he could a Minute ago, stand firm with the Ground, in respect to the most dangerous, and while they are sailing, he comes out to parry them, almost as a Sovereign, to draw them Round. We have seen a Courtier, who took them for any sort of a Freedom, and who would cry over them, were in all Places, and in all Circumstances, and to do either two, by the help of a good deal of Money, or the worst sort of Management, and was, of course, the most Common, to a Collection of the most happy, and the most and untroubled, and so took the most for Man.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetcht a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he halloed to dress it.

8 And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

o ¶ And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent-door, which was behind him.

The Expression according to the Time of Life, in this Verse, is not taken at this same Time of the following Year, as the former Version expresses it; or as others understand, at the same Time of the next Year of your Life, or lastly as some explain it, According to the Time of perfecting the Child's Life in the Womb, that is, within the Space of nine Months.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, and well stricken in age : and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also ?

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

14 Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed will I return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a Son.

This ought to silence all our Doubts and Fears upon all Occasions, Is any Thing too hard for the Lord ? --- He has revealed himself to Man, as the EL-SHADDAI, the ALL-SUFFICIENT, Gen. xlii. 1. and he has promised (GRACIOUS and COMFORTABLE Promise !) that he will be MAN'S GOD, or ALL SUFFICIENCY, ver. 7.

C H A P. XVIII

1 God appears to Abraham in the plain of Mamre, 11 and gives him the promise of a son to Isaac. 18 God declares that all nations shall be blessed through him. 20 Isaac's generation with him go to destroy Sodom. 23 Abraham makes a selfish intercession for the inhabitants thereof.

AND the Lord appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent-door in the heat of the day.

15 Then Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not: for I was afraid. And he said, Nay, but thou didst laugh.

It is in vain for us to think to hide any of our Misdemeanors from GOD. He is about all our Paths, and speaketh out all our Ways. The Jews said they had only laughed at him, and therefore thought they might safely deny it, yet he found he had deceived, and that the Stranger in the Tent knew the Secrets of her Heart.

16 And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do;

18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19 For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment; that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

Here we have an Instance how DEAR and ESTEEMABLE those are in the Sight of GOD who serve him faithfully. GOD Himself expresses, that Abraham's Behaviour was so acceptable to him, that he would not have him to be forgotten, but admit him to the high Honour, of being a Partaker in his Councils, in regard to the Affairs of the Earth. GOD setteth hereto a Part of Abraham's Character which deserves our Notice, For I know him, says GOD, that he will command his Children, and his Household after him, and they shall keep the Way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment.

From whence we may learn, that we are not only to know and serve GOD ourselves, but we are to take all Opportunities of instructing others in the Ways of GOD, especially all that are under our particular Care, whether Children or Servants. In Reality, every Man's Family is his Flock, and he their Shepherd who is to lead them to the pure Streams of Life; they are his Disciples, and he is to teach them the Ways of Salvation; they are his Followers, and he is to be a Guide to direct them to the Gate that leads to Life. Beside, it is the particular Province allotted to him, wherein he is to shew forth the Praise of the Lord, and tell forth all his wondrous Works. And this we find was what Abraham did in his Family, and it was seen and accepted by GOD.

20 And the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous;

21 I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know.

The Expressions of this Verse are figurative, and signify that the Lord, or Righteous Judge of all the Earth, exactly weighs the Actions of his Creatures, and always proportions Punishment according to the Crime.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the Lord.

The two Angels went on towards Sodom, but the DIVINE PERSON entered into farther Discourse with Abraham. They are called Men in this Chapter, probably because they appeared in Human Shape, and did nothing extraordinary to shew themselves to be other than Men, except only the DIVINE PERSON, who said enough to Abraham to shew him He was JEHOVAH.

23 And Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right.

26 And the Lord said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.

It is an impossible Thing, that GOD should destroy the Righteous with the Wicked. He is a just God, and will not do so.

27 And Abraham answered, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto thee, I being but dust and ashes.

28 Peradventure there shall be fifty righteous there: wilt thou destroy the whole city, because thou dost not find fifty there? and he said, If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy it.

29 And he said, Behold now, I have yet againe said unto thee, Peradventure there shall be forty righteous there: and he said, I will not destroy it for forty.

30 And he said yet againe, Behold now, the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet againe unto thee, Peradventure there shall be thirty righteous there: and he said, I will not destroy it, if I find thirty there.

31 And he said, Behold now, I have yet againe said unto thee, Peradventure there shall be twenty righteous there: and he said, I will not destroy it, if I find twenty there.

32 And he said, Behold now, the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet againe unto thee, Peradventure there shall be ten righteous there: and he said, I will not destroy it, if I find ten there.

How amiable is this Hospitality! In those early Times for the Men of Sodom were not so hospitable as Abraham, and may be presumed to have been so by the Lord, and therefore, he was so patient and gentle with them, which looked upon all their Sins.

We may observe, that the Lord is so good and merciful, and how much more should we be so to the World; for it is not only by our own good Conduct or Deeds, but in Love, that they do us good, but it is profitable from the Instance before us, that we contribute to GOD's righteous Judgment, from the respective Characters they bear him. And this, perhaps, may be said for GOD's sake, for his loving Examples of Obedience, and those which are naturally wicked. The few Righteous, indeed, among them, which would be involved in their Ruine, are so good to him, that it would be his Anger; and, as the Angels told Lot, He cannot do any Thing whilst they are there.

33 And the Lord went his way, as soon as he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

C H A P. XIX.

Lot's Invitation to Sodom, ch. xix. v. 1. The two Angels are present with Abraham. 12 Lot's wife is converted to him. 13 He sheweth Lot the Lot of Sodom. 24 Sodom is destroyed. 26 Lot's wife is converted to him. 30 Lot's wife is converted to him. 31 The two Angels of Sodom and Gomorrah.

AND there came two angels to Sodom at even, and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

2 And he said, Behold now my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay, but we will abide in the street all night.

How amiable is this Hospitality! In those early Times there were no public Inns for the Entertainment of Strangers, and, except a few Caravansaries, it is the same in the Eastern Countries at this Day. So that unless a Stranger comes among hospitable People, he must lodge in the Streets, whereof we have a remarkable Instance, Jud. xix. 15. That it was among the ancient Greeks and Romans, and hence the Laws of Hospitality came to be so sacred among them, and so many Friendships contracted merely upon that Score. Ethan. i. 4. c. 1. records a Law of the men of the city, who came to him, and said, Stand by us, for we have a dream, and we will do as thou sayest. Then he said, I will do as ye say, and I will be your father.

The men of the city, who came to him, and said, Stand by us, for we have a dream, and we will do as thou sayest. Then he said, I will do as ye say, and I will be your father.

As he was saying this, all the men of the city, both old and young, came to him, and said, Stand by us, for we have a dream, and we will do as thou sayest.

13 And he pressed upon them greatly, and they said, We will do as thou sayest, and we will be thy fathers, and we will do as thou sayest, and we will be thy fathers.

14 But he said, I will do as ye say, and I will be your father, and I will do as ye say, and I will be your father, and I will do as ye say, and I will be your father.

15 It is probable, that the men of the city, who came to him, and said, Stand by us, for we have a dream, and we will do as thou sayest, were the men of the city, who came to him, and said, Stand by us, for we have a dream, and we will do as thou sayest.

16 And he said, I will do as ye say, and I will be your father, and I will do as ye say, and I will be your father, and I will do as ye say, and I will be your father.

17 And he said, I will do as ye say, and I will be your father, and I will do as ye say, and I will be your father, and I will do as ye say, and I will be your father.

18 And he said, I will do as ye say, and I will be your father, and I will do as ye say, and I will be your father, and I will do as ye say, and I will be your father.

19 It is probable, that the men of the city, who came to him, and said, Stand by us, for we have a dream, and we will do as thou sayest, were the men of the city, who came to him, and said, Stand by us, for we have a dream, and we will do as thou sayest.

20 The men of the city, who came to him, and said, Stand by us, for we have a dream, and we will do as thou sayest, were the men of the city, who came to him, and said, Stand by us, for we have a dream, and we will do as thou sayest.

21 And they said, I will do as ye say, and I will be your father, and I will do as ye say, and I will be your father, and I will do as ye say, and I will be your father.

22 It appears from this, and what is said 2 Pet. 2d, 8th, that though Lot was a wicked man, yet he not only kept himself free from their Vice, but, like a good Man, reproved them also for their Sins.

23 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

24 And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

It is probable this was not an actual Blindness, but only a Confusion of the Sight, so as not to be able to distinguish the Objects around them. The Author of the Book of Wisdom attributes it to some Change in the Air, for he says, they were confused about by a knowledge great darkness.

25 And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whosoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place.

26 For we will do as thou sayest, and we will be thy fathers, and we will do as thou sayest, and we will be thy fathers.

27 And Lot went out, and he said, I will do as ye say, and I will be your father, and I will do as ye say, and I will be your father.

The men of the city, who came to him, and said, Stand by us, for we have a dream, and we will do as thou sayest, were the men of the city, who came to him, and said, Stand by us, for we have a dream, and we will do as thou sayest.

28 And when the morning arose, then the angels battered Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

29 And while he lagged, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the Lord being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

30 And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain: escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

31 And Lot said unto them, Oh not for, my Lord.

32 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life: and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die.

33 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?), and my soul shall live.

34 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

35 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither: therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

36 The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

37 Then the Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven.

Namely, the Son of GOD, who had appeared unto Abraham, made this Rain, which was caused by the immediate Interposition of GOD, to fall by some Word or Token, and to be showered upon the Earth without any Natural Cause. Though some Commentators think that this is only an Idiom of Scripture, and signifies no more than that the LORD Himself did it.

Brimstone, and Fire, signifies Brutal and Inhuman, and in the Hebrew Sin, inflamed Humour, signifies Inflammation.

Thi.

[illegible]

27 And he overhew these cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which was upon the ground.

We have been taken into the confidence of the LORD, and we have reported to the LORD our sins, and the LORD has forgiven them. Now that we know that the LORD is the LORD of Armies, that they say, and that he is the LORD, that he could do all that he commands, that America and Germany were needed, protection, and now that they have said that America would not do it, and that they would do it with, and what he would take. Conscience of, and for the

[illegible]

The Author of the Book of Isaiah, who wrote this Centenary Sermon, says, speaking of his own Day, the time of the Chaldean Captivity, as predicted, that *the Cities of the Land of Babylon, I built that I might inhabit, I have destroyed, and I have made them a Man of War, and a Strong Hold. And many other Writers, even among the Heathens, testify, that the Ruins of their Destruction will remain. The Cities of Babylon, and the Traces of the Fire that consumed them, were visible even in his Day. Ptolemy, Pliny, Strabo, Pappus, and others, have all made Mention of them; and to this Day, the Lake Suphatar, or the Dead Sea, which still feeds forth Smoke, Fire, and will remain, an everlasting Monument of GOD'S just Judgment; some of the Ruins of such Cities, being, at Time, visible at the Bottom of its sulphureous Waters. So that, as St. Peter observeth, GOD has made the City of Sodom a Pile of Ruins in their Overthrow, an Example to them that should not be like unto her.*

Thus saith GOD, in His most severe Dispensations, consult the Happiness of Mankind; and from all the Evil He inflicts, still produce more Good. From the Destruction of their Cities, we may likewise judge, that their terrible Destruction, which sometimes happens in the Earth, will be a whole City, and in all we lay at once, though we are very kind, and that the Wind will distribute them to the several Courts or Kingdoms, as yet in Truth owing only to the Hand of GOD, and at once some who find in His Providence, over the World, both a Punishment to the Wicked, and a Blessing to the pious, and also that I am able to make Men hear his will Him.

26. ¶ But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

As he was following Lo fly turned her fly, & towards Lo, either through Curiosity, or a being grieved at Lo's Commandment, and thereupon immediately became a dead full Body, died up and hardened by that sulphureous nitrous Matter, which is in the scripture called Salt, Gen. xiv. 3. Dom. xlix. 23.

It is not to be forgotten, that she not only looked back, but turned back, and retired, or at least retired to make haste away, and by that Means the dreadful Rain of Fire fell upon her, and probably wrapped her Body in a Sheet of nitro sulphureous Matter, which congealed into a Crust around her as hard as Stone, and made her appear like a Pillar of Salt. But our Commentators think it was no more, than that on looking back she was destroyed by the Exhalations of the sulphureous Matter; or else, that being the terrifying Destruction of the Place, where she had her Daughters and other Relations, she was struck in a Moment first and motionless like a Statue, by Grief and Horror; They mention Instances in Scripture, where the Word Salt is only used to imply Perpetuity of Time, as Nom. xvi. 10. and that the Expression, She became a Pillar of Salt, means no more than that she always continued in that State of Immobility to which she was then reduced. Others think that the Word Salt, Gen. xix. 26. ought to be understood here, and it must manifestly be in some other Passages of Scripture, and

[illegible]

27. And whether it is expedient that we should to the place of our residence.

28. At the beginning of the Soviet period, the role of the State in the economy was limited to the control of foreign trade, the issue of money, and the issue of the distribution of land. The State was not involved in the production of goods and services, and the role of the State in the economy was limited to the control of foreign trade, the issue of money, and the issue of the distribution of land.

the 1980s, the 1990s, and the 2000s. The 1980s were characterized by the rise of the "New Right" and the decline of the "New Left." The 1990s were characterized by the rise of the "New Left" and the decline of the "New Right." The 2000s were characterized by the rise of the "New Right" and the decline of the "New Left."

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE FOR THE DISTRICT OF CANTON OF THE MIDDLESEX COUNTY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

[illegible]

1. 1990年12月1日以前，在《民法通则》施行以前，即1986年4月12日以前，发生民事法律行为，适用行为发生时的法律。

52. According to the 1993 Survey of the Health of the Nation, 100 million people in the United States are overweight, and 30 million are obese. The prevalence of obesity has increased from 10 percent in 1975 to 15 percent in 1990. The prevalence of overweight has increased from 25 percent in 1975 to 35 percent in 1990. The prevalence of obesity has increased from 10 percent in 1975 to 15 percent in 1990. The prevalence of overweight has increased from 25 percent in 1975 to 35 percent in 1990.

and I perceived that when the day came, he would be the strong.

So thus we had the daughters of Iro with children, their fathers.

37 And the child born hereafter, and called his name Moshe: the same is the father of the Levites unto this day.

Now let us see what that means for the  $\mathcal{L}$ -formulas. For then,

23 And the younger, the also born of her, and called his name Benjamin: because he was born in the children of Ananias into the day.

But, even if the ex ante estimate of the effect of the tax on the firm's financials, and not of the actual effect on the firm's cash flows, is biased upward, the bias is not in the direction of the hypothesis.

[illegible]

1 Isaac is born according to Ge 27 promiss, and circum. b.d. 9 Hagar and Ishmael are sent away from Abraham's. 15 He. are in great distress: 17 An angel of an angel of Heaven comforts her, and again foretells that her male child will be a great nation. 22 Sime-le. 6 enters into a covenant with Abraham at Beer-sheba.

AND the LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as he had spoken.

However long GOD'S PROMISES are delayed, yet are they sure; they will certainly come to pass, they will surely be accomplished. He is faithful, and He is a Saviour, and therefore He cannot say that which will not be. Many were the Days that rolled over after Isaac was promised, and every Day seemed to render it more unlikely and impossible; so that, as Sarah observes in the seventh Verse, Who would have said that Sarah should have given Children suck? and yet at last the Promise was fulfilled, and have been.---This is an Example that may teach us never to despair of GOD'S PROMISES, however long delayed; for in the End ye shall speak and not lye, though they tarry, yet will surely come.

This may lead us too to reflect with great Seriousness and Attention, on those Promises and Threatnings made to us in the Gospel; which, though according to our thinking they are long delayed, and all Things continue as they were from the Beginning of the Creation; yet may they notwithstanding as surely be accomplished, as was the Promise of Isaac, which, according to the Nature of the Thing, to Abraham's Thinking, was as long delayed. Though we see Things go on in their accustomed Manner, though we see Men inconsiderate and not thinking about it; though we even see Scoffers who cry out with Taunt, Where is the Promise of his Coming? yet the Day of the Lord will come without standing; when the Trumpet shall sound, and the Dead shall awake to appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ; for every one to receive the Things done in his Body, according to that he has done, whether it be good or evil. And we have sufficient Information from the Scripture, that this great and tremendous Day will come, when it is least expected, like a Thief in the Night, when the World is going on at its usual Rate, while Men are eating and drinking, marrying and giving in Marriage, hurrying in Business, immersed in Pleasure, fixing their Thoughts and Hopes on Earth, believing themselves in Security, and thinking not of Judgment.

2 For Sarah conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

In this Verse it is remarked, that it was at the set Time of which God had spoken, that Sarah bare a Son, from whence we may observe, how exactly all GOD's Promises are fulfilled, and that the minutest Circumstances of all Events are known to him before they happen.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac.

4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac, being eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

6 ¶ And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me.

Sarah reflecting on the Name which GOD had ordered to be given to her Son, as mentioned in the nineteenth Verse of the five-teenth Chapter, which signifies Laughter or Joy; and also on her Laughter through Unbelief, when she heard the Stranger in the Tent declare she should have a Son; expresses, that now indeed she had Reason to laugh with the utmost Joy and Gratitude, and that all her Friends might join with her in her Laughter or Joy.

7 And she said, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck ! for I have borne him a son in his old age.

We may here observe, that having Children and giving them suck is reckoned the same Thing, so unusual was it for Mothers then, to deny their Babes the peculiar Nourishment which GOD has provided for them in their Breasts.

8 And the child grew, and was weaned : and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah flew the din of Hagar the Egyptian, when she had borne a son to Abraham, in the land of Egypt.

10 Wherefore the Lord says, My people, God hath this bond-woman, and her son: and they shall be bond-woman that not be with my law, and with Isaac.

It is probable that this was not the full list of the individuals that were attending the Convention. Dr. Williams writes that on the 21st of April, 1844, he saw that the following persons were present, and he might have overlooked some individuals. He says that at the time the Family topics were being handled, he had seen some of the persons that were to be attended by the Convention, but he was not in the confidence of them. He indicated reports and the names of some of the members of the Convention, but he did not say the names of the members of the Convention, as to separate him from the other members of the Convention. He prevented all those who were not in the Convention from attending, which would have probably been had the Convention been held.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight, because of his son.

12 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight, because of the maid, and because of thy bond-woman; in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice: for in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the force of the bond woman will I make a nation, because he is thy seed.

[illegible]

We may observe, that though Mr. Howe had been mainly informed, that in his Son Lucas only, all the Promises of Grace, Honour and Blessing were to be fulfilled; yet how was it for him inclining to Lucas with an unjust Partiality? Mr. Howe should have had an equal Share of his Affection. And how often have I seen this to Parents, never to treat a Son of their Children with an unjust Partiality, to the Prejudice of the rest. And the same Action of Mind be Mr. Howe, when GOD had assured him he would bless Isaiah, may learn that not to neglect, if they have Ground to hope for GOD'S blessing on their Children, as this alone is the Thing they need most to care for.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar (putting it on her shoulder) and the child, and sent her away: and she departed and wandered in the wilderness of Beer sheba.

15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the thrubs.

Though in this Verse Ishmael is made a Child, yet in the twelfth Verse before, and thrie following this, he is called a Lad, and it is evident he must be fifteen or sixteen, if not more, for in the seventeenth Chapter it is said, that Ishmael was thirteen Years old when he was circumcised; and there must at least have passed two or three Years, if not more, between that and the Weaning of Hagar.

The Word cast in this Verse, should be rather rendered LAIN, or placed the Lad under one of the Shrubs, (or Trees) which she did in all Probability to defend him from the scorching Heat of the Sun, which in all Likelihood by their long wandering in the Wilderness, and having no Water to allay their Thirst, had quite overcome him, so that he was faint and spent. The Consideration of this Particular of Isaac's Age, and some other Circumstances of the Relation, may make us consider it in a different Light than it appears in at first View.

It is laid in the 14th Verse, that Abraham gave Hagar Bread and Water, and sent her away. By Bread and Water in Scripture, is expressed all necessary Provision, and we seldom find any other Term made Use of; so that Isaac, without Doubt, provided every Thing that they had been used to for common Food, which they could conveniently carry with them; for it is reasonable to suppose that the Lad took Part of the Provisions on his Shoulders, as well as his Mother. And this was no more than the usual Way of travelling in those Times, and is still the Practice in the Parts here spoken of at this Day: there being no Inn, every one that travels is obliged to carry with them their Provisions: And in those Ages it was customary for Persons (even of Nobility) to carry their Provisions themselves, when they journeyed from one Place to another. We have no Mention made of any Servant that Isaac had with him, when Isaac went away to Beer-sheba, which was a Journey of a considerable Distance. Many other Instances might be brought of this Sort in those early Ages; so that Hagar and Ishmael were put into no worse Condition than Persons in general were, when they travelled or journeyed from one Place to another. It is mentioned that Abimelech got up himself early on this Occasion; he did not leave the putting out of Hagar to the Insolence of any of his Servants, but arose up himself to do it without any Witnesses; so that it is reasonable to conclude he furnished her and the Lad with all Things necessary, and directed her to some particular Place in the Wilderness, where she might settle; for we are not to imagine that this Wilderness was an uninhabited Desert, as there were Houses and even Cities or Villages scattered up and down in it; but it was called a Wilderness, as being a mountainous Tract, and less inhabited than other Parts of the Country; and probably Abimelech intended here to have supplied her with what was further necessary. The whole of her Distress seems to have arisen from an Accident which he did not foresee, from her losing her Way in the Wilderness. To this may be added, that in those Days there was such a Plenty of all Sorts of Creatures, that any one might kill sufficient in any Place (especially the uncultivated ones) for a Maintenance; and we find accordingly, that they were all brought up to hunting, and depended much upon what they killed with their own Hands for their Subsistence, as many Nations do even at this Day. And undoubtedly as Ismael was grown up to such an Age, he had been instructed how to take or kill the Creatures, so as to enable him to get enough for his own and Mother's Subsistence; and not only this, but he was of an Age to let himself out to Hire to those that kept Flocks, which we find was an usual and no degraded or uncommon Practice: for Isaac himself did the same, and thereby came to have large Flocks, &c. of his own. So that by this Means they might be upon a better Looking than they could be in Abraham's Family; for as Isaac was declared by GOD the Heir of Abraham, Hagar and Ismael could be no other than Bond Servants to Isaac, which was the lowest Degree of Servitude, and perpetual from Generation to Generation; but being put away, they became free, and so had the Means of improving their Condition, and raising an independent Family; and accordingly we find Ismael hereby became a great Nation. These Circumstances considered, the putting away of Hagar and Ishmael does not appear the hard and unjust Act, which at first View it seems to be.

16 And she went, and sat her down over-against Isaac, a good way off, as it were a bow-shot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over-against him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 And God heard the voice of the lad: and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

GOD'S PROVIDENCE extends to every Place, as well to the void Waste, as to the City full. His CARE can protect us in the wild Wilderness, destitute of all human Aid, as well as when we are surrounded by powerful Friends.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand: for I will make him a great nation.

Here the Promise given before to comfort Hagar in her Affliction is renewed, to support her under her sixth Trouble: GOD never forsakes those that trust in him, in the Time of Need.

19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water: and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

This means no more than that she was made to turn her Eyes to a Well, which she had not observed before.

20 And God was with the lad, and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

If GOD is but with us we must needs prosper, however much human Means are wanting.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech, and Phichol the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest.

23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God, that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

24 And Abraham said, I will swear.

25 And Abraham reprov'd Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it but to day.

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech: and both of them made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ew-lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven ew-lambs which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ew-lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

A Well was a most valuable Treasure in these hot and dry Countries, and therefore we find it a frequent Subject of Contention. Abraham here after complaining about a Well that had been unjustly taken from him, gives seven Ewe-Lambs to be accepted by Abimelech, as an Acknowledgment that Abraham had a Right to the Well.

31 Wherefore he called that place Beer-sheba: because there they swore both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God.

From the constant Practice of the Patriarchs worshipping in Groves, we may learn that RETIREMENT and SOLITUDE are great Helps to Devotion; and that the Mind never so freely mounts up to Heaven, as when it shuts out the Noise and busy Bustling of the World.

34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines land many days.

C H A P. XXII.

1 Abraham is proved by being ordered to offer up Isaac. 11 But is countermanded by an angel. 15 Abraham is blessed again; and the great promise of all nations being blessed in his Seed, is confirmed.

AND it came to pass after these things that God did tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham. And he said, Behold, here I am.

To tempt, in our Language, conveys the Idea of soliciting to Evil, in which Sense it belongs only to Devils, or Men of devilish Dispositions, Matth. iv. 1. but cannot without Blasphemy be said of GOD, Ja. i. 13. When he tempts Men, 'tis only to put their Obedience to the Proof; and that not for his own Information, but to ascertain and determine their Character; to give them Opportunities of excelling in Virtue and Piety, and to justify his own Conduct towards them, in the Distribution of Rewards and Punishments, whether in the present or future Life. Thus GOD tempted Abraham, that is, he afforded him an Occasion or exhibiting to Men in all Ages, a glorious Proof of his Faith in the Divine Power and Veracity, that he might give him the Honour of a singular Commendation, and make him happy in a distinguishing Reward.

2 And he said, Take now thy son, thine only Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt-offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

The Land of Moriah was a mountainous Tract of Land, the Distance of twenty League Northward from Beer-Sheva, where Abraham then was. It was called Moriah afterwards, from GOD's appearing there to Abraham, for it signifies God's appearing. It was on this very Mountain that the Temple of Jerusalem was built, 2 Chron. iii. 1. And we are told that on one Part thereof, namely, Mount Calvary, our SAVIOUR offered himself, which Offering was prefigured by this intentional Offering of Isaac.

3 ¶ And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son; and clave the wood for the burnt-offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

It is said here that Abraham set out at the Place, that is, towards the Place, for though he knew which Way to direct his Count, yet he appears not to have been acquainted of the particular Place, till the third Day after he set out.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lift up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

Thus it appears that he had three full Days to deliberate concerning the Action, and no Doubt but he weighed it very seriously in his Mind, both in the Nature and Circumstances of it. And this Circumstance is the highest Proof that his Faith was well grounded: For if he had sacrificed his Son the very Moment it was commanded, it might have been thought a precipitate moderate Act; but to do it after such mature Deliberation, shows that his Obedience proceeded from nothing but a Principle of FAITH and LOVE to GOD.

It is said here, that he lift up his Eyes and saw the Place afar off, which probably was by the Shekinah or divine Glory resting upon it. Some of the Jerusalem Doctors tell us, that when GOD bade Abraham go to the Place he should tell him of, he asked how he should know it? And the Answer was, Wherever thou shalt see my Glory, there I will stay and wait for thee. And accordingly now he beheld a Pillar of Fire reaching from Heaven to Earth.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide you here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering, and laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife: and they went both of them together.

Hence, among other Circumstances, it appears that Isaac must have been well grown at this Time, or he could not have been able to have carried the Wood that was to burn the Sacrifice. Josephus mentions that he was twenty-five.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt-offering?

A very melting Expression this! which must have awakened all the Parent's Tenderness. And however simple this Circumstance may appear, yet nothing perhaps could more strongly mark the Firmness of Abraham's Resolution, than his being able to give so calm an Answer to such a Question, proposed to him in so critical a Moment.

8 And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt-offering: so they went both of them together.

By this Answer Abraham waves any Discourse on this Head, as not thinking fit then to let Isaac into what had been commanded him, and perhaps as being dubious in his own Mind what would be the Event of the Transaction.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of, and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order; and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

The Jerusalem Doctors say, that Isaac, when he offered by his Father, was that GOD had ordered, and probably being struck with the Divine Glory which appeared on the Mountain, consented willingly to be offered up. And when we consider the Age of Isaac, as being in his thirtieth year, and that he was born by old Abraham above a hundred Years old, and that in the Observation of Time which make any one of them so, that we can scarcely imagine that Isaac could be so young, and yet stand upon the Altar by force; and therefore there is reason to suppose that Isaac voluntarily and patiently submitted to be made a Sacrifice to GOD. And it we consider that Isaac was a young Man, how strongly he was convinced that all his Happiness depended upon GOD, and in doing that which He ordered; with how much assurance he believed that He was a constant Rewarder of those that obeyed Him, he never nobly or might appear according to natural Causes when we reflect on the many remarkable Proofs he had received of this, we cannot but conclude, that he had deeply fixed in his Heart, that Obedience to GOD was the Way to his Happiness; that in great Happiness consisted in this; and that GOD would in due time reward with great Glory, those that obeyed him with a faithful Heart. And, therefore, it is not surprising that Isaac should voluntarily submit to become a Sacrifice, which his Father had by GOD's Assurance that GOD had expressly ordered it.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham. And he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, because thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me.

This is only spoken suitable to our Ideas, for GOD knew Abraham's Heart before, and therefore this signifies no more than that Abraham now gave an open and convincing Proof of his Obedience.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: And Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt-offering, in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.

Abraham gave it this Name, alluding to what he said to his Son in the eighth Verse, which the Event had justified by GOD's providing a Ram for the Sacrifice. From hence it came to be a proverbial Form of speech, with which good Men encouraged themselves and others to cast their Care on GOD under their greatest Straits, that In the Mount of the Lord it shall be seen, or rather, In the Mount of the Lord it shall be provided; that is, in the greatest Extremities GOD will make a suitable Provision for the Deliverance and Support of those who fear and trust in him, even as he did to Abraham upon the Mount itself, when he was in the greatest Extremity, and had no immediate Prospect before him of any Deliverance. And this points to us the great Moral of this Passage of Sacred History, namely, that in the most difficult Duties, we ought to be obedient and resigned to the Will of GOD.

15 ¶ And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time,

16 And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son:

17 That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea-shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies;

18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed: because thou hast obeyed my voice.

As the Promise of GOD needs no Sanction, so indeed it can receive no Confirmation from an Oath: But GOD in this, as in many other Things, condescended to the Weakness and Ideas of the Human Mind; and He swears by Himself, because He cannot swear by no greater, Heb. vi. 13.

He then found out me on the Way, when he had clad himself with a New Garment of Gold. And He brought me to a Garment of many colours, and rent it in twelve Pieces, and he said to me, Go thy Way, thou shalt have Peace. Thus both the Lord, the Second of the Holy Spirit, I will renounce Kingdom over of the Holy Spirit, and will give ten Tribes to thee. 1 A 2, 11: 27

The Circumstances of the New Testament have a not insignificant bearing on the Power of the Kingdom at that Time. In its full strength and fullness, Manna was not given on earth. Scriptures, that it was an illustration of the information by Manna, as well as Bread, and that GOD, in continuing the revelation gave Manna in the same Manner. This kind of Water that now is of Opinion, that when GOD said, Let there be Light, Say, that is, only Say, Let there be Light, to give the information by an Angel, instead of Words, of the GREAT SACRIFICE of Jesus Christ, and which the Jews earnestly longed to be informed about.

That Text of St Paul, Ch. viii. 36. where Jesus says to the unbelievers, Behold, now is the Day, when ye shall die, and ye shall stand before the Judge, strongly to support this Opinion, that the Word observes, when the figurative Word Denoted some thing in general, the Period of Time, but to denote the particular Occasion of Employment, it must needs signify that a vacation in Church, that, which is known to be the vacation of the Office of Employment. But Jesus was here talking of the vacation of the Office of Employment, as appears from the Occasion of the saying, which was His saying, Behold, now is the Day, when ye shall stand before the Judge, therefore that he was speaking of the Office of Redemption: Therefore, when the Word Denoted to be in time, that should be to be in time, the vacation of the Time. But that Christ here was His saying down to the Redemption of Mankind, could hardly be, the Word Day, is meant the Savours of CHRIST. But, rather observable, that our Saviour expressly teaches, that the Day which is clearly shews, that the Intimation of it was given to Christ, not by a Revelation Word, but by a Revelation in Action. That a Knowledge by Sight was expressed by the Words of Jesus, appears very evident from the Reply the Jesus made to Him, Thou shalt not say I am He, and thou shalt be called He, it happens therefore from their Words of our Saviour, that Abraham had Intimation by Sight of the Day, that is, The Day of the Sacrifice for the Sin of the World.

The next Thing to be enquired, is, whether we may reasonably expect to find this important Matter in the History of ROMAN Life, recorded in the Old Testament : And upon considering it, we shall find Reason to judge, both from our SAVIOUR'S mentioning it, and the Nature of the Thing, that it is certainly recorded in Hebrew History : For first we find, by the History of CHRIST's Ministry, that in His Disputations with the Jews, He never urged them with any Circumstances of GOD'S Dispensations to them, or others, which they either were not, or might not be, well acquainted with, by the study of their Scriptures : For as He always appealed to them, as being Writings which testified of Him, and as the Jews depended wholly upon them for the Knowledge of all Truth, we cannot suppose that He who did not TRUTH sincerely, would mention Facts in Support of His Character, which were not delivered in those Scriptures : For these were not His Credentials, as the Miracles He wrought, and therefore nothing concerning GOD'S Dispensations to the Jews, could be alledged by Him in Support of His Doctrine, but what was delivered therein : So that we have Reason to conclude, that CHRIST would not have mentioned Abraham in His Hebrew Discourse, had it not been a common Matter recorded in His History.

And finally, from the Nature of the Thing, a mitting that THE DAY OF CHRIST'S DAY, it cannot be supposed that to exist and important a Circumstance should be omitted in His History, a sacred Record, preordained to be one of the supports and evidences of CHRIST'S Personages. Now it is evident that there is no Place in the whole History of REVELATION, but this, where it is commanded to offer up his Son, which bears the least Marks or Traces of such a Revelation or Illumination; and it is as evident that this Command is all the Marks of being this very Illumination, when, by REVELATION CHRIST'S DAY, as we have already seen, by the exact Agreement of the Circumstances between THE DAY OF CHRIST'S

We must go yet further, from a View of Moham's History, that all Civil Revolution, even unto this last, open by Danton, and shut principally closed to his Posterity according to the Plan, but ultimately to the whole Race of Mankind; as appears from the Promise formerly given him, at the Foundation of all the following, that in long p'nted sh. Form - of the Law to be Decided, Gen. Vol. 5.

That of the great coincident Truths, to which all the Revelations relate. But according to the common Interpretation of the last of them, the Command of coming up to Zion, which one would naturally expect to find the Confirmation and Completion of the rest, is made to have no Manner of Relation to them, but to be foreign to every Thing preceding. Hence we may reasonably concludes that a Rewarding more in the Command than appears at first Sight in the Relation. We alloway certainly attending to it, that this Command may be but a Trial, as we are told to Abraham, according to our Law, of Things that are very improper Time; for when the Governor of the Kingdom of Hurry is pleased to try any of His Servants, whether for Example Sake, or for some other End, favour able to His Dispositions in Manhood, and in this He condescends to the Manner of Men, who cannot judge of the Merits of Their inferior Agents without Trial, he may be assured He would accommodate Himself to their Manner likewise in the most material Circumstances of the Trial. But amongst Men, the Agent is always in Charge he is in on Work or Reward, and in Charge. When we come therefore to this Place, and see a Command only to tempt or try Abraham, we naturally expect, on his answering to the Trial, to find him greatly employed on his Service. On the contrary, we are told, that this Trial was not after all his Work done, and all GOD's Mercies received; And he returned to his own Land—nay, what is still more strange, after he had been on a trial Agency. For the Promise to him, when he was yet childless, his Wife to enter, and both of them far advanced in Age, that his Seed should be the Start of Heaven for Multitude, was a Trial of his Fidelity, and his believing, against all Probability in a natural Way, the sacred History in this was, a Venture to him for Reward only. Such therefore being the Method both of GOD and Man in this Matter, we must needs conclude, that the Command was not, according to the common Notion, a Trial only, because it was not a Trial of GOD's Disposition. Yet as the sacred Text assures us, it was a Trial, and a Trial necessarily precedes the Employment or Reward of the Person tried, we must needs conclude, that as no Employment or Reward followed this Trial.

Now if we take it in the Sense that Abraham is to be this Command, now CHRIST'S Day, and was once in the Church, thereby let into the wonderful Mystery of Miracles of Religion, and how he was to be restored to Life and Happiness, were we to say that this Trial was rewarded with the great Blessing ever bestowed by GOD on Abraham; and that this being done GOD had declared His whole Purpos<sup>t</sup> to him, and thereby all was perfected, and agreeable thereto we have no Account of any more Divine Appearances or Revelations made to him by GOD.

We shall the more fully see the Force of this, by looking back and observing how all GOD's Revelations to Abraham, to this last, ultimately relate to that mysterious fundamental Promise made to him, on his first Vocation, that in him ye all of the Families of the Earth be blessed. GOD opens the Scheme of his Dispensations by exact and regular Steps, and the Revelations follow one another gradually and in Order.---Abraham is first commanded to go into a Land which should be shewn him---then that Land, to be possessed by his numerous Posterity, is exhibited to him---Its distinct Boundaries are afterwards marked out---He is next assured, while yet childless, that his Posterity, to which so much was promised, should not be from an adopted Son, but from one out of his own Loins.---He is then told that this Son should be born of Sarah---Which is followed by the formal Execution of the Covenant confirmed by the Seal of Circumcision---After all this the Birth of Isaac is predicted: Who being born at the appointed Time,---Ismael is ordered to be sent away, to design with more Certainty the other Son's Succession. Here we see, throughout a gradual Opening, and fit Preparation for some farther Revelation, which, in Pursuance of this regular Scheme of progressive Dispensations, could be no other than that of the Redemption of Mankind by the Messiah, the Completion of the whole of GOD's Oeconomy, and the Explanation of His first and fundamental Revelation, that in Abraham should all the Families of the Earth be blessed. But the only remaining one, recorded by the sacred Historian, is the Command to offer up his Son Isaac. This Command therefore is the very Revelation wanting. The Revelation which perfects all the foregoing, and makes the whole Series uniform and complete. And the Place in which we find it, exactly suits such a Revelation, which, being the Completion of the rest, must needs be the last in Order.

But it may be asked, that if this was the principal Reason of the Command, why did not Abel mention it, but assign the Reason of it to be as only a Trial of Abraham's Faith and Obedience?—And it came to pass after these Things, GOD did tempt Abraham, and said, Take now thy Son, thine only Son Isaac, &c. And when the Affair is over, the same Reason is again intimated,---By which have I proven, saith the LORD: for he said thou hast done this Thing, and hast not withheld thy Son, that in blessing I will bless thee, &c.

To this it may be answered, that the Knowledge of GOD's future Dispensation, in the Redemption of Mankind by the Death of his Son, revealed, as a singular Favour, to the Father of the Faithful, was what could by no Means be communicated to the Jewish People, when Moses wrote this History for their Use, because they being, at that Time, to continue long under a carnal Oeconomy, this Knowledge of the End of the Law would have greatly indisposed them to that Dispensation; with which, as a Servant, after that was to bring them by Degrees through a hard and rugged Discipline, to the easy Yoke of CHRIST, GOD, in His Infinite Wisdom, thought fit to exercise them.

But it may be objected, perhaps, if this Revelation could not be clearly recorded, why was it recorded at all? But in this case er, not knowing the Scriptures, which are ONE wonderful and harmonious Whole, from the Beginning of Time to the End of it; each supporting each, one bearing Witness to another. And therefore this was by the infinite Wisdom of GOD recorded, That when the Fullness of Time was come, and the GREAT SACRIFICE of JESUS CHRIST was offered, those that were called to FAITH in a SAVIOUR that was slain, and rose again from the Dead, might behold with Wonder, in support of their FAITH, that this very Thing had been declared by GOD to Abraham, above two Thousand Years before; and that Abraham, in the Command to offer up his Son, who was called to, and did actually embrace the very same FAITH which we are called to, in rising our FAITH and Hope on a crucified SAVIOUR. And thus is the stronger Evidence, as being in these very Books, which those who put the LORDGE LIFE to Death, allow to be of Divine Original.

O SACRED FOUNTAINS OF FREEDOM! O WONDERFUL WRITINGS! O HOLY SCRIPTURES! from you we may gain more Knowledge than from all our Teachers. What Beams of Light do you bring to the Heart of MAN, otherwise hid in thick Clouds and Darkness! How am I enlightened! how am I saved! How do I understand what Things belong to Man, what are the CONNEXIONS between HEAVEN and EARTH, what the DISPENSATIONS or ORDINANCES of GOD towards MAN, how the DIVINE ALMIGHTY CREATOR, and the frail Creature MAN, I united! In you, ye SACRED WRITINGS, I discern one consistent harmonious Account of Things, from the Time that the Human Nature was placed upon the Earth, to the Time that it was exalted to Heaven: You acquaint me with what I feel myself, that Man has fallen from his first Estate; but you acquaint me with what I should otherwise never know, that Man is restored, nay more, exalted; that he is made a Partaker of Heaven, a Child of GOD, a joint Heir with CHRIST the FIRST BORN, of all the Glories which surround the Throne of GOD, of all the Joys that are at His Right Hand, of all the Power and Dominion of a HEAVENLY KINGDOM: You show me that this glorious and adorable Plan was laid by the FATHER of Mercies, as soon as miserable Man had fallen: You point out to me all the succeeding Steps that were taken by the Divine Wisdom to accomplish it, till the Fullness of Time, when the WORD was made FLESH, and dwelt among Men, and gave to many as received Him, Power to become the Sons of GOD, even to all them that believe in His Name."

But it may be asked, why (when the Fullness of Time was come) the Scripture did not instruct us in the principal Reason of the Command to offer Isaac? It may be replied, that it has done so, if we will but take Heed to it, and examine it attentively. The Words of JESUS, John, viii. 56. which we have considered, are an illustrious Proof: But this is not the only Place where the true Reason of the Command is plainly hinted at. The Author of the Epistle to the Hebrews, Ch. xi. 17, 19. speaking of this very Command, says, By Faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac, accounting that GOD was able to raise him up even from the Dead, from whence also he received him in a Figure, or, (in a PARABLE :) A Mode of Information, either by Words or Action, which consists in putting one Thing for another. Now in a Writer, who regarded this commanded Action as a representative Information of the Redemption of Mankind, nothing could be more fine or easy than this Expression. For though Abraham did not indeed receive Isaac restored to Life after a real Dissolution, yet the Son being in this Action to represent CHRIST suffering Death for the Sins of the World, when the Father brought him safe from Mount Moriah after three Days, during which he was in the State of Condemnation to Death, he plainly received him under the Character of CHRIST's Representative, as restored from the Dead: For, as his coming to the Mount, and binding, and laying on the Altar, figured the Sufferings and Death of CHRIST, so his being taken from thence alive as properly figured CHRIST's Resurrection from the Dead. With the highest Propriety, therefore, and Elegance of Speech, might Abraham be said to receive Isaac from the Dead in a Parable, or in Representation.

We have already observed, why Moses could not assign the principal Reason of the Command to offer Isaac, &c. because GOD's Dispensations to Mankind were to be opened by Degrees; and the DIVINE METHOD of giving PEACE and SALVATION, was not to be disclosed in general, till the preaching of the Gospel by JESUS. This being the Case, Moses only says that GOD tempted (or tried) Abraham by it; and so indeed He did, for His DIVINE WISDOM ordered, that at the same Time it was an Action of Information to Abraham, it was an extraordinary Trial of his FAITH.

And in the same Manner we may account for what is said of it in the 16th Verse; for though the Action, as being an Information of what Abraham had most earnestly desired to know, was a very singular and extraordinary Favour conferred on him, and an EXCEEDING GREAT REWARD for all his FAITH, yet, as this could not be fitly mentioned for the Reasons we have already given, therefore GOD was pleased to commend the particular FAITH which Abraham had really shown in this Action, (whatever GOD's chief Intention might be in it) and to renew in a solemn Manner all the gracious Promises He had before made him; and in particular that GREAT FUNDAMENTAL PROMISE in which all the rest was comprehended, That he should be the Father of many Nations.

20 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was old, that he said unto his wife Sarah, I was told by Abime, saying, I will surely die: and thou shalt also come to the grave with me.

The following Genealogy is taken from the Bible, the Word of GOD, written.

21 Hez his first born, and Phiz his second, and Kor and the father of Aram.

22 And Chetah, and Hador, and Phol, and Japh, and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel begot Peleth, and Peleth begot Mithah, which was the father of Nachor.

24 And his concubine, which was the daughter of the Hittite, she bare also Tebat, and Gaham, and Thah, and Maachah.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 The age and death of Sarah, and her burial in the Cave of Machpelah.

AND Sarah was old, and came to the end of her days, and was buried in the Cave of Machpelah, which is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, which is before Mamre: and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah his wife, and to weep.

2 And Sarah said unto her servant Hagar, I have borne thee, and thou art a Hittite: thou shalt come to mourn for me, and to weep, and thou shalt be buried with me: for where I am, thou shalt be.

Some think that Sarah's death was not natural, but that she was killed by her husband, as was the case with many other women in those days. But the Scripture does not say so, and it is more than probable that she died of a natural death, as was the case with many other women in those days.

3 ¶ And Abraham stood up before his dead, and spake unto the sons of Heth, saying,

4 I am a stranger and a sojourner with you: give me a possession of a burying place with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

The most ancient, and seemingly the most natural Way, of disposing of the Dead, is that of interring or burying in the Earth, whereby the Body is returned to the Earth from whence it was taken.

5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him,

6 Hear us, my lord; thou art a mighty prince amongst us; in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulcher, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.

7 And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth.

From Abraham's dealing with the People of Heth, and from many other Transactions related in the Scripture, it is manifest that Kings in those Days did nothing of a publick sort, but in Conjunction with the People; and that the People had a great Share in the Management of all Affairs.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and intreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar:

9 That he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field; for as much money as it is worth he shall give it me, for a possession of a burying place amongst you.

10 And Ephron dwelt amongst the children of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, even of all that were in at the gates of his city, saying,

11 Nay, my lord, hear me: the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee: in the

10 And I will make thee clear by the Lord, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I dwell.

11 And Abraham bowed down himself before the Lord, saying, My Lord God.

12 And Abraham bowed down himself before the Lord, saying, My Lord God. And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

13 And Abraham bowed down himself before the Lord, saying, My Lord God.

14 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

15 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

16 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

17 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

18 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

19 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

20 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

21 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

22 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

23 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

24 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 And Abraham was old, and well stricken in age: and the Lord had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

This was a form of taking an Oath in those Days.

3 And I will make thee clear by the Lord, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I dwell.

4 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

5 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

6 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

7 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

8 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

9 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

10 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

11 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

12 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

13 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

14 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

15 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

16 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

17 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

18 And he said, I will give thee my silver, and I will bury thee in the land which I have bought for thee: and thou shalt be buried with thy fathers.

that thou hast appointed for thy fervant Isaac ; and thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.

What a noble Example is here for all Servants to imitate !—Ben Maister, in all Goodness ! Abraham's servant we find had not lived in His Maister's House without profiting by His Example. He shews the like Exertion and Dependence upon GOD as Ben Maister ; and thus being a Business of great Consequence that he is sent about, he does not rest upon his own Prudence and Wisdom, but begs the Blessing and Direction of GOD in it. It is indeed our greatest Happiness and Advantage, if we did but know it, to acknowledge God in all our Ways, in all our Undertakings, in all our Business, and then He will direct our Paths. And what can we desire, what can we wish for more, than to be under the Direction and Guidance of Heavenly Wisdom ?

We may further remark from this Servant's Petition to GOD, and from what Abraham says in the seventh Verse, that in those Days they judged that GOD presided over and directed the MARRIAGE-Union of good Men.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel son of Milcah the wife of Nahor Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel was very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her : and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord : and she halted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she halted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering at her, held his peace, to wit, whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous, or not.

What amiable Qualities does Rebekah show ! What Condescension ! what Good-Nature ! what Humanity ! The Servant asks only to drink a little Water out of her Pitcher, and she not only gives this with the most obliging Courtesy, but hastens to draw Water for all his Camels. Well might the Servant wonder with Pleasure, and conclude that the Lord had made his Journey prosperous ; the only Thing that kept him in Doubt about it, was his not knowing whether she was of Abraham's Kindred. One of so much Condescension, Good-Nature, Humanity, Courtesy, and Readiness to oblige, he concluded would certainly make his Master's Son happy in the Marriage-State ; and therefore he requested of GOD in the fourteenth Verse, that her whom He had appointed for Isaac's Wife should act in such a Manner ; whereby he should have the Pleasure of concluding within himself that she was such a one as would make Isaac happy.

22 And it came to pass as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden ear-ring, of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands, of ten shekels weight of gold ;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor.

25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD.

27 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of his mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren.

[illegible]

28 And the daughter, and the mother of her mother's home there.

29 And Rebekah her daughter, said his name was Laban; and Laban ran out unto him, unto the well.

30 And it came to pass which few the ear-rings and bracelets upon his sister's hair, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me, that he came unto the man, and behold, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for thee.

The Budget of the Lord, written by David C. Cook, is a book of 100 pages and I imagine of the same size as the Prayer Book. It was kept in the then Mission Office at the same time as the Prayer Book in our Day.

33. ¶ And the manner of the people, who are unguided his camels, and the manner of the people for the camels, and the manner of the people, the men's feet are the way of the 33 And there was a great silence between them. And he said, I was not ears, and I have not a tongue. And he said, Speak out.

What a fine Person of Diligence and Zeal for a Master's Service is this! how worthy to be rewarded by his Servant! how happy after a long Journey and Fatigue, to find him thus he ready to his Master's Bufiness, that he will not eat till he has served him.

34 And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

35 And the Lord hath blessed my land greatly, and he is become great : and he hath increased mine flock, and herds, and silver, and gold, and men servants, and maid-servants, and camels, and asses.

36 And Sarah my mother's wife bare a son to my father when she was old: and unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my matter made me fear, Father, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt go unto my fathers house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 And he said unto me, The Lord be with thee, whom I walk, will find his angel with thee, and preserve thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my fathers house.

41 Then shalt thou be clear from me, my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee me, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and find,
O Lord God of my master Abraham, it now thou do prosper my way which I go :

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water ; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink ;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels : for the same for the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 And before I had done speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and cried, Water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camel's drink also: so I drank, and she made the camel's drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Mikah bare unto him: and I put the ear-ring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

She was the Grand Daughter of Abraham's Brother; but in the Scripture there are often called only Dughters.

49 And now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered, and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: He gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night: and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, I hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way: send me away, that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

Without Doubt GOD disposed her Mind to such a ready Compliance to leave her Friends and Country.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

The Meaning of this Verse is, that they prayed GOD to make her exceeding fruitful, and that her Posterity might be victorious over their Enemies.

61 ¶ And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

62 And Isaac came from the way of the well Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the south-country.

63 And Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the even-tide: and he lift up his eyes, and saw, and behold, the camels were coming.

The Beginning of this Verse is highly worthy of our Observation: We find by it that it was the Practice of Isaac, and undoubtedly of the other good Men of that Time, to walk out in the Evening into the Fields to meditate. There may, perhaps, not seem much in this: but those that make the Lord will experience a Joy, a Satisfaction, and Improvement in many quite unknown to them before.

To maintain a Correspondence with Heaven, frequent occasional Retirement, apart from the Hurry of the World, is necessary. For while the Mind is distracted with Cares, or flatters from one Scene of Business or Pleasure to another, it cannot mount aloft to Heaven, or spread its Plumes in that clear and calm Region of divine Love. It is not in the busy Crowd, nor amidst the Din of Company and Distractions, that the still but powerful Voice of GOD is heard. No: It is in the Depth of Retirement, the Silence of Thought and Passion, that the inspiring Presence of GOD is upon the Mind, and whispers a Language which the Heart may hear, but the Tongue cannot express.

Nor is it in the Closet only that his Almighty Voice is heard, but still more in the open Air, the Fields, amidst the Trees of GOD, and the general Chorus of the Creation, where all around conspires.

To raise, to settle, to harmonize the Mind:

To lift on Wings of Prayer to the GREAT SIRE

Of Being, and of Being's Cause.

The Eye, the Ear, the Mind are all delighted, whilst in these Walks we contemplate the noble and majestic Scenes of Nature, or rather the WORDS of GOD around us. There we catch such an august and noble Music as composes the Mind into Thought and Attention, and leads us up to the EXETER. We note that great the Harmony. We feel the GOODNESS of the CREATOR in all his Works, our Hearts glow with the most rapturous and lively Gratitude and Devotion. We are confounded and ashamed of not loving and serving so good a Being.

It is scarcely to be imagined but by them who have experienced it, what noble Thought, what Serenity of Mind, what Impulse of Soul, we may feel in these silent Walks in the Fields; for the Mind being charmed with and attentive to the Harmony of Nature, becomes itself harmonious. For almost every one experiences, that we naturally catch Impressions, and are wrought into Dispositions correspondent to the Objects we are much conversant with; and when we observe that all that nameless Joy that we feel in beholding Rural Scenes, arises from the Peace and Harmony of them, and that they no longer please when they are disturbed with Storms and Tempests, it naturally leads us to seek for a kindred Peace within our Breast, and to guard against its being disturbed by any Storms or furious Gusts from the Passions.

We may in like Manner get rid of a great deal of that carking Solicitude, and Fearfulness of Want, which is so destructive to the Comfort of our Lives, by often observing that exuberant Profusion of Provision which is made not only for the Wants, but even the Delight of every Creature, not so much as the most contemptible Insect being unprovided for.

In a Word, by the frequenting and contemplating of Rural Scenes, we may gain almost any Temper and Disposition of Mind. Thus the Darkness of a thick Wood has a certain awful Air, which raises a solemn Kind of Awe and Melancholy. A sweetly flowing Stream, or a clear transparent Fountain with its Waters bubbling up, gives us an Image of Serenity, and lulls the Mind into a gentle Softness. Birds singing, Sheep bleating, Herds lowing, and numberless Creatures basking or fluttering with Delight in the Sun's Beams, awaken a Scene of Gaiety and Innocence, which fills us with Joy and social Sympathy.

We may observe that a great Part of that rapturous Flow of Gratitude, that warm Devotion, those noble and majestic Thoughts of GOD, that Sensibility of his great Wisdom, Power, and Goodness, which David expresses in the Psalms, arose from his being much conversant with the Scenes of NATURE, and being frequently amidst the Silence and Beauty of Rural Scenes. And perhaps, the Meditations of his Heart while he was following the Flocks great with young Ones, were more acceptable in GOD's Sight, than when he sat on the Throne of Israel; at least, the Foundation of his Goodness, was laid from the Reflexions which arose amidst these Rural Scenes: For we are informed, that GOD chose him and took him from among the Sheep Folds; as he was following the Flocks great with young Ones he took him, that he might feed Jacob his People, and Israel his Inheritance, Ps. lxxviii. 71.

"A good Man," says a celebrated Author, "in his Evening Walk in the Fields, makes a greater Figure in the Eyes of superior Beings, than an Army of a hundred thousand Men." Thus David we find was more highly regarded by GOD at the Sheep Fold, and whilst he was solitarily attending his Flocks, than Saul on the Throne, and at the Head of all the Men in Israel. In being a good Shepherd, and laying open his Mind to the Reflexions which arise from Solitude and the Scenes of Nature, he prepared himself to be a good King; for it is added, immediately after it is said that he was taken from the Sheep-Fold, that he fed the People with a true and faithful Heart, and ruled Israel prudently.

From

From whence those whom Providence has placed in Rural or Country Employments may learn, that they have greater Opportunities than they may imagine of becoming wiser and better, if they will but accustom their Minds to Reflection, and to make Observation on the Things around them.

64 And Rebekah lift up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted off the camel.

67 For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took a vail and covered herself.

It was usual in those Times, for the Bride to cover her Face with a Veil when she was first introduced to her Husband.

60 And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done.

67 And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

What an amiable Picture does this Verse give us of FIRST TENDERNESS and FIDELITY in those Days! Though Lam was sixteen and thirty Years old when his Mother died, though three Years had now elapsed since her Death, yet he appears to have still sorrowed for her, till Grief for the Loss of a Mother was swallowed up in the stronger Passion of Love for a Wife.

All the Characters in this Chapter are drawn extremely amiable. We cannot too much admire them. The Servant, Rebekah, and Bethuel's Family, are all lovely in their Character, and worthy our Observation and Imitation. We may be dazzled perhaps with the Lustre of Abraham's Character, but these in this Chapter are all in common Life, and therefore the more within our Imitation. There cannot be a finer Picture drawn of Behaviour in common Life, than this whole Chapter is.

C H A P. XXV.

1 The sons of Abraham by Keturah. 5 His age and death. 12 The generations of Ishmael. 17 His age and death. 24 The birth of Esau and Jacob. 29 Esau selleth his birthright.

THEN again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah.

2 And she bare him Zimram, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 And Jokshan begat Sheba, and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midian ; Ephah, and Ephher, and Hanoah, and Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

It appears from hence, that Abraham received a great Renovation of Nature, when the Time of fulfilling the Promise of Iaac was come, so as to enable him to have several Children long after him.

5 ¶ And Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac.

6 But unto the sons of the concubines which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his son (while he yet lived) eastward, unto the east-country.

Abraham may be an Example to us in almost every Circumstance of Life : We find him here with great Prudence making in his Life-time a proper Provision for his Sons of the Concubines, and sending them away from Iſaac ; whereby, in all Probability, he prevented great Animofities and Diſſenſions. How happy would it be if all Parents, in the Time of Health, would take Care to ſettle, by Will, the Diviſion of their Goods among their Children. What Confuſion ! what Quarrels ! what Diſcord ! what never reconciled Animofity among Brethren, might this prevent !

7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years.

8 Then Abraham was up to the period of his life in a good old age, an octogenary, about ten of years, and was gathered to his people.

Mr. Parson's Farewell Discourse, upon the occasion of his departure from the Prison, given at the Church of St. Andrew, in the Strand, on the 17th of April, 1740. By the Rev. Mr. Parson. Printed by J. D. at the Angel in St. Dunstons Church, in the Strand. 1740. 8s. 6d.

[illegible]

The Opinion of going to the Throne with the King and good Men, when we depart out of this Kingdom, being spread amongst all People. A Countess Hither, Wining, speaking of the Day of his Death, to be transported on the Account, and break out in the following expressions: "O God! O God!" "when I shall come to the Divine Assembly and Con"gregation of Saints! when I shall leave this impure, polluted "Throne, and be ranked not only with these brave Men I "have mentioned, but with my Carlo, &c."

9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre;

10 The field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth : there was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife.

11 ¶ And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac : and Isaac dwelt by the well Lahai roi.

12 ¶ Now these are the generations of Ishmael Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham.

13 And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: The first-born of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel; and Mibsam,

14 And Mishna, and Duma, and Massa,

15 Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphtali, and Kedemah.

10 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; twelve princes according to their nations.

Here, we find, is recorded the exact Accomplishment of what had been foretold of Ishmael, Ch. xii. 20. &c. that he should be multiplied exceedingly, and that he should beget twelve Princes; and it is expressly implied here, that each of his Sons was the Chief of some Towns and Castles, whereby they were denominated PRINCES. But this was the Accomplishment only in Part, and what perhaps may not much strike us: The Wonder is to see it fulfilled to this very Day, after so many hundred of Years have passed over.

We have already taken Notice, Page 57, of the Posterity of Ishmael answering to the Character foretold of them, of being as a wild Afs, free, ranging at large, and independent; and that all Attempts to bring them into Subjection, though made by the most powerful Empires in the World, always proved fruitless.-- We shall now take Notice of another Particular foretold of Ishmael, viz.

That

View, and probably was at first to take a W. Bl. Adam, to speak of the immediate Seed of Abraham. But when Luc came upon the Scene of Life, we find he brings not this Bl. Race, but it is said to him in the same Words, In my Seed, of the Nature of the Earth be Begot. From hence it is plain, that this Seed which was to be the Bl. Race, was still to come.

The Variety of Expression in the fifth Verse, seems designed to show the exactness of Abimelech's Obedience, that he readily complied with every Intimation of the Divine Will, and that the Disposition was highly acceptable to GOD.

6 ¶ And Isaac dwelt in Gerar.

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife: lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah, because she was fair to look upon.

Here we find Zim falling into the same Weakness, as His Father had done; probably he had heard of what he had practised, and Abraham had never taken Care to warn him of it, though undoubtedly his Experience had taught him the Weakness, Folly, and Dishonour of such Prevarications.

8 And it came to pass when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and beheld, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife.

Some Translators render it the Day, instead of a Day, and it seems most probable he had not been there a great while, before this Difference was made.

9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us.

It appears, both from this and the 20th Chapter, that the Pitifulness in those early Times had much more Virtue and Piety than Abraham and his Son imagined. Abimelech not only speaks with Detestation of the Crime of ADULTERY, but considers it as so offensive to Heaven, that the bare committing of such an Action was sufficient to involve him and his People in some national Calamity. For that is the Meaning of bringing Guilt upon us.

From whence, and from some other like Circumstances, a learned Writer is of Opinion that the Worship of the TRUE GOD was still kept up in most Countries, in the Time of the Patriarchs, but only it was begun to be corrupted with Novelties, which tended, and did in some Time after, wholly extinguish all true and rational Worship of the LORD, the CREATOR of Heaven and Earth.

11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife, shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundred fold, and the LORD blessed him.

Fruitful Seasons, Increase of Husbandry, and every other Blessing, are all attributed to GOD in the Scriptures.

13 And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great.

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants. And the Philistines envied him.

The Word translated here Servant, signifies more properly HUSBANDRY.

15 For all the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us : for thou art much mightier than we.

The Blessing of GOD made him so prosperous in all that he put his Hand to, that the Philistines could not see it without Envy.—The Times of 13th September 1891, in an editorial on the subject, writes: "The Government are then not prepared to make any concession for Compensation with respect to the always provided that the Government only by the great Political and Economic would soon occur to the Government."

17 ¶ And Hinc departed thence to a place tent in the valley of Gern, and to the

18. And Isaac changed their names, saying, Thy name shall be called Jacob, which they had called Edu; in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them on account of the death of Abraham: and he called their names after the names by which his father called them.

19 And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gomer did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is our's: and he called the name of the well Epher, because they strove with him.

Esse signifies Coexistence

21 And they digged another well, and Gomer for that别名 and he called the name of it Gomer.

Section C, A.E.S. II . . . . .

22 And he removed down to the sea, and there he found another vessel, and there were men sitting in it: and he called the name of it the Sea of Corruption: for now the Jews had a cruel opinion of him, and would be fruitful in the fault.

[illegible]

23 And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the Lord appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's sake.

GOD never forsakes His Servant : in Distress ; He is not as the Sons of Men, but is a ready Help in the Time of Trouble. It is better to trust in the Lord, than to put confidence in the arm, or the most powerful of Men. GOD is a Father that will never forsake or deceive us : GOD's Love is like His Essence, immutable, eternal, reaching from Everlasting to Everlasting. When St. James tells us that every good and perfect Gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of Lights, Ch. i. 17, he adds (to complete our Consolation) with whom is no Variation, neither shadow of turning. And what GOD once said to Isaac, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee, He says and performs to all that fear Him.

As soon as the Parents begin to harraß and oppress Zion, the LORD appears to him, to comfort and encourage him, by putting him in Mind that He was the GOD of Heaven and Earth; that His providential Care of him was sufficient, as it could effect any Things: Fear not, for I am with thee. This indeed is all Things to us; it includes Power and Wisdom, and Wealth, and every other Means which can secure and make us prosperous. If GOD is with us, who or what can be against us, to do us Hurt?—We may note here too, how GOD remembers and rewards the Faithfulness of His Servant, even to future Generations: One Reason given for GOD's blessing or prospering not only Zion, but other succeeding Generations, is for His Servant Abraham's Faith. GOD never forgets the Piety and Truth we exercise towards Him; it is a perpetual Memorial before Him, that it acts up to plead in our Stead, for our Relatives, our Children, &c. How much better, therefore, would it be, and how much more likely to answer their fond Wishes, if Parents would use their best Endeavours, by their FAITH and PIETY, to secure this mighty and all-powerful BLESSING to their Children, rather than spend all their Days in the most carking Solitude, to heap up Riches for them; which are oftentimes so far from securing or increasing their Happiness, that they prove a Snare to them, and become their Ruin!

25 And he builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well.

Promise, In thy Seed shall all the Nations of the Earth be blessed, being settled in Eden, the Truth of the Christian Religion is in a wonderful Manner supported against and exalted above the Mahometan, by a Declaration of GOD himself, made two thousand Years before CHRIST, and much more before Mahomet was born; for it was then settled and declared by Him, that the Saviour of the World should not come of the Family of Ismael, but of the Family of Isaac. Thus, by the Rejection of Esaú, though the Elder born, the Younger People may see, and undoubtedly will some Time or other, that they have no unalienable Title, no peculiar Right to the Blessings of the Mission, more than other People, though they are strongly riveted in this Opinion; but that GOD calls thither without Respect to Birth right or Inheritance, or any other Privilege whatsoever; and that His Purpose was, that the Blessing should be to all Mankind, and to call them His People which were not His People, and they which were not blessed.

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son: and Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶ And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the Lord before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice, according to that which I command thee.

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; for I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth.

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man.

12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said unto him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

That is, I will warrant the Success; or if the Issue turns out ill, I will stand between you and all Danger.

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son.

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck.

It is observed by Bellarmin, that in the Eastern Countries Goats Hair is very like that of Man.

17 And she gave the savoury meat, and the bread which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

We find here that Isaac and Rebekah differed in their Sentiments concerning their Children: Isaac loved Esau, but Rebekah loved Jacob. The Mother's Love seems to have been most justly founded, both in regard to the natural Disposition and Qualities of Jacob, as more amiable than those of Esaú; and likewise to the Declaration of GOD himself, who before they were born had declared the Elder should serve the Younger, which implied superior Excellence. And the Scriptures have taken Care to inform us, that Isaac's Love for Esaú was founded on a very low Consideration: He loved him because he did eat of his Venison, Ch. xxv. Ver. 28. Upon this Account some have thought that this Scheme of Rebekah's may be defended, as being only an endeavour to deceive Isaac into an Action, which he ought to have done designedly of himself; but this Opinion does not seem to be just; for GOD wants not any Means to bring about his Purposes, much less need he employ those which appear wrong in their Nature: Though he often by his WISDOM and POWER make the evil Imaginations of Men effect and bring about his will and good Designs, yet still it makes not what is evil in them good.

17 And she gave the savoury meat, and the bread which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob. 18 ¶ And he came unto Isaac my father to Beer Sheva: And he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son? 19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy first-born; I have done as thou biddest me: arise, I pray thee, and eat of my venison, that thy soul may be blessed. 20 And Isaac said unto his son, How camest thou hither, and to what end? Because the Lord thy God hath prospered thee. 21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, What meanest thou, saying, Thy God hath prospered thee, that I may eat of thy venison, and be blessed of my very son? Is he, or not? 22 Behold thou hast supplanted me, and thou shalt be blessed, and thou shalt say, As hath been said. 23 And Jacob was sore troubled when he saw Isaac, and he felt him, and said, Thy voice is Jacob's voice; but the hands are the hands of Esau. 24 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him. 25 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, I am. 26 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may be blessed. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank. 27 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son. 28 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field, which the Lord hath blessed.

18 ¶ And he came unto Isaac my father to Beer Sheva: And he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son?

19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy first-born; I have done as thou biddest me: arise, I pray thee, and eat of my venison, that thy soul may be blessed.

20 And Isaac said unto his son, How camest thou hither, and to what end? Because the Lord thy God hath prospered thee.

21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, What meanest thou, saying, Thy God hath prospered thee, that I may eat of thy venison, and be blessed of my very son? Is he, or not?

Behold thou hast supplanted me, and thou shalt be blessed, and thou shalt say, As hath been said.

22 And Jacob was sore troubled when he saw Isaac, and he felt him, and said, Thy voice is Jacob's voice; but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him.

24 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may be blessed. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field, which the Lord hath blessed.

It seems to have been the Custom to furnish Richer Garments with odorous Flowers, and other Perfumes, with which they could easily be supplied from Paradise, filled for aromatic Herbs.

Behold the grateful Odour of my Son's Apparel, as much as that of a field which GOD hath adorned with Variety of Fruits and Flowers.

28 Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine.

29 Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee; be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: Cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that bleth thee.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father; and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that my soul may be blessed.

32 And

5. If in the Time of David, they of Edom became his Servants, 2 Sam. viii. 14. yet in the Days of Jeroboam did they revolt again, and made a King over themselves, 2 Kings viii. 20. And in the Time of Abaz they revenged the Alliance, by putting Jacob, and leading away Captives, 2 Chron. xxviii. 17. Can you now suppose that this Variety of Fortune between the Children of Jacob and Edom was the Thing intended, or meant to be desired, when the Promise was given to Jacob, that his Mother's Children should be a curse to him? If this were the Case, Isaac need not to be so scrupulous in preserving the peculiar Blessing to Jacob; he might have given Esau a Share of it, and the Event would have answered.

It appears, I think, from hence, that the Blessing given to Jacob, and expressed in Words implying a Rule over his Brethren, was truly a Conveyance of the Birthright to him in the Family of Abraham; that the Birthright in Abraham's Family respected the special Blessing and Covenant given to Abraham by GOD; that Isaac himself calls this Right of Primogeniture in his House, THE BLESSING OF ABRAHAM; that GOD himself in Confirmation of Jacob's Right of Primogeniture, assures him, that in his Seed all the Families of the Earth shall be blessed.

Now this Promise being the only SPECIAL PROMISE made to Isaac and Jacob in Preference to their Brethren, and in Consequence of GOD's everlasting Covenant limited to them, this Promise must necessarily be understood to be the Subject-Matter of the everlasting Covenant: And it is very observable, that this Blessing so peculiarly belongs to this Covenant, that it is never mentioned with respect to any other Person whatever, than such only, to whom the Right of this Covenant, and the Promise of the Land of Canaan descended.

One Thing is very remarkable in this Relation, which is, that when Rebekah's Artifice had succeeded, and Jacob was blessed, Isaac let it go, nay, he confirmed the Blessing; Yea, (say he v. 33.) he shall be blessed. And we do not find that he was displeased with his Wife, or angry with Jacob, for imposing on him. So that it seems probable, that GOD was pleased at this Time to open his Understanding, and convince him that he had erred in designing to give the Blessing to Esau; and we find he goes on to tell, with Calmness and Assurance, what should be the Lot of Esau, which was in Process of Time exactly accomplished. So that it seems, as if the Spirit of Prophecy came upon him in the Midst of this Transaction; for his Thoughts and Intentions of blessing Esau were merely his own.

41 ¶ And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand, then will I slay my brother Jacob.

42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: And she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, purposing to kill thee.

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice: and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother to Haran.

44 And tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away;

45 Until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence. Why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?

46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life, because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

C H A P. XXVIII.

Isaac bleth Jacob, and sendeth him to Padan-aram to take a wife from his kindred there. 9 Esau marrieth Malalath, the daughter of Ishmael. 12 The vision which Jacob saw on the way. 13 God renews to him the promise made to his fathers. 20 Jacob's vow.

AND Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

We here find again the important Lesson inculcated, of marrying our Children to those of virtuous and religious Principles.

2 Arise, go to Padan-aram, to the house of Bethuel thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mother's brother.

3 And God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people.

4 And give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee, that thou mayest inherit the land wherein thou art a stranger, which God gave unto Abraham.

Here Isaac confirms to Jacob the Blessing of ABRAHAM, which he had before given him unwittingly in the former Chapter. A plain Proof that he was convinced, as we before observed, that Jacob was the Person that should have it. The Words, that thou mayest inherit the land wherein thou art a stranger, would be better rendered, in the land near to the Hebrews, the Land of thy Sojournings, as in the former Chapter.

5 And Isaac sent away Jacob, and he went to Padan-aram unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

6 ¶ When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padan-aram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him, he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan;

7 And that Jacob obeyed his father, and he went, and was gone to Padan-aram.

8 And Esau being that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father:

9 Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife.

Unto Ishmael means the Country or Family of Ishmael, for Ishmael himself was dead some Years before.

10 ¶ And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward Haran.

11 And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set: and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

He singled out a Stone from among the rest to lay his Head on, and probably he laid some Leaves or Herbage on it, and some Garment, so as to make it a fit Pillow. It was then, and is still, no unusual Thing for People in those warm Countries to sleep in the open Air.

12 And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set upon the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

13 And behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed.

The Words To thee and to thy Seed, might be rendered more properly, To thee, even to thy Seed. For Jacob was no more than a Sojourner in the Land of Canaan, neither did it become the Property of his Posterity till many Years after, in the Days of Joshua.

14 And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth; and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee, and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

Here the prodigious Increase of the Descendants of Jacob is foretold, and this was truly wonderful; for they soon, as we find by the Scriptures, grew up into a mighty Nation, and their Numbers in the Land of Canaan were very extraordinary; and profane Writers confirm how numerous they were in other Parts of the World. And after the innumerable Massacres and Persecutions which they have undergone more than any other People on the Face of the Earth, they are still in their present Dispersion among all Nations, incredibly numerous. It is computed that there are many Millions, or more than ever there were since they have been a Nation.

A learned Writer who hath made great Enquiries concerning them, has thus Reasoned, to believe there are still near three Millions of them. Who could foretell such a wonderful Increase from one Man, but the true divine Power that could effect it? THE BLESSING OF ABRAHAM, the GREAT PECULIAR FUNDAMENTAL PROMISE, -- In thy Seed shall all the Families of the Earth be blessed, was also here confirmed by GOD to Jacob.

15 And behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land: for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

16 ¶ And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in this place; and I knew it not.

Jacob probably laid down on his Stone Pillow with a heavy Heart; he had left his Friends and Country, and knew not whether his Brother's Anger would ever suffer him to return thither; he was on a long Journey to an unknown Country, unattended, and knew not what Reception he should meet with there; but GOD went with him, and was pleased, whilst he was depressed and disconsolate, to let him know that he did so, by a most gracious Vision.

This Vision of Jacob is highly worthy our Attention: It teaches us, in the most striking Manner, one of the most important Truths that concern us. It is a Representation inexpressibly noble and sublime; and at the same Time majestically plain, intelligible, and affecting.

THE LADDER which reacheth from Earth to Heaven, is a proper Image of the PROVIDENCE of GOD, whose Care extends to all Things on Earth and in Heaven, Pf. cxiii. 5, 6. The Angels are represented ascending and descending upon this mysterious Ladder, because their ministering Servants are always active in the Execution of the wise Designs of PROVIDENCE, and especially appointed Guardians to watch over and protect the Just, Joh. i. 51. They ascend to receive, and descend to execute the divine Orders. Lastly, by the Representation of the DIVINE MAJESTY appearing above the Ladder, is meant, that, however the Conduct of PROVIDENCE be high, and often beyond the Reach of human Comprehension, yet the Whole is under the Management of infinite Wisdom and Goodness; that though we see but a few of the lower Steps of the Ladder, or that End of it which stands upon the Earth, yet it hath a Top which reacheth unto Heaven; and, could we trace the Concatenation of Causes and Effects up to their hidden Source, we should see them all ascend by just Gradation higher and higher, till they terminate in the SUPREME BEING, the first and proper CAUSE of all, who presides over, superintends, and directs the complicated Scheme of PROVIDENCE, from the Beginning of the World to the Consummation of Things.

That this is the true Explication of the Vision, appears, not only from the Suitableness of the several Images to illustrate all the Parts of the moral Truth designed: but from the direct Application which GOD makes of it to Jacob, in the fifteenth Verse, by assuring him, that in Consequence of this general View of PROVIDENCE, his particular Interest would always be taken Care of. That God was now with him, would keep him in all Places whither he went, would bring him again to his Father's Land, and not leave him until he had accomplished his Promise concerning him. And what could have been a more seasonable Relief to him in his present distressful Circumstances, than to have such joyful Assurance, that though exiled from his native Home, and solitary, he was still in the PRESENCE of his MAKER, and that whatever Dangers he might be exposed to in his perilous Journey, he was safe from any absolute or real Evil, under the divine FORESIGHT and PROTECTION.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

Either Jacob was so transported and astonished with this glorious Vision, that like St. Peter at the Transfiguration of our SAVIOUR, he knew not what he said; or else his Meaning was, that this was a Place where GOD was pleased to manifest himself in a more extraordinary and glorious Manner than usual. And, probably, he called it the House of God, and the Gate of Heaven, from the Appearance which he had seen of Angels ascending and descending from Heaven, and a glorious Representation of the DEITY himself in the Heavens.

18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

He set it up to preserve the Memory of this heavenly Vision, and consecrated or distinguished it by pouring Oil upon it: From whence this Custom first arose is not easy to say, but Jacob's using it shows it was very ancient.

19 And he called the name of that place Bethel: but the name of that city was called Luz at the first.

BETHEL signifies the House of GOD. It is probable that tho' Jacob lay in the open Air, yet that it was near some City called Luz.

20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21 So that I come again to my fathers house in peace: then shall the LORD be my God.

22 And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me, I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

We may observe here the Modesty of Jacob's Petitions; he desires nothing but to be preserved in his Journey, and Food and Raiment. This seems to be of the same Nature as Agur's Prayer, and is a proper Pattern for our Petitions and Desires of this Sort; and we are not to understand it as if Jacob bargained with GOD, but only that he vows or professes, that when these Things should have happened to him, according to GOD's Promise and good Pleasure, he would make a public Acknowledgment by grateful Praise of the GOODNESS and FAITHFULNESS of his GOD.

By the Expression This Stone shall be God's House, he does not mean that he would erect a Temple there, but only that it should be a Place of public Worship, and that he would erect an Altar there to GOD, for it was in those Days the Custom to worship in the open Air. The vowing or giving the Tenth of his Substance to GOD, must have either been for the Maintenance of the Poor, or for the Service of the Altar, in providing Sacrifices, &c. Whether there was any divine Command on this Head does not appear, but we find that the dedicating a Part of their Substance to GOD was the Practice of the earliest Ages; which ought to be an Example to us, to set apart some Share of all that GOD gives us, to relieve the Wants and Distresses of others.

C H A P. XXIX.

1 Jacob meeteth with Rachel at the well of Haran. 13 He is kindly received by Laban. 18 He covenanteth for Rachel. 23 But is deceived with Leah. 28 He marryeth Rachel likewise. 30 Leah beareth Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah.

THEN Jacob went on his journey, and came into the land of the people of the east.

2 And he looked, and behold, a well in the field, and lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran are we.

He addresses them by this courteous and friendly Name though Strangers to him: This seems to have been the friendly Behaviour of those Ages.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said unto them, Is he well? And they said He is well: and behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

The Name RACHEL signifies a Sheep, an Emblem of that Meekness which is the greatest Ornament of the Fair.

7 And he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

Jacob

Jacob seems to have offered his Assistance to the Shepherds in watering their Cattle, but they tell him that they can't do it, because it was against the Rules of the Place for any to uncover and disturb the Waters, till all the Flocks were come together, because the Well was common to all the Town at such a particular Hour.

9 ¶ And while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep : for she kept them.

To tend Flocks and Herds in those Days, was esteemed an Employment not beneath the Dignity of the greatest Persons. Thus Jacob, Moses, David, and many other eminent Persons, we find were brought up in tending of Flocks.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother; that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

Jacob saluted Rachel as being her Kinsman, and wept for Joy at being safe arrived among his Kindred.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son : and she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass, when Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, Surely thou art my bone and my flesh : and he abode with him the space of a month.

15 ¶ And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought ? tell me, what shall thy wages be ?

Laban's Behaviour here seems very generous, and worthy of Imitation. Though Jacob was his Relation, yet he thinks he ought not to have his Services without a settled and certain Reward.

16 And Laban had two daughters : the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah was tender-eyed, but Rachel was beautiful and well-favoured.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel ; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

It was not the Custom of these Countries for Fathers to give a Dowry with their Daughters, but to receive a considerable Present from those who married them ; therefore Jacob having no Riches to give, as not being the Inheritor of his Father's Substance, offers his Service for seven Years instead thereof.

19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man : abide with me.

20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel : and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

21 ¶ And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife (for my days are fulfilled) that I may go in unto her.

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him : and he went in unto her.

It was the modest Custom of those Times, to bring the Bride to the Husband veiled, and without Lights, which made it easy for Laban to introduce Leah instead of Rachel.

24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah, Zilpah his maid, for an handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the morning, he held it was Leah : and he said to Jacob, What is this thou hast done unto me ? did not I come with thee for Rachel ? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me ?

Laban's Guile undoubtedly for to give Leah instead of Rachel, it happened as a Punishment to Jacob, for the Guilt he incurred in supplanting his Brother.

26 And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the first born.

27 Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this also, for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.

The Signification of fulfil her week, seems to be perfecting the Marriage by seven Days of eating, which was the Space allowed for Marriage Feasts.

28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week : and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also.

29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, Bilhah his handmaid, to be her maid.

30 And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

31 ¶ And when the Lord saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb : but Rachel was barren.

The Expression, Leah was hated, according to the Hebrew, would be better translated, Leah was despised. GOD observes all those that serve Him, in whatever Condition. The despised Leah is regarded by Him, and blessed with Children, to make up for her Want of Beauty ; while Rachel, over whom Jacob was enamoured, has not the Happiness of giving one Child to her Husband, whereby Jacob was punished for his not treating Leah with a proper Regard, who seems to have been blamed in nothing, however Laban might.---An Example to us, how we treat any one with an injurious Contempt !

32 And Leah conceived and bare a son, and she called his name Reuben : for she said, Surely the Lord hath looked upon my affliction ; now therefore my husband will love me.

REUBEN signifies See a Son.

33 And she conceived again, and bare a son ; and said, Because the Lord hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also : and she called his name Simeon.

SIMEON signifies Hearing.

34 And she conceived again, and bare a son ; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have borne him three sons : therefore was his name called Levi.

LEVI signifies joined.

35 And she conceived again, and bare a son ; and she said, Now will I praise the Lord : therefore she called his name Judah, and left bearing.

JUDAH signifies Praise. We may observe Leah attributes every Child to the Goodness and Blessing of GOD : Thus should we do in all Things.

C H A P. XXX.

1 Rachel continuing barren, giveth Bilhah her maid unto Jacob, that she might have adopted children by her. 5 She beareth Dan and Naphtali. 9 Leah likewise giveth Zilpah her maid, who beareth Gad and Asher. 17 Leah beareth Issachar, Zebulun, and Dinah. 22 Rachel beareth Joseph. 25 Jacob is desirous of returning to his own country. 27 Laban stayeth him by entering into a new covenant.

AN D when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister; and said unto Jacob, Give me children, or else I die.

The Hebrew Women considered BARRENNESS as one of the greatest Misfortunes that could befall them, not only from a natural Desire of Children, but from their eager Wishes to be the Means of fulfilling the Promise to Abraham, and bringing forth that Seed in which all the Families of the Earth were to be blessed. But she seems not to have acted on this Occasion with the Modesty of those Ages, for instead of addressing herself to GOD, as Isaac and Hannah did in the like Case, Ch. xv. Ver. 21. &c. &c. thereby acknowledging Children to be GOD'S Blessings, and the Fruit of the Womb his Reward, she repines and grows impatient against her Husband. In Rachel we may see a true Picture of almost all of us; how often do we set our Hearts upon Objects, however much out of our Power to obtain, so as to torment ourselves with vain Disquietude, and lose the Relish of all our other Enjoyments, because we have not that which we foolishly set our Hearts on?

2 And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel; and he said, Am I in God's stead, who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?

3 And she said, Behold, my maid Bilhah, go in unto her; and she shall bear upon my knees, that I may also have children by her.

It is supposed to have been customary for her who was to adopt another's Child, to support her whilst in Labour upon her Knees, and to sit her new born Child upon her knees.

4 And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid to wife, and Jacob went in unto her.

5 And Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a son.

6 And Rachel said, God hath judged me, and hath heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name Dan.

The Expression God hath judged me, here signifies, hath given a favourable Determination in my Favour. DAN signifies judging.

7 And Bilhah Rachel's maid conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son.

8 And Rachel said, With great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name Naphtali.

What is translated here With great wrestlings, may be rendered By an excellent Controversy. Some Commentators think that Rachel speaks it of her having given her Maid to her Husband; but others that she meant it of having prevailed with GOD by most earnest Prayer.

The Word NAPHTALI signifies My Struggling, or Wrestling.

9 When Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife.

10 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a son.

11 And Leah said, a troop cometh: and she called his name Gad.

GAD signifies a Troop, or Company. Probably Leah spake this prefiging he would be the Father of a numerous Progeny, which afterwards came to pass; or because she had now blessed Jacob with a fifth Son.

12 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a second son.

13 And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: and she called his name Asher.

ASHER signifies Happiness.

14 ¶ And Reuben went in the days of wheat-harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.

Writers are not agreed what Kind of Fruit or Flower this was: Some suppose it Jessamines, others Violets, Lilies, and the Amomum.

The most probable Opinion is, that they were Mandrake Apples, which are described by Writers to be of the Figure of Filbert Nuts. They were valuable for Food, and probably of a pleasant Smell; and being great Rarity, perhaps the earliest of the Season, took Rachel's fancy. But there was another Reason, which probably made Rachel so desirous of them, which was that they were accounted to be good to promote Conception.

15 And she said unto her, Is it a small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldst thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to night for thy son's mandrakes.

It seems by what Rachel says here, that Jacob had greatly estranged himself from Leah, in Favour of Rachel, and perhaps forsook her bed for some Time. Here we see how right and true all GOD's Commandments are, and how much they promote the Happiness of Man. GOD had commanded at first that one Man should be joined to one Woman in Marriage, and that THEY two should be one Flesh. The Wisdom of Man thought his Happiness might be promoted by indulging a greater Liberty in this Respect; but in this, as in every other Thing wherein he runs counter to GOD, he has only procured to himself Trouble and Vexation. In neither Abraham nor Jacob could prevent Discord, Strife, Quarrelling, and other Uneasiness, arising from this Head, we may well conclude that it was a Thing never designed for Man's Happiness; and therefore shows the Wisdom of that divine Command, which ordered it otherwise at first.

16 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me, for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son.

It is evident, from what is said, that Children were what both Rachel and Leah desired the Company of their Husband for. As the Scriptures, with the greatest Reason, ascribe all Events to GOD, the great GOVERNOR and SUPERINTENDENT of the Universe; so by this and the like Expressions it particularly teaches us, that PROVIDENCE is in a special Manner interested in the Conceptions and Births of Men. A Truth which is confirmed by Observation: For, to use the Words of a celebrated Writer on the Subject, "How can we, without supposing ourselves under the constant Care of a SUPREME BEING, give any possible Account for that nice Proportion which we find between the Number of Males, and of Females, who are brought into the World? What else could adjust, in so exact a Manner, the Recruits of every Nation to its Losses, and divide these new Supplies of People into such equal Bodies of both Sexes? CHANCE could never hold the Balance with so steady a Hand. Were we not counted out by an INTELLIGENT SUPERVISOR, we should sometimes be overcharged with Multitudes, and at other Times waste away into a Desert."

18 And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name Issachar.

ISSACHAR signifies an Hire.

19 And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son.

20 And Leah said, God hath endued me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons: and she called his name Zebulun.

ZEBULUN signifies Dwelling.

21 And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

DINAH signifies Judgment.

22 ¶ And God remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and opened her womb.

23 And she conceived and bare a son; and said, God hath taken away my reproach.

24 And she called his name Joseph; and said, The LORD shall add to me another son.

The

The Word JOSEPH signifies ADDING. Some Translators render the latter Part of this Verse, MAY THE LORD ADD.

25 ¶ And it came to pass when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, Send me away, that I may go unto mine own place, and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served thee, and let me go : for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.

27 And Laban said unto him, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes, arry: for I have learned by experience, that the Lord hath blessed me for thy sake.

28 And he said, Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it.

29 And he said unto him, Thou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me.

30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude; and the Lord hath blessed thee since my coming: and now when shall I provide for mine own house also?

31 And he said, What shalt I give thee ? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me any thing ; if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock :

32 I will pass through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats : and of such shall be my hire.

He doth not mean, that these Cattle which were already speckled and spotted, &c. should be given him; for that doth not agree with what went before, Thou shalt not give me any thing, i. e. I will take nothing that is now thine. Besides, it would have been no Wonder, if those that were spotted already should bring forth others like themselves. But the Sense is, that he would separate all the spotted Sheep and Goats, and then out of those which were of one Colour, would have all that should fall hereafter of the before-mentioned Variety. Jacob desired to make a clear Bargain, about which they might have no Disputes: Had they agreed for a particular Number of Cattle every Year, there might have been Room for Cavil and Suspicions; for if any of the Flocks had by Accident been lost, they might have differed whether Jacob's or Lazar's were the lost Cattle. But to prevent all possible Disputes, let me, says Jacob, have all the speckled and spotted Cattle, and then, whenever you have a Mind to look into my Stock, my Integrity will come before your Face, or be conspicuous, which is the Meaning of the next Verse.

33 So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face : every one that is not speckled and spotted amongst the goats, and brown amongst the sheep, that shall be accounted stolen with me.

34 And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

35 And he removed that day the he goats, that were ring-straked, and spotted, and all the she-goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hands of his sons.

He gave them into the Hands of his Sons, to be fed apart by themselves, lest Jacob should get any of them to mix with those of one Colour.

36 And he set three days journey betwixt himself and Jacob : and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

He appointed the variegated Cattle which he gave his Sons to feed, and the white Ones which Ja-ab kept, to be at the Distance of three Days Journey, i. e. such Journeys as Flocks are able to make, that they might not so much as see one another.

Between this and the thirty-seventh Verse, the Samaritan Copy inserts a Paragraph about the Angels appearing to Jacob in a Dream, which is not found in any other Version, but is related by Jacob himself in the following Chapter, ver. 11. as a Thing which had happened to him before.

37. ¶ And I have not heard of any more of him, and of the hand and countenance of him, nor of the strike nor of any other thing, nor of any more of him, and of the same.

Herb R. Hoff, of 5500 N. 1st St., Littleton, is president of the American Legion Post 1234, which is sponsoring the fund drive. The fund drive will be held at the Littleton Community Center, 1000 W. 1st St., Littleton, from 7 to 9 p. m. on Tuesday, Oct. 10. The fund drive will be held at the Littleton Community Center, 1000 W. 1st St., Littleton, from 7 to 9 p. m. on Tuesday, Oct. 10. The fund drive will be held at the Littleton Community Center, 1000 W. 1st St., Littleton, from 7 to 9 p. m. on Tuesday, Oct. 10.

[illegible]

38 And he for the rods, which he had pulled before the flock out of the water, gathered them up, when the flocks came to the water, that they should conceive with them, and so to multiply.

39 And the man came and brought the rods, and brought forth of them a young kid, a fawn, and spotted.

Much has been said of a Divine Providence, which is which implies that the Author of the Divine Providence will and, will be, upon the Divine Providence, which is the the Author has been, and will be, upon the Divine Providence, the Method which God has been, and will be, upon the produce, and will be, upon the Divine Providence, which is tied their Divine Providence, upon the Divine Providence, would be, upon the Divine Providence, which is the cause them in any Divine Providence, upon the Divine Providence, find that should be, upon the Divine Providence, which is But granting my Divine Providence, upon the Divine Providence, mentioned, yet, as has been, upon the Divine Providence, ence to a special Divine Providence, which is the their natural Divine Providence, upon the Divine Providence, to God himself, as in the Divine Providence, which is which were applied for his Recovery might be a Divine Providence, for his Divine Providence, yet, since the Divine Providence, made by any Divine Providence, upon the Divine Providence, tion, the Divine Providence applied to the Divine Providence of God.

40 And Jacob did separate the lamb, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ring-herd, and all the brown in the flock of Laban: and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle.

Jack having before a full period, received Information from GOD about his young of pulch. Red, and white. In which had, here employ his own art, and sagacity, and at the same time, Lazarus's Flocks towards the ring track, and the brown; supposing, that as the sight of the pulch. Red, had produced such a moment in their Conception, the rest of the Flock that were white, by looking frequently on the ring track, and brown, would be disposed in their Conception to bring to mind the like. And to put his own Flocks apart, but by looking at Lazarus's, then Young might fall off from being ring tracked.

41 And it came to pass whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattle were feebler, he put them not in : so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

43 And the man increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, and maid servants, and men servants, and camels, and asses.

Upon the whole of what I said before, and in the following chapter, we may conclude, that Jack's Behaviour in the Affair was generous, fair, and candid, that he chose the ring-straked Cattle without any View, but to prevent Disputes, trusting that GOD would order it, agreeable to his Petition at Beth-el, that he should have enough, being determined to be contented with what GOD'S Providence should think fit to give him; and that when he made Use of the Rods, it was an Act of Faith, and in Obedience to GOD'S Command, without having any previous Knowledge of what would be the Event. We have the more Reason to think this to be the Case, because we find nothing but Good arose to Jacob from it; whereas we may remark, that though the Scripture often mentions the Misconduct of good Men, yet it always takes Care to inform us, that Evil arose to them in Consequence of such Actions.

We may observe too GOD'S FAITHFULNESS; he had promised Jacob at Beth-el to be with him in all Places whither he should go, and we find him accordingly blessing Laban because he was with him. So that though Laban had but little when Jacob came to him, it was under him increased to a Multitude. We ought too to take Notice, that though Jacob, from what he says to Laban in the following Chapter, appears to have been a most industrious faithful Servant, yet he attributes all the Increase of the Flock to the Blessing of GOD, and not to his own Care.

C H A P. XXXI.

1 Jacob, being commanded by God to return into the land of Canaan, departeth secretly from Mesopotamia. 22 Laban pursueth after him: 24 But God warns him in a dream not to hurt him. 36 Jacob expostulates with Laban. 43 Upon which Laban proposes a Covenant with him.

AND he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory.

By the Word Glorie here is meant Wealth or Substance.

2 And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and behold it was not toward him as before.

3 And the Lord said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee.

GOD, who ordereth all Things aright, having blessed Jacob with greater Substance in the House of Laban, than he could have obtained in his Father's House, without great Inconveniences, perhaps irreconcilable and fatal Hatred between him and his Brother Esau, now orders him to return to the Land of his Father; whereby must be understood not what was properly their's, but only that in which they sojourned, and which was promised to them in their Seed: And as Jacob was an Inheritor of the Promise, it was proper that he should sojourn in the Land, to keep alive the Hopes of it to his Posterity.

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock,

5 And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before: but the God of my father hath been with me.

6 And ye know that with all my power I have served your father.

7 And your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages ten times: but God suffered him not to hurt me.

Jacob served Laban but six Years in all for his Cattle; therefore it is probable, that every Time that the Cattle brought forth, which was in those Countries twice in the Year, Laban, (whose Character is plainly that of a selfish covetous Disposition) perceiving how many fell to Jacob's Lot, was uneasy, and by his Complaints induced Jacob to make another Bargain.

8 If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ring-straked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ring-straked.

This seems to put it out of Doubt, as Jacob says in the following Verse, that it was indeed GOD who ordered this Matter; for it can scarcely be supposed, that any natural Causes whatsoever, without his peculiar Providence, could produce so many different Changes in a Thing of this Nature, without once failing.

9 Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ring straked, speckled, and grissled.

11 And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: and I said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ring-straked, speckled, and grissled: for I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.

It seems as if the three foregoing Verses should have been inserted, as it is in the Samaritan Version, immediately after the 36th Verse of the foregoing Chapter: And if we attend to this Vision, we cannot but see Reason to conclude, that it was really communicated to Jacob at this Time to make Use of the speckled Rods; for here is a plain Declaration that GOD would effect the Thing, and the Reason why; because he had seen all that Laban had done unto Jacob, viz. his ungenerous and unfair Dealing by him, and therefore was resolved to punish him for it; and in the doing so, reward Jacob for his Fidelity, and Contentedness under these Injuries.

13 I am the God of Beth-el, where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.

14 And Rachel and Leah answered, and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is our's, and our children's: now then whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

Both Laban's own Daughters agree in acknowledging that his Behaviour was extremely ungenerous and sordid, even to his own Children: They seem to consider all that Jacob had gotten, as what their Father should in Justice have given to them in their Right, on Account of Jacob's Services; for as he gave, or as they termit, sold them for this, what was gained by it was of Right their's.

17 ¶ Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels.

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram; for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the images that were her father's.

Most Commentators think these Images (or, as the Hebrew has it, teraphims;) were some Sort of Idols; but a late learned Writer is of Opinion (which seems probable) that they were only Images of their Ancestors, and that Rachel took them away to keep in Remembrance her Ancestors in the strange Land she was going to.

20 And Jacob stole away unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had, and he rose up, and passed over the river, and set his face toward the mount Gilead.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.

Mount Gilead was about two hundred and fifty Miles from Haran, so that Jacob travelled twenty-five Miles each Day, and Laban in pursuing him thirty-seven Miles a Day.

24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

The End of this Verse, Speak not to Jacob either good or bad, is neither strictly or properly translated; the Hebrew is, Speak not to Jacob

Jacob from Good to Bad. The Meaning is, that he was to enter into no Altercations, or use harsh Language with him, that might occasion a Quarrel.

25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount : and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword ?

27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me ? and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp ?

28 And hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters ? thou hast now done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt : but the God of your fathers spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

We find here that Laban, whatever his Disposition was, and how great soever his Anger, paid Regard to the heavenly Vision ; and, it is probable, that GOD, who can change the Heart in a Moment, effected a sudden Alteration in his Disposition towards Jacob.

30 And now though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy fathers house ; yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods ?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid : for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live : before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee : for Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maid-servants tents ; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camels furniture, and sat upon them : and Laban searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before thee ; for the custom of women is upon me : and he searched, but found not the images.

36 ¶ And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban : and Jacob answered, and said to Laban, What is my trespass ? what is my sin that thou hast so hotly pursued after me ?

37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household-stuff ? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both.

38 These twenty years have I been with thee ; thy ewes and thy she-goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beasts, I brought not unto thee, I bare the loss of it ; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

What Jacob says here of his Behaviour, and appeals to Laban for the Truth of, shows him to have been of a very industrious and faithful Disposition, and that Laban's Temper was exceeding fordid and selfish ; for though Jacob was his Relation, and his Substance had increased so greatly under his Hand, yet he was very rigid towards him, and required him to make good all the Cattle that were lost, by whatever Accident it happened.

40 Thus I was, in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night ; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

It was usual for the shepherds to watch their Flocks by Night.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house ; I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle : and thou hast paid me my wages ten times.

42 I expect the God of my fathers, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac has been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty : God hath seen my affliction, and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yesternight.

Jacob on every Mention of his Substance, attributes all the Increase of it to the Care that GOD had of him.

43 ¶ And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine : and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have borne ?

44 Now therefore come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou ; and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

45 And Jacob took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones ; and they took stones, and made an heap ; and they did eat there upon the heap.

Eating together was held upon as a sign of the making of a Covenant or Agreement together.

47 And Laban called it Jegar-sadehem : but Jacob called it Galeed :

The Word Jegar signifies a field, and sadehem signifies a witness, in the Hebrew, which Laban made use of, and called the same in the Hebrew, which Jacob used.

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed :

49 And Mizpah ; for he said, The Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.

The better to remind them and their Posterity, of the solemn Appeal they had now mutually made to the all-seeing eye of GOD, whose Providence watches over the Action of mankind, rewarding their Sincerity, and punishing their Deceitfulness, they agreed to give it a second Name Mizpah, signifying in the Hebrew a Watch-tower.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives besides my daughters, no man is with us ; See, God is witness betwixt me and thee.

It would seem by what Laban says here, that though the Custom of marrying several Wives was practiced, yet that it was not universally approved of.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee ;

52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nabor, the God of their father, judge betwixt us. And Jacob swore by the fear of his father Isaac.

Laban, we find, swears here by the GOD of Abraham and Nabor, and the GOD of their Father Terah ; whereby he professes to hold the same Sentiments about GOD as his Ancestors, and not according to those new Revelations which Abraham had received of him, after he had been called from the Land of his Fathers, on Account of some Defection in his Family from the true Worship

Worship of GOD. But Jacob swears by the Fear or Awe of God, to declare more plainly, that he meant the same God according as he had revealed himself to Abraham, after he was called from his own Country, and not that he had worshipped him there; in which Sense Jacob had just before called him the GOD of Bethel.

24 Then Jacob offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

25 Jacob offered a sacrifice in Gratitude to GOD, for the Peace he had obtained with Laban.

26 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 Jacob's Vision at Mahanaim. 2 He sends Messengers to Esau. 6 Jacob instructs his servants, and the flocks, in going towards him, with a great company. 9 He prayeth for speedy deliverance. 24 And receiveth assurance that Esau will not hurt him.

AND Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

As he was favoured with an heavenly Vision, in going from Canaan, so likewise in his Return thither, in order to remove his present Fears, and encourage him to depend on the Promise that GOD had made him, Gen. xxviii. 13.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's host: and he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

Mahanaim signifies two Hosts or Camps, because the Angels appeared like two Armies drawn up on either side for his Defence. Gen. xxi. the Angels were marshalled in one Company, and he and his Family in another, like two Armies.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, unto the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now.

5 And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and men-servants, and women servants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

This Message of Jacob to Esau shows great Prudence in him; for had he returned into the Land of Canaan without informing him, and likewise sending him as present with the Substance he had brought with him from Haran, Esau, who by a great Distance from his Father Isaac, probably would have thought when he came to take Possession of Isaac's Estate, that Jacob had obtained all his Substance from his Father, to his Prejudice: which might have created an irreconcilable Mistrust and Enmity between them.

6 ¶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid, and distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels into two bands;

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

Esau coming with so large a Company from such a Distance, for it was about a hundred Miles, Jacob, who was conscious how he had served him, could not entertain the Hopes that Esau was coming to meet him in Friendship, but to destroy him. We may observe here, how the Consciousness of Guilt, or having done an Injury, fills one with Fear and Dread: For notwithstanding the repeated Experience which Jacob had of the divine Protection, though he had just seen himself surrounded with an Host of guardian Angels, though he had undertaken his Journey in Obedience to the divine Admonition, and had the Promise of GOD to assure him of a safe Return, Gen. xxviii. 15. yet the Consciousness of having injured his Brother still disturbs his Mind, and haunts him with Fears.

9 ¶ And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the Lord which said unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

10 I am not worthy of the least of all thy mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I am become two bands.

Jacob having done what Prudence directed, puts himself under the divine Protection, as that which could avail him most, by an humble and fervent Address to GOD, in which he acknowledges his great Goodness towards him, and his Faithfulness and Truth. Thus should we have Recourse to GOD, the sure and Almighty Protector, in all our Dangers; and thus should we acknowledge all our Blessings, all our Substance, to be derived from Him.

11 Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children.

12 And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 ¶ And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand, a present for Esau his brother;

14 Two hundred she-goats, and twenty he-goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, 15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she-asses, and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and behold also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall you speak unto Esau when you find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us: For he said, I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me.

Jacob's earnest Endeavours to pacify Esau may instruct us, that when we have injured any one, it is our Duty to pacify their Anger, and bring about a Reconciliation by all the Means in our Power.

21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two women-servants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok.

23 And he took them, and sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had.

24 ¶ And Jacob was left alone: and there wrestled a man with him, until the breaking of the day.

Jacob stayed alone to make earnest Prayer for himself and Family. It was an Angel in the Form of a Man that here wrestled with Jacob; the same that he had seen at Peribsch, as we are told by the Prophet Hosea, Ch. xii. 4. It was an Angel who represented the Almighty, and is therefore called God, Gen. 28 and 30. Hence some have taken him for the eternal Logos, or Son of God. This Angel laid hold on him, and entered with him into a wrestling

[illegible]

2. A third, and perhaps the most important, factor in the development of the history of teaching English in the history of English teaching was that of the teachers involved with it.

Wang, J. and C. G. Liao, 1997. A study of  $2\pi$  phase matching in a periodically poled lithium niobate waveguide. Opt. Commun. 142: 111-114.

It is not, however, that the very fact that the government has been able to obtain the cooperation of the private sector in the development of the country is a sign of its success. It is the fact that the government has been able to obtain the cooperation of the private sector in the development of the country that is a sign of its success.

Q. And he said, I will go forth, and I will be
And he said, I will go forth, and I will be me.

[illegible]

And he said unto him, What wilt thou do?
And he said, I will follow thee.

28 And he said, Thy name shall be called Jacob, for thou hast said, I will have power with God, and with men, and shall prevail:

[illegible]

The Name Levi signifies a lion part of God.

29 And Jacob asked / 6; and said, Tell me I pray thee, thy name : And he said, When thou art gone, thou shalt say, My name was Benjamin : and he bowed there.

John probably was desirous of knowing, whether this Ben was distinguished among the angelic Orders by any particular Name; that he might remember it with Gratitude and Respect; but the Angel, by his Reply, gave a gentle Check to his Curiosity, to shew him that he ought not to enquire after a Thing that would be of no Service to him: But with a Benevolence becoming the angelic Nature, he gratified him in his other Request, and blessed him; and that probably in effectual Manner, as to make him feel the Goodness of GOD, and convince him by Experience that his Benefactor was divine.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel : for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

PERSON, or PERSON, as in the next Vers. Consider the Face of God. When Jacob says, I have seen God Face to Face, the Morning Star, that he had been admitted to the greatest Familiarity with this Representative of the Almighty, and by his Means enjoyed such happy Intercourse with GOD, as is the Portion of those blessed Spirits who approach the nearest to the divine Presence.

31 And as he passed over Peniel the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh.

Probably this Lameness continued all his Life, to put him in Mind of what had happened on the Oct. 28. From the which [illegible][illegible]

1111

1. Illegible text

[illegible]

the 1990s, the number of people in the United States who are 65 years of age or older is projected to increase from 20 million to 30 million, and the number of people 75 years of age or older is projected to increase from 10 million to 15 million (U.S. Census Bureau, 1996). The number of people 85 years of age or older is projected to increase from 2 million to 4 million (U.S. Census Bureau, 1996). The number of people 90 years of age or older is projected to increase from 500,000 to 1 million (U.S. Census Bureau, 1996). The number of people 95 years of age or older is projected to increase from 100,000 to 200,000 (U.S. Census Bureau, 1996). The number of people 100 years of age or older is projected to increase from 10,000 to 20,000 (U.S. Census Bureau, 1996).

[illegible]

— And he hid up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are these with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant.

6 Then the handmaids came near, they and their children, and they bowed down before him.

7 And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves also.

8 And he said, What rewarded thee by all this drove, which I met? and he told, I go on to find grace in the sight of my lord.

9 And thou said, I have enough, my brother, keep that thou hast unto thyself.

Though Zai 's Present was such a one as might tempt a Prince, yet Eian does not suffer his Heart to be moved with it; he lets not his Eyes define it: I care not he says he, (for as it is in the Original, muk.) my Brother; I care not for it, though. How amiable, and worthy of imitation, is such a Geneerall to be contented with what one has; what is it, that is more; What I desire would be on the Earth, it were not for me contented when they have more. For so great is the Profusion of the Things that GOD has given us, that if Men would be contented with commens, there would be sufficient for all; but the perpetual Desire after more brings in Miserie and Want on Mankind.

10 And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.

Yo. When Esa says Esa to accept this Present of him, as a Token that he was perfectly reconciled unto him, and as an Expression of his good sense of this happy Meeting, & parting; that it had affected him as much, as a Man would feel at the seeing the Face of an Angel; for so the Word translated here GOD, may signify.

11 Take, I pray thee, my blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough: and he urged him, and he took it.

He here still passes farther, that Esa would suffer him to make this Present to him, as it were to GOD, as an Expression of his Gratitude towards him, for having dealt graciously with him, because he had enough, or so it is in the Original. An Expression flowing from the Fulness of his Heart, and denoting the high Sense he had of the Divine Goodness, which, in the Apostle's Phrase, has given him all Temporal things to enjoy. Jacob we may observe, acknowledges GOD in all.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee.

Esa here invites Jacob to go along with him to his Habitation at Mount Seir.

13 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me; and if men should over-drive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant: and I will lead on softly, according as the cattle that goeth before me, and the children be able to endure; until I come unto my lord unto Seir.

15 And Esa said, Let me now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me: And he said, What needeth it? Let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 So Esa returned that day on his way unto Seir.

17 And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Succoth.

Succoth signifies Booths. Many Writers think that Jacob for some Reason never went to Esa in Mount Seir, but other think, and which seems highly probable, that, though it is not mentioned, he went during his Abode at Succoth to see his Brother Esa, and his Father Isaac; for it cannot be supposed, that he would be so long as the Time mentioned in the thirty fifth Chapter, before he went to see his Father. By the building of an House and Booths for the Cattle, it is plain he stopped some Time at Succoth, and therefore it may be reasonably supposed he then visited his Father and Brother.

18 And Jacob came to Shalem a city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.

19 And he bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Hamor Shechem's father, for an hundred pieces of money.

20 And he erected there an altar, and called it El-elohe-Israel.

EL-ELOHE-ISRAEL signifies God of the God of Israel. The Care that Jacob takes to erect Altars in the Places he settles at, is an Example to us to discharge diligently the Duties of Religion, and and thereby to testify our Gratitude to GOD for his Favours to us.

C H A P. XXXIV.

1 Dinah Jacob's daughter is forced by Shechem. 4 He that will marry her. 15 The sons of Jacob do to the children of Shechem, as to the children of Hamor and Shechem, for unto them they gave it. 25 The sons of Jacob upon that avenged for them, and slew their sons. 32 Jacob reproveth Simeon and Levi for it.

AND Dinah the daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her.

From what happened to Dinah, we may learn to avoid all Occasions of falling into Temptation, or leading others into it.

3 And his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake kindly unto the damsel.

The Behaviour of Shechem on this Occasion, though highly blameable in the first Action, yet in the Sequel appears more noble; and may still win the esteem of some, who with the utmost Baseness at first, yet afterwards, have obtained his Will of her, yet he is not to be commended, and he is not to be treated to have her for his wife.

4 And Shechem spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, (now his sons were with his cattle in the field;) and Jacob held his peace, until they were come.

By Jacob's Sons being in the Field, we are to understand their being at a very considerable Distance with their Flocks; for it was usual to drive them many Miles for Pasture, therefore Jacob held his Peace till their Return.

6 And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field, when they heard it, and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth: because he had wrought folly in Israel, in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before you; dwell and trade you therein, and get you possessions therein.

11 And Shechem said unto her father, and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 Ask me never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

How generous is Shechem's Behaviour in this Affair! mercenary Considerations weigh not with him. Well may it be said of him, as in the nineteenth Verse, He was more honourable than all the House of his Father.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, and said, (because he had defiled Dinah their sister)

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised: for that were a reproach unto us.

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised;

16 Then

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18. And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son.

10. And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and he was more honourable than all the house of his father.

20 ¶ And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,

21. These men are peaceable with us, therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them: let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein will the men consent unto us, for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 shall not their cattle, and their substance, and every beast of theirs be our's? only, let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor, and unto Sicehem his son, hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city: and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were fore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came up on the city boldly, and slew all the males.

Though Siméon and Levi are here only mentioned, they being the principal Contrivers, and most warring in the Affair, as being Dinah's own Brothers, yet it cannot be supposed but that the rest of the Sons of Jacob, and his Servants, assisted them.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, amongst the Canaanites, and the Perizzites : and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me, and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

Well might Jacob reproach his Sons, and say they had troubled him : Well might he always keep it in Remembrance, and mention it with Indignation on his Death-Bed ; for nothing could be more treacherous, base, and cruel.

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister, as with an harlot?

We may learn from what has been related here, how great Evils are often the Consequence of Lust; and how detestable and dreadful it is to follow the furious Dictates of Revenge, without Consideration.

C H A P. XXXV.

1 God ordereth Jacob to go to Beth-el. 6 He buildeth an altar there.
9 God blesteth Jacob at Beth-el. 16 The birth of Benjamin, and

1. Phyllanthus sp. 1
 2. Phyllanthus sp. 2
 3. Phyllanthus sp. 3
 4. Phyllanthus sp. 4
 5. Phyllanthus sp. 5
 6. Phyllanthus sp. 6
 7. Phyllanthus sp. 7
 8. Phyllanthus sp. 8
 9. Phyllanthus sp. 9
 10. Phyllanthus sp. 10
 11. Phyllanthus sp. 11
 12. Phyllanthus sp. 12
 13. Phyllanthus sp. 13
 14. Phyllanthus sp. 14
 15. Phyllanthus sp. 15
 16. Phyllanthus sp. 16
 17. Phyllanthus sp. 17
 18. Phyllanthus sp. 18
 19. Phyllanthus sp. 19
 20. Phyllanthus sp. 20
 21. Phyllanthus sp. 21
 22. Phyllanthus sp. 22
 23. Phyllanthus sp. 23
 24. Phyllanthus sp. 24
 25. Phyllanthus sp. 25
 26. Phyllanthus sp. 26
 27. Phyllanthus sp. 27
 28. Phyllanthus sp. 28
 29. Phyllanthus sp. 29
 30. Phyllanthus sp. 30
 31. Phyllanthus sp. 31
 32. Phyllanthus sp. 32
 33. Phyllanthus sp. 33
 34. Phyllanthus sp. 34
 35. Phyllanthus sp. 35
 36. Phyllanthus sp. 36
 37. Phyllanthus sp. 37
 38. Phyllanthus sp. 38
 39. Phyllanthus sp. 39
 40. Phyllanthus sp. 40
 41. Phyllanthus sp. 41
 42. Phyllanthus sp. 42
 43. Phyllanthus sp. 43
 44. Phyllanthus sp. 44
 45. Phyllanthus sp. 45
 46. Phyllanthus sp. 46
 47. Phyllanthus sp. 47
 48. Phyllanthus sp. 48
 49. Phyllanthus sp. 49
 50. Phyllanthus sp. 50
 51. Phyllanthus sp. 51
 52. Phyllanthus sp. 52
 53. Phyllanthus sp. 53
 54. Phyllanthus sp. 54
 55. Phyllanthus sp. 55
 56. Phyllanthus sp. 56
 57. Phyllanthus sp. 57
 58. Phyllanthus sp. 58
 59. Phyllanthus sp. 59
 60. Phyllanthus sp. 60
 61. Phyllanthus sp. 61
 62. Phyllanthus sp. 62
 63. Phyllanthus sp. 63
 64. Phyllanthus sp. 64
 65. Phyllanthus sp. 65
 66. Phyllanthus sp. 66
 67. Phyllanthus sp. 67
 68. Phyllanthus sp. 68
 69. Phyllanthus sp. 69
 70. Phyllanthus sp. 70
 71. Phyllanthus sp. 71
 72. Phyllanthus sp. 72
 73. Phyllanthus sp. 73
 74. Phyllanthus sp. 74
 75. Phyllanthus sp. 75
 76. Phyllanthus sp. 76
 77. Phyllanthus sp. 77
 78. Phyllanthus sp. 78
 79. Phyllanthus sp. 79
 80. Phyllanthus sp. 80
 81. Phyllanthus sp. 81
 82. Phyllanthus sp. 82
 83. Phyllanthus sp. 83
 84. Phyllanthus sp. 84
 85. Phyllanthus sp. 85
 86. Phyllanthus sp. 86
 87. Phyllanthus sp. 87
 88. Phyllanthus sp. 88
 89. Phyllanthus sp. 89
 90. Phyllanthus sp. 90
 91. Phyllanthus sp. 91
 92. Phyllanthus sp. 92
 93. Phyllanthus sp. 93
 94. Phyllanthus sp. 94
 95. Phyllanthus sp. 95
 96. Phyllanthus sp. 96
 97. Phyllanthus sp. 97
 98. Phyllanthus sp. 98
 99. Phyllanthus sp. 99
 100. Phyllanthus sp. 100

AN D God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, who have made us Bethel, and ever shall make us after unto God, that we may be brought from the face of a man, and

[illegible]

2. Then I walked into his home and found that there was a large picture on the wall that read "I love you, my beloved, and I will love you forever."

[illegible][illegible]

The following information is provided for the purpose of identifying the person or persons who are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose.

[illegible]

The Ceremony of Washing, which is very ancient, and has been universally practised by all Nations, is to be traced to its Origin from the great Incident of the Deluge, and to have been instituted to keep up the Remembrance of it in Men's Minds. They were to use Water upon having contracted any Defilement, in order to hint to them, how GOD had by a Flood of Water, washed away all the wicked and polluted Men from off the Face of the Earth. The ancient Jews, many of the most eminent Mahomedans, and the first Christians, looked upon the Deluge, to have been a last Purification, or Purification of the World.

3 And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went.

Though Zach was now become very rich and powerful, yet he is not ashamed to confess before all his Family, that he had been in great Distress, and that it was GOD who had preserved and prospered him, and not his own Abilities.

4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, and all the earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.

Perhaps by taking away of the Ear-rings, is meant detaching some luxurious Ornaments of Dress, which were not consistent with a Simplicity of Manners; though many Writers think that it was something they wore superstitiously, by Way of Charm or Amulet.

By the Word here, it to be understood that he buried them so deep as not to be any more at again, or to render them quite useless for any future Purpose.

5 And they journeyed : and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

To take Revenge, for the Inhumanity they had been guilty of to the Children.

6 ¶ So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan that is Beth-el : he and all the people that were with him.

7 And he built there an altar, and called the place El-beth-el : because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

El-beth-el signifies the God of Beth-el.

8 But Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el, under an oak : and the name of it was called Alon-bachuth.

Alon-bachuth signifies the Oak of Weeping. It is probable that Deborah had joined herself with Jacob's Family, upon the Account of living with her Country Women.

9 ¶ And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram ; and blessed him.

Le Clerc is of Opinion, that this is a Narration of what had happened to Jacob after he coming from Mesopotamia, when in his going to see his Father, he probably stopped at Beth-el to pay his Vows.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob : thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name ; and he called his name Israel.

This is far more honourable than Jacob, which Name was given him from supplanting his Brother. So here GOD confirms that Name which was given him before by the Angel, ch. xxvii. 28. Or rather, to use the Word of St. Jerom, here was fulfilled what the Angel had only foretold should be.

11 And God said unto him, I am God Almighty ; be fruitful and multiply, a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee : and kings shall come out of thy loins.

12 And the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

13 And God went up from him, in the place where he talked with him.

Probably in some resplendent Cloud, the Symbol of the Divine Presence.

14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone : and he poured a drink-offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Beth-el.

16 ¶ And they journeyed from Beth-el : and there was but a little way to come to Ephrath : and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour.

17 And it came to pass when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not ; thou shalt have this son also.

18 And it came to pass as her soul was in departing (for she died) that she called his name Benoni : but his father called him Benjamin.

Rachel being ready to expire, and expecting no Comfort from this Son, called him Benoni, i.e. the son of my sorrow ; but Jacob, to avert the misfortune which might be brought upon him by changing his Name to Benjamin, i.e. the son of my Right Hand, or strength. And it is observed, that both Names were verified in the Fates of this Possessory, no Tail being more victorious, yet none so subject to victorious Distresses as the Tribe of Benjamin.

It is observable, that Rachel who longed for Children so impatiently, as to say Give me Children or else I die, died in Child-bearing---A lively Instance of the Folly of our Wishes!

19 And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem.

20 And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave : that is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.

21 And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Eder.

22 And it came to pass when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine : and Israel heard it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve.

Though Moses passes over Israel's Censure of this Incest, yet we learn afterwards, that he resented it so highly as to deprive Reuben of his Birth-right upon that Account, ch. xlix. 3, 4. 1 Chron. v. 1.

23 The sons of Leah ; Reuben Jacob's first-born, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun.

24 The sons of Rachel ; Joseph, and Benjamin.

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's hand-maid ; Dan, and Naphtali.

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's hand-maid ; Gad, and Asher. These be all the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Padan-aram.

All Jacob's Sons were born in Padan-aram, except Benjamin, and the Place of his birth being mentioned just before, he is included with the rest, though he was not born at Padan-aram.

27 ¶ And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Mamre, unto the city of Arbah (which is Hebron) where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

28 And the days of Isaac were an hundred and fourscore years.

29 And Isaac gave up the ghost and died, and was gathered unto his people, being old and full of days : and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

C H A P. XXXVI.

2 Esau's wives : 6 His removing to mount Seir. 9 His sons. 15 The dukes which descended from his sons. 20 The sons and dukes of Seir. 31 The kings of Edom. 40 The dukes descended of Esau.

NOW these are the generations of Esau, who is Edom.

2 Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan ; Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite :

3 And Basemath Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth.

4 And Adah bare to Esau, Eliphaz : and Basemath bare Reuel.

5 And Aholibamah bare Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah : These are the sons of Esau, which were born unto him in the land of Canaan.

6 And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the persons of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance, which he had got in the land of Canaan ; and went into the country, from the face of his brother Jacob.

Into the Country, is both in the Samaritan Text, and the Septuagint Version, rendered Out of the Land of Canaan, which makes the Sense clear, which our Version does not.

7 For their riches were more than that they might dwell together : and the land wherein they were strangers could not bear them, because of their cattle.

8 Thus

his brethren, and the said Reuben with the four of Bilhah, and with the four of Zilpah, his father's wives : and Joseph brought unto his father their evil report.

By the Words of Reuben in this Verse, we are not to understand any thing of the Genealogy of Jacob's Family ; for there is not a Word spoken in the whole Chapter of any thing of the kind, except in the Verse which Reuben had for Joseph, and of the manner how he was abused by his Brethren, and how the Providence of GOD did order their Event, to exalt Joseph to the Office of Chief ; and to deliver them from the Famine which happened in Egypt. And thus we see the Hebrew Word Translated, with its various significations, Generations, or a Constitution, may be taken there, and in some other Places, the Figure of the whole which is spoken of. The Meaning of the latter Part of the Verse, Joseph's brethren came to Reuben, and Reuben said unto his Father, *Our brother might approve them, to be good men, and be called both so themselves, and Joseph's early Disposition to Virtue, and the Source of his Brethren's Ill will to him.*

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the first born of his old age : and he made him a coat of many colours.

Jacob was thirty Years old when Joseph was born : he lived Reuben lived seventy Years afterwards : but he was not grown up to give any Proof of his future Worth, as Joseph was, to be a Comfort to Jacob's old Age. Onkelos renders it, Reuben came to him. By a Coat of many Colours, is probably meant a Garment woven or embroidered with particular coloured Threads, and probably with Flowers and variegated Figures, for such were in high Esteem amongst the Eastern Nations, and wore by Persons of the highest Distinction. We are not to suppose that Jacob himself made this Coat according to the literal Sense of the Words, but only that he procured it, or caused it to be made.

4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 ¶ And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren : and they hated him yet the more.

What is said here, argues Joseph's great Innocence and Simplicity. He seems to have told his Dreams (though so plainly making out that he should become superior) to his Brethren, without any Apprehension that he should offend them by so doing.

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed.

7 For behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright ; and behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf.

This was fulfilled in Joseph's Advancement in Egypt, when his Brethren made Application to him for Corn in a very humble and submissive Manner. Gen. xli. 6. They came and bowed themselves before him with their Faces to the Earth.

8 And his brethren said unto him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us ? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us ? and they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

9 ¶ And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more ; and behold, the sun and the moon, and the eleven stars made obeisance to me.

Probably he dreamt that the heavenly Bodies descended and lay at his feet, and then were carried up again into their Places. The Sun, the Moon, and the Stars, are frequently used in Scripture as Emblems of Power and Superiority, therefore seeing these in a Dream to do him Obedience, portended his being exalted above his Superiors.

GOD was pleased to give these Dreams to Joseph, that when the Things they signified came to pass, it might be known that they had not happened by Chance, but were of His ordering.

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren : and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed ? Shall

I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down our selves to thee, to the earth ?

The Dream was so strongly impressed on Joseph's Mind, that he could not be easy till he had acquainted his Father with it. Jacob rebuking him (though in Regard to Joseph without Cause) is an Example well worthy the Imitation of all Parents, in repressing the too forward Sallies of youthful Arrogance and Self-Opinion.

Reuben being dead some Time before, what Jacob says, must be meant of his Mother in Law Leah, or else of his Wife Rachael, as if Jacob asked whether his Mother was to come from the Dead to bow down before him.

11 And his brethren envied him : but his father observed the saying.

Two such remarkable Dreams, though Jacob thought it prudent to rebuke his Son, lest he might grow proud, yet made an Impression on him, and caused him to reflect on them, what they should signify.

12 ¶ And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem ? Come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said unto him, Here am I.

14 And he said unto him, Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks ; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 ¶ And a certain man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field : and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou ?

16 And he said, I seek my brethren : tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flock.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence : for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

How amiable is the Behaviour of Joseph, as described in the above Verses ! Though his Brethren envied him, and probably treated him with the greatest Ill nature, yet no sooner does his Father desire him to go and see whether it was well with them, though it was a long Journey to them, near sixty Miles, yet without Excuse or Hesitation he replies, Here am I, ready to obey thy Commands my Father, glad to go and see how my Brethren do, tho' they treat me with so undeserved Ill-nature. When he finds them not at Shechem, he makes not this an Excuse to return without seeing them, but seeks diligently after them, till he gain Intelligence, and then continues his Journey to the Place where they were.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to slay him.

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh.

The Hebrew is, THIS MAKER OF DREAMS, which shews their Malignity in attributing what Joseph had said about his Dreams to be all a Fiction.

20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit ; and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him : and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands ; and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him ; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

This shews how inveterate their Malice was against Joseph ; that Reuben, though the first born, and by that Means probably having most Authority among them, yet despaired of being able to save him in an open Manner.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they thrust Joseph out of their coat, his coat of many colours that was on him.

24 And they took him, and call him into a place, and the pit was empty, for it was dry, no water in it.

24. And they sat down to eat bread: and they lay up their eyes, and looked, and behold, a company of Ishmaelites came from Gilead, with their camels bearing up ephra, and balm, and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

25 And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood?

27 Come, and let us fall him to the ground: let us and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother, and our kinsman: and his brethren were content.

28 Then there passed by Medianites merchantmen; and they drew and lift up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt.

The Hymanites and M. laevis were new Neighbors, and the Company confided in both Nations. Their twenty five and Silver are supposed to be of the Value of about one and a half Shilling of our Money. They probably added the Hymanites and Bare did not to be made the former.

29 ¶ And Reuben returned unto the pit, and behold, Joseph was not in the pit, and he rent his clothes.

It appears from this, that Recher had left them with the Yolof out of the pit and told him to the Cherok and Cherok appear that they accompanied him at a Cherok and Cherok and Cherok for Cherok with what they had in the 30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said,

The child is not; and I, whether shall I go?

31 And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood.

As Jaſh had ſupplanted Eph, by Means of a Kid, ſo by the ſame Means is he himſelf deceived.

32 And they lent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.

33 And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat ;
an evil beast hath devoured him : Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him ; but he refused to be comforted ; and he said, For I will go down into the grave unto my son, mourning : Thus his father wept for him.

With what little Cause, unhappy Ja-ah, were all thy bitter Complaints and Grief? Whilst thou art willing to be comforted, whilst thou art sinking in Despair, and determining to go down to the Grave with thy Son with Mourning, GOD is conducting this very Son to a State of Felicity and Glory, almost beyond all thou could'st desire for him; and more, to be the Means of preserving thyself and whole Family from perishing by Famine!

Thus do we often, without any real Cause, bow down ourselves with Sorrow : Thus do we often mourn with the bitterest Anguish those very Ways and Acts of Providence, which are productive of the greatest Good to us. Thus do we often torment ourselves with vain Fears and dreadful Imaginations of Things that will never happen : Thus do we often consider as the greatest Evils, those Things which are real Blessings to us ; for in Truth we are very ignorant as to what we look upon as Evils, whether they are really such or not ; and what that wise Heathen Socrates said of Death, may be said of all the other seeming Evils of Life : “ To fear “ Death (says Socrates) is nothing else but to believe ourselves to be “ wise, when we are not, and to say we know what we do not “ know : In Effect, no Body knows Death ; no Body can tell but it “ may be the greatest Benefit to Mankind ; and yet Men are afraid of “ it, as if they knew certainly that it was the greatest of Evils.”

It is a very common mistake to suppose that the only way to get rid of a bad habit is to try to suppress it. In fact, the only way to get rid of a bad habit is to replace it with a good one. For example, if you have a bad habit of drinking too much alcohol, the only way to get rid of it is to replace it with a good habit of drinking less alcohol. This is the only way to get rid of a bad habit, and it is the only way to get rid of a bad habit.

26 And the Mandarin called him to a private 27 Palace, an officer of Pragon's, and a captain of the 28 guard.

C H A P. XXVIII.

[illegible]

AND I come to put a thumb on the scale in favor of the former. I have seen the latter, and I do not know of any other. I have seen the former, and I do not know of any other.

[illegible]

2 And I will show thee a decree of a certain Canaanite, which men call Sidon, and it is this way, and will thou mark it.

And the conceived, and have a few, and he called his name Br.

4 And she conceived again, and bore a son; and she called his name Owan.

5 And the yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Soelahn: and he was a Chazab, when the bare him.

6 And Judah took a wife for Er his first born, whose name was Tamar.

— And Mr. Jellaby and I, we worked in the fight of the Lord; and the Lord flew him.

Cut him off by an electric bolt, the meter, he had no children by her. And my life, and the life of my family, was saved by the blessing from God, to an authority. Death was averted and a punishment.

S. And Judah fell unto Leah, Co. on unto thy brother's wife, and marry her, and take up seed to thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his: and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilt it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

Left a Child should be born to inherit his Brother's Name and Estate. This Action shewed a malignant Disposition, to give only the first born was to be named after his Brother; and perhaps it proceeded from Avarice, that he thought, and not the Son, might succeed to his Brother's Fortune.

10 And the thing which he did displeased the Lord : wherefore he flew him also.

11. Then said Jotham to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shiloh my son be grown; for he said, Lest peradventure he die also as his brethren did; and Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

It seems the Contract of Marriage was so understood in those Days, that if the Husband died without Issue, the Woman could Mankind in the false Notion: they entertain of Providence, and Virtue. They are apt to think that GOD neglects the Cause of Human Affairs, when those that fear Him are oppressed and afflicted. The Scripture overthrows these mistaken Prejudices by the Example of Joseph, over whom GOD was peculiarly watched: and yet he was hated by his Brethren, sold, banished, wrongfully accused, and thrown into Prison: But the LORD was with him, and prospered him.

The History seems particularly careful to make us observe in what Manner GOD protected his Servant, by informing us that GOD was always with him, and for this Reason he was a prosperous Man; that he caused him to find Favour in the Sight of his Master, that he put it into Pharaoh's Heart to make him Over-look over all his Houds; and to ensure the Continuance of his Master's Favour to him by the strongest Tie, the LORD blessed the Houd of the Pharaoh's Joseph's Sock, and His Blessing was upon all that he did in the House and in the Field.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat: and Joseph was a goodly person, and well-favoured.

He left every Thing to Yup's Care, without troubling himself about any of his Affairs, or the Substanc<sup>e</sup> he had.

7 ¶ And it came to pass over these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph, and she said, Lie with me.

S But he refused, and fled unto his mother's wife, Behold, my mother worketh not what I wish in the house, and he hath committed all that I wish to my hand.

9 There is none greater in this house than I ; neither hath he kept back any thing from me ; but thou, because thou art his wife : how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God ?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to be by her, or to be with her.

We find in Jephthah's Conduct here an excellent Model of what we should do when we are tempted. He immediately brings the Thought of GOD to his Mind. How, say he, can I commit such an Action, who know GOD beholds it, and will punish me for it? It is in His Sight that you and I shall both become sinners: He who commands me to disobey you upon this Occasion. How can I escape His View, or be covered from His Indignation? The Fear of GOD, and a filial Regard to His All-seeing Eye, is indeed a most eternal Protection to the individual in all cases. It was thus that restrained Jephthah from complying with the loose Solicitation of his Mistress, and to him a perfect Supremacy and Command over his Passions. And we may observe that Jephthah further fortifies himself against the Temptation, by calling to Mind the extraordinary Favours and Obligations he had received from his Mother, and how basely and shamefully ingrateful it would be in Return to ignore her in the tenderest Point. Lastly, we may observe, and it highly deserves our Notice, that Jephthah did not trust even to all these various Considerations, but avoided all Occasions of the Temptation: Let her come to tempt her, take with her.—Jephthah's Example ought ever to be remembered in this; for it is certain, in Temptation of this Kind, the only certain security is in avoiding the Occasions. From the Circumstances of Jephthah's Temptation, (for every present Motive tended to induce him to a Compliance) we may learn how great Things proper Considerations, a steady Resolution, and a prudent Behaviour, (assisted by the Grace of GOD) will enable a Man to do.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me : and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

His upper Garment, or loose Mantle.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth, 14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us to mock us : he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud Voice.

15 And I could not help but to be astonished
I lifted up my voice as I beheld the multitude.

16 And the lord said, I will not do so, lest I bring up the sword, and cut off the land, because thou hast done this.

17 And the chief priests to him, saying, We have heard thee say, saying, The King of the Jews is he that said, I will build me a temple, with hands, in three days, and will not destroy it.

On the other hand, it is 15 And it came to pass, as I lay upon my couch, and said, that he that had given me the vision, came out.

19 And it came to pass, when he had said these words, that he was crucified for us, and died, and was buried; and he descended into hell; and he rose again from the dead, and he ascended into heaven, and he sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the living and the dead. Whoso therefore shall confess his name, and shall believe on him that hath said these words, shall be saved; and he shall escape from all unrighteousness. Whoso shall not believe these things, he shall be damned, and shall be crucified again.

20 And Joseph's matt' was set by, and he was put into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound : and he was there with the cupbearer.

Herein, the following three points should be noted. First, as shown in Figure 1, the appearance of the low-order modes is related to the low-order modes of the Port, i.e., the modes of

But the Law was with Job, he, and he loved him in mercy, and he was here to me in the light of the Kingdom of the Father.

The Department of the Interior has been authorized to issue regulations for the management of the National Wildlife Refuge System. The Department has been authorized to issue regulations for the management of the National Wildlife Refuge System. The Department has been authorized to issue regulations for the management of the National Wildlife Refuge System.

22 And the keeper of the prison conversed with Joseph's hand, all the pains that he was in; and he comforted him, for they did the same to him as they did to him.

23 The keeper of the prison held out to me any thing that was under his hand: to make the Lord be with him: and that which he said, the Lord made it to prosper.

C. H. P. M.

[illegible]

AND it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of Egypt and his ball, and offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them ; and they continued a season in ward.

5 ¶ And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream; the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

That is, each suitable to the Office which he had held, and to the Events which were shortly to befall them.

41 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck.

The Ring was worn by the Eastern Princes as a Badge of their Imperial Dignity, for that Pharaoh's giving it to Joseph expressed the great Authority he gave him.

43 And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruir over all the land of Egypt.

In the second Chariot means probably that which followed next to the King, or any public Ceremony. We must look upon the Exaltation of Joseph as the Triumph of Virtue. It was before Virtue, in the Person of Joseph, that they bowed the Knee. And he was an Alld exhorting all Men to the Practice of Virtue, at the same Time that the Minister who went before him required them to bow the knee to him as the Minister of Pharaoh.

44 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

That is, do the greatest Thing in public Affairs without his Orders and Advice.

45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnath-paneah; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On: and Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

It was customary for Princes to give new Names to Foreigners, and note that they were become the Subjects of a new Master. The Name Pharaoh gave Joseph did not mean, THE SAVIOUR OF THE WORLD, OR A REVEALER OF SECRETS.

46 ¶ And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt: And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field which was round about every city, laid he up in the same.

49 And Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering: for it was without number.

50 And unto Joseph were born two sons, before the years of famine came: which Asenath, the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On, bare unto him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the first-born Manasseh: for God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my fathers house.

MANASSEH signifies forgetting. Thus Joseph reminded himself in the Days of his Prosperity of the Providence of GOD, which, by a wonderful Train of Incidents, had brought about this Reverse of Fortune, and turned all his apprehended Evils into real Blessings.

52 And the name of the second called he Ephraim: for God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

EPHRAIM signifies fruitful.

53 ¶ And the seven years of plenteousness that was in the land of Egypt, were ended.

54 And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said: and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph, what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth: and Joseph opened all the store houses, and sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

By the Expression of Famine is meant that the Earth, must be understood of it, that it was so in all the Countries thereabout, this being an usual Way of speaking of any Thing that spreads very far.

57 And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph to buy corn; because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

C H A P. XLII.

1 Jacob Joseph his ten sons to buy corn in Egypt: 6 They are imprisoned by Joseph for spies: 18 They are set at liberty, on condition of buying corn: 21 They have heard of Joseph: 24 Joseph receives his brethren: 25 Joseph reneweth his dream: 27 Joseph receiveth his father to Egypt: 36 Jacob rejoiceth to see Joseph.

NOW when Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us wheat, that we may live, lest we die.

3 ¶ And Joseph's ten brethren came down to buy corn in Egypt.

4 But Benjamin Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren: for he said, Lest peradventure mischief befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

6 And Joseph was the governor over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came and bowed down themselves before him, with their faces to the earth.

They bowed themselves before him not after the Egyptian Manner of Salutation, but after that of their own Country, wherein they agreed with the Eastern Nations, particularly the Perians. Thus they unwittingly fulfilled Joseph's first Dream, and that Part of the second which related to them, and naturally brought those Dreams to Joseph's Remembrance.

7 And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food.

8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land you are come.

10 And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come.

11 We are all one man's sons: we are true men, thy servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land you are come.

13 And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not.

14 And Joseph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies.

15 Hereby ye shall be proved: by the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither.

16 Send

10 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Pharaoh surely ye are liars.

It is probable that Y corrected his Brethren in this Manner, both to get some Information about his Father, and his Brother Barnabas, without Suspicion, as to what they thought about himself; what they would say on that Head, and more, till to make them reflect, as Men generally do under Dangers and Adversities, on the great Crime they had been guilty of in regard to David I, and we find by the twenty-first Verse, that it had accordingly had Effect. There is no Reason to look upon the Expression Monesque, as if Y wilfully misrepresented a Faithful, for it is rather to be understood as an Intimation, He is now gone, or I must take a new Spectacle to replace the other. Nor by Y's making Use of the Expression By the Life of Pharaoh, as we to consider it as if he swore by him, for Y, who feared GOD, could not but be sensible that an Oath was an Appeal to GOD alone; and therefore this must be understood, as no more than a solemn Avowal, that as he valued the Life and Honour of his People, so he did so &c.

By the Nikolae of the Land, Joseph did not mean the Barrenness of it, but the unfortified Places of the Country. He had the better Pretence to talk in this Manner to them, as they had entered Egypt by those Parts by which alone it was liable to be invaded. We may observe, that with great Pudence he laid hold of every plausible Pretence; for when they told him they were all Brethren, of one Place, and come only to buy Corn, he intimates that this was very implausible, and rather continued than removed his Suspicion, as it seemed unlikely that one Man should send so many Sons on so long and dangerous a Journey, for the Purpose only of buying Corn. This is the Meaning of the fourteenth Verse.

17 And he put them altogether into ward three days.

18 And Joseph said unto them the third day,
This do, and live: for I fear God.

By John's telling his Brethren that he feared GOD, he gave them greater Comfort than he could by any other Words what soever, as they might rest assured that a Man who feared God, would not do them any Injustice.

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison : go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses.

20 But bring your youngest brother unto me ; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so.

Undoubtedly Joseph had an earnest Desire to see his only Brother by the same Mother, and acted in this Manner with a View to have him brought down to him.

21. ¶ And they said one to another, We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us; and we would not hear: therefore is this distress come upon us.

Here we see the happy Use of Affliction, how effectual it is to awaken Confidence, and shew Men to themselves when nothing else will produce that Effect. Men can never entirely erase the Sense, which GOD has impressed upon their Hearts, of his Presence and Justice. They will never succeed in persuading themselves that Sin is in its Nature indifferent, or was not seen, or will remain unpunished. Their Fears may be removed sometimes by the Patience and Silence of their Judge, or the Number of their Accomplices; but when Vengeance comes to shew itself, they shall be the first to own that they have deserved it, and their Accomplices will then seem to them but as so many Witnesses, who are ready to accuse and confound them.

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore behold also, his blood is required.

23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spake unto them by an interpreter.

Joseph's, making Use of an Interpreter, pretending not to understand their Language, was a wise Piece of Art, as by that Means he discovered their real Sentiments, as it appears they spoke to one another in their own Language without Reserve before him, probably when the Interpreter was gone forth.

24 And he turned about from the sea, and went up to them, and said unto them again, Will ye also walk with me, and will ye be made fishers of men?

See in Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology, 27 (1936), pp. 234-41, and 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851,

25. ¶ Then Joseph comforted his brethren with corn, and to let them know that he loved them, he gave to his lack, and to give them provision for the way, and thus did he unto them.

20 And they left them at the well alone, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his all, provident for the time, he found no money: for behold it was in his sack's mouth.

28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?

They were in the aircraft factory and a number of them were awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. They were in the front line when the Luftwaffe came in to attack the factory, and they were the first to be shot down. They were the first to be shot down, and they were the first to be shot down.

29 ¶ And this came unto Jacob this first, unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them, saying,

The man to is the lord of the land speak roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies.

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father: one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man the lord of the country said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone.

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me : then shall I know that you are no spies, but that you are true men : so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffic in the land.

35 ¶ And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me.

We cannot read Jad's Lamentation here without being moved by it. He considers Sennar as already dead, being in the Power of so rough a Man as they described the Lord of the Country to be; he reflects upon his former Loss of Japhet, and he looks upon Beyazar, the only remaining Pledge of his beloved Reza, as already taken from him. And what makes it the more moving is, that by his Expressions it seems as if his Sons did not sympathize with him, and were little affected with these Calamities; and the unhappy Father seems even to have suspected that it was a Plot of his Sons to bereave him of Beyazar.

37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons if I bring him not to thee : deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

Reuben speaks this out of a passionate Desire to overcome the Doubts and Fears of his Father, he professes himself to be so confident that Joseph would be as good as his Word, that he could Take the Lives of his own Sons on the Event, which is all that is to be understood by his Expression.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you: for his brother is dead, and he is left alone; if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

Nothing can be more tender than this Verse. It melts us while we read it, and it is so expressive, that it sets the venerable old Patriarch full before our Eyes.

C H A P. XLIII.

1 Jacob is hardly persuaded to send Benjamin. 15 Joseph entertained his Brethren. 31 He maketh them a feast.

AND the famine was sore in the land.

2 And it came to pass when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food.

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food.

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: Could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.

Benjamin is called a Lamb, as being the youngest, and his Father's Darling; for he was four and twenty Years old, and had Children of his own, as may be seen, ch. xlv. 21.

9 I will be surety for him; of my hands shalt thou require him: If I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever.

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time.

Or as the Hebrew is, TWICE BY THIS.

11 And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds.

BALM OF GILEAD, which is meant here, was of great Price over all the World.

12 And take double money in your hand; and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight.

By ordering them to take DOUBLE MONEY, Jacob either supposed that the Price of Corn would be risen, or else he proposed they should buy double the Quantity they did before.

13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man.

14 And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin: If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.

Here Jacob at last brings himself to trust the Event to GOD, and with Resignation to leave it to Him to direct it as he shall see fit. Thus ought we always to submit or resign ourselves to the Dispositions of GOD's Providence, however severe they may seem.

15 ¶ And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and slay, and make ready: for these men shall dine with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade: and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house, and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time, are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bond-men, and our asses.

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house.

20 And said, O sir, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food.

21 And it came to pass when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet, and he gave their asses provender.

This Steward seems, by what is said here, to have been instructed by Joseph in the true Religion, or that of Abraham, and it is not improbable that he had been acquainted by Joseph that these were his Brethren. He comforts them we find in the most tender Manner, desiring them to make themselves easy, telling them that the Money was their own, and that they were to acknowledge the Providence of the GOD of their Father in what had happened to them.

25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 ¶ And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spake? Is he yet alive?

28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive: and they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

29 And he lift up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son.

A courteous Appellation this, whereby Superiors were wont to salute those below them.

30 And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yern upon his brother: and he sought where to weep, and he entered into his chamber, and wept there.

31 And

31 And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on bread.

32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians, which did eat with him by themselves: because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

33 And they sat before him, the first born according to his birth-right, and the youngest according to his youth : and the men marvelled one at another.

Joseph's placing his Brethren, or causing them to sit down exactly according to their Seniority, greatly surprized them how he should know their respective Ages. And this was as it were a Preparative to the Discovery of himself.

34 And he took and lent messes unto them from before him: but Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

It was usual in those Times for the Master of the House or Feast, to distribute to every one a Portion of every Thing that was set upon the Table. Benjamin's Meats being five Times as much as any of his Brothers, was a Token of Joseph's particular Favour to him, and possibly was intended by Joseph as a Trial of the Temper of his Brethren, to see whether they would look upon Benjamin with the same envious Eye as they had formerly done upon himself.

C H A P. XLIV.

1 July's salary for his children. 14 July's board support amount to July.

AND he commanded the steward of his house, saying, Fill the mens sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn-money: and he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

It is thought by many Writers, that Joseph did this to make a further Trial of the Temper of his Brethren in Respect to Benjamin, whether they would willingly give him up, as glad to be rid of him, or help him in his Danger. But Joseph's chief Motive seems to have been, to find a specious Pretext for detaining Benjamin, whilst he suffered the rest to return to their Father; for it does not appear that he knew as yet what a peremptory Charge Jacob had given about Benjamin, but hearing afterwards from Judah that his Life was bound up in his, ver. 30. he changed his Mind, and discovered himself unto them.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh? and whereby indeed he divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

Commentators differ about the Meaning of the Words of the Steward, in saying that it was the Cup whereby his Lord divined. Some think that he alluded to some Sort of Divination by Cups that was in Use amongst the Egyptians, and which he might imagine Joseph practised as well as they ; for being a known Interpreter of Dreams, the Egyptians in general might fancy he was skilled in Divination. Others observe that he only asks such a Question as might make them think he did so. But as the Hebrew Word rendered divineth, signifies often no more than to try, or make Trial, it may be expounded thus : Is not this it whereby he would make Trial, viz. of your Honesty by laying this Cup in your Way. Others, who refer the Word or not to the Cup but to the Thief, render it thus : Will he not by making Trial search it out. That is, Do you imagine your Theft can be concealed from one who is so sagacious in discovering Secrets. And this Sense seems to agree with Joseph's own Words, Gen. 45.

6 ¶ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Whence comest thou, that thou tellest these words? God testeth thee, saying, Whether thou shouldst do according to him, or not.

8. Behold, the miller, who had been a man of the Jews' moulds, we brought again to the court of the king of Canaan : how then, behold we did as for the lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whom I will not be concerned, and, Lord let him die, and will soon be my best friend.

They are confident of their future, that they agree to the French Plan, and that they

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is true, and that, be my servant; and ye shall be blessed.

11 Then they fixtly took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest : and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and laid every man his asis, and returned to the city.

Nothing can be more moving than the Verbal Law was there a more striking Picture drawn by Words which lay upon the Subject would not have excited the Mind to more excellent time glorious and sublime Motion and exaltation of the Soul. These two great Words have agreed and striven to give a proper Definition of their Amaze and Thrill. In the first to explain all the Circumstances to us, and we have been so long returning to the City, with silent Souls, and the most solemn and most God-like, and the greatest Pleasure we could find in what to hear or do.

14 • And Judah and his brethren come to Joseph's house: for he was yet there: and they fall before him on the ground.

Here again Zechariah's Dream was fulfilled; but it must needs affect him greatly, to see his Brethren thus covered with Shame, and rent with Anguish.

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? wot ye not, that such a man as I can certainly divine?

This seems to be spoken with the same View, and in the same Sente, as the 5th Verie.

16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found.

Nothing can be more affecting than Jahel's Speech. He confesses that he knows not what to say, or what to speak. Though the Cup was found only in Rogers's Sack, yet Jahel speaks of himself and the rest as being guilty, as being his Brother, and in Company with him, and accordingly surrenders himself and the rest to be Jahel's Bond Slaves.

17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so : but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant ; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 ¶ Then Judah came near unto him, and said, O my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant : for thou art even as Pharaoh.

Viz. Of princely Power and Majesty.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, I have ye a father, or a brother.

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one : and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21 And

21 And thou shalt unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 And thou shalt unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, you shall see my face no more.

24 And it came to pass, when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

25 And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down; for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me two sons.

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since.

29 And if ye take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

30 Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life)

A very strong Expression of paternal Affection! which denotes that the Father's Life so entirely depended upon that of his son, that he could not survive the Thought of his being dead.

31 It shall come to pass, when I see that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and thy servant shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

32 For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide in stead of the lad, a bond-man unto my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest peradventure I see the evil that shall come on my father.

Here Joseph's Character still shines, and he becomes a noble Example of Generosity and filial Affection; he acts the Part both of a faithful Brother and affectionate Son; who, rather than behold his Father's Misery, in Cain Benjamin is left behind, submits to become a Bondman in his stead. And indeed there is such an Air of Candour and Generosity runs through the whole Strain of his Speech, the Sentiments are so tender and affecting, the Expressions so passionate, and flow so much from artless Nature, that it is no Wonder they came Home to Joseph's Heart, and forced him to throw off the Disguise, as we find he does in the next Words.

C H A P. XLV.

1 Joseph maketh himself known to his brethren. 9 He searcheth for his father. 21 Exhorteth his brethren to concord. 25 Jacob is overjoyed with the news.

THEN Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me: and there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

Joseph several Times before had found great Difficulty to refrain himself, but now Nature bursts through all Restraint, and he cannot refrain even before all them that stood by him. He therefore cries out with Impatience for every Man to go out from him, not willing that the Egyptians should know any Thing of his Brethren's Guilt.

2 And he wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.

So many tender Sentiments crowded in upon Joseph's Mind at once on this Occasion, that his Words are choked in their Passage.

Joy, Compassion, the Ardor of brotherly Love, intermixed with a high Veneration of Providence, in bringing about an Event so surprising: all these swell with Emotions too big for Utterance, and which can only vent themselves in Tears and Sobs.

3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph; Doth my father yet live? and his brethren could not answer him: for they were troubled at his presence.

What a sudden Revolution must this Sound have occasioned within them! how must it have made them start as out of a Dream! No wonder that it held them dumb for some Time with Astonishment, so that they were unable to answer Joseph. Doth my Father yet live? is an Expression here not so much of Doubt as of tender anxious Love. As much as to say, "May I believe what you have told me? is then my Father still alive? am I so happy as to hear this joyful News?" Nothing can be more beautiful, nor mark more strongly the Ardor of his filial Affection, than this abrupt and hasty Transition from the Discovery of himself to the Attention of his Father. I am Joseph: Doth my Father yet live? He had before enquired after him as the old Man, and he takes the last Opportunity of speaking of him under the endearing Name of Father.

An eminent Writer says, that he must be a very wicked Man, that cannot read the History of Joseph without the strongest Touches of Compassion and Transport. There is a majestic Simplicity in the whole Relation, which is an affecting Portrait of human Nature, that it overwhelms us with a Mixture of Joy and Sorrow. The whole is greatly superior to the best and most celebrated merely human Compositions.

4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you; and as they came near: and he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you, to preserve me.

How glorious and amiable is Joseph's Behaviour here! what a noble Example does he set us of the Forgiveness of Injuries! He desires us not to be angry with themselves, nor grieved for that former Usage of him; but to consider it only as a gracious Act of GOD'S Providence, to preserve all their Lives: God did send me before you to preserve Life. And this he repeats to them again and again, ver. 7. 8. that, by shewing them their Action in this joyful Light, he might keep them from being oppressed with the Weight of their Guilt, and conceive that he was quite divested of all Resentment.

6 For these two years hath the famine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be earing nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you, to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

We may gather an important Instruction from what Joseph remarks here, as from hence we may learn, that however unhappy the first Appearance of Sufferings may be, and however wicked the Intentions of those who are the Instruments of them, they are under the Disposal of a wise and good Providence, which knows how to bring Good out of Evil. The Expression to preserve you a Posterity in the Earth, may signify that you and yours might be kept alive; or perhaps, Joseph might speak here in particular of GOD'S Promise given to their father, that he should become a great Nation, and that he had ordered Things in this Manner, that his Promise might not be made void.

8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

By being a Father to Pharaoh, Joseph means, that Pharaoh so highly honoured him as to do nothing without his Advice and Counsel. Joseph's Advancement to Honour and Preference by Steps, to all human Appearance, the most improbable, may be considered as a Picture in Miniature of the Conduct of Providence. "Almost all the Works of Divine Providence in the World, (says Lord Bacon) are full of Windings and Turnings; that one Thing seems to be a doing, when, in the mean Time, quite another Thing is really intended." Sometimes when Providence is nearest its End, it seems to move the contrary Way: Thus the lowest Stage of Misfortune, to which Joseph, by the mysterious Conduct of Providence, was reduced, proved the immediate Step by which

5 And Jacob rose up from Beer sheba : and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the waggons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Jacob, and all his seed with him :

This Descent into Egypt, was in the 130th Year of Jacob's Life, two hundred and thirty Years after the Promise made to Abraham, Ch. xii. v. 12. and in the Year of the World, two thousand two hundred and ninety-eight.

7 His sons, and his sons sons with him, his daughters, and his sons daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

8 ¶ And these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons : Reuben Jacob's first-born.

9 And the sons of Reuben ; Hanoch, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.

10 ¶ And the sons of Simeon ; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman.

11 ¶ And the sons of Levi ; Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

12 ¶ And the sons of Judah ; Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pherez, and Zerah : but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez, were Hezron, and Hamul.

13 ¶ And the sons of Issachar ; Tola, and Phuvah, and Job, and Shimron.

14 ¶ And the sons of Zebulun ; Sereb, and Elon, and Jaleel.

15 These be the sons of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in Padan-aram, with his daughter Dinah : all the souls of his sons and his daughters, were thirty and three.

16 ¶ And the sons of Gad ; Ziphion, and Haggai, Shuni, and Izbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.

17 ¶ And the sons of Asher ; Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister : and the sons of Beriah ; Heber, and Malchiel.

18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter : and these she bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 ¶ The sons of Rachel Jacob's wife ; Joseph, and Benjamin.

20 And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manassih and Ephraim, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah priest of On bare unto him.

21 ¶ And the sons of Benjamin were Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Rosh, Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, which were born to Jacob : all the souls were fourteen.

23 ¶ And the sons of Dan ; Hushim.

24 And the sons of Naphtali ; Jahzeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shilleu.

25 These are the sons of Bilhah, which Laban gave unto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these unto Jacob : all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, which came out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons wives, all the souls were threecore and six ;

27 And the sons of Joseph which were borne him in Egypt, were two souls : all the souls of the house of Jacob, which came into Egypt, were threecore and ten.

In this last Verse, Jacob and Joseph are both included, which makes up the Number threecore and ten. Some Commentators think that by the Expression came into Egypt, is meant the whole Time that Jacob lived in Egypt, which was seventeen Years, because Pharez and Benjamin seem to have been too young to have had the sons mention'd, at the Time that Jacob set out from Canaan.

28 ¶ And he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, to direct his face unto Goshen ; and they came into the land of Goshen.

The Hebrew is, to prepare Joseph's house in Goshen, &c. To receive Directions from Joseph, in what Part of Goshen he was to dwell.

29 And Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen ; and presented himself unto him : and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

30 And Israel said unto Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive.

Jacob, in his Transport, professes he is willing to leave the World, as nothing more can be added to his happiness.

31 And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his fathers house, I will go up, and shew Pharaoh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my fathers house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me :

32 And the men are shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle ; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pass when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation ?

34 That ye shall say, Thy servants trade hath been about cattle, from our youth even until now, both we and also our fathers : that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen ; for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

The Land of Goshen was undoubtedly allotted to, and solely inhabited by Egyptian Shepherds, as probably being most fit for the feeding of Flocks ; and Joseph was desirous to have his Brethren settled there, not only as it was a fruitful Place, and proper for their Employment, but chiefly as it lay next to the Land of Canaan, and was most commodious for removing thither, when the appointed Time came for their Return. Commentators have assigned different Reasons why Shepherds were abominated by the Egyptians ; but probably the Meaning may be no more, than that the better Sort of the Egyptians, especially those about the Court, looked upon the Employment of Shepherds as vile and despicable, and disdained to converse with them ; for the Word Abomination sometimes signifies no more than to loath, or heartily condemn.

C H A P. XLVII.

1 Joseph presenteth five of his brethren, 7 And his father before Pharaoh : 11 He placeth them in the land of Egypt. 28 Jacob's age. 29 He sweareth Joseph to bury him with his fathers.

THEN Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan ; and behold, they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What is your occupation ? And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we and also our fathers.

4 They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn in the land are we come : for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks, for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan : now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee :

6 The land of Egypt is before thee ; in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell, in the land of Goshen let them dwell : and if thou knowest knowest any man of activity amongst them, then make them rulers over my cattle.

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

By Joseph blessing Pharaoh is meant no more, than that he paid his Compliments to him, wishing him Health, and a long and happy Reign.

8 And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, How old art thou?

9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

Life is considered, in the beautiful Language of Scripture, as a Pilgrimage. 1 Pei. ii. 11. The Apostle to the Hebrews explains this Expression, as pointing to a future Life, Heb. xi. 13.

10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 ¶ And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Ramesses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his fathers household with bread, according to their families.

13 ¶ And there was no bread in all the land: for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt, and all the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine.

This being now the third Year of Famine, all private Stores were exhausted, and no Corn to be had, but out of the public Granaries stored by the King.

14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

As the Word rendered in this Verse found signifies procured, obtained, received, it might be as well translated, Joseph collected all the Money that was received, viz. by the proper Officers, whom he appointed for that Purpose, in the Land, &c.

15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

Probably Joseph made this Demand only with a View to save their Cattle, for they had not Corn for themselves, much less for their Cattle too: For undoubtedly Joseph gave out much more Corn than the worth of the Cattle, as there could not have been much Cattle now remaining in the Land, considering the Scarcity of Pasture; nor were all the Egyptians Owners of Cattle, many of them being Artificers. This was probably in the sixth Year of the Famine.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses; and he fed them with bread, for all their cattle, for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent, my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands.

By the second Year it to be understood, the Year after the Sale of their Cattle.

19 Wherefore shall we sell ourselves and our land? for we and our land will be Pharaoh's: and give us seed, that we may live, and that our land be not desolate.

It is to be observed, that this Demand of the Egyptians was made, not only for themselves, but for their Land too. They were so distressed, that they were ready to sell themselves and their Land, and to become the property of Pharaoh, in order to obtain seed, that they might be able to sow, and so to live, and that their Land might not be desolate.

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for the Egyptians sold them, inasmuch as the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt, even to the other end thereof.

As Joseph had laid up the Corn in the Cities, in the seventh year, he removed the People out of the Counties round about, where it would have been difficult to have taken Care of them, into the Cities of each respective District where the Corn was laid up, for the better Convenience of feeding them, and also on the greater Prudence and Compassion.

22 Only the land of the priests bought: for the priests had a portion of the land which Pharaoh gave, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them; wherefore they sold not their land.

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day, and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that you shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.

Joseph acts here with a noble Generosity, instead of taking Advantage of the Necessities of the Egyptians, instead of even insisting on the Bargain they had made themselves, he returns them their Estates, only laying a Tax on them, for the better Support of the Government, at the Rate of four Shillings in the Pound, or a fifth Part; which he found by Trial, from what was taken up in the seven Years of Plenty, that Egypt could well spare. And we see the People acknowledge this Generosity of Joseph with the warmest Expressions of Gratitude, They said, We have found Grace in the sight of my Lord, &c. we thankfully accept the generous Grant, and we will be Pharaoh's Servants, i. e. hold our Lands of him, and pay him the fifth Part of the Produce.

25 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.

26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's.

When Joseph restored their Lands to them, by his Advice, a Law was enacted, That their Property should be absolute in four fifths of their Produce, and that the King should have only the remaining one. Thus we may observe to his Honour, that he was so far from enslaving the Country, that, with the Consent of King and People, he settled both the Rights of the Crown, and the Subject, upon the Foundation of an irrepealable Law, and was the first who limited the Power of such Princes.

27 ¶ And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly.

They farmed Lands of the King.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.

29 And

So, in the time of evening that Isaac must die, and he called his son Jacob, and said unto him, If now, I have found grace in thy sight, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt.

Jacob require Uk ph to swear to him, which is the Meaning of putting his Hand under his Thigh, not that he nurtured him, but to furnish him with an argument to prevail with Pharaoh; and we find he made Uk ph Ch, Ch. 4. 5.

30 But I will be with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burying-place. And he said, I will do as thou hast said.

31 And he said, Swear unto me: and he swore unto him. And Liel bowed himself upon the bed's head.

Jack lit up while I was talking with Y. Y., but now the Duke's being ended, he reclined his drooping head upon the B.

C H A P. XLVIII.

[illegible]

AND it came to pass after these things, that one told Joseph, Behold, my father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

This Expression en fait signifies a Messenger was sent on Purpose.

2 And one told Jacob, and said, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee : and Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed.

The News of his beloved Son's Arrival revived the aged Father.

3 And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me.

The Word eng'ed here signifies, promised the following Blessing.

4 And said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people, and will give this land to thy seed after thee, for an everlasting possession.

And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manassah, which were born unto thee in the land of Egypt, before I came unto thee into Egypt, are mine: as Reuben and Simcon, they shall be mine.

Jacob's Meaning is, they shall be reputed as his immediate Sons or natural Issue, and shall be Heads of distinct Tribes, and have each of them an Inheritance in the Land of Canaan, equal with the rest of his Sons. He mentions Ruben and Simon as being the eldest. But the rest of Joseph's Children, as appears in the next Verse, were not to be admitted to this Privilege, and were to be called and inherit only according to Joseph's own Family, without any Respect to that of Jacob's.

6 And thy issue which thou begetteth after them, shall be thine, and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan, in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her there in the way of Ephrath, the same is Beth-lehema.

It seems as if this was mentioned by Joseph, as a Reason for what he had just said; and that his beloved Katharine having died in Childhood, and left him only two Sons by her he was willing to honour her Memory, and supply the want of more Children by her, by adopting these her Grand Children.

3. And then I beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these?

Through the Dannels of his Sight he could not discern with who they were.

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place: And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless them.

What a Sense of GOD had they in those Days, when Children and every Blessing was always spoke of as coming from, and given by GOD.

10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see: And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face : and lo, God hath shewed me also thy face.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

The Children had stood between Jack's knees who sat upon his Bed, while he embraced them, but John now taking them from thence, disposed them to receive Jack's Blessing, kneeling down himself by his Father, and ordering his Sons at his Side to do the same.

13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand towards Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand towards Israel's right hand, and brought them near unto him.

He placed them so as that Jacob might lay his right Hand upon Manasseh, who was the eldest, that he might receive the Mark of the greatest Honour. Laying Hands on the Head of any Person was always used among the Jews in giving Blessings, dedicating Men to any Office, and in the Consecration of solemn Sacrifices. This is the first Time we meet with it in Scripture, but it often occurs after.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manassah's head: guiding his hands wittingly; for Manassah was the first-born.

The Hebrew Particle Al translated here, FOR should be rendered, as it sometimes signifies, ALTHOUGH, which makes the Sense clear; for the Meaning of the Verse is, that Ja. cob did not mistake through the Dimness of his Sight, or because he did not know which was the Elder, but he laid his right Hand upon Ephraim wittingly or designedly, ALTHOUGH Manasse was the first born.

15 ¶ And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long unto this day,

Either Jacob first blessed Joseph, though the Words are not mentioned, or else it means he lived him in his Children: Here we see in Jacob, an Example what is the best last Legacy that Parents can leave to their Children, what is the best last Advice that they can give them, what are the most useful departing Words, that they can speak unto them, what the surest Protection they can put their beloved Children under, whom they are going to leave amidst all the Dangers of the World; viz. The Almighty GOD. He who, if we walk in his Ways, will feed us, all our Life long, protect, preserve, and supply our Wants, with the Care of a watchful Shepherd, and redeem us from all Evil. Jacob had experienced this, and by specifying the singular Care of Providence towards himself, he gives his Grand Children to understand what they might expect from this gracious GOD, if they walked in his Ways.

16 The angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them; and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

The Word rendered here Angel, ſignifies a Meſſenger, ſome underſtand this of the MESSIAH, who is always repreſented in the Scriptures, as particularly concerned in bringing ALL GOOD to Man. Others underſtand it only of one of thoſe miniſtring Spirits, who, under GOD, are the Guardians of the Juſt, and protect them from many Evils and Dangers, Heb. i. 14. O comfortable Thought! O glorious Privilege! we who ſeem ſo expoſed to Dangers, ſo deſtitute of Help or Protection, have ANGELS to be our GUARDIANS, to miniſter to our Occaſions: Nay more, have the GREAT MESSIAH, the SON of GOD, to watch over, and take Care of us, as the moſt careful Shepherd does of his Flock; yes, the GREAT SHEPHERD of Mankind will feed his Flock like a Shepherd, gather the Lambs with his Arm, and carry them in his Boſom, and gently lead thoſe that are with Young, Iſaiah xl. 11. will adminiſter to all their reſpective Wants, with the greateſt Tendernels, and be at hand to bring a proper Relief upon all Occaſions.

17 And when Joſeph ſaw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it diſpleaſed him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manafſſeh's head.

Joſeph was here actuated by his own Thoughts, but Jacob by a divine Impulſe.

18 And Joſeph ſaid unto his father, Not ſo, my father: for this is the firſt-born; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father reſuſed, and ſaid, I know it, my ſon, I know it; he alſo ſhall become a people, and he alſo ſhall be great: but truly his younger brother ſhall be greater than he, and his ſeed ſhall become a multitude of nations.

This was truly fulfilled in the Poſterity of theſe two Children: A convincing Proof that Jacob ſpoke by the Inſpiration of the ALMIGHTY; for who but He can foreſee what is to happen in diſtant Ages?—Above four hundred Years after this, when the Iſraelites were firſt numbered in the Wilderneſs, the Tribe of Ephraim had eight thouſand three hundred Men more than that of Manafſſeh, Numb. i. 32, 33, 35. In encamping about the Tabernacle, Ephraim had the Standard, and was ſet before Manafſſeh, Numb. xi. 18, 20. In the ſecond Muſtering, indeed, thirty-eight Years after, it was otherwiſe as to the Number, Numb. xxxvi. 34, 37. Yet after this, Ephraim had the Preheminence, Deut. xxxiii. 17. Of him came Joſhua, the Conqueror of Canaan, Numb. xiii. 18. and Jeroboam, King of Iſrael, 1 Kings, xi. 26. ſo that the Name of Ephraim is uſed to ſignify that whole Kingdom, Iſaiah vii. 2, 9, 17. xi. 13, &c.

20 And he bleſſed them that day, ſaying, In thee ſhall Iſrael bleſs, ſaying, God make thee as Ephraim, and as Manafſſeh: and he ſet Ephraim before Manafſſeh.

Here Jacob foretells another Particular relating to theſe two Children, viz. That their Tribes ſhould be ſo eminent and prosperous, that it ſhould become a proverbial Form of Speech in wiſhing Happineſs to others, to ſay, GOD make you as happy as Ephraim and Manafſſeh. And this Form, we are told, continues among the Jews to this Day.

21 And Iſrael ſaid unto Joſeph, Behold, I die; but God ſhall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

By the Land of your Fathers, is meant that which they had ſojourned in, and which GOD had promiſed to give the Poſſeſſion of to their Poſterity. Jacob in his dying Moments bears Witneſs to GOD's immutable Truth, that what He had promiſed would certainly come to paſs. This Promiſe had been now given above two hundred Years, and it ſtill appeared as far from being accompliſhed as ever; and yet Jacob dies with the moſt aſſured Hopes.

The Promiſe of the Land of Canaan to the Seed of Abraham, is ſeveral Times repeated in this Book of Genesis: It is always ſpoken of with the utmoſt Aſſurance, through the long Courſe and various Revolutions of above four hundred Years; and it was not even till after the Death of Moſes, who wrote theſe Things, that the Deſcendents of Abraham, Iſaac, and Jacob, to whom the Promiſe was made, got Poſſeſſion of the Land under the Command of Joſhua; and then they remained in Poſſeſſion of it ſeveral Ages: So that here is a plain Demonſtration that GOD certainly made His Purpoſe known to the Patriarchs long before it was executed; and that Moſes, in writing, only recorded what had been divinely revealed to them; for it was not poſſible for any Man of himſelf to ſpeak with ſo much Confidence of Things long before they happened, which depended upon ſo many Cauſes and Circumſtances to bring them to paſs, and which indeed, as we may find by the Account of the Children of Iſrael's getting Poſſeſſion of the Land, the greateſt Difficulties lay in the Way of, and every Thing ſeemed againſt.—From hence we may learn, that whatever Obſtacles are in the Way of any of GOD's Promiſes, however little Proſpect there may ſeem of their being accompliſhed, yet may we expect them with a full Aſſurance; and in particular we may reſt aſſured, that as GOD brought back the Seed of Abraham from the miſerable Bondage of Egypt, into the Land of Canaan, the Land flowing with Milk and Honey, ſo will He certainly bring his faithful Servants out of all the Troubles of this World to the heavenly Canaan, to the Place of immortal Reſt and Pleaſure, however diſtant it may ſeem, however difficult the Entrance; from the Bondage of the Fleſh, to the glorious Freedom of the Sons of GOD.

22 Moreover, I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my ſword and with my bow.

This ſeems to have been the Parcel of Ground near Shechem, which Jacob purchaſed of Hamor, the Prince of the Country, Ch. xxxiii. 19. and which it is probable he took or recovered with his Sword and Bow, i. e. by Force of Arms, from the Amorites, who had ſeized on it after his Removal to another Part of Canaan, although this is not mentioned in the Scripture. For we find this Place of Shechem was the Inheritance of Joſeph's Sons, Job. xvii. 1, &c. xx. 7. And it is mentioned as the Parcel of Ground which Jacob gave to Joſeph, John iv. 5.

C H A P. XLIX.

1 Jacob, juſt before his death, calleth all his ſons together, and by the Spirit of prophecy telleth them what ſhall happen to their Poſterity, till the coming of Chriſt, 10 Who he foretelleth ſhall ariſe out of the tribe of Judah. 28 He gives orders about his burial.

AND Jacob called unto his ſons, and ſaid, Gather yourſelves together, that I may tell you that which ſhall befall you in the laſt days.

As ſoon as he had done ſpeaking with Joſeph, perceiving his End was approaching, he called the reſt of his Sons, that he might tell them what ſhould befall their Poſterity in future Time; for the Expreſſion In the laſt Days, ſignifies hereafter, or in Time to come.

This Chapter calls for our ſtricteſt Attention, for it contains a Number of Predictions or Prophecies of Things which were to be fulfilled at diſtant Periods, through a long Succeſſion of Years; Things depending upon ſo many various Circumſtances, upon ſuch remote Cauſes, ſo hid from all Human View, ſo contrary to all Appearances, at the Time they were ſpoken of, that it was impoſſible for any Human Foreſight or Conjecture to imagine them. And yet all were exactly and fully accompliſhed, many of them in diſtant Ages, long after both the Prophet and the Recorder of the Prophecies were dead. Nothing can give us an higher Idea of the Scriptures, than to ſee Things ſpoken of in them, with the moſt certain Aſſurance, Ages before they happened; for this muſt wonderfully confirm our Faith in them, as it is a ſure and convincing Proof that they are DIVINE; for it is the Prerogative of GOD alone, or thoſe that are commiſſioned by Him, certainly to foretell future Events. And what makes this Chapter of ſtill more Value to us, and more worthy our cloſeſt Attention, is, that we have here the ſure Word of Prophecy, in Confirmation of all our Hopes in JESUS our SAVIOUR; for in this Chapter we find a moſt remarkable Prophecy, marking out the Time and ſome peculiar Circumſtances of the coming of the MESSIAH, ſo particularly as will furniſh us with an invincible Argument, that not only the MESSIAH is come, but alſo that JESUS CHRIST, whom we believe in, is the Perſon: So that we may be convinced in our Hearts, as Simon Peter was, John vi. 68, 69. and ſay with him, “LORD, to whom ſhall we go? Thou haſt the Words of eternal Life; and we believe and are ſure that thou art CHRIST, the Son of the living GOD.” This is the FOUNDATION STONE on which the Scriptures are built: This is the ONE THING which we ought carefully to attend to, viz. the DECLARATIONS of an appointed SAVIOUR of Mankind.

We ſhall, as we think it a Subject of great Importance, explain theſe Prophecies of Jacob in the fullſt and cleareſt Manner we are able, eſpecially that which regards our GREAT HEAD and SAVIOUR, JESUS CHRIST.

But before we enter on the Explication of the following Prophecies, it may be proper to preſiſe theſe two general Obſervations, from a juſtly celebrated Difſertation on Judah's Bleſſing.

1. What is commonly called Jacob's bleſſing his Sons, may be as well called Jacob's Appointment of twelve Rulers or Princes to govern the House of Israel: For that this Form of Government took Place immediately upon the Decease of Jacob, may be collected from hence; that, from that Time, all Applications and Messages are not to the People, but to the Elders or Heads of Tribes, Lev. xix. 15. and we see, the People and their Rulers are distinguished plainly, Ex. xxxiv. 31, 32. Now, as there is no Designation of the Form of Government in any other Place in Scripture, and it could not be settled tacitly, by a mere Devolution of Jacob's Power, among his Sons, after his Decease, it must be allowed to be settled by Jacob himself, in this and the foregoing Chapter. And to this Idea all the Circumstances reported in these two Chapters answer.

2. Jacob having thus settled twelve Princes, or Rulers of People, in his House, speaks to them as Heads of a People, and not as single Persons; and what he says relates to them and their People collectively, and not to them personally. This is evident from the Words of Mal. i. 28. All these are the twelve Tribes of Israel. And likewise from hence, that the Things foretold and ascribed to them, are by no Means capable of being understood of single Persons.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hearken unto Israel your father.

3 ¶ Reuben, thou art my first-born, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power.

Jacob here expresses Reuben (as being his first-born) to be the Fruit of his prime and vigorous Age, and the Beginning of his Manhood. The Epithets bestowed on him, viz. The Excellency of Dignity, and The Excellency of Power, may refer in general to the Privileges of the first-born, which Reuben was to have enjoyed, had he not fallen from them. But the Samaritan Version gives it a different Sense, rendering it passing in Pride, surpassing in Impudence.

4 Unstable as water, thou shalt not excel, because thou wentest up to thy father's bed: then defiledst thou it; he went up to my couch.

The Meaning of this Verse is, that as Water is prone to flow, and still runs downward to an inferior Situation, so Reuben should fall from his Preeminence, in being the eldest: And, agreeable to this Prediction, nothing great or excellent is recorded of this Tribe throughout the Scripture. In Number and Power it was inferior to other Tribes, and the superior Authority was established not in the Tribe of Reuben, but Judah. He went up to my Couch, is by others rendered, From the Time that thou defiledst my Couch, it went up, i. e. the Excellency went up, or vanished like Smoke; for so the Word HALAH sometimes signifies. This Fact of Reuben's, which Jacob thus blames and attributes all his Disgrace to, is mentioned Ch. xxxv. 22.

5 ¶ Simeon and Levi are brethren: instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

Here the dying Patriarch testifies the highest Abhorrence of the Cruelty of Simeon and Levi, in the barbarous Murder of the Shechemites, recorded Ch. xxxiv. 25. They are (says he) Brethren in Iniquity, Instruments of Cruelty are in their Habitations, or as others render it, In their Councils or Compacts, alluding to their treacherous Agreement with the Shechemites; or as some translate it, their Ejaculations are Instruments of Wrong and Injustice, referring it to the proposed Match with their Sister Dinah, whereby they trepanned the Shechemites into the Snare of Death.

6 O my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their self-will they digged down a wall.

Here Jacob in a pathetic Exclamation declares his Detestation of his Sons Barbarity. Let my Soul, says he, be never consenting to, or have any Participation of, their wicked Designs; which is here called their Secret, because such Designs are commonly carried on with great Secrecy. Let never my Honour be stained by joining in their Assembly, but shun the very Place where they are, lest I be polluted by coming among them.

In their Anger they slew a Man: This must be either meant of Shechem, as being a great or principal Man, or else the singular is put for the plural, one for a Multitude. The last Sentence of this Verse, as it stands in our Version, seems very obscure; but the same Word which we have rendered WALL, signifying also an Ox, by changing only a Vowel Point, some translate it They ham-stringed an Ox, taking the Meaning to be that Simeon and Levi, in the Wantonness of their Cruelty, had houghed Shechem's innocent Oxen; to render them unfit for Labour. But as the Word SHOR signifies also an Enemy, the most natural Sense appears to be, that

In their Self-will, or headstrong Passion, they exterminated the Enemy, or murdered the Enemy; referring to that cruel Straggle they used to disable the Shechemites, Ch. xxxiv. 17. and the falling upon them, and cutting them in Pieces in that defenceless State.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

Jacob does not here curse Simeon and Levi, nor their Posterity, but their boisterous Passion; as much as to say, Let it be abhorred and appear execrable in the Eyes of all the World.

I will divide them, that is, I prophesy their Division. It being usual in the prophetic Style, to speak of Events which GOD was to bring about, as if they themselves were the Authors of them, of which we have the like Instance in Ezek. xliii. 3. and Heb. vi. 5. Thus Jacob prophesies, that they who were associated in Wickedness, should by the Influence of divine Providence be disjoined from one another in their Posterity, lest by their Vicinity to each other, they might have an Opportunity, after the Example of their Fathers, to associate in wicked Designs. And this exactly and fully came to pass; the Tribe of Simeon having no separate Inheritance by themselves, but living in the Midst of the Tribe of Judah, Job. xix. 1. 9. and some of them being forced to seek an Habitation in the Mountains of Seir, and in the Desert of Gedor, 1 Chron. iv. 39. 42. And as for the Tribe of Levi, it was dispersed amongst the other Tribes, Job. xxi. 1, 2, 3.

8 ¶ Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise; thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies: thy fathers children shall bow down before thee.

In other Words this may be read, according to the Sense of it, Thou art Judah, and well may'st thou be so called, for thy Brethren shall praise thee; alluding to the Name of Judah, which signifies PRAISE. This now is to be understood of Judah as a Tribe, that it was to be more eminent than the rest, both for Feats of War Abroad, and for temporal and spiritual Blessings at Home.

Thy Hand shall be in the Neck of thine Enemies, is an Expression signifying Victory, or putting their Enemies to Flight.

Thy Fathers Children shall bow down before thee, i. e. shall acknowledge the Dignity of this Tribe above the rest; thy Brethren shall pay such Honour to thee as useth to be conferred upon the first-born. See Numb. vii. 11, 12. x. 14. Jud. xx. 18. 1 Chron. v. 2. This was remarkably verified in GOD's chusing this Tribe, and David out of it, to settle the Kingdom of Israel in his Stock for ever, Pf. lxxviii. 68, 70, 71. lxxxix. 20, 21. But especially in the MESSIAH's being born of this Tribe, whose Kingdom is everlasting, and to whom every Knee shall bow.

9 Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

These are all allegorical Descriptions of the Courage and Bravery of the Tribe of Judah, and which refer to and were accomplished in their Victories over the ancient Possessors of the Land of Canaan.

From the Prey, my Son, thou art gone up: JACOB speaks as if he saw him returning in Triumph with the Spoils of their Enemies, alluding to Lions, who having gotten their Prey in the Plains, return satiated to the Mountains.—We may observe here a Gradation; for Judah is first compared to a Lion's Whelp, then to a grown Lion, then to a Lioness; for so the Hebrew Word LANI, which we translate an old Lion, signifies; which several Authors observe to be fiercer and more invincible than a Lion. And by this Gradation the Beginning, Increase, and full Growth of the Power of the Tribe of Judah, is expressed. There were many valiant Worthies of this Tribe, in whom the Prophecy was verified, as Othniel, Jud. iii. 9, 10. David, 2 Sam. viii. and above all CHRIST, called the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, Rev. v. 5. Besides, they distinguished themselves by their Valour, as a Tribe; for Judah led the Van in the Army of the twelve Tribes, Numb. x. 14. Jud. xx. 18. Judah was the first that dispossessed the Canaanites, Jud. i. 2. He stooped down, he couched as a Lion.—These figurative Expressions, which plainly allude to the Manner of Lions couching down to Rest in their Dens, after they have devoured their Prey, fitly denote that the Tribe of Judah should dwell fearless and at their Ease, after their many Victories. This was fulfilled in the Days of Solomon, 1 Kings, iv. 25.

10 The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a law-giver from between his feet, until Shiloh come, and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

Jacob having predicted the Qualities of the Tribe of Judah, now goes on to mention a remarkable Particular, by which that Tribe Tribe should be distinguished from all the rest. viz. That the Scepter should not depart from it, nor a Law-giver until Shiloh came; or in other Words, that the Power and Right of Government which Jacob, as we have before observed, at this Time settled in his Sons, each over a respective Tribe, should not depart from that Tribe of which Judah was now constituted the Head, until such Time as Shiloh came; that they should always subsist as a Tribe or People under their own respective Government, till the Period of Time: For we must observe that Jacob does not here speak to his Sons as single Persons, but as Heads of People; and what he says, relates to them and their People collectively, and not to them personally.—From this particular Promise made to Judah, that his Scepter should not depart until Shiloh came, is plainly signified that the Scepters of all the other Tribes should depart from them before that Time, viz. that they would not continue till that Period, each as a respective Tribe or People, under its own Government, but would be broke and scattered, and fall under the Government of others.——There is another Point that we may plainly infer from this Declaration to Judah, that his Scepter should not depart till Shiloh came, viz. that it would depart then; for to say that any Thing shall last to such a particular Time, amounts almost to a Declaration that it shall last no longer. This seems to be the plain and true Sense of The Scepter shall not depart, &c. For we are to observe that the original Word SHEBET, which we translate a Scepter, signifies no more than a Rod or Staff of any Kind, and particularly the Rod or Staff which belonged to each Tribe, as an Ensign of their Authority; and therefore it might have been rendered, The Staff, or Ensign of Authority, shall not depart from Judah; and can signify no more, than such Authority as Judah had then, when Jacob addressed this to him.—The Sense of the Word Scepter will help us to fix and determine the Meaning of the other Word MECHOKER, which we translate a Law-giver; for such as the Government is, such must be the Law-giver: And the Scepter here signifying no more than the Government of a single Tribe, the Law-giver spoke of, must be meant of one of no larger Jurisdiction: And the Word itself signifies not only a Law-giver, or a Maker of Laws, but one who dispenses them, or administers Justice according to the Laws; and therefore perhaps it cannot be better translated, to convey its right Meaning to us, than by the Word JUDGE: Nor a Judge from between his Feet. The Meaning of the Expression, from between his Feet, signifies that there should not be wanting a Judge of the Race and Posterity of Judah, UNTIL SHILOH CAME, agreeable to the Hebrew Phrase of Children coming from between the Feet.

Having thus considered what it was that should not depart from Judah until a certain Period, or a particular Circumstance came to pass, we must next consider what THIS Circumstance was, or what is the Meaning of the Expression, UNTIL SHILOH CAME.

Jacob, as we have seen, received a double Blessing, temporal and spiritual, the Promise of the Land of Canaan, and the Promise of the SEED in which all the Nations of the Earth should be blessed; which Promises were first made to Abraham, and then repeated to Isaac, and then confirmed to Jacob; and Jacob a little before his Death bequeaths the same to his Children. The temporal Blessing or Inheritance of the Land of Canaan might be shared and divided among all his Sons, but the BLESSED SEED could descend only from one: And Jacob accordingly assigns to each a Portion in the promised Land, but limits the Descent of the BLESSED SEED to the Tribe of Judah; and he bequeaths this to Judah in much the same Form of Words as it had been delivered to him. Isaac had said to Jacob, (Gen. xxvii. 29.) Let People serve thee, and Nations bow down to thee; be Lord over thy Brethren, and let thy Mother's Sons bow down to thee: And here Jacob saith to Judah, “Thou art he whom thy Brethren shall praise; thy Hand shall be in the Neck of thy Enemies; thy Father's Children shall bow down before thee”; to which this Particular is added, The Scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a Law-giver from between his Feet, until Shiloh come, that is, until the Coming of the MESSIAH, as almost all Interpreters, both ancient and modern, agree. For howsoever they may explain the Word, and whencesoever they may derive it, the MESSIAH is the Person plainly intended.—The Vulgar Latin translates it He who is to be sent, and to favour this Version that Passage in St. John's Gospel is usually cited, Go wash in the Pool of Siloam, which is by Interpretation sent, John ix. 7. And who was ever sent with such Power and Authority from GOD as the MESSIAH, who frequently speaketh of himself in the Gospel under the Denomination of him whom the Father hath sent?—The Seventy translate it the Things reserved for him, or according to other Copies be for whom it is reserved: And what was the great Treasure reserved for Judah, or who was the Person for whom all Things were reserved, but the MESSIAH, whom we have declaring in the Gospel, (Mat. xi. 27.) All Things are delivered unto me of my Father, and again (Mat. xxviii. 18.) All Power is given unto me in Heaven and in Earth?—The Syriac translates it to the same Purpose He whose it is, meaning the Kingdom; and the Arabic, Whose he is, meaning Judah: And whose was Judah, or whose was the Kingdom so properly as the MESSIAH's, who is so many Times predicted under the Character of THE KING OF ISRAEL?—Junius and Tremellius with others translate it his Son: And who could be this Son of Judah by Way of Eminence, but the MESSIAH, the Seed in which all the Nations of the Earth should be blessed?—In the Seventy Text and Version, the Power is said to be given to him; and this perhaps is the best Interpretation of the Word, and to whom can this or any other like Title be more properly applied as to the MESSIAH, who is emphatically styled the Son of God, and at whose Birth was sung that heavenly Anthem, Glory to God in the highest, and on Earth Peace, Good-will towards Men?

These are the principal Interpretations, and which, for the few we prefer, the Person understood must be the MESSIAH. In all Views the Prophecy must terminate in the Coming of the MESSIAH, the Power being settled in Judah, and provided till the MESSIAH comes; for it is not the Christ who is intended, but the Tribe which gives it this Sense. The Prophecy is commonly supposed to have been made before the Birth of Christ: And he thus expresseth the Sense of the Passage, “Thou shalt not be taken away one having the Principality from the House of Judah, nor a Scribe from his Children's Children, till the Messiah come, whose is the Kingdom.” And with him, and the other Targums or Chaldee Paraphrases, and the Authors of the Vulgate, and other ancient and modern Jews. So that no Doubt can remain, that by the Coming of Shiloh is meant the Coming of the Messiah.

And unto him shall the gathering of the People be. They who understand this Passage as relating to the MESSIAH, have great Reason on their Side, as well from parallel Places of Scripture, as from the Authority of the most ancient Interpreters. And agreeable to this, a learned Writer has observed, that the original Word, which we render the People, by which People in Scripture is generally meant only the Jews, is a Noun plural, and should be translated THE NATIONS. And to our FETTERED SAVIOUR, JESUS CHRIST, was the Gathering of the Nations, indeed, in a more wonderful and extraordinary Manner, than ever happened in the World either before or since. The Word of our SAVIOUR Himself, Matthew xxv. 14. as Calaneo observes, has observed, seem to have Reference to this Prophecy, and explain it in this Sense, “And this Gospel of the Kingdom of CHRIST shall be preached in all the World, and then shall the End come”; that is, the End of the Jewish State, or of the Government of Judah. And this, according to St. Paul, was done before that End came; for he saith, Coloss. i. 23. That the Gospel had been preached to all Nations which is under Heaven, viz. to all Parts of the then known World.

But some learned Men are of Opinion that these Words are to be referred to Judah. As to the main of the Prophecy, there is no Difference, which ever Way we take them: If we suppose the Words refer to the Tribe of Judah, they were most exactly accomplished in the State and Polity of the Tribe of Judah, during the Continuance of his Scepter, after the Scepters were removed or departed from the other Tribes of Israel.

For the Remnant of all the Tribes after the Assyrian Captivity were indeed gathered to Judah, and fell under the Obedience of that one Tribe; and the whole Nation, from being stiled the People of Israel, were thenceforwards stiled the People of Judah, or Jews. In this Sense, the Prophecy began to operate immediately upon the Division of the two Kingdoms. GOD promised Solomon to give one Tribe to his Son for his Servant David's sake, 1 Kings xi. 13. which is twice again repeated in the same Chapter, ver. 32, 36. But in Truth, two Tribes, that of Judah, and that of Benjamin, together with Part of the Tribe of Simeon, and many Families of the Levites, and of the other Tribes, who dwelt within the Borders of Judah, remained under the Obedience of the Kingdom of Judah; and no Reason can be given why this Body is called one Tribe, but only this, that the Tribe of Judah alone maintained its Power and Constitution, the rest were all gathered to this Tribe, and sunk in it. This Account may be collected from the Text itself; 'tis said, that the Children of Israel, which dwell in the Cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them, 1 Kings xii. 17. And when an Account is giving of Rehoboam's raising Forces to recover his Kingdom, 'tis said expressly, that he assembled all the House of Judah with the Tribe of Benjamin, Ibid. ver. 21. And yet in the very Verse before, 'tis said, there was none that fell with the House of David, but the Tribe of Judah only, Ibid. ver. 20. Yet still, when GOD sends a Message to those under the Obedience of Rehoboam, they are mentioned thus, The House of Judah and Benjamin, and the Remnant of the People, Ibid. ver. 23. These are they who afterwards were comprehended under the Name of Jews; a Term introduced to signify the Tribe of Judah, and all the rest of the People united with and under that Tribe. From the Division of the Kingdoms Judah was considered as making the People of one entire Kingdom, and gave Name to all associated with them. We have a clear Account how this Matter stood in the second Book of Chronicles. The Priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to Rehoboam, out of all their Castles.—And after them, out of all the Tribes of Israel, such as yet their Hearts to seek the Lord GOD of Israel, came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the Lord GOD of their Fathers. So they strengthened the Kingdom of Judah, 2 Chron. xi. 13, 16, 17. xv. 9. All who came from other Tribes were considered but as an additional Strength to Judah, they preserved no distinct Polity of their own, as belonging to other Tribes. From the Time of the Assyrian Captivity, the Case is very very plain; there remained, without Doubt, many private Families and Persons in the Land, who eluded in the general Confusion; but they subsisted not as Parts of distinct Tribes, but fell under the Dominion and Power of Judah; as appears in the Reformation made by King Jehoiakim, which reached not only to the Cities of Judah, but to all the Countries that pertained to the Children of Israel, to the Cities of Manasseh and Ephraim, and Simoon, Issachar, Naphthali, 2 Chron. xxxiv. 6, 7. Cities in which the Kings of Judah had no Influence or Authority, so long as the separate Kingdom of Israel subsisted. After the Return from the Babylonish Captivity, we hear of little else but Jews, though we know the Benjamites were joined with them; and the Decree of Cyrus being a general Permission for the Return of all the Tribes, many Families of other Tribes returned to their own Country: But all these were gathered to Judah, and became one People, 1 Chron. ix. 3. And in this State and Condition Things continued till the Coming of CHRIST, and the last Destruction of the Nation by the Roman Power, Luke ii. 36. Acts xxvii. 7.

The ten Tribes which constituted the Kingdom of Israel, were carried into Captivity by Salmanser about seven hundred Years before CHRIST; and this put an End to the Being of these Tribes: They never recovered again, or appeared as a People from that Time to this. And here the Completion of the Prophecy relating to the Continuation of Judah's Scepter, after the Removal of the others, has its Commencement.

The Division of the Kingdom prepared the Way for the Completion of this Prophecy. Had all the Tribes continued under one Head, they would probably have all undergone the same Fate; but being divided in Interest, and having different Kings, and consequently not being concerned together in Matters of Peace and War, their Fortunes proved very different; for the African Captivity was Ruin to the ten Tribes, but the Babylonish Captivity was only a seventy Years Punishment of Judah.

The seventy Years of the Babylonish Captivity, is the only Period of Time that can create any Difficulty upon this Scheme. But if we consider that the Jews were not carried to Babylon to be Slaves, but were transplanted as a Colony, to people the great and newly enlarged City of Babylon; that they are commanded therefore by the Prophet, to build Houses and plant Gardens; and to seek the Peace of the City, in which they were Captives, Jer. xxix. 5, 7. Circumstances which prove them not to have been Slaves in Babylon: That upon the Expiration of the seventy Years, many of them were so well settled in Ease and Plenty, that they refused to return to their own Country again: If we consider further, that the Jews lived at Babylon as a distinct People, and were governed in their own Affairs by their own Rulers and Elders, appointed Festivals and Fasts, and ordered all other Matters relating to their own civil and ecclesiastical Affairs within themselves, it will take off the Weight of this Difficulty, and shew us that the Power and Scepter of Judah, relative to the Being and Subsistence of the Tribe, were not removed during this Captivity.

Sure we are, from the Accounts preserved in the Books of Ezra and Nehemiah, Ezra i. 5. ii. 68. iii. 12. viii. 1. ix. 1. x. 14. Nehem. ii. 16. iv. 14, 19. vi. 17. that the Tribes of Judah and Benjamin subsisted as such, during the Captivity, and preserved very regular Accounts of their Genealogies: That they had likewise their Chieftains and Elders, who decided their Affairs, there is no Doubt: They are mentioned in Ezra and Nehemiah, as the Persons managing the great Affairs of the Return, and re-establishing the Service of GOD in Jerusalem: That they came back to their own Country as a People and Nation governed by their own Laws, is evident from the Complaint sent against them to Artaxerxes, in which they make too great a Figure, and are represented too considerable to be thought a Set of mere Slaves, subjected entirely to a Foreign Yoke, without Law or Government of their own, Ezra iv. 11. 'Tis true, that from the Time of their Captivity, the Jews were never to free a People again, as they had been formerly; they lived under the Subjection of the Persian Monarchs, and under the Empire of the Greeks and Romans to their last Destruction; but still they lived as a distinct People, governed by their own Laws. That Things continued in this State to the very Death of CHRIST, may be evinced from many Passages in the Gospel.

When our SAVIOUR tells the Jews, the Truth shall make you free, they reply, We are Abraham's Children, and were never in Bondage to any Man, John viii. 32, 33. Surely they had not forgot their Captivity in Babylon, much less could they be ignorant of the Power of the Romans over them at that Time, and yet we see they account themselves free; and so they were, for they lived by their own Laws, and executed Judgment among themselves.

When our SAVIOUR foretells his Disciples that they should be delivered up to Councils, and scourged in Synagogues, Mat. x. 17. he shews, at the same Time, what Power and Authority were exercised in the Councils and Synagogues of the Jews: When Pilate, willing to be delivered of JESUS, says to the Jews, Take ye him, and crucify him, John xix. 6; and again, Take ye him, and judge him according to your own Law, John xviii. 13; he also shews, that the Jews lived under their own Law, and had the Exercise and judicial Authority among themselves. This was the Condition of Things at the Death of CHRIST.

From this Deduction, it appears evident that the Scepter, or the Power of Government, did depart from all the other Tribes, long before Judah departed from him; as also that he continued in his Posterity, and did not depart until the MESSIAH or CHRIST came: But that when He came, and had fulfilled all Things, that then the Scepter departed from Judah. Their City was taken, their Temple was destroyed, and themselves were sold like Beasts in the Market, and became in the strictest Sense Slaves: And from that Time to this, they have never formed one Body or Society, but have been dispersed among all Nations; and they have lived without a Prince or Ruler, without a Law-giver or Judge of their own, without supreme Authority and Government in any Part of the Earth; and this not for a few Years, but for the long Course of seventeen hundred. The Tribe of Judah is so far from bearing Rule, that they know not for certain which is the Tribe of Judah; and all the World is Witness that they exercise Dominion no where, but live in Subjection every where.

From the Whole it plainly appears, that the Scepter was not to depart from Judah until the MESSIAH should come; but the Scepter hath long been departed, and consequently the MESSIAH hath been long come. The Scepter departed at the final Destruction of Jerusalem, and hath been departed seventeen Centuries, and consequently the MESSIAH must have come a little before that Period. And, if the MESSIAH did come a little before that Period, Doubt itself cannot hesitate to pronounce, that JESUS of Nazareth, in whom we believe, was the VERY CHRIST. The SHILOH, He that was to be sent: He for whom it was reserved. He, whose the Kingdom was: The SON OF JUDAH in a peculiar Sense, the SEED in which all the Nations of the Earth were to be blessed. The PEACE-MAKER, who brought down PEACE on Earth, GOOD-WILL towards Men; and to sum up all, the SAVIOUR who brought SALVATION to Mankind.

The more we consider this wonderful Prophecy, and the present State of the Jews, which remains a perpetual Witness, the more Reason we see for our Faith in JESUS. The Evidence meets us with irresistible Force, it dispels all the Clouds of Doubt, and shines forth with all the radiant Light of Truth.---O most adorable WISDOM! that hast so laid the Foundations of TRUTH that they can never be moved. That whether we consult the Records of thy beloved Son's Life and Actions, in whom appeared all the Fulness of the Godhead, the Glory as of the only Begotten of the Father, full of Grace and Truth; or whether we turn back to the ancient RECORDS of thy Will, which thou, in thy INFINITE WISDOM, committedst to the keeping of those who were the greatest Enemies of thy beloved Son; we find convincing Proofs that thou hast determined, in thy infinite Counsels, to save Mankind by JESUS CHRIST.

11 Binding his sole unto the vine, and his asses colt unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes.

Binding his Sole unto the Vine is an hyperbolical Expression, and sets forth the great Felicity of Judah's Country; that Vines would be as common there as Thorn-hedges in other Places, so that they might tie Asses with their Colts to them. Thus it was in Engedi, Josh. xv. 62. Song. i. 14.---He washed his Garments in Wine is another hyperbolical Expression, importing that they should have Wine as plentiful as the Water which serves for common Uses. Thus Job, speaking of his Days of plentiful Prosperity, says, I washed my Steps with Butter, Job xxix. 6.

Late Travellers who have been on the Spot testify, that the Mountains about Jerusalem, the Lot of Judah, were particularly fitted for the Cultivation of the Vine; that there are many Tokens still to be seen of the ancient Vineyards, about Jerusalem and Hebron; and that there are great Quantities of Grapes brought from thence to the Markets of Jerusalem, and sent yearly to Egypt. They observe too that the Mountains of this Country abound with Shrubs, and a delicate short Grass, both which the Cattle are more fond of, than of such Plants as are common to fallow Grounds and Meadows; and that the Milk of Cattle fed here is far more rich and delicious, as their Flesh is more sweet and nourishing, which seems to be signified in the following Verse.

12 His eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

As the Words His Eyes shall be red with Wine, &c. stand in our Version, they denote the Plenty of Wine and Milk with which Judah's Country should abound. But, as the Fertility of the Country was prophesied of before, and because to have Eyes red with Wine is the Reproach of Drunkards, Prov. xxiii. 29. therefore others refer these Expressions to the Health and Comeliness of the Inhabitants, appearing in the Radiance of the Eyes, and Whiteness of the Teeth. Thus the LXX and Vulgate render it, His Eyes shall be more beautiful than Wine; his Eyes whiter than Milk.

13. § Zebulun shall dwell at the haven of the sea, and he shall be for an haven of ships, and his border shall be unto Zidon.

By the Haven of the Sea, where Zabbar was to die. The latter part the Lake of Tibbar, or Sea of Chanaan, which lies on the Border of this Tribe extended, Gen. xix. 12, 13. We may easily admit at the Extremity of this Trapping, that Zabbar two hundred Years before the Conquest of Chanaan, should thus be able to describe the Situation of the respective Places, which were to be the Lot of his Pottery. Though Zabbar was younger than Habbar, ch. xxx. 18, 20, yet Gen. xix. gives him the Blessing before him; as also Melch. Deut. xviii. 18; and his Lot accordingly came up before Hamor, Gen. xix. 10, 15. By this they were taught, that their Habitation in the Land of Chanaan was the Gift of GOD, and did not come by Chance; their Forefathers having long before predicted the very Portion they should inherit.

The Western Border extended to the Mediterranean, where there were many commodious Harbours for Shipping.

His Border shall be to Zidon. } Some Commentators render this towards Zidon; i.e. his situation shall be such, that by Means of his Shipping he may easily have Traffic with Zidon. And therefore Mohr says, Deut. xxiii. 18. Re. to Zebulun in thy going out.

14 ¶ Isiachar is a strong ass, couching down between two burdens.

[Hebrew: a strong Man, &c.] Heb. Ami = Brave; i. e. brave, strong, robust. The Ami is a part of Yomai, and the proper Symbol of Labour; for in those Countries it was principally employed in Labour. These Expressions therefore denote that Isaac's Posterity would add themselves to the quiet and retired Business of Tilling and Husbandry; and, instead of being engaged in Merchandise, and the active Service of Life, like their Brethren before mentioned, be Lovers of Peace and Rest, &c. 15. To which Account the Word Ami agrees, Deut. xxxiv. 15. Rejoice Zabulon in thy strong city, and thou also in thy fort.

[Couching down to our tax Burden.] This Expression fitly marks the tame and indolent Temper of this Tribe, that would rather submit to the heaviest Taxes and Impositions, than engage in War, and lose their beloved Quiet: Just like an Ass, which however strong, will go tamely crouching with a Burden on either Shoulder, and, rather than shake it off, lie down under the double Load.

15 And he saw that rest was good, and the land that it was pleasant; and bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a servant unto tribute.

He saw—the Land that it was pleasant ; ] The famous Valley of Jezreel was in this Tribe ; whose Border extended as far as Jordan, Josh. xix. 18, 22. And that they possessed one of the most fertile and pleasant Tracts in Canaan, appears from Josephus's Description of the upper and lower Galilee, which included the Territories of this Tribe. “ The Country is fruitful,” says he, “ to Admiration, abounding with Pasture, and Nurseries, of all Kinds, “ so that it would in the any Man in Love with Husbandry.”

fulfilled in the Time of the Judges, when the Isachers became tributary to the neighbouring Kings, and chiefly Hushai's Posterity, upon Account of the Fertility of their Soil.

16 ¶ Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel.

Here Jacob alludes to the Name of Dan, which signifies judging. The Meaning of the Verse seems to be, that though Dan was the Son of a Concubine, and so inferior to his Brothers before mentioned, yet his Posterity should be governed by a Head of their own Tribe, as the other Tribes of Israel were. And what Jacob here says of Dan, is applicable, by Analogy, to all his other Sons by Concubines.

17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path; that biteeth the hortic-heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

By these Expressions is signified, that the Tribe of Dan was to be remarkable for Stratagems of War, defeating their Enemies more by Policy than open Force, like those Serpents that lie in the Roads, and unexpectedly bite Horses Heels, and make them throw their Riders. Instances of this their Policy we have Jud. xviii. 27. and in Sampson's Dealing against the Philistines, Jud. xv. and xvi.

18 I have waited for thy salvation, O LORD.

It appears plain enough, that the Words spoken of Nar, foretold that his Posterity should be a politic, cunning People; but

[illegible]

2. The second group of authors (Barnett, 1990; Barnett and Hurn, 1992; Barnett and Hurn, 1993; Barnett and Hurn, 1994; Barnett and Hurn, 1995; Barnett and Hurn, 1996; Barnett and Hurn, 1997; Barnett and Hurn, 1998; Barnett and Hurn, 1999; Barnett and Hurn, 2000; Barnett and Hurn, 2001; Barnett and Hurn, 2002; Barnett and Hurn, 2003; Barnett and Hurn, 2004; Barnett and Hurn, 2005; Barnett and Hurn, 2006; Barnett and Hurn, 2007; Barnett and Hurn, 2008; Barnett and Hurn, 2009; Barnett and Hurn, 2010; Barnett and Hurn, 2011; Barnett and Hurn, 2012; Barnett and Hurn, 2013; Barnett and Hurn, 2014; Barnett and Hurn, 2015; Barnett and Hurn, 2016; Barnett and Hurn, 2017; Barnett and Hurn, 2018; Barnett and Hurn, 2019; Barnett and Hurn, 2020; Barnett and Hurn, 2021; Barnett and Hurn, 2022; Barnett and Hurn, 2023; Barnett and Hurn, 2024; Barnett and Hurn, 2025) have also studied the relationship between the variables, but with different methodologies and results.

[illegible]

Supposing this to be the View before the Prophet, what Temptation yet could he derive this new Temptation and Seducer, than by those which were commonly admitted to describe the first? If the first Tempter deserved the Name of a Serpent, for drawing Adam and Eve from their Obedience to the original Law, in Virtue of which they held the Possession of Paradise, did Dan deserve it less for drawing the People of Israel from Obedience to the divine Law, in Virtue of which they had but even then taken Possession of the Land of Promise? If the Mischief brought upon the Race of Adam, we chiefly represented by the Serpent's bruising the Heel of the Woman's Seed, did not the Mischief brought upon the House of Israel by the Idolatry of Dan well deserve to be here painted in Colours of the same kind? And when Isaiah saw, that the Venom of the old Serpent was not yet spent, but that it would work again in one of his own Sons, to the utter Ruin of his Posterity, could he help looking back upon God's Promise of Deliverance, and then He gave that the Serpent's Heel should be bruised. Could this View, and this Relation together, be attended with any other Sentiments than those which describe this Prophecy? I have said, I have said, O Lord.

This Prophecy, considered in this Light, affords a very striking Evidence, of the Expectation of Deliverance from the Curse of the Fall. The Hope of Salvation here manifestly relates to the Mithra wrought by a Serpent biting the Heel. And though this Image is used to foretell a Mithra to come, and tho' the Salvation itself was still to come, yet the Hope was older than Jacob, had been his Comfort all along, and was his Comfort under the sad Prospect he had of his Children's Iniquity.

Lay these Circumstances together, and it is impossible to imagine any Salvation that can answer to these Ideas, but that only which arose from the Promise, that the Seed of the Woman should bruise the Serpent's Head.

19 ¶ Gad, a troop shall overcome him : but he shall overcome at the last.

Gad signifies a Troop, and in Allusion to the Name Yefthah foretells, that this Tribe should have many Enemies to struggle with, who should sometimes get the better of them; but then in Time they should, by the divine Aid, prove victorious over all Opposition; which accordingly was verified. For this Tribe inhabiting a frontier Country beyond Jordan, Josh. xii. 8. was at first much exposed to the Incursions of the neighbouring People, particularly the Ammonites; but at length Yefthah, the Gadite, subdued those Ammonites, Jud. xi. 33.

29 ¶ Out of After his bread gall & fat, and he shall vld royal clauities.

20. It is here promised a plentiful Fruit abounding not only with all Provisions of Human Life, but some Part of it, a spiritual Fruit, xxviii. 20. producing the choicest Fruits, fit to be raised up to the Table of Kings. And such a Fruit of Country is certainly offered up to the Lot of the Tribe of Benjamin.

21. ¶ Naphtali, a hind let look: he giveth goodly words.

21. Naphtali is here compared to a hind, not only to denote her swiftness, but also to signify that she is a fruitful and fruitful. Naphtali was the son of a free Spirit, and his words were sweet and pleasant, as the hind is sweet and pleasant. The word hind is here used, denoting that she is a hind, and not a lion, as the lion is not a hind, and his words are not sweet and pleasant. But there is nothing related afterwards of the Tribe, to justify this Exposition, and therefore the Opinion of the learned Beza is more fully grounded, who, by observing the Prophecy, requires a different Sense of the Verse, and interprets it, *as a great Tree, whose branches shall be spread out, according to this Sense, is the Septuagint Translation, and the Vulgate Translation. And in this Sense it was fulfilled in the Prophecy of the Tribe, which is in that Sense, that Naphtali brought with him into Egypt, the tribe grew, in the space of two hundred and fifty years, to upwards of seven hundred, and likewise, Joseph brought the Tribe into Egypt, which was in the upper Galilee, a Country celebrated for its pleasant and fruitful Soil. This agrees with Moses's Benediction of this Tribe, *Deut. xxxiii. 23. O Naphtali, be glad with the Father, and fulfil the Blessing of thy Lord.

22. ¶ Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall.

Joseph, of whom came two Tribes, is compared to a fruitful Bough growing in a well watered Soil, and shooting forth two luxuriant Stems or Branches. The prodigious Increase and Multiplication of the two Tribes, Gen. xlv. 14, 15. See Deut. xxxiii. 17. fulfilled the Prediction in this Sense.

23. The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him.

It is probable that this alludes to Joseph's Brethren, who persecuted him, his Masters who tempted him, and falsely accused him, and his Murder who put him in Prison.

24. But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong, by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob: from thence is the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel.

As Joseph's Enemies are considered under the Notion of Archer, by the Paraphrase of the same Metaphor, he is considered as armed with a Bow, not to annoy, but to defend himself. And the Bow of his hands, Gen. xlv. 17. proved strong, as he sustained all their malicious Efforts, Gen. xlv. 18. with unbroken Fortitude and Resolution, like a tough Bow, which, though long employed in Practice, neither breaks, nor becomes more flexible.

And the Stone of Israel, Gen. xlv. 18. is the Herd of the mighty God of Jacob. His flock, that in the divine Providence, was rewarded with Support and Deliverance from GOD, who is called the mighty God of Jacob. Joseph had often experienced his Goodness and powerful Protection. But some Translations render the first Part of this Sentence in a different Manner, Gen. xlv. 18. and Exod. xvi. 17.

From the Septuagint, Gen. xlv. 18. From that Divine Providence, before mentioned, Joseph became the Shepherd, who lay down in the Land of Gath and Hamath, which by he has been the Stone or Foundation of us. For in this Sense CHRIST is called a Stone, 1 Pet. xxviii. 16. and GOD a Rock, Ps. xvi. 2. This is the Explanation which most Commentators have given of this Word; but a late Writer is of Opinion, that the Word, was a wonderful Prediction of the Revolt of the Ten Tribes, or the Friction of the Kingdom of Israel. He observes that the first of these figurative Expressions, viz. The Shepherd, was frequently made Use of in profane Writers, as well as the sacred, to signify a King or a Lord. The second of them is peculiar to the Scriptures, and signifies the Foundation: So that the Meaning of the Word, taken out of the figurative Expression, is, From the Herd of Joseph shall come the King, the Foundation of Israel; as accordingly Jer. xlviii. 17. The Explanation seems to be more agreeable to the Spirit of the whole Chapter, which certainly consists of Promises of Things to come; and it does not seem improbable that Joseph, who foretold the Persecution of the Tribe of Benjamin, should likewise foretell, though in an obscure Manner, the Defection of the Ten Tribes, as this was so very remarkable a Particular in the Office of his Posterity. He who seems to have had a View of the Apocalypse to the Tribe of Dan, without Doubt, the Septuagint are of ten which Tribes.

25. Flee by the God of thy father, who shall help thee, and by the Margary, who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that hath under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb.

This Verse seems to be an Explication of the 22d, signifying that Joseph's Posterity should be situated in a fertile Soil, watered with tearable Rain and Dew from above, and with the Blessings of the Deep, i. e. Springs and Rivers. The Blessings of the Breasts signify a numerous thriving Progeny, or a vast Increase of Cattle.

26. The blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors, unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills; they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren.

Some Translations render this Verse as follows: "May the Blessings of thy Father, with the Blessing of my Progenitors, whose powerful Effect will continue while the lasting Hills endure, may they all descend upon the Head of Joseph." But according as it stands in our Translation, the Sense is, "Thy Father's Blessings or Prayers in thy Behalf, are more ample and prevalent than the blessings of my Progenitors, in Behalf of me; and these Blessings shall be, or may they be, upon the Head of Joseph, unto the utmost Bound or Duration of the everlasting Hills." That Perpetuity is expressed in Scripture by the Durableness of the Mountains, appears from several Passages. But the Hebrew Word, which we translate Bonus, signifies also Durable. Hence some Writers think that the Words have no Respect to the Durableness of these Mountains, but their desirable continuations; and then the Sense is, Unto all that is most desirable in the ancient Hills, meaning the noble Hills of Babylon and Mount Ephraim, which fell to the Lot of Joseph's Posterity: And this agrees with Moses's blessing of this Tribe, Deut. xxxiii. 15. By the Expression, him that was separate from his Brethren, is meant Joseph's Abode and Advancement in Egypt.

27. ¶ Benjamin shall ravin as a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

We may observe here, that though Benjamin, as being the youngest, was the Darling of Jacob, yet he gives him no peculiar Blessings, but merely describes him as of a fierce and warlike Disposition. A plain Proof this, that the Patriarch was actuated by a higher Spirit than his own. We see no parental Partiality appearing, he seems to speak through the whole as not of his own, but as it was given unto him. The Tribe of Benjamin answered very exactly to this Character, for it alone maintained a War with the other Tribes, in which they overcame them in two Battles, though they had sixteen to one against them, Jud. xi. xvi. to which may be added the Exploits of Ehud, Jud. iii. 17. and Saul, 1 Sam. xiv. 47, 48. both of the Tribe of Benjamin.

But there is a remarkable Particular foretold here of this Tribe, which deserves to be considered, viz. that they should continue to the very last Times of the Jewish State. For since the natural Morning and Night cannot possibly be understood here, what other can we suppose intended but the Morning and Night of the Jewish State, when this State is the Subject of all the Prophecy? And here is a Promise of longer Continuance to Benjamin than the other Tribes, and this was exactly fulfilled. For, upon the Division after Solomon's Death, the Tribe of Benjamin adhered to Judah, 1 Kings xii. 21, 24. and formed one People, under Judah as their Head, and so they two run the same Fortune, and continued both in Being till Sheshbazzar's time, long after the other Tribes were no more a People.

28. ¶ All these are the twelve tribes of Israel: and this is it that their father spake unto them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

These Words plainly shew, that what Jacob had said to his Sons, was not to be fulfilled in their Persons, but in their Posterity. And here we may stand astonished at what we have been reading, to find Jacob so exactly foretelling the Character and Disposition of his Sons Posterity, the most material Circumstances that should befall them to the latest Times, and even the Bounds and Name of the Places of their Abode, though this was determined above 200 Years after, by so uncertain a Man, so long as that of cutting Lots, Jobb. xix. 10, 17.—Nothing can be but that DIVINE SPIRIT, who dispoſeth of all events, could have enabled Jobb to have foreſeen ſo clearly all theſe Things.

For is laid in this Verse to bless all the Tribes; but there seem to be no Benediction bestowed on the three last Tribes, unless giving them a Portion in the Land of Canaan, to be considered as such. Or rather the Expression of Highly signifies no more than the last Words of a dying Father over his Children.

29 And he charged them, and said unto them, I am to be gathered unto my people: bury me with my fathers, in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite;

30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite, for possession of a burying-place.

31 There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife ; there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife ; and there I buried Leah ;

32 The purchase of the field and of the cave that is therein, was from the children of Beth.

33 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people.

Jacob having ended his Word, he gathered up his Feet into the Bed; (probably he lay on the Bed side while he had been speaking) and resigned his Breath with the utmost Ease and Calmness; which seems to indicate his assured Hopes of entering into a better State thro' Death; to which the Expression of he gathered to his People, which we have explained, ch. xiv. 8. alludes.

C H A P. L.

1 The mourning for Jacob. 7 He is carried into the land of Canaan, to be buried. 15 Joseph encourages his brethren, who were afraid of his resentment. 24 Joseph prophesieth unto his brethren of their return into Canaan. 26 His death.

AND Joseph fell upon his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father : and the physicians embalmed Israel.

3 And forty days were fulfilled for him (for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed), and the Egyptians mourned for him threescore and ten days.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

Joseph does not speak to Pharaoh himself, probably because he was a Mourner, and for that Reason might not come into his Presence.

5 My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die : in my grave which I have digged for me, in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 ¶ And Joseph went up to bury his father : and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house : only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen : and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshing-floor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great deal of affection, and with a mourning for his father's death.

Some trouble was experienced in the preparation of the samples, but by the use of the method of  $P_{\text{max}} = P_{\text{min}} + 2P_{\text{max}} - P_{\text{min}}$  (see the Hendershot et al., they had a total of 18 samples, 10 of which were in the form of a single crystal and 8 of which were in the form of a polycrystalline material.

[illegible]

But just as he was doing this, he saw an eagle, who commenced the cry, 13 For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah: which Abraham bought with the field for a possession of a burying place, of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 ¶ And Joseph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 ¶ And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they sent messengers unto Joseph, saying,
Thy father doth command before he died, saying,

17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

What they tell about their Father's dying Commands, was probably feigned, as we meet with no Mention of it before; but their Intention was to move him by all that was held most dear and sacred; and therefore in the last Place they conjure him by the Ties of Religion, which has always been reckoned one of the firmest Bonds of Affection.——Joseph's Tear in this Place discover the Generosity and Goodness of his Soul.

18 And his brethren also went and fell down before his face : and they said, Behold, we be thy servants.

19 And Joseph said unto them, Fear not : for am I in the place of God ?

Or in other Words, “ Shall I presume to oppose myself to what “ is come to pass, as if I was GOD? Shall I punish you for that “ which GOD has turned to much to the Advantage of us all?”
Or the Words may be rendered affirmatively, I am in the Place of God, the Instrument he has made Use of to sustain you.

20 But as for you, ye thought evil against me ; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spoke kindly unto them.

This is the admirable Method of the Working of GOD's Providence in the World, by turning, contrary to the Nature of Sin, and the Will of Sinners, their EVIL into GOOD, and directing it to the most excellent Ends; thus always, though many Times not discerned by us, educing GOOD from all the EVIL that is in the World.

22 ¶ And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house : and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation : the children also of Machir, the son of Manasse, were brought up upon Joseph's knees.

Then had  $\gamma$  the Pleasure of seeing his Father's prophetic Blessing ( $\beta$  xlviii. 19, 20. xlix. 25.) upon his two Sons, in Part fulfilled.

Intercourse and Communication there is between Earth and Heaven, however hid from our Eyes, by the wonderful and significant Vision which he vouchsafed to Jacob, of a Ladder set upon the Earth, and the Top reaching to Heaven, with the Angels of GOD ascending and descending on it, and the LORD standing above it.

The Promise of the Land of Canaan, and that a Blessing should arise in their Seed to all the World, was renewed to Isaac and Jacob, to whom likewise GOD manifested Himself by appearing unto them.—This Fulfilling of the Promise of the Land of Canaan, and the further Promise annexed of a Blessing to arise to all Nations in their Seed, was the constant Hope of these Patriarchs: It was the Point they had always in View, the constant Object of their Faith: Whatever Scenes they went through, however remote it seemed, however contrary to all Appearance, yet still it was their firm Belief that it would surely come to pass, and that He who had promised, was FAITHFUL.

In the Conclusion of this Book we find Jacob, though then a Dependent in a Foreign Country, without Hope or Means to execute any Thing, so strong in Faith, that he allots to each of his Sons a particular Portion in the Land of Canaan, as if he had been already in the Possession of it; only the Blessing of all Nations he fixes peculiarly in the Tribe of Judah.

In the following Books, we are going to see the full Accomplishment of the Promise first given to Abraham, and afterwards renewed to Isaac and Jacob: By their Seed being put into full Possession of the promised Land, about four hundred Years after the Promise had been first given.

And in all this there is undoubtedly a very striking Representation of the heavenly Canaan, the Kingdom prepared for those that love GOD, in the HEAVENS. This is the eternal Possession that has been promised by GOD to Mankind, through JESUS CHRIST; the earthly Canaan, flowing with Milk and Honey, was no more than a Figure of this. The Delay of that Promise for so long a Time, and the sojourning of the Patriarchs during that Period in different Countries, as Strangers only, was to figure out to us the State of Man in this Life, that he is no more than a Stranger or Pilgrim on the Earth, his Abode where he is to be fixed being in the Heavens; and that however long Time it may seem before he is placed there, whatever mighty Obstacles there may appear in the Way, however improbable it may seem, that Man should be admitted to the vast and glorious Privilege, of reigning a joint Heir with JESUS CHRIST in the Kingdom of GOD, yet it will surely come to pass, because He is FAITHFUL who has promised. And He who fulfilled his Promise in giving the earthly Canaan to the Seed of Abraham, notwithstanding the long Delay of it, and their being first brought into a cruel Bondage, will as certainly in due Time fulfil all his gracious Promises made to Mankind in JESUS CHRIST, deliver us from all the Difficulties our Thought may meet with at any Time, lying in our Way, particularly in the Hour of Death, when, like the Patriarch Jacob, I remember that it is the LAST MOMENT, the ANTI-SUPPER, who has promised; that He is coming, and keepeth his Covenant forever, and fitting our Eyes on him, the ROCK OF AGES, who hath never failed them who trust in him; let our Faith fix it before us, as if we were just entering into Possession of it.

From the whole of this Book of Genesis, we may observe, that the Restoration and Salvation of Mankind hath been the Purpose of GOD from the Foundation of the World. The first Sin committed, He gave him Hopes of Mercy and Salvation, a Day of Visitation of Repentance, and TRUST in HIM. These Hopes were from Time to Time further confirmed and enlarged, as the Obligations of the World required; and more and more opened, till at length the DAY-SPRING from on High visited us, and the SUN of RIGHTEOUSNESS arose with Healing in his Wings.

And however remote the Prospect may appear, what Difficulties our Thought may meet with at any Time, lying in our Way, particularly in the Hour of Death, when, like the Patriarch Jacob, I remember that it is the LAST MOMENT, the ANTI-SUPPER, who has promised; that He is coming, and keepeth his Covenant forever, and fitting our Eyes on him, the ROCK OF AGES, who hath never failed them who trust in him; let our Faith fix it before us, as if we were just entering into Possession of it.

From the whole of this Book of Genesis, we may observe, that the Restoration and Salvation of Mankind hath been the Purpose of GOD from the Foundation of the World. The first Sin committed, He gave him Hopes of Mercy and Salvation, a Day of Visitation of Repentance, and TRUST in HIM. These Hopes were from Time to Time further confirmed and enlarged, as the Obligations of the World required; and more and more opened, till at length the DAY-SPRING from on High visited us, and the SUN of RIGHTEOUSNESS arose with Healing in his Wings.

Thus have we gone through the first Book of MOSES; we hope, through the Grace of GOD, with some Advantage to the Reader. May HE, with whom alone is Wisdom and Understanding, enable us to proceed aright in the further Prosecution of our Undertaking!

T H E SECOND BOOK OF MOSES, C A L L E D E X O D U S.

The A R G U M E N T.

AS the Deliverance of the Children of Israel out of Egypt is the principal Subject of this Book, it has from thence taken the Name of EXODUS, which signifies THE GOING-OUT, or DEPARTURE. In this Book is recorded the Accomplishment of the Promise made by GOD to Abraham, Gen. xv. 14. By bringing out his Seed from the Land of their Servitude with great Substance, and at the exact Time which GOD had promised. We find here GOD getting himself Honour on Pharaoh, and making his Name known throughout all the Earth; manifesting that he was the only true JEHOVAH, the ALMIGHTY, who was above all the Gods of the Heathen, by the exceeding great Acts of Power, and the wonderful Miracles he wrought for the Deliverance of the Israelites. And this glorious Victory over Idolaters, whereby it was made manifest that the Gods of Egypt were vain, and not able to help them, was a prophetic Figure that the Power of the true GOD would finally prevail over ALL; and that JESUS CHRIST, the Captain of our Salvation, should in the End overcome all the Power of the great Asiate Spirit, and deliver his People from the Bondage of Sin and Misery; for it was under his Conduct that the Israelites were brought out of Egypt. GOD having thus, with an high Hand, delivered the People, whom in his Eternal Wisdom he had appointed to be his Instruments, for fulfilling the Purposes of his Mercy in the Restoration and Redemption of the World; he conducts them in a wonderful and glorious Manner, through the Wilderness unto Mount Sinai, where he more particularly and solemnly renewed his Covenant with them, gave them a divine Law to walk by, and condescended to become their King, and to take them in a peculiar Manner under his immediate and visible Government; whereby he gave Mankind a Pattern, not only of the most perfect Law with regard to Civil Society, but of the Measures of his own Government whereby he governs the whole World: For GOD is as truly the King of the whole Earth, as he was then of the Jewish People, and governs it by the same fundamental Laws, but only the Measures whereby he executes his Government are further removed from our Sight. But besides those admirable moral Laws which GOD gave the Israelites, which will endure to the End of the World; the Purposes of his Wisdom requiring that they should be kept apart or separate from all other People, he gave them peculiar or ceremonial Laws. But as CHRIST was the End of the Law or Dispensation given unto them at that Time, and the Cause of their being separated from all the World, so many of these peculiar or ceremonial Laws were apt Figures or Representations of CHRIST that was to come, and of the SALVATION that was to be brought to them and the rest of Mankind through Him. And states undoubtedly one great Purpose of GOD in the Jewish Dispensation, to shew to Mankind the Corruption of their Hearts, and that Man could not stand before GOD of himself, and there ore could not come unto him but by and through a Divine Mediator; that Means purely exterior are altogether incapable of correcting the Heart of Man, and that there was a Necessity for the Divine Law to be written not only on Tables of Stone, but on the Table of the Heart by the Operation of the HOLY SPIRIT.

This Book contains the History of about 142 Years, from the Death of Joseph to the finishing of the Tabernacle.

C H A P. I.

1 The Israelites multiply greatly in Egypt. 8 They are oppressed and brought into servitude by the Egyptians. 15 The king commandeth the midwives to kill all the Hebrew male children at the birth; 17 which they do not doing, 22 he commandeth all his people to cast every Hebrew male child into the river.

OW these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, every man and his household came with Jacob.

2 Reuben, Simcon, Levi, and Judah,

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

4 Dan, and Naphthali, Gad, and Aser.

5 And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob, were seventy souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already.

Moses' main Design in this particular is, to bring the Number of the Children of Israel, when they came into Egypt, to be in order to make it appear how GOD had fulfilled his Promise to Abraham, of multiplying his Seed, Gen. xv. 5.

6 And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.

This must be understood of a pretty long Space of Time; for Levi and Amram lived one hundred and thirty-seven Years, as Moses tells us, Gen. vi. 16, 20. and it was not till after them, and all the Men of that Generation were dead, that the new king arose.

7 ¶ And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

Here are several Words used of much the same Import, the more fully to denote their extraordinary Increase; only the fourth refers to their Increase in Power as well as Number, and intimates that they were grown formidable to the Egyptians, who now began to be jealous of their growing Power.

[And the Land was filled with them.] This may be understood without an Hyperbole; for since upwards of six hundred thousand fighting Men of them came out of Egypt, Num. ii. 45, 46. we may well suppose the whole to have amounted to two millions of Soul, a Number sufficient to fill the Land of Goshen, till it came like one continued City.

8 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph.

Viz. Who had no Love to Joseph, nor any grateful Remembrance of the eminent Services he had done to Egypt; nor, not to know, in Scripture, signifies not to love, not to regard.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we.

Viz. will, in Time, become more numerous, and mightier than we: supplying the Verb, shall be, instead of are; which Sense agrees with Lev. 16. Had they been actually more numerous and powerful, how should the Egyptians have been able to oppress them, and keep them in Slavery: Therefore others, by more and mightier, understand they are more proud, and bolder.

10 Come on, let us deal wisely with them: lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land.

They had heard the Israelites discourse, it is likely, that they never meant always to stay in Egypt, their Fathers coming only to sojourn there.

11 Therefore they did set over them task-masters, to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure-cities, Pithom and Raamses.

Viz. Magazines for preserving the Royal Stores of Corn, as well as Treasures of Money.

12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel.

But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied. ] So easy a Thing it is for Providence to turn the Counsels of foolish Mortals against themselves, Prov. xix. 21.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour.

14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

15 And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives of which the name of one was Shiphras, and the Name of the other Puah:

Doubtless these were not the only Midwives, for how could two be capable to serve a whole Nation; but, probably, these were the chief, and had the rest under their Government.

16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a son, then ye shall kill him, but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men-children alive.

They had too high a Sense of Religion and Humanity, to perpetrate such horrid Cruelty.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men-children alive?

19 And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women: for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.

It doth not appear that these Midwives told a Falshood, but only concealed some of the Truth; for the Hebrew Women might be, generally, such as they are here described. We may well suppose that the Hebrew Women, being so much oppressed by Labour, would be of a more tender and delicate Constitution than the rest of the Nation. But perhaps they were naturally so, or the Lord God, who is the Father of the Merciful, did endeavour to deliver them.

20 Therefore God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied, and grew very numerous.

21 And it came to pass, because the Egyptians feared God, that he made them servants.

The above Story of the Midwives, which is a Branch of the common Fable, GOD blesses the Midwives to whom they kept up Leah's House, and Family, in GOD's Providence, built them up into Families, and their Children, and made them prosperous. For the Midwives were highly in Scripture, read of in the Bible. — But a learned Writer interprets the Passage, Phar. 1, relating, actually to prevent the Increase of the Hebrews, *that they might not be able to maintain a war to deliver their Women in Child Bed out of the Way, to prevent their Children by shifting here and there, and doing formerly, when they lived up and down in the fields in Egypt, which was their ancient way of living. And with some Variation of the Story, and of the Passage thus, literally, according to the Hebrew, And God dealt well with the Midwives, and the People multiplied, and grew very numerous. — *And Pharaoh said unto the Midwives, Why do ye do this? And Pharaoh said unto them, Because ye have saved the Hebrews, and have made them servants.

22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

C H A P. II.

1 The birth of Moses. 2 He is exposed in an ark on the Nile; 3 Is taken up by Pharaoh's daughter; 4 Is brought up by her for her nurse. 5 He is called Moses. 6 He is called an Egyptian, 7 He is called one of them. 8 He is called into Midian; 9 And married there.

AND there went a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months.

Not that she would have destroyed him, had he been otherwise, but this Circumstance strengthened her natural Affection, and made her more concerned for his Preservation.

3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags, by the river's brink.

And when she could no longer hide him, ] For Fear of being informed against by some of her Egyptian Neighbour, with whom the Israelites lived intermixed, Gen. xii. 21. Thus Moses, who was afterwards to be the Deliverer of Israel, had himself like to have fallen a Sacrifice to the Fury of the Oppressor; GOD for ordering it, that being afterwards told of this, he might be the more animated with Zeal for the Deliverance of his Brethren out of the Hands of such bloody Men.

And she laid it in the Flag, ] That it might not be carried away by the Stream, intending, we may suppose, to come by Night to suckle the Child. Probably the Ark was made in Form of a Boat, that if it should chance to be carried away by the Stream, it might swim in the River: For we are assured that the Egyptians made Boats of the fore-named Reed or Bulrush.

4 And his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.

5 ¶ And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river, and her maidens walked along by the river's side: and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews children.

8 And she was well pleased, not only because the Child was preserved, but because she had now one exposed.

9 Then said his Father to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go, and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

Moses's Sister [having now come up, in such a Manner as looked like a Nurse, and having heard that the Result of the Child was such, she went back to some Hebrew Nurse, and desired her to come to the Princess to help her to a Nurse.

10 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Go. And thou shalt stand with me, and call the child's mother.

11 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.

Had the Child fallen into other Hands, they durst not have done otherwise but have thrown it into the River; but Providence brings no less a Person than Pharaoh's Daughter, and just at that Junction, guides her to the Place where the forlorn Infant lay.

12 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

She adopted him for her own, and gave him a princely Education; taking Care to have him instructed in all the Wisdom of the Egyptians, Acts vii. 22.

*See also a Name Moses,] Either from the Hebrew Word Moshe, that draweth out, as 2 Sam. x. in 17. 1 Chron. ii. or rather, from two Egyptian Words Mo and se, of the same Import.*

13 ¶ And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.

*He went out unto his Brethren,] By Brethren here we are to understand the Hebrews in general, who were all his Brethren, as descended from the same common Father Abraham. From this Time he resumed the Honours and Pleasures of Pharaoh's Court, that he might not be separated from the People of God, than to enjoy the Pleasures of Sin for a Season, &c. Heb. xi. 24.*

14 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

So strongly was Moses animated with an Abhorrence of Oppression, and how a dear Love he breathed to his Country, that he could not suffer this Outrage to pass unpunished. The Scripture intimates, that he intended by this Action to rouse the dormant Spirit of Liberty in his Countrymen, and prepare them for accepting that general Deliverance from Thralldom he was about to offer them in the Name of GOD. Acts vii. 25.

15 And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

16 And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killest the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

17 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well.

And dwelt in the Land of Midian:] The Hardships which Moses endured in this desert Land, and the Virtues he learned in this School of Adversity, at a Distance from the Pleasures of a Court where he had been educated, served not a little to qualify him for the Part he was afterwards to act, as the Deliverer of his People.

18 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

19 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

As the Shepherds came and drove them away:] Them is here in the masculine Gender, and therefore must in Propriety of Speech refer, not to the Daughters, but to the Flocks, or some Servants who were under the young Women. As in those Countries there is a great Scarcity of Water, and but few Wells, the Shepherds were apt to strive who should first get Possession of the Wells, lest others coming before should not leave Water enough for their Cattle.

20 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it that you are come so soon to day?

When they came to Reuel their Father,] In Numb. x. 29. Judg. iv. 11. the Father-in-law of Moses is called Hobab, the Son of Raguel; in Judg. i. 16. Guni; and in Exod. iii. 1. he is stiled Jethro; so that one and the same Person is thought to have been called by four Names, Raguel or Reuel, Hobab, Guni, and Jethro.

21 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

22 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread.

23 And Moses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses Zipporah his daughter.

Though the Scripture omits to mention what passed before Moses's Marriage, yet it is probable that he did not marry till he had been some Time in the Country, and gave Jethro Proofs of his virtuous Qualifications.

24 And she bare him a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

GERSHOM signifies a Stranger or Alien.

25 ¶ And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried; and their cry came up unto God, by reason of the bondage.

26 And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

27 And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God had respect unto them.

C H A P. III.

1 God appeareth to Moses; 7 And declareth to him, that he hath appointed him to bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt. 10 He ordereth him to go unto Pharaoh, 14 And directeth him how to proceed; 19 Declaring what would be the event.

NOW Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the back-side of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

Horeb was the Name of the Mountain then, it was not called the Mountain of GOD till afterwards, on Account of this divine Vision to Moses here, and from GOD's giving the Law from Mount Sinai which was a Part of it.

2 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

It appears that this was no other than our great Lord and Saviour JESUS CHRIST, for he is called GOD and THE LORD.

vers. 4, 6, 7, 14. It is probable that He is called He, and in other places, the Angel or the LORD, is being the Messenger between God and Moses or the Angel or the Lord of the Covenant of Moses, Mos' in 1.

By a Levee of Tears, we melt and melt in the Glory of His Love, an exceeding bright and pure splendour in our Hearts. We melt, even at the Entrance, or Entrance of this world, that is, the Place, now is injured by it, which was what it intended. And now, We have already observed, in the King of the Jews, that it was very usual, in those Days, to give information by Signs as well as Words, and that GOD often commanded His People to the Ce from. And this may account for the Reason of this Appearance. The Glory of GOD appearing in the Sight of the Bath, signified to Moses that GOD was present with His People in the Midst of all their Tribulations; and the Bath not being confined, represented that however close the Miseries might be suffered, yet their Afflictions should not continually confine them, or make an End of them. It appears from the Words of St. Stephen, Acts viii. 7, that Moses had been forty Years in Midian when this happened.

3 And Moles said, I will now turn aside, and see this great fight, why the bush is not burn.

4 And when the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I.

5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place wherein thou standest is holy ground.

From hence we may learn the Reverence that is due to GOD, whenever we approach Him in Prayer, when we come into His Temple, or when we even do but speak of Him; and indeed when we consider what a GREAT and GLORIOUS BEING He is, the profoundest Reverence, the lowest Abatement, the most awful Veneration, will appear too little, when we come before Him.

By Moses being commanded to put off his Shoes from his Feet, we may learn that all the Impurity of Sin, as well in Thought as Action, must be laid aside when we approach to GOD.—O most adorable BEING ! How can such Creature as we, at best with idle and wandering Thoughts, present our Petitions unto thee, to be acceptable in thy Sight, unless they are offered up through a Divine MEDIATOR, who ever liveth to make Intercession for us !

It is likely that the putting off the Shoes, as a Sign of Humiliation, and shewing Respect and Veneration, was observed by the Patriarchs in their religious Ceremonies; and being already established as such, GOD accommodated Himself to it as upon other Occasions, and requires Moses to perform it, not as of any Avail in itself, but as a received Mark and Testimony of awful Respect. By the Expression, The Place whereon thou standest is holy Ground, is meant that it was made so by this Divine Presence, or Appearance, and not by any particular inherent Quality.

6 Moreover he said, I ~~am~~ the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face: for he was afraid to look upon God.

Moses was afraid to look upon the glorious Appearance, lest he should be struck dead or blind by the overpowering Brightness. The Hebrews often use the singular for the plural, and therefore the God of the Father, should be better read the Fathers, and so it is in St. Stephen's Speech, Acts vii.

Our blessed SAVIOUR (St. Mark. xii. 32.) bring an Argument for the Resurrection from this Verity, for we and here GOD declaring, I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. He does not say I was or have been, but I am. Now Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, if we suppose the Period of their Existence ended on this Earth, were not as living, and therefore GOD could not declare himself to be their God; for GOD cannot be the God of the Dead; for his being a God to any one, must necessarily, Temporally, and Continually, and Effectually.

- 6 And the Lord said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry, by reason of their task-masters: for I know their sorrows.

8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land, unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Figure 7. The Mean  $H_{\text{max}}$  in the 100-MHz band plotted against the number of stations in the band. The solid line is the linear fit to the data.

9. Now that it is established, the case of the stability of fixed points can be made a little more subtle. Suppose  $\alpha$  is a fixed point of  $T$  and  $\alpha$  is not a fixed point of  $T^2$ . Then  $T^2\alpha \neq \alpha$  and  $T^2\alpha$  is a fixed point of  $T$ . If  $T^2\alpha \neq \alpha$ , then  $T^2\alpha$  is a fixed point of  $T$  and  $T^2\alpha$  is not a fixed point of  $T^2$ . This is a contradiction. Hence  $T^2\alpha = \alpha$  and  $\alpha$  is a fixed point of  $T^2$ . This completes the proof.

We must therefore hope that God will be merciful to our Country and our People, and that the Lord will prosper our Arms, and that the Lord will give us Victory over our Enemies. We are very much obliged to you for your kind and generous assistance. I have the honor to be, Sir, your most obedient servant, J. M. Smith.

to Come now the Lord, and I will fulfill the promise to Pharaoh, that thou mayest begeth many people the children of Israel and of the Egyptians.

11. C. And Mr. Pittman said, "Who is it that I should go into prison, and let my children go, for the children of Mr. Lott on the 22<sup>d</sup>?"

Was I When can I care for the Works of GOD, and I should those right Approaches with me, and to the Father of GOD?
MAY, who when I put Pox in the Temple, and when I put Dilemma, and thought him I did not do so, but I did, and when GOD commands him to go up on the Temple, and I he, how he, how great and glorious GOD, and how the conflict, and I am not having now, and I am not having the Temple, nor even having the Temple, and I am not conclude, how I am, and I am not having the Temple, and I bring them to the Temple. He considers not, and I of his Father, and I am not having the Temple, and I and I am not having the Temple, and I am not having hath revealed Himself to fully, yet we I am not having to us. For hence, and I am not having the Temple, and I quietude, and I am not having the Temple, and I Lives. If we would but fix it in our Minds, that GOD is suffering, and I am not having the Temple, and I nighly; and this our Care only would I am not having EL SHADDAI to be our GOD, and this we need not fear about, for He has promised that He will be found, or be the GOD, of those who seek Him.

12 And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: when thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

The Word Thus here, relate to the glorious Appearance in the Bush, which was sufficient to satisfy Moses what great Thing, GOD could do, and was a Proof that it was GOD who ordered him to go, and that therefore he would certainly be with him, and make him successful. But such is the Weakness of the Heart of Man, such a Confidence does it place in human Means, so little does Man look up to any Thing but his own Power, that we find even this could not satisfy Moses, that the Undertaking was practicable!

13 And Moſe ſaid unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Iſrael, and ſhall ſay unto them, The God of your fathers hath ſent me unto you; and they ſhall ſay to me, What is his name? What ſhall I ſay unto them?

By the Question, why Mos did not desire to be informed whether the Loka who applied to Shoo was to be his master, namely Ashoo or Pashoo, or whether some Ngah he was wont to call was to deliver the Lo to him, it is manifestly evident, that in those Days Nature was always expressive or representative of the Nature or Quality of the Persons whom they were affixed to; and even when GOD himself was pleased to give Names, of which we have seen before, in Scripture, they were always expressive of the Nature or Circumstance of the Person they were given to: Thus Abraham was called Abraham was taken out of the Ground and Isaac Isaac because he was to be a Father of many Nations. And therefore, when Mos asked to know GOD's Name, he desired that which would give him Information of his Nature and Attributes; that when he went to the Land, he acquainted them that their GOD had appointed him and them to live in Mount Horeb, and they might ask him, whether he knew what a Being their GOD was, and how he expected to be served by them, he might be able to inform them, by knowing what Name GOD would call him, for by so this he knew would be expressive of his Nature or At-nities. The first (Exod. xiii. 18, 19.) that GOD pronounced to Moses, whereby is plainly meant his Nature, viz. The Lord God, merciful, loving, suffering, and abundant in Goodness and Truth, &c. This Hebrew, prophesying the Nature of the Messiah, declares his Name to be Wonderful, Counsellor, the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. And it appears, even from the Answer of GOD to this Question of Moses, that this was what Moses desired to be informed about; for GOD here declares himself by a Name directly expressive of his Nature, a Name incompatible to any other Being whatsoever, a Name whereby he is distinguished from all that are called Gods, whether in Heaven or on Earth.

14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: And he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

How noble! how majestic! how comprehensive are these few Words! How suitable and expressive of a GOD! None but the TRUE GOD could thus nobly and fully have named HIMSELF; nor could Moses, with all the Learning of the Hebrews, have affixed such a true Name to GOD, unless it had been revealed unto him. It is a Name most highly and majestically expressive of the incommunicable Nature and Essence of the SUPREME BEING; as much as to say, I AM HE of whom alone it can be said with strict Propriety, I AM; or, as the Septuagint renders this Place, I AM HE who IS; or, as the Greek, I AM HE who IS, and who will BE. That is, I enjoy an essential, independent, immutable, and necessary Existence, the same Yesterday, To-day, and for ever: or, as St. John hath it, Rev. i. 4. He which IS, and which WAS, and which IS to come. Other Beings are, and have been, and shall be; but because what they have been, might have been otherwise, and what they are, might possibly not have been at all, and what they shall be, may be very different from what now is, therefore their changeable, independent, and precarious Essence, which To-day may be one Thing, To-morrow another Thing, and the next Day possibly nothing at all, scarce deserves the Name of BEING. — There is another Consideration which makes this NAME peculiarly applicable to the DEITY, namely, That He is the Fountain of all Being, and Perfection, and that from Him all Things have derived their Existence: So that it is He alone that has Life in himself; whereas we and all Creatures, of whatever Rank or Order, have not so much as an Existence of our own: For he that created us, and made us, has our Being, as He giveth to all Living Beings, and all Things, Acts xvii. 25. And though divers of GOD's Attributes are, through His Goodness, participated by his Creatures, yet the Scripture makes so vast a Disparity betwixt the Excellencies that it ascribes to Men, and the same Perfections considered as they exist in GOD, that it seems absolutely to exclude created Beings from any Title to those Attributes; because they possess them but in a Way so inferior to that transcendent, peculiar, and divine Manner, in which they belong to GOD. Thus our SAVIOUR says to him, that (taking him but for a Man) called him good, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is GOD, Matt. xiv. 16, 19. Thus St. Paul calls GOD, (or CHRIST) the ONLY POTENTATE, 2 Tim. vi. 15. though the Earth be flayed by several Potentates. Thus, though there be wise Virgins as well as foolish, Matt. xxv. 5. yet St. Paul scruples not to term his Maker, the only true GOD, 1 Tim. i. 17. And thus he elsewhere paraphrases him, He that hath only Immortality, 1 Tim. vi. 18. though Angels and Human Souls be deathless. In so incommunicable a Manner does the Superiority of GOD's Nature make Him possess those very Excellencies, which the Diffusiveness of His Goodness makes Him pleased to communicate!

15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

Here GOD declares that he would be known, by the Name I AM, to ever, to all Generations: So that we ought to consider this as a further Revelation of the Relation which he stands in to his Creatures. He first revealed himself only as the LORD, the SUPREME GOVERNOR, the CREATOR and POSSESSOR of Heaven and Earth. He was then pleased to declare himself as the ALL-SUFFICIENT to Man. And here he further represents himself to us as an UNIVERSAL GOOD, and leaves us to make the Application of it to ourselves, according to our several Wants, Capacities, and Desires, by his declaring himself to Mankind by the Name I AM. As much as to say, "Are they weak? I am Strength. Are they poor? I am Riches. Are they in Trouble? I am Comfort. Are they sick? I am Health. Are they dying? I am Life. Have they nothing? I am all Things. I am Wisdom and Power, I am Justice and Mercy, I am Grace and Goodness, I am Glory, Beauty, Holiness, Eminency, Supereminency, Perfection, All-Sufficiency, Eternity, Jehovah. I AM. Whatsoever is suitable to their Nature, or convenient for them in their several Conditions, that I AM: Whatsoever is amiable in itself, or desirable unto them, that I AM: Whatsoever is pure and holy, whatsoever is great or glorious, whatsoever is good or needful to make Men happy, that I AM."

Here therefore we may plainly see, that from the Declarations or Discoveries which it has pleased GOD to make of his Attributes, and of the Relation which he stands in to Man, that there must needs be more solid Joy and Comfort, more real Delight and Satisfaction, of Mind, in one single Thought of GOD, rightly formed, than all the Riches, Honours, and Pleasures of this World, put them all together, are able to afford. O most adorable Being! let the Tribute of the warmest Praise ascend to thee from us, who are blessed with these Discoveries of thy gracious Attributes, and the Relation thou standest in to Man. What peculiar Happiness hath thou bestowed upon us, by this glorious and distinguishing Privilege, which many of our fellow Creatures do not enjoy! O almighty and gracious being! (for thou hast permitted us to pray for it) hasten the Time of the Coming of thy Kingdom, that the Earth may be full of the Knowledge of the Lord, as the Waters cover the Sea. When the Mountain of the Lord's House shall be established in the Top of the Mountains, and shall be exalted above the Hills, and all Nations shall flow unto it: When they shall teach no more every Man his Neighbour, and every Man his Brother, saying, Know the Lord; but they shall all know thee, from the least of them unto the greatest.

16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt.

17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt, unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

GOD doth not only see our Afflictions, but He is affected with them; that is, acts as though He felt them: His Holy Prophet Isaiah has not scrupled to say, speaking of this and other Afflictions of the Israelites, In all their Afflictions he was afflicted; and then immediately follows as the natural Consequence of this, And the Angel of his Presence saved them; in his Love, and in his Pity, he redeemed them, and he bare them and carried them all the Days of old, Isaiah lxiii. 3. — O how great is the Height, and Depth, and Breadth of the Love of GOD to Man! But though GOD hath this tender Sense of our Afflictions, He does not always hastily or immediately deliver us, but brings an opportune or seasonable Relief; that is, when it is best for us; for it comes not always when it is most desired, but when it is most fit; and when that is, He that hath at once all present, past, and future Things in His Prospect, is fittest to determine. CHRIST's Words to his Disciples, It is not for you to know the Times or the Seasons, which the Father hath put in his own Power, are applicable to more Cases than that which occasioned them. The Israelites (comprising the Patriarchs, their Progenitors,) were reduced to wait 430 Years, ere they were introduced into the promised Land; and during a great Part of that long Space of Time, languished and groaned under the heavy Burthens, and other as heavy Pressures, of the cruel Egyptians. St. Paul himself prayed the LORD thrice for the Removal of that Thorn in the Flesh, which was so grievous to him. Lazarus, to whom, even during his Sickness, CHRIST vouchsafed (a Title to which all Cæsar's were but Trifles) the Style of FRIEND, John xi. 2. (which emboldened the pious Mary to paraphrase him by he whom thou lovest, Ver. iii.) was permitted not only to lie a dying, but to die; his Rescue being deferred, till it was thought impossible; and was so indeed to any less Power than OMNIPOTENCE: Which manifests, that as no Degree of Distress is unrelievable by his Power, so no Extremity of it is inconsistent with his Compassion; no, not with his Friendship. He whose Spirit inspired the Prophets, is in the last of them represented under the Notion of a REFINER, Mal. iii. 3. And it is not the Custom of Refiners to snatch the beloved Metal out of the Fire, as soon as it feels the Violence of that purifying Element; nay, nor as soon as it is melted by it; but they let it long endure the Brunt of the active Flames, actuated by exciting Blasts, till it has stood its due Time in the Fire, and there obtained its full Purity and Splendor.

18 And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and you shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath met with us; and now let us go (we beseech thee) three days journey into into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

19 ¶ And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand.

Or as some render it, Until by a strong Hand, viz. till he had been humbled by the Power of GOD.

20 And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof : and after that he will let you go.

21 And I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians : and it shall come to pass, that when ye go, ye shall not go empty :

To give Favour here, does not signify, as in other Places, to procure them Love and Good-will; for in this Sense the Egyptians had no Favour for the Israelites, but to dispose them to grant the Thing desired. The Egyptians were reduced to such Extremity, by the sore Judgments which GOD inflicted upon them, that they hesitated not to grant the Israelites any Thing they asked, that they might get them out of the Land.

22 But every woman shall borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ye shall spoil the Egyptians.

We find from Exod. xi. 2. that all the People, the Men as well as the Women, were to borrow these Things : But the original Word שָׁאֵל, which our Translation renders here TO BORROW, signifies much oftener, TO ASK, than TO BORROW, as it is rendered Gen. xxvii. 17. Josh. xix. 50. Judg. viii. 24. 1 Sam. i. 20. 1 Chron. iv. 10. The rendering of it here BORROW, hath given Occasion to the Enemies of the Holy Scriptures to reflect on the Israelites, as injuring the Egyptians in a mean and base Manner ; whereas the true Fact seems to have been, that the Israelites actually demanded or required these Things of the Egyptians, as a Compensation for the Services with which they had served them for several Years ; and the Egyptians being terrified with the Judgments of the LORD, were urgent, as appears from Exod. xii. 33. to send the Israelites out of the Land in Haste, lest they should be all dead Men ; and therefore they readily gave whatever they required : And if we consider that the Egyptians had unjustly made the Israelites to serve them for a Course of Years, with a grievous Servitude, and without any Hire, their Demand of having some Recompence made them, appears founded upon the strictest Equity ; for though Individuals, who had never injured the Israelites, might possibly be damaged by this, yet this is no more than happens, and is allowed of when one People demands Satisfaction of another, upon any Account ; for each Individual is supposed to be liable to make Reparation as well as the State in general. But the Idea of borrowing, with no Intention of repaying, which our Translation conveys, represents an Action of such Baseness, as we cannot well suppose GOD would allow of, upon any Occasion. For the whole Earth is the LORD's, and He giveth the Riches thereof to whomsoever He pleaseth, taking from one and giving to another ; and this by His Power only, without needing to have Recourse to any Means which have the Appearance of Weakness or Evil. And this is what He did here : by terrifying the Egyptians with the wonderful Acts of His Power, He made them part with their Wealth to the Israelites.

C H A P. IV.

1 God confirms Moses in his mission, by two miraculous signs, and by repeated promises of his assistance. 14 Aaron is appointed to assist him. 18 Moses sets out to go into Egypt. 21 God's message to Pharaoh. 24 The angel of the Lord meets Moses in the desert, to punish him for not having circumcised his son. 27 God commandeth Aaron to go to meet Moses. 30 They speak to the Israelites, as God had commanded them to do.

AND Moses answered, and said, But behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

Moses here observes, that notwithstanding the glorious Vision he had seen of GOD, and all that he had heard him speak, yet this would not signify any Thing to the Israelites, for they would reply to all that he could say to them, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee. And how could he gainsay them, and convince them that He had? GOD seems to allow of this Objection, and gives Moses a Power of working Miracles in the Sight of the People, that they might believe in His Word. This is very different from our Observation, because it proves that Miracles are the necessary Proof of a Divine Mission; for who ever can be shown to work them, cannot give Satisfaction or Certainty, because no man can be led and thought of as pretending to a Divine Commission, without this seal of it, as Moses was terrible to those who were angry to him, De Loon with respect to the people, and Jesus to those who then we find a Power that Jesus or Moses was the only one, for He came with Signs and Miracles, more than Moses ever wrought. And it is evident from GOD's giving this Power to Moses, that His Wisdom saw it to be the fittest Way of convincing Mankind, and the most proper, and even necessary testimony, to acknowledge He should rule. And therefore it appears that Moses must, however successful, must have been an impostor, if he did not bring with him the Testimony of a Divine Commission; for though there may be false Pretences to Miracles, whereby we may be deceived, and therefore it is necessary to examine the Doctrine, whether it be of GOD, as well as pay Regard to the pretended Miracle; yet it is certain that whenever GOD makes a new Revelation to Mankind, he must employ the Person who delivers it, with the Power of working Miracles, as the Seal or Token of his Commission; because in whatsoever Manner GOD hath revealed Himself to him, and in whatsoever Manner he reports it, yet there will be always Room and Reason to suspect, or deny his Mission, if he brings any new Revelation, because Man being naturally upon the Time Footing, there seems to be a necessity, in the Reason of Things, that whoever comes in GOD's Name to reveal any Thing new to Mankind, should bring with him certain and incontestable Proof that he is sent of GOD. Therefore we see, in the Case before us, that though GOD had appeared to Moses in a very wonderful Way, and though He had revealed to him His Name or Attributes in a most majestic and Godlike Manner, yet He seems to allow that this could be no Proof to the Israhelites, and therefore gives him a Power of working Signs, before their Eyes, of his Divine Commission, by stupendous Acts of more than Human Power.

There is another Particular highly deserving our Notice here, viz. That Moses thought that when he was in high Power, in the Egyptian Court, was the Time to deliver his Brethren; but GOD thought otherwise, and saw it to be most fit and consistent with his Honour and Glory, to send him upon this important Commission with only his Rod, or Shepherd's Staff. This whole great Affair was to be accomplished by the plain Means of Moses's stretching out his Rod. There was to be none of the Pomp or Power of Human Force employed in delivering GOD's People: Moses was to act not as a Commander of mighty Armies, not with the Grandeur or Ostentation of a Sovereign or Conqueror, but as the Messenger of GOD, with no other Apparatus than the Power of Him that sent him. If then GOD thus thought fit to deliver His People from the Egyptian Bondage, without any of the Pomp of Human Power, have we not Reason to think (as every Act of His is founded upon the most unalterable Wisdom) that it was most consistent with His Attributes, and the Nature of Things, that the SAVIOUR of the World, who was to deliver Mankind from the Bondage of Sin and Death, should come meek and lowly, without any of the Pageantry of Human Pomp, GREAT only in the Power of Him that sent him? Will the Jews object against the SAVIOUR we believe in, because He came without any of the Attendance of Human Greatness, and never aimed to be an earthly King? O foolish of Heart! did not Moses, whom you allow to have been your great Deliverer, come in the same Manner? With what did he appear before Pharaoh, to demand him to let you go, but only his Shepherd's Staff? Were you at hand, ready on his Orders, in Case of Refusal, to oblige the insolent Monarch by Force of Arms to grant the Demand? No; you were slavishly groaning under your Burdens, without Spirit, and without Strength, and your Deliverer came wholly unarmed but with the Power of GOD. Why, therefore, should the SAVIOUR of the World be rejected by you, only because he came in the same Manner? Is it not rather a Reason for your receiving him? If GOD worked one Deliverance for you by such Means, is it not reasonable to think he may work others, as GOD is the same Yesterday, To-day, and for Ever?

2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod.

Probably this was his Shepherd's Staff, for he was now feeding his Father-in-law's Flocks, when GOD appeared unto him.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground; and he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent: and Moses fled from before it.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail: And he put forth his hand and caught it, and it became a red in his hand.

What

5 That they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

The obvious Meaning of this Verse is, "Thou shalt do this before them, in order to convince them, if they doubt whether I have sent thee."

6 ¶ And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom; and he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow.

7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again: and he put his hand into his bosom again, and plucked it out of his bosom, and behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.

The insiding of this Disease, and curing it again in an Instant, was so much the greater Miracle, as the Leprosy is a Disease reckoned next to incurable by human Art; especially the white Leprosy, so called because it overspreads the Skin with white Spots like Snow.

8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.

The Meaning is, that such as will not be prevailed upon by the first Sign, shall generally be prevailed upon by the second; or, if any be so obstinate as to stand out against the second, they shall be convinced by a third. Perhaps the Words might be better rendered, that they may believe; for they do not so much forestall the Event, as the Design and Purpose of these Signs. We may observe a great Propriety and Energy in this Expression, the Voice of the sign, since those Miracles, in Effect, speak in the Ear of Reason, and said, Believe in him whom God hath sent.

9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry-land: and the water which thou takest out of the river, shall become blood upon the dry-land.

10 And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

What we translate slow of Speech, signifies (Exek. iii. 5.) a strange Speech, and hard to be understood; in which Sense Moses would intimate that he could not speak intelligibly to the Israhelites and Egyptians, having in a great Measure forgot their Language, through forty Years Disuse in the Land of Midian.

11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

12 Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

13 And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou wilt send.

Or, Shouldst thou send, that is, a more proper Person, one fitter for the Employment than I am. It would seem, as if Moses imagined that GOD was all along determined to send another Ambassador on this Errand, and only proposed it to him for the Trial of his Faith.

14 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

And the Lord said to the Lord, Exek. vi. 1. i.e. he acted as Men do when they are in Anger, he rebukes him, and testifies his Discontentment with his obstinate Conduct.

And the Lord said to the Lord, Exek. vi. 1. i.e. he acted in Wisdom and Conduct, like his brother in Eloquence. Such is the wise Order of Providence; as in the human Body the various Members have their different Use and Function, all submitting to the Good of the whole; so it is in Society, the Body politic, GOD has dispersed different Gifts to different Members, and it is seldom he gives all Accomplishment to one; but to preserve a mutual Dependence and Relation, he has distributed some to one, some to others, Rom. xii. 4.

15 And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do.

16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God.

That is, he shall be thy Organ or Minister to publish thy Orders to the People; and thou shalt be his Oracle, to deliver to him my Mind and Will.

17 And thou shalt take this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do signs.

Not that there was any inherent Virtue in the Rod, but only GOD had determined to show his Power by the Use of it.

18 ¶ And Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren, which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

Justice and Decency required Moses to acquaint His Father in Law with his Intention of going into Egypt, because he had bound himself by an Oath to live with him: But he thought fit to conceal from him the Errand upon which GOD sent him, lest he should endeavour to hinder or discourage him from so difficult and dangerous an Enterprize. So that Moses, in this Instance, has given us a rare Example of Piety and Prudence, in that he took Care to avoid all Occasions and Temptations to Disobedience to the Divine Commands; as well as of singular Modesty and Humility, in that, such glorious and familiar converse with GOD, and the high Commission with which He had honoured him, made him neither forget the Civility and Duty which he owed to his Father, nor break out into any publick and vain-glorious Ostentation of such a Privilege.

19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for all the men are dead which sought thy life.

20 And Moses took his wife, and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the rod of God in his hand.

It is here called the Rod of God, because GOD had ordained it to work Signs and Wonders by.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those wonders before Pharaoh which I have put in thine hand: But I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go.

GOD neither is, nor can be, in any Manner, the Occasion of Sin, or the Hardness of Heart in Evil; and, therefore, the Meaning of this Expression in Scripture, of GOD's hardening the Heart of any one, is no more than that he leaves them to themselves, to do what their evil Heart inclines them to, without laying any Check upon them. For we may observe, that GOD in the Phrase of the Scriptures, is said to do many Things, which from the very Nature of them it is plain he did not do, but only permitted to come to pass.

22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, Israel is my son, even my first-born.

GOD is the common PARENT of the Universe, all Mankind are his Sons, and share his extensive Bounty: But GOD, for the general Benefit of the World, had singled out the Israhelites to be the Depositories of his Laws and Religion, to preserve them pure amidst the idolatrous Nations; and as such, had conferred upon them many singular Privileges, such as those which Moses are are wont to bestow upon their First-born, in Exclusion of the rest of their Children.

23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me : and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy first-born.

Not only the First-born of Pharaoh himself, and the Heir to his Crown, but the First-born of all his People, ch. xii. 29.

24 ¶ And it came to pass by the way in the inn, that the LORD met him, and sought to kill him.

Here our Translation uses the modern Word INN ; but the Original signifies only the Place where they rested that Night, which was probably in some Cave, or under some Shade of Trees.

The Lord met him, ] i. e. An Angel appeared to him, sent by GOD to execute what is here related. So the LXX, the Chaldee, and other Versions have the Angel of the Lord.

And sought to kill him. ] He appeared in a threatening Posture, and put him in Fear of his Life.

25 Then Zipporah took a sharp stone, and cut off the fore-skin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband art thou to me.

Took a sharp Stone, ] Or a sharp Knife made of Flint ; for such they anciently used.

And said, Surely a bloody Husband thou art to me. ] The obvious Sense of this, as it stands in our Translation, seems to be, that Zipporah upbraided Moses, as much as to say, This I have for marrying an Hebrew. But the Septuagint renders this Passage in a different Manner, thus, Zipporah having circumcised the Child, fell at Moses's Feet, and said, The Blood of the Circumcision is stopped : and having said so, she went away from him ; i. e. she and her Children went home to Midian, when she found the Child was out of Danger, and able to travel.

26 So he let him go : then she said, A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.

So he let him go : ] i. e. The Angel let him quietly go on his Journey. The Original will bear an easier Sense ; So he departed from him.

From this Circumstance of Moses being threatened by the Angel of the LORD, on Account of his not having circumcised his Son, we may learn that the Commands of GOD, even those which relate only to Things external, and indifferent in their own Nature, ought to be inviolably observed.

27 ¶ And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him.

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD, who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him.

29 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went, and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel.

30 And Aaron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.

31 And the people believed : and when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

And the People believed, but not, as we find, till after the Signs had been wrought in their Sight. So that we here see, that the working of Miracles is the most convincing Proof of a divine Mission ; therefore, it behoved the Saviour of the World to come in this Manner, rather than with any of the Pomp of human Power. And, agreeable to this, the Evangelist, speaking of our SAVIOUR'S Miracles, says, These Things were done that we might believe in him, and believing might have Eternal Life.

C H A P . V.

1 Moses and Aaron deliver their message to Pharaoh ; 2 who will not hearken to them, 5 but treats the Israelites with greater severity. 19 They murmur against Moses and Aaron. 22 Moses complaineth to God.

AND afterward Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go ? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go.

The Egyptians and other Nations were at this Time sunk into Idolatry, and knew nothing of the true GOD, the Possessor of Heaven and Earth, but each Nation had its own God. Pharaoh, therefore, did not mean here that he knew nothing of any God, whom he ought to obey ; nor ought we to suppose that he bids Defiance to God Almighty, but only that he knew nothing of the God of the Hebrews ; nor thought himself obliged to pay any Regard to him ; for what our Version renders the Lord God of Israel, should be rendered your God, the God of your fathers.

3 And they said, the God of the Hebrews hath met with us : let us go, we pray thee, three days journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God ; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword.

Though it was the Intention of the Israelites quite to leave Egypt, yet the Request was made only to go three Days Journey into the Desert, to sacrifice. Probably this modest Demand was made to let the Tyranny of the King in a stronger Light, who would not indulge them in this small Liberty, even for the Performance of religious Rites. And as this Demand was made by the direct Order of GOD, who knew that Pharaoh would not grant it, it takes away all Appearance of there being any artful Design in it to deceive Pharaoh.

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works ? get you unto your burdens.

The last Sentence of this Verse was not addressed to Moses and Aaron, but to the Israelites, the Elders of whom went with Moses, and probably several others had followed Moses, when he went in unto Pharaoh, impatient to see what the Event would be.

5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are many, and you make them rest from their burdens.

Pharaoh's Meaning seems to be, that now they were grown numerous, by the Law for destroying their Infants being abolished, (which probably lasted not long, appearing too cruel to be put in Execution) they began to be mutinous and rebellious.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the task-masters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore : let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the tale of the bricks which they did make heretofore, you shall lay upon them ; you shall not diminish ought thereof : for they be idle ; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein : and let them not regard vain words.

10 ¶ And the task-masters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where you can find it : yet not ought of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the task-masters hastened them, saying, Fulfil your works, your daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's task-masters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick, both yesterday and to day, as heretofore?

These Officers were probably some of the Heads or principal of the Ishachites, who were obliged, under the Penalty of Punishment, to take Care that such a Number of Bricks were furnished daily by the People.

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.

17 But he said, Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go, and do sacrifice to the LORD.

18 Go therefore now and work: for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil case, after it was said, Ye shall not minish ought from your bricks of your daily task.

20 ¶ And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh.

21 And they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because you have made our favour to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hands to slay us.

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil intreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

Here we see in the Children of Israel and Moses a true Picture of our Nature in general. By whatsoever Name, or in whatsoever Manner, GOD is pleased to reveal himself to us; however many Instances of his Providence we are struck with, however much we are often obliged by the Force of Evidence, to say Surely the Lord is in all; and to acknowledge that it is his Hand that saves and delivers us, and blesteth us in all Things; yet no sooner does his Wisdom act in any other Manner, than our weak Wisdom thinks it should, but we immediately fall into Fears and Distrust, as if GOD's Power was at an End, as if he could forget his Promises, and as if his Hand was shortened that it could not save. We grow impatient, fall into indecent Murmurs and Complaints, and give ourselves up to the most tormenting Despair, often at the very Time that he is preparing to do us the greatest Good.

C H A P. VI.

1 God comforteth Moses by reminding him of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. 6 He sendeth him to the Ishachites with fresh assurances of deliverance: 9 But they will not hearken to him. 10 God commandeth him to go in again unto Pharaoh. 14 A summary genealogy of the families of Reuben and Simeon: 16 And a more particular one of Levi, to shew the descent of Moses and Aaron.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

Here we see how full of Long-suffering and great Goodness GOD is; instead of harshly reproving Moses for his Impatience, and his injurious Complaints, he condescends to give him fresh Assurances of his Power, and his Determination to deliver the Ishachites.

With a strong Hand shall he let them go, ] The Word forced or obliged is understood here; forced by a strong Hand, &c. The Expression of driving out is made Use of to signify the Haste with which the Egyptians should press the Ishachites to depart, when their first-born should be stricken.

2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD:

3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

What is said here of GOD or the LORD's not being known to the Patriarchs by the Name of JEHOVAH, cannot be understood, as it here stands, literally of the Name; for, if so, it apparently contradicts the Book of Genesis, from ch. xii. to the End of it, and the third Chapter of this very Book, ver. 13—15. For wherever we find THE LORD in our Translation, the Word in the Hebrew is generally JEHOVAH; and consequently, it is evident that GOD declared himself to these Patriarchs by the Name JEHOVAH, as may be seen Gen. xv. 6, 7. xxii. 16. and in several other Places. And Gen. xxii. 14. it is said that Abraham called the Name of the Place where he had been ordered to offer his Son, JEHOVAH-JIREH. But how could Abraham call this Place JEHOVAH-JIREH, that is, THE LORD will provide, if he was not known to him by this Name? This has made the best and most accurate Writers conclude, that the latter Part of this Verse should be read interrogatively, thus: By my Name JEHOVAH was I not known to them? If we read it in this Way, it plainly intimates that the LORD had revealed himself to them by this Name, which is agreeable to the Account we have in the Book of Genesis, of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob's Knowledge and Worship of the DEITY. But if we do not read it in this Manner, we must not understand it of the Name itself, but of the Power and Virtue which the Name expresses, viz. not only GOD's eternal Existence, but his omnipotent Power likewise, and his unchangeable Truth, existing in Act. And then the Meaning of the Passage will be, that though GOD had revealed himself to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, as the EL-SHADDAI, the ALMIGHTY, or ALL-SUFFICIENT, yet they did not live to see the Accomplishment of his Promises, and therefore though they believed, yet they did not experimentally know that he was a God of unchangeable Truth; nor had they experienced that all the Powers of Nature were in his Hand, and that he could change them as he pleased, and even communicate the Power of doing so to Man. They indeed had Dreams and Visions, but it was to Moses that GOD first shewed his Power of making Alterations in Nature, or working Miracles and Prodigies. What makes this Sense of the Passage probable, is, that the knowing of JEHOVAH is spoken of in this Way ch. vii. ver. 5. And the Egyptians shall know that I am JEHOVAH, when I stretch forth my Hand upon Egypt.

4 And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.

5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage: and I have remembered my covenant.

6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage: and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments.

7 And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

I will take you to me, &c.] Or, I will retake you to me; for by Virtue of the Covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and his Posterity, the Descendants of Jacob were constituted the People of God. But while they were in Bondage for some Generations in Egypt, GOD had treated them not as his People: Or rather they had revolted from GOD to the Worship of Idols, and so broke their Covenant with him.

8 And I will bring you in unto the land concerning the which I did swear to give it, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for an heritage: I am the LORD.

9 ¶ And Moses spake so unto the children of Israel: but they hearkened not unto Moses, for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And

12 And Moses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who am of uncircumcised lips?

Among the Hebrews Circumcision was a Sign of Perfection, and therefore the Term uncircumcised, was made Use of to express any Thing that was imperfect, or that wanted somewhat; and therefore, uncircumcised Lips means a Person that could not speak well.

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Israel, and unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

14 ¶ These be the heads of their fathers houses: The sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel; Hanoth, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi: these be the families of Reuben.

15 And the sons of Simeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman: these are the families of Simeon.

16 ¶ And these are the names of the sons of Levi, according to their generations; Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari: And the years of the life of Levi were an hundred thirty and seven years.

Having briefly mentioned the Heads of the two eldest Families of Israel, he enlarges now upon the third, from which Aaron and he himself were descended.

17 The sons of Gershon; Libni, and Shimi, according to their families.

18 And the sons of Kohath; Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel: And the years of the life of Kohath were an hundred thirty and three years.

19 And the sons of Merari; Mahali and Mushi: these are the families of Levi, according to their generations.

20 And Amram took him Jochebed his father's sister to wife; and she bare him Aaron and Moses: and the years of the life of Amram were an hundred and thirty and seven years.

21 ¶ And the sons of Izhar; Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri.

22 And the sons of Uzziel; Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Zithri.

23 And Aaron took him Elisheba daughter of Aminadab, sister of Naashon, to wife; and she bare him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

24 And the sons of Korah; Assir, and Elkannah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korhites.

25 And Eleazar Aaron's son took him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife; and she bare him Phinehas: these are the heads of the fathers of the Levites, according to their families.

26 These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom the LORD said, Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt, according to their armies.

27 These are they which spake to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt: these are that Moses and Aaron.

28 ¶ And it came to pass on the day when the LORD spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt, Here Moses resumes the Relation of his Embassy, which he had broke off at ver. 13. and the Series of the History shews, that these three last Verses immediately connect with the seventh Chapter, which therefore ought to begin here.

29 That the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, I am the LORD: speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say unto thee.

[From the Lat. Heb. I am the LORD, which implies an Argument to encourage Moses in his Mission. I am the LORD, I change not, therefore with the Inconstancy of the Idols, nor Pharaoh's Obstinacy, shall I alter or retract the Decree of my People, but I will bring to Pass the Things that are not.

30 And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me?

C H A P. VII.

1 God called Moses and Aaron agents to Pharaoh. 8 And Aaron cast his rod before Lim, which became a serpent. 11 But the sorcerers doing the like, Pharaoh's heart was hardened. 14 God's message to Pharaoh. 17 The manner of the first plague.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

That is, thou shalt be like a God, whose Oracles shall be delivered to Pharaoh by Aaron thy Prophet, thy Minister or Interpreter.

2 Thou shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

3 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

For what is to be understood by GOD's hardening Pharaoh's Heart, see the Note on Ex. ix. ver. 21.

4 But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt, by great judgments.

5 And the Egyptians shall know, that I am the LORD, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

That is, they shall know that I am not a mere local Deity, nor the God of Israel only, but JEHOVAH, the supreme GOD of the Universe: Of this they shall be convinced, when they find my Power far superior to that of their Gods, and that they are no ways able to save them from my Judgments.

6 And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.

7 And Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying,

9 When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, Shew a miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent.

[When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, &c.] i. e. When he shall demand a Proof of your Authority, and such a Proof as can only proceed from divine Power.

10 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

Moses delivered his Rod to Aaron, as an Agent under him, to stretch it out for the effecting of the Miracles; see the preceding Verse, and ch. iv. 30. Pharaoh then having, it is likely, demanded a Proof of their Authority, Moses proceeds to give Evidence of his divine Commission before the King and his Courtiers.

11 Then Pharaoh also called the wise men, and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

13 And he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

In the Hebrew it is, Pharaoh's Heart is hardened, and it is the very same Phrase which we render Pharaoh's Heart was hardened, ver. 22. and ought to have been so rendered here, as it is in other Versions: for there is not the least Hint, either in one Place or the other, of any Person who hardened his Heart.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.

15 Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning, lo, he goeth out unto the water, and thou shalt stand by the river's brink, against he come, and the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness: and behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear.

Dryant
fræ
ins. l. 16.
17 Thus saith the LORD, in this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand, upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall lothe to drink of the water of the river.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded: and he lift up the rod and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants: and all the waters that were in the river, were turned to blood.

The Word ALL, here and in the foregoing Verse, is either to be understood in a limited Sense, as it is frequently used in the Scriptures, meaning only a very great Part, but not ALL in the strictest Sense: or else, though Moses's Commission extended to all the Waters in Egypt, yet it was only executed upon the River Nile: Because, we read that the Magicians did the same Thing; but if Moses turned all the Waters into Blood, as some Scoffers have with great Raillery and Triumph observed, how could the Magicians do the same, when there was no Waters for them to make the Trial upon.

21 And the fish that was in the river, died: and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river: and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the LORD had said.

The principal Thing to be enquired about in this Chapter is, the Magicians performing the same Miracles as Moses. The Generality of Writers suppose, that what the Magicians performed were false Appearances, and Deceptions of the Sight; but as the Text seems to make no Manner of Difference between the Miracles of Moses and those of the Magicians, but says expressly that they did the same as Moses, there is little Ground for this Conjecture. It seems highly probable, therefore, that they were real Miracles; and the Question that remains will be, how they came to perform them. And first we must consider, that the Egyptians entertained high Notions at that Time of the elementary and planetary Influences, and conceived that mighty Things were to be performed by the Study and right Knowledge of these. When Pharaoh, therefore, saw Moses's Rod turned into a Serpent, he did not consider it as an Instance of the Power of Jehovah, the GOD of Israel, but concluded that it was done by a Knowledge in the Mysteries of Science, and the Powers of Nature; and therefore, he immediately sent for the Magicians, to see if they could perform the same. Kings, we know, expect to be obeyed; we have an Example in Nebuchadnezzar how far they sometimes carry this, who commanded all the wise Men and Magicians in Babylon to be put to Death, because they could not tell him what he had dreamed of. Pharaoh's Magicians, when they were called before him on this Occasion, whatever they thought of the Matter, were undoubtedly afraid and ashamed to confess their Ignorance and Want of Power to Pharaoh, and therefore they set about their Incantments, perhaps with little Expectation of Success; however, it pleased GOD to cause their Rods to be changed into Serpents, probably to their great Surprise. What they thought about it, we cannot say; it is not unlikely they might imagine there was more in their Art, than they had conceived before. However this might be, it is very plain that they were ignorant of the Extent of their Power, and by what Means these Things came to pass, otherwise they would not have disgraced themselves, by making the Attempt of bringing forth Lice, which they could not perform.

But it may be enquired, why GOD should enable Pharaoh's Magicians to perform these Things? To this it may be answered, That it was GOD's Design to bring out the Israelites by great Judgments, as it is said V. 2. of this Chapter; and to shew his Power, that his Name might be declared through all the Earth, Ch. ix. V. 16. So that by GOD's enabling the Magicians to imitate Moses in some Things, and not in others, he gained the greater Glory to himself; for where there is no Contest, the Superiority is not so visible. It might have been thought (considering the prevailing Notions of that Age) by the Israelites, as well as the Egyptians, that what Moses performed, was by Magic or Incantments: But Men of the greatest Skill in that Way contesting with him, and being obliged at last to own that what Moses did was the Finger of GOD, put it out of Doubt that Moses acted by some higher Power than that of Magic, and evidently shewed that the GOD of Israel was superior to all that Egypt could boast. So that upon the Whole, it appears a signal Instance of GOD's Wisdom, to enable the Sorcerers to proceed, for some Time, in their Contest with his Servant, which added Disgrace to their Defeat, as it did no small Glory to his Conquest. And we may observe too, that GOD all along maintained his Superiority, for Aaron's Rod swallowed up all the Rods of the Magicians; and though they changed the Waters into Blood, and brought up Frogs upon the Land, yet they were not able to remove them again; and the haughty Pharaoh, who had said a little before, Who is the LORD, that I should obey his Voice? had no other Recourse than to beg Moses to intreat this LORD to remove the Plagues; for herein his wife Men and Magicians availed him nothing.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also.

24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink: for they could not drink of the water of the river.

25 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

These Words seem to imply, that after this Plague had lasted a Week, GOD was pleased to remove it.

C H A P. VIII.

1 God bringeth frogs against Pharaoh. 8 Pharaoh saith to Moses, 12 He intreats God to remove them. 16 The dust is turned into lice, which the magicians could not do. 20 God sendeth great swarms of flies. 25 Pharaoh inclineth to let the people go, 32 But yet is hardened.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, Go unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs.

3 And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy bed-chamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy ovens, and into thy kneading-troughs.

Into thine Ovens, ] i. e. They shall come up in such Swarms, as even to enter into the driest Places, which they naturally shun.

Into thy Kneading-Troughs. ] Or Dough, as in the Septuagint, which seems to be the true Meaning of the Word.

4 And

4 And the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

They came not merely into their Houses, but crawled upon their Persons. By limiting this Plague to Pharaoh and his People, it would seem that the Israelites were exempted from it.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

7 And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

8 ¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Intreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people: and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

It appears from this, that the Magicians had no Power to remove the Frogs which Moses had brought. So Athen Ezra observes: "He called for Moses, because he saw the Magicians had only added to the Plague, but could not diminish it."

This is the Man who proudly said, not long ago, Who is the Lord? who is Jehovah? now he is forced to have Recourse to Moses and Aaron to become Intercessors to JEHOVAH for him.

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, Glory over me: when shall I intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, to destroy the frogs from thee, and thy houses, that they may remain in the river only?

Glory over me; when shall I intreat for thee? ] Or, Take to thyself this Honour or Superiority over me. The Hebrew signifies to glory over, or vaunt one's self against another, as Judg. vii. 2. 1st. x. 15. In this Place it means no more than as we say, I give thee Leave, or you shall command me. I not only indulge thee in this Request, but even permit thee to chuse thy own Time, when thou wilt have this Plague removed. Bonfrerius thus briefly expresses the Sense of the Original: "You shall have the Honour to chuse the Time when, &c."

10 And he said, To morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word: that thou mayest know, that there is none like unto the LORD our God.

And he said To-morrow.] Why not To-day? since all Men naturally desire to be instantly relieved from their Sufferings. Perhaps, being addicted to Astrology, he thought to try Moses's Power, believing the next Day not so lucky as the present. Or, considering what imperfect Notions Pharaoh must have had of the DEITY, we may suppose he thought it utterly impossible to remove this Plague in an Instant; and therefore desired Moses to do it To-morrow, presuming that was the very soonest he could accomplish so great an Event, by whatever Power assisted.

This was the great Point that was intended by all the Plagues that were brought upon Egypt; not only that Pharaoh, but that all the Earth might know that the GOD of Israel, the CREATOR and POSSESSOR of Heaven and Earth, could do every Thing, that all Things were in his Hand; that all the Powers of Nature, in whatever Shape or Being, were no more than Laws of his establishing, which he could suspend or alter in whatsoever Manner he pleased. And this is the GOD we profess to serve: What Confidence and Trust ought we then to have in Him! and what high Conceptions ought we to entertain of Him!

11 And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.

12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried unto the LORD, because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

Because of the Frogs,] or touching the Affair of the Frogs. Here we may observe the Efficacy of PRAYER, and how acceptable it is to GOD: Moses's Prayers prevail to remove the Plagues from Pharaoh, though GOD knew his Heart was still hardened; and we may remark, that not one of them was removed till Moses had intreated the LORD: From whence we may learn, that in all our Distresses, in all our Hopes and Expectations of Mercy and Blessings, Application is to be made to GOD in Prayer.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses: and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps: and the land stank.

GOD could as easily have dissolved the Frogs into Dust, but he would have them lie dead before their Eyes, as a Token that they were real Frogs, and no Illusion, and as a Testimony of his WONDERFUL POWER.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man and in beast: all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

This Plague was probably sent, because it would be very grievous to the Egyptians, as being such a cleanly People. Josephus tells us, that their Priests were wont to wash their whole Bodies every third Day, lest any Lice should breed upon them.

18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

The Expression, And the Magicians did so, is not to be taken here, as in the other Places, that they did the same Miracle as Aaron, but that they smote the Dust of the Earth with their Rods. GOD was now pleased to withdraw the Power with which he had enabled them to go on hitherto, (and which they had foolishly attributed to their Enchantments) to show them that all their Power, to whatever Cause they might attribute it, was limited, and not to compare with the GOD of Israel.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the finger of God: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

Then the Magicians said unto Pharaoh, this is the Finger of God.] Heb. The Finger of Elhim, i. e. of a God. Intimating, that hitherto they imagined Moses had wrought his Wonders only by Art Magic; but now, finding his Power superior to theirs, they are forced to acknowledge that he must be assisted by some Divinity.

And Pharaoh's Heart was hardened.] It may be rendered, That Pharaoh's Heart was hardened, i. e. Though he saw his Magicians baffled, yet he could not prevail upon himself to let the Israelites go. One would think that Pharaoh should at length have yielded to the Conviction of Truth, and submitted to that Power, which neither he nor his Magicians were able to stand before, ch. ix. 11. But his kingly Pride, the Desire of detaining so many People in his slavish Dependence, and above all, his superstitious Prejudices so blinded his Mind, that he still remained obdurate. He perhaps considered Moses as a mere Magician, like his own Egyptians, only somewhat more expert in his Art.

20 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, (so, he cometh forth to the water, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

It is probable that the Israelites were not afflicted with any of the Plagues that went before this; but they living in a Country at some Distance, might be thought that the Frogs and Lice (it not being in their Nature to get in the common Course of Things not extend so far; but it being the Nature of Flies to be carried by the Air everywhere, this was the more astonishing and disgusting thing, that such Creatures, whose Nature it is to spread themselves in all Places, should not any of them extend to the Land of Israel.

23 And I will put a division between my people; and thy people: to morrow shall this sign be.

The Hebrew Word which we translate here Division, signifies a Remembrance of the Sender, that in what GOD was about to do, they should be distinguished and kept in Safety from the Evil that was to come upon the Egyptians.—But let us not think that this was to be a sign only unto Pharaoh, but to all who were to come hereafter. GOD hath ever since Man was placed on the Earth, and ever will, put a Division or Distinction between those who serve Him, and those who serve Him not. The Lot of the Righteous may not always be so visibly distinguished in this World, as the Israelites in the Land of Canaan; but still the same Distinction made; and though the Arrows of Misery may reach them, yet it is not to wound, but to heal; for though GOD oftentimes seems to make a Distinction betwixt the Objects of his Compassion, and more of his Punishment, yet in his secret Intentions make a vast Distinction, where his Judgments do not seem to make any; as, when on the one Part, and with the same Fire, we urge as well to God as the blessed Isaac, or Abraham; but with fore-knowledge and designing such a Disparity in the Events, as to consume the unbelief Minerals, or blow them off into Dross or Fumes, and make the Gold more pure and full of Lustre.

24 And the Lord did so: and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants house, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

And the Lord did so. Here is no Mention of Aaron's stretching out his Rod. Whence it would seem that this was done immediately by GOD himself, that the Egyptians might not imagine there was any secret Virtue in the Rod.

By the LARD Bochart understands the Inhabitants of the Land, Gen. vi. 11, 12. xi. 1. 1 Sam. xiv. 29, &c. whose Blood these Flies sucked, and left such a Poison in it, that their Bodies swelled, and many of them died. See Ps. lxxviii. 45. Wisdom xvi. 9. Le Clerc understands it of the Flesh and other Eatables, which those Vermin having preyed upon, and fly-blown, bred Maggots, Stench and Putrefaction throughout the Land.

25 ¶ And Pharaoh called for Moses, and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: Lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

Moses's Meaning is, that their religious Rites were so different from the Egyptians, particularly the Article of Sacrifices, in slaying Animals that were worshipped as Gods by the Egyptians, that it would occasion a publick Tumult, were they to perform them in the Land of Egypt. From hence it seems probable, and from no Mention being made of any, that the Israelites had omitted to offer sacrifices, from their first coming into Egypt.

27 We will go three days journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God, in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away: intreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the LORD, that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people: there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

CHAPTER IX.

1 God sendeth a murrain among the cattle of Egypt: but spareth the cattle of the Israelites. 2 The Lord smiteth the Egyptians with boils and blains. 22 God sendeth great hail, &c. upon the whole land of Egypt; 26 a thick darkness is upon the land of Egypt: there is no light. 27 Pharaoh saith to Moses; 35 But yet is hardened.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 For if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous murrain.

4 And the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Israel, and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the childrens of Israel.

This was the greater Miracle, because the Hebrews and Egyptians were mingled together in the Land of Canaan; but the Cattle breathed the same Air, and did not differ in kind. By which it appeared that the Power of GOD was not confined to the immediate Presence of GOD.

5 And the Lord appointed a set time, saying, To morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

It ought to be observed that GOD, and Moses, (who acts under his Authority) appoints a set or particular Time, both for bringing on the Plagues and removing them, and this too at as short a Distance as the Nature of an Appointment would admit, and once we find it left to Pharaoh himself to fix it; which was done that the Egyptians, who were possessed with highly superstitious Notions of the Influences of the heavenly Bodies at particular Times, should not think that Moses took Advantage of his Knowledge of these Times, to work all the Wonders that he did.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

By ALL the Cattle of Egypt is to be understood a great Number of every Kind, so that the Egyptians saw, that even the Animals they worshipped as Gods, could not save themselves. We see here that first the Cattle are smitten, and afterwards the Men themselves; which is agreeable to the Method of Providence in punishing; whereby it sends previous Afflictions to warn Mankind, that they may shun the greater Evils by Repentance.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

It seems as if Pharaoh, notwithstanding all that he had seen, could not conceive that such a particular Distinction could be made between Cattle feeding together in the same Pasture, that those of the Egyptians alone should be stricken, while those of the Israelites were not affected, and therefore he sent expressly to know the Truth of it: But yet such was the Unwillingness of Pharaoh to part with such an Advantage, as the Israelites were to him by their Service, that he could not bring himself to consent to their Departure.

8 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it towards the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

None

None can be so foolish as to imagine, that this was the Cause of the Miracle that followed; but GOD sent it as a Signet the Event, which served to awaken the Attention of the Beholders. Many Instances of the like Nature occur in Scripture, such as that of God's making Clay of Dust and Spittle to cure the Blind, John ix. 6. The Matter of this Plague is, from the hot, the hot Ashes or Embers, as of the form, from the Water, and of the heat from the Air, to shew that God ruleth in all.

9. And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with blains, upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

The Ash, which they threw up into the Air, fell down a small Sheet-like thin Frost, which heald the Flesh of Man and Beast, and rais'd a Blister upon every Part where it fell.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven: and it became a boil breaking forth with blains, upon man, and upon beast.

11 And the magicians could not stand before Moses, because of the boil: for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

Ever since the Plague of Lazarus, which they could not counterfeit, we read of no Attempt they made to vie Miracles with Moses: But it would seem from this Passage, (compare ver. 8. and 11.) that they still continued about Pharaoh, and endeavoured to settle him in his Resolution not to let Israel go, persuading him, perhaps, that though Moses had the better for the present, yet they should at last be too hard for him. But now being on a sudden smote with their Ulcers, in the Sight of Pharaoh and his Servants, this, it is likely, rendered them so contemptible, that they durst not again look either Moses or Pharaoh in the Face; for we never hear more of them.

12 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

Not by the Infusion of any bad Qualities, or ungodly Resolutions into his Heart, as by some it has been misunderstood; but only by giving him up to his own Heart's Lufts, and ordering Things so to fall out, that he was made by them more and more obdurate.

13 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

14 For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people: that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I will stretch out my hand, that I 16 may smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and 17 thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

Third, this Verse relates to what was to happen some Time afterwards, viz. the slaying of the First born among the Egyptians; or it is to be read, as some translate it, “ For now I had stretched out my Hand, to smite thee and thy People with Pestilence, and thou wast become cut off, &c. but that thou wast preserved, (as follows in the succeeding Verse) that it might be known that there is none like Me in all the Earth.”

10 And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

This Verse, and some others in the Scriptures, not rightly understood, have given Occasion to some to ground upon them Notions quite inconsistent with the Nature of the Deity; as it was possible for him, to create or bring any of his Creatures into Being, on Purpose to make them miserable. But the Hebrew Word which we translate here raised up, does never signify to raise a Thing into Being, but to preserve and establish it, as may be seen 1 Kings xv. 4. Psa. xxix. 4. And accordingly, the Septuagint Translation, the Chaldee, Samaritan, and Arabic, and Junius and Tremellius, all render this Place, “ For this Cause thou hast “ been hitherto preserved ” And in this Sense the Apostle uses the Expression I have raised thee up, Rom. ix. 17. The Meaning,

[illegible]

17. As a result of this, the children of people that don't trust people don't

As B. H. H. has shown, the  $\beta$  value of the  $\beta$  function may give a good indication of the strength of the interaction. The  $\beta$  function is negative, indicating a strong interaction, if the  $\beta$  value is low.

Job 1. 7. ver. 13. On, at the least, we see, that Time is precisely marked, that it is not left to have taken away by Chance. Besides, GOD hereby demonstrates, that there is no Part of Nature but he commands, that Fire, Flood, Thunder, and Storm, obey his Voice.

10. Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field: for open every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, that I will send down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He that feared the word of the Lord amongst the servants of Pharaoh, made his servants and his cattle flee into the boats.

21 And he that regarded not the word of the Lord, left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 And Moles stretched forth his rod toward heaven, and the Lord sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the Lord rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt, since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt, all that was in the field, both man and beast: and the hail smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

We are not to understand the Expression in its most Extent, as if no great Thing escaped, nor a single one any Thing was left; for none appears by Ex. x. 5. still remaining: But the Meaning is, that they were, generally, shattered and damaged, and a great many of every kind destroyed.

20 Only in the land of Cush, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

27 ¶ And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: The LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

These Professions were only produced by his Fears ; his Heart was still untouched with any Veneration for the GOD of Israel, or with Compunction for his own Obstinacy.

28 Intreat the LORD (for it is enough), that there be no more mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands unto the LORD: and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know, how that the earth is the LORDS.

This is the great Point which the Scriptures labour to establish, that the Earth is the Lord's; for this indeed is the Foundation of all Religion, and it is a Truth that wants to be established, not only in the hard Heart of Pharaoh, but in all our Hearts. For 11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD, for that you did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left.

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east-wind upon the land all that day, and all that night: and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened, and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees, when the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, thro' all the land of Egypt.

Devour every Herb of the Land, and all the Fruit of the Field, ch. ix. 25. yet it did not devour every Branch, nor root up the Herb: therefore there might in a very few Days grow up a new Crop in such a Country as Egypt, where the Heat of the Sun makes Vegetation so quick.

16 ¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and intreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death only.

As the Locusts ravaged the Fields, made the Plants and Trees to die, and destroyed the Supports of human Life, they are justly called a Death, or deadly Plague.

18 And he went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD.

19 And the LORD turned a mighty strong west-wind, which took away the locusts, and cast them into the Red sea: there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt.

20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

21 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness tebub may be felt.

That is, Darkness attended with such gross clammy Fogs, as may affect them in the most sensible Manner.

22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven: and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days.

23 They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

Neither rose any from his Place } This Circumstance is one of the lively Strokes in Description, which the Critics call Picturesque: It strongly paints the Horror and Dismay which this palpable Darkness cast upon their Minds. Le Clerc, however, justly remarks, that we are not to understand the Expression so strictly, as if not one of the Egyptians rose from his Place: For the Servants at least must have moved about the best Way they could, to find Victuals for themselves and their Masters. The Expression denotes, that there was a total Inaction and Cessation from ordinary Business.

24 ¶ And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let your little ones also go with you.

25 And Moses said, Thou must give us also sacrifices, and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God.

26 Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind: for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither.

27 ¶ But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.

28 And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more: for in this day thou seest my face, thou shalt die.

29 And Moses said, Thou hast spoken well, I will see thy face again no more.

It would seem, from ch. xii. 31. that Moses appeared once more before Pharaoh. So that the Verse must be, that he would not visit him again with any more Messages; not appear before him again without his express Order. For this plainly what Pharaoh means, when he bids him see his Face no more.

C H A P. XI.

4 Moses denounces to Pharaoh the destruction of the Egyptians through the death of the first-born of Egypt. 8 Pharaoh continueth hardened.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go hence: when he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out hence forever.

2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

They all held him in great Esteem and Veneration, as a Person that had extraordinary Power with GOD. This seems to be mentioned as the Reason why Pharaoh did not attempt any Thing against his Person, and also why he and the Israelites found so much Favour in the sight of the Egyptians.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt.

By an Angel, who, as appears from ch. xii. 23. was ordered to go and do this Execution.

The whole Series of the Narration shews that this Verse connects with the End of the preceding Chapter, and that the following Denunciation was pronounced by Moses at that Time, before he went out from Pharaoh; and therefore the three first Verses of this Chapter, should be read, in a Parenthesis, And the Lord said, or rather had said; this being only a Recapitulation of what had been revealed to Moses in Mount Horeb, ch. iii. ver. 20, 21, 22. and ch. iv. ver. 22, 23.

5 And all the first-born in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first-born of Pharaoh, that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the first-born of the maid-servant that is behind the mill; and all the first-born of beasts.

6 And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more.

7 But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.

Shall not a Dog move his Tongue. } A proverbial Expression importing, that all should be Peace and Quietness among the Israelites, far from any frightful Outcry; that in that memorable Night they should meet with nothing to molest or disturb them.

8 And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee thee out, and all the people that follow thee : and after that I will go out : and he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger.

The latter Part of this Verse should be translated, And he went out from Pharaoh who was in a great Anger. For neither doth the Character of Moses, or the Circumstances of the Relation, give us the least Ground to think that Moses went out in a great, or, as the Hebrew is, the Heat of Anger. For Moses's Character, is that of one of the meekest of Men : We find him behaving, in all that he had to do with Pharaoh, with the utmost Mildness and Calmness. He acts only as the Messenger of GOD, without assuming any Superiority to himself ; not the least Arrogance appears in his Conduct. He seems desirous in all his Behaviour to win upon Pharaoh, to save him if possible from Destruction. Neither doth what foregoes this Expulsion, shew any Reason why Moses should at this Time be more angry than at others ; but it appears why Pharaoh should be in the Heat of Anger, viz. because Moses had told him that all the First-born in Egypt should die ; and what perhaps still more moved the haughty Monarch, that his Servants or Courtiers should come and bow down themselves unto him, and entreat him to go out.

9 And the Lord said unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you ; that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

And the Lord said unto Moses, ] Or, the Lord had said unto Moses : For this is added as the Conclusion of the five foregoing Chapters, to shew that all had come to pass as GOD had foretold.

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh : and the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

C H A P. XII.

3 The institution of the passover. 11 The manner in which it was to be eaten. 15 The ordinance concerning unleavened bread. 29 The first-born of the Egyptians slain. 31 The Israelites go out of Egypt, at the exact Time that had been foretold to Abraham. 43 An ordinance of the passover.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

This might be better rendered, The Lord HAD said ; for it is plain this must have been before what is related in the foregoing Chapter, if not before the three Days Darknes. For it appears from the sixth Verse of this Chapter, that the Paschal Lamb had been kept up or separated from the Flock for four Days, viz. from the tenth to the fourteenth. So that these Orders must have been given, four Days at least before Moses went in the last Time unto Pharaoh ; for he then denounced the Destruction of the First-born, as what would happen that very Night. And it appears from the Order that the Children of Israel went out from Egypt in, that GOD had revealed to Moses some Time before, the Day of their Deliverance, and that he made all necessary Preparations and Dispositions for it.

2 This month shall be unto you the beginning of months : it shall be the first month of the year to you.

This Month shall be unto you the Beginning of Months : i. e. The first and principal Month of the Year : It was called Abib, ch. xiii. 4. xiii. 15. which signifies an Ear of Corn, because then the Corn was eared.

It shall be the first Month ] Before this Time the Jeus, like most other Nations, began their Year about the autumnal Equinox, in the Month Tisri, after their Harvest and Vintage : But in Commemoration of this their signal Deliverance out of Egypt, their Computation was from this Month of Abib, (answering chiefly to our March) at least as to their Feasts and sacred Things ; and that which before was their first Month, now became their seventh : Though the Beginning of their civil Year was still reckoned as before.

3 ¶ Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house.

In the tenth Day of this Month ] It was necessary they should now begin to prepare for the Passover four Days before, because otherwife it had been difficult to get ready so many Lambs and Kids in Egypt, especially as they were to depart in Haste : but in former Ages they did not begin the Preparation till the third day, or the Day before the Passover.

They shall take to them every Man a Lamb, ] The Hebrew Word signifies a Lamb or Kid, Deut. xvi. 4. and ought to have been so rendered here, as is evident from ver. 5. for they might take either of them for this Sacrifice : But commonly they made Choice of a Lamb.

A Lamb for an House. ] The Hebrew Word Beth, (House) sometimes signifies a whole People, as the House of Israel ; sometimes a Tribe, the Head of Levi. Here it signifies those who lived under one Master or Head of a Family. The whole Army of Israel was divided into Tribes, the Tribes into Families, the Families again into Houses, Jer. vii. 14.

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house, take it according to the number of the souls ; every man according to his eating, shall make your count for the lamb.

The Hebrew Doctors tell us, that there were not to be fewer than ten Persons, nor more than twenty, to the eating of one Lamb. And at this sacred Repast, Men, Women and Children, Masters and Servants, if circumcised, were entertained.

5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year : ye shall take it out from the sheep or from the goats.

A Male ] Because the Male was accounted more excellent, and its Flesh better than that of the Female.

Of the first Year : ] i. e. Under a Year old, not above : For the Lamb, as also a Kid or Calf, was fit for Sacrifice at eight Days old, but not before, Lev. xxii. 30. Lev. xxii. 27. And the same Law was observed in the daily Sacrifice, Ex. xxix. 38. Num. xxviii. 3. They were not to be offered before the eighth Day, because, says Beckart, till then they have hardly attained to the perfection of Animal Life, and are not sufficiently purified. Philo adds, they are not to be offered after the first Year, because then they begin to feel the Heat of libidinous Appetite, and consequently are not fit Emblems of Purity and Innocence.

6 And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month : and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.

And the whole Assembly—shall kill it ] i. e. Any Man among the Israelites may kill the Passover.

7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side-posts, and on the upper door-post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

Both these they were to sprinkle with the Blood, by dipping a Bunch of Hyssop into it, ver. 22. but not the Threshold, lest any should tread upon the Blood, which had been profane.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night ; roast with fire, and unleavened bread, and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

Roast with Fire, ] For it might be sooner roasted than boiled, and they were in Haste to be gone when it was offered.

Unleavened Bread, ] Partly to remind them of their Hardships in Egypt, unleavened Bread being more heavy and unsavoury ; and partly to commemorate their hasty Deliverance, which did not allow them Time to leaven it, ver. 39. Deut. xvi. 3. The original Word for unleavened, signifies pure, unmixed, uncorrupted : For Leaven is a Kind of Corruption. And to this Quality of Leaven the Apostle alludes, Gal. v. 9. 1 Cor. v. 8. See also Heb. vii. 4. The Use of unleavened Bread might therefore be enjoined, to remind them of Sincerity.

And with bitter Herbs ] Likewise to remind them of their Egyptian Bondage, which made their Lives bitter to them, ch. i. 14.

9 Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast with fire : his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof.

10 And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning : and that which remaineth of it until the morning, ye shall burn with fire.

11 ¶ And thus shall ye eat it ; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your your hand: and ye shall eat it in haste; it is the Lord's Passover.

Draw out it with your Feet] i. e. To draw out Parturition, which is also the Import of the name Leaven. Now all these Ceremonies were to be signify that it might be a more lively Commemoration of their hasty Deliverance out of Egypt. For in those ancient Ages, when the Use of Fire was little known, they were wont to warm themselves by the Fire, wherein memorable Events were celebrated by solemn Festivities, or ritual Representation of them.

Draw out it with your Feet] The Reason of this Institution was, that as the Jews had not always their Loin-girt, nor their sandals in their Hands, for neither their Shoes, nor ways on their Feet; for it was no uncommon Thing for People anciently to go without Shoes.

And ye shall eat it in haste] As Men expecting every Moment to begin their Journey.

It is the Lord's Passover] A Sacrifice in Honour of Jehovah, who passed over, or spared the Israelites, when he smote the Egyptians.

12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast: and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment; I am the Lord.

Against all the Gods of Egypt I will execute Judgment] i. e. Their Idol God. To which the following Passages seem to carry an Allusion, Isa. xlii. 17. Jer. xlii. 15. It may signify, that GOD destroyed their sacred Animals.

13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where you are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and you shall keep it a feast to the Lord, throughout your generations: you shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

An Ordinance for Ever.] i. e. To the End of the Jewish Economy.

15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread, even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread, from the first day until the seventh day that soul shall be cut off from Israel.

Seven Days shall ye eat unleavened Bread.] The seven Days following the Feast of the Passover, which were observed as a distinct Festival, and called the Feast of unleavened Bread, ver. 17. This was appointed in Commemoration of their hasty March out of Egypt, which did not allow them Time to leaven their Dough, ver. 39.

16 And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you: no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you.

And in the first day] Such solemn Festivals were called Convocations, because the whole People was then assembled, by sound of Trumpet, to offer Sacrifices, and perform other religious Duties, Nu. x. 2, 10.

The first Day—and the seventh Day] The first Day was to be a holy Convocation, on Account of the Passover Feast; and the seventh Day, because it is computed to have been on the seventh Day after that they came out of Egypt, that Pharaoh and his Host were drowned in the Red Sea.

17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this self-same day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations, by an ordinance for ever.

18 ¶ In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened: in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

Ye shall eat nothing leavened] i. e. Ye shall not eat any thing that is leavened, but only unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called for all the children of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a lamb, according to your families, and kill the passover.

Draw out] The original Word signifies to draw; but sometimes is used for to go, Jud. vi. 2. Job vii. 35. Here it signifies to.

22 And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel, and the two side posts, with the blood that is in the basin: and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.

And none of you shall go out at the Door of his House] Lest the Egyptians should suspect the Israelites for being the Authors of their national Calamity. This Precept was peculiar to the first Passover, but was not observed in after Times.

23 For the Lord will pass through to smite the Egyptians, and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side-posts, the Lord will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

But can we imagine that GOD, or the Angel of the Lord, wanted any Mark to distinguish the Houses of the Israelites from the Egyptians? Surely, He, with whom the Darkness is as the Light, being both as one; before whom even the deep Centre of the Earth hath no Covering, needed not any such Sign to discover the Israelites Houses. Or, can we suppose that the Blood of a Lamb had, in its own Nature, any Thing so pleasing in the Sight of GOD, that, upon seeing it, he should not suffer the Destroyer to come near? Surely we cannot think any such Thing. What then can we reasonably suppose was the Meaning of this, other than that it was intended to teach the Israelites, and not them only but us also, that there could be no Redemption from the Power of Death, but by the shedding of innocent Blood; and that, therefore, it was necessary that CHRIST, the Lamb of GOD, the SAVIOUR of the World, the GOOD SHEPHERD, should lay down his Life for his Sheep. Agreeable to this, we may observe a very plain Indication here, of what only could bring Redemption from the Angel of Death, viz. A spotless Offering: It was to be a Lamb without Blemish. The GREAT OFFERING then for Mankind, to deliver them from the Power of Death and the Grave, a much greater Deliverance than that of the Israelites from the destroying Angel, must needs be of a divine Nature, for nothing human is without Blemish. We may further observe some peculiar Circumstances attending this Rite, which seem to indicate that they were intended to typify the GREAT SACRIFICE of all. The Lamb was to be taken up on the tenth of the Month Abib, and slain on the fourteenth in the Evening, just entering on the fifteenth. CHRIST, the Lamb to be slain for the whole World, made his triumphant Entry into Jerusalem, which was to end in his being slain, on the tenth of this very same Month, and was slain on the fifteenth. This Paschal Lamb was to be slain in the Evening, or, as the Hebrew expresses it, between the two Evenings, which was the Time that was afterwards called the Ninth Hour: If we look into the Evangelists, we shall find at this very Hour, CHRIST, the GREAT SACRIFICE, was offered up. The Lamb, by the Blood of which the Israelites were to be saved, was, different from other Sacrifices, to be eaten by the whole People in common. CHRIST, the Lamb, declared that he was the BREAD OF LIFE, that a Man may eat thereof, and not die; the living Bread which came down from Heaven, that if any Man eat of he should live for ever; and he explains what he means by this Bread, viz. his Flesh, which he would give for the LIFE of the World; and when he was just going to be slain, he says, Take, eat, this is my Body which is given for you. The Paschal Lamb of the Israelites was not to have a Bone broken. CHRIST, CHRIST, the LAMB, though he was to pour out his Blood for many, yet even in his lowest state he was not to be disgraced, and therefore a bone of him was not to be broken. Look into the Evangelists, and you will find that when the rude Soldiers came, and broke the Bones of the Crucified on the one Side and on the other Side of the Lamb of GOD, when they came to him they broke not a Bone of him, but pierced his Side, and shed his precious and salutary Blood.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee, and to thy sons for ever.

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land, which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean you by this service?

27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 ¶ And it came to pass that at midnight the LORD smote all the first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first born of Pharaoh, that sat on his throne, unto the first born of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the first-born of cattle.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt: for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 ¶ And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from amongst my people, both you and the children of Israel: and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks, and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone: and bless me also.

Pray that I and my people may be delivered from this Plague.

33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste: for they said, We be all dead men.

They were willing to make them all Concessions, so they would but be gone: Ransoming their Lives not only by Prayers, but by their most precious Things.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading-troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

Perhaps it might be better rendered, They took their Flour before it was leavened: For if they had Time to make it into Paste, had they not also Time to leaven it? Though the Word often signifies Paste or Dough, it sometimes signifies Flour, as 2 Sam. xiii. 8.

Their Kneading-Troughs.] 'Tis the same Word that we translate Store, Deut. xxviii. 5, 17, where GOD promises to bless the Granaries and Provisions of the Israelites. And as Dough and Kneading-Troughs are not Things which Travellers usually carry with them, it seems more natural to render it Flour and Grain.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses: and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment.

They borrowed of the Egyptians, &c.] See on ch. iii. 22.

36 And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required: and they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 ¶ And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, besides children.

To Succoth.] It was called Succoth, i. e. Booths, from the Tents which they here erected, wherein they continued while they lived in the Wilderness. There was another City of the same Name in Canaan, Gen. xiii. 17.

About six hundred thousand on foot that were Men.] i. e. Who were twenty Years old and upwards, fit for War. If we reckon old Men, Women and Children, there could not be less than fifteen hundred thousand. A vast Increase, in little more than two hundred Years, from seventy Persons that went down to Egypt.

38 And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough, which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened: because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

40 ¶ Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years.

Who dwelt in Egypt.] Or sojourned. We ought to observe that 'tis not said, the sojourning of the Children of Israel in Egypt was 430 Years, but, the sojourning of the Children of Israel, who dwelt or sojourned in Egypt was 430 Years, i. e. the sojourning of the Hebrew or Hebrew Nation, from the Time that Abraham left his native Country to sojourn in Canaan to the Release of his Posterity, who dwelt or were long sojourners in Egypt, was just 430 Years. Therefore the Samaritan Copy hath it; Who dwelt in the Land of Canaan, and in Egypt. So the Vatican Edition of the LXX, from which that of B is taken.

41 And it came to pass, at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the self-same day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

Here we cannot but admire, nay more, be sensible of an heart-felt Joy, to see this exact Accomplishment of GOD's Promise, to a very Day. Notwithstanding the various Revolutions and Changes of all worldly Affairs, that must necessarily happen in the Space of 430 Years, yet GOD's Promise stands sure amidst them all. Yes; GOD's Word will stand fast for Ever and Ever! Heaven and Earth may pass away, but THAT cannot fail, for He is FAITHFUL! How then can we have any Fears or Doubts, or Disquietudes, when we have SUCH a GOD to trust in? Yes glorious Thought! the wondrous Works of GOD of old, and his Faithfulness through all Generations, continually cry aloud that this GREAT PROMISE of all, that THE SEED OF THE WOMAN SHALL BRUISE THE SERPENT'S HEAD, and that DEATH SHALL BE SWALLOWED UP IN VICTORY will in due Time be accomplished!

All the Hosts of the Lord.] The Word Hosts import that they went out not confusedly, but in good Order. See ch. xiii. 18. They are called the Lord's Hosts, because JEHOVAH, under the Symbol of a Pillar of Fire, led them forth as a General at the Head of an Army. ch. xiii. 21.

42 It is a night to be much observed unto the LORD, for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel, in their generations.

43 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: there shall no stranger eat thereof.

And the Lord said unto Moses, &c.] At the same Time that he instituted the Passover, he added this Caution about it.

There shall no Stranger eat thereof.] Heb. Son of a Stranger; i. e. one of another Nation was not to partake of this Feast, unless he embraced the Jewish Religion; as appears from the next Verse.

44 But every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A foreigner, and an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

A Foreigner, and hired Servant shall not eat thereof.] i. e. Unless circumcised, as appears from the Context. See ver. 48, 49.

46 In one house shall it be eaten, thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house: neither shall ye break a bone thereof.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.

48 And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and will keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One law shall be to him that is home-born, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to pass the self-same day, that the LORD did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by their armies.

After this wonderful Manner did GOD effect the Deliverance of the Israelites out of Egypt. As this was a most signal Blessing to that People, and never to be forgotten, so GOD thought fit, by Moses, to transmit to Posterity the History of the principal facts relating to this Matter. For this Purpose he appointed the solemn Festival before described, to be annually kept by the Israelites, in Remembrance of it; and the Month in which this Departure happened, for the future to be observed as the first Month of the ecclesiastical Year. They are often put in Mind by Moses and the succeeding Prophets of this Deliverance; and it is made Use of as an Inducement to their Obedience to the Law given them afterwards, Ex. xx. 2. And that they might not forget this national Blessing, they were afterwards obliged to keep up the Remembrance of it once a Week, on their Sabbath Day, Deut. v. 15. And besides all this, to perpetuate the Memory of it, the First-born of Man and Beast are to be separated and set apart for sacred Use, as it follows in the next Chapter.

C H A P. XIII.

1 The first-born are sanctified to God. 3 The memorial of the passover is commanded. 11 The firstlings of beast are set apart. 17 The Israelites go out of Egypt, and carry Joseph's bones with them. 20 They come to Etham. 21 God guideth them by a pillar of a cloud, and a pillar of fire.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Sanctify unto me all the first-born, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

Sanctify unto me the First-born,] i. e. Set them apart for me as sacred. To put them in Mind of GOD's miraculous Providence, in sparing their First-born, when those of the Egyptians were killed.

All the First-born,] i. e. Of Males, as it is explained, ver. 12. and Num. iii. 40. For if a Female came first, and afterwards a Male, that Male was not devoted to GOD, because it was not the First-born.

Whosoever openeth the Womb] It signifies properly the Beginning, or first Production of the Womb.

All the First-born—of Man—is mine.] i. e. Shall be employed in the sacred Ministrations of the priestly Office. But after the Jewish Commonwealth was formed, the Levites were chosen to officiate in their Stead, Num. iii. 12. And the First-born were to be redeemed at a certain Rate, which was Part of the Priest's Maintenance, Num. xviii. 15, 16.

And of Beast:] Therefore it was to be offered to GOD if it was a Male. Only an Ass was to be redeemed, ch. xxxiv. 19, 20.

3 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place: there shall no leavened bread be eaten.

And Moses said unto the People,] Here, it would seem, Moses delivers to the whole People assembled in a Body at Succoth, what he had delivered only to the Elders in Egypt, ch. xii. 21.

4 This day came ye out, in the month Abib.

5 ¶ And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this month.

6 Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days; and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¶ And thou shalt shew thy son on that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me, when I came forth out of Egypt.

And thou shalt shew thy Son on that Day,] i. e. When thou shalt be come into the Land of Canaan, thou shalt instruct thy Children in the Meaning of your killing the Lamb, and that it is to be eaten in Leaven, that so you and they may be fitted up to Continue to GOD for his Goodness: This was the Design of the Institution.

9 And it shall be for a sign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes; that the LORD's law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to year.

11 ¶ And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee, 12 That thou shalt set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix: and every firstling that cometh of a beast, which thou hast, the males shall be the LORD'S.

Every Firstling of a Beast—shall be to the LORD,] i. e. Every Firstling Male of a clean Beast, as of the Cow, Sheep, or Goat Kind, was to be offered in Sacrifice; and the Blood being sprinkled, and the Fat burnt, on the Altar, the Flesh of them was to be given to the Priests, Num. xviii. 17, 18.

13 And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the first-born of man amongst thy children shalt thou redeem.

And every Firstling of an Ass thou shalt redeem with a Lamb;] Heb. Lamb or Kid, ch. xii. 3. and the same is to be understood of all unclean Beasts in general, as appears from Num. xviii. 15. The Ass is particularly mentioned, because those Animals were more numerous among them than other Beasts of Burden. If a Man had not a Lamb, he was to give the Price of one. This Lamb was to be given to the Lord, i. e. to his Priest. If the Beast was not redeemed it was to be made no Use of, but to have its Neck broken, or be some Way or other put to Death.

14 ¶ And it shall be when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage.

15 And it came to pass when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the LORD slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both the first-born of man, and the first-born of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the first-born of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for a token upon thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

These Expressions signify that they were constantly to retain such a Sense of their Deliverance, as if they had it before their Eyes.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near: for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt.

18 But God led the people about, the way of the wilderness of the Red sea: and the children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

God led the People about. The Pillar of Fire, the Symbol of the divine Presence, accompanied them, went before them, and conducted them in a Way farther about.

Israel's Character of Unbelief, Num. 14. The original Word for about is variously rendered: It comes from a Root which signifies to turn, to bend, to bow, to incline, to turn. It is the same Word which we render to turn in Gen. 1. 14. 15.

19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

According to Gen. 50. 25. Probably he did carry with him the Bones of the other Son of Joseph, who died in Egypt. For we read in Gen. 50. 26. that the Bones of the Patriarchs were interred in Egypt; and we find no Opportunity more proper than this for transporting them to Canaan.

20 ¶ And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Itham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light: to go by day and night.

The Lord went out before them. i.e. The Shekinah, or Symbol of the divine Presence, which was accompanied by a Retinue of Angels. Heb. called the Angel of God, ch. xiv. 19. by whom is thought to be meant CHRIST, whom the Israelites are said to have accepted in the Wilderness.

By Day, in a Pillar of a Cloud. Called a Pillar, because it stood over them somewhat in form of a stately Pillar, shooting up among the Clouds, a ascending Smoke is called a Pillar of Smoke, Jud. 20. 40. Jud. 20. 30. It was spread over them as a Cloud by Day, to shadow them from the Sun, Psa. ev. 39. As there was Occasion, it removed sometimes before, sometimes behind them, Ps. xli. 19. and in it GOD sometimes assumed a visible Form, and spake, Deut. xxxi. 15. Psa. xcix. 7. But the ordinary Use of it was to lead and direct them in their Marches, Num. ix. 17, 18. Num. x. 1, 2. It was a lively Symbol of the divine Protection, and is continually alluded to Psa. iv. 5, 6. The Lord will create upon every dwelling Place of Mount Zion, and upon her Assemblies a Cloud, and Smoke by Day, and the Shining of a flaming Fire by Night; for upon all the Glory shall be a Defence, &c.

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

It continued with them as long as Moses lived, till they came to pass over the sea into Canaan, when not this Cloud, but the Ark was their Guide.

C H A P. XIV.

1 God directs the Israelites in their journey. 5 Pharaoh pursues after them. 10 The Israelites are struck. 13 Moses comforts them. 21 The Lord's path through the Red sea. 23 The Egyptians dung are drenched.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are intangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

Pharaoh's design—They are intangled. He will presume, that you are hemmed in between the Rocks and the Sea.

The Wilderness hath shut them in. Though the Word MIDDEBAR commonly signifies a Wilderness or Desert, yet it is often used figuratively for any distressful calamitous Situation, such as Men are exposed to in a barren Wilderness, which must be the Signification of it in this Place; for they were not yet entered the Wilderness.

But on the West of the Red Sea, where the Israelites now were, are Mountains almost impassable, especially to a numerous Army: And this is the calamitous Situation which Pharaoh would say had shut them in.

4 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them, and I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the Lord. And they did so.

And I will harden Pharaoh's Heart, &c. See on ch. vii. 21. The Meaning is, that Pharaoh would take Occasion from the uncomfortable Situation the Israelites were now in, hemmed in as it were between these Rocks and the Sea, to harden his Heart, he would even be so hardy and desperate as to attempt to follow and reduce them back again to his Egyptian Bondage.

5 ¶ And it was told the King of Egypt, that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?

As the Children of Israel had been ordered by the Lord, to turn a different Way from that which led directly to Mount Horeb, this probably, when it was told to him, made Pharaoh directly conclude that they had no Intentions of going there, but were escaping out of Egypt.

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him.

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

The Strength of ancient Egypt, which is a plain Country, consisted in Cavalry and military Chariots. It is plain too, from these and other Passages of Scripture, that the Eastern Nations, both in the earliest Ages and more late, made great Use of armed Chariots in War.

8 And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an high hand.

The latter Part of this Verse might perhaps be better rendered, even the Children of Israel going away with an high Hand, or, in other Words, In Spite of him.

9 But the Egyptians pursued after them (all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army) and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth before Baal-zephon.

10 ¶ And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lift up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them, and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD.

And the Children of Israel cried out unto the Lord. These Cries seem, by what follows, to have been rather the Effect of Despair, than of Trust in GOD.

11 And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? Wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

Here is an admirable Instance of Moses's sedate Temper, and how well he deserved the Character given him, Num. xiii. 31. of being being one of the meekest of Men: Without appearing to be either angry with them, or in the least offended at the approach of Pharaoh, he calmly exhorts them to take their trust in GOD, assuring them, if they would be contented and sign themselves up to his Conduct, He would, without putting them to the Pains of striking one Blow in their own Defence, deliver them of this formidable Enemy for ever.

But in the Children of Israel, we indeed too often a Part of our own unbelieving Hearts. This is a great Weakness of Man. It is not the Israelites only, but all Mankind, that GOD hath called by his Wonders of old, and by daily and perpetual Exertions of his Power and Goodness, to have an assured Confidence in him, to think of him as a GOD, an ALL-SUFFICIENT for all our Occasions. But, like the Children of Israel, though we have had repeated Experience of the Power of our GOD, yet, upon every new Difficulty, we entirely forget what He is, and fall into the same Distrust and Dependency as if he was no God, and could not save. Whereas, like Moses here, we ought, with whatever Dangers surrounded, to expect with unshaken Assurance the Salvation of the Lord; as it is inconsistent with his very Nature and Attribute, that he should not be both able and willing, to deliver his Servants at all Times, and upon all Occasions.

14. The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

Ye shall hold your Peace. i. e. Ye shall be still and do nothing; for the Word signifies to cease from Actions, as well as from Words.

15. ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? Speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward.

16. But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

Lift thou up thy Rod—over the Sea, and divide it. i. e. Command that it be divided, and I will effect it.

17. And I, behold I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

I will harden the Hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: See on ch. iv. 21. The Meaning is, that GOD would suffer their own violent Passions, and proud Imaginations, to blind their Minds, and harden their Hearts to their own Destruction.

18. And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19. ¶ And the angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them.

And stood behind them. To protect them from the Egyptians, who, by the Intervention of this Cloud, quite lost Sight of the Israelites, as it follows ver. 20. But besides hindering the Egyptians from pursuing the Israelites so fast as to overtake them, there seems to have been another Purpose answered by the Change of the Situation of the Pillar of the Cloud, viz. that the Egyptians in the Darkness, entered into the Sea that was divided for the Israelites, without knowing it, following them in the Eagerness of their Pursuit by the Ear only. For it is not probable, had they seen the Sea divided in the Manner it is represented, that they would have been rash enough to follow them into it: But it was GOD's Determination, for wise Purposes, that they should be drowned in this Sea. That they thus unknowingly entered into the Sea, seems probable from the twenty-fourth Verse, where it is said, that as soon as the LORD looked upon the Host of the Egyptians through the Pillar of Fire, that is, when he turned the bright Side of the Cloud upon them, to let them see the Danger they were in, then were they troubled.

20. And it came between the camp of the Egyptians, and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21. And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared, and the Egyptians were drowned, and the ark of Israel was saved.

22. And the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea, upon the dry ground, and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

23. ¶ And the Egyptians pursued after them, and the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the Egyptians may be drowned.

24. And it came to pass, that when Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, the LORD caused the sea to return, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and troubled the bed of the sea.

The sea returned to his strength. i. e. He took away the impediment, by which the sea was hindered from returning to its former state, and it was as if it had never been divided.

25. ¶ The Pillar of the Cloud stood before them, and the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, and thou shalt drive them heavily: so that the Egyptians shall flee from the face of Israel, for the LORD will fight for them, against the Egyptians.

And stretched the Hand of the LORD. i. e. He signified his Condemnation. On the 25th Verse, stretching out his hand, with Thunder, Lightning, and Fire, ver. 26, was the Cloud, which put them into the great Danger. He stretched out his hand, ver. 27, over the sea, ver. 28, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, ver. 29, and thou shalt drive them heavily, ver. 30, that the Egyptians shall flee from the face of Israel, ver. 31, for the LORD will fight for them, against the Egyptians.

26. And took off their chariot wheels, so that they drove them heavily: so that the Egyptians fled from the face of Israel, for the LORD fought for them, against the Egyptians.

He took off their chariot wheels. i. e. Some of them were broken by the Lightning and Tempest.

For the LORD fought for them. i. e. Heb. Yahweh fought for them. And it is plain it ought to have been so understood, for the LORD never considered Israel as the God of the Universe, but only as the local Deity of Israel. Now Moses's Words were true and good, ver. 14, 18.

26. ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27. And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared, and the Egyptians fled against it: and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

The sea returned to his strength. i. e. ver. 21 the sea returned to his strength. It is so in some Translations. Its Force lost, and it was hindered and held back by the Reins of the Divine Power; but now full Scope is given to its impetuous Rage. The Egyptians estimate, that the Sea returned not kindly, as in ordinary Tides, but rushed upon them precipitately.

28. And the waters returned and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them: there remained not so much as one of them.

29. But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

But the Children of Israel walked upon dry land. i. e. ver. 22 the children of Israel walked upon dry land. For they had now passed quite through the Sea, when Pharaoh and his Host were drowned. Of this Miracle Ex. lxxvii. 19, 20. O God, thy Way is in the Sea, &c.

30. Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians: and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea-shore.

And Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the Sea-shore.] Rather, And Israel upon (or from) the Sea Shore saw the Egyptians; i. e. They saw their dead Bodies floating upon the Waters: Though it is likely also, that many of their Bodies were cast on Shore, and became Food to the Beasts and Birds of Prey, that frequent the neighbouring Wilderiness; which is thought to be the Meaning of Ps. lxxiv. 14; and that the Israelites had the Benefit of the Spoil, especially of their Arms, which they wanted.

31 And Israel saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD, and his servant Moses.

It begat in them, for the present, awful Thoughts of GOD, and devout Affections towards him.

And believed the Lord, and his Servant] They believed, for the present, the Promises which GOD had made them by Moses, ch. iii. 17. of bringing them into Canaan.

C H A P. XV.

1 Moses, with all the people, sing a song of triumph to God, for their deliverance from the Egyptians. 22 The people want water. 23 They come to Marah, where they murmur because the waters are bitter. 25 The waters are made sweet. 27 They come to Elim.

THEN sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 The LORD is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my fathers God, and I will exalt him.

I will prepare him an Habitation, should be rendered I will glorify or honour him.

3 The LORD is a man of war: the LORD is his name.

This Verse in the Septuagint, the Chaldee of Onkelos, the Syriac and the Arabic Versions, and in the Samaritan Hebrew Copy, is, The Lord is mighty in War, Jehovah is his Name, which is certainly much more sublime than the Lord is a Man of War.

4 Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea.

5 The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone.

6 Thy right hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O LORD, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

7 And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble.

8 And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together: the floods stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil: my lust shall be satisfied upon them, I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

The Words destroy them here, is certainly a very wrong rendering of the Original, which signifies not to destroy, but repossess them, and the Hebrew Text has it thus: "Mine Hand shall again subject them to me; mine Hand shall triumph over them; mine Hand shall again put me in Possession." For it is plain that this was the real Motive which prompted the Egyptians to pursue the Israelites, as the Scriptures manifestly declare. And it was told the King of Egypt, that the People fled; and the Heart of Pharaoh and of his Servants was turned against the People: and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us? Pharaoh therefore and his Officers did not intend to kill and extirpate the Israelites, which would have been against their own Interest; but they designed to force them Sword in Hand to return into Captivity, and work again in the public Edifices.

10 Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

11 Who is like unto thee, O LORD, amongst the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

14 The people shall hear, and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestine.

15 Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed, the mighty men of Moab trembling shall take hold upon them: all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt away.

16 Fear and dread shall fall upon them, by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still as a stone: till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over, which thou hast purchased.

17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in: in the sanctuary, O LORD, which thy hands have established.

18 The LORD shall reign for ever and ever.

19 For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots, and with his horse-men into the sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them: but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

This excellent Song cannot be too much admired. The Turn of it is great, the Thoughts noble, the Style sublime and magnificent, the Expressions strong, and the Figures bold. Every Part of it abounds with Images that strike the Mind, and possess the Imagination. There is nothing comparable to it in all the Works of profane Writers. It may be justly said of it, as was said of the Pictures of a celebrated Painter, that they conveyed much more to the Mind than what was painted. So doth this short Song of Moses, if attentively considered, convey as much to the Mind as would take up whole Pages to express. We will consider some amongst its numerous Beauties, that it may be seen how highly worthy the Holy Scriptures are of our frequent Perusal, as well for the Beauty of their Language, as for the Knowledge they give us of the most important Things, and the great Truths they instruct us in.

Ver. 1. I will sing, &c.] This is much more energetic, more affecting, more tender, than it would be in the plural, we will sing. This Victory of the Hebrews over the Egyptians is not like those common Victories which one Nation gains over another, and whose Fruits are general, vague, common, and almost imperceptible to every Individual. Here every Thing is peculiar to every Israelite, every Thing is personal. At this first Instant, every one reflects on his own Chains which are broken; every one imagines he sees his cruel Master drowned; every one is sensible of the Value of his Liberty, which is secured to him for ever. For it is natural to the Heart of Man, in extreme Dangers, to refer every Thing to himself, and to consider himself as every Thing.

The Horse and his Rider hath he thrown into the Sea.] This singular, the Horse, and his Rider, which includes the Totality of Horses and Riders, is much more energetic than the plural would have been. Besides, the singular denotes much better the Ease and Suddenness of the Drowning. The Egyptian Cavalry was numerous, formidable, and covered whole Plains. It would have required several Days to have defeated and cut them to Pieces: But GOD defeated them in an Instant, with a single Effort, at a Blow. He overthrew, drowned, overwhelmed them all, as though they had been but one Horse, and one Rider: The Horse and his Rider hath he thrown into the Sea.

Ver. 2. The Lord is my Strength and Song, &c.] Of the several Attributes of GOD, he praises only his Strength, because it was by that he had been delivered.

My Strength. This Figure is energetic, for, the Cause of my Strength, which is flat and languid; besides that my Strength shews, that GOD alone was to the Israelites as Courage, and dispensed with their making any Use of it.

My Song. This is the same Figure, and equally emphatic. He is the only Subject of my Praise. No Instrument divides it with him; neither Power, Wisdom, nor human Industry, can be associated with him: He alone means all my Gratitude, since he alone performed, ordained, and executed every Thing. For Love's Song.

He is to be my Saviour. The last part of Verse would have wrote, He would save me; but the Scripture says much more. The Lord hath undertaken to perform, himself, every Thing that was requisite for my salvation; He made my Saviour in his own, his personal Affair; and, what is much more emphatical, He is to be my Saviour.

Her my GOD, thy triumphs shall extend much more than it is supposed to do at first sight. Thy power over the Franks and other Nations, Gods word of strength, promise and intents, but he who performed many Prodiges in Thy life, and in our Passages, her my GOD, and him with glory.

Heaven, O. G. I. I will never love any other. I adore you. I consecrate all my Wines, all my Deeds, all my Conscience. I only is worthy my Worthship and Love, and to him only will I forever pay Homage.

My Father's God, and I will exalt Thee. This Repetition is an exquisitely tender. He, whose Character I exalt, is not a strange God, unknown till this Day, a Protector for a Moment, and ready to desert any other. No, he is the ancient Protector of my Family. His Goodness is hereditary. I have a blessed and domestic Proof of his constant Love, perpetuated from Father to Son, down to me. His ancient Kindness were to make my Title and Pledges, which assure me of the like. He is the GOD of my Father. He is the GOD who displayed himself to often to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

And thus may every Worshipping of GOD still continue. It is not a strange unknown GOD that I have, one whose Power and Goodness has never been experienced, but it is the GOD whose wondrous Works have been shewn of old, and whose mighty Acts have been made known, whose Mercy and Truth have been established throughout all Generation, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

Ver. 4 and 5. Pharaoh's Chariots and his Horsemen Charge into the Sea, the Deep Captains of an Army in the Red Sea. The Depths have covered them, they sank into the Bottom as a Stone. Observe the pompous Display of what is contained in these two Words, the Horse and the Rider. 1. Pharaoh's Chariots. 2. His Hosts. 3. His Army Chariots. A beautiful Gradation.

How wonderful is this Amplification! He cast into the Sea; They are drowned in the Red-Sea: The Depths have covered them; they sink into the Bottom as a Stone. All this to explain, He has thrown into the Sea. We observe in these Words, a Series of Images, which succeed one another, and swell by Degrees. 1. He cast into the Sea. 2. They are all drowned in the Red-Sea. They are drowned, improves on He cast . . . In the Red-Sea, is a Circumstance which more determinates than simply, the Sea. (The Hebrew has it, in the Sea Suph). One would conclude, that Moh was desirous of heightening the Greatness of the Power which GOD exhibited in a Sea which formed Part of the Egyptian Empire, and which was under the Protection of the Gods of Egypt. 3. He choked Captains, the greatest of Pharaoh's Princes; that is to say, the proudest, and perhaps those who opposed with greatest Violence the Laws of the GOD of Israel; in a Word, those who were most able to save themselves from the Shipwreck, are swallowed up like the meanest Soldiers. 4. The Depths have covered them. What an Image is here! They are covered, overwhelmed, vanished for ever. 5. To complete this Picture, he concludes with a Simile, which is, as it were, the Stroke that animates and points out the whole; they sink into the Bottom as a Stone. Notwithstanding their Pride and Haughtiness, they made no greater Resistance to rise up against the Arm of GOD who plunges them, than a Stone that sinks to the Bottom of the Waters.

After this, what should Moses think, what should he say? One of the most important Rules of Rhetoric, and which Cicero never fails to observe, is, that, after an Account of a surprising Action, or even of an extraordinary Circumstance, the Writer must quit the calm and easy Air proper to Narration, and deliver himself with more or less Impetuosity, according to the Nature of the Subject; this is commonly done by Apostrophes, Interrogations, Exclamations, which Figures enliven both the Discourse and the Hearer. All this Moses has done infinitely in the Song before us.

Ver. 6. Thy right Hand, O Lord, is become glorious in Power: Thy right Hand, O Lord, hath defied in Power the Enemy. There are several Things to be observed here.

1. Moses might have said, God has displayed his Strength by striking Pharaoh. But how faintly, in how languid a Manner, would that express so great an Action! He springs towards GOD, and says to him in a Kind of Enthusiastin, Thy right Hand, O Lord, is become glorious, &c.

2. He might have said, O Lord, thou hast displayed thy Strength, &c. But this is not strong enough, and does not convey a sensible Idea to the Mind; whereas, in the Expression of Might, we see, we distinguish as it were, the Almighty's Hand, which extends itself, and crushes the Egyptians.

3. It is a Hard, O Lord, Fate, to die in Peace. The First Member of the Period, It is a Hard, O Lord, Fate, to die in Peace, having hinted only at the Event in loose and general Terms, the Prophet thinks he has not said enough; and to denote the Manner of this Action, he immediately repeats, It is a Hard Fate, to die in Peace. It is the Nature of great Passions, to repeat those Circumstances which touch them; as appears from all the passions, are raised in the best Authors; and as is seen in the sacred Writings, particularly in the Psalms.

1. The Angels (i.e., Fallen) then laid out their other
 2. side of a piece by that Word, in the Creation of pure
 3. Light, the fallen Word would describe the Action of a No to
 4. Light, which in Evolution as an impotent but per-
 5. petent Force against Time, and is plotted to link man to per-
 6. petent Reason. The Fallen who looked upon themselves every-
 7. day, they even attacked GOD himself, and asked with a
 8. mighty voice, What is God? But as these teeth, though
 9. Invincible Creatures of GOD, GOD rose also, and affirmed all the
 10. Evolution of human Creation, all the Height of his Supreme
 11. Agency against them.

In the seventh verse Moses returns to the Narration, but not at in the fourth and fifth Verses by a mere Description, but in confirming his Discourse as it were to GOD. Thou only, O Lord, be merciful. How great is the Figure! How noble the expression! The Prophet calls upon and takes to GOD's Anger. He transforms it into an account and zealous Minuter, whom the Judge had calumpniated. He calls to execute the Decrees of his Vengeance. Yet at the same time, as their Enemies, they stand in need of Intercourse, & mercy. And, and a long Train of well-chosen Images, and all to GOD, his Wrath alone can punish the Guilty. Thou shalt be revenged on them. How many Images are compressed in these few Words, which leave to the reader the Pleasure of examining every Circumstance the Face, the Flashes of Lightning, the Thunder, the storm, and all the other Instruments of the Wrath! The Beauty of this Expression is, I think, that is expected. We need a certain Depth in our Conception, which enlarges and takes the Mind.

What was then the Effect of this dreadful Wrath? It consumed the whole Creation. The Scripture only can furnish us with such Image. Let us consider this Thought attentively. We shall see the Wrath of GOD consuming a prodigious Army. Men, Horfes, Chariots, all are dated, consumed, overwhelmed; how weak are these synchynom. Terms! All these are consumed, that would be saying all; but the Simile which follows finifhes the Picture; for the Word consumes gives us the Idea of an Action that lafts some Time; but, it stialles, shews an instantaneous Action. How! to destroy an Army as it is consumed like Strubble! The Reader should consider the Force of these Ideas.

Ver. 8. The Manner in which this is described to be done, is wonderfully beautiful and majestic. The whole Song charms us, but this Part transports us. With the Blast of thy Spirits the Waters are gathered together. The Prophet ennobles the Wind by making GOD himself the Principle of it; and animates the Waters by representing them susceptible of Fear. The frightened Waters withdraw with Impetuosity from their usual Bed, and crowded suddenly one upon the other.

The Depths are congealed in the Heart of the Sea. That is, the Waters were bound up, and frozen like Ice. The Depths, gives us a much more dreadful Idea than the Waters In the Heart of the Sea; this Circumstance is very emphatic; it fixes the Imagination, and makes us conceive to ourselves Mountains of solid Waters in the Centre of the Liquid Element.

The two Verses that follow are inexpressibly beautiful. Instead of barely saying, that the Egyptians by their pursuing the Israelites, went into the Sea; the Prophet himself enters into the Heart of those Barbarians, puts himself in their Place, assumes their Passion, and makes them speak: not that they had really spoke, but because a Thirst of Vengeance, and a strong Desire of pursuing the Israelites, was the Language of their Hearts, which Moses makes them utter, in order to vary his Narration, and to make it the more ardent.

The Enemy said, instead of the Egyptians said. This singular, the Enemy, how beautiful is every Word!

I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the Spoil, &c. We read, and perceive a palpable Vengeance in these Words, as we read them. The sacred Persian has not put a Conjunction to any of the six Words which compose the Egyptian Soldier's Discourse, in order to give it the greater Spirit, and to express more naturally the Disposition of a man whose Soul is fired, who discourages with himself, and does not mind connecting his Words with Conjunctions, his Thoughts requiring Freedom and Liberty.

Another Writer would have stop here, but Mary goes farther. My Love will be stoned upon them. He might have said, I will drink the Spirit, and I will turn it into them. But, ye, Left shall be torqued upon them, represents them as rioting on spoils, and burning in joy.

I don't do any work, and Hand will do for them. This name Hand is incredibly beautiful. The spirit it represents is a soldier who is full of Virtue. We're now looking about, moving ving up and down, and stretching forth his Arm. Or if we take it in the true Sense of the Original, as it ought to be translated, My Hand shall again subject them to me, there is a great Beauty in it. The GOD of the Israelites had declared, that he would free them from their Captivity, and deliver them from their hard Servitude by the Strength of his Arm. I will bring you out from under the Burden of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their Bondage; and I will redeem you with a stretched out Arm. He had often caused Pharaoh to be told, that he would stretch out his Hand upon him, in his Servants, in his Fields, and in his Cattle; that he would shew him, that he was the MASTER and the LORD, by stretching out his Hand over all Egypt, and by rescuing his People out of their Captivity. The Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine Hand upon Egypt, and bring out the Children of Israel from among them. Here the Egyptian, who already fancies himself victorious, insults the GOD of the Hebrews. He seems to reproach him for the Weakness of his Arm, and the Emptiness of his Threats; and says to himself in the Drunkenness of an insolent Joy, and in the Transports of a foolish Confidence, Notwithstanding what the GOD of Israel hath said, My Hand shall again subject them to me.

Ver. 10. Thou didst blow with thy Wind, the Sea covered them. Could Moses have possibly given us a nobler Idea of the Power of GOD? He only blows, and he at once overwhelms a numberless Multitude of Forces. This is the true Sublime. Let there be Light, and there was Light. Can any Thing be greater?

The Sea covered them. How many Ideas are included in four Words! How easy are the Words! But what a Croud of Ideas! —Any other Writer but Moses would have let his Fancy take Wing. He would have given us a long Detail, and a Train of useless insipid Descriptions; he would have exhausted his Subject, or impoverished it, and tired the Reader, by an empty Pomp of Words, and a barren Abundance. But here GOD blows, the Sea obeys, it pours upon the Egyptians, they are all swallowed up. Was ever Description so full, so lively, so strong, as this! There is no Interval between GOD's blowing, and the dreadful Miracle he performs in order to save his People. Thou didst blow with thy Wind, the Sea scattered them.

Thou sankst as Lead in the mighty Waters. Reflect attentively on this last Stroke, which afflits the Imagination, and finishes the Picture.

Ver. 11. Who is like unto thee, O Lord, amongst the Gods? Who is like thee, glorious in Holiness, fearful in Praises, doing Wonders? 12. Thou stretchedst out thy right Hand, the Earth swallowed them. To the wonderful Relation above-mentioned, succeeds a wonderful Expression of Praise. The Greatness of this Miracle required this Vivacity of Sentiment and Gratitude. And how, indeed, could it be possible for the Writer not to be transported, and, as it were, out of himself, at the Sight of such a Wonder? He employs the Interrogation, the Comparison, and the Repetition; all which Figures are naturally expressive of Admiration and Rapture.

Ver. 13. Thou in thy Mercy, &c. This, and the four following Verses, are a prophetic Declaration of the glorious Protection which GOD was to grant his People after having brought them out of Egypt. They abound, every where, with the strongest and most affecting Images. The Reader does not know which to admire most; GOD's Tenderness for his People, whose Guide and Conductor he himself will be, by preserving them during the whole Journey, like the Apple of his Eye, as he declares in another Place; and carrying them on his Shoulders, as an Eagle bears her young ones; or his formidable Power, which, causing Terror and Dread to walk before it, freezes with Fear all such Nations as should presume to oppose the Passage of the Israelites through the Red Sea, and strikes those Nations so that they become motionless as a Stone: Or lastly, GOD's wonderful Care, to settle them in a fixed and permanent Manner in the promised Land, or rather to plant them in it: Thou shalt plant them in the Mountain of thine Inheritance; an emphatic Expression, and which alone recalls all that the Scripture observes in so many Places, of the Care which GOD has taken to plant this beloved Vine; to water it, inclose it with Fences, and to multiply and extend its fruitful Branches to a great Distance.

Ver. 18, 19. The Lord shall reign, &c. This concludes the whole Song, by which Moses promises GOD, in the Name of all the People, to bear eternally in their Minds the signal Delivery which GOD had wrought in their Favour. It was proper, and agreeable to the Rules of Rhetoric, to end his Song with a plain, simple Exposition; not only to unbend the Minds of his Hearers, but also to give them an Idea, without employing Figures, Turns, or a Pomp of Words, of the Greatness of this Miracle, which GOD had just before wrought in their Favour.

20 ¶ And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her, with timbrels, and with dances.

21 And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

And Miriam answered them,] The Meaning seems to be, that after every Verse sung by Moses and the Men, Miriam and the Women interposed, and repeated this Verse, Sing ye to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously, &c. This Way of singing by Courses was used in after-times, as appears from Ezra iii. 11. and Psal. cxxvi. and is represented as practised by the Angels themselves in their Worship of the Divine Majesty, Is. vi. 3. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy! Holy! Holy is the LORD of Hosts! the whole Earth is full of his Glory.

We can scarcely now image to ourselves this triumphant Song, sang by above six hundred thousand Men, and answered by as many Women, in this most grand Chorus, Sing ye to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the Horse and his Rider hath he thrown into the Sea; without being in Rapture, and joining as it were in the Chorus with them. And, indeed, the singing of Praises to GOD, with a Heart that feels his Goodness, is the most ravishing and exalted Pleasure that a reasonable Being can enjoy: It is the high Delight of Angels and Archangels; Cherubims and Seraphims; and must be our chief Employment and Pleasure in Heaven, whenever we come there. It is therefore scarcely to be accounted for, how it comes, now, to be so greatly neglected in our public Worship; and that reasonable Beings, who come with the Intention of honouring, thanking, and praising GOD, can possibly sit unconcerned, and without joining in this most spirited and ravishing Part of Worship; which is so natural and so engaging in its Nature, that we find it making a chief Part of Religion from the earliest Times, and amongst all Nations. For, when the Heart is touched with a lively Gratitude to that Beneficent Being, who has given us every Thing we already possess, and from whom we expect every Thing we yet hope for, it exalts the Soul to Rapture; so that all common Words appear too poor to express its Sentiments; and therefore Men were carried to compose lofty Hymns and Psalms, to declare, and as it were, exalt their Gratitude. And was this now made a larger Part of our public Worship, it could scarce fail of raising our Devotion, and making our Worship the most delightful Entertainment to us. It is much to be wished, that it was a general Custom now, for the whole Congregation ever to join in singing Praises to GOD, which was, undoubtedly, the Custom in the earliest Times, and founded upon the greatest Reason. If even the Reader or Preacher was to join with them, perhaps it would be rather a great Refreshment, than any additional Fatigue to his Duties; at least, so far he might contribute to this noble Part of public Worship, by selecting or pointing out such Psalms, as are most properly Songs of Praise, and wrote in the most exalted Strain; rather than leave it to such a Choice, as often fixes upon the most improper, and even sometimes such as have not a Line of Thanksgiving in them, though they are expressly given out to be sang, To the Praise and Glory of God.

Whoever considers how tuned the Soul is to Harmony, and how it is naturally affected with what is sublime and grand, and that this, if properly awakened or excited, is almost the general Nature of Man, will easily perceive how proper, and how highly beneficial this Part of public Worship may be made: And, perhaps, the greater Attention that is paid to this Part, the more the Church will be like to Heaven; for there it is all PRAISE. And, if we may be permitted to judge, we may well conceive that the DIVINE BEING, (as far as ought we can do can affect him) must look with peculiar Pleasure on the Heart raptured with Gratitude for his mighty Benefits, and the Soul ascending on the Wings of Praise up to his very Throne.

22 So Moses brought Israel from the Red sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur: and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

This Delivery of the Israelites out of Egypt, is indeed the most wonderful Act of GOD's Almighty Power that we read of in the Old Testament; or rather a Series of Acts, each more wonderful than the other. GOD mentions it divers Times in the Scriptures, and speaks of it as the most shining Proof of the Strength of his ALL POWERFUL Arm. He institutes Ceremonies to preserve the Memorial of it to the most distant Ages, even for ever; and he speaks of it more than once, as what he would get himself Honour by: Can we then imagine, that it was for the Israelites only that GOD performed all these Wonders? senseless unthinking People, who remembered not his Works, but forgot the Wonders he had shewed them, How he had wrought his Signs in Egypt, and marvellous Things in the Field of Zoan. May we not rather more justly conclude, that it was for the Sake of the whole World, that GOD wrought these wondrous Works, to shew, as he himself expresses it, Exod. ix. 16. his POWER; and that his Name might be declared throughout all the Earth.

In Fact these miraculous Acts of GOD's Power equally concern us to whom they are made known, as they did the Israelites, for they may and ought to be considered as a Manifestation of GOD's Power, whereby he has farther made himself known to Man; for though his eternal Power and Godhead might be known by the Works of the Creation, yet his perpetual operative Power, Power, whereby he continually governs all Things, and can make whatsoever Changes he pleases in Nature could not thus be discovered. And therefore GOD was graciously pleased to multiply his Signs and Wonders in Egypt, that it might be known throughout all the Earth, what his Great and Wonderful Power is. The former Ages of Mankind had seen nothing like this: the Holy Patriarchs themselves did not in this Sense know the Name JEHOVAH, they had indeed seen Destructions brought upon the Earth from the Lorn out of Heaven, but they knew not by any Experience, that he had an infinite or unbounded Power over all Nature, solely by his Will or Pleasure without the Assistance or Concurrence of any second Causes; that he could say at all Times, and to all Things; BE THUS, and it should be so. For this was the great Error of Mankind, and in Fact too much still continues so, notwithstanding all the Revelations which it has pleased GOD to make of himself to Men; That, though the magnificent Scene of Things; the Earth, the Air, the Seas, and the Heavens, the amazing Grandeur and Influence of the Sun, the beauteous Majesty of the Moon, and all the Host of the Stars, enduring continually, and performing their Courses with inviolable Regularity, has always induced and even forced Man to confess a GOD the CREATOR, yet such has ever been the Weakness or Corruption of human Nature, that it hath rarely discerned GOD, the GOVERNOR and PRESERVER; for weakly judging of Things from what we see with corporeal Eyes, we do not discern GOD in the World, but perceiving Things effected by some certain Causes, which we call natural, we make a GOD of these, that is, we attribute every Thing to their Operation by some inherent Efficacy, and perceive not GOD ruling and directing amidst them. By seeing only the Instrument, we become insensible of the Presence of the DIVINE WORKMASTER working in all.

And not only this, but such is the Weakness of Man, that he has ever been inclined, as it were, to undeify his God, by supposing that he hath established Rules and Laws, or rather operating Causes, stronger and more powerful than HIMSELF; so that he neither will, or even can, make any Alteration in them; that he leaves all Things that he hath made, solely to these, and acts no more in the World, than if he did not exist.—This blind and weak Reasoning of Man hath made him be, as it were, without GOD in the World, from whence hath arisen all his Unhappiness here.

And, in Fact, if we will examine our own Breasts, we shall find we have Need of every powerful Consideration to banish this Weakness of Sentiment from our Minds, that what we call natural Causes work every Thing in the World, without the Agency of a Divine Providence to direct, govern, and over-rule them; for in our present State, an impenetrable Veil concealing the Divine WORKMASTER from our Eyes, the Weakness of the Human Mind stops at what it most easily distinguishes, and thinks of nothing but supposed natural Causes acting of themselves, and thus quite loses all Thought of GOD working in them.

We may, therefore, justly conclude, that the great Wonders which GOD wrought, in the Deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt, and in his future Government of them for a long Succession of Ages, was intended in the Divine Councils, as a further and more glorious Revelation or Manifestation of Himself to Man, than he had before given. If we will consider what GOD himself says concerning these Wonders, in Exodus and elsewhere, we cannot but look upon them in this Light. He could have delivered his People by one single Act of his Power, but he himself repeatedly acquaints us, that his divine Wisdom purposed to multiply Signs and Wonders. And for what Reason? That his Power might be made known, and his Name declared. But to whom? to the Israelites only? GOD forbid. No; but throughout all the Earth, Exod. ix. 16. One single Act, such as the last in smiting the Egyptians, would have procured the Deliverance of Israel, and probably have affected them with equal Wonder and Gratitude. But it seems to have been the Purpose of the Divine Counsel, to manifest his Power, and to cause the Earth, the Air, and the Waters, to bear Witness that he had an uncontrolled Dominion and Power over all Nature; and that he had established no Laws, or operating Causes, but what he both could, with the greatest Ease, and would, whenever his Divine Wisdom saw fit, direct to different Ends, change or suspend: And that his Power was ever existing and unexhausted, so as to work, at all Times, whatsoever he pleased. The Wonders, therefore, which were wrought for the Deliverance of the Israelites, can be considered as no less than a very gracious Manifestation of the Godhead, which laid the Foundation of more assured Hopes in Man towards GOD. For whatsoever Thoughts he might conceive of him before, as the CREATOR and POSSESSOR of Heaven and Earth, yet he could not know how great a God he was, what was his Power over the established Laws of Nature, or with what Ease he could make any Alterations in them, and whether he would do it on any Occasion. And, therefore, a Knowledge of these great Wonders, is, or may be, to all Mankind, and in all Ages, of the same Use as it was to Jethro, to give them Assurance of the great POWER of GOD. Now I know, (says Jethro, when he heard of these wondrous Works, Exod. xviii. 11.) that the Lord is greater than all Gods. And accordingly we find David, many Centuries after, in a Time of Trouble and Darkness, when the Ways of GOD were more than ordinarily hid, and he began to doubt whether GOD was so gracious and powerful a Being, and what he concerned himself so far with the Affairs of the Earth: he had been used to believe; we find him at such a Time, continuing and strengthening his Faith and Confidence in GOD, by the Recollection of these MIGHTY WORKS of His, and thereby removing all his diffident and distrustful Fears, so as to see his Weakness in having thought lightly of GOD's Providence in the Earth. And I said, This is my Infamy; but I will remember the Year of the Right Hand of the Most High: I will remember the Works of the Lord: Surely I will remember the Wonders of the Lord: Thou art the God that doest Wonders: Thou hast declared thy Strength among the People: Thou hast with thine Arm redeemed thy People. Psalm cxxxv. 10, 11, 12.

And this is the Use that we may make of it, to our great Comfort, in strengthening our Faith towards GOD, by finding in our Breasts great Ideas of His wonderful Power. Is the Country or Place we reside in afflicted with Plague or sickness, or any other of GOD's Judgments? Still we need not be overwhelmed with Fear, for we may remember that the Swarms of Flies which grieved the Egyptians, and spread every where, had yet no Power to pass the Line prescribed them, so as to light upon the adjoining Land of Gessen: We may remember, that while whole Flocks of the Cattle of the Egyptians died with the grievous Murrain, there was not any Thing died of all that was the Children's of Israel, though they were feeding together in the same Pastures, for the Lord severed between the Cattle of Israel, and the Cattle of Egypt. We may call to Mind, that while the Hail smote throughout all the Land of Egypt, in the Land of Goshen, where the Children of Israel were, was there no Hail; and while a thick Darkness overspread all the Land of Egypt, and the Egyptians saw not one another, neither rose from their Place, all the Children of Israel had Light in their Dwellings: So that let the Calamity be what it will, and however near us, we may rest assured that GOD has Power, with the utmost Ease, to sever us from it, and that he will exert this Power for our Benefit, if his Wisdom sees it to be fit. But perhaps you will say, that you have undergone such a long Series of Calamities, that it is plain GOD has forgotten to be gracious: But do you not remember that the Israelites were grievously afflicted in Egypt, before they were brought out to the Land flowing with Milk and Honey? And though GOD seemed to have entirely forsaken them in their Bondage, yet He delivered them with an high Hand, the self-same Day He had appointed. Do you not recollect, that just as He was going to bring them out with Triumph, more grievous Burthens were laid upon them, than any they had before borne? But who art thou, that sayest, I am so surrounded by Afflictions and Dangers, that there is no Way left for Deliverance? Do you not behold there the unarmed defenceless Israelites, hemmed in here by unpassable Rocks and Mountains, on that Side by the Wilderness, and here before, the tumultuous Sea stopping their Passage? Behold there the enraged Egyptians pursuing them with eager Haste, and just going to fall upon them; Who or what can deliver them? Why GOD's Right Hand, with the utmost Ease! See, He makes the Sea divide, to give them a Passage, and close again to overwhelm their Enemies! And can you imagine that the Length of Time since then, has shortened the Arm of the ALMIGHTY, that He cannot still save and deliver us, in whatever Circumstances or Dangers soever? Be assured, that His Strength and Power remaineth the same FOR EVER!

This glorious Deliverance of the Israelites, may likewise confirm our Hopes of that more glorious Deliverance of the whole World from the Power of the WICKED ONE, which GOD has promised to bring to pass in due Time. We are yet, it is true, in a more grievous Bondage than the Israelites were, the BONDAGE OF SIN AND CORRUPTION; but yet GOD's Promise will be accomplished, and we shall be brought out to the Glorious Fellowship of the Sons of GOD. Yes surely! that GOD who could deliver Israel by His Servant Moses, against all the Power of Egypt, can work more by His ONLY BEGOTTEN SON, JESUS CHRIST, and deliver the World from all the Evil that the Prince of Darkness hath brought into it.

23 ¶ And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah.

24 And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

25 And he cried unto the LORD, and the LORD shewed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he proved them,

And he cried unto the Lord,] Moses did what they should have done, made his earnest Prayer to GOD to relieve him in this Distress.

The Lord shewed him a Tree, &c.] What Tree it was is quite uncertain. But to whatever second Cause it be ascribed, the Effect appears miraculous, since it was produced immediately, and and to such a Degree, as to correct the Taste of the Water for many Thousands.

There be made for them a Statute, &c.] i. e. Upon working this comfortable Miracle, Moses in GOD's Name interrogated them, whether they were willing to shake off the Egyptian Yoke, and be governed by Laws of their own; and having thus proved or tried their Dispositions, and found them willing to resign themselves up to his Divine PROVIDENCE, and to live up to such Laws as he should hereafter give them, he laid before them the Substance of their Duty.

26 And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes; I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that healeth thee.

And now, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the Voice of the Lord thy God, &c.] This is the Substance of what he required of them: Nor as yet were they loaded with that grievous Yoke of Ceremonies which GOD thought fit afterwards to lay upon them for the Hardening of their Hearts, i. e. because they shewed themselves incapable of a more liberal and ingenious Service. And to this these Words of Jeremiah seem to refer, ch. vii. 22, 23. I spake not to your Fathers, nor command them, in that I brought them out of the Land of Egypt, concerning Burnt-offerings or Sacrifices, &c. The Jerem Tradition is, that the Statute and Ordinance they now received, was to observe the Sabbath, and to do Justice.

I will put none of these Diseases, &c.] Either such preternatural Plagues as GOD had inflicted on the Egyptians; or the Diseases that were peculiar to Egypt, and most frequent in that Country, such as the Leprosy and other cutaneous Diseases.

I am the Lord that healeth thee.] It signifies not only who healeth thy Diseases, but who preserveth thee in Health. So remarkable was their good Health, that the Psalmist tells us there was not one feeble Person among them. As the Verb am is not in the Original, it may be as well rendered: I will be the Lord thy Saviour, or the Healer of all thy Diseases.

27 And they came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and threelcore and ten palm-trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

C H A P. XVI.

1 The Israelites come to Sin. 2 They murmur for want of bread. 4 God promiseth them food from Heaven. 11 Quails are sent in vast abundance. 14 and manna. 16 Directions how the manna was to be gathered. 25 None of it is found on the sabbath. 32 God ordereth a pot of it to be kept for a memorial.

AND they took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came unto the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim, and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month, after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.

3 And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh-pots, and when we did eat bread to the full: for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

How weak and perverse is Human Nature! these People who had seen the Waters but a few Days before rendered instantaneously sweet, to assuage their Thirst, could not yet trust that Divine and Almighty Providence in their next Distress, but break out into the most desponding Murmurs. GOD had endeavoured to instruct them by his delivering them at the Red Sea, when there seemed to be no possible Way for Escape; and by his rendering the bitter Waters at Marah sweet, that they were to depend with the firmest Confidence on him, and that he would protect, defend, and provide for them. But, alas! upon the first Distress, they cry out that they had better have depended upon the Flesh-pots of Egypt, than upon so GRACIOUS and ALMIGHTY a PROTECTOR. --- Too just a PICTURE this of ourselves, who are always prone to depend upon any human Means, rather than upon GOD.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no.

The People shall gather a certain Rate every Day,] It came down in daily Showers, that they might be kept in a perpetual thankful Dependence on Divine Providence.

That I may prove them,] i. e. To give them an Opportunity of shewing their Temper, whether they will be obedient to my Commands, when I let them want nothing to support and encourage them in my Service.

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day, they shall prepare that which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt.

Though they had such sensible Demonstrations of their being brought out of Egypt by the Hand of GOD, yet they still needed new Miracles to convince their unbelieving Hearts.

7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the LORD; for that he heareth your murmurings against the LORD: And what are we, that ye murmur against us?

Some refer this to the bright Appearance of the Divine Majesty in the Cloud, mentioned ch. xii. 10.

8 And Moses said, This shall be when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: And what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.

9 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings.

That is, Assemble together before the Cloud, wherein JEHOVAH's glorious Presence is manifested.

10 And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel; speak unto them, saying, At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

13 And it came to pass, that at even the quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

The Dew] This was a Superficies of a Liquid and aerial Substance, which through the Coolness of the Morning was congealed into little Corns, which were the Manna.

14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

It is Manna;] Should certainly be rendered as the Hebrew signifies, What is this? For it is plain by what follows, that they could not give it any Name, for they wist not what it was.

16 ¶ This

16 ¶ This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating: an omer for every man, according to the number of your persons, take ye every man for them which are in his tents.

To Leasing] That is, to his own and his Family. Le Omar is a Kind of Measure containing the tenth Part of an Ephah, or about three Quarts, English Wine Measure.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered some more, some less.

18 And when they did mete it with an omer, he that gathered much, had nothing over, and he that gathered little, had no lack : they gathered every man according to his casing.

This Verse, as it stands here translated, is somewhat obscure, and seems to convey a different Meaning, from what it implies in the Original ; for here it looks as if GOD had wrought a Miracle, and so ordered it, that when they came to measure, the Store of him that had gathered too much, was diminished to the exact Number of Omers which he was to have ; and the defective Quantity of him that had not gathered his due Quantity, was miraculously increased to the just Measure of what he was to have gathered. But surely, had this been the Case, as it was an equal Miracle with any other recorded, it would have been mentioned that the Lord had done it. And if we consider that it cannot be supposed that when they went out to gather it, that they could all take Omers with them, and that they were to gather for those that were left in their Tents, the Old and the Young, who were not able to get it for themselves, we may reasonably conclude that after they had gathered it with as much Expedition as possible before the Sun waxed hot to melt it, they were to bring it to Moses and the Elders, to have it measured out, that the ordered Allotment of an Omer to every Man might be given throughout the whole Camp ; and that Moses did, at this Measurement, take Care that those who had gathered too much for their respective Families, should part with it to those who had not been able to gather enough, according to the allotted Quantity, an Omer for every Head. For the Word which we translate had nothing over, should be rendered He made to have nothing over : And in like Manner, the Word translated, had no Lack, should be rendered, He caused to have no Lack. Moses was the Person who thus ordered it ; and the 17th and 18th Verses should be Word for Word thus translated : And the Children of Israel did so, and gathered some more some less ; and they measured with an Omer, and Moses caused him that had more, not to abound ; and him that had less, not to fall short ; for they gathered each one according to his Eating.

19 And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning.

It would seem from what happened in keeping of the Manna, that Moses spake not this of himself, but by Divine Appointment.

20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses, but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms and stank : and Moses was wroth with them.

It was the Design of GOD to have them depend upon his Providence, and trust to Him for a fresh Supply every Day. But did GOD intend that the Israelites only should thus depend upon His ever acting Providence? Rather, did He not intend to instruct all Mankind in the Orders which He gave about this Food of the Israelites, and the Miracles which He wrought in Relation to it? GOD works not in vain; all His Signs and Wonders are intended for Great and Wise Purposes. Can we then suppose any other, but that it was in GOD's Council to shew to Mankind in what Manner they ought to depend upon His Providence; that they ought ever to think upon it as always acting, superintending, and taking Care of Mankind, to supply them with the Necessaries of Life; that He can at no Time be inattentive, that He neither slumbereth nor sleepeth, and that His Arm cannot at any Time, or by any Circumstances, be shortened, so as not to be able to save, and do whatsoever He willeth.—This is the great Point which GOD was frequently putting the Israelites in Mind of. Will ye sayst thou, O Jacob, and yekeest O Israel, My Way is hid from the LORD, and my Judgment is passed over from my God? Hast thou not known? Hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the Lord, the Creator of the Ends of the Earth fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of His Understanding, Isaiah xl. 27, 28. And again, I am hard-hearted at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no Power to deliver? Wilt thou

[illegible][illegible]

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

22 ¶ And it came to pass ~~that~~ on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one ~~man~~: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This bread which the LORD hath said, To morrow in the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake, to day, and fettle that ye will fettle: and that which remaineth over, lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade : and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein.

How wonderful and how careful GOD hath been to preserve one Day of rest and Vacation from other Employments to Man, that we might have leisure to think up on Him; and the great and innumerable Wonders of His CREATIONS: And what GOD worked for the Israelites in giving them a double Portion on the sixth Day, to supply the Wants of the seventh, may instruct us that the Observance of the stated Times which GOD has appointed to His Service, will never hurt us in our worldly Affairs; but that, as the Saviour of GOD has promised, if we seek first the Kingdom of Heaven, and His Righteousness, all Things necessary for our Life here will be added.

25 And Moses said, That that to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field.

This Manna spoke on the Evening, between the sixth and seventh Day, when the Sabbath began, before the Israelites knew whether there was to be any Manna in the Fields or not.

26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

27 And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days: abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

Let no Man go out of his Place] This is not to be understood as if they might not stir out of their Tents, for the Sabbath was to be sanctified by an Holy Convocation, or assembling of the People; Lev. xxiii. 3. Acts. xv. 21. By Place therefore is to be understood, the Bounds of the Camp.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like coriander-seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

The Name of MANNA given here, does not any ways contradict what we observed in the Note on the 15th Verse. For we must observe, that the Word by which they asked (what is this) was in their Language MAN HUA, which signifies likewise Meat ready prepared; and therefore though they had a different Meaning when they first used the Word about it, yet it was afterwards very properly applied as a Name to this before unknown, and consequently not named Food.

It was like Coriander-Seed] In Bulk, not in Colour, for the Colour of it was like Bdellium, Numb. xi. 7. The Samaritan renders it like Rain.

32 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

Take a Pot] A golden Pot, Exod. ix. 4. as all the Vessels of the Sanctuary were of Gold.

Lay it up before the Lord] i. e. Before the Ark of the Testimony, as cor. 34. called before the Lord, because the divine Glory, dwelt between the Cherubims which were over the Ark. Hence it would seem that this Command was given after the Building of the Tabernacle, and here is mentioned, only because it belongs to the Subject of the Chapter.

34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept.

Before the Testimony] i. e. The Ark of the Testimony; as it is called his Strength, Psal. lxxviii. 61. cv. 4. instead of the Ark of his Strength. 2 Chron. vi. 41. The Ark is called the Testimony, because it contained the two Tables of the Law, which are called the Testimony, Exod. xxv. 16. because they testified God's Will to the People.

35 And the children of Israel did eat manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited: they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan.

36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

The Ephah, according to B. Cumberland, (c. 3.) contained seven Gallons, two Quarts, and about half a Pint, in Wine Measure.

C H A P. XVII.

1 The Israelites coming to Rephidim, murmur for Water: 4 God suppliceth them out of a Rock. 8 The Amalekites fall upon the Israelites but are discomfited. 15 Moses buildeth an Altar to the Lord.

AND all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide you with me? wherefore do ye tempt the LORD?

Wherefore do ye tempt the Lord?] Can you be so base to distrust the Power, the Goodness, the Faithfulness of GOD, who has so often and miraculously provided for you? They ought to have prayed to GOD for Water, without questioning his Power, or chiding his Servant for bringing them into that parched Desert.

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children, and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to stone me.

5 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel: and thy rod wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go.

Go on before the People] Make them decamp towards Mount Horeb.

Take with thee of the Elders of Israel] To be Witnesses that thou dost really bring Water out of the Rock.

6 Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

I will stand before thee there upon the Rock] i. e. The Glory of the Lord should appear in this Place, to strengthen his Faith, and to convince the Elders and People, that this Water was divinely given them.

It is a wonderful Confirmation of this great Miracle, and consequently of all the rest that are related in the Books of Moses, that this Rock is still in being, still visible to the Eye, with the infallible Marks of this Miracle inscribed on every Side of it. As appears from the authentic Testimony of very learned and credible Witnesses, who have, within these few Years, visited and examined it.

The Description of this Rock, as given us by the learned Dr. Shaw, is as follows: "After we had descended with no small Difficulty down the western Side of this Mountain, we came into the other Plain that is formed by it; which is Rephidim, Exod. xvii. 1. Here we still see that extraordinary Antiquity, the Rock of Meribah, Exod. xvii. 6. which hath continued down to this Day, without the least Injury from Time or Accidents. It is a Block of Granate Marble, about four Yards square, lying tottering as it were and loose in the Middle of the Valley, and seems to have formerly belonged to Mount Sin, which hangs in a Variety of Precipices all over this Plain. The Waters which gushed out, and the Stream which flowed therein, Psal. vii. 5. 21. have hollowed across one Corner of this Rock a Channel about two Inches deep and twenty wide, appearing to be crusted all over, like the Inside of a Tea-Can that hath been

" been long in Use. Besides several mossy Productions, that are " still preserved by the Dew, we see all over this Channel a great " Number of Holes; some of them four or five Inches deep, and " one or two in Diameter, the lively and demented Folk us" ing of them having been formerly so many Horrors. It likew" ise may be further observed, that Air or Change could by no " Means be concerned in the Continuance of this very Curious-
 " ity; since it points out to us a Miracle; and, in the first Manner
 " with the Rent in the Rock of Mount Calvary, at Jerusalem,
 " never fails to produce a religious Surprise in all who see it."

The Account which Dr. Parkinson gives of it is this. "Here
" they show the Rock, which, they say, Moses struck and the " Waters flowed out, when GOD told him he would find be" fore him upon the Rock of Horeb, which was afterwards called " Masrah and Mosrah. It is on the Foot of Mount Sin, and " is a red Granite Stone, ten Feet long, ten wide, and about " twelve high. On the North End of it, toward the South End,
" and at the Top of the Stone, for about the Breadth of eight " Inches, it is discoloured by the running of Water; and all " down this Part on both Sides, and at the Top are a Sort of " Openings or Mouths, four of which resemble the Lion's " Mouth, that is sometimes cut in Stone Spout, but appear not " to be the Work of a Tool. There are about twelve on each " Side, and within every one is an horizontal Crack, and in some " also a Crack perpendicularly down. There is also a Crack " from one of the Mouths next the Hill, that extends two or " three Feet towards the North, and all round the South End.
" The Arabs call this Stone the Stone of Moses."

To this may be added, that the Face of the Country, and the Names of the Places at this Day, which the Hebrews pass'd thro' in their Departure from Egypt to Canaan, bear a further Witness to what Moses relates, for Travellers take Notice, that in going the round about Way from Egypt to Canaan, through the Wilderness of Edom, or the Wilderness of the Red Sea, that there is, on the Right Hand of the Road, near Midway between Cairo and the Red Sea, a long narrow Valley, between two rugged Chains of Mountains; to get into which, the Traveller must turn out of the common Road, and which is to this Day call'd by the Arab Inhabitants of the Country, Tal-ha-Had, or the Road of the Child of Iron; and when the Traveller comes into this Road, he finds himself pent in on either Hand by impassable Mountains, and fronted at the End of it by the Red Sea; so that, in this Situation, well might Pharaoh say, They are entangled in the Land, the Holders have shut them in. And, what fully shews, that this was the Place from which the Israelites escaped by passing the Red Sea, is, that the Mountain, which borders on the Sea at the End of this Ridge of Mountains, is known to this Day by the Name of Jibbel At-takah, or the Mountain of Deliverance; and those Springs of Water which run over-against this Mountain, on the opposite Shore of the Sea, and near which Springs it is natural to think the Israelites, must have landed, is known also to this Day by the Name of the Fountains of Moses. And is it possible to account for all these Names being given to all these Places, in a Country, of which the Israelites were never the Masters, if these Matters of Fact, as they are thus related, had never happened?

7 And he called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the Lord, saying, Is the Lord among us, or not?

And be called the Name of the Place Masrah, and Meribah,] This Event gave a new Name to this Place; for what the Neighbourhood called it Raphidim, the Israelites ever after called it Masrah, (i. e. Temptation) and Meribah, (i. e. chiding) to remind them of that shameful Distrust of Providence they betrayed, by chiding with Moses.

Is the Lord among us, or not?] Are we under his special Providence and Protection or not?

8 ¶ Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

The name Amalek.] The Amalekites inhabited some Part of Arabia Petraea, near Rephidim where the Israelites had just been incamped, and lay between them and Canaan. They are supposed to have hated the Israelites, because of the Birth-right Jacob had taken from Esau; and to have made War upon Israel, to hinder their Settlement in Canaan, to which, perhaps, they imagined their own Pretensions to be as good as theirs; for they were the Descendants of Esau, Jacob's elder Brother. Gen. xxxvi. 18.

And fought with [Israel] They fell treacherously upon their Rear, and cut off some Stragglers that lagged behind through Faintness and Weariness. Deut. xxv. 18.

9 And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek : to morrow I will stand on the top of the hill, with the rod of God in mine hand.

[illegible]

I had, and we kept the B. I. of the R. as a token of our friendship. Had [H] was to plant much on Mount Hope, and we were to give Israel, with the R., the Ensign of Divine Favor, and send it, as a Token of Affiance from above, and as a Means to strengthen their Faith in GOD.

10 So Joshua did as Moſe had ſaid to him, and fought with Amalek : and Moſes, Aaron, and Hur, went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when he held forth his hand, that Israel prevailed: but when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

Here GOD again declares that our great Strength, and Victory, are dependent on Him; for can we suppose that any one Thing of Efficacy in Armies, or in Battles, can be so great, as to fall, to alter the Success of the Battle; but since GOD has ordered it, that he might shew them that they gain'd not the Battle by their own Right Hand, or the Strength of their own Arm.

12 But Moses' hands were heavy, and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side, and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the Lord said unto Moſes, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearſe it in the ears of Joſhua : for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under Heaven.

Written for a Memorial to a Brit.] According to it recorded by Mages both here and Deut. xvi. 17. This is one Argument that Moses was the Writer of the Books that go under his Name.

For I will utterly put out the Remembrance of Amalek from under Heaven.] That is, not one shall be left to be called a Son of Amalek, or to perpetuate the Name. Amalek being the First that drew a Sword against Israel, unprovoked, and having attacked them so ungenerously, Deut. xxv. 18. GOD pronounces this heavy Doom upon them, to terrify others from the like Malice. Balaam also prophesied of their utter Destruction, Numb. xxiv. 20. Accordingly they were partly destroyed by Saul, 1 Sam. xv. 1, 2, 3, &c. partly by David, 1 Sam. xxx. 17. and partly by the Children of Simeon, 1 Chron. iv. 43. This Threatening GOD might denounce, as foreseeing that there would be an irreconcilable Enmity between the two Nations, and that the Amalekites would perish in their obstinate hereditary Opposition to the Israelites.

15 And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it JEHOVAH-nissi.

He called the Name of it [Jehovah Nissi] i. e. JEHOVAH our Banner; or, in other Words, his Arm is in Heaven; JEHOVAH, who fought for us, and by whom we are saved, Psal. lxx. 4. Or who, by me, erected a Banner to his People in their Distress; alluding to the Rod which Moses lifted up as their Standard.

16 For he said, Because the LORD hath sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

For be said, because the Lord hath taken, &c. The Passage is variously rendered. There are two Senses which appear most plausible. The one of them we have in our Text, the other in the Margin. The Words are, literally, thus: Because the Hand upon the Throne of Jah or JEHOVAH; Chastised me. The Text considers it as an Oath: Because he (JEHOVAH) hath lifted up his Hand upon (i. e. sworn by) his Throne. So the Chaldee Paraphrast. Others apply it to J's's Hand: I have lifted up my Hand, or sworn by the Throne of GOD. But the objection to this is, that there is no Verb, in the Original, only coming to lifted up. Therefore some of the best Interpreters choose the Sense of the Margin. Because I, Hand (i. e. the Hand of Amalek) was against the Throne of JEHOVAH, (the Verb now being often understood). JEHOVAH will have His oath

222. 2.

Amalek, &c. His Hand is said to have been against the Throne of Teruah, because the Throne of GOD was then among the Amalekites, whose King he was in a peculiar Manner; on which Account Teruah is called the Throne of GOD in Exod. xiii. 21.

It is further to be notice'd, that this Verse may be immediately connected with Ver. 14, the 15th Verse included in a Parenthesis.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 7 Then, the father-in-law of Moses, Jethro, his wife, and sons, came to him; 8 And hearing what manner God had wrought for the Israelites, by a brazen serpent, for their deliverance from the Egyptians, &c. 13 He uttered his grace for a time to Moses, about governing the people, 2. about returning home.

WHEN Jethro the priest of Midian, Moses father in law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt:

2 Then Jethro, Moses father in law, took Zipporah Moses wife, after he had sent her back, Probably he sent her back from the Inn where her Child was circumcised, but from what Motive is uncertain. He might naturally think she and her Children would live more comfortably at Home, with her Father, than amidst such dreadful Spectacles of public Delusion in Egypt.

3 And her two sons, of which the name of the one was Gershom: for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land.

Viz. Moses when he named him. The Word GERSHOM signifies an alien in a strange land.

4 And the name of the other was Eliezer (for the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh)

ELIEZER signifies, My God is an Help.

5 And Jethro, Moses father in law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the mount of God.

6 And he said unto Moses, I thy father in law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

And he said unto Moses, i. e. By Messengers, who came to give him Notice of his coming, as appears from Ver. 7.

7 ¶ And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and kissed him, and they asked each other of their welfare: and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father in law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travel that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel: whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly, he was above them.

And this is the Use we ought to make of all the wondrous Works of GOD, recorded in the Old and New Testament, to be-leave that He is the only TRUE GOD, and Him whom we ought to serve with all Love and Reverence.—See the Notes on the 15th Chapter, V. 22.

12 And Jethro, Moses father in law, took a burnt-offering, and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses father in law before God.

Either before the Divine Presence appearing in the Cloud; or it may be understood in general, that they behaved in a religious Manner, in the Impression of the Divine Presence.

13 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses, from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? Why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because the people come unto me to enquire of God.

To decide their Controversies according to the Law of GOD, as it is explained Ver. 16. For what was determined according to GOD's Law, was the Judgment of GOD. And not only so, but in particular Cases he consulted the Oracle of GOD, and received an Answer by an audible Voice, as is gathered from Num. xv. 33, 34, 35. xvi. 5, 6, &c.—Enquiring of God, may be also understood, his consulting the eternal Law of Reason and Equity, that Candle of the LORD, whereby He enlighteneth every Man that cometh into this World. So it is explained by St. Augustine, who is of Opinion, that the Law was not at this Time given.

16 When they have a matter, they come unto me, and I judge between one and another, and I do make them know the statutes of God and his laws.

17 And Moses father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good.

18 Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people to God-ward, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God:

The Prophets had a double Province, to reveal the Will of GOD to the People, and to represent their Causes to GOD; and, in some Cases, to ask Counsel at his Oracle. Thus Jethro desires Moses to confine himself to his proper Function as a Prophet.

20 And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do.

21 Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people, able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

It would seem from Deut. i. 13, that the People chose them, and Moses approved them, and gave them Authority.

Able Men is in the Hebrew, Men of Fortitude, which generally signifies Valour, or Military Virtue; but here it seems to denote Firmness, and Strength of Mind; which, neither through Fear nor Favour, is capable of being turned aside from the Paths of Justice and Integrity. A Qualification most becoming a Judge! It may also include a Habit of Patience and Assiduity, most requisite to the attentive hearing, deliberate weighing, and impartial judging of Causes.

Here we may learn, of what Dispositions Men ought to be, who are appointed as Judges; and how highly blamable are as well those who appoint them, without their necessary Qualifications, as those who presume to sit in the Seat of Judgment, without these Dispositions in their Hearts.

But we are to observe upon this Passage, that tho' Jethro, in the 23d Verse, intimates to Moses to consult if GOD would command him to institute these Judges, yet we are not told that Moses did so; but probably thinking the Advice highly fit and necessary, he thought it needless to consult GOD, as upon extraordinary Occasions; for we are only informed, that he looked to the LORD, his Father-in-Law, and did all that he had said; so that we are not to look upon this as any Part of the Divine Institution of the Jewish Polity: And accordingly, these were not always (like the other Officers of the Jewish State, whom GOD Himself appointed,) continued through all the Changes of the Jewish State, with the same Name, Title and Authority; but both their Number and Office was varied as the Circumstances of the State required, or the Persons who had the appointing these Officers.

thought fit to employ them; so that this could not be considered as a proof of Human Infraction, but not as a need and established Law of the Jewish Polity.

22 And let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall bear thy burden with thee.

Any Cause of great Importance, which they found too difficult, they were to refer it to be heard by Moses, for Instance, when they did not find a Law to direct them, or it was obsolete, or they could not agree about the Punishment, all such Cases were to be brought before Moses.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee, then shalt thou be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

And thus the Last Cause which GOD put before them for an Inducement — was a promise of his Love, that if they did speak this word, and obeyed the Precept, he would be silent before their Council with them, and thereby, to the Honour and Praise of GOD, bring down the Companion of the great Wisdom of Moses but not to be a further Inducement, as Moses said at St. Paul's Conversion.

24 So Moses did as he heard to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

Some Courts or other for every Day, except on their religious Festivals, which were exempt from all civil Affairs, Lev. xxiii. 7, 8, 21.

27 And Moses let his father in law depart; and he went his way into his own land.

As he was a Convert to the true Religion himself, no Doubt he would take Care to propagate the same among his Children and People. Out of the Country came the Rechabites, 1 Chron. ii. 55. whose virtuous Abstinence, in Obedience to their Father's Command, is praised by Jerome, Ch. xxxv.

C H A P. XIX.

1 The Israelites come to Sinai. 3 God's message to them by Moses. 8 Their obedience. 15 They are prepared against the third day for the glorious appearance of God upon mount Sinai, and to receive his laws. 16 The joyful presence of God upon the mount.

IN the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness, and there Israel camped before the mount.

3 And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

He went up unto the Mount, the Symbol of the divine Presence having rested upon it. He who is here stiled God is called an Angel, Acts vii. 38. The Generality of Christian Divines understand it of CHRIST, the Angel of the Covenant. See Gal. iii. 17.

4 Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles wings, and brought you unto myself.

The Eagle is remarkable for soaring high, even above the Clouds, where neither Rains nor Snows fall, nor Thunder breaks, but the Miracles always accompanied it. To see the signs of the Spirit of God, viz. the Gifts of the Holy Ghost, and the Ministry of the Church, that they had just before seen, and heard the voice of God, and that the Lord was with them, and that he would be with them.

5 Now therefore will I lay my law before thee, and keep my covenant, that ye shall be my peculiar treasure unto me above all people, for ye shall be my holy people. Therefore shall ye observe my laws, that ye may abide in my covenant, and ye shall do as I command you.

The Word which was here spoken, Thou shalt be my peculiar treasure, which is a proper Good, which is kept in store for the use of the Church, viz. the Holy Spirit, and the Ministry of the Church, that they had just before seen, and heard the voice of God, and that the Lord was with them, and that he would be with them.

6 And it shall be unto me a Kingdome of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

And thus the Lord said to Moses, Thou shalt be my peculiar treasure, which is a proper Good, which is kept in store for the use of the Church, viz. the Holy Spirit, and the Ministry of the Church, that they had just before seen, and heard the voice of God, and that the Lord was with them, and that he would be with them.

7 And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken, we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

We come now to the solemn Engagement made between GOD and the Jewish Church, by they engaged to do all that he should lay upon them, and GOD, on his Part, on this Condition, promised to make them a peculiar Treasure unto himself. If we consider the solemn Manner in which this Covenant or Engagement was made, the wonderful Appearance of GOD on the Mount, and the other Circumstances which attended it, we must look upon it as a most remarkable and extraordinary Transaction. But surely we should not consider it in its full Light, if we consider it only as regarding the Israelites; rather should we not look upon it, as intended in the Divine Councils to signify to all Mankind, the peculiar Care which GOD will ever take of those who obey His Will; and how precious and dear always such would be in His Sight, through the Reconciliation and Redemption purchased for them by His beloved Son, JESUS CHRIST, who was to be a King and High Priest unto them; for we are to remember, that all the Revelations which were made to those of old, all the Directions given to the Israels, all their Deliverances, all their Guidance, was by the Means and Ministration of JESUS CHRIST, the appointed or chosen Saviour of Mankind, from the Foundation of the World.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

The People heard the Divine Voice distinctly, but saw nothing but a thick Cloud, from whence issued awful Thunders and Lightenings.

10 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes,

Which was to be done, as before remarked, Gen. xxxv. 2. as a Sign and in Token of inward Purity, and their putting away all sinful and polluted Thoughts from their Minds.

11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people, upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death.

13 There shall not an hand touch it; but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet foundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

[The Septuagint and Vulgate.] We apply it to the Mountain; but other Versions refer it to the Person who is to be put to Death, v. 12. thou shalt not touch him, i. e. none shall go within the consecrated Bounds to drag the Offender from thence, in order to put him to Death, but he shall be stoned or shot. He shall be stoned or shot, i. e. if near at Hand; or if some shall Dart or Arrows, it at a Distance.

[The Septuagint and Vulgate.] The Greek, the Chaldee, and Syriac render it, when the trumpet soundeth, or is sounded; the Latin, when the trumpet shall sound, or be heard, Prov. xiii. 12. Ezek. vii. 27, 28. and it is found to be the same, it appears from ver. 16, 17, 20 where, upon the Trumpet's sounding long, the People tremble, and are charged not to come up to the Mount.

[The Septuagint and Vulgate.] To the foot of it, v. 17. Deut. ix. 19. that they might more distinctly hear the Voice of GOD.

14 And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.

Moses had likely, sanctified or prepared the People by proper Devotion, as well as by giving them Directions, and seeing that they abstained from all Pollutions.

15 And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives.

In order to abstract their Minds the more from all Sensuality and earthly Affections, and render them the more fit for spiritual Intercommunion with GOD, they are enjoined to abstain even from lawful Pleasures. It is a good Rule for those who are ambitious of excelling in Virtue, now and then to curb their Inclinations in Things lawful and indifferent, so shall they find it the more easy to subdue their vicious Appetites and Passions: for this Reason some Things were forbidden to the Priests, which were allowed to others, Lev. x. 8.

16 And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that were in the camp, trembled.

The heavenly Ministers who were Attendants upon the divine Majesty, summoned the People by a Sound resembling that of a Trumpet.

17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.

The Divine Majesty descended in a thick Cloud, with a glorious Retinue of Angels, who appeared like Flames of Fire, as Moses himself seems to expound it, Deut. xxxiii. 2. He came with Myriads of holy ones.

There cannot be a more grand, awful, and majestic Description, than this of the Descent of GOD upon Mount Sinai. We can scarcely read it without trembling, and all the tremendous Majesty of GOD appears before our Eyes. The Psalmist seems to have conceived a most high Idea of GOD from it, OGA. When thou wast first light to the People, when thou didst march through the Wilderness, the Earth quaked, the Heavens and all that are in the Presence of God. Even Sion itself was moved at the Presence of God, the God of Jacob, Ps. lxxviii. 7, 8.

19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and GOD answered him by a voice.

We are nowhere told in the Old Testament what Moses spake; but the Apostle to the Hebrews applies, telling us, So terrible was the light that Moses said, I am aghast and quake, Heb. xii. 21. But GOD ordered him in ver. 20. 21. bidding him dismiss his Fear, and come up to the Mount, as it follows in the next Verse.

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount, and Moses went up.

He was called up to the very Place where the Shekinah or Divine Glory was. But it would seem from ch. xx. 21. compared with Deut. v. 4, 5. that even Moses was not admitted to enter within the Cloud of Glory, but drew near only to the thick Darkness with which it was encompassed, and to stand between Jehovah, or the Divine Presence, and the People.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD, to gaze, and many of them perish.

22 And let the priests also which come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them.

That is, lest he smite them with Death.

23 And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou chargedst us, saying, Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.

24 And the LORD said unto him, Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through, to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them.

Probably GOD foresaw, that some of the People would be rash and curious enough, notwithstanding the first Command, to advance beyond the prescribed Bounds, and therefore hastes Moses down with a fresh Injunction on that Head, but ordering him to return again, and bring up Aaron with him.

25 So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

Viz. these fresh Injunctions of GOD that they should not come too near.

C H A P. XX.

1 The ten commandments given by God from the mount. 18 The people are afraid. 20 Moses encourageth them. 23 Idolatry is forbidden.

AND God spake all these words, saying, 2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

As the fundamental Principles of all Religion are chiefly these four. 1. That there is a God: 2. That he is not any of those Things which are seen; but far more excellent and transcendent: 3. That he is the great Witness and Judge of human Thoughts and Actions: 4. That he is the Maker of the Universe. So these four Articles are set forth in so many Articles of the Decalogue.

All these Words,] i. e. The ten Commandments following, Deut. v. 22. God spake, i. e. a Voice came from the divine Majesty out of the midst of the Fire, Deut. iv. 12. v. 4, 22. for which Reason it is called a fiery Law, Deut. xxxiii. 2. It was given not immediately by GOD, but by the Mediation of Angels representing the divine Majesty, and speaking in his Name, Acts vii. 38. Gal. iii. 19. Heb. ii. 2. and none of these Angels can be meant of CHRIST; for the Writer to the Hebrews proves the Gospel a more excellent Institution than the Law on this Account, that the Gospel was given by the Lord Jesus, the Law by Angels only, Heb. ii. 2, 3.

Ver. 2. I am the Lord,] These Words are the Declaration of GOD himself, expressed by the Angel as his immediate Instrument: They contain both the general and particular Reasons of Obedience to the divine Laws. The first is included in that Expression I am the Lord, or I am Jehovah, i. e. the one eternal self-existent Being, from whom all other Beings, and all their Happiness is derived, and on whom they absolutely depend. This Motive then extends equally to all reasonable Beings throughout the Universe, who are, and ever shall be bound by the Law of their Creation to worship and obey JEHOVAH, whose essential transcendent Excellence claims their highest Veneration, and whose

[illegible]

Third, it is a total Expression only to the Action of GOD himself, we must naturally conclude to be the Meaning of it. But, if we consider the Expression according to the frequent Sense of the Scriptures, a speaking of that to be it by GOD, which he only permits to come to pass, by leaving Things to take their Course; we may very well say, that he visits the Sins of the Fathers unto the third and fourth Generation. For as a corrupt Tree cannot bring forth good Fruit, so Vice in Parents will naturally be productive of Misery to their Posterity, even to a 3<sup>d</sup> Generation. For if we consider the fatal Influence of Parent-bad Example, their Neglect of improving the Morals, and of improving the Minds of their Children, by a proper Education; the numerous Diseases which they transmit on them, and the Danger of the Plague, which they bring them to; we may well find it the most reasonable, that the Children are visited for or through the Iniquity of their Fathers. And the Experience too loudly shews us to be a real Matter of Fact.

But it may be objected, that this seems to be only a particular Punishment to the Breach of the second Commandment, viz. the making of graven Images, and the worshipping of Idols; and that a Parent might do this without causing any Evil on his Posterity, in the natural Course of Things. If we consider it as the more outward Action of bowing down before an Idol, this is true. But if we consider, as we ought, that Idolatry is the falling away from the true God, and consequently from all Happiness, and every Thing that is right, we must conclude that it is the Root of all Evil whatsoever. And agreeable to this we find, from the History of all Nations since the World began, that Idolatry hath ever produced the greatest Corruption of Manners, the most vile Afflictions, the greatest Debaucheries, and the most shocking and heinous Crimes. And how can this be otherwise, when weak and ignorant Man hath departed from that Being, in whom only he can stand, in whom only he is wise, in whom only he can do or have any Thing good. So that GOD most wisely affixed the Denunciation of such terrible Consequences to the second Commandment, viz. Idolatry, or departing from the Living God, may truly be considered as the Root of all Evil.

[Unto the third and fourth Generation] Heb. Unto the third and fourth. The Word Generation is supplied in the Greek, the Chaldee, the Samaritan, and other Versions, as the Sense requires. But then, for the same Reason, it ought likewise to have been supplied in ver. 6. unto thousands, i. e. thousands of Generations.

Of them that follow me } i. e. Who disobey my Commandments :
or, as in the Greek, & in the Syriac follow the Sons of their Father.
The best Proof we can give of our Love to GOD, is to obey his Will, 1 John v. 3. So the Violation of his Laws, is the strongest Expression of Hatred and Disregard to GOD, John xv. 23, 24.
Idolatry is always spoken of in the lastest Terms ; and by Im-nic to GOD, and the re of him, are commonly meant Idolatry, Deut. vi. 14, 15. vii. 13, xi. 16, 17. xii. 31. xvi. 22. xxxii.

23. Lev. xxiv. 24. The Reason why GOD expels such paganish Imaginations and *Idol*try is, because there is no Crime attended with a greater general Corruption of Manners.

6. And show my mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

And for his mercy unto the third, &c. To the Third and Generation, for to the Sense requires. See Lev. x. 1. He would punish Transgressors to three or four Generations, but shew Mercy to hundred Women, peters for Thousands of Generations, or to their last Posterity. He does not say he will forbear to punish the Posterity of good Men in case they offend, but that he will deal the more favourably with them in that Respect. The Conduct of Providence in these Cases is repeated. 1. Ps. lxxxix. 30. If his Children forsake my Law, and walk not in my judgments; if they break my statutes, and keep not my Commandments:
Then will I visit them Transgressors with the Rod, and their Iniquity with stripes. Nevertheless, My loving Kindness will I not leave them, nor will I utterly break my Covenant to them. Though he will punish the offending Children of good Men, yet their Misdoings shall not interrupt his Kindness to the rest of their Posterity, nor abate his Remembrance of their Goodness. And this Truth was verified in the Conduct of Providence towards Abraham, and the Patriarchs; in Memory of whose pious Love and Obedience, GOD punishes, by the manifold Provocations of their posterity, a great deal of them, for many Generations, to be involved in eternal Ruin. See *Ex. ii. 24. Lev. xxv. 1, 4, 26. Deut. iv.
20. Ps. cv. 42. 1 Kings. vi. 11, 12, 34. xv. 4. 2 Chron. xxi. 7.*
but upon the Principle St Paul teaches us to expect the future Conversion of the Jews. For though concerning the Gospel, they be not to be Enamoured—yet as touching the Election, they are beloved of GOD. Rom. xi. 28. Observe here the Extent of the Divine Goodness, how much more he delights in Mercy, than in Acts of just Severity. He visits only to three or four Generations, but his Mercy extends to thousands.
And indeed Mercy or Goodness is the proper Emanation of the Divine Nature; but Judgment is a Thing foreign and extrinsic to it, and therefore called Ex George Wills; it proceeds not from any primary or original Disposition to punish, but the Circumstances of his Creature, the wife and good Ends which it subserve in his moral Government, render it necessary.

The chief species of foodstuffs forbidden in this Commandment are the following:

1. The representing the Everlasting and Supreme GOD, under any material and visible Similitude. 'Tis a shocking Indignity offered to the boundless Majesty, the Omnipotence, the Imminity of the Divine Nature, to pretend to describe it, by what necessarily involves in the very Idea of it Folly, Imperfection, Weakness, and limited Existence, Job xl. 12, 18. Acts xvii. 24, 29.

2. The worshipping Images, as containing symbolical Representation of any of the Divine Perfections: As if, for Example, any Idol signified Reverence to a Lion or Elephant, as, on Account of their Strength, noted to represent the Power of GOD; or to the Sun, as the most visible Emblem of that SUPREME SPIRIT, which creates and animates universal Nature. This was the best Defence which the Heathens could make for their national Idolatry, that it was consecrated ultimately to the Father of GODS and MEN. But it was a very lame Vindication; for the Emblems themselves were inadequate to the Glory and Dignity of the Object: And instead of affixing the Devotion of the People, served but to debauch their Apprehensions, and lessen their inward Reverence of the Deity.

3. The using Images as Mediums of Worship ultimately paid to the true GOD. This was the Idolatry of the Israelites in worshipping the golden Calf. Not that they were so brutish to imagine the Image itself, which was their own Workmanship, to be the very eternal self-existent JEHOVAH. Doubtless, they only intended it as a Medium, through which to present their supreme Veneration to the GOD of Israel; upon which Account the Day when this Feast was first exhibited is styled, a Feast to the Lord, Exod. xxxii. 5. But notwithstanding it is evidently described as an Act of Idolatry, Ps. cvi. 19, 20. And the Case is precisely the same with the Idolatry of the Church of Rome.

4. 'Tis likewise contrary to the evident Scope of this Commandment, to worship Angels or Saints, or to allow the Character of a Mediatorial Deity to any Being, without an express Warrant and Authority from GOD. As Christianity teaches that there is but one God; to shew, that there is but one Mediator, in whose Name all our religious Worship is to be address'd to GOD; and therefore to set up other Intercessors or Objects of mediatorial Worship, is downright Superstition.

5. Besides all these several Kinds and Degrees of Idolatry, literally and strictly so called, there are also several other things, which, because they are, in different Way, and Manner, departing in some Measure from GOD, and placing our Reliance or Affections upon some wrong Object, they are therefore in Scripture prophanely, and by Way of Analogy, represented as Idolatrous Practices. Men, taking Delight in promoting Corruptions ruptions of Religion introduced by human Power, the Scripture calls falling down and worshipping the Beast, Rev. xiii. 8, 12. paying more Regard to a brutal Tyrant, to the Will of oppressive and unreasonable Men, than to the Will of GOD. Further, because Men who have no right Sense of God upon their Minds, are apt to place that Trust and Reliance upon the Riches and Power of this World, which ought to be placed upon God alone; hence St. Paul, by a very elegant Figure, calls Covetousness Idolatry, and the covetous Man, an Idolater; charging them who are rich in this World—not to trust in uncertain Riches, but in the living GOD. And our Saviour himself, in the same Manner, declares, Matt. vi. 24. No Man can serve two Masters—you cannot serve GOD and Mammon. So St. Paul speaking of the Sensual and Voluptuous, those Lovers of Pleasure more than Lovers of God, styles them emphatically, Men whose God is their Belly.

Let us not therefore imagine that we cannot offend against this Law, if we do not worship Images or Pictures; for we may indeed and do too frequently offend against the Spirit of it in other Ways. We have in Truth as much need to have this daily proclaimed in our Ears, Thou shalt have no other Gods but me, as if we lived amidst all the Idols of Egypt of old; for whenever, without duly acknowledging the Providence of GOD, we rest our chief Hope and Confidence on second Causes, when, as it is expressed in the Language of Scripture, we trust in our Horses and our Chariots, saulting to our Net, and burn Incense to our Drag, that is, place all our Hopes on our own Abilities, not remembering GOD to be the Fountain of all, then do we indeed transgress against the Design and Meaning of this Holy Law; and may be properly considered as Idolaters, as we give that Honour to, and place that Confidence on something else, which is only due to GOD.

7 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain : for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

The Original may be thus rendered literally, Thou shalt not take or lift up the Name of the Lord thy GOD falsely, or to a Lie, i. e. Thou shalt not swear falsely; for to lift up is to swear, which was done with the Hand lifted up to Heaven. And the Word which we translate in vain signifies a Falseness or Lie, ch. xxiii. 1. Deut. v. 20. Psal. iv. 2. xii. 2. xxiv. 4. cxliv. 1. And in this Sense our SAVIOUR cites this Law, Matt. v. 33. We have heard that it hath been said to them of old Time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself: So that the principal Thing here forbidden is Perjury, or making Use of the Name of GOD by Way of Appeal to him as omniscient, and to whom belongs the final Decision in all Cases of Equity, in Attestation and Support of Falshood; a Crime repugnant to all our Ideas of GOD, and utterly subversive of public Order. For it is an Imprecation of the divine Vengeance upon ourselves, if we are knowingly and deliberately insincere: So that the Man who is guilty of it, if he is not a speculative Atheist, must be a downright Monster in Nature, deriding the Justice of the DEITY, and defying Omnipotence to do its worst. And as Oaths are the principal Fences of Government, and the last Determination in Points of social Justice, whether respecting Life or Property, Perjury manifestly tends to the Confusion and total Dissolution of all civil Societies. The Drunkard, the Thief, and Adulterer, compared to the false Swearer, are sinners of some Modesty; so far from desiring GOD to be a Witness of their foul and atrocious Crimes, they would avoid his Presence, and retire from him if they could; but Perjury has this daring Degree of Wickedness peculiar to it, that it wilfully affronts even the Majesty of GOD, and calls upon him to see with what confirmed Impiety, they can dishonour his Name and defy his Vengeance.

By Parity of Reason, the Prohibition may be extended to all Light and vain Swearing, all wanton and irreverent Use of GOD's Holy Name; and this our SAVIOUR has included in the just Explication of this Commandment, Matt. v. 34. But I say unto you, Swear not at all, i. e. Swear not at all in common Conversation; which appears from the Context to be the Intention of these Words. Whatever Men may plead in Excuse for this Vice, it certainly tends to lessen that profound and humble Reverence which all Creatures owe to the universal CREATOR; for it is an obvious Truth, that Things of the greatest Importance and Use, by being common and familiar, grow to be less regarded; Things of the highest Estimation, by being mixed with low Images, are debased and rendered despicable: But this is not all, it is in itself an Instance of the grossest Irreverence and Contempt of GOD. For what can be a more manifest Token of Disrespect, than to use that tremendous Name, which all the Hosts of Heaven adore, to embellish idle Discourse, and give an Air and Colour to our Impertinence? If it be done for Amusement only, without any Intention to hurt our Neighbour, even the best that can be said for it is, that we make a Jest of GOD. Besides it is one of the most senseless, unnatural, and useless Vices that ever was invented.—It is a rude, unmannerly, and clownish Behaviour, to treat with a contemptuous Familiarity the greatest and best of Beings in the Presence of any, who have a Veneration for him. Every one would naturally resent what he thought to be an Inof the order of 1000, and the number of equal terms is about 1000 to 10000. Each of the rational numbers and has constant base,  $b$ , and  $a$  is fixed by

Non-Existent, and is not the Name of GOD, but being used by any Creature, is ultimately, and in Effect, the using of the Name of GOD, who Creature it is, and who alone can with any Sense be conceived to be truly appealed to, for the Fulfillment of the Fact, for the Sincerity of the Invocation. Mat. xxvi. 21, 22. Simplicity and Plainness of Speech becometh Christian, who profits to be void of Fraud and Deceit, and who is a constant with such Simplicity, proceeds to his Endeavour of

For the London Standard writes, "it is not a case of a man's sin, but of the sin of a nation." Thus to have "welcomed Confederation to deliver us from the Violation of the sacred Law, especially from the law, which is a Crime most odious in the Sight of GOD." The Editor continued was not intended to denote a sympathy, but rather a sympathization of the Pamphletist. For if any sentiment is conveyed, the sense, as it were, to be fed, of any notion. On the other hand, he will not escape imputation of such "sympathy" still less sympathy unparal-lelled.

8 Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Remember the Day of Rest, which God hath appointed for thee to observe; for the Word Sabbath signifies properly Rest, as Lev. xxv. 2. — then shall the Land keep a Sabbath unto the Lord. 1. v. then shall the Land enjoy Rest, as GOD has commanded. Hence all the Jewish Festivals are called Sabbaths, as being Days of Rest from all servile Labour, Lev. xxiii. 7, 11, 15. Thus the weekly Sabbath was a Day of Rest, it being one main End of its Institution, that Servants and Cattle might have Rest from their Labour. As the other Commandments carry their own Reason along with them, they are delivered in a peremptory Style, but this being of positive Institution, is introduced with a Remember; and that it might take the faster hold of the Jews, contains in its Form the Reason of its Institution.

However, though this Precept be not of moral Obligation, yet it has the same End as the other Precepts of the first Table; for its primary Design was the Extirpation of Idolatry, being designed to preserve among Men the Memory of that fundamental Article of Religion, that GOD is the CREATOR of the World; therefore the Violation of the Sabbath implied a Denial of this great Article of Religion, and consequently a Denial of the Wisdom, Goodness, and eternal Power of GOD, which are manifested in his Work: And not only so, but it implied a Calling off the Worship and Adoration of the true GOD. That we should with grateful and joyful Sense reflect upon the glorious Works of GOD, especially that grand fundamental one wherein his Goodness, Wisdom and Power, are so illustriously displayed, the CREATION of the WORLD; that we should not be unmindful of the special Favours of GOD, as was that of the Deliverance from Egyptian Slavery to the Jews; that we should not spend all our Time in carking Care and Labour about our Bodies, and the Cares of this Life, but should assign a competent Time for the Relaxation of our Minds, and for Attendance to the Concerns of our Souls; that we should allow some Time of Respite and Refreshment to those of our Brethren whom Providence hath placed in a mean, servile Condition; that we should shew Kindness even to our Beasts: All these are Duties which Reason and Natural Religion dictate, and accordingly, in all wise States, some Provision hath been made for the Practice of them. "The Gods, saith Plato, (i. e. Providence administering Affairs by the Intervention of inferior invisible Powers) in Pity to Mankind, born to painful Toil and Labour, appointed for an Ease and Cessation from their Toils the Returns of Festival Seasons, to be observed in Honour of the Gods." Thus Reason acknowledges the Substance of these Duties. But as to the Circumstances, that a seventh Day precisely should be assigned, and a total Cessation from Labour observed, this is plainly of positive ritual Institution, obligatory only upon the Jews, to whom it made a Part of their ceremonial Law, that Yoke of Bondage which was imposed upon them for the Hardness of their Hearts. But that Christians are discharged from the Observation of this Law, (as to its circumstantial Part) is plain from these Words of St. Paul, Col. ii. 16, 17. Let us Man therefore judge you in Night or in Day, or in Respect of an Holy-Day, or of the new Moon, or of the Sabbath-Day, which are a Shadow of Things to come. Here the Word Sabbath must, in Propriety of Language, comprehend every Sabbath; and that the weekly Sabbath was more especially intended, is highly probable, because wherever the Word is used, it seldom signifies any Thing else in the New Testament; and when in the Old Testament it is joined with Feasts and new Moons, it is generally designed to specify the Seventh-Day Sabbath.

But notwithstanding the Yeruzs Sabbath be abrogated, with the rest of their ceremonial Institutions, yet, a Nature directs public Honours and social Duties to be paid to the SUPREME BEING, and as an Obligation to maintain public Worship, necessarily involves in the Idea of it an Obligation to devote some Time for that Purpose. As the Institution of the Yeruzs Sabbath has been found by Experience not to be attended with the least Inconvenience to the Rights and common Interests of Mankind; and is as little as can be allowed for the Improvement of our Understandings and Moral, for Ease and Refreshment to our Servants, for Rest to our Cattle, and consequently for serving the two grand Purposes of Pity and Justice, which are always inseparable. Sabbath, as the first Day of the Week is recommended to us for the Celebration of religious Offices, by the Apostles and primitive Christians, and in itself no Day could be so proper for the Solemnities of Christian Worship, as that of our Lord's Resurrection, that grand Event on which the Truth of Christianity depends. On all these Accounts, Christians are bound to pay a religious Regard to this Day, which in the New Testament is styled the Lord's Day. And those who refuse to join in the religious Observation of this Day, lay themselves under a Necessity, in most Places at least, of neglecting public Worship altogether; by which Omission they neglect the Dictates of Nature and Reason itself, as well as the Intimation of Revealed Religion.

9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work.

[See Deut. xxiii. 25. &c.] Some consider this not merely as a Permission, but as a Command; that we should be diligent, and usefully employed in some worldly Calling throughout the six Days of the Week: And to be sure it is not the Will of GOD that Men should spend their Days in Idleness. Even those whose Stations set them above the Necessity of being employed in servile mechanic Labours, ought to be engaged in some Way of Life, whereby they may be useful to Society, as well as improve themselves.

10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates.

11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

[For in six Days the Lord made Heaven and Earth.] The Meaning is, that by working six Days, and resting from Labour on the seventh Day, they might give a symbolical Testimony of their Belief in that GOD, who created the World in six Days, and ceased from creating on the seventh. Thus the Jews, by conforming their Labour and Rest to the Example of GOD in creating the World, testified that they were the Worshipers of JEHOVAH, the SUPREME CREATOR of Heaven and Earth. Besides this, which was the primary End of the Institution of the Sabbath, namely, that it might be a Commemoration of GOD's having created the World, and be a Badge to the Israelites of their being the Worshipers of the true GOD, and of him only; there is also a second Reason for the Jews Observance of this Day, Deut. v. 15. namely, that it was to be a Memorial of GOD's Goodness, in giving them Rest from their intolerable Burdens in Egypt; on which Account they were both to rest on that Day themselves, and to give their Servants Rest, in Remembrance that they had been Servants in Egypt. And indeed this Rest to Servants is such a necessary Duty of Humanity, and of such special Regard in the Sight of GOD, that it is sometimes spoken of as the principal End of the Institution of the Sabbath, Deut. v. 15. Ex. xxiii. 12. And the Wisdom of this Institution will be the more apparent, if we consider with what Rigour Slaves in those Times were apt to be treated by their Masters: Again, another End of the Institution of the Sabbath was, that there might be a Time set apart for public Worship: This is inferred from other Passages, particularly from Lev. xxiii. 3. 24. where the Sabbath is called an holy Convocation, and for what other Reason, but because the People were called together on that Day by Sound of Trumpet to join in offering Sacrifices, and performing other religious Duties, as may be inferred from 2 Kings, iv. 23. Isa. lviii. 10. Mark i. 21. Luke iv. 16. Acts xiii. 14. xv. 21. xvi. 13.

And rested the seventh Day:] i. e. He desisted, or ceased, from creating. See on Gen. ii. 1.

Wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath Day, and hallowed it.] Not because there was any necessary Connection in the Nature of Things, between his having finished the Works of Creation in six Days, and the religious Celebration of the seventh as a Day of Rest; but to answer a valuable Purpose, which might fitly take its Rise from hence, he did, by positive Institution, and an Act of his supreme Authority, bless the Sabbath-Day, and hallow, or sanctify it; i. e. set it apart from a civil to a sacred Use.

12 ¶ Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

Next to our Duty to our heavenly FATHER, follows, in the Order of Nature, the Duty which we owe to our earthly Parents. The Word Honour aptly serves to denote that love and reverence, Lev. xix. 3. that Obedience and Obedience, Gal. iii. 23. 24. that Gratitude and Remuneration, 1 Tim. v. 4. that obsequious Compliance with their Instruction and Advice, Prov. i. 8. xxiii. 22. &c. in a Word, all the Branches of that filial Love and Duty which we indispensably owe to those who, under GOD, are the Author of our Being, and by whose Care and Tenderness we have been preserved and supported in the most helpless Part of our Lives. Providence has so ordered the particular Condition of Man, that of all Creatures living we are the least able to provide for ourselves in our Infancy, and continue the longest in this helpless State, as if it were on Purpose to beget this filial Obligation and Endearment: Nor is this all that Children owe to Parents; they are especially indebted to them for their Education, which both affords them the Means of future Support, and enables them to be useful in the World. And what strengthens the Obligation, is, that Parents do all these Duties to their Children most frankly, out of pure Affection and Benevolence, expecting no other Return but the generous Satisfaction of seeing their Children thrive and do well: Therefore, to violate these sacred Obligations, argues a Disposition not only vicious, but, we may say, impious; it intimates, that the Person will, in like Manner, be unjust, ingrateful, and disingenuous to GOD, from whom he has received the like Benefits; for if he honours not his earthly Parents, whom he hath seen, how will he reverence his heavenly Father, whom he hath not seen?

Now, by Analogy, we may reduce, under this Commandment, our Obligation to honour all who perform towards us beneficent Offices, like those which we receive from our Parents, such as Magistrates, supreme and subordinate, who are the Fathers of our Country, our Benefactors and Patrons, our Pastors and Teachers. We are further to notice, that as in Nature all Influences and Operations are mutual, so in all Relations there is a Duty reciprocal: Consequently 'tis to be understood, that Parents are, by this Commandment, required to behave as Parents ought to do, i. e. to love, support, instruct, and be gentle towards their Children: And indeed 'tis not so much their being the passive Instrument of our Being, as our constant, generous, and disinterested Benefactors, the Guardians of our tender Years, our Instructors and Examples in Virtue, that denominates them our Parents, and chiefly constitutes our Obligation to honour, love, and obey them.

[That thy Days may be long upon the Land, &c.] Here is a particular Promise annexed to this Commandment; and St Paul takes Notice of it accordingly, as the first Commandment (the only one of the ten) with Promise, Eph. vi. 2. Le Clerc renders it, that they, i. e. thy Parents, may prolong thy Days, namely, by their Prayers to GOD, that He may bless thee with long Life and Prosperity: Which is agreeable to the Sentiment of the Author of Ecclesiasticus, Ch. iii. 6, &c. He that honoureth his Father, shall have a long Life.—Honour thy Father and Mother, both in Word and Deed, that a Blessing may come upon thee from them; for the Blessing of the Father establisheth the Houses of Children, but the Curse of the Mother rooteth out Foundations, &c. The Truth is, that even in the ordinary Course of Providence, Obedience to the wise and wholesome Instructions which all good Parents will give their Children, is the natural Way to preserve Health, and prolong Life. Therefore Solomon thus bespeaks his Son, Prov. iii. 1. My Son, forget not my Law, but let thy Heart keep my Commandments; for Length of Days, and long Life, and Peace shall they add to thee. Whereas those who dishonour their Parents, and consequently are disobedient to the Counsels of Wisdom and Experience, forsake the Guide of their Youth, to pursue Intemperance, Sensuality, and Debauchery; which destroy the Health, weaken the Constitution, and shorten Human Life.

We find it was the Opinion of the Heathens likewise, that the Prayers of Parents availed to prolong the Lives of their Children. To this Purpose there is a remarkable Passage in Plato; where, after warmly recommending filial Duty, he mentions some terrible Calamities which the Gods had inflicted upon undutiful Children, in Consequence of their Parents Imprecations. To which he adds, Let no one imagine that the Gods are disposed only to hear the Imprecations of Parents against their disobedient Children. Shall we not believe they are equally ready to hear the Prayers which they put up in Behalf of their Children, when dutiful?

13 Thou shalt not kill.

This, and the four following Precepts, set forth our Duty towards all Men in general, with Regard to the Life, the Property, the Reputation of our Neighbour, or whatever else may in any Way affect him. The greatest and most irreparable Damage one Man can do another, is the taking away his Life; and therefore the first of these general Precepts, is, Thou shalt not kill. The Words are better rendered in an old Translation, Thou shalt not Murder; for there are many Cases wherein the Life of a Man may be taken away, without the Sin of Murder: As first, when a Man has the Misfortune to kill his Neighbour by Chance, without having any Design of hurting him at all, in this Case he is clear of the Imputation of Murder, though upon other Accounts, he may be justly blamable. If a Person grown to Years of Discretion should rashly and voluntarily, and with Instruments of Death, or destitute of the Life of another, in the Execution of some wild Design, he would be highly criminal on these Accounts, though not directly chargeable with the Crime of Murder. And therefore, to guard against this Crime more effectually, GOD was pleased, in the Law of Moses, to command, that whoever slew a Man by Accident, should be obliged to flee to a City of Refuge. 2dly, A Man may be forced to kill another in necessary Self-Defence, but then the sin is not in the Slayer, but in him that is slain, Deut. xii. 26. and xxiii. 2. Yet, if the Ends of Self-Preservation could have been completely answered, without breaching the Aggressor of Life, and the Party injured be hurried on to this fatal Extreme by an Excess of Passion, he is, in Proportion to his vindictive Temper, involved in the Guilt of Murder. 3dly, For the same Reason Enemies may be slain in a just and necessary War. But Wars undertaken with ambitious Views, from the Pursuit of false Glory, are loaded with a Complication of Murders: And all such turbulent Princes, who delight in the Effusion of Human Blood, instead of being celebrated with Honour, ought to be detested, and devoted to peculiar Infamy, as the Pests, and Scourges of Human Nature and Human Society. 4thly, The Lives of Malefactors may be justly taken away, for the Preservation and Security of the Public, Rom. xiii. 4.

Now, from all these Cases, Murder is distinguished; which is, “The killing of a Man, not by Misfortune, but with Design; not for our own Defence and necessary Preservation, but out of Malice and Hatred towards our Neighbour; not as destroying a public Enemy, but one with whom we ought to have lived under the natural Ties of Friendship and Humanity, or, at least, of mutual Forgiveness; not as bringing a Malefactor to Execution for the Preservation of the Common Wealth, but as cutting off an innocent Member to the Hurt of the Public.” This is a Crime so entirely inhuman and monstrous, that at the bare Mention of it, Human Nature is struck with Horror. It was therefore righteously appointed by a positive Sanction of the ALMIGHTY, Gen. ix. 6. that Murderers should be punished with Death, a Law perpetual and irreversible under all Forms of Government.—And here it may be proper to subjoin, that there are several Ways of committing Murder, besides that of an immediate Attack upon our Neighbour’s Life; as by a false Oath in a Court of Judicature, an Action of complicated Guilt, which adds Perjury to Murder: So he may be denominated a Murderer, who, by his cruel Treatment of those under his Authority, brings them to an untimely Death. An unnatural Son, who, finding his insolent Carriage to be the Cause of deep Grief to his Parents, and will not reform, though he knows their Life to depend upon that Reformation, such a Man is truly a Parricide. The Case is the same of a Husband, who, forgetting his Obligations, and repaying tender Affection with Contempt and Barbarity, and adulterous Violations of the sacred Marriage Vow, first renders miserable, and then shortens that Life which he ought, in Duty and Honour, to have cherished and preserved.

What hath been hitherto said concerning the killing of another, must in Proportion be understood likewise concerning Self-Murder; which, though not the immediate Intent of this Prohibition, yet falls within the rational Scope of it: For Self-Murder is the Killing of a Man, whom it would have been unlawful for any other Human Creature to destroy, and consequently which the Self-Murderer himself can have no Right to destroy; because if he had that Right, he might transfer it to others: And indeed no Life can be justly cut off, unless it be expedient for the Good of Mankind: And any Person judging it to be thus expedient, may be as effectually warranted in being a Murderer, as another can be in being a Self-Murderer: Beside-, Mankind are placed here in a Probationary State, which, from the Condition of their Nature, they are not at Liberty to desert; for a State of moral Discipline implies, in the very Idea of it, that the Supreme Governor of Mankind has the sole Right not only to appoint the Plan of this Discipline, but to determine the Duration of it. This was represented in the Heathen Philosophy, by a very significant Metaphor, "that of a Centinel's deserting his Post without Orders."

From all these Considerations, Christians should disdain to imitate the pusillanimous Example of those who, unable to bear the Shocks of adverse Fortune, shrink from under the Load of Human Misery, which Heaven has allotted them to bear for the common Good; and resolve, for the Good of Mankind, and till Providence itself closes the ungrateful Scene, to stand our Ground as illustrious Examples of depressed, conflicting, triumphant Virtue; and, in a Word, to wait the regular Summons of Nature, which is the only authentic Call of Heaven, to quit the Trials of the present Life, and enter upon the Rewards and Honours of IMMORTALITY.

Another Thing prohibited by this Law is Duelling, which plainly falls under the Notion of Murder, viz. taking away the Life of a Man without sufficient Cause. For who will say, that a hasty Word, a passionate Reflection, or even a wilful Aspersion, thrown upon the Character, are Crimes so great that nothing but the Blood of the Defamer can expiate, and though it may be alledged that in these inhuman Revenges, the supposed Criminal is not absolutely devoted to Death, but that the Person injured puts

[illegible]

We may farther observe, that a Person who is guilty of this Crime, may be considered as a Murderer, and for this Reason, he ought to make us shudder at the Thought of committing such a guilty this Way, viz. our blessed Saviour Jesus Christ, who expressly fills the Devil a Murderer, because Man by his Temptation fell into Death. We know that the Devil is the Father of Lies, (such is the Degeneracy of human Nature) and we need not add, and may it be attended to, that the Murderer is not an Infant, or even those in Parity with them, they are no more, they are the most heinous, considered Criminals, Criminals, who have committed. For 1st. there is no Person, who is Murderer, 1st. if he has received a 2<sup>dy</sup>. the Object of Innocence to be killed, and defenceless, and calls for Pity even from the most cruel of Men; 3<sup>dy</sup>. It is not deprived of Life by a Fox, or a Cat, or a Dog, nor (shocking to mention) by its own Parents, though it may be said to have a Right, in its helpless Condition, to expect its Life to be nourished, cherished. And cruel, cruel Parents, that put it into the cruel Hand; what Injury has the innocent Babe done, that it should be thus? Its Cries plead only for Pity and Alms, not from the particular, whom the GOD of Heaven and Earth hath appointed its Protector and Guardian; and wilt thou, O mortal Man, deprive it of Life? How knowest thou what Time, Days, Months, and Weeks, and Months, and Year of Happiness, thou mayest deprive it of by this cruel Act? How can we pretend to lose Riches, Power, and Wisdom, it may arise from the sufferings of its Life, and of what great Life it may be afterwards. It is easy to imagine that the seeming Insignificance of a new-born Infant's Life, and the little it seems to lose by being deprived of it, may perhaps be one Reason why this Crime is taken notice of by many, too many, who would fly back with Horror from committing it on a grown Person, on any Account whatsoever. But nothing can be more false than this Reasoning; for whoever deprives of Life a Being in its Infancy, of whose Worth or Happiness in its Maturity we can form no Judgment, is possibly guilty of a much greater Injury than it would be to a Being arrived to Maturity, whose Worth and Happiness is known; and neither of which, perhaps, can be set at any high Rate. Besides, if Life is a Blessing, as we all esteem it, the Being who is deprived of it at its first Entrance on it, certainly receives a greater Injury than the Being who has enjoyed a great Part of it, before he is deprived of it; and therefore we may be assured that the Blood of the new-born Infant, and even of the unborn one, will come before GOD with as loud Cries for Vengeance, as that of the mature Person, and will as certainly meet with Punishment.

Under this Prohibition are likewise included all Approaches to the Crime of Murder, all great Abuses, all Hating, all un-designedly done, which either hasten Mens Death, or take their Life uncomfortable. Hence our SAVIOUR, in his excellent Comment upon this Law, Matth. v. 21. extendeth it to all ranc, cavillings, and outrageous Anger; all opprobrious Language, and to the retaining of Grudges, or Spite in our Hearts; for these Inconduities, as they have a Tendency to produce the Act of Murder, so they argue Inclinations towards it, and, consequently, in moral Account, which regards not so much the Act as the Will, they are of the same Quality with Murder. Upon which St. James John says in express Words, Whosoever hateth his Brother, is a Murderer, 1 John, iii. 15.

Lastly, as every Prohibition supposes the contrary positive Duty, so by this Commandment we are oblig'd, so far as we are able, to preserve our Neighbour's Life, by the Exercise of Peaceableness, Meekness, Goodness, Charitableness, and whatever tends to the universal Welfare and Happiness of Mankind; especially it obliges us to relieve our Neighbour in his extreme Want, and to succour him in his extreme Danger; for in that case not to save his Life is to destroy it.

14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

This is one of those Crimes that ought not to have been once named amongst Christians: A Crime against which the original Modesty of Human Nature ought to be a sufficient Guard: 'Tis a Violation of the most sacred Bond of all Society, upon which the Happiness of Mankind, their most valuable and elegant Pleasures, more immediately and necessarily depend. To do in the first

Institution of ALMIGHTY GOD, and is an Injury to our Neighbour, in the Rights of which he is most jealous; and in one of the most valuable Branches of his Property, frequently more dear to him than Ease, Plenty, Honour, and even Life itself. Therefore the Adulterer may be the Instrument of much more exquisite and lasting Misery to the Person whom he injures, than the Murderer himself. And in this Respect, his Guilt is more enormous, as he wounds with inexpressible Anguish the Heart of one who never offended him. Nor is this all the Mischief of ADULTERY; it renders the Legitimacy of Children suspected, and hinders their regular and just Education; it sows the Seeds of implacable Disension between Families, and scarce from any Crime have resulted more tragical Effects to Societies in general, as well as to Individuals. On all which Accounts, Christianity ranks the Adulterers amongst those who shall not inherit the Kingdom of GOD. So that for a Christian to be guilty of this Vice, is, upon his own Principles, to forego all just Hopes of the Favour of GOD and eternal Life. There are always loose Persons, who will pretend they cannot discern the Immorality and heinous Nature of Vices of this Kind; but however unwilling they are to perceive it, when they are guilty themselves, there are none of them but are sensible enough of the horrid Injury, when the Case comes to be their own. Would they but allow themselves coolly to reflect what Torment they should endure in having the Wife of their Bosom prostituted to another's lewd Embraces, and her Heart, which she had engaged to him, vilely debauched, and alienated to another, he could not but start back with Horror from the Commission of so base, so ungenerous, so unsocial a Crime; and if there be a Case supposable in Nature, wherein Men ought to be guided by our SAVIOUR'S golden Rule of doing to others as they would be done by, he must own it is this. This Crime is indeed so pernicious to Society, and the Prevalence of it such a deadly Symptom of national Depravity, that in order to prevent it, not only the Jewish Law, whose Authority was derived immediately from Heaven, but likewise the Laws of several heathen Nations, doomed the Adulterer to be cut off by Death. Now he that would observe this Law in its true Intent and Meaning, must not only be free from the actual Commission of this Crime, but regulate his Desires and Inclinations so as to suppress all impure Appetites and carnal Lusts, remembering our SAVIOUR'S Comment on this Law, Whoever looketh on a Woman to lust after her, hath committed Adultery with her in his Heart, Matt. v. 28. An adulterous Habit of Mind, an Inclination cherished, an Intention deliberately formed to commit this Wickedness, can, on a moral Estimate, fall but little, if any Thing at all short of the real Perpetration of it: For in all Immoralities whatsoever, the principal Guilt does not lie in the Act itself, but in the Temper and Disposition of the Mind. Nay a Scheme of Adultery, coolly weighed and approved of, though not executed, may be more criminal than the Offence itself, when not premeditated, but occasioned by sudden Temptations.

Further, under this Commandment must be understood to be contained the whole Duty of Husbands towards their Wives, and of Wives towards their Husbands: Whatever tends to alienate their Affections from each other, that so their mutual Fidelity may not rest merely upon the Restraints of Fear, but upon the ingenuous Tye of conjugal Love.

15 Thou shalt not steal.

The first and highest Degree of the Sin forbidden in this Commandment is, that of robbing by Violence. 2. The next is Theft, or stealing, not by Violence, but by Secrecy and Concealment: Both of them so infamous, that none who make any Pretensions to Religion will be guilty of them; and to such Persons it would be in vain to offer any ingenuous Motives, they are only to be wrought upon by Whips and Gibbets. It is the Province of the Legislature and civil Magistrate, to take away the Temptations and Inlets to Theft and Knavery, by enacting good Laws, and seeing to the due Execution, of them by discountenancing Idleness, and giving all suitable Encouragement to honest Industry. The only Caution needful to be given is, that young Persons especially take Heed of the Beginnings of this Sin, of being tempted to do Wrong in smaller Matters, lest being hardened by Degrees they be seduced into greater, till at Length they run in to the greatest and most capital Offences. 3. The other Crimes forbidden in this Commandment are Fraud and Cheating of all Kinds, Lev. xix. 13. neglecting to pay just Debts, keeping back Wages, Extortion, taking Advantage of other Men's Necessities, and giving Assistance or Encouragement to others to do Wrong. All these are so many Sorts of Theft; and if the Fraud be committed in Breach of Trust, which is the Case of Servants and others who are intrusted with other Men's Affairs, it is an high Aggravation of the Guilt, as being a Breach both of Justice and Fidelity: Nor is the Crime less, when the Injustice is committed against the Public, but rather the greater. Though Injuries of this Kind, in smaller Instances, may not be immediately felt and complained of, yet this is no Diminution of the Guilt: And when the Public comes to be wronged by Persons of large and extensive Power, then not only the Crime itself, but the Effects of it also become greater and more apparent, than in the Case of private Injustice.

The Duties, on the contrary, enjoined in this Commandment, are Justice and Equity, Honesty and Fidelity, Truth and Fairness, in all our Dealings with one another. And for the same Reason that Justice is necessary, Reformation ought to be made to Persons who have been wronged; without this, all Professions of Repentance are but Hypocrisy: And because those who would avoid Sin, ought to avoid Temptation; therefore he that would not be tempted to defraud others, will endeavour to get an honest Livelihood by his own Industry, Eph. iv. 28.

To enforce the Duties here required, let it be considered, that Justice is the great Bond of human Society; take away Justice, and Mankind will no longer be distinguished from the wild Beasts of the Forest, where the Strongest devour the Weakest. What inconceivable Happiness would flow from the universal Practice of Justice and Honesty amongst Men? It would be a fulfilling of that Prophecy, Is. xi. 6. That the Wolf shall dwell with the Lamb, and the Leopard shall lie down with the Kid, &c. It would be an Anticipation of that new Heaven and new Earth, wherein Righteousness is to dwell for ever.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

By our Neighbour here we are to understand every Man, who is within the Reach of our good and bad Offices: And so we are plainly taught in our SAVIOUR'S Account of the good Samaritan, (Luke x. 29.) that the Love of our Neighbour is only another Phrase for the Love of all Mankind; and the Jewish Law, however perverted, had the same large and generous Views.

Of the Sin here forbidden are various Degrees: 1. The highest is the giving false Evidence in any Court of Judicature, either in criminal or other Cases; whereof see a notorious Example in the Case of those false Witnesses whom Jezebel suborned against Naboth, 1 Kings xxi. 8, &c. 2. The next is, when in common Conversation we knowingly spread false Reports concerning any Person, whether out of Malice, Envy, Revenge, or for private Interest. But there are still lower Degrees of this Vice, which, as they are less scandalous, so there is more Danger of Men's falling into them: Such are, 3. The careless spreading of Accusations, without knowing whether they be true or false. 4. Dissemination upon Suspicion and Conjecture, as when a Man's Actions are capable of a good and bad Interpretation, to fix on the most unfavourable: This is not the Temper of a good Man, for he taketh not up a Reproach against his Neighbour; this is not the Spirit of Christian Charity, for it thinketh no Evil, but believeth all Things, hopeth all Things. 5. Detraction, when we either derogate from our Neighbour's general Worth, or endeavour to lessen the particular Merit of his good Actions. This is often done in a more refined Way, by those who artfully seek to shun the Appearance of Envy; when they cannot deny a Man's Virtues, they will ascribe them to such Motives and Principles, as diminish their Excellence: His Temperance and Chastity to Constitution, his Devotion to Warmth of Temper; or they will confound his good Qualities with similar Vices, calling his strict Regularity of Manners Preciseness, his zealous Piety Superstition; or they will cast an Aspersions on his general Character, by reviving the Memory of former Miscarriages, which he has sincerely repented of and relinquished. And we are involved in the same Guilt, when we aggravate our Neighbour's Faults, nor make due Allowances for the universal Infirmities of human Nature, nor take Notice of such Circumstances, as tend to extenuate his Guilt. 6. We are also guilty of a Degree of this Vice, when we bear Witness against our Neighbour not falsely, but needlessly and unkindly, in spreading his real Faults when it cannot serve any public good Purpose: This is included in the Prohibition, as appears from Lev. xix. Thou shalt not go up and down as a Tale-Bearer among thy People.

If we would avoid the Vices condemned in this Precept, let us be candid in our Opinions and Discourses of others, (Matt. vii. 1.) ingenuous, sincere, and upright in all our Conversation; especially let us govern our Tongue, which is an Instrument of so great Mischief, (Jam. iii. 5.) Let us set a Watch before our Mouths, and keep the Door of our Lips. "It were much to be wished," says a celebrated Writer, "that the giving of Characters, and discourse of the Affairs of others, did not take up too great a Part of Conversation; because it is indeed a Subject of so dangerous a Nature: For any one who rightly considers will see, that he is not, as I may say, neutral enough to trust himself with talking of the Character and Concerns of his Neighbour." But if such Subjects will often come into Conversation, let us, instead of dwelling upon our Neighbour's Imperfections, rather resolve to change the Strain, and discourse of his Excellencies: Make it our Business to vindicate aspersed Innocence, to illustrate the Dignity, Beauty, and Usefulness of virtuous Examples; this is a truly noble and generous Entertainment, a Pleasure infinitely more solid and durable than any that can result from mere ill-natured Offices or Scandal; and it would withal, were it a Custom universally followed, be a strong Spur and Incentive to Virtue.

was of a Mediator between GOD and Man. How happy then are we, who are revealed to us a Divine Mediator who ever intercedes between us and GOD, to make Intercession for us! even the beloved Son of GOD Himself.

20 And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

For God's sake to give them.] Not to confuse you with the Things of this world which you see, but to put your Obedience to the Lord, to impress upon your Minds an awful Regard to his Law, and keep you ready to your Engagement to observe it.

21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was.

22. ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

23 Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

Ye have seen that Place, marked with your own Heaven, &c. i. e.
Ye have seen the Line out of which my Voice proceeded, therefore let this plain and figural Demonstrations of the Divine Proficiency, which have been exhibited amongst you, have Effect to Free you, and your Posterity, from all kind of idolatrous Worship, especially that of representing me by Image, though of the most costly and splendid Material.

24. ¶ An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: In all places where I record my name, I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee.

Don (q. v.) properly signify such sacrifices as were wholly consumed by fire upon the Altar; but it often signifies sacrifice in general, or such sacrifices as were offered to GOD in gratitude for favours received.

*In the Place where I will Name,] i. e. In every Place where I shall Name, i. e. to be worshipped and honoured. For the Word which we render to call, signifies also to worship and celebrate. Ps. lxxvi. 3. 1 Cor. x. 16. *1.

[Psalm lxxviii. 12.] My divine Presence and Blessing shall be upon your Services, when performed in this mean and simple Manner, as much as if they were accompanied with the most pompous and costly Preparations.

25 And if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of hewn stone : for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it.

If it would make me an Altar of Stone, then shall not build it of bricks and mortar. To convince a gross People it was not the Costliness of the Material, nor the external Forms and Modes of Worship the GOD required, but the Devotion of the Mind with which it was accompanied. Add to this, that by their being not hewn nor squared, all Manner of Imagery was avoided.

For in the Use of the Tool upon the Altar, that had polluted it.] Not at all the Application of the Artists Tool, could convey any notion of moral Pollution to Things destined to a sacred Use; but this Instruction, like the rest, served to beget in the People the greater Veneration toward GOD, and what was appropriated to His Worship. The next flowing Command came upon the very Materials of GODS Service, distinguishing them from common Stones, and the Violation of this Prohibition had been an Act of Profaneness in the highest.

20 Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

The Garments worn in those Countries being perfectly loose were easily blown aside, so as to discover the lower Parts of the Body: And to prevent this Inconveniency, and that no Indecency might intermingle with the Service of GOD, this Precaution was necessary. And for the same Reason the Priests were afterward appointed to wear Black hats, which were worn by none of the People in Spain, Exod. xxviii. 42.

CHAPTER VIII.

1. Il est possible que l'ensemble des points de la courbe  $\Gamma$  soit fini.

13 :     ... .. the ... .. reading of

For  $17 \leq j$  and  $i$  of  $j$  part. 18 Concerning certain lower down to 17. 20 For a large doubly infinite; 33 And for  $i$ , that is, a certain lower.

NOW these are the judgments which thou shalt set before them.

By Laws is meant such judicial or political Laws as respect the civil Government; and the Rights between Man and Man; as the Ordinances about GOD's Worship are commonly called Statutes or Decrees.

2 If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve : and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him.

Nothing can be more just and humane than these Laws; they indeed shew the GOD of Love and REASONABLENESS to be the AUTHOR of them: And this may teach us that we are indispensably obliged to do Justice to our Servants in all Respects, and to treat them always with Kindness and Humanity.

4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have borne him sons and daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my matter, my wife, and my children, I will not go out free :

6 Then his master shall bring him unto the judges ; he also shall bring him to the door, or unto the door-post : and his master shall bore his ear through with an aul ; and he shall serve him for ever.

This Ceremony of  boring the Ear  denoted his Obligation to  hearken , and constantly attend, to his Master's Orders.

7 ¶ And if a man sell his daughter to be a maid-servant, she shall not go out as the men-servants do.

The Sense of this Verse seems to be, that if a Father, through extreme Poverty, was reduced to the hard Necessity of selling his Daughter for a Maid-Servant, she should not be treated upon the Footing of other Servants, who had been either sold by the Judges for some Crime, or had voluntarily sold themselves. She shall not go out as they do; i. e. She shall not be dismissed from her Servitude in the same Manner as they are, but shall obtain her Liberty on easier Terms, which are mentioned V. 9, 10, 11.

8 If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: To sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.

In the Case above-mentioned, it seems to have been customary for the Master to betroth the Maid to himself or his Son.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he take him another wife; her food, her raiment, and her duty of marriage shall he not diminish.

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

12 ¶ He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.

13 And if a man be not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

As the Scripture teaches us to acknowledge GOD in every Thing that falls out, so when a Man is killed by mere Accident, and without any Intention of the Agent, he is said to have been delivered into his Hand by GOD, without whose Divine Foresight and Sovereign Permission, the Event could not have happened. This may afford some Comfort to those who are so unfortunate to kill any one by Accident; and it ought to restrain the Friends and Relations of the Slain from prosecuting the Slayer with Malice and Revenge. It may likewise afford Comfort to those who lose Children or any Relatives by any Accident whatsoever, as we are taught here that the Hand of GOD is in all these.

14 But if a man come presumptuously on his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

We see, by this, how contrary to the Law of GOD those act who make their Churches, a Sanctuary for the worst Crimes and even Murder.

15 ¶ And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

So sacred and inviolable is that Reverence which Children owe to Parents, that by the Law of GOD, it was Death not only to strike them, but even to curse or outrageously revile them, ver. 15. and Matth. xv. 4. Mark vii. 10. The Reason of this Law is, that such Crimes are a Sign of most audacious Wickedness. But it appears from Deut. xxi. 18. that Children were not to be put to Death for the first Offence of this Kind, but if, after repeated admonitions from their Parents, they still persisted in their unchristian Carriage, without Hope of Reformation; then upon the Parent's Accusations, they were to be put to Death.

16 ¶ And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 ¶ And he that curieth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18 ¶ And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed :

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him, be quit : only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

20 ¶ And if a man smite his servant, or his maid with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely punished.

Whoever beat a Servant or Slave, so as he died on the Spot, was to be treated as a Murderer. This Law is truly worthy of GOD, and shews Moses to have been guided by a higher Spirit, than the wisest Lawgivers among the Heathens, for they all allowed Masters unlimited Power over their Slaves, even to the taking away of their Lives, by beating and cruel Usage.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished : for he is his money.

Because it might be presumed he did not die of those Strokes; and the Matter suffered in the Loss of his Servant.

22 ¶ If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow : he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him, and he shall pay as the judges determine.

And yet no Mischief follow,'] i. e. If the Woman die not, as appears from the next Verse; but some understand it if the Child was not yet formed; but if the Child was formed, and alive in the Womb, then the Offender was to be punished with Death.

23 And if any minister follow, then thou shalt give life for life, 24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

23 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.

27 And if he finite out his man-servant's tooth, or his maid-servant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.

To check the Cruelty of tyrannical Masters, it is here mercifully ordained, that a Master should lose the Service of his Slave, even for only occasioning to him the Loss of a Tooth; how ad-

of the District National Bank, Chicago, Illinois, and of the District National Bank, Chicago, Illinois, and

28. If not, the defendant shall be liable for the costs of the proceedings and shall not be entitled to recover any costs from the plaintiff.

The O. was sent to Berkeley, California, for identification. It was found to be a new species, O. laticauda (see Plate 1, fig. 1). The animal was deposited in the collection of the Department of Zoology, University of California, Berkeley, California.

29 But if the ox were caught in the field, he may in time pull, and he shall be sold for his value, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman, the owner shall be put to death.

This was most happily ordained by GOD, that we should be able to Neglect, that the Reputation of his Light should never be lost, or that of his Animals, that any Mankind, who are his Creatures, should be able to fall from, hence we may learn that, he is able to make us as good as he is, (now) how lively cannot we be, if we are the Creature of GOD, and if any Person lose his Life by any Neglect, or any manner of Sin, or any thing, or any other where our Creature of his presence, then we are, ever light we may think of it, the Light of GOD, in his precious in the Sight of GOD, and no feeling, we are to be glad with GOD for the Loss of it.

30 If there be laid on him a sum of money, & he be shal give for the ransom of his life, whatsoever is laid upon him.

In some Cases it was added to confirm this.

21 Whether he have given a son, or have given a daughter, according to the judgment shall it be done unto him.

32 If the ox shall push a man-servant, or a maid-servant; he shall give unto their master a pair of oxen, or three shekels of silver, and the ox shall be kept.

33 ¶ And if a man shall open a pit, or dig a pit, and shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein ;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them, and the sold beast shall be his.

In those Countries it was customary to dig for Springs, and to make Cisterns for receiving the Rain Water, which, when covered, Cattle might easily fall into and perish. It is plain that this is to be understood of Highway, Common, or publick Pasture, where the Cattle used to graze in common, and the Road is founded upon the greatest Reason and Equity. How then can Christian Magistrates and Officers, and even Individuals, excuse themselves for the Mischietts which frequently arise from the Neglects of this Sort, not only to Cattle, but even to the Loss of Man's Life. Shameful to speak it, many Lives are yearly lost in this one Country only, from stings, or thorns, or Harbours, &c. being left unguarded. How do we thank GOD doth lay these Lives to the Charge of them, through whose Neglect or Want of Care they were lost, and permit Crimes some great Afflictions on them upon that Account, as if it was a Thing that none who reflect on in a proper Manner, but must think to be criminal; for if a wife, just, and good GOD thought him deserving of Death, who did not take Care that his malicious Ox did not kill any one; surely he must look upon that Indulgence and Penuriousness as no less criminal, which makes the human Life to be lost for Want of a Post or Rail, or what might be effected with a little Trouble or Charge.

35 ¶ And if one man's ox hurt another's that he die, then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it, and the dead ox also they shall divide.

Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in ; he shall surely pay ox for ox, and the dead shall be his own.

Nothing can be more equitable than their Laws.

C H A P. XVII.

Of theft. § Of damage done by the defendant in the commission of the offence.
Of damage done by the defendant in the commission of the offence.

[illegible]

IF a man shall steal an ox or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.

We may observe here, that Theft of no Kind is made capital by the Mosaic Law. And indeed it has very reasonably been practised by several great Men, whether the punishing of Theft by Death is just in itself; for what Proportion is there between a few Shillings stole, or Pence perhaps, and the Life of a Man? How absurd is it to punish a Pickpocket with the same Severity as a Murderer. If by the Mosaic Law, which was so rough and severe, as being a Yoke of Bondage, Men were only kned, and not put to Death for Theft, we cannot imagine, that under the Gospel, which is an Institution of the greatest Mercy, in which GOD treats us with the Tenderness of a Father, he has given us a greater Licence to Severity than he did the Jews. The most specious Argument on the other Side of the Question is, that the Good of the Public makes it necessary to punish Theft and Robbery with Death; for, if even Death is not sufficient to restrain from these Crimes, a Mitigation of the Punishment would only be giving them greater Encouragement: But the Truth is, it is not severe Laws alone will prevent the Commission of Crimes; unless the Axe be laid to the Root of the Evil, unless proper Methods be taken for restraining Idleness and Luxury, unless due Care be taken to educate the Members of a Community to a Love of Virtue and Industry, and to an Abhorrence of every Thing base and dishonest, even capital Punishments will avail but little. Besides, as the Law now stands, it may be questioned whether it does not produce more Harm than Good; since it robs the Community of several Lives, that by proper Regulation might be rendered useful to it in a Way of mechanic Labour. Our Saxon Ancestors were in this Particular more equitable than we: for Theft, among them, was for a long while not punishable with Death; and after it was made capital, it was redeemable with Money.

It is to be observed, that other Thefts, were punished only with the Restitution of double; but here a fourfold and fivefold Restitution is required. For which this Reason is given; that Money, Garments, Jewels, &c. are better guarded and not so easily stolen as Cattle, which, feeding in the open Field, would be oftener made a Prey to Robbers, did not a severer Sanction restrain them.

Another Thing observable is, that a smaller Satisfaction is required for a Sheep than for an Ox; the Reason of which seems to be, that an Ox was of greater Value, being the Companion of Man in his rural Labour, and useful to so many Purposes in Husbandry; so that the Stealing of this Animal justly deserved a severer Punishment.

2 ¶ If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him.

To kill a House-breaker in the very Fact, provided it be in the Night-time, was to be esteemed no Murder, but Self-Defence : It being presumed, that such an audacious Felon, comes with a murderous as well as a thievish Intention. However, St. Augustine rightly observes, that though the Law is wise in not punishing such Homicides, yet in the Tribunal of Conscience the Person who used this Permission was not entirely blameless, unless he either acted in Defence of his own Life, or under a strong Presumption that the Thief had a Design upon his Life; for that this alone could justify a Person in taking away the Life of another by his own private Authority.

3 If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him : for he should make full restitution ; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

If the Sun be run upon him, there shall be Blinded for him; } The Reason is, that he might then be known, and more easily be pursued and taken; and such a one might be presumed to come only with a Design to steal.

4 If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep ; he shall restore double.

This Law makes a great Difference between a Man who kills and sells after he has stolen, and one on whom it is found alive : The former is punished four or five-fold, scz. 1. the other only double ; the Reason is, the former concealed His Theft with more Industry, and seemed to have no Hope of making Re-stitution.

5 ¶ If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field: of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard shall he make restitution.

6 ¶ If fire break out, and catch in thorn, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field be consumed thereunto; he that kindled the fire, shall surely make restitution.

This Law was intended to make Men cautious of doing Mischief, even in Cases of accidental Danger.

7 ¶ If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double.

8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods.

9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his : the cause of both parties shall come before the judges ; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.

He who pretended to have deposited the Goods, was to pay double, if he brought an unjust Action against the Buyer, or he with whom the Goods were deposited, was to pay the same Fine, if it appeared he had dealt fraudulently.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbor man, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

11 Then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods : and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.

If there was no other Way to discover the Truth, then he to whom they were delivered, was to purge himself by Oath.

12 And if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.

i. e. If he be not able to clear himself by Oath, and it appear to be stolen from him with his Knowledge or Privity.

13 If it be torn in pieces ; then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

14. ¶ And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof saying nor with it; he shall surely make it good.

The Sense of these Words, and those in the Beginning of ver. 15. is : That if the Owner was with the Thing that was lent, at the Time of its Hurt or Death, it was to be presumed he would do his best to preserve it, and see it was not ill used, and so must bear the Loss ; but if he was not present at that Time, then the contrary was presumed, that the Borrower was in Fault, and therefore bound to make it good. The Intention of the Law was to make Men exceeding careful of another's Goods.

15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be an hired thing, it came for his hire.

He who hired a Horse, for Instance, was not obliged to make it good, though it came to any Damage, even in the Absence of the Owner, provided he used it well, for, doubtless, that it was understood; because it was a hired Thing. But if he paid no Hire, and the Owner was absent, when the Damage happened, then he was bound to make it good, because of the Generosity of the Lender.

16 ¶ And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and he with her; he shall surely endow her to be his wife.

17 If her father utterly refuse to live her under him, he shall pay money according to the doctry of Vulgaris

15 ¶ Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.

The Original Word which we translate all other Men is ἄλλοι ἄνθρωποι, which some interpret to include the Saints with the Appearances of Them. The Word is of the feminine Gender, because Women are thought to be most addicted to this Crime; but, under this Name, all others or Men all others probably included.

The true Reator of this fearful Prohibition, Idolatry, is a Witch to us, seems to be, that all Witches, whether real or pretended, did openly profess and practice Idolatry. Now the very Profession of having received from Idols, a Power of doing Things supernatural, was an Act of High Treason against the Truth Constitution, i. e. subversive of its very Frame; for the great Design of that Institution was to establish the Worship of the one true GOD in Opposition to Idolatry: This was not only the chief Principle of their Religion, but the principal Maxim of their State; for they were properly a Body of People formed into a sacred Polity under GOD, not only as the great Governor of the World, as he is to the rest of Mankind, but as in a special Sense their King and Governor, who had been pleased to enter into a peculiar Relation to them for this Purpose, whom they had by solemn Covenant acknowledged and recognized as such, and to whom they had promised and vowed Obedience. This was the Fundamental of their Polity, the original Contract upon which their State was founded. So that Idolatry, or the Worshipping of other Gods, besides the certain Guilt inseparable from it, as it is a very criminal Breach of the Law of Nature, was in their Constitution an Act of Rebellion against their rightful, acknowledged Sovereign, and a dissolving the original fundamental Contract that lay at the Foundation of their whole Constitution, and by which it subsisted.

19 ¶ Whoſoever lieth with a beaſt, ſhall ſurely be put to death.

And by Parity of Reason all monitions, &c. are prohibited under the same Sanction, Lev. xviii. 22. &c. 13.

20 ¶ He that sacrificeth unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

That is, shall be devoted to Death; as the Word signifies
If. xxxiv. 2. Deut. xiii. 15. xvii. 2, 5.

21 ¶ Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him : for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.

O admirable Laws! ye undoubtedly proceeded from that DIVINE and GRACIOUS BEING, who consider all the People of the Earth as his Flock, and He their Shepherd; the Inhabitants of the whole World as his Children, and He their Father. Yes! gracious GOD, whatever weak Man may think, thou art not the God of the Jew only, but of the Gentile also. The People of Israel were never thy peculiar Care so far, but that thou wast still the LOVER of MANKIND. The Servant, the Slave, the Stranger, are taken Care of by thee, as well as the Master and the Heir. The more helpless and friendless any of thy Creatures are, the more thou becomest their Helper and Defender. Thou hast declared thyself, as the Father of the Fatherless, the Judge and Helper of the Widows: He who executeth the Judgment of the Fatherless and Widow, and teacheth the Stranger.

What a Source of Comfort is here to cheer the afflicted Heart of the desolate Widow ! Amidst her Pangs of Grief for having lost an earthly Protector and Guardian, she may remember that she has an Heaven's one, who can do every Thing for her, and who has promised to help and avenge her Cause whenever she is oppressed. What Comfort may this afford to those Parents whom GOD takes away from their Children, while they are still young and helpless ! Though they can be no more supported by their sustaining Arm, though they must leave them in a wide World, weak and friendless, yet still they may put aside this bitter Thought by remembering that He who is the Sovereign LORD and POSSESSOR of all that is on the Earth, has promised to become THE FATHER OF THE FATHERLESS ; and surely they cannot fear to leave them to His Care, for He is both able and willing to save to the uttermost, and is ever faithful to his Promise.

Does GOD then take such peculiar Care of the Stranger, the Widow, and the Fatherless, how then can we be the Children of GOD if we do not the same? If we treat the Stranger with Indifference and Indignity, as if he was not of the same Flesh

[illegible]

24 If thou affect them in any wise, and tell any at all unto me : I will surely hear their cry ;

A Child has his Father, and a Wife her Husband, to whom they may first Resort when burdened with sorrow and affliction; but the Widow and the Fatherless, who are bereaved of their tender and protecting Relations, how can they but appeal to GOD Himself to judge and vindicate their Wrongs. But not only when they make their solemn Appeal to Him, He pities and loves their powerful Person, to redress their Wrongs, and to bestow Vengeance on their oppressors and afflictors. No civil Government is appointed to the Oppression of the Widow, or the Orphan; this GOD reserves to Himself, and is therefore styled the Judge of the Widow and Fatherless, Psalm 82. Dm. x. 12.

24 And my wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

Here GOD threatens the Peacemakers, and if they were guilty of such Oppressions, with Misery or Misfortune, to be sent down upon them, as should make their Waves Whirl, and their Chubbatsatierlets, reduce the Offenders to Circumstances less than those of the poor Objects whom they oppress.

23. ¶ If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury.

Thou shalt not take him as an Urrer ; ] that is, Thou shalt not rigorously exact all thy Dues, nor treat him with the merckle Severity of a cruel Creditor, but have Patience with him, and not demand more than he can pay. Neither shalt thou lay upon him Urry ; that is, upon the Poor and Distressed ; for it is plain from other Passages, that a lawful Interest for the Use of Money, was allowed of ; but to take Advantage of the Necessities of the Poor to exact exorbitant Urry, and even not to have the Heart to assist the pressing Necessities of the honest laborious Poor, without a Premium, is hateful and abominable in the Sight of GOD. As Men and Christians, it were to be wished that we would bring all our Actions to the Standard of GOD'S Law ; they all are right, and exceeding true : While we are in this world State, our Passions will blind us, false Reasonings will make us err, the Love for ourselves will corrupt our Judgment. Happy are we then, if we were but sensible of our Happiness, that we have a certain Direction, in having GOD'S Law declared to us in the Holy Scriptures for our sure Guide, our Counsellor, our unerring Director upon all Occasions. It is the Nature of unhappy Man to err, he wanders in Ignorance and Darkness, but GOD'S Word, whereforever it is declared, is a Light to our Feet, and a Lamp unto our Paths, the bright Star which we may always see aright by. Thus did David think and say. Whoso will glorify himself in his Works, shall be as the Work of Vanities ? By taking Head thou shalt be smitten, and shalt be killed. And again, The Testimonies are my Counselors ; they shall keep me from all Iniquity, keep me more than my Eyes ; I have more Counselors than all my Teachers, for thy Precepts are my Meditations ; I understand more than the Ancients, because I keep thy Precepts. Through thy Precepts I get Understanding.

And thus, if we know the Things which belong unto our Peace, those which alone can make us truly wise and truly happy, shall we who are blessed with the Divine and precious Gift of the Holy Scriptures, constantly make them the Rule of all our Actions, and never hearken to the weak and vain Suggestions of our own Hearts; but to the Law and the Testimony, and to what that speaketh to us? For the Entrance of the Divine Law, and the Law, is given unto us, according to the simple; for the Commandments of it are full of Grace, its Precepts concerning all Things are right, and its Testimonies are founded for ever.

26 If thou at all take thy neighbour's raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by that the sun goeth down :

The Meaning is, If thou take in Pawn for Money, but him, any Part of his Raiment or Bed-Clothes, which he sanctifyeth with, without great Inconveniency, you shall let him have them every Night. The same is to be understood, by Parity of Reason, of all other Things whereof he hath present Use, especially Things whereon a poor Man's Livelihood depended; therefore the Law specifyeth in the Mill-Stone which grindeth Corn, that it should not be taken to Pawn, Deut. xxiv. 6. It is plain that Moses is here speaking only of the Poor, as also Deut. xxiv. 12. 13. And therefore if any one had taken a Pledge from his Neighbour, who could spare it without any Inconveniency, the Law does not hinder but he might keep it longer, even till it was redeemed. It is probable that the poorer Sort, especially in Moses's Days, had often no other Bed but the Earth covered with Straw or Leaves, and no other Covering but their wearing Apparel: To deprive them therefore of the only Thing they had to keep themselves warm in the Night, was such a Piece of Inhumanity, as our GOD and PROPHET GOD would not permit to be exercised. In the Day-Time they could go almost naked in that warm Climate, but the cold Damps of the Night required that their Bodies should be covered.

27 For that is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? And it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto me, that I will hear: for I am gracious.

28 ¶ Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.

By GOD here, are meant JUDGES or MAGISTRATES: This Title is given them in Scripture, as having the Power committed to them of punishing Vice, and exercising Justice; so that may be considered as GOD's Vice-gerents in governing the World.

29 ¶ Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the first-born of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.

30 Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it me.

31 ¶ And ye shall be holy men unto me: neither shall ye eat any flesh that is torn of beasts in the field: ye shall cast it to the dogs.

C H A P. XXIII.

Of slander and false witness. 3, 6 Of justice. 4 Of charitable-ness. 10 Of the year of rest. 14 Of the three feasts. 25 Great blessings promised.

THOU shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

Many understand this of Judges, that they are not to be prepossessed with any false or flying Report in criminal Causes, that come before them; for that the Word which we translate raise, signifies to take up. But the following Words shew that it relates to Witnesses, that they should not calumniate any Man, nor give a false Evidence in any public Trial. And we may with Reason look upon it to be an absolute Prohibition of raising any false Report of any one, upon any Occasion.

2 ¶ Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause, to decline after many, to wrest judgment.

If any one appears innocent, it is our Duty to defend him to our Power, though never so many have condemned him before us. Nothing perhaps leads Men so much into Evil, as that of following others, we are easily swayed by Example, and thus being singular, and therefore we more often fall into what is wrong by heedlessly following those who go before us, without examining Things and judging of them by our own Reason, than we do from any other Occasion; and therefore there cannot be a more wise or more useful Caution to be fixed continually in our Remembrance, than that Multitudes doing of a Thing does not make it the more right or fit; and it may lead to Misery, though thousands practice it.

3 ¶ Neither shalt thou countenance a poor man in his cause.

However great the Compassion which GOD expresses for the Poor, how much soever he recommends them to our Care and Protection, yet he would not have our Tenderness for them carry us to countenance them unjustly, or give a wrong Judgment for their Sake.

4 ¶ If thou meet thine enemies ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

This is one of those Offices of common Humanity, to which all Men, even Enemies, have an undoubted Right. And therefore in Deut. xxii. 1. the Precept runs thus: Thou shalt not see thy Brother's Ox, or his Ass, go astray, &c. as if it had been on Purpose to teach the conceited Jews to look upon all Men, even Enemies, as Brethren, having the same common Original, and bearing the Image of the same GOD. Consequently, though private Injuries may excuse us from treating a Man as a Friend, a familiar, or bosom Companion; yet he can never lose his Right to common Offices of Charity and Kindness, so long as he retains the same Nature with ourselves. If the Owner happened not to be known, it was to be kept till Inquiry was made after it, Deut. xxii. 2.

5 If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee, lying under his burden, and wouldst forbear to help him: thou shalt surely help with him.

This shews who is meant by Enemy in the former Verse; namely, one who hates us, and has done us an ill Office out of Malice or malignant Intention. The Ass is mentioned as the common Beast of Burden among the ancient Hebrews. But Oxen and other such like Creatures are also intended, as appears from the former Verse.

And wouldst forbear to help him; thou shalt surely help with him.] What is the Sense of these Words we learn from the parallel Place, Deut. xxii. 4. Thou shalt not see thy Brother's Ass, or his Ox, fall down by the Way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again.

6 Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause.

As a Judge should beware lest, through Motives of Compassion, or an Affectation of Popularity, he be biased in Favour of the Poor: So, on the other Hand, he must not despise a Man because he is poor and unbefriended, he must not take Advantage of his Indigence, to misrepresent his Cause, to refuse to give him an impartial Hearing, to strain a Point of Equity in his Prejudice, or pass Sentence wrongfully against him. There is an Emphasis in the Expression thy Poor, importing, that they were Members of their Body though poor.

7 Keep thee far from a false matter: and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked.

8 ¶ And thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

For the Gift blindeth the Wise,] i. e. Bribes cast a Mist before the Eyes, and bias the Judgment and Affections even of those who are otherwise wise and discerning: Besides, an Habit of taking Bribes will in Time quite extinguish the Light of Reason, and destroy the Sense of Right and Wrong. See Eccles. vii. 7. And perverteth the Words of the Righteous, i. e. The Words or Sentence of those who would otherwise be righteous.—Le Clerc understands it of those Quirks, and subtle intricate Distinctions, to which corrupt Judges are fain to have Recourse, in order to put a fair Face upon a bad Cause, or to justify an iniquitous Sentence.

9 ¶ Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

This is addressed to the Judges; which makes it a distinct Precept from that, Ch. xxii. 21. which is directed to the Israelites in general. Compare Deut. xxiv. 17, 18, xxvii. 29. For ye know the Heart of a Stranger, i. e. Ye know by Experience what a distressed friendless Condition that is.—There is a great Beauty in the Expression, Ye know the Heart of a Stranger: His Heart is easily depressed, and very unable to bear Repulses.

10 And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof:

11 But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest, and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave, the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy olive-yard.

After

After your Labour in the Field, a Testimony of your constant Trust and Reliance upon the Bounty of Providence, and out of Charity to the Poor, and Mercy to your very Beasts, you shall, every seventh Year, let your Lands go unutilled, to produce a full grown Crop, and let your Fruit-Tree be in common for the Poor, as well as the Owner, themselves. The whole Year's Product shall be free to all alike, for the Rest and Refreshment of Man and Beast. And this shall be no Hindrance at all, to the Advantage of particular Owners. See Lev. xxv. 20. This Regulation served many excellent Purposes. It put even in Mind that the Earth brought forth not of itself, but by the fructifying Influence of the Divine Power, and consequently served to breed in them Trust in GOD, and his Providence. Therefore GOD promised to commend his Blessing upon them in the sixth Year, and to make the Earth bring forth triple Increase, Lev. xxv. 20, 21. It was a Curb to Avarice and habituated them to the Exercise of Humanity to their Slave and Beasts, and of Mercy and Liberality to the Poor. This Sabbatical Year was also subservient to Religion, for the People were then to be instructed in the Law of GOD, which was appointed to be read this Year in the Audience of all Israel, Men, Women, and Children, when they assembled before GOD at the Feast of Tabernacles, Deut. xxxi. 10, 11, 12. This Law related only to the Times of the peaceful Possession of the promised Land. We seldom read of its being observed, and it appears from Lev. xxvi. 34, 35. that the Neglect of it was one of the Sins which brought Judgments upon them, particularly that of the Babylonish Captivity, 2 Chron. xxxvi. 21.

12 Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy hand-maid, and the stranger may be refreshed.

He would not have them imagine that they should rest less on the seventh Day this Year than in any other: Though the whole Year was to be a Time of Rest from Tillage and Pruning, both to Man and Beast, the Sabbath was to be all the while observed, with its usual and peculiar Regard.

13 And in all things that I have said unto you, be circumspect: and make no mention of the names of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 ¶ Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year.

i. e. Three solemn Festivals, wherein the whole Body of the Nation were to assemble; viz. at the Passover, Pentecost, and at the Feast of Tabernacles, as it follows. The End of their Institution was to pay a solemn rational Thanksgiving to GOD, for the good Things which they possessed by his Bounty, and to offer up Prayers for the Continuance of those Blessings. And by obliging all the Males to meet together at the same Place of public Worship, the several Tribes had an Opportunity of seeing and conversing with each other, of contracting and renewing Friendships.

15 Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee in the time appointed of the month Abib: for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and none shall appear before me empty:

That is, none shall be accepted by GOD, unless they bring some Present with them. Not that such Offerings of themselves availed any Thing in the Sight of GOD; but they were accepted as Signs and Tokens of Homage and Dependence, according to the Fashion of the Times, Jud. iii. 15. 1 Sam. x. xvii. 1 Chron. xviii. 2. 6. 1 Kings v. 21. Therefore this Precept relates to all the three Feasts here mentioned, as appears from Deut. xvi. 16. The several Oblations are specified elsewhere. At the Passover, when Harvest began, they were to bring a Sheaf of the first Fruits of their Harvest, Lev. xxiii. 10. Nor were they to eat new Corn till this was done, ver. 14. At Pentecost they brought two Loaves as the second First-fruits of their Wheat-harvest, Lev. xxiii. 17. And at the Feast of Tabernacles, the First-fruits of Wine and Oil. Besides these there were Free-will Offerings which were limited to no Time.

16 And the feast of harvest, the first-fruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of in-gathering which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

It is here called the Feast of Harvest, not because their Harvest then began, but because it was finished about that Time.

The Feast of Harvest was kept on the 15th of the Month of Abib, ver. 15. Thou shalt keep it with the First-fruits, &c. They paid tribute to the King of Egypt of Wheat, Barley, Grapes, &c. for which they received in kind, which were the First-fruits of their Harvest, &c. The Year began in the Month of Abib, answering to the 1st of October and Part of October.

17 Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord GOD.

That is, in the Place where in Exodus xvi. 34. it is said, which was set in the Tabernacle, and afterwards in the Temple. Here the Males only were bound to appear, though the Females are not excluded. And it appears that the women of the twelve Tribes, with their Husbands, Sons, &c. And Deut. xxi. 12. Males of Israel, Women, Children, &c. were to be all gathered to appear before the Lord at the Feast of Tabernacles.

18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning.

Thou shalt not offer the Blood of my Sacrifice, &c. [i. e. Of the Passchal Lamb, as appears from Ex. xxiv. 25. and so it is rendered by the Chaldee. See Ex. xii. 15. It is called GOD's Sacrifice by Way of Eminence, because it was of a most solemn Nature. The Fat of the Passover, as of other Sacrifices, was the Leaven, to be burnt upon his Altar, Lev. iii. 15. 1 Chron. xvi. 14. These First-fruits were to be offered with a verbal Acknowledgment of the Mercies of GOD to the Israelitish Nation, Deut. xxvi. 5, 7, 9, 10. They were paid therefore as a Kind of Quit-Rent, in Acknowledgment that they held of JAROH as their Tenant, and that the Tenure of all their Estates was of his Gift and Donation.

19 The first of the first-fruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

Thou shalt not seethe a Kid in his Mother's Milk Some take this for a Prohibition against offering any Animal in Sacrifice when it is milky and unforned, i. e. before it be eight Days old, till which Time it was to be left with its Dam, Ex. xxii. 30. Others, not without Probability, think it contains a Prohibition against a superstitious Rite in Use among the ancient Idolaters, who were wont, it seems, when they had gathered in all the Fruits of the Earth, to seethe a Kid in its Mother's Milk, and to sprinkle the Trees and Fields and Gardens with the Broth after a magical Manner, to make them more fruitful for the following Year. This Sense shews the Connexion of this Precept with the foregoing; for having mentioned the offering of the First-fruits of Harvest, it was natural to forbid the Use of any such superstitious Rites as were practised at that Time.

20 ¶ Behold, I send an Angel before thee to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.

Behold, I send an Angel before thee. Many Christian Writers conclude that this Angel was CHRIST; but as he has no such distinguishing Character here given him, as that in Mal. iii. 3. The Angel of the Covenant, the judicious Bishop Patrick thinks, it may be dangerous to call CHRIST simply an Angel: It is safer to understand it of one of the Angels of the heavenly Retinue, especially since GOD who sends, and the Angel who is sent, are so plainly distinguished, ver. 22.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not: for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him.

He will not pardon your Transgressions, &c. Though but a Minister of Heaven, he acts by my Authority, and will not fail to punish your wilful Breach of his Commands: For that is the Meaning of he will not pardon.

22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.

23 For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off.

24 Thou

24 Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images.

25 And ye shall serve the Lord your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water: and I will take away the evil from the midst of thee.

[From the Red-Sea, and the River.] i. e. All thy Provisions, Bread denoting any kind of Meat, and Water any kind of Drink, 1 Sam. xvi. 17.

It is through GOD'S Blessing, however little we think about it, that we receive our daily Food. It is he that findeth Health or Sickness, though we are apt to look upon all these Things as falling out by Chance; but what GOD here tells the Israelites, and in other Places, plainly teaches us, that he disposeth of all these Things, even to the Fruitfulness and Health of our Cattle, as follows in the next Verse. It is HE indeed, (as the Apostle says) who made the World, and all Things therein, and who giveth to all Life, and Breath, and all Things. For that the Israelites did not receive these Blessings in any extraordinary Way, but by the ordinary Operation of Providence under which we all live, is plain from many Passages. In the Eighth of Deuteronomy, there is a Caution given the Israelites, lest any of them should say, or think in their Hearts, as we are now apt to do, My Power, and the Might of my Hand, hath gotten me this Wealth. But (saith the Text) they shall remember the Lord their God: For it is He that giveth them Power to get Wealth. And GOD speaking by the Prophet Hosai of the Israelites, says, I taught Ephraim to go, taking them by their arms, but they knew not that I healed them. And again by the same Prophet speaking of the Land of Judah in general, he did not know that I gave her Corn, and Wine, and Oil, and multiplied her Silver and her Gold, which they prepared for Baal; therefore will I venture and take away my Corn in the Time thereof, and my Wine in the Season thereof, and will recover my Word and my Fiat given to cover her Nakedness, so that we may conclude that it was by the common Operations of Providence that the Israelites received all the great Blessings which were promised to them, though they are always expressly spoken of as given immediately by GOD, from whence we may learn that neither our Blessings or Misfortunes come by Chance, but from GOD.

26 ¶ There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfil.

Thou shalt not be cut off by any untimely Death, but live to an old Age.

27 I will send my fear before thee, and will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee.

[I will send my Fear before thee.] Strike a Terror into the Inhabitants of Canaan, which shall facilitate the Conquest of them, Jos. ii. 9, 10.

28 And I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite from before thee.

Thus Jos. (Ch. xiv. 12.) observes that the Amorites were driven out, not by the Sword and Bow of the Israelites, but by the Sting of these Hornets, which are a kind of Wasps, only bigger and fiercer than the ordinary Wasp. Some explain the Word Hornet metaphorically, I will send my Terror before thee as an Hornet. It appearing to them improbable, that a Parcel of Insects should drive out a Nation. But they are fully confuted by Buchart, who produces many Instances of Nations being forced to leave their Country by these and such like contemptible Creatures. That Author hath shewn, that by these very Creatures, Wasp and Bees, People have been driven from their Country, as Herodotus, Appianus, and Strabo testify; and he particularly observes, that the Sting of this Sort of Wasp, called an Hornet, is of all other the most pernicious, for it seldom stings as Pliny says (G. Nat. c. 21.) without throwing Men into the Rage of a Fever.

29 I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.

The Israelites being not numerous enough to people all the Land immediately. Providence had likewise other Ends in View in suffering some of the Canaanites to remain in the Land, Jos. iii. 7, 4.—And the Beast of the Field multiply. The wild Beasts from Arabia Deserta made frequent Inroads into Canaan, in Quest of their Prey, and were not to be driven out but by continual Hunting.

30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.

31 And I will set thy bounds from the Red Sea even unto the Sea of the Philistines, and from the Desert unto the river: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee.

[From the Red-Sea, unto the Sea of the Philistines.] i. e. From the Red-Sea on the South East, to the Mediterranean Sea on the North-West.—And from the Desert unto the River.] i. e. From the Desert of Arabia, or the Wilderness of Sinai, on the West, to the River Euphrates on the North East, which is called the River by Way of Eminence.

32 Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

i. e. Thou shalt give no Toleration to Idol-worship, nor suffer it to be introduced into thy Territory. Thou shalt make no League with them, either civil or religious.

33 They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee.

[They shall not dwell in thy Land.] Unless they renounce their Idolatry, which is plainly understood; for upon their becoming Profelytes to the Jewish Religion, they might dwell among them, and were called the Strangers.

[It will surely be a Snare unto thee.] Bring great Calamities upon thee, and at last be thy Ruin, See Ch. x. 7. compared with Jos. viii. 12. See also, Num. xvi. 1. Judg. ii. 1. For instead of being driven out, they brought Israel under their Yoke, and grievously oppressed them.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 Moses is ordered to come up again into the mount. 3 The people promise obedience. 4 Moses buildeth an altar, and erects pillars: 6 He sprinkles the blood of the covenant. 9 The glory of God appeareth. 14 Aaron and Hur have the charge of the people. 15 Moses goeth into the mountain, where he continueth forty days and forty nights.

AND he said unto Moses, Come up unto the LORD, thou and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel: and worship ye afar off.

The Meaning is, not that GOD ordered Moses, then to come up to the Mount, for he was there already; but while he is yet upon the Mount, GOD instructs him, before he returns to lay before his People all those Laws, which we have from the twentieth to the twenty-fourth Chapter, what he should do at his next coming up, namely, that after having ratified the Covenant with the People, he should come up again to the Mount, and bring with him Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, Jehoiu, and seventy of the principal Elders of Israel, who might approach nearer the Cloud of Glory than the rest of the People; yet so as with becoming Reverence to wait at a proper Distance, while Moses alone should draw near to the Top of the Mount. They were probably called up to be Witnesses of Moses's immediate Intercourse with GOD, and that they themselves might be possessed with a greater Reverence towards the Laws to be received from him.

[Nadab and Abihu.] Aaron's eldest Sons, and destined to the Priesthood, Ch. xxviii. 1.

2 And Moses alone shall come near the LORD: but they shall not come nigh, neither shall the people go up with him.

He now came nearer than he had done before, Ch. xx. 21. for he went into the Midst of the Cloud, ver. 18.

3 ¶ And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the LORD hath said, will we do.

[All the Words of the Lord.] i. e. All those Laws which he had received for their good Government, as set down in the twenty-first, twenty-second, and twenty-third Chapters. As for the ten Com-

Commandments the People heard them spoken by GOD himself.

4 And Moses wrote all the words of the Lord, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

There were two Ways of making Covenants anciently . First, by sprinkling some of the Blood of the Sacrifice on both Parties ; secondly, by their eating together some Part of the Sacrifice, Gen. xvi. 30. xxxi. 54. Both these Rites are here observed, the first ver. 6, 8. and the other ver. 11. Here then Mojis erects an Altar to represent GOD the one Party, and twelve Pillars or Stones to represent the twelve Tribes the other Party.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt-offerings, and sacrificed peace-offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basons ; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

The Altar representing GOD, this Blood sprinkled upon it signified GOD's coming under an Engagement to be faithful to his Part of the Covenant, to perform all the Promises he had made them, Cb. xxiii. 25, 26, 27.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people : and they said, All that the LORD hath said, will we do, and be obedient.'

And he took the Book] Wherein he entered on Record all the Words of the Lord, &c. 4.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

And sprinkled it on the People,] Either on the twelve Pillars that represented the People, or on the Elders their Representatives, (see Lev. iv. 15. Deut. xxi. 2.) in Token that they were the other Party engaged in the same Covenant. This typified the Blood of JESUS CHRIST.

Behold, the Blood of the Covenant] i. e. That Blood, by the Effusion of which the Covenant is ratified.

9 ¶ Then went up Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel.

10 And they saw the God of Israel : and there was under his feet, as it were a paved work of a sapphire-stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness.

It may be asked, How and in what Sense, did Moses, Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the Elders, see the GOD of Israel? No Man hath seen God at any Time. It seems hard to imagine, how the infinite GOD can be clothed in Shape, and bounded within the Limits of a Form or Figure; so as to become the Object of Sight to a mortal Eye: The wise Heathens apprehended insuperable Difficulties in any such Supposition; and it must be confessed, that some of the Versions of the Bible do not render the Passage literally. The LXX translate it, They saw the Place where there stood the God of Israel; and Onkelos, They saw the Glory of the God of Israel: And the Commentators, from what Moses in another Place remarks to the Israelites, that they had seen no Manner of Similitude, do generally conclude, that he did not intend here to intimate, that he or the Nobles of Israel did really and visibly see GOD.

The learned Dr. Stuckford has offered some Thoughts on this Head. He observes first, " that Moses does not say, that he and the Nobles of Israel saw the invisible GOD ; the Expression is, that they saw the God of Israel : No Man indeed hath ever seen the invisible God, nor can see him ; but the God of Israel, the divine Person, who is many Times stiled in the Old Testament the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, frequently appeared to them, and was in After-ages made Flesh, and for about three and thirty Years dwelt on Earth amongst Men. Secondly, That this Person appeared to the Patriarchs of old in a real Body, was evident to them by the same infallible Proofs as those, by which he shewed himself alive to his Disciples after his Passion. After he was risen from the Dead, he was seen of the Disciples, speaking to them : And so he was in divers Places, and at sundry Times to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. The Disciples not only beheld him, but they felt him, and handled him, and were a Man, that he was really with them, — tho' you shall say, that he was not Flesh and Bone, as they say him to be. In like Manner, he experienced as sensible a Presence, when he was told what John the Baptist Exalted him, but understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him and at an Hour and he took it, and understand it not at all for He was here an Hour or Two gaze him a Place and found him</

As it were a paved Work of a Sapphire-Stone. Shining like Sapphires, which are of a celestial Blue, resembling the azure Lament.

And as it were the Body, of Heaven in his Chamber, &c.] Clear as the purest Sky when spangled with Stars. It seems to denote, that the Glory of the Lord appeared like the Sun in its Brightness, upon a Pavement sparkling like the Stars.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink.

Also they saw God, and did eat and drink.] They were so far from receiving any Harm, that they remained safe, and as a Pro<sup>of</sup> thereof did eat and drink : Probably some Part of the Sacrifice.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there : and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written ; that thou mayest teach them.

Come up to me into the Mount,] To the Top of the Mount, where the Glory of the Lord was, ver. 17. For hitherto Moses had gone no farther than the rest, and was with them, when they eat and drank before the Lord.

And a Law, and Commandments which I have written; } i. e.
The Law contained in the ten Commandments, Ch. xxxii. 15, 16. xxxiv. 28.

13 And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua :
and Moses went up into the mount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you : and behold, Aaron and Hur are with you : if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

Tarry ye here for us,] In the Camp, or some Place near it, whether the People might upon Occasion resort to them; not in the Mount, for thither the People durst not come.

15 And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount.

16 And the glory of the Lord abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

And the Cloud covered it six Days:] i. e. The Glory of the Lord, not the Mount: The Cloud covered or intercepted the bright Symbol of the Divine Presence from the View of all the Israelites, even of Moses himself, for six Days; till on the seventh the Cloud opened, and discovered that Glory like flaming Fire.

17 And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mount, in the eyes of the children of Israel.

To which the Plaintiff seems to allude Ps. xxvii. 2. v. Cloud and Darkness compassed him — a Foggy Vision, &c.

18 And Moſes went into the miſt of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moſes was in the mount forty days, and forty nights.

That he might receive the two Tables of Stone, Directions for making the Tabernacle, and all Things belonging to it, and to the Service of the Priests, &c. of which we have an Account in the following Chapter.

Forty Days, and forty Nights.] Whereof the first were spent in the dark Cloud, in order to prepare Moses, as it would seem, for his nearer Access to GOD, and the rest in the Splendors of the Divine Presence in the Midst of the Cloud. And in all that Space he did neither eat nor drink, Ch. xxiv. 28. Deut. ix. 9. The Jews observe, that GOD intending to exalt Moses, depressed his bodily Powers by long fasting, that his Understanding might be the more raised and elevated. Thus we find David mortifying his Body for three whole Weeks, the better to dispose him to heavenly Visions, Ch. x. 2, 3, 12.

C H A P. XXX.

1 God commandeth the people by Moſes to prepare the things for the tabernacle. 2 The commandment to the people. 3 Of the manner of setting up the tabernacle. 4 Of the things to be made.

AND the Lord spake unto Moſes, ſaying,
2 Speak unto the children of Iſrael, that they bring me an offering: of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart, ye ſhall take my offering.

GOD having now solemnly ratified his Covenant with Israel, to be their GOD and King, and they his peculiar Servants and People, gives Order next about a Place for his solemn Worſhip, where, by viſible Symbols of his Divine Presence, he should reside among them as their Governor and Protector, and the great Object of their Adoration. This was to be the Tabernacle with the Ark in it; which, agreeable to their travelling Condition while in the Wilderness, was to be a kind of portable Temple, to move along with them. Its Frame, Fashion, Utenſils, Ministers, and Services, to be ſuch as would be a Model of that more magnificent Temple-Service in the Land of Canaan, even as that Temple itself was to be but a figurative Reſemblance of a more compleat and ſpiritual Diſpensation of Religion under the Mſſiah. See Heb. viii. 5.

All was to be free and voluntary, for GOD loveth a cheerful Gift. Accordingly Moses intreated to them the Mind of GOD, when he came down from the Mount, and they made a free Oblation, Ch. xxv. 2, 21, 29. Theſe Offerings were for the creating of the Tabernacle.

3 And this is the offering which ye ſhall take of them: gold, and ſilver, and braſs,

4 And blue, and purple, and ſcarlet, and fine linen, and goats hair,

And blue, and purple, and ſcarlet.] Yarn or Wool of theſe Colours, which were afterwards wove into Hangings and other Garments, for the Uſe of the Tabernacle, Ch. xxxv. 25, 35.

5 And rams ſkins dyed red, and badgers ſkins, and ſhittim-wood,

Rams Skins dyed red, and Badgers Skins.] Bochart proves that it ought to be rendered Rams Skin of a red, and of a violet or purple Colour: And ſo it is rendered by the LXX and the beſt Interpreters.

And Shittim-Wood.] Some underſtand the fineſt kind of Cedar-Wood. Others, the Wood of a Tree which grew in the Wilderness, in a Place where the Iſraelites ſometime encamped, Num. xxv. 1. called Shittim from this Wood.

6 Oil for the light, ſpices for anointing oil, and for ſweet incenſe,

Oil for the Light.] For the Lamp which was to burn continually in the Sanctuary.

7 Onyx-ſtones, and ſtones to be ſet in the ephod, and in the breaſt-plate.

Theſe were alſo to be Onyx-Stones, ſet in Gold on the Shoulder of the Ephod, with the Names of the twelve Tribes engraved upon them, fix upon one Stone, and fix upon the other. The Ephod was a kind of ſquare Cloak or upper Garment that hung down from the Shoulder. See Ch. xxviii. 7. It appears to have been a ſacred Vesture worn only by the Priests, or Perſons employed in religious Offices.

Upon the Breaſt-Plate were to be ſet twelve precious Stones, of different kinds in two Rows, with the ſame Names engraved upon them.

8 And let them make me a ſanctuary; that I may dwell amongſt them.

Let them make me a Sanctuary.] It was a Sort of ambulatory Temple for ELIOVAH the GOD of Iſrael; and in all Antiquity we find nothing more ancient than ſuch portable Temples.

Sanctuary.] Heb. in the miſt of them; for the Tabernacle was placed in the Midst of the Camp, Num. ii. 17. and this is the Reason why GOD is ſaid to dwell among them, Lev. xxvi. 12. Deut. xxiii. 14. becauſe his Tabernacle or Tent moved up and down with them in their Peregrinations. In this GOD ſeems to have accommodated himſelf to the Genius of the Iſraelites, who, being long accuſtomed to Egyptian Rites, would have thought they lived without GOD, unleſs they had had a Place wherein they might apprehend him to be peculiarly preſent.

9 According to all that I ſhew thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the inſtruments thereof, even ſo ſhall ye make it.

This ſignifies that GOD ſhewed him a Model of the Houſe he was to make, and of all the Things belonging to it, with ſtrict Charge not to vary in the leaſt from it.

10 ¶ And they ſhall make an ark of ſhittim wood: two cubits and a half ſhall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

Ark of ſhittim-wood.] A Kind of Cheſt, or Coffet, which was to be deposited in the inmoſt Part of the Tabernacle. Here were preſerved the Tables of Teſtimony, containing the ten Commandments, written with the Finger of GOD, which was the moſt ſacred Monument of the Jewiſh Religion. This Ark was to be a Symbol of the divine Presence and Protection over the Iſraelites, a ſacred Pledge of the Stability of the Jewiſh Commonwealth, ſo long as they adhered to the Articles of the Covenant which the Ark contained.

If we enquire into the Origin of the Sanctuary and its Furniture, particularly of the Ark and its Appendages, it is thought probable that it took its Riſe, like the reſt of the Jewiſh Ceremonies, from the Hardneſs of the Peoples Hearts, and their groſs Conceptions of the Divine Power. Hence Maimonides, in his Enquiry into the Origin of the Moſaic Inſtitutions, obſerves, that as the idolatrous Nations were wont to build Temples to their Gods, and place Images in them, to repreſent the Objects of their Worſhip, ſo the Iſraelites were commanded to build a Temple to the ſupreme GOD, and to place in it an Ark as the viſible Symbol of his peculiar Presence. And of this the Splendor and external Beauty of the Ark, the Ornaments of Gold with which it was decked, are thought to be ſtrong Preſumptions: ſince theſe Splendors and Trappings were quite foreign to that Simplicity of Divine Worſhip which the Duty in all Ages requires, and are of no Avail, but to ſtrike the Populace.

A judicious Author alledges, that when GOD ſhewed Moses, upon the Mount, the Pattern of the Tabernacle, Ark and Altar, it was rather by Way of Permiſſion, and an Act of Indulgence, than a Precept, and deſigned as a moral and political Means to perſuade a ſtiff-necked and ſupercilious People from revolting to Idolatry. Thus much appears plain from Hiſtory, that the earlieſt Nations had Temples, Oracles, ſacred Arks or Coffers, and other Appendages of Worſhip. On this we have Intimation in the Bible itſelf, where we read of Beth-peor, (i. e. the Houſe or Tabernacle of the God Peor) in Beth-Dagon, Beth-Aſhtoreth, Beth-Baal-Berith, Beth-Baal, Beth-Naboth, Beth-Baal-Meban, and others, Deut. xxxiv. 6. 1. Sam. xiii. 17. Jud. ix. 4. 1. Sam. v. 2. xxvi. 10. 1. Kings, xvi. 32. 2. Kings, xix. 37. which Places ſhew ſome of the Temples of the Nations to have been prior both to the Jewiſh Tabernacle and Temple. Accordingly the Prophet Amos, upbraiding the Iſraelites with their Superſtitious in the Wilderness, ſays, Ye have ſaid, Ye have ſaid, during your Travels in the Wilderness, the Tabernacle of your God Molech; a Cuſtom which they had, doubtleſs, derived from the Egyptians, and conſequently had been in Uſe long before the Tabernacle of Moses. Therefore, that the Iſraelites, who were exceedingly addicted to the Manners of the Egyptians, might not any longer make a Tabernacle to Molech, and carry it about in Triumph after the Gentile Faſhion, they were permitted to make a Tabernacle to the true GOD, and to carry it about in Honour of him. Which Tabernacle was to be furnished with an Ark, an Altar, and other Things of other Nations.

Two Cubits and a Half, [Ex. i. 6.] i. e. About four Feet six Inches in Length, and two Feet six Inches in Height and Breadth.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it: and shalt make upon it a crown of gold round about.

A Cornish or Rim of mussy Gold was to girdle the Top of it; which is called a Crown because it compassed it round. For the ancient Crowns were only a plain Circle of Gold or other Materials, set upon the Head of their Kings and great Men. This Crown or Border of Gold rising to some Height above the Ark, served both for Ornament, and to support the Mercy Seat, [Ex. 17, 21.]

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof, and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make slaves of beaten wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the slaves into the rings, by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

It ought to be translated Let the rings be in the Rings were not on the Side of the Ark, as they are commonly represented, but on the two Ends of it.

15 The slaves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.

The better to preserve them, and to be always ready upon any Occasion of Removal in their Travels.

16 And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give thee.

The two Tables of Stone, containing the ten Commandments, called the two Tables of Testimony, Ch. xxxi. 18. because they testified the Will of GOD, and were authentic Instruments, attesting the Covenant between GOD and them; whence the Ark is called the Tabernacle and Ark of the Testimony, Ch. xxx. 6, 36. and the Ark of the Covenant, Deut. x. 8. and the Tabernacle itself the Tabernacle of Testimony, Ex. xxxviii. 21. Num. i. 50.

17 And thou shalt make a mercy-seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

And thou shalt make a Mercy-Seat [Heb. a Covering.] We see it was to be of the same Length and Breadth with the Ark, which shews that it was the Cover of the Ark. Therefore Le Cher. renders it simply the Covering, but though, in Relation to the Ark itself, it served merely for a beautiful Covering, yet in Relation to the Divine Glory who resided upon it, and to the Cherubims which were constituent Parts of it, [Ex. 19, 20, &c.] it seems with great Propriety to be denominated the Propitiatory, or Mercy-Seat, and therefore it is considered as a Part of the Furniture of the most holy Place by itself. Compare [Ex. 25, 22.] with Ch. xxvi. 34.

18 And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold: of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy-seat.

Here some may, perhaps, question, why GOD should allow Images of Cherubims to be placed in the Sanctuary, when the second Commandment forbids the Jews to make any Image. But the Answer is obvious, that the second Commandment does not absolutely forbid the making of Images, but only the making them in order to bow down to them and serve or worship them. Now the Cherubims were not designed to represent GOD, or to be the Objects of Worship to the Jews, but to represent the angelical Nature; and that, being placed in an adoring Posture over the Mercy-Seat, they might, as by their Example, excite the Israelites to the greater Awe and Reverence of that GOD whom Angels, as well as Men, adore.

We have a particular Description of Cherubims, Ezek. i. 10. and x. 14. There they are represented with four Faces, viz. of a Man, a Lion, an Ox, and an Eagle, which are thought to be emblematical of the angelical Nature; the foremost Face is that of a Man, to signify their Benevolence and good Will to the human Species; they have the Wings and Parts of an Eagle, to denote their Celerity in the Execution of the Divine Command; their Lion's Face shews them to be strong in Execution of the Orders of Heaven; and the Ox's Face shews their Patient and Affectionate Discharge of the MANKIND of the Earth, it was in the view of all this, that they were designed to be placed by the People in the Sanctuary, and to be seen by the People as Cherubims, to signify their appearance to the People.

Shouldst thou think that the Cherubims were to be made of any other material, but of gold? No, for the Cherubims were to be made of gold, to signify that they were to be made of the same material as the Mercy-Seat, to convey the Jews that they were to be made of the same material, conveying moral instructions, not idols or Objects of Worship.

19 And thou shalt make a cherub on the one end, and the other end shall be on the other end, and thou shalt make cherubims on the two ends thereof.

At which thou shalt make a winged Cherub, then the Cherubims shall be on the other end, but the Cherubims shall be on the other end, and thou shalt make cherubims on the two ends thereof.

20 And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings, and shall cover the mercy-seat, with their wings, and their faces shall be toward each other, to ward the mercy-seat, that the faces of the cherubims be toward the mercy-seat.

And thou shalt make a cherub on the one end, and the other end shall be on the other end, and thou shalt make cherubims on the two ends thereof. [As being upon the Wings, by which they were to be seen by the Divine Majesty, when they were to execute the Divine Will, or to deliver the Law, or to dispense the Mercy of the Observer of it.]

And thou shalt make a cherub on the one end, and the other end shall be on the other end, and thou shalt make cherubims on the two ends thereof. [That Wings, outstretched and meeting together, formed as it were a Seat over the Ark, which Seat was called the Mercy-Seat of GOD.]

And thou shalt make a cherub on the one end, and the other end shall be on the other end, and thou shalt make cherubims on the two ends thereof. [To signify their mutual Conversation and mutual Love.]

And thou shalt make a cherub on the one end, and the other end shall be on the other end, and thou shalt make cherubims on the two ends thereof. [They were to converse with each other, and they looked downward at the same time, that their faces were turned toward each other.]

21 And thou shalt put the mercy-seat above upon the ark, and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

22 And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee, from above the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

And there I will meet with thee. [There will I be present to communicate my Mind to thee, when thou hast Occasion to consult me.] And there I will meet with thee. [The Holy of Holies, where GOD communicated Himself to him, as a Man speaks to his Friend Face to Face, Ex. xxxiii. 11. Num. vii. 41. but to others it was inaccessible, only to the High Priest, who went into it once a Year.]

And I will commune with thee from above the Mercy-Seat. [Here the Glory of the Lord resided between the Cherubims, resting, as it were upon the Mercy-Seat, or Covering of the Ark. In Allusion to which GOD is said to sit or dwell between the Cherubims, 1 Sam. iv. 4. Ps. lxxxv. 1. xcix. 1. At the Ark, called the Footstool, Ps. xcix. 5. cxxxiii. 7. From this Part of the Sanctuary the Oracles were delivered to Moses by an audible Voice sometimes at Lebanon, Num. vii. 89. Thus far as described, the Furniture of the inner Part of the Tabernacle, called the Holy of Holies. What follows relate to the principal Furniture of the outward Part, or Holy Place.

23 ¶ Thou shalt also make a table of shittim wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

The Use of this Table is described [Ex. 25, 30.] namely, that the Shew-Bread might be set upon it before GOD. It was also the Custom of the Gentiles to have sacred Tables in their Temples, and to set upon them Meat and Drink in Honour of their Gods, which the Priests were wont to carry off, and sometimes made the People believe that they were eat up by the Gods, as appears from the apocryphal Story of Seth and the Dragon. This Rite was instituted to the Jews to be a standing Memorial of their being peculiarly indebted to GOD for furnishing them with such Provision in the Wilderness and in the Land of Canaan, and that there might be no Room for Supplication of Importunity, or for Ignorance.

Intimation is given in their Law, that this Bread was to be eaten by the Priests, Lev. xvi. 9.

The Reader may take the following Account of the Meaning and Design of the Table, and its Furniture, in the Words of Dr. Calaneo in his True Notion of the Lord's Supper, Ch. vi. "When God," says he, "had brought the Children of Israel out of Egypt, resolving to manifest himself in a peculiar Manner present amongst them, he thought good to dwell amongst them in a visible and external Manner; and therefore, while they were in the Wilderness, and sojourned in Tents, he would have a Tent or Tabernacle built, to sojourn with them also." Now the Tabernacle or Temple being thus as a House for GOD to dwell in visibly, to make up the Notion of a Dwelling or Habitation complete, there must be all Things suitable to a House belonging to it. Hence, in the Holy Place there must be a Table and a Candlestick, because this was the ordinary Furniture of a Room. The Table must have its Dishes, and Spoons, and Bowls, and Covers, belonging to it, though they were never used, and always be furnished with Bread upon it. The Candlestick must have its Lamps continually burning. Hence also there must be a continual Fire kept in this House of GOD upon the Altar, as the Focus of it, to which Notion I conceive the Prophet Isaiah doth allude, Ch. xxxi. 9. — schylt Fire is in Zion, and his Furnace in Jerusalem.

24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a crown of gold round about.

That is, a Cornish or Rim of Gold round about the Top of it: See ver. 11. The Use of it was to keep what was set upon the Table from sliding off.

25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand-breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.

26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.

27 Over against the borders shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table.

28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

By the Priests upon their Shoulders: For they had frequent Occasion, as they journeyed from one Place to another, to carry this Table with them, as they did all other Things belonging to the Tabernacle.

29 And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, to cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them.

And thou shalt make the Dishes] The Patins whereon to put the Shew-bread, ver. 30.

And Spoons thereof,] Vases for containing Incense, as appears from Num. vii. 14. whence some think it should be rendered Censers, as in the LXX. They were for holding the Frankincense that was to be put upon the Shew-bread, Lev. xxiv. 7.

And Bowls thereof, to cover withal:] The LXX, the Vulgate, and other Versions of Note, render it Bowls or Cups in which Libations shall be made: And to this Sense our English Margin agrees. It is plain from Num. xxviii. 7. that Libations or Drink-Offerings were made to GOD, by pouring out Wine before the Lord in the Holy Place, and were a Part of the daily Morning and Evening Sacrifice. Now the Bowls here mentioned might be Vessels for pouring out those Libations.

30 And thou shalt set upon the table, shew-bread before me alway.

And thou shalt set upon the Table Shew-Bread] Heb. Bread of the Face or Presence, because it was set before the Ark, where GOD was peculiarly present. We call it Shew-Bread because it was shewed or exhibited before GOD upon the sacred Table, as a national weekly Oblation in Name of all the twelve Tribes; for the Loaves were twelve in Number, and being an Offering to GOD, they were to be eaten only by the Priests in the Holy Place, Lev. xxiv. 5, 7, 8, 9. Every Loaf must have been of a considerable Bigness, since they used two tenth Deals or two Omers of Flour for each, which are about six Quarts English.

And besides all this, to carry the Notion still farther, there must be some constant Meat and Provision brought into this House, which was done in the Sacrifices, that were partly consumed by Fire upon GOD's own Altar, and partly eaten by the Priests, which were GOD's Family, and therefore to be maintained by him.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers shall be of the same.

It consisted, 1. of a long Shaft or main Body adorned with four little Cups, (or Bowls) in Figure like Almonds, four Knops and Flowers, and a Lamp upon the Top of it, ver. 34. 2. Out of the Sides of this Shank proceeded six Branches, with three Cup, Knops and Flowers to each, and a Lamp on the Top of each of them, all of solid Gold, ver. 32, 33, 35. The Candlestick giving Light to the Tabernacle figured the Law of GOD, and the Doctrines of Revelation shining in his Church, Rev. ii. 5. For the Commandment is a Lamp, and the Law is Light, Prov. vi. 23.

His Knops,] Ornaments of a round Figure, like Apples or Pomegranates, as the Word signifies.

And his Flowers] The Vulgate renders it Libans: The Word signifies properly Blossoms of Trees.

32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it: three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side.

33 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the candlestick.

34 And in the candlestick shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers.

35 And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick.

36 Their knops and their branches shall be of the same: all it shall be one beaten work of pure gold.

37 And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof; and they shall light the lamps thereof, that they may give light over against it.

And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof.] ver. One upon the Top of the Shank, or the main Body of the Candlestick; and one upon each Branch.

And they shall light the Lamps thereof:] They, i. e. the Priests, Ch. xxx. 7, 8. Lev. xxiv. 4.

That they may give Light over-against it.] i. e. Over-against the Table.

38 And the tongs thereof, and the snuff-dishes thereof shall be of pure gold.

And the Tongs thereof,] Snuffers or little Tongs whereby the Lamps were clipt or tripped.

39 Of a talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these Vessels.

The Talent of Gold will amount to 5250 l. Sterling.

40 And look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount.

C H A P. XXVI.

1 The curtains and other furniture of the tabernacle. 31 The veil for the ark.

Moreover, thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work shalt thou make them.

Having thus described the Ark, with the Furniture for the Tabernacle, he comes next to the Tabernacle itself, and begins with the Curtains or Coverings of it: Of these Coverings there were to be four laid one over another, for perfect Security against the Weather.

The Hebrew Word we translate Tabernacle, signifies properly an Habitation; for it was the Place where the Shekinah or Divine Glory Glory dwelt. We render it Tabernacle, because it was a Kind of Tent or ambulatory House, such as the ancient Hebrew Shepherds dwelt in, and which they removed from Place to Place.

Work Cherubim.] By Cherubims here seems to be understood all the various Figure of Flowers, Beasts, &c. that used to be represented in Works of Embroidery.

Of cunning Work.] Heb. Hiphal, an Embroiderer.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain, four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another: and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain, from the selvedge in the coupling: and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another.

Fifty Loops, &c.] These two Pieces of Tapestry, described ver. 2. were to be linked together by fifty Loops of blue Tape, and as many golden Clasps, ver. 6. upon the Selvedges, and so to look like one entire Curtain: Thus they were not sewed, but only so held together, as they could be easily disjoined when there was Occasion to remove the Tabernacle from one Place to another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the taches: and it shall be one tabernacle.

And it shall be one Tabernacle.] By this Union the Covering of the Tabernacle shall be as if it was an entire Piece.

7 ¶ And thou shalt make curtains of goats hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make.

These were a coarser Sort of Covering to be laid over the finer before-mentioned; which both served to defend the Tabernacle from the Weather, and to cover the holy Things from the View of the People. See Num. iv. 5, 15.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain, four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle.

In the inner Curtains were only ten Pieces, in this eleven; the Use of the odd Piece being to be doubled, partly on the Entrance, partly on the Back-side of the Tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brasse, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the tent together that it may be one.

That is, that the two Pieces of the Tent, or rather Covering, may be knit together into one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half-curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the back-side of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side, and on that side, to cover it.

14 And thou shalt make a covering for the tent, of rams skins dyed red, and a covering above that, of badgers skins.

Some think this and the former covered only the Roof, to keep the Rain from soaking into it.

Of Badgers Skins.] Rather Rams Skins of purple.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle, of shittim-wood, standing up.

Of Planks, which were the Walls of the House.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and an half shall be the breadth of one board.

That is, about five Yards and two Feet: the same the Height of the Tabernacle.

17 Two tenons shall there be in one board, fit in order one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south-side, southward.

Twenty Boards, &c.] Each Board being a Cubit and half, i. e. about two and thirty Inches broad, ver. 16. the whole Length of the Tabernacle was consequently thirty Cubits, that is, about seventeen Yards and an half.

19 And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver, under the twenty boards: two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north-side, there shall be twenty boards,

21 And their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward, thou shalt make six boards.

Which being of the same Breadth with the other, made the Tabernacle about five Yards and some odd Inches broad.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

These were a Sort of Pillars at the two Corners Westward, which served to compact the Whole firmly together by Means of Mortises, into which the Planks of the three Sides were joined.

24 And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

To make all more firm, these two Corner Planks at the West End were to be knit to the other Planks, both at the Top and Bottom, with a golden Ring. By comparing the several Translations of this Verse with the Original, the Sense appears to be literally thus: And they shall be uniformly joined at Bottom, and likewise uniformly joined at Top in similar Rings or Staples: thus it shall be for them both. These shall be for the two Corners.

25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

Thus there shall be eight Planks in all at the West End, ver. 22, 23. whose Tenons struck into the Sockets or Mortises of sixteen silver Bases.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make bars of shittim-wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

The Boards were to be strengthened with wooden Bars, which run into Staples of Gold that were fastened in the Boards, ver. 29.

There were five of these Bars on each Side. These are what Mechanics call Transoms, Girders, or Cross-bars.

27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle for the two sides westward.

It is obvious, that this Translation cannot be right, for there was but one Side Westward. It ought undoubtedly to be rendered the East Westward, the Plural being put for the Singular.

28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end.

This seems rather to have been a long Bar, which reached from East to West, and went through Staples which were in the Middle of the Planks, as the other did, through Staples above and below.

29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold.

They were to be gilded or overlaid with thin Plates of Gold.

30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the fashion thereof, which was shewed thee in the mount.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work: with cherubims shall it be made.

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim-wood, overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

Their Hooks, &c.] The LXX and Vulgate render it Chapters, which is more probably meant than Hooks; for, doubtless, these Pillars had Chapters, and it is not likely that Moses would omit to mention so principal a Part.

33 ¶ And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail, the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you, between the holy place and the most holy.

The whole Fabric was in the Inside to be divided into two Rooms by a large and thick Vail or Curtain, of the finest wrought Stuff, with Variety of Colours, and Cherubs, and other Figures. It was to be hung upon golden Hooks at the Top, and, by Reason of its Thickness and Weight, to rest against four overlaid or gilded Pillars, mortised into to many silver Pedestals. The lesser of these Rooms thus parted from the other, so as none could look into it, was to be called the most holy Place, or Place of extraordinary Worship, to be entered into by the high Priest alone, and that but once a Year. The other again was called the holy Place, into which none but the Priests might enter.

The most holy.] This is often considered in the New Testament as a Figure of Heaven, into which CHRIST is entered as our Fore-runner, and whither our Hope extends, Heb. vi. 19. 20. ix. 11, 12. 24. x. 19.

34 And thou shalt put the mercy-seat upon the ark of the testimony, in the most holy place.

The Ark with the Mercy Seat upon it, being the most sacred Symbol of the Divine Presence, was put in the most holy Place, and from thence the Oracles of GOD were delivered.

35 And thou shalt set the table without the vail, and the candlestick over-against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north side.

The Table with its Furniture, and the Candlestick, were to be in the holy Place, which was for the Use of the Priests alone. The Table being without the Vail, signified, that the twelve Tribes, represented by the twelve Cakes upon the Table, were shut out from the Mysteries of the Gospel, which are now revealed to us, Heb. ix. 8. x. 19. 20. xi. 39, 40. And with Respect to Heaven it holds, that we are all in this Life without the Vail, 2 Cor. 3. 1, 2, &c. 1. c. excluded from the beatific Vision of GOD.

36 And thou shalt make an hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needle work.

Before the Entrance of the Tabernacle were Curtains to be hung, which may be called the first Vail, as that mentioned ver. 31. which divided the Holy Place from the most Holy, is called the second Vail, Heb. ix. 2, 3.

The Door of the Tent,] It is plain from the former Part of this Description, ver. 12, 22, 23. that the Ark and Mercy-Seat were in the West End of the Tabernacle, i. e. the Door or Entrance faced the East: So that the Israelites in worshipping JEREMIAH turned their Faces towards the West, where the Ark was, it being thus contrived, says Theodoret, that the Sun might pay a Kind of symbolical Adoration to JEREMIAH, by darting his first Rays into the Sanctuary, and that the Israelites might be thus figuratively taught to turn from the Worship of that Luminary, the great Idol of the Nations, and to adore the GOD who made him.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging, five pillars of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 The form of the altar of burnt-offering, with the vessels thereof. 6 Of the court of the tabernacle. 18 Of the measure of the court. 20 Of the oil for the lamp, and how it is to be ordered.

AND thou shalt make an altar of shittim-wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad: the altar shall be four-square, and the height thereof shall be three cubits.

The next Orders were about the great Altar, whereon the Sacrifices for the common Service were to be slain and offered.

Of Shittim-wood] It was to be of Wood rather than of solid Brass, that it might not be too heavy: But notwithstanding its being overlaid with Brass, ver. 2. had it been common Wood, it must have been soon consumed to Ashes by the continual Heat; wherefore Le Clerc conjectures, that this Shittim-wood might be the Larch-tree, which bears the Fire like Stone.

Five Cubits long, and five Cubits broad, &c.] It was near three Yards square at the Top, and about five Feet in Height, according to Cumberland's Measure of the Cubit.

2 And thou shalt make the horns of it upon the four corners thereof: his horns shall be of the same: and thou shalt overlay it with brass.

And thou shalt make the Horns of it, &c.] A Pinnacle or Spire rising up at each Corner wrought out of the same Wood; which was partly for Ornament, and partly to tie the Sacrifice to it before it was slain, Pf. cxviii. 27.

3 And thou shalt make his pans to receive his ashes, and his shovels, and his basins, and his flesh-hooks, and his fire-pans: all the vessels thereof thou shalt make of brass.

And his Basins,] Or Bowls, Ze. i. xiv. 20. The Use of them was to receive the Blood of the Sacrifice.

Flesh Hooks,] Or Forks for taking up the Pieces of the Sacrifice, in order to lay them right upon the Fire. They are described with three Teeth, 1 Sam. ii. 13, 14.

His Fire-Pans:] Censers or Chafing-dishes, in which the Priests carried burning Coals from the Altar into the Sanctuary, to offer Incense upon the golden Altar. Others understand by this Word Vessels wherein the sacred Fire was kept burning, while they cleansed the Altar and the Grate from the Coals and Ashes, and when they carried this Altar from one Place to another.

4 And thou shalt make for it a grate of net-work of brass; and upon the net shalt thou make four brazen rings in the four corners thereof.

And thou shalt make for it a Grate of Net-work] This was the principal Part of the Altar; here the Fire was to be laid, with the Sacrifice on it. It was a broad Plate of Brass full of Holes like a Net, that the Ashes might fall through them to the Bottom of the Altar, where there was a Door on the East Side to open and take out the Ashes.

For Laver Ring] That by them the Grate might be hung upon the Altar, and by them be taken off to be cleansed.

5 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.

6 And thou shalt make staves for the altar, staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with bras.

7 And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar to bear it.

8 Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: as it was shewed thee in the mount, so shall they make it.

9 ¶ And thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle for the south-side, southward: there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of an hundred cubits long, for one side.

And thou shalt make the Court of the Tabernacle] Such a Place as we call a Court-Yard, uncovered above, but inclosed with Pillars and Hangings. In this Court stood the Tabernacle towards the upper End; between the Tabernacle and the lower End stood the Altar, with the Laver on one Side of it, Ch. xxx. 18.

An hundred Cubits long] About fifty-eight Yards.

10 And the twenty pillars thereof, and their twenty sockets shall be of bras: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets shall be of silver.

The Hooks of the Pillars] A Kind of Tenter-hooks to hang the Curtains of the Court upon. The Vulgats, Chaldae, Syriac and Arabic, render it Chapters.

Their Fillets shall be of Silver] Heb. Circles: They were, probably, thin Hoops of Silver that encircled the Pillars, or perhaps Rings for the Hangings to run upon.

11 And likewise for the north side in length, there shall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and his twenty pillars, and their twenty sockets of bras: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets of silver.

12 ¶ And for the breadth of the court on the west side, shall be hangings of fifty cubits: their pillars ten, and their sockets ten.

Hangings of fifty Cubits] About nine and twenty Yards: Thus the Court was as long again as it was broad.

13 And the breadth of the court on the east-side, eastward, shall be fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

The Hangings of one Side of the Gate shall be fifteen Cubits] As the whole Breadth of the Court was fifty Cubits, ver. 12, 13. and the Gate or Entrance was to be twenty Cubits wide, ver. 16. consequently there remained fifteen Cubits on each Side of the Entrance.

15 And on the other side shall be hangings, fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 ¶ And for the gate of the court, shall be an hanging of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needle-work: and their pillars shall be four, and their sockets four.

17 All the pillars round about the court shall be filletted with silver: their hooks shall be of silver, and their sockets of bras.

18 ¶ The length of the court shall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty every where, and the height five cubits of fine twined linen, and their sockets of bras.

Here not only the Length and Breadth, which had been intimated before, (ver. 9, 10.) but the Height is specified, viz. five Cubits or near three Yards: so that the Tabernacle was plainly seen by the People, for it was not hid by a Wall or Inclosure that encompassed it.

19 All the vessels of the tabernacle, and all the service thereof, and all the purities thereof, and all the parts of the court shall be of bras.

All the Vessels of the Tabernacle] Such as the golden Implements belonging to the Tabernacle, and the silver vessels ordered to be made, Ch. xxxv. 16.

All the Purities thereof] Heb. Cleanliness: These were things which were to be kept in the Court, that the People might be kept by them by Gods, to keep them from sinning.

20 ¶ And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure olive oil, for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always.

Pure Olive-oil beaten] Not squeezed out by a Press or Mill, such being full of Sediment; but which ran freely from the Olives when bruised or beaten with a Pestle.

To cause the Lamp to burn always] Joseph, who was himself a Priest, says they burned the Lamps Day and Night, these of them being kept burning all Day, and the rest being kindled in the Evening. And indeed it was but necessary, for the Priest must have ministered in the dark at the Altar of Incense; for there were no Windows in the holy Place.

21 In the tabernacle of the congregation without the vail, which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the LORD: it shall be a statute for ever unto their generations, on the behalf of the children of Israel.

Before the Testimony] i. e. The Ark with the two Tables of the Law or Testimony, hence called the Testimony, and the place of the Testimony.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 God orders Aaron and his sons to be set apart for priests, 2 and proper vestments and ornaments to be made for them.

AND take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priests office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons.

The Jews had Priests before this Time; and indeed wherever there hath been Religion, there have been Priests to minister to GOD in the public Worship. But this is the first Time we read of Priests constituted by divine Appointment.

2 And thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, for glory and for beauty.

Holy Garments] Such as might be wore by none but them, and by them only when they ministered unto GOD: Not that a peculiar Garb can add any real Merit to the Person, but it served to bespeak the Dignity of their Office, and to preserve both in Priest and People a due Reverence towards it. This last is here particularly mentioned; for Glory and for Beauty, i. e. that the Minister of GOD may appear glorious and beautiful in the Eyes of the People.

3 And thou shalt speak unto all that are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto me in the priests office.

All that are wise-hearted] So the ancient Hebrews called all skilful Artists: And such was the Language of the old Greeks before the Times of Pythagoras.

Whom I have filled with the Spirit of Wisdom] The Spirit of such a Thing often signifies in the Hebrew Idiom the Affection or Quality of the Mind, as the Spirit of Jealousy, Num. v. 14. This Wisdom or mechanical Skill is here ascribed to GOD with great Propriety; not as if it had been given by Inspiration like the Spirit of Prophecy, but because every good Gift is derived from him, who forms the Mind with all its various Powers, and for the general neral Good of Society dispenses different Gifts and Endowments to different Members, Rom. xii. 4. On this Account as GOD is here acknowledged the Teacher of Handicrafts, so also of Husbandry, Is. xxviii. 26. Seneca has the same Sentiment, L. iv. de Benef. c. 4. "Those Things which we invent," says he, "are no more our own than the Increase of our Bodies. As the secret Hand of GOD has implanted Seeds in the Body, whereby it springs up to a proper Growth in all the Stages of Life, so he has implanted in the Minds of Men the Seeds of all Arts."

To consecrate him.] The cloathing of him and his Sons in the sacerdotal Vestments was a Part of the Ceremony of Consecration, ch. xix. 5. &c. and served to remind them of their being consecrated to the immediate Service of GOD, and to a Life of exemplary Purity and Holiness: On which Account they are so often called holy Garments, ver. 2. Lev. xvi. 4. and it was Death to minister without them, ver. 43.

4 And these are the garments which they shall make; a breast-plate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priests office.

And these are the Garments.] Such as were peculiar to himself as High Priest, and which none of the other Priests might wear: They were seven in all, ver. 2. the Ephod, ver. 8. the Breast-plate, ver. 15. the Robe, ver. 31. the Plate of Gold, ver. 36. the embroidered Coat, the Girdle, and the Mitre, ver. 39. All these he wore when in Office, besides the Linen Breaches which he wore in common with the other Priests, ver. 42.

A broidered Coat.] Some render it a Coat variegated with Eyes or Spangles in the Nature of a Peacock's Tail, or varied with little Holes like the Collet of a Ring, in order to set precious Stones therein.

5 And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

Gold, and blue, and purple, &c.] i. e. Gold Tissue of these Colours. The Gold was first beaten into thin Plates, and then cut into Wires, Ch. xxxix. 3. It appears from the 27th and following Verses of that Chapter, that most of the priestly Garments were to be of fine Linen, those especially that were next the Skin; and the Reason is mentioned Ezek. xlv. 18. They shall not gird themselves with any Thing that causeth Sweat. And it was an Emblem of that Righteousness wherewith the Saints are clothed, Rev. xix. 8. But the Robe of the Ephod being an outward Garment, and the Girdle wore over the Coat, were permitted to be of Linen and Woollen.

6 ¶ And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with cunning-work.

It appears to have been a short Linen Garment of various Colours, which hung behind upon the Back and Shoulders, and came down before upon the Breast; somewhat of the Nature of our Heralds Robes. That which covered the Breast and the Back, the Hebrews take to be properly called the Ephod. It was the outmost of all the Priests Garments.

7 It shall have the two shoulder-pieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together.

8 And the curious girdle of the ephod which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

Curious Girdle.] M. Le Clerc judges, not without Reason, that the Sense of this Verse is generally misunderstood; for the Word which is here rendered Girdle, is not the same with that which is so rendered ver. 4. and 39. but comes from a Root signifying to contrive or frame artificial Works: Therefore he, after the LXX, Vulgate, and many other Versions, renders it Texture, both here and ver. 27, 28. Ch. xxix. 5. xxxix. 20, 21. Lev. viii. 7. Thus the Verse ought to be translated according to him: And the Texture of the opposite Side (or Backside) of the Ephod, to be added to the other, shall be of the same, according to the Work thereof, &c.

9 And thou shalt take two onyx-stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel:

And shall grave on them, &c.] i. e. Thou shalt employ a skilled Person to engrave on them the Names of the twelve Tribes, 12 on each Stone.

10 Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth.

11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones, with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.

Set in Ouches of Gold.] The Word which we translate Ouche, signifies the Socket or Bezil wherein Stones are set. These two Stones thus set in Gold served for Buttons to fasten the hinder Part of the Ephod to the fore Part, upon each Shoulder.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod, for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel. And Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD, upon his two shoulders for a memorial.

For Stones of Memorial.] As a Token or Memorial to keep him in Mind that he appears before GOD in Behalf of the whole People of Israel.

13 ¶ And thou shalt make ouches of gold;

14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends: of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the ouches.

Two Chains of pure Gold, &c.] Strings made of gold Thread or Wire to fix the Ephod and Breast-plate together.

At the Ends.] Interpreters are puzzled what to make of the Word Migbaloth, which we translate at the End; but the common Signification of the Word is terminating or Termination. It seems to denote, either that these Chains were fastened at the Extremity of the Breast-plate, or that they terminated in wreathen Work.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make the breast-plate of judgment, with cunning work after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen shalt thou make it.

Breast-plate of Judgment.] So called because the Priest wore it upon his Breast, when he went to ask Council or Judgment from GOD.

16 Four-square it shall be being doubled; a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof.

The Breast-plate was doubled, that it might be strong enough to bear the Weight of the twelve Gems.

17 And thou shalt set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row.

The first Row shall be a Sardius.] The Sardius is of a red, flaming Colour, half transparent, and sometimes with a Cast of Yellow in it. It is the same which we call the Cornelian.

A Topaz.] We reckon this Stone the Chrysolite of the Ancients, which was transparent, of a beautiful yellow or gold Colour.

A Carbuncle:] This is a Stone of the Ruby kind, of a glowing blood-red Colour.

18 And the second row shall be an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

An Emerald.] This is a most beautiful Gem, transparent, and of a lively Green, without the least Mixture of any other Colour, and therefore of all Gems the most grateful to the Eye.

A Sapphire.] An elegant Gem of a fine Blue.

A Diamond.] Or Adamant, the first in Rank, Value, Hardness, and Lustre, of all Gems. Its Colour, when pure, is that of perfectly clear Water.

19 And the third row a figure, an agate, and an amethyst.

Agate.]

A Legate,] It is thought to be a kind of Arctostaphylos, that grows near to the Colours of Sable.

An. sigato.] A Pileus—Stem, partly translucent and partly opaque, usually variegated with Veins and Spines, and sometimes representing Branches or Trees. Flower, &c.

An Anemone.] A Stone of a Violet Colour, bordering on Red; or the Colour of Red Wine.

20 And the fourth row a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be set in gold in their en-clofings.

A Boy.] This is a Gem of a pale Green Colour.

An Onyx.] This Species is of a whitish Ground, often of the Colour of the human Nail; it is variegated with Zones of Brown: These Zones are laid in perfect Regularity.

A. Taper ] Its general Colour is Green, but it is spotted with several others, as Yellow, Blue, Brown and White,

They shall be in the land of the living.] O, The Oaches in which they are to be fit shall be of gold.

21 And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.

22 ¶ And thou shalt make upon the breast-plate chains at the ends, of wreathen work, of pure gold.

23 And thou shalt make upon the breast-plate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breast-plate.

The Break-plate had four Rings in all, one in each Corner. The Use of them was to fasten it with Strings to the Laphod.

24 And thou shalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breast-plate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains, thou shalt fasten in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod before it.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breast-plate, in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward.

And thou shalt make two Rings, &c.] i. e. Two others upon the lower Corners, as those ver. 23. were to be on the higher.

Which is in the Side of the Ephod inward.] Rather, Over-against the Ephod inward.

27 And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod, underneath towards the fore-part thereof, over-against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

Underneath towards the Fore-part thereof, or against the other Coupling thereof, &c.] This marks the Place exactly where the two Rings were to be fastened to the Ephod, viz. at the lower End of the Shoulder-pieces, in its Fore-part, opposite to the Rings of the Breast-plate.

Along the various Circle] Le Clerc renders it the embroidered Texture.

28 And they shall bind the breast-plate by the rings thereof, unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breast-plate be not loosed from the ephod.

That the Breast-plate be not loosed from the Ephod. They were never to be parted, but always put on and off together.

29 And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breast-plate of judgment, upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the Lord continually.

Upon his Heart, } Three Things seem chiefly denoted by thefe
Numes, which the High Priest wore on his Shoulders and on a

[illegible]

For the purpose of the 1992 election, the performance of the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports was evaluated by the Council of Ministers. The Council of Ministers

30 ¶ And then shall put in the heart of the poor judgment to them and to the teachers of the law that be upon Aaron's hill, saying, Ye shall be before the Lord, and Aaron shall stand before the children of Israel upon his knees, and the Lord shall say,

17. Practically all the Practically all the

[illegible]

31. And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

And thou shalt make the Ephod. This appears from the Form of it, as described in the next Verse, to have been like one of our Saraphes, or Shirts without sleeves, with two Holes on the Sides to let their Hands through, and an Opening to let through their Head. It is called the Robe of the Ephod, because it was next unto that of the Ephod. As to the Matter of it, it is here ordered to be all of blue; i. e. of blue woollen Cloth. The ordinary Priests Vesture was of Linnen, as also the High-Priests inner Garment. But this Robe was appointed to be of Woollen, perhaps in order to cure the Israhelites of a superstitious Conceit they might have imbibed in Egypt, in imagining there was any Sanctity in Dress, or that the Deity was so capricious as to be better pleased with being addressed to in Linnen than in Woollen, as the Egyptian Priests seem to have fancied.

32 And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the mids thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work, round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an habergeon, that it be not rent.

As it were the Hilt of an Halberden.] Of a Coat of Mail: which, in ancient Times, were neither of Iron, nor Brass, but of Linen, as Pliny observes, L. xix. C. 11. and therefore need ed a Border about the Neck, to keep that Part warm and tight.

33 ¶ And beneath upon the hem of it: three that make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet round about the hem thereof; and bells of gold between them round about.

Beneath upon the Hem of it, throughout the Periphery of the Skirt, towards the Bottom were to be adorned with Figures of Pomegranates in various Colours.

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

25 And it shall be upon Aaron, to minister : and his sound shall be heard when he goeth in unto the holy place before the Lord, and when he cometh out ; that he die not.

And thou shalt put it upon the head of Aaron, and thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and thou shalt put the crown upon the mitre. The mitre was a high, pointed hat, made of gold, and was worn by the High Priest. The crown was a gold plate, which was placed upon the mitre. The girdle was a gold band, which was worn around the waist. The breast-plate was a gold plate, which was worn upon the chest. The ephod was a gold garment, which was worn over the breast-plate. The coat was a gold garment, which was worn over the ephod. The garments were made of gold, and were worn by the High Priest and his sons.

3 And then thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two lambs.

4 And Aaron and his sons shall bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt wash them with water.

And thou shalt take the garments, &c.] Oblation was an act of offering, and was a part of the ceremony of consecration. The garments were made of gold, and were worn by the High Priest and his sons. The mitre was a high, pointed hat, made of gold, and was worn by the High Priest. The crown was a gold plate, which was placed upon the mitre. The girdle was a gold band, which was worn around the waist. The breast-plate was a gold plate, which was worn upon the chest. The ephod was a gold garment, which was worn over the breast-plate. The coat was a gold garment, which was worn over the ephod. The garments were made of gold, and were worn by the High Priest and his sons.

5 And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breast-plate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod.

And thou shalt take the garments, &c.] This was the next Part of the Ceremony, figuring, that after purifying themselves from the Pollution of Sin, they were to study to be clothed with the Robes of Righteousness, whereof their holy Vestments were an Emblem, Psal. cxxxiii. 9, 16. Rev. xix. 8.

And gird him with the curious Girdle of the Ephod.] The Girdle was a gold band, which was worn around the waist. The curious girdle was made of gold, and was worn by the High Priest.

6 And thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre.

And put the holy Crown upon the Mitre.] The Plate of Gold See Ex. xxviii. 36.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him.

This was the third Thing in the Ceremony of Consecration, and signified the Communication of the Holy Spirit, 1 Pet. i. 12. It would seem from the Connexion of this Verse with the former, that the Oil was poured upon the Mitre and Crown. That much is certain from Psal. cxxxiii. 2. that the Oil was poured upon the Priest's Head in such Abundance, as to run down upon his Face. Nothing is said here of anointing Aaron's Sons.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles. Aaron and his sons, and put the bonnets on them: and the priests office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt consecrate Aaron and his sons.

And thou shalt consecrate.] Heb. Fill the Hand of. Because one of the principal Ceremonies in Consecration was putting Parts of the Sacrifice in the Priest's Hand, which, after he had waved them, were burnt upon the Altar, Lev. 2. 4.

10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

And thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the lamb, and of the blood of the goat, and shalt put it upon the head of the bullock, and upon the head of the lamb, and upon the head of the goat.

Blood was carried to the Tabernacle for any Atonement, the skin, the legs, the inward parts, and the liver too, was to be burnt without the Camp, Lev. vi. 12, vii. 22, signifying thereby, that Sin ought to be far removed from the Dwelling of Truth, a holy Nation, and from the Fellowship of that GOD who dwelleth in the midst of Truth and Righteousness. Yet such an Offering, whose blood was not carried into the Tabernacle, and who did not eat the Priest's Part, Lev. x. 18. And the carrying of the fat Offering, which importeth their feasting with GOD upon it, was a continuing Sign of GOD's being reconciled to the Offender, and that his Sins were expiated, Lev. x. 17. But here we see that Priests were not allowed to eat of their own Sin Offerings, though the Blood was offered in the holy Place, (see also Lev. xvi. 24) probably to teach them, that though GOD was pliable in Concession to Human Weakness to make them the Dispositors of the Terms of Pardon and Abolition to penitent Sinners; yet they were not able to make a proper Atonement for their own Sins, far less the Sins of others, but were beholden for the time to the free Mercy of GOD.

15 ¶ Thou shalt also take one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

[The Fat and the Ramp.] As this Sacrifice was a Peace-Offering, Lev. i. 18, and the former a Sin-Offering, to the Ceremonies here are different from those of the other. In the Sin Offering some of the Blood was only to be put upon the Horns of the Altar, Lev. i. 12. Here all the Blood was to be sprinkled round about the Altar. In the former, only the Fat was to be burnt upon the Altar, which sufficiently shewed that GOD was pitiable to Sinners; but then the Flesh was to be carried out and burnt without the Camp, and none of it to be offered upon the Altar, to signify that Sin renders Mens Persons and Oblations abominable in the Sight of GOD. But the Burnt-Offering being of the Nature of a Gift presented in Token of Gratitude to GOD, and of devoting themselves wholly to His Service, was to be entirely consumed upon the Altar, to shew, that after penitent Confession of Sin GOD is reconciled to Sinners, and accepts of their Offerings. This Rite of sprinkling the Blood round about upon the Altar belonging to all Burnt-Offerings, Lev. i. 5.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and unto his head.

18 And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt-offering unto the LORD: it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

19 ¶ And thou shalt take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

[And thou shalt take the other Ram.] Mentioned Lev. i. 1. This appears to have been a Peace-Offering, Lev. i. 26, 32. Upon which, being now reconciled to GOD, and received into His Favour, they feasted with him at Table.

[Shall put their Hands.] See Notes on Lev. i. 1.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

All this tended to make the Priest understand, that he ought to apply his Ear diligently to the Study of the Law, to employ his Hands with the same Diligence in his sacred Ministry; and his Feet to walk in the Way of GOD's Precepts: For the Ear is the Symbol of Obedience, Job. vi. 10, the Hand of Action, Ecc. ix. 10, and the Feet of the Path or Conduct of Life, Prov. i. 15.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons garments with him.

[And thou shalt take of the Blood.] Signifying them to be thereby separated to an Holy Use, as it follows. [Of the Blood that is upon the Altar.] Or, that is, the Blood; for to the Particle that is sometimes taken. As the blood was in a part that Moses was directed to carry, and to anointing Oni; to the sprinkling the Priests themselves was to receive a peculiar Mark, consecrating them to Divine Service.

22 Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration.

[The Fat and the Rump.] Or the Ramp with its Fat.

[And the right Shoulder.] In Peace-Offerings this belonged to the Priest, Lev. vii. 27, 28. Lev. vii. 32, but now it was to be burnt upon the Altar, Lev. i. 25, because they were not yet Priests, as the following Words tell us.

[For it is a Ram of Consecration.] And in such Kind of Sacrifice this Rite is required, Lev. viii. 25. It is called a Ram of Consecration, because it perfected the Ceremony of their Consecration. It appears from Lev. viii. 31, to have been a Peace-Offering, and so naturally followed after the Sin-Offering, Lev. i. 14, and the Burnt-Offering, Lev. i. 18. See on Lev. viii. 24.

23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one waiver out of the basket of the unleavened bread, that is before the LORD.

[And one Loaf of Bread, &c.] Le Clerc thinks this Verse connects with Lev. i. 18, and that this was a Part of the Burnt-Offering, because it is said, Lev. i. 25, they were to be burnt for a Burnt-Offering. What we here render Loaf, signifies a great round Cake, as Lev. viii. 26, from 1 Chron. xvi. 5, that is called a Loaf, which in 2 Sam. vi. 17 is called a Cake.

24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons; and shalt wave them for a wave-offering before the LORD.

[And thou shalt put all, &c.] i. e. The Bread and Cakes, and Fat and right Shoulder before mentioned, all these Moses was to deliver to the Priests, and he and they together were to lift and wave them in the Air, before the Lord, i. e. with their Faces towards the Sanctuary, denoting them thereby to be dedicated to the Lord of Heaven and Earth: See Lev. i. 27. Then Moses was to receive them again from the Priests, and lay them on the Altar, to be burnt as an Offering of Peace and Acceptance with GOD.

25 And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt-offering, for a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecrations, and wave it for a wave-offering before the LORD: and it shall be thy part.

[And it shall be thy Part.] The Breast of this Ram, Moses, who now acted as Priest, was to take to himself, after having acknowledged it to be GOD's by waving it about, and that he had it only as his Minister. See Lev. i. 27.

27 And thou shalt sanctify the breast of the wave-offering, and the shoulder of the heave-offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons.

[Sanctify the Breast—and Shoulder—] i. e. Declare them to be sanctified or set apart for the Priest's Use in all future Times. Or, though these Parts are not to be burnt upon the Altar, but to be allotted for the Priest's Use, they shall not be held the less sacred and separated from common Flesh.

[Which is waved, and which is heaved.] The Difference between these two is, that the latter was only lifted up towards Heaven in Token of its being devoted to GOD; the other was waved up and down, East, West, North and South, to signify, that he to whom it was offered was Lord of the whole World, the GOD who fills all Space, and to whom all Things of Right belong.

28 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons by a statute for ever, from the children of Israel: for it is an heave-offering: and it shall be an heave-offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace-offerings, even their heave-offering unto the LORD.

It is an Heave-Offering.] It is consecrated to GOD, and therefore to be eaten by his Ministers in his Stead.

29 ¶ And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

i. e. His Successors in the High Priesthood shall be consecrated and anointed to that Office in the same Garments. See Nam. xx. 28.

30 And that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

Shall put them on seven Days.] He was to put them on seven Days, successively, that he might learn to appear in them after a decent Manner, and that the People might be habituated to pay him Reverence, before he undertook to minister. It is to be observed, that during the whole seven Days of Consecration they were not to stir from the Door of the Tabernacle, but to keep the Watch of Jehovah Night and Day. Lev. viii. 33, 35.

We find the Number Seven to be much regarded in the sacred Writings: Thus the Blood of Atonement was to be sprinkled seven Times before the Mercy-seat, Lev. xvi. 14. The consecrating Oil was to be sprinkled seven Times upon the Altar, Lev. viii. 11. The Leper was to be sprinkled seven Times, and seven Days were appointed for his cleansings, Lev. xiv. 7, 9. Seven Days are to be employed in consecrating the Priests, Lev. viii. 27. and for purifying the Unclean, Lev. xii. 2. Nam. xix. 17. Seven Times Naaman washed him in Jordan, 2 Kings v. 10, 14. Seven Day was Jericho besieged, and seven Priests with seven Trumpets blew, and the Walls fell down, Jos. vi. Seven Priests blew Trumpet before the Ark, when David brought it home, 1 Chron. xv. 24. Every seventh Day was a Sabbath, Exod. xx. 10. and the seventh Year a Year of Rest; and seven Times seven Years brought the Jubilee, Lev. xxv. 3, 4, 8. Perhaps the Reason why the Jews paid so much Regard to this Number, was on Account of the Creation of the World, which was finished in seven Days; as if GOD himself had consecrated that Number by resting from his Works on the seventh Day.

31 ¶ And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place.

In the holy Place.] In the Court of the Sanctuary, as appears from Lev. viii. 31. there it was both to be boiled and eaten.

32 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

And the Bread that is in the Basket.] i. e. The unleavened Bread, and the Cakes tempered and anointed with Oil, Exod. 2.

By the Door of the Tabernacle.] This it had peculiar from other Peace-Offerings, which might be carried home and eaten there, after GOD (i. e. the Altar) and the Priests had had their Parts.

33 And they shall eat those things, wherewith the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy.

Wherewith the Atonement was made.] The Atonement or Expiation was made by the Bullock or Ex-Offertion, which was not to be eaten, Exod. 14. and therefore the Words might be better translated, They for whom the Atonement was made, shall eat those Things.

A Stranger shall not eat thereof.] By Stranger here Le Clerc understands any one who was not of the sacerdotal Lineage, all such being accounted Strangers, and Unclean, in Comparison of the Priests, and therefore were not allowed to partake of this Sacrifice.

Because they are holy.] In a special Manner holy, and therefore not to be eaten by any who were not Priests; which was peculiar in this Sacrifice, for in other Peace-Offerings the Domestic of him who offered the Sacrifice, might eat of it with him.

34 And if ought of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread remain unto the morning; then thou shalt burn the same with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35 And thou shalt do thus unto Aaron and to his sons, according to all that which I have commanded thee: seven days shall thou consecrate them.

Seven Days shalt thou consecrate them.] i. e. All the Ceremonies marked above, shall be repeated for seven Days successively.

36 And thou shalt offer every day a bullock for a sin offering, for atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou hast made an atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it: sanctify it.

37 Seven days thou shalt make an atonement for the altar, and sanctify it: and it shall be an altar most holy: whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy.

Seven Days shalt thou make an Atonement for the Altar.] i. e. Consecrate and let it apart, or Ex-Offertion, as before, Exod. 14. it was reckoned defiled by the Hands of the Women, and now purified by Sacrifice.

Whosoever toucheth the Altar shall be holy.] i. e. Every Thing that was laid upon the Altar, shall be accounted common to a sacred Use, according to GOD's Command, Exod. xiii. 19.

38 ¶ Now this is that which thou shalt offer on the altar, two lambs of the first year every day continually.

There were other additional Sacrifices of various sorts, on the Sabbath, new Moon, and other Festivals, Exod. 29. but these were constant and never omitted. It is never to be thought, that this Law took Place in the Wilderness, where they could hardly be supplied with two lambs every Day without a Miracle.

39 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning: and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even.

40 And with the one lamb a tenth-deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil: and the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink-offering.

A Tenth-deal of Flour.] An Omer, or the tenth Part of an Ephah, as Nam. xxviii. 5. about half a Peck of fine Flour.

An Hin.] The sixth Part of an Ephah; so that a fourth Part of an Hin of Wine, according to Dr. Cumberland's Computation, was about a Quart and something more than a Quarter of a Pint.

41 And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat-offering of the morning, and according to the drink-offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

42 This shall be a continual burnt-offering throughout your generations, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD: where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee.

This shall be a continual Burnt-Offering.] It was a daily Sacrifice presented to GOD in Behalf of the whole People, Nam. xxviii. 3. in the Nature of a daily Prayer to GOD, that he would graciously continue his Mercy to Israel, and increase their Flocks, their Corn, their Wine and Oil, which they hereby acknowledged themselves to have received from him.

To speak unto thee.] GOD promises especially to meet Moses there upon Occasion, and to declare his Mind to him in such Cases wherein he should consult him.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory.

And there I will meet with the Children of Israel, &c.] I will make this Tabernacle the Seat of my Cloud of Glory, the Symbol of my divine Presence, from whence I will give constant Tokens of my Favour towards them, their Priests, their Sacrifices and Prayers.

44 And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will sanctify also both Aaron and his sons, to minister to me in the priests office.

I will sanctify the Tabernacle, &c.] i. e. I will manifest them to be sanctified, or I will put distinguished Marks of Honour upon them.

[The Tabernacle of the Congregation,] Heb. the Tabernacle of Meeting, so called because there GOD and his People met together; He to inform them by his Word, and they to worship him, and to receive his Oracles.

I will sanctify—both Aaron and his Sons,] GOD sanctified or marked them out to be his Priests in a solemn Manner, by the Appearance of his Glory at their first Sacrifice, and by sending Fire from Heaven to consume their Burnt-Offering, Lev. ix. 23, 24.

45 ¶ And I will dwell amongst the children of Israel, and will be their God.

46 And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell amongst them: I am the LORD their God.

I will dwell amongst them, &c.] i. e. I will place the Shechinah or Symbol of my peculiar Presence among them: See the Passages quoted ver. 44. I will watch over them as a Nation by a peculiar Providence, and shew myself to be, indeed, that all-powerful and merciful GOD, who delivered them in so miraculous a Manner from Egyptian Bondage. This symbolical Divine Presence signified that happy Intercourse which pure, upright Minds enjoy with GOD in the Exercises of Virtue and Religion, Lev. xxvi. 11, 12. and figured that Eternal Life in the Presence of GOD, which the Saints enjoy in Heaven, Rev. xxi. 3.

C H A P. XXX.

1 Of the altar of incense. 11 Of the numbering of the people, and the ransom to be given for each. 17 Of the brazen laver for the priests to wash in. 22 Of the anointing Oil. 34 Of the perfume to be made use of in the tabernacle.

AND thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon: of shittim-wood shalt thou make it.

Besides the great brazen Altar for Sacrifice, Moses received Directions for making a lesser one, to burn Incense upon it twice a Day: Its Body was to be of the same Wood with the other, made at Top into a Square of little more than half a Yard, as high again as it was broad; at each Corner a Horn or Spire, rising out of the same Piece with the Corner Post; a Gold Cornish round the top Verge of it, with Gold Ringlets below the Cornish at each Corner, to put wooden Staves in to carry it by, and all to be overlaid with the purest Gold Plates and therefore called the Golden Altar.

2 A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof (four-square shall it be) and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same.

3 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof: and thou shalt make unto it a crown of gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it: and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal.

5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim-wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 And thou shalt put it before the vail, that is by the ark of the testimony; before the mercy-seat, that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee.

It was to stand in the Tabernacle, between the Table and Candlestick, towards the Vail that parted the holy Place from the most holy, in which the Ark was, towards which, as the Place of GOD's peculiar Presence, the Priest was to look while he was burning the Incense upon it.

7 And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: when he dresseth the lamps he shall burn incense upon it.

Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense,] Aaron, i. e. the High-Priest, did it at first, but afterwards the Sons of Aaron, or the inferior Priests, did it in their Courses, as appears from Lev. 8, 9. While the Priest was burning Incense, the People in the Court of the Tabernacle and Temple offered up Prayers to GOD, Lev. 10. The sweet Incense ascending up towards the Most Holy being a symbolical Representation of the Propitiety of the Deity to sinful Men, and his Readiness to receive their Prayers and Confessions which are accompanied with Divine Fear, and other spiritual Graces; while this Action of the High Priest shadowed forth the Intercession of CHRIST the High-Priest of our Profession, and his offering up the Prayers of his Servants before the Throne of GOD.

8 And when Aaron lighteth the lamps at even, he shall burn incense upon it; a perpetual incense before the LORD, throughout your generations.

9 Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt-sacrifice, nor meat-offering; neither shall ye pour drink-offering thereon.

Ye shall offer no strange Incense] None but such as is here directed by divine Appointment.

10 And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year, with the blood of the sin-offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it, throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD.

Shall make an Atonement upon the Horns of it once in a Year,] He shall perform this annual Rite of putting upon the Horns of the Altar some of the Blood of the Sin-Offering, which shall be offered in order to make an Atonement for the Sins of all the People in general. This was done by the High-Priest alone, on the solemn Day of Expiation, Lev. xvi. 18, 19. compared with Heb. ix. 7. But upon less solemn Occasions, the same Form of Expiation might be used by the inferior Priests. Lev. iv. 7, 18.

It is most holy unto the Lord.] This may be meant either of that solemn Expiation which was the most holy Rite in their Religion, or of the Altar itself, which by this was separated to the most holy Service.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 12 When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel, after their number; then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them: that there be no plague amongst them, when thou numberest them.

When thou takest the Sum of the Children of Israel,] This was done twice by GOD's own Order. Num. i. and xxvi.

Then shall they give every Man a Ransom for his Soul] GOD was pleased to appoint this Piece of Homage to be paid him as a Ransom for their Souls or Lives; i. e. as a pious Acknowledgment to GOD for having redeemed, and so remarkably saved them from the Thralldom and Persecution of their Enemies. And as this Money was to be applied for the Maintenance of the public Religion, it is considered as given unto the Lord. This Poll-tax was no Part of the Portion allotted to the Priests or Levites, for it is expressly appropriated to the Service of the Tabernacle, ver. 15.

That there be no Plague amongst them,] By paying this they acknowledged their Allegiance to JEHOVAH as their God and King, and so put themselves under his extraordinary Protection, which gave them Security from Plague, Pestilence, Famine, and every external Calamity, and entitled them to a Share in those national Privileges which GOD promised to the Jews, in Case of Obedience to the Terms of his Covenant. Deut. xxviii.

13 This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered; half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary (A shekel is twenty gerahs) an half-shekel shall be the offering of the LORD.

Half a Shekel] A little more than fourteen Pence of our Money. The same Tax was levied afterwards for the Service and Reparation of the Temple, Matt. xvii. 24.

By the Shekel of the Sanctuary is meant the Standard of the Shekel, which with the other Standards of the Jewish Weights and Measures was kept in the Sanctuary, and thence called the holy Shekel.

A Gerah, according to Bernard, weighed about 16 grains of Barley, in Value about a Penny Half-penny.

14 Every one that passeth among them that are numbered from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD.

15 The

15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

The Rich shall not give more,] To teach them that they were upon a Level in the Sight of GOD.

16 And thou shalt take the atonement-money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

For the Service of the Tabernacle] Selden says, the Priestly Garments, as well as the Sacrifices, were provided out of this Money; and if any Thing remained at the End of the Year, it was spent in extraordinary Burnt-Offerings.

That it may be a Memorial, &c.] A Testimony of their Gratitude to GOD, and a Commemoration of their miraculous Redemption from Egyptian Bondage by the Hand of GOD.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, and his foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein.

Thou shalt make a Laver of Brass, &c.] Another Direction was, that at the Entrance into the Tabernacle there should stand a large Font or Laver, contrived with Spouts of Water for the Priests to wash their Hands and Feet at, before they approached the Altar, as an Emblem of that inward Purity of Affections wherewith GOD is to be worshipped.

Thou shalt put it between the Tabernacle — and the Altar,] At the Entrance of the Tabernacle, so that the Priests coming into the Court, immediately went to the Laver, and there washed, and then ascended to the Altar of Burnt-Offerings.

19 For Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet thereat.

As the Priests minister'd bare-footed, it was required that they should wash their Feet as well as their Hands, before they entered upon Divine Service.

20 When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not: or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the LORD.

21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations.

That they die not:] Now that this Rite was instituted by Divine Appointment, it would have argued high Presumption and Profaneness to pay no Regard to it, and therefore they are warned to beware of such an Omission, as they valued their Life, and would not provoke GOD to inflict upon them immediate Death.

It shall be a Statute for ever] As long as the Jewish Constitution remained.

22 ¶ Moreover the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Take thou also unto thee principal spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels.

Myrrh is a Kind of Gum or Resin issuing, by Incision, and sometimes spontaneously from the Trunk of a Tree, which grows in Egypt, Arabia, and elsewhere. Its Fragrance is mentioned by many Authors, whence it entered into the Composition of the most costly Ointments. By pure Myrrh, Le Clerc and others understand, that which drops from the Tree itself.

Five hundred Shekels,] In Weight about two hundred and fifty Ounces, or twenty Pounds, ten Ounces. Though the Spices amounted to near half a hundred Weight, yet the Ointment itself could be little more than the Quantity of Oil here prescribed, viz. a Hin, or about five Quarts, for only the Odours of these Spices were extracted by Infusion, and the Substance left behind.

Of sweet Cinnamon] An aromatic Spice; being the Bark of a Tree which is now brought from the East-Indies. But the learned are of Opinion, that the Cinnamon of the Ancients was different from what now goes by that Name.

Sweet Calamus] The same which is called Sweet Carr, Jer. vi. 20. a spicy Root belonging to a peculiar kind of Rush or Flag.

24 And of cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive an hin

And of Cassia] The most probable Conjecture is, that it was that aromatic Plant which the Ancients called Cypariss, the best whereof was the Growth of Arabia.

An Hin,] About five Quarts.

25 And thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary: it shall be an holy anointing oil.

Thou shalt make it] i. e. Employ some Artist to make it of these Ingredients. For Bezaleel was Maker both of it and the other Things before-mentioned. Ch. xxxvii. 29.

This Ointment is called holy, because none were to be anointed with it but sacred Persons and Things. This anointing Oil may be considered as emblematical of the Gifts and Endowments of the HOLY GHOST, bestowed on the Church under the MESSIAH, which are therefore called the anointing of the HOLY SPIRIT, Acts i. 5. x. 38. 2 Cor. i. 21. 1 J. iii. 20, 27.

The Word Apothecary in this Verse, might be better rendered Perfumer.

26 And thou shalt anoint the tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the ark of the testimony,

27 And the table and all his vessels, and the candlestick and his vessels, and the altar of incense, 28 And the altar of burnt-offering with all his vessels, and the laver and his foot.

29 And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever toucheth them, shall be holy.

They were made hereby most holy, because they were both sacred in themselves, and the very touching them made other Things holy.

30 And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priests office.

31 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy anointing oil unto me, throughout your generations.

32 Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make any other like it, after the composition of it: it is holy, and it shall be holy unto you.

In the Eastern Countries it was customary for People to anoint their Heads and Faces with costly Ointments, especially at their Feasts, and when they would make a splendid Appearance; and therefore this Oil is here forbidden to be applied to such Uses, that it might not become common.

33 Whosoever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people.

Whosoever presumed to make any of this Ointment for private Use, or to put any of it upon one who was not a Priest, was to be excluded from the Privileges of an Israelite. The Design of this Prohibition was to beget in the People the higher Reverence towards the Sanctuary, and those Things which were consecrated to Religion.

34 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight.

The next Direction was how to make the Incense to be offered upon the fore-mentioned Altar. This was to be composed of an equal Quantity of Spices of the most exquisite and pleasant Flavour, mixed with Frankincense.

Stacte,] This is a resinous liquid Matter, drawn from fresh Myrrh, pounded, or pressed out with a little Water.

Onycha,]

Onychia] An aromatic Plant growing in Arabia: perhaps Persea, which is an aromatic Gum, smooth and shining like Myrrour, which the Greeks call Oncium, and is by some Authors called the Bezoar Onyx, to distinguish it from Beldium or another.

Stoechas] A Gum arising from an Incision in the Root of a scabrous Plant, growing in Arabia, Syria, &c. That which comes from Mount Sinai or Sina, we are told, had an excellent scent.

Spiritus] Translated by Jamus & Tremelius, Spiritus, which is a Spirit arising from an Ion, that grows even with the Groves, & is used the principal Ingredient in Perfumes, and this perfume is called, by Pliny or Strabo, Spiritus in the Hebrew, & is observed by Pliny (lib. xii. c. 12) that not only the Hebrews but Arabs also are obliged.

Frankincense] A fragrant Gum or Resin, that distils from Incense made in a Tree called Arbor Incensæ, that grows commonly in Arabia.

17 And thou shalt make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the apothecary, tempered together, pure & holy.

18 And thou shalt beat fine of it very small, and put of it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with thee: it shall be unto you most holy.

And thou shalt beat fine of it] Burn it up in the Altar of Incense, or golden Altar, which was placed before the Ark of the Testimony.

19 And as to the perfume which thou shalt make, you shall not make to yourselves according to the composition thereof: it shall be unto thee holy for the Lord.

20 Whosoever shall make like unto that, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people.

Thou shalt not make to yourselves] i. e. With an intention to burn it for his own Pleasure.

C H A P. XXXI.

1 God appoints the principal artificers for the work of the tabernacle. 12 The observance of the sabbath is again commanded. 18 Moses receiveth from God two tables of written laws.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 See, I have called by name, Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

I have called by Name Bezaleel] that is, I have made particular Choice of one Man above all others, whom I have designed for this Work. This is the proper Import of the Phrase, to call by Name. See Ch. xxviii. 12, 17. Is. xlv. 3.

3 And I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,

And I have filled him with the Spirit of God] See on Ch. xxviii. 3. The Expression may signify, a degree of excellence & power.

4 To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,

5 And in cutting of stones to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship.

And in cutting of Stone] In cutting and setting the precious Stones, and in graving on them what God commanded.

And in carving of Timber] Rather in cutting of Timber, as it is rendered in the Beginning of the Verse; for we do not read of any carved Work about the Tabernacle.

6 And I, behold, I have given with him, Aholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan; and in the hearts of all that are wise-hearted I have put wisdom; that they may make all that I have commanded thee:

7 The tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy seat that is thereupon, and all the furniture of the tabernacle,

8 And the table and his furniture, and the golden candlestick with all his furniture, and the altar of incense,

The pure Candlestick] A bright resplendent Candlestick, made of pure Gold, and kept always clean and bright. See Lev. xxv. 37. Lev. xxvii. 1. It is the same Word that occurs Ch. xxviii. 1, where the Divine Glory is compared to the Light of the Candlestick or Spindril.

9 And the altar of burnt-offering with all his furniture, and the laver and his foot,

10 And the clothes of service, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of the sons, to minister in the priests office,

And the Cities of Saron] Wherewith the Ark, the Table, the Candlestick, and golden Altar were covered when the Camp removed. Num. iv. 6, &c.

11 And the anointing oil, and sweet incense for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded thee, shall they do.

12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

13 Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you, throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD, that doth sanctify you.

Verily my Sabbath ye shall keep] This hath been mentioned three already, Ch. xvi. 23. xx. 8. xxiii. 12, but here seems repeated, that they might not think this sacred Work would warrant them to break the Sabbath. Wherefore it might be better rendered, nevertheless my Sabbath ye shall keep; for And is often an exceptive Particle, as Gen. ix. 4. Ex. xii. 16. Lev. xi. 36. and xxviii. 25. Num. xiv. 9. and it is so rendered here by Adam Morton, L. C., and Jamus and Tremelius.

For it is a sign between me and you] By observing one Day in seven, after six Days Labour, they signified themselves to be the Worshippers of one SUPREME BEING, the CREATOR of the World, who in six Days made all Things, and then rested; and of Him only, in Contra-distinction to the Polytheists and Idol-Worshippers of the Nations.

That ye may know that I am the Lord, that doth sanctify you] Rather, In Order to its being known, or to make it known (to all the World) that I JEHOVAH have sanctified you, i. e. distinguished you to be my peculiar People: for the Word Sanctify, signifies to separate or set apart to some peculiar Use. Hence it is that wicked Men who are destined to Punishment are said to be sanctified for the Day of Slaughter, Jer. xii. 3.

14 Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore: for it is holy unto you. Every one that defileth it, shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

Every one that defileth it, shall surely be put to Death] i. e. Whoever professing the Jewish Religion, and though instructed in the Belief of the sacred Institution of the Sabbath, shall profane it by doing any servile Work upon it, such a one, upon the Testimony of credible Witnesses, (Num. xv. 35) shall surely be put to Death. The Reason of this Severity is implied in the former Word. The Sabbath was a Sign whereby the Worshippers of the only true God were distinguished from Idolaters; therefore the Violation of this Law was a virtual Apostacy from the true Religion to Idolatry.

15 Six days may work be done, but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.

16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.

17 It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.

He rested] i. e. Ceased from creating. See on Gen. ii. 1.

The Expression conspicua, is spoken after the Manner of Men. It may signify that Delight and Complacency with which GOD surveyed all his Works, and pronounced them good, Gen. 1. 31. of which divine Pleasure we can only form a faint Idea, by comparing it to that Peace and Refreshment which a benevolent Man enjoys after he has brought into Execution some noble and arduous, some generous and well-concerted Plan, which was his sole Contrivance and original Invention.

18 ¶ And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

After his forty Days Stay upon the Mount, GOD dismissed him, giving him the ten Branches of the moral Law, written with the Finger of God upon two Tables of Stone, to deliver to the People, and to be laid up in the Ark, as the standing Record of the Divine Will, relating to the principal Branches of their Duty.

[Table of Stone.] We may observe, that in the most ancient Times Laws were wont to be engraven upon Tables of Brass, Marble, Wood, &c.

Written with the Finger of God. i. e. By the Will and good Pleasure of GOD. Just as the Heavens are said to be the Work of God's Fingers, Ps. viii. 1. which is interpreted in another Place, By the Word of the Lord were the Heavens made, Pl. xxviii. 6. The Expression may denote that they were written by a divine Order, and by the Ministration of an Angel. See Ch. xxvii. 19.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 The people in the alliance of Mo<sup>se</sup> make a golden calf to represent the God of Israel. 7 God is angered thereby. 11 But at the entreaty of Mo<sup>se</sup> is appeased. 15 Mo<sup>se</sup> is smitten down from the mount with the tables of stones: 19 But, seeing the iniquity of the people, breaketh them. 22 Aaron's example. 25 Mo<sup>se</sup> is slain: the calf is to be slain. 31 He prayeth for the people.

AND when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

The People] i. e. Some of them, as it is explained, 1 Cor. x. 7. It appears to have been a pretty general Defection, though we find several, particularly the Sons of Levi, exempt from it, ver. 26.

Save that Moses delayed] When he had been now absent from them near forty Days. For this Defection appears to have happened a Day or two before he came down from the Mount. See Deut. ix. 11, 12.

Gathered themselves together unto Aaron ;] The Hebrew may be rendered, against Aaron, and so the Expression will denote that they came upon him in a tumultuous Manner, insinuating to have their Demands gratified.

Up, make us Gods.] No Doubt another Discourse had passed before this; to which Aaron probably making some Difficulty to consent, they insisted on having their Desire granted, and said in a seditious Manner, Up, without further Delay, raise us Gods, or make us a God, so Elohim often signifies, and so it ought to be rendered here, as Le Clerc observes, for these two plain Reasons; the one is, that Aaron made but one Calt or Idol-God. The other, that it appears from ver. 5. that this Symbol was consecrated to JAHOVAH alone. See also ver. 4. The Meaning is, Make us a visible Symbol of Divinity, as other Nations have, a Symbol that may represent to us JAHOVAH our GOD in a visible Manner. For they were not so senseless as to imagine, that a Piece of Metal could be God himself; but this was the constant Language of Idolaters, to give the Name of God to the Symbols of their Gods. Therefore Aben Ezra judiciously interprets it, Some corporeal Image in which the Deity may reside. The Cause was this: Moses having staid so unexpectedly long upon the Mount, and the Cloud of Glory all the while standing still at a Distance, they imagined, perhaps, that M. being lost, it would no longer lead them as it had done, and therefore they apply themselves to Aaron, as the next Director of their Affairs, desiring him to new-model their Religion, and make them an Image, or visible Representation of GOD, toward which they might direct their Worship, as they had seen among the Egyptians. Deut. xxiix. 16, 17. and carry it with them in their future Perambulations.

2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden ear-rings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and long to see them.

From the  $^{13}\text{C}$  NMR (Table 1), there were good correlations of the  $\delta$  values with the number of the  $\beta$ -glymans, which are

[illegible]

3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them in to Aaron.

4 And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, There is thy god, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

And fashioned it with the graving Tool. [The Words may be also rendered, He bound them up in a Bag, &c. 2 Kings, v. 26, where both Words occur in the same Continuation of Speech. According to the common Interpretation, the Order is inverted, for it is in the Hebrew, He fastened it to the graving Tool, and bound it in a Bag; whereas it ought to have been, “He made it a Mother Calf, and then fashioned it with the graving Tool.” Dr. Chaubard thinks the Word which we read a graving Tool, and which else here signifies a Bag, or little Calf, may be a strong Metaphor denote a Mould made to shut up the Crucible to contain and form the Metal to be pour’d out of it.

The time ingenious Author is, of O<sub>1</sub> I am, that the Words which we translate He suffered, at His Death, might not be put in the plural Number, and be spoken of the Triumvir in general, and not of Jesus, who only received the Cross; but did not turn it into a Calf; this being done by the Workmen, or Artificers, and the People. According to their Construction the Verse would run thus: They crucified them (viz. they did, crucifying) at their Hand. And they crucified a Man (viz. they made a wooden Cross); and *they said, I will give thee *O<sub>1</sub>.

It is no improbable Conjecture, that Aaron, to appease the People, might demand their golden Ear-rings, &c. to make an Image of GOD as they requested, as supposing they would not part with such valuable Ornaments, and so would let them drop; but finding, contrary to his Expectations, that the People, in the Fury of their blind Zeal, were forward to part with their most valued Ornaments, he then enquired at a Loss how to act, and during his Irresolution and Delay, it is probable the People might in a tumultuous Manner demand their Ear-rings again, which having obtained, they set about casting them into a Calf. For though Aaron was highly blameable and criminal in not courageously opposing this Defection of the Israelites, and though his joining with them in their Sin, as we find he did by the fifth Verse, loads him with a great Share of the Guilt, yet it seems from some Expressions that he was not the actual Maker of the Image, but that other Persons and not he were the Founders of it. His Compliance with the popular Clamour was without Doubt highly criminal; he should have opposed them with all his Might, he should have been willing to have died rather than to have by any Means consented to it. This Reason plainly tells us w<sup>h</sup> was his Duty, and, agreeable to this, we find it recorded in Deut. ix. 20. that the Lord was very angry with him to have done so, but that Moses prayed for him. From whence we may learn, that no Circumstances whatsoever ought to induce us to do that which is sinful, and that we ought rather to part with Life itself, (if Circumstances so require) than our Integrity, and for a Sinner to GOD.

A melen Calf: Or Ox, as it is also called, Ps. cvi. 19, 20. It is probable, that the Origin of this Idolatry was from Egypt. The sacred Writings inform us, (Lev. xxiv. 14. Exod. xx. 7, 8. xxiii. 3, 8.) that the Israelites in Egypt imitated the Egyptian Superstitions. Now that the Egyptian Animal Worship among them so early as these Days, appears from Gen. viii. 26. An Ox, or Calf in particular, was their great Idol. So that we may conclude, that Aaron, in Compliance to the Prejudices of the People, made this Calf after the Model of what the Israelites had seen in Egypt, consecrating it to JHONAH, as it had been among them to their principal Deity Osiris.

And they said, thou be th. G. d. On a Nebemian express it, This is thy God, &c. Neb. ix. 18. The Plural seems to be put for the Singular, Th. be th; Ew'm; i. e. this is the Image or Symbol of thy GOD, who brought thee out of Eg. &c.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it, and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the Lord.

Te-moerere is a Fijian to the Lord.) Having built an Altar to this Idol, he would needs have it consecrated by offering sacrifices, and appoints a solemn Feast to be celebrated in its Honour. This he calls keeping a Feast to Jehovah, when it was designed to represent. So Moses and Aaron consecrate their respective Images to Jehovah, Lev. xvi. 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28. But whatever be or they might pretend, this Action of theirs was downright Idolatry, Lev. xv. 24; and is condemned as such in Scripture. See Act. xiv. 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

In Fact it appears, that the Israelites did not intend by this Action to set up any new God, but only to have some visible Representation before their Eyes of Jehovah, or the God who had brought them out of the Land of Egypt. Their Feast, we find, was accordingly proclaimed, not to any Egyptian, or other Heathen Deity, but to the Lord, or Jehovah. So that their Crime consisted not in really worshipping a false Deity, but in worshipping the true and living God, by or through a sensible Representation: for it is plain they did not worship the Calf, but only were weak enough to imagine, that to have some Representation of their God before their Eyes was the best and most affecting Way of worshipping him.

This Fact, seriously and impartially considered, may convince those of the Romish Communion of the Fallacy of all their Arguments for the Use of any Images in the Worship of God, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever. It is in vain for them to say they do not worship the Image, so neither did the Israelites worship the golden Calf, and yet GOD was so wroth with them, that he declared they deserved to be entirely consumed, Ex. 10, and did actually cut off a great Number of them by the Sword of the Levites; and the Apostle St. Paul, 1 Cor. x. 7, expressly says it was Idolatry. So that it is plain, the Use of any Image in the Worship of GOD, under what Pretence soever, is an Act of that Idolatry which is so expressly forbidden in the second Commandment. For whatever can be alledged by those of the Romish Communion in Justification of their Use of Images or Pictures, may, with the same Reason, be alledged in Vindication of the Israelites in this Fact; and yet we find that GOD, the truest and wisest, the only Judge of what is right in Man, testified on this Occasion, that no Pretence or foolish Imagination of the Heart of Man could justify him, in making Use of any Representation of his Divine Majesty in the Worship of Him; for as God is a Spirit, He ought and must be worshipped in Spirit, and not by the Means or Steps of any sensible Representation. This is the distinguishing Characteristic of the Holy Scriptures, that they teach us to worship GOD in Spirit only, and this is a very corroborating Proof of their Divine Original. For if we seriously consider, what we have undoubted Evidence was the real Matter of Fact, viz. that the whole World entirely, (except only one People which GOD separated) the Wise as well as the Foolish, the Learned as well as the Unlearned and Ignorant, fell into the gross Error of worshipping the DEITY through the Means of sensible Representations; we must needs look upon those Writings to be more than human which so strenuously oppose this general Error, and teach only a spiritual Worship of GOD.

Such we find the Worship of the Patriarchs described to be, throughout their whole History; nothing more simple, nothing more spiritual, nothing more pure. And this is the Worship which is alone pleasing to GOD, and that which his beloved Son came down upon Earth to establish in the Hearts of Men; the ceremonial Laws being given only to the Jews for a Time, to answer the wise Design of GOD, because their Minds were then too gross and carnal to understand a spiritual Worship, and too much habituated to the Error of the World to be corrected and cured all at once. The Heart is deceitful, and now is laid our SAVIOUR to the Woman of Samaria, &c. in the true Worship of God, which is in Spirit and in Truth, for the Father, which is the true God.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt-offerings, and brought peace-offerings: and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered Burnt-Offerings. To show their Zeal, they began betimes in the Morning, and seem not to have find for Moses, but offered Sacrifices themselves. They began with Burnt-Offerings, or expiatory Sacrifices, as the Order was, Lev. xvi. 12, xvii. 5; then followed Peace-Offerings, whereof the People were wont to partake with the Altar, in Token of their Communion with the God to whom the Sacrifice was offered, as it is here said, they sat down to eat and to drink.

The People sat down to eat and to drink. Feasts were the ordinary Appendages of Sacrifice. In some expiatory Sacrifices, a Part of the Victim was allotted to the Priests, who feasted alone, Ex. xxix. 32, Lev. vi. 16, and viii. 31. But in Peace-Offerings, or eucharistical Sacrifice, as this before us, the Offerers received a Part of the Victim for themselves to feast upon it with their Friends. See Deut. xii. 7, and xvi. 11.

And rose up to play. Not were Sports and Recreations wanting at solemn Sacrifices, even those of Divine Institution, such as Music, Songs, and Dancing. See Deut. xii. 6, 7, and xvi. 11, compared with 2 Sam. vi. 14, &c. Each Token of Mirth they expressed here, Ex. 18.

7 And the Lord said unto Moses, Go, get thee down: for thy people which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the Lord said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people.

It is a stiff-necked People. The Expression is often used in Scripture. It is a Metaphor taken from untamed Horses, that with Difficulty bend and submit their Necks to the Bit. 1 Cor. x. 10 alludes, Gen. xlviii. 4. Thy Neck is as iron, &c. So Jer. Cii. v. 5. And the same Metaphor is used in other Languages.

10 Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.

Let me alone, &c. The Divine Being advises him, (probably for a Trial of his piety and benevolent Disposition) to use no Intreaties and Intercessions, but leave vindictive Justice to take its Course upon them, since by this and other foregoing Instances it appeared how stubborn and untractable they were.

I will make of thee a great Nation. I will make thee the Ancestor and Head of a still greater Nation, that shall enjoy the promised Land instead of this rebellious Generation.

11 And Moses besought the Lord his God, and said, Lord, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt, with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12 Wherefore should the Egyptians speak and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel thy servants, to whom thou swearest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of, will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

And Moses besought the Lord, &c. Here Moses, in humble Confidence of the Divine Mercy, pleads with his Maker, representing how unhappy an Event it would prove, to destroy his People, whom he had so miraculously preserved; that it might harden the Egyptians in their Infidelity, and tempt them to blasphemy; that the Divine Honour was concerned to make good the Promises made to their pious Ancestors, and therefore beseeching him to vouchsafe to pardon this their Act of Rebellion.

Why doth thy Wrath wax hot, &c. Why here signifies, for what End, &c. What good Purpose will it serve to destroy thy People in Anger? For Moses knew well enough that GOD had the highest Reason to be displeased with Israel. It is a Manner of earnest Intreaty, that GOD would not in Wrath destroy them, as Ps. x. 1, and xlv. 24. Compare Mark v. 39, with L. c. viii. 32.

14 And the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

And the Lord repented of the Evil, &c. i. e. For the above-mentioned Reasons, and at Moses's Intercession, GOD was pleased not to inflict upon them that Punishment which he signified their Sin to have deserved, Ex. 10, and so acted as Men do, when they repent and change their Mind. But that no proper Change or Repentance can take Place in the Divine Will, plainly follows from the Perfection of the Divine Knowledge and Understanding, which comprehends, at one View, all Things past, present, and to come; for He who sees before-hand and thoroughly understands the Nature and Consequences of all Things that possibly can happen, never can be surprized at their happening, nor change his Mind upon that Account. See this farther explained, on Gen. vi. 6.

15 And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God graven upon the tables.

The Tables were the Work of God.] These Tables appear to have been so curiously formed, perhaps by the Ministration of an Angel, as to be denominated the Work of God. And herein they differed from the second Tables, which were the Work of Moses. See Ch. xxxiv. 1.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp.

When Joshua heard the shouting in the Camp, he took it for the Noise or great Shout which Soldiers make when they give the Onset, or when they get a Victory.

18 And he said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being overcome: but the noise of them that sing, do I hear.

19 ¶ And it came to pass as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount.

'Tis not an uncommon Thing for People, when transported with violent Anger, to dash on the Ground any Thing they have in their Hand. But that Moses did this advisedly, and designed it as a symbolical Representation of their having broke their solemn Covenant with G O D, the chief Articles whereof were contained in these Writings, appears from the Manner of his relating it again, Deut. ix. 16, 17.

20 And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strawed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

He took the Calf and burnt it in the Fire,] He melted it down, and so destroyed its Form and external Shape.

And ground it to Powder,] Grated it into Dust, probably by a File, as small as Flour is ground in a Mill.

Strawed it upon the Water,] The Brook that flowed from the Rock in Horeb, Deut. ix. 21. with Exd. xvii. 6.

And made the Children of Israel drink of it.] He did not constrain them to it, but having no other Water to drink, they could not avoid, when thirsty, to drink it with this Mixture. This he did to make them sensible how much they had debased themselves in worshipping so vile an Idol, which after passing through so many Changes, was at length thrown out into the Draught.

21 And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: thou knowest the people that they are set on mischief.

They are set on Mischief.] Heb. They are in Wickedness. The same Way of speaking is used 1 John v. 19. The whole World lieth in Wickedness. It signifies their great Propensity to Sin, especially the Sin of Idolatry.

23 For they said unto me, Make us gods which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

24 And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off: So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

I cast it into the Fire, and there came out this Calf.] i. e. I delivered it out of my Hands to the Use it was designed for, into the Furnace in which it was to be melted; what was done further, was done by others, not by me, the Workmen made the Calf and brought it to me.

25 ¶ And when Moses saw that the people were naked for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame, amongst their enemies;

Naked, i. e. Unarmed, and in no Posture of Defence, under no Direction of their proper Officers, but scattered up and down the Plain at their Games, as their Fancy led them, and so exposed to their Shame, or in a shameful Manner, amongst their Enemies.

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the Lord's side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

And said, who is on the Lord's Side?] i. e. Who abhors this Idolatry, and adheres to the true Form of Worship instituted by JEHOVAH himself? The Chaldee giveth the true Sense. Who seareth the Lord, let him come to me.

And all the Sons of Levi gathered themselves, &c.] This shews that the Detention of the People to this idolatrous Worship was general, since none but the Sons of Levi joined Moses upon this Occasion. And even as to the Sons of Levi, it is probable that they were not all free from the Detention. For Moses charges them to slay every Man his Brother, and every Man his Companion, if any so nearly related came within their Reach; but this could not be supposed, if there had been none of that Tribe at the Games. Therefore when it is here said, all the Sons of Levi gathered themselves together, &c. it is to be understood not of the whole Tribe, but only all the Sons of Levi, who were amongst those unto whom Moses called, came together to this Service.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, &c.] What Moses now acted was not merely in the Heat of a pious Zeal, but by a Divine Impulse and Direction; and therefore can be no Warrant for others to imitate his Example, who cannot pretend to the same Authority, and who are placed in Circumstances quite different from those of the Israelites.

And slay every Man his Brother, and every Man his Companion,] Moses being, under G O D, their chief Ruler, passed this extraordinary Sentence upon the Offenders, without the common Process in Courts of Judicature, requiring them to go armed into the Camp, and cut off the most notorious and obstinate Offenders, without Regard to Kindred, Friendship, or any other Distinction whatever.

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

These three thousand appear to have been the principal Offenders and Ring-leaders of this Impiety. But that many more, even the Generality, were guilty, is plain from ver. 30, &c.

29 For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves to day to the Lord, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

Consecrate yourselves, &c.] Heb. Fill your Hands; a Phrase taken from the principal Ceremony used in Consecration, Ex. xxix. 7. Or it may be rendered, you have consecrated yourselves. The Expression considers the putting of those wicked Idolaters to Death, as offering so many Victims to public Justice, which required some Examples to be made, for deterring others from the like Crime for the future. But it may be rendered more agreeable to the Hebrew, viz. And Moses said, consecrate yourselves to the Lord, because every Man hath been against his Son, &c. i. e. Let this awful Example of necessary Severity inflicted on your Brethren, whereof you have been both the Witness and the Executioners; let it excite you to cleanse yourselves more thoroughly from Sin, especially from all Pollution of Idolatry.

Every Man upon his Son, &c.] They had spared none of the principal Offenders, though never so dear to them: Following that grand Maxim of Morality, That all private Considerations must give Place to those of a public Nature; which our SAVIOUR thus expresses. He that loveth Father or Mother more than me, is not worthy of me, &c. Matt. x. 35.

30 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I shall make an atonement for your sin.

It was a notorious bare-faced Violation of the solemn Covenant so lately ratified between GOD and them; and that in its essential, and most fundamental Article, namely, that they were to acknowledge JEHOVAH alone to be their GOD, and abandon all Idols, and idolatrous Worship for ever. Which Sin Moses set before them, 'tis likely, in all its aggravating Circumstances. Not to drive them to Despair, but to awaken them to a hearty Repentance, and a steady Resolution of future Amendment, in which Cases he encourages them with Hope, that no further Judgment should overtake them.

31 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold.

And Moses returned unto the Lord,] Before whom he fell down, as at the first, forty Days and forty Nights, interceding in Behalf of the People, Deut. ix. 18.

32 Yet now, if thou wilt, forgive their sin: and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written.

If thou wilt, I pray thee, out of thy Book,] An Expression of great Tenderness and Love to his Country. Let me die, says he, rather than live to see the Evils that are coming upon thee, if thou shalt think fit to punish them as they deserve. GOD is here represented after the Manner of Men, as having all the Names of the Living enrolled in a Book, to signify his particular Care and Inspection of the Sons of Men. See Pf. lvi. 8. So to blot out of the Book of Life, is to cut one off from the Land of the Living, equivalent to that Expression, Num. xi. 15. And thus it is understood by the Jewish Doctors. Compare Pf. lix. 28. lxxxvii. 6. If. iv. 3. Ezek. xiii. 9. with Deut. xxv. 6.

In Pursuance of the same Allusion GOD is represented as enrolling the Citizens of the heavenly Jerusalem, or the Members of that better World in a Book by themselves, Dan. xii. 1. Phil. iv. 3. Rev. iii. 5. Those who understand Moses's Words, as if he wished to be excluded from eternal Life for the Sake of his Brethren, make him talk a Language quite unnatural, and inconsistent with that Desire of Self-Happiness which is the first Law of Nature.

When we consider Moses's Behaviour on this Occasion, it appears in the most noble and amiable Light. How great Love does he shew for his Country! what Zeal for the Glory of GOD! no personal Consideration has any Weight with him on this Occasion. In the next Verse we have GOD himself telling him, that he would destroy the Israelites, and make of him a great Nation, but the Thought of this high Honour does not induce him to be less importunate for the Pardon of the Israelites. He lets not the partial Consideration of what would do Honour to himself, blind him from considering what would most tend to the Glory of GOD; and therefore argues and entreats only for that which he thought would most conduce to that End. In this Verse we find him desiring to die rather than survive the Destruction of his People. What can be more generous! what more noble! and yet more modest than his whole Behaviour in this Matter!

We may observe here too, with what a more than human Spirit of Truth Moses recorded every Thing. He does not pass over, or endeavour to hide, this great Folly and Wickedness of his People. He omits not even to record his own Brother Aaron's Crime, however disgraceful it might prove to himself as well as his Brother. Surely this exact Regard to Truth shews that his Pen was guided, and his Mind influenced, by a divine Spirit. Had he wrote merely as directed by the Spirit of a Man, he would probably have passed over these Things, or at least have cast as thick a Veil over them as possible. Agreeable to this, we find the celebrated Jewish Historian Josephus, though he wrote many Years after, and knew the Account which Moses had given, yet passes over in Silence this Transaction of the Israelites in setting up the molten Calf. He could not bear to record this shameful Disgrace of his Countrymen. The Difference was, Josephus wrote according to the Spirit of Man, Moses according to the Spirit of GOD.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.

34 Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: Behold, mine angel shall go before thee: Nevertheless, in the day when I visit, I will visit their sin upon them.

Mine Angel shall go before thee,] By this Angel is meant one of an inferior Order to him who is mentioned, Ex. xxiii. 20. and who sustains the Character of the Creator himself. Compare Ex. xxiii. 2. with xxviii. 2, 3. What is here said intimates, that GOD would to far pardon their Sin, as to lead them on in their Way to the promised Land by one of his Ministers; though they should not have such sensible and glorious Discoveries of his immediate Presence as hitherto they had had.

Nevertheless, in the Day when I visit, I will visit, &c.] This intimates, that without a special Degree of Repentance and Reformation, GOD would find a proper Occasion to lay the Effects of this Sin very heavily upon them; and when he came to reckon with them for other Offences that this should not be forgotten. See Ex. xx. 5. on visiting the Iniquities of the Fathers.

35 And the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

And the Lord plagued the People,] Beside the fore-mentioned Punishment by the Hands of the Levites, GOD often and justly, during their long Travels in the Wilderness, increased the Punishment of their other notorious Sins, upon the Account of that of the golden Calf. For as one Sin draws on another, so instead of thoroughly repenting of this Sin, and being effectually reformed by the Chastisements with which they were now visited upon that Account, they went on, from one Act of Idolatry to another, till they were given up to worship the whole Host of Heaven, Acts vii. 41, 42.

On reading the Account we have of the Israelites in this Chapter, our Hearts immediately condemn them. We think they acted a Part beneath even the Weakness of Human Nature. That they should, in the midst of what GOD was doing for them, whilst his Presence among them was so visible to them, whilst the light of his Glory was like a devouring Fire on the Top of the Mount, whilst GOD was thus marvellously and evidently near to them; That they should set up a golden Calf, of their own making, to represent this Divine Majesty, may well appear to us such a gross and senseless Folly, as Human Nature could scarcely be capable of. But, alas! such is Human Nature in its present fallen State, so prone to reason, and hearken to its own Reason, though so weak and ignorant as seldom to reason aright, that not the Israelites only, but all Mankind, have fallen into the grossest and most absurd Errors, and thought it Wisdom; and we still continue to be led aside too frequently by the same Cause from Truth, and Peace, and Happiness. Do we seek for the Root of this? we must then go back to our original State. Man in fact was made to be kept in the Hand of GOD's COUNSELLORS, to be directed by him in all Truth, and in all his Ways. See Notes on the second and third Chapters of Genesis. But the first of Mankind would not continue to be guided by the Hand of GOD's Counsel, but sought Knowledge from his own Wisdom, and hereby fell into Error and Misery. His unhappy Race have too much followed his Example, and have thereby fallen into the like Error and Misery, while they have thought themselves wise. Thus at the Time when the Israelites set up the golden Calf in Honour of their God, according to the Rudiments of the World, Reason was thought very clearly to dictate, that Images were necessary to a lively and significant Service of the Deity, and such a Sort of Image as the Israelites then used was accounted to be by Nature designed for that very Purpose, and the Wise and the Learned thought they worshipped according to Nature in making Use of these Things.

It is indeed true that GOD had made a Covenant with the Israelites, and the Import and Design of it was to engage them to obey his Voice indeed, and to walk in the Way which he should command them, that they might not walk in the Counsels of their own Hearts, but that they should keep in the Land which their whole Heart, and not lean to their own Understanding. This was to have been their Wisdom, this their Understanding in the Sight of all Nations; if they would have bowed their Hearts to adhere to it: But alas! Mankind has been very rarely ready to pay unto GOD this Obedience of Faith. Our first Parents would not be restrained by a Divine Command from what they thought Reason was to be desired to make them wise: And thus the Israelites would have Images, when they thought Reason and natural Science to be for them, though GOD had said expressly, make no Image: In the same Spirit and Way of thinking, the learned Greeks in their Day would not admit the Doctrine of the Cross, though attested to come from GOD, by the Demonstration of his Spirit and of Power, because it seemed Foolishness to them: And it need not be mentioned how difficult it is, at this Day, to persuade Men to have their Faith stand, not on the Wisdom of Men, but in the Power of GOD. 1 Cor. i. 21.

And the Lord said unto Moses, Depart, and go up hence, thou, and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it:

*And the People of the Lord said, Agreed, GOD seems to disown them, and calls them no more his People, because of their Idolatry and Idleness.*

3 And I will send an angel before thee; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:

And the Lord said, &c.] See on Ch. xxxii. 34.

4 Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee, for thou art a stiff-necked people: lest I consume thee in the way.

For I will not go up in the midst of thee.] The Favour of my special Presence, which I have justly forfeited, and therefore I will dwell no more among you, by the Symbols of my Presence in the Sanctuary, as I promised, Ch. xxv. 8, xxix. 43, 45, 46. That this is the Sense is evident from what follows, vers. 5. where the Tabernacle, in which the Shekinah, or Divine Glory, dwelt, is removed to a Distance from the Camp. Hence the Chaldee renders it justly, I will not make my Majesty (so the Shekinah was called) to go up in the midst of thee.

As if he had said: If I continue to be your Leader, you will offer me such horrid Indignities, that I shall be obliged to destroy you by the Way. Though every Act of Wickedness which Men commit be an Indignity against GOD, who is essentially every where present; yet the Impieties of the Israelites were a special Indignity against the Divine Majesty, who was pleased to dwell among them by glorious Symbols of his Presence: and therefore GOD threatens to withdraw that special Presence from them. All this we see is accommodated to the gross Apprehensions of the People.

5 ¶ And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments.

Not only the Ornament wherewith they had decked themselves at their late Festival, but those which they ordinarily wore, appearing in the Habit of humble Penitents.

6 For the Lord had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiff-necked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.

For the Lord said, &c.] —and I will come up into the midst of thee, and consume thee.] i. e. Un-derstand that I have said, for you can by a sincere and speedy Conversion, and Repentance, turn me from this Word. The next Words shew that it was not so intended. For we may render the Words thus: I will come up into the midst of thee, and I will consume thee.

That I may deal with you, &c.] i. e. I find you disposed; GOD speaks here after the Manner of Men.

7 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments, by the mount Horeb.

By the Mount Horeb.] Heb. From Mount Horeb: i. e. They put on the Habit of Penitents, and retired to a Distance from the Place where GOD appeared, as afraid and ashamed to appear in his Presence.

8 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD, went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

And Moses took the Tabernacle,] Some public Tent where Moses heard Causes, and enquired of GOD: for the sacred Tabernacle was not yet built, Ch. xxxvi. The LXX and Syriac render it his Tabernacle, intimating, that Moses's own Tent was the Place where the Divine Glory rested till the Sanctuary was prepared.

To humble them when they saw the Displeasure of GOD declared by this Departure of his symbolical Presence, which might make them fear lest he would remove quite out of their Sight.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent-door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

They looked after him with Signs of Reverence, expecting, not without Pain and Concern, what might be the Issue of his Removal from them. And as soon as they saw the Divine Glory descend upon the Tabernacle, they worshipped towards it, deprecating the Displeasure of the Almighty, whom they had provoked to withdraw his special Presence from them.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses.

As Moses entered into the Tabernacle, the cloudy Pillar descended.] This Symbol of the Divine Presence having gone up before, and stood aloof from the Camp, which was become unclean through their Idolatry, now came down again upon the Removal of the Tabernacle.

And stood at the Door of the Tabernacle.] Openly to assert the Authority of Moses, with whom GOD shewed himself present, tho' he had forsaken them.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle-door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent-door.

11 And the Lord spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp; but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

And the Lord spake unto Moses face to face,] i. e. GOD manifested himself to him in a most conspicuous intimate Manner, by a distinct Voice, not in Visions and Dreams, and obscure Resemblances; nor with such awful tremendous Circumstances as often threw the Prophets into an Extasy of Dread and Consternation; (see Dan. x. 7, 8, 9.) but in a Manner familiar, friendly, and condescending. This is the true Import of the Expression, as appears from Nam. xii. 8. 'Tis to be observed also, that Moses alone had free Access at all Times to the Holy of Holies, there to hold Intercourse with GOD, as appears from Ch. xxv. 22. compared with Nam. vii. 89. into which none else were admitted, except the High-Priest once a Year, Lev. xvi. on which Account Moses is said to be the only Prophet whom GOD knew face to face, Deut. xxxiv. 10. This much is certain, that the Passage cannot be understood literally, as if GOD had appeared to Moses in an human Shape, and so conversed with him Face to Face; for the Divine Person here spoken of assumed no particular organized Form, as is plain from Deut. iv. 12.

As a Man speaketh to his Friend,] GOD is said to have talked Face to Face with all the Israelites, Deut. v. 4. but then it was out of the midst of Fire, in a Manner awful and tremendous; but to Moses he spoke in a milder and more condescending Manner.

But his Servant Joshua, a young Man, departed not out of the tabernacle.] The Meaning is, that Joshua being appointed to take Care of the Tabernacle, and to see that no Body entered into it, departed not from his Charge. The Word Negav which we render young Man, signifies a Minister or Servant. Joshua cannot be so called on Account of his Age, for he must have been at this Time upwards of fifty.

12 And Moses said unto the Lord, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

And Moses said unto the Lord,] It is likely that Moses being satisfied with the Penitence of the People, returned to the Tabernacle, and there had this Communication with the Deity.

The length  $m$ ,  $l$  and  $P_{\text{eff}} \approx 1.5$  m are used.

Thou hast not let me know what thou wilt do in the morning. Thou hast only said thou wilt let me see an Angel before I rise, so I will hold it me in Suspence, whether thou wilt wake me in the Field or Cloud as thou hast done hitherto. For the Lord hath put me at an Uncertainty what he would do, in Case the People did not follow, 22, 23.

Not to be given out, I move the City Navy, &c. Though I have confirmed to my special Marks and Testimonies of my Love and Favour to you, O. Navy, &c. as a special Master, and, to the end, to the end and to the end of the Navy. The Execution is below of the Manner of Kings, who of all their Subjects know few by Name, but their Favours, and to the who have been to their Persons.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, shew me now thy way that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is thy people.

Show me what thou wilt do. 'Show me what thou art to do in this Matter; for that is the Meaning of GOD'S War in Scripture, Job xl. 19. Psal. lxxviii. 19.

*That I may know thee, that I may find thee as thou art, O Lord.
And I shall know thee, that I shall know thee as thou art. I shall then be fully assured of thy gracious Acceptance of me.*

14 And he said, My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

i. e. I will guide thee myself, as I have done hitherto, by my glorious Presence in the Tabernacle; nor will I leave you, till I have brought you to your Rest and Settlement in the promised Land. The Cleric takes it interrogatively thus; It'm, Perhaps you'd go with thee, wilt thou be at rest? Which again is better with Mr. A's Answer.

17 And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, can I do any thing here.

And he said, if thy Presence go not with me, &c. In these Words Moses acknowledges how highly he valued the special Divine Presence, since without this he had rather never stir from the Place where they now were. He considers it as the principal Thing that would distinguish them from other People, and give them the greatest Superiority over their Enemies; namely, that they were immediately governed and conducted by GOD himself, and not by the Ministry of an Angel only.

16 For wherein shall it be known here, that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? Is it not in that thou goest with us? So shall we be separated I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17<sup>1</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

We are not to imagine that it was Moses's Intercession that rendered GOD compassionate and forgiving towards the Israhelites. Had not GOD of his own Nature been merciful, and previously disposed to extend Forgiveness towards them, not all the Prayers and Intercessions of Moses, or any of his Creatures, could have mitigated, or turned away his Wrath. But it was becoming the Wisdom of GOD to dispense his Favours to them on such Terms as might prevent their Abuse of the Divine Goodness. It is for the same Reason that GOD insists upon Men's Repentance, as a Condition of their Acceptance with him; not that their Repentance makes any Change in God, or gives his Nature a merciful Turn; by no means; but their Repentance qualifies themselves for being Objects of his Divine Mercy.

18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory.

Moses having obtained so much Favour of GOD, presumes to ask somewhat further, namely, to be allowed a Sight of the Splendor of that glorious Majesty that was to conduct there, not veiled in a Cloud, but in its original heavenly Brightness; which unveiled Majesty is called the Face of God, ver. 20. signifying some bright and luminous Appearance, by which GOD manifests himself present, in a peculiar Manner, to the Angels and Saints in Heaven. Such is the Splendor of this Appearance, that it cannot not be exhibited to the View of Mortals without over-

[illegible]

And I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.

[illegible]

And I, as Governor of the State of the Commonwealth, I will declare what alterations or corrections belong to a legal, particularly with Respect to Slaves.

[illegible]

20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face :
for there shall no man see me, and live.

As the said, Thou canst not see my Face. ] This is well explained by one of the Rabbins: " On that Divine Glory mentioned in Scripture, there is one Degree which the Eyes of the Prophets were able to sustain; another which all the Angeles saw, as the Cloud and consuming Fire: But the third is so bright and dazzling, that no Mortal is able to apprehend it; but it had its vantage to look upon it, his whole Frame would be dissolved." In such inconceivable Splendor is the Divine Majesty revealed to the Inhabitants of the celestial World, where he is said to be seen in Light which no Man is capable of seeing, Isa. lxxvi. 17. By the Face of God, therefore, we are to understand that Light ineffable, before which the Angels stand, but which would be insufferable to mortal Eyes, inasmuch that no Man could see this Face of God alive, for that is plainly the Meaning of the following Words.

For the brightness of the glory of the Son of GOD, which thou wouldst have shown to thee, is too bright for thee to see it and live. Accordingly we read, when the glory of Divine Glory, filled the Tabernacle, 2. he was not able to enter into it, Gen. xl. 35. i. e. he could not with safety go in. He could enter into it, 2. Gen. xl. 1, 2. Hence it is that St. Paul, who dwelt in the Son of GOD enjoying the brightness of heavenly Glory, was thereby struck blind, Acts xiii. 9. Compare Gen. xvi. 13, and Job. vi. 23. and xiii. 22.

21 And the Lord said, Behold, thou art a place
by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock.

There is a Place by me, probably meant of Mount Hope, where Magn. had long enjoyed the intercourse with GOD. From

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

2. The Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA) is the leading journal in the profession, but the fact remains that, for some time, JAMA has been lagging behind the BMJ. The Expedition is a step towards lowering JAMA's reputation and forcing it towards the Elements, yet it is a further loss of Honor and Authority to be attacked by a journal which is only able to 'Lure' and 'Lash' at you. Therefore, the Publication is severely rendered by the Journal of the American Medical Association and not getting the 500,000 circulation.

[illegible]

From what is said here, and in the foregoing Chapter, as being proclaimed by GOD himself who can only tell what Things belong unto him, we may form the truest Conception of the Nature or Attributes of GOD, particularly with Respect to Man, which is all that we have any Concern in. It appears then from what is said here, that GOD is a God of Love, or, to speak in the emphatical Language of the New Testament, GOD is LOVE. He here proclaims himself, MERCIFUL AND GRACIOUS, LONG-SUFFERING AND ABUNDANTLY IN GOODNESS.

If then we would form our Ideas of Him as He is, we must not think of him in any Manner that is inconsistent with these. And we must believe from our Hearts, as he is such a Being, as this, that whatsoever Evil happens to ourselves, or is in the World, is consistent with ABUNDANT GOODNESS in GOD, though we cannot discover how it may be so. But GOD proclaims himself here not only abundant in Goodness, but in TRUTH too. From whence arises an unshaken Assurance, which nothing can move, that all His Promises will be fulfilled however long delayed, however little Likelihood there may seem of it, and whatsoever Obstacles may oppose them. Has He said, and shall he not do it? Has He spoken, and shall it not come to pass? GOD'S TRUTH is the Rock on which the Faithful may always rest, tho' the Winds blow, and the Rains descend, the Tempest roars, and the Floods come and beat upon it. It affects them not, because they are built on a Rock which cannot be moved.

But though the Nature of GOD is here declared to be all Goodness, and perfect Integrity, Transgression, and Sin one of his Names or Attributes; yet it is declared that it is consistent with, and even a Part of this abundant Mercy, to punish the unrepentant Guilty. So that they think contrary to the Nature of GOD, and deceive themselves greatly, who think they may live in Sin, and without paying any Regard to GOD, because he is so merciful, good, and gracious in his Nature, that he will not punish poor weak Man. We may likewise from what is said here of the Nature of GOD, correct and improve our Thoughts concerning our State here: Thus we may learn, that tho' our Eyes cannot see GOD in this World, it ought in no Manner to make us think that he is not present in it; because we find from this Declaration of GOD himself, that our Nature is such at present, that we cannot see GOD and Love; and therefore he must needs

$\mathcal{L}(\mathbf{y}|\mathbf{X}) = \prod_{i=1}^n \mathcal{L}(y_i|\mathbf{X}_i)$  and  $\mathcal{L}(\mathbf{y}|\mathbf{X}) = \prod_{i=1}^n \mathcal{L}(y_i|\mathbf{X}_i)$

[illegible]

9 And be thou, O Lord, our strength and our victory fight, O Lord, for our Lord, I pray thee, send amongst us, for a multitude of thy people, O Lord, do our might, and our strength, and our victory, O Lord, which...

1. The first of these is the Principle of the Unity of the Universe. This principle states that the universe is a single, unified whole, and that all things are interconnected and interdependent. This principle is the foundation of the entire system of thought, and it is the key to understanding the nature of reality.

It is a common mistake to think that the only way to get a job is to have a degree. In fact, many employers are looking for people who can do the job, not just those who have a degree. If you are interested in a particular field, you should look for ways to gain experience, even if it means working for a lower wage. This will help you to learn the skills and knowledge that are needed for the work. Once you have gained some experience, you will be in a better position to negotiate a higher wage. Remember, the only way to get a job is to be the best person for the job.

Baruch Enon and Company It is called "Cultural Center" in GOD language to drive out the influence of the "Cultural Center" them, and engage them to a new world order, up to the "Cultural Center" with the "Nations in the new world."

For as it is written, Therefore shall I be a Father to the Fatherless, and a Merciful Father to the Widows, into all those who oppose my Design of settling you in the promised Land.

11 Observe thou that which I command thee this day: Behold, I drive out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Phiz-zite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

12 Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee.

13 But ye shall destroy their altar, break their images, and cut down their grove.

This explains Ch. xliii. 32. For that reason, O Lord, we have called thee God; i. e. with the hope of men, that we, who were initially set in Groves, and the Father of the Father, then God. Under the shade of their Groves, and their trees were wont to be commended, 1 Kg. xviii. 21. For that reason 14 For thou shalt worship no other gods: for thou art a jealous God, whose name is Jealous, a jealous God.

The Lord, our Father, Amen. See Note on p. 10.

17. Left thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and he call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice,

Left then make a Covenant with the blind men, &c. Lev. x. Particularly by Inter-marriage, which always proved a fertile source of Idolatry to the Jews. See 1 Kings xv. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832

Go a seeking after the Lord.] Why the Ministry of the Lichtbringer is called Lichtbringer, or go a seeking after God, is known. For ex. 5. on the Words, Go a seeking after God.

Deus, creator omnium. [It has been before observed, that S. Joseph was slain at the Altar, wherein the Church were celebrating the Sacrifice of the Lamb, to whom the Sacrifice was offered, in token of the redemption of Man. And therefore whoever offered S. Joseph's oblation to the Gods, professed him self the Slave of those Gods, who were worshipped by the Gods. Thus knew the Force of the Sacrifice, in denoting the Redemption.]

10. And thou take of their daughters unto thy house, and their daughters go a whoring after their fathers, and these thy sons go a whoring after their fathers.

17. I have built make thee no molten gods.

7. Prohibition of the use of force. [This Prohibition is here removed in view of their late Shikna whipping the molten Child.] (1888-89, p. 4).

18 ¶ The feast of unleavened bread thou shalt keep: Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee in the time of the month Abib: for in the month Abib thou camest out from Egypt.

Th. F. a. Canabrened Bread, etc.] See Notes on Ch. xii. 15.

10 All that open th the matrix : mine : and every minding among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is mine.

Adapt from the Matrix to an I See Notes on Ch. xiii, 12.

20 But the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb: and if thou redeem him not, then shalt thou break his neck. All the first-born of thy fow thou shalt redeem: and none shall appear before me empty.

The Filling of an Ash-pail thou redeem] See Notes on Ch. xiii. 13.
A. (none) shall appear before me empty.] See on Ch. xxiii. 15.

21 ¶ Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in earing-time and in harvest thou shalt rest.

[S. + Dora, Etc.] See Notes on Ch. xv. 8, 9, Etc.

*I. Sowing-time, and a Harvest-time rest.] In Sowing-time, i. e. in Ploughing-time, as the original Word signifies: For this Word to arari originally Saveri, and comes from the Latin orare. To it is how strictly they were to abstain from all servile Labour on their seventh Day, they are expressly enjoined to observe that K. . . in the two most busy Times of the Year, when they ploughed, and when they sowed their Ground.*

22 ¶ And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the first fruits of wheat-harveit, and the feast of in gathering at the years end.

Thou shalt once the Feat of Works, &c.] See Notes on Ch.
xlii. 16.

23 ¶ Thrice in the year shall all your men-children appear before the Lord God, the God of Israel.

Three in the Year, &c.] See Notes on Ch. xviii. 14, 17. These Laws are here repeated, together with those that follow, Gen. 25, 26, because they served to preserve them in the Worship of the true GOD, from whom they had lately departed, and because the Covenant was now renewed.

24 For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy borders : neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the Lord thy God, thrice in the year.

Number of Army Mar desire thy Land, &c.] To remove all Fear out of their Minds, GOD assures them that he would lay such Relations upon their Enemies, that they should not so much as think of invading them, or those their Castles: Which Effect he promises to bring about by the Means mentioned in this Verse, by enlarging the Nations before them, and enlarging their Borders: so that the Nations should dread to invade their Land, who were both so powerful in themselves, and so remarkably protected by Heaven.

27. Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven, neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left unto the morning.

Thou shalt not see the Blood, &c.] See Notes on Ch. xxiii. 18.

26 The first of the first-fruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

The Fr. fructs—though not set, etc. See for both these Ch. xxiii. 18, 19.

27 And the Lord said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel.

Write thou thy Words :) Here Moses is charged to keep a particular Register of these and such like Injunctions, as the Articles of Covenant between GOD and his Church.

28 And he was there with the LORD forty days, and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water: and he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

And he was there with the Lord forty Days, &c. 7 For a further Trial of the People's Patience and Obedience, Moses was now a second Time detained in the Mount, for forty Days and Night, together, without the least Use of Food, supported all the while by the Divine Power. See Deut. ix. 18.

And he saith, &c.] i. e. JEHOVAH, or the Angel representing JEHOVAH; not Moses, as appears from ver. 1. and Deut. x. 4.

29 ¶ And it came to pass when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in Moses hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone, while he talked with him.

The Skin of his Face shone,] Heb. Was horned, i. e. darted forth Horns or Rays of Light. Accordingly the Vulgate translates it horned, and this double Signification of the Word has given Occasion to the Ignorant to paint Moses's Face with two Horns shooting out of it. The Splendor of the Divine Majesty was so piercing, that it altered the very Skin of his Face, and made it luminous.

30 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come nigh him.

They were all Witnesses of the Glory of his Countenance, which demonstrated that he had been with GOD, and established the Authority of his Laws, 2 Cor. iii. 7.

They were afraid to come nigh him] Perhaps they took him for an Angel, or some of the heavenly Inhabitants.

31 And Moses called unto them ; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him : and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh: and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinai.

Viz. All the Orders that GOD had given him about the building of the Tabernacle, and the rest, contained in Ch. xxv. &c. to the xxxii. For at his first Descent from the Mount, finding them in an Apostacy from GOD, he said nothing to them about these Matters.

33 And till Moses had done speaking with them, he put a vail on his face.

To which the Apostle alludes, 2 Cor. iii. 13. where he speaks of the Plainness of the Gospel Dispensation in Comparison of the Law.

34 But when Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he took the vail off, until he came out.

out. And he came out and spake unto the children of Israel, that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shined: and Moses put the veil upon his face again until he went in to speak with him.

The Skin of Moses' Face shined.] How long this Brightness on Moses's Face remained we are not told; some have thought it continued all the Day of his Death. Perhaps only till he had consecrated Aaron and his Sons, and delivered all the Laws he had received about the Service of GOD.

C H A P. XXXV.

1 Moses, after repeating the commandment concerning the sabbath, 4 declares what things God had ordered to be offered for erecting the tabernacle: 20 And the people bringing in these things with great readiness, Moses causeth to the work Bezaleel and Aholiab as chief artificers, whom God had before named to him.

AND Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, These are the words which the LORD hath commanded that ye should do them.

2 Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you an holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD: whosoever doeth work therein, shall be put to death.

The great Importance of observing this Precept, appears to be the general Reason of its being so often inculcated. For the Observation of the weekly Sabbath was the Badge which distinguished from the Nations of Polytheism and Idolatry, those who loved the World to be the Work of the one eternal GOD, who is a spiritual and invisible Intelligence, and therefore not to be represented by Images. Besides, there is a particular Reason for its being repeated here, as it was to Moses at the End of all the Directions about building the Tabernacle, Ch. xxxi. 13. namely, that the People might not imagine the Work about the Tabernacle would license them to break the Sabbath.

3 Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath-day.

This is comprehended before under the general Prohibition, Thou shalt not do any Work, Ch. xx. 10. and Ch. xxxi. 15. Therefore the Meaning is, "Thou shalt not so much as kindle a Fire to dress your Meat, or for any servile Work." But to kindle a Fire in order to warm themselves in cold Weather, according to the Opinion of the Rabbins, was not forbidden. The Essenes, indeed, as Josephus tells us, were so strict, that they would not light a Fire on the Sabbath-day for any Consideration.

4 ¶ And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying,

As mentioned Ch. xxv. 2.

5 Take ye from amongst you an offering unto the LORD: Whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD; gold, and silver, and brass,

6 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats hair,

7 And rams skins dyed red, and badgers skins, and shittim-wood,

8 And oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil and for the sweet incense, 9 And onyx-stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the breast-plate.

Vers. 6, 7, 8, 9. See all these explained, Ch. xxv. 4, 5, &c.

10 And every wise-hearted among you, shall come and make all that the LORD hath commanded;

Wise-hearted, &c.] i. e. Skilful Artificers. The Heart is here used, according to vulgar Opinion, as the Seat of the Understanding. It was observed by the Jews, that the Spirit of God was by the Mosaicall Law.

11 The tabernacle, his tent, and his covering, his tables, and his boards, his lavers, his basins, and his sockets,

The Tabernacle, &c.] The inward Court, the outer Court, the Holy Tent, The Curtains of Great Tents, which were made of the cloth, Ch. xxvi. 7.

The Coverings.] Of Ram, Scur, or Badger skins, which were thrown over the other, Ch. xxvi. 14.

12 The ark and the staves thereof, with the mercy-seat, and the vail of the covering,

The Ark and the Staves, and the Mercy-seat.] See Ch. xxv. 10, 13, 17.

And the Vail of the Covering.] Which separated the holy from the most holy Place.

13 The table and his staves, and all his vessels, and the shew-bread,

The Table and the Staves, &c.] See on Ch. xxv. 23, 24, &c. And the Shew-Bread.] i. e. The Dish on which the Shew-Bread was set, for Moses had no Order to make the Bread itself. See Ch. xxv. 29.

14 The candlestick also for the light, and his furniture, and his lamps, with the oil for the light,

The Candlestick, &c.] See on Ch. xxv. 31, &c. With the Oil.] See on Ch. xxv. 20, 21.

15 And the incense-altar, and his lavers, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle,

The Incense-Altar, &c.] See on Ch. xxx. 1, 2, &c. And the anointing Oil.] Ch. xxx. 23, &c. And the sweet Incense.] Ch. xxx. 34. And the Hanging for the Door, Ch. xxvi. 36.

16 The altar of burnt-offering with his brasen-grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot,

The Altar of Burnt-Offering.] Ch. xxvii. 1, &c. The Laver and his Foot.] Ch. xxx. 18.

17 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and their sockets, and the hangings for the door of the court,

The Hangings of the Court.] Ch. xxvii. 7. Hangings for the Door of the Court.] Ch. xxvii. 16.

18 The pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords,

The Pins of the Tabernacle.] Ch. xxvii. 19.

19 The clothes of service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons to minister in the priests office.

Clothes of Service.] Described Ch. xxviii. 4, &c. Some, however, takes these Clothes of Service to have been Garments for covering the Vessels of the Tabernacle.

20 ¶ And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORD's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they came both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and and  $\mathcal{G}_0$  is a  $\mathbb{Z}$ -module, and  $\mathcal{G}_1$  is a  $\mathbb{Z}$ -module, all of which are  $\mathbb{Z}$ -submodules of  $\mathcal{G}$ . We have  $\mathcal{G}_0 \cap \mathcal{G}_1 = \{0\}$ , and  $\mathcal{G} = \mathcal{G}_0 \oplus \mathcal{G}_1$ . We have  $\mathcal{G}_0 \cong \mathbb{Z}^n$  and  $\mathcal{G}_1 \cong \mathbb{Z}^m$  for some  $n, m \in \mathbb{N}$ .

But the simple fact is that the Journal is not a first-class journal. It is not worth the price. It is not better than Science, Nature, or Biological Abstracts, with which it competes.

[illegible]

23. And very many with whom was found blue, orange, red, and gamboge, and fine blue, and green / and red flowers of rums, and budger's flues, blue, yellow, &c.

The worth of the lower Sort of People. See the Account of the Negroes, &c. &c.

and I very soon that can offer an offering of silver and gold, iron, brass, tin, copper, silver, and every thing else which is valued, such as the timber wood for any work, or for burning, I brought it.

The following information was obtained from the above sources:
 (1) The above information was obtained from the above sources.

And all the women that were with heard, and said, "The rocks are brought that which the angels of the air, and of people, and of beasts, and of the earth."

And yet, as his whole heart turned them out, he would turn, upon purpose, / 17 stones to be set, for the epoch, and for the breast-plate:

The great Men offered suitably to their Quality, precious Stones, and in things as the People could not furnish, for the U.S. mentioned. . . . xxv. 7. xxviii. 9.

25 And spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

17. The children of Israel brought it a warning, on coming to the Camp, every man and woman, whose heart had been willing, to bring for all manner of work, which the Lord had commanded to be made, the command of Moses.

the Chrysomelidae of the Chrysomelinae, an Oribion which is not found in the Chrysomelidae of the Chrysomelinae.

And the Lord said unto the children of Israel, Behold, I have called by name Bezalel the joy of God, the joy of Mary, of the tribe of Judah:

U.S. Patent 2,717,717, July 1955, made available to the Government, U.S. Acad. Sci. 2, 1955.

And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, wisdom, an understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;

Philosophy of Science, 1970, 37, 193-200. Pp. 170. [50s.] See AB, 1971, 1, 145. I have written in World and Crucius, 1971, in connection with the Center of Nature, etc. to speak properly, the Center of GOD, the Author of Nature.

And to different countries, to work in gold,
And in the city, and in lanes,

4. Chlorophyll a and Chlorophyll b (mg/g).

and I am not likely to let them, and I am not likely to make any manner of cunning work.

Life of John Jay, by J. A. Cox. 5.
Life of John Jay, by J. A. Cox. 5. See ib.

33:2 And he hath put in his heart that he will reach, for he said, Abraham the son of Abimelech of the tribe of Dan.

10; Then hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, &c. of them that do any work, and of those that devise cunning work.

George H. Allen, 1 Rich. Hg. St., an Embroiderer who wears French dress, is a clown.

1891. Leuc. cal. Hb. R. 500, an Leucobrya in N. C. 1891.

C H A R. BARNES

1. The appearance of the ... .. being ... ..
... ..
... ..
... ..

Then he brought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whom the Lord put wisdom, to know how to work in gold, silver, and brass, for the service of the sanctuary, according to what the Lord had commanded.

The following is a list of all the names of our fund-raiser other than the names of the donors. The names of the donors are listed in the Workbooks. They were added to the list of names to connect it with the many-faceted efforts of the future Lord, (Brazier, et al., et al., et al., et al., et al., &c.) in Jesus's Land. The names of the donors will be removed, even from the Partners' names, from the original.

2 And Moſe called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wiſe-hearted man, in whoſe heart the Lord had put wiſdom, ~~and~~ every one whoſe heart ſtirred him up to come unto the work to do it.

He probably gave them Direction in Writing, but nothing were to be done.

3 And then received of Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought, for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it substantiated. And they brought yet unto him free-offerings every morning.

The Hearts of the People were so enlarged, that every Day they brought new Contributions. Thus it is no new Thing to see People exceeding zealous in the Observance of outward Ordinances of Service, while they neglect the weightier Duties of Religion and Morality, as the Israhelites had done lately, Ex. xxxiv.

4 And all the wise men that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made.

5 ¶ And they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the Lord commanded to make.

This shews them to have been Men of Integrity, as well as Skill in their Employments. So far were they from being inclined to purloin any Thing for their own Use, that when they found the Offerings insufficient, they came with one Consent to see that a Stop should be put to farther Contributions.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8 ¶ And every wife-hearted man, among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle, made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work made he them.

9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size.

10 And he coupled the five curtains one unto another: and the other five curtains he coupled one unto another.

11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain, from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

12 Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches. So it became one tabernacle.

They began with the Tabernacle, as the Place wherein the Symbol of the Divine Presence was to reside, and the Service of GOD to be performed, making first the inner Covering for it. Every Thing mentioned in these Verses is explained Ch. xxvi.

14 ¶ And he made curtains of goats hair, for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

That is, for the second Covering, here called the Tent of the Tabernacle, because the Tabernacle was inclosed by it, like a Tent within a Tent. See Ch. xxvi. 7. and xxxv. 11.

15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain, which coupleth the second.

18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 And he made a covering for the tent, of rams skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers skins above that.

This is meant of the third and fourth Coverings, which were of strong Skins, as being the outer Coverings, to secure the Tabernacle from the Injuries of the Weather. See Ch. xxvi. 14.

Of Badgers Skins,] Rather, Rams Skins of a purple Colour.

20 ¶ And he made boards for the tabernacle, of shittim-wood, standing up.

They next proceeded to the Body of the Tabernacle, consisting of wooden Planks, all exactly according to the Dimensions, and fixed in the Manner described Ch. xxvi. 15—25.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One board had two tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south-side, southward.

24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards: two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle which is toward the north-corner, he made twenty boards,

26 And their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward, he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

29 And they were coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.

30 And there were eight boards, and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.

31 ¶ And he made bars of shittim-wood, five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

The Boards were strengthened with wooden Posts or Bars, all overlaid with Gold, and placed in the Manner described and explained Ch. xxvi. 26—30.

32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 ¶ And he made a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubim made he it of cunning work.

Having finished the outward Capt., they were now to make that was to part the most holy Place, where the Ark was to be, from the holy or ordinary Place of Worship. The Particulars whereof see in Ch. xxvi. 31, 32, 33.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold, and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 ¶ And he made an hanging for the tabernacle-door, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of needle-work,

And he made a Hanging, &c.] For the outer Door of Entrance, with its Pillars to lean against, its Hooks, Sockets, &c. as before described, Ch. xxvi. 36, 37.

38 And the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their chapiters, and their fillets with gold: but their five sockets were of brass.

C H A P. XXXVII.

1 The construction of the ark. 6 Of the mercy-seat. 10 Of the table with its vessels. 17 Of the candlestick with its lamps. 25 Of the altar of incense. 29 Of the anointing oil, and sweet incense.

AND Bezaleel made the ark of shittim-wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it.

The House of GOD being thus finished, the Master-Workman gave his Directions for the Furniture of it; ordering every Thing exactly according to the Model given to Moses on the Mount. The principal Part of this was the Ark, the great Symbol of the Divine Presence and Protection, to be placed in the most sacred Apartment of the House. See the Particulars explained Ch. xiv. 10—16.

2 And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by the four corners of it: even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it.

4 And he made staves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold.

25

3 C

5 And

5 And he put the flocks into the rings, by the flocks of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 ¶ And he made the mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and an half was the length thereof, and one cubit and an half the breadth thereof.

That is, the golden Cover of the Ark, with the two Cherubims on it, called the Mohar. Of which, see ch. xxv. 17—22.

7 And he made two cherubims of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy-seat :

8. One cherub on the end on this side, and another cherub on the other end on that side : out of the mercy hat made be the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

9 And the cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy-seat, with their faces one to another; even to the mercy-seat-ward were the faces of the cherubims.

10 ¶ And he made the table of shittim-wood: two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

This was the Table, on which was to be continually placed the paschal-lamb, or Bread of the Divine Presence, made with all its Appurtenances, in the costly Manner described Cb. xxv. 23—30.

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about.

12 Also he made thereunto a border of an hand-breadth, round about: and made a crown of gold for the border thereof round about.

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.

14 Over against the border were the rings, the places for the staves, to bear the table.

15 And he made the staves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table.

10 And he made the vessels which were upon the table, his dishes, and his spoons, and his bowls, and his covers to cover withal, of pure gold.

Covers to cover aural. U, tips to pour out aural. See Ch.
XXV. 20.

17. ¶ And he made the candlestick of pure gold : of beaten work made he the candlestick, his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, his knobs, and his flowers were of the same.

18 And six branches going out of the sides thereof: three branches of the candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof.

19 Three bowls made after the fashion of almonds, in one branch, a knop and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds, in another branch, a knop and a flower: so throughout the six branches, going out of the candlestick.

20 And in the candlestick were four bowls, made like almonds, his kneps and his flowers.

21 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made his seven lamps, and his snuff-fer, and his snuff-dishes, of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof.

For a Description of the Candlestick, &c. See ib. xxv. 31—40

25 ¶ And he made the incense-altar of shittim-wood: the length of it a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit, in the four-square, and two cubits was the height of it; the horns thereof were of the same:

This was the lesser Altar, called the Incensetorium, the Table of Incense, and the Table of Gold; whereof see Ex. xxx. 1—10.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a crown of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it, under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the leaves to bear it withal.

28 And he made the flaves of bitumen-wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 ¶ And he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

This was the Infusion for the holy Oil of Consecration, and beaten Spices for the Incense to be offered upon the little Altar before-mentioned. O. which see in XXX. 22—58.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 The making of it, value of L. 1000, 800, 600, 400, 200, 100, 50, 25, 12, 6, 3, 1, 1/2, 1/4, 1/8, 1/16, 1/32, 1/64, 1/128, 1/256, 1/512, 1/1024, 1/2048, 1/4096, 1/8192, 1/16384, 1/32768, 1/65536, 1/131072, 1/262144, 1/524288, 1/1048576, 1/2097152, 1/4194304, 1/8388608, 1/16777216, 1/33554432, 1/67108864, 1/134217728, 1/268435456, 1/536870912, 1/1073741824, 1/2147483648, 1/4294967296, 1/8589934592, 1/17179869184, 1/34359738368, 1/68719476736, 1/137438953472, 1/274877906944, 1/549755813888, 1/1099511627776, 1/2199023255552, 1/4398046511104, 1/8796093022208, 1/17592186044416, 1/35184372088832, 1/70368744177664, 1/140737488355328, 1/281474976710656, 1/562949953421312, 1/1125899906842624, 1/2251799813685248, 1/4503599627370496, 1/9007199254740992, 1/18014398509481984, 1/36028797018963968, 1/72057594037927936, 1/144115188075855872, 1/288230376151711744, 1/576460752303423488, 1/1152921504606846976, 1/2305843009213693952, 1/4611686018427387904, 1/9223372036854775808, 1/18446744073709551616, 1/36893488147419103232, 1/73786976294838206464, 1/147573952589676412928, 1/295147905179352825856, 1/590295810358705651712, 1/1180591620717411303424, 1/2361183241434822606848, 1/4722366482869645213696, 1/9444732965739290427392, 1/18889465931478580854784, 1/37778931862957161709568, 1/75557863725914323419136, 1/151115727451828646838272, 1/302231454903657293676544, 1/604462909807314587353088, 1/1208925819614629174706176, 1/2417851639229258349412352, 1/4835703278458516698824704, 1/9671406556917033397649408, 1/19342813113834066795298816, 1/38685626227668133590597632, 1/77371252455336267181195264, 1/154742504910672534362390528, 1/309485009821345068724781056, 1/618970019642690137449562112, 1/1237940039285380274899124224, 1/2475880078570760549798248448, 1/4951760157141521099596496896, 1/9903520314283042199192993792, 1/19807040628566084398385987584, 1/39614081257132168796771975168, 1/79228162514264337593543950336, 1/158456325028528675187087900672, 1/316912650057057350374175801344, 1/633825300114114700748351602688, 1/1267650600228229401496703205376, 1/2535301200456458802993406410752, 1/5070602400912917605986812821504, 1/10141204801825835211973625643008, 1/20282409603651670423947251286016, 1/40564819207303340847894502572032, 1/81129638414606681695789005144064, 1/162259276829213363391578010288128, 1/324518553658426726783156020576256, 1/649037107316853453566312041152512, 1/1298074214633706907132624082305024, 1/2596148429267413814265248164610048, 1/5192296858534827628530496329220096, 1/10384593717069655257060992658440192, 1/20769187434139310514121985316880384, 1/41538374868278621028243970633760768, 1/83076749736557242056487941267521536, 1/166153499473114484112975882535043072, 1/332306998946228968225951765070086144, 1/664613997892457936451903530140172288, 1/1329227995784915872903807060280344576, 1/2658455991569831745807614120560689152, 1/5316911983139663491615228241121378304, 1/10633823966279326983230456482242756608, 1/21267647932558653966460912964485513216, 1/42535295865117307932921825928971026432, 1/85070591730234615865843651857942052864, 1/170141183460469231731687303715884105728, 1/340282366920938463463374607431768211456, 1/680564733841876926926749214863536422912, 1/1361129467683753853853498429727072845824, 1/2722258935367507707706996859454145691648, 1/5444517870735015415413993718908291383296, 1/10889035741470030830827987437816582766592, 1/21778071482940061661655974875633165533184, 1/43556142965880123323311949751266331066368, 1/87112285931760246646623899502532662132736, 1/174224571863520493293247799005065324265472, 1/348449143727040986586495598010130648530944, 1/696898287454081973172991196020261297061888, 1/1393796574908163946345982392040522594123776, 1/2787593149816327892691964784081045188247552, 1/5575186299632655785383929568162090376495104, 1/11150372599265311570767859136324180752990208, 1/22300745198530623141535718272648361505980416, 1/44601490397061246283071436545296723011960832, 1/89202980794122492566142873090593446023921664, 1/178405961588244985132285746181186892047843328, 1/356811923176489970264571492362373784095686656, 1/7136238463529799405291429847247475681913733

AND he made the altar of burnt-offering of acacia-wood: five cubits the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof: it was four square, and three cubits the height thereof.

Having finished the Furniture of the House itself, Beulah, and those who worked under him, proceeded next to that of the Court of the Tabernacle, where the Sacrifices and Services were commonly performed; wherein first they made the great brazen Altar for burnt Sacrifices, with all its Appurtenances, in Mode and Form exactly agreeable to the Orders given about it in ch. xxv. 1, 2, 3, &c.

2 And he made the horns thereof on the four corners of it: the horns thereof were of the same, and he overlaid it with brass.

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basons, and the flesh-hooks, and the fire-pans: all the vessels thereof made he of brass.

4 And he made for the altar a brazen grate of net-work, under the compass thereof, beneath unto the midst of it.

5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of bras, to be places for the slaves.

6 And he made the flaves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with brafs.

7 And he put the flaves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal; he made the altar hollow with boards.

8 ¶ And he made the laver of brass, and the foot of it, of brass, of the looking-glasses of the women assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

And he made the Laver of Brass,] viz. The brass Font or Laver for the Priests to wash in before Service. See ch. xxx. 18.

of the Looking-glasses of the Romans, &c.] Which were antiently of polished Brass, before the Invention of Glass. Pliny says, those of Brass and Tin mixed together were esteemed the best, before those of Silver came to be in Use.

Of the Women assembling, and assembled at the Door of the Tabernacle of the Congregation,] It was the Custom of the Eastern Women to carry a Looking-Glass along with them when they went to the Temples and Places of public Worship. This Custom seems to have been followed by the Levitical Women, when they assembled at the Door of the Tabernacle, &c. at the Door of Moses's Tent, which served for the Place of public Worship till the sacred Tabernacle was erected, &c. &c. &c. The Use of these Claffes seems to have been too difficult to obtain in 1155, in order to appear with those Debenham and Northampton.

Great upon Lake in 22. observes, that not only the Levites, but the rest of the Israelites, both Men and Women, were remarkable by Companies in the Temple at that Time, both by Day and Night, in order to employ themselves in Prayer and Praises; which Companies were called by the ancient Term zela, the Word here used, and is now in 22. what one might call religious Wars, because they assembled in a Troop, and reheved each other by Turn, like Soldiers, apparently to keep Guard. To this Custom he thinks the Passage before us refers, as having taken Place in the earliest Time of the Jewish Commonwealth, even before the sacred Tabernacle was erected, and when the Tent of Meeting supplied the Place thereof. Hence the LXX render it, the Women who fasted, and the Chaldee, they prayed. Perhaps it might be rendered simply, Of the Women as being in Troops, with arms, troop up to the Door of the Tabernacle, viz. to prevent their Offring; for it is probable that it was an Offering made by the Women in general.

And he made the court : on the south-side thward, the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, an hundred cubits.

The inner Utensils of the Court thus completed, they set about the Cover itself, being a large oblong Square, fenced in with thick well wrought Hogging; the Size, Dimensions, and Workmanship of each Side whereof have been described in Pl. xxvii c.—19.

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brazen sockets twenty: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets were of silver.

11 And for the north-side, the langings were an hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.

12 And for the west-side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.

13 And for the east-side eastward fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And for the other side of the court-gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 All the hangings of the court round about, were of fine twined linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets of silver; and the overlaying of their chapiters of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.

18 And the hanging for the gate of the court was needle-work, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court.

And the Height in the Breadth] An Hebrew Idiom, signifying the Height of the Hanging; its Breadth, when it lay along, being its Height when hung up.

19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four, their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapiters, and their fillets, of silver.

20 And all the pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass.

21 ¶ This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest.

This is the Sum of the Tabernacle, &c.] i. e. This is the Charge of the foregoing Work of the Tabernacle, under the Direction of the two chief Workmen. The Particulars of which Charge Moses ordered Ithamar, a Levite, one of Aaron's Family, to cast up.

[illegible]

12 And Balaam the son of Beor, of the tribe of Midian, was hired of the King of Moab, to curse the Children of Israel.

24 And with him is Ahobab, son of Ahimelech, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and in fine linen.

25. All the gold that was occupied for the work, in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

Twenty and nine Tola's, and one hundred and one Shuk's.]
Which Sum of Gold, at the Rate of 1000 to a Pound of Gold, and 35 Shillings to a Shuk of Gold, amounts to a Pound to have amounted to upward of 150 Thousand Rupees.

25 And the filter of them that were gathered of the congregation, was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

And the Silver of them that gave willingly, [263] There were three hundred and three thousand five hundred and thirty nine, which were offered each of them half a Shekel, and the rest were of the women, they make three hundred and one thousand, five hundred and seventy five Shekel, which amounts to 352,7 Pound English.

20. A bikkah for every man, that is a bikkah, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every man that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three hundred and fifty thousand and five hundred and fifty men.

Six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred fifty Men.] In Exod. xii. 37. they are said to have been about six hundred thousand Men, besides Children. Now this may appear a very great Increase, yet Rosin and other Authors do not have shown, that in two hundred and fifteen Years (for so many had elapsed since the Descent into Egypt; there might have sprung from seventy Persons, (the Number of Isaacs that went down into Egypt;) in a natural Way, no less than two Millions, nine hundred and fifty-two Thousand, four hundred and fifty young Men. This numbering of the People is different from that which is mentioned Num. i. 46. there was a Year's Interval between them, and yet, what is very remarkable, the Numbers in both are precisely the same. They were also numbered a third Time in the Plains of Moz, in order to have the Land of Canaan equally divided among them. See Num. xxvi. 1, 53.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the vail; an hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels, he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapiters, and filleted them.

And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five Shetels, he made, [5.] The Remainder, which was 1775 Shetels, (500. 250) was laid out upon Hooks, the Overlayings of the Chapters, and Fillets about the Pillars.

29 And the bras of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

And the Brai of the Offering, &c.] The Brafs spent about the great Altar, Tabernacle, Laver, &c. came to seventy Talent, and almost three Quarters.

30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brazen altar, and the brazen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar,

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court-gate, and all the pins or of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

C H A P. XXXIX.

1 The clothes of service and holy garments made. 32 Every Thing being finished, the artificers bring out to Moses, and his approach of the work.

AND of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made clothes of service, to do service in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; as the LORD commanded Moses.

They made Clothes of Service, &c.] The Tabernacle and its Court being now fitted for Divine Service, the next Thing to be wrought was, the Rites for the High-Priest and Priests, to put on when they did Service in the holy Place; and accordingly they began with the Ephod, which they made of the finest variegated Thread and Yarn, interwoven with Gold Wire, and then set the precious Stones in it, punctually observing the Measures before prescribed, Ch. xxviii. 1—14.

2 And he made the ephod, of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires; to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with cunning work.

They did beat the Gold into thin Plates, and cut it into Wires.] They had not then the Art which we have now, of drawing a Piece of Gold into Threads of what Length we please; but they beat it first into thin Plates, and then cut off small Wires, which they wove with the other Materials here mentioned.

4 They made shoulder-pieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the curious girdle of his ephod that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And the curious Girdle.] Rather, And the Texture of the Back-side of the Ephod. See on Ch. xxviii. 8.

6 ¶ And they wrought onyx-stones inclosed in ouches of gold, graven as signets are graven, with the names of the children of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones for a memorial to the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

8 ¶ And he made the breast-plate of cunning-work, like the work of the ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

The next Piece in order was the Breast-plate, with its four Rows of Jewels, and its Chains, Rings, and Laces, to tie it inseparably to the Ephod: all which was done according to the Model given Ch. xxviii. 15—29. It is observed that nothing is here said of the Urim and Thummim, which is thought an Argument that they were not distinct Things from the precious Stones in the Breast-plate.

9 It was four-square, they made the breast-plate double: a span was the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof, being doubled.

10 And they set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in their inclosings.

14 And the stones were according to the name of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breast-plate chains, at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings: and put the two rings in the two ends of the breast-plate.

17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breast-plate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breast-plate upon the border of it, which was on the side of the ephod inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

21 And they did bind the breast-plate by his rings unto the rings of the ephod, with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breast-plate might not be loosed from the ephod; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.

As appointed Ch. xxviii. 31—36.

23 And there was a hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of an habergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not rent.

24 And they made upon the hems of the robe, pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen.

25 And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates, upon the hem of the robe, round about between the pomegranates.

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moses.

27 ¶ And they made coats of fine linen, of woven work, for Aaron and for his sons,

Of each whereof see Ch. xxviii. 40, &c.

28 And a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine twined linen, 29 And a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needle-work; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 ¶ And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

They finished all with the High-Priest's Plate, or Crown, to be worn upon his Forehead, with the Inscription on it, as prescribed Ch. xxviii. 36.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the mitre; as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 ¶ Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

33 ¶ And

33 ¶ And they brought the tabernacle unto Moſes, the tent, and all his furniture, his taches, his boards, his bars, and his pillars, and his sockets, Having finiſhed every Thing belonging to the Houſe of GOD, according to Moſes's Direction, all were feverally preſented to him for his Approbation.

34 And the covering of rams ſkins dyed red, and the covering of badgers ſkin, and the vail of the covering,

See Ch. xxvii. 14. and 36.

35 The ark of the testimony, and the flaves thereof, and the mercy-ſeat,

36 The table, and all the veſſels thereof, and the ſhew-bread,

37 The pure candleſtick, with the lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be ſet in order, and all the veſſels thereof, and the oil for light,

See on Ch. xxv. 31.

38 And the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the ſweet incenſe, and the hanging for the tabernacle door,

39 The brazen altar, and his grate of braſs, his flaves, and all his veſſels, the laver, and his foot,

40 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and his ſockets, and the hanging for the court gates, his cords, and his pins, and all the veſſels of the ſervice of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation, 41 The clothes of ſervice to do ſervice in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the prieſt, and his ſons garments to miniſter in the prieſts office.

42 According to all that the LORD commanded Moſes, ſo the children of Iſrael made all the work.

43 And Moſes did look upon all the work, and behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even ſo had they done it: and Moſes bleſſed them.

Moſes, having thoroughly and carefully examined them, found every Thing to answer the Pattern given him from GOD; and gave to the Workmen that wrought them, and to the whole Congregation that contributed the Materials, his Commendations, Bleſſing, and Prayers. Some refer this Bleſſing to the Work itſelf, which Moſes viewed with Praise and Approbation.

C H A P. XL.

1 The Lord commandeth Moſes to ſet up the tabernacle, 9 ſet it to ancient it with all its furniture. 13 To put the holy garments upon, and anoint Aaron and his ſons. 16 All which things are done by Moſes accordingly. 34 God giveth a ſign of his preſence, by a glory which filleth the tabernacle.

AND the LORD ſpoke unto Moſes, ſaying,
2 On the firſt day of the firſt month ſhalt thou ſet up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation:

On the firſt Day of the firſt Month, &c.] i. e. Of the ſecond Year after the Coming out of Egypt, as Gen. 17. Thus about a Year after that great Deliverance, every Thing relating to the Tabernacle being fitted for Divine Service, GOD orders Moſes to begin to ſet up the Tabernacle in its appointed Place, with the Ark in the moſt holy Place, parted by its Vail; and then to place the Table, Incenſe-altar, and Candleſtick, within the ſecond Apartment, called the Holy-place; ail to be incloſed in the great open Court, wherein the great brazen Altar and Laver were to ſtand; according to the Directions particularly given, Ch. xxv. xxvii. and xxx.

3 And thou ſhalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the vail.

2 Thou ſhalt ſet up the tabernacle i. e. Thou ſhalt erect the principal ſeat of worſhiping the LORD, ſo that thou ſhalt be able to ſet up among them, and thou ſhalt be able to ſet up among them. 3 And thou ſhalt put therein the ark of the testimony i. e. Thou ſhalt put therein the ark of the testimony, which ſhall be the ſeat of the LORD, and thou ſhalt be able to ſet up among them, and thou ſhalt be able to ſet up among them. 4 And thou ſhalt cover the ark with the vail i. e. Thou ſhalt cover the ark with the vail, which ſhall be the ſeat of the LORD, and thou ſhalt be able to ſet up among them, and thou ſhalt be able to ſet up among them.

5 And thou ſhalt ſet up the table of ſhew-bread, and thou ſhalt ſet up the candleſtick, and thou ſhalt ſet up the golden altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the brazen altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the laver, and thou ſhalt ſet up the foot, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hangings of the court, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pillars, and thou ſhalt ſet up the ſockets, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hanging for the court gates, and thou ſhalt ſet up the cords, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pins, and thou ſhalt ſet up the veſſels of the ſervice of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation.

See on Ch. xxv. 31.

6 And thou ſhalt ſet up the golden altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the brazen altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the laver, and thou ſhalt ſet up the foot, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hangings of the court, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pillars, and thou ſhalt ſet up the ſockets, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hanging for the court gates, and thou ſhalt ſet up the cords, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pins, and thou ſhalt ſet up the veſſels of the ſervice of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation.

7 And thou ſhalt ſet up the golden altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the brazen altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the laver, and thou ſhalt ſet up the foot, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hangings of the court, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pillars, and thou ſhalt ſet up the ſockets, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hanging for the court gates, and thou ſhalt ſet up the cords, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pins, and thou ſhalt ſet up the veſſels of the ſervice of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation.

8 And thou ſhalt ſet up the golden altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the brazen altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the laver, and thou ſhalt ſet up the foot, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hangings of the court, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pillars, and thou ſhalt ſet up the ſockets, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hanging for the court gates, and thou ſhalt ſet up the cords, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pins, and thou ſhalt ſet up the veſſels of the ſervice of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation.

9 And thou ſhalt ſet up the golden altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the brazen altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the laver, and thou ſhalt ſet up the foot, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hangings of the court, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pillars, and thou ſhalt ſet up the ſockets, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hanging for the court gates, and thou ſhalt ſet up the cords, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pins, and thou ſhalt ſet up the veſſels of the ſervice of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation.

Every Thing here diſpoſed in proper Places, Moſes conſecrated them all, by anointing them with the anointing oil, which was the ſame oil that was uſed in the anointing of the Aaronites, Ch. xxv. 35—36, not counting the oil that was uſed in the anointing of the Aaronites.

10 And thou ſhalt ſet up the golden altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the brazen altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the laver, and thou ſhalt ſet up the foot, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hangings of the court, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pillars, and thou ſhalt ſet up the ſockets, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hanging for the court gates, and thou ſhalt ſet up the cords, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pins, and thou ſhalt ſet up the veſſels of the ſervice of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation.

11 And thou ſhalt ſet up the golden altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the brazen altar, and thou ſhalt ſet up the laver, and thou ſhalt ſet up the foot, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hangings of the court, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pillars, and thou ſhalt ſet up the ſockets, and thou ſhalt ſet up the hanging for the court gates, and thou ſhalt ſet up the cords, and thou ſhalt ſet up the pins, and thou ſhalt ſet up the veſſels of the ſervice of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation.

12 And thou ſhalt bring the golden altar, and thou ſhalt bring the brazen altar, and thou ſhalt bring the laver, and thou ſhalt bring the foot, and thou ſhalt bring the hangings of the court, and thou ſhalt bring the pillars, and thou ſhalt bring the ſockets, and thou ſhalt bring the hanging for the court gates, and thou ſhalt bring the cords, and thou ſhalt bring the pins, and thou ſhalt bring the veſſels of the ſervice of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation.

The fore-mentioned Things being ſet up, Moſes conſecrated the Places for divine Service, by anointing them with the anointing oil, which was the ſame oil that was uſed in the anointing of the Aaronites, Ch. xxv. 35—36, not counting the oil that was uſed in the anointing of the Aaronites.

13 And thou ſhalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and ſanctify him, that he may miniſter unto me in the prieſts office.

14 And thou ſhalt bring his ſons, and clothe them with coats:

Then he was to conſecrate Moſes's Sons to the ſervice of the Priſthood, by cloathing them in their proper Habits, and anointing them with the ſame Oil.

15 And thou ſhalt anoint them, as thou didſt anoint their father, that they may miniſter unto me in the prieſts office: for their anointing ſhall be to them an everlaſting prieſthood, throughout their generations.

This anointing will reach to an everlaſting prieſthood i. e. It ſhall not only conſtitute them to the Priſthood, ſo that they ſhall be able to ſet up among them, and thou ſhalt be able to ſet up among them. 16 Thus did Moſes according to all that the LORD commanded him, ſo did he i. e. Thus did Moſes according to all that the LORD commanded him, ſo did he. 17 And it came to paſs, in the firſt month, in the ſecond year, on the firſt day of the month, that the tabernacle was reared up i. e. And it came to paſs, in the firſt month, in the ſecond year, on the firſt day of the month, that the tabernacle was reared up.

25

3 D

18 And

spoken of, though 400 Years had passed, in the Time it was given, and a great Variety of Changes, Accidents, and Conditions had intervened, where the Law and Covenant of GOD's Promises was effectually broken, that they were, however, long delayed, and what GOD made in the Way, surely came to pass. But this is not the principal Thing, that concerns our Intention in the Book of Exodus, but a further and more particular Manifestation of the Goodness to Mankind, which had your Honour desired. In the Book of Genesis we find him not only making Light, and giving it to Man, and finally by a Voice, and without any Mediation, saying, it was thus, and so, thus, and thus, Rejoice, O my People. But in the Book of Exodus we see, when mankind is brought to a weak Nation, in the midst of a bright and glorious Light, and the Majesty of the Goodness, in Glory and Splendour, as it were, to mortal Eyes to gaze on, and declaring to them, that they would hearken to all his Words, to do them, that they would become then King, and dwell amongst them. In order whereunto he appointed a Tent or Tabernacle to be made for the Habitation of his Glory, that he might give them a Tent, as Evidence of his being amongst them, in all Things. And not only this, but what still declares our higher Anticipation, GOD was pleased to ordain an Exodus, to lead them out of Egypt, and to make an Agreement for their Sins, that they might not die for their Transgression. This very extraordinary Circumstance ought to be considered as a new Revelation of GOD to Man, for nothing like it is before recorded in the Scripture.

And in all this, we cannot with any Reasoning, imagine that GOD had Regard to the Letter only; but rather, that he directed thereby to a Moral, which was his Purpose, even that he would engage to Man to be obedient to his Glory, to have a more perfect Vision, and more acquaintance with the Place of his Habitation, to see the Holy Spirit, and that he would have him become then King, and therefore, as it is, that Man would return to his original State, to hearken to all his Words, to do the Will of GOD, to walk in his Way, and to keep his Commandment. That he would engage to Man, to do Exodus, that they might abide in him, and live. See Deut. xix. 16, 17.

Upon the whole, can we who have received GOD's Promise, Once to Mankind in and through Christ, whereby Life and Liberty is brought to Light, and to reign as joint Heirs with Christ the Son of GOD in the Kingdom of Heaven, is promised to Man, if he will but hearken to his Words to do thereafter; whereby Life and Death is again set before us? Can we imagine that GOD did not intend in all the Manifestations that he made of himself to the Israelites, and in all that he ordered or did unto them, to prefigure the Restoration of Mankind to his Love and Favour, and to Life and Glory. So that when the Fulfillment of Time was come, that this was to be fully revealed and brought to Light, it might be seen that it was indeed the express Purpose of GOD from the beginning; and that all his Dispensations had been opening by Degrees to bring on this full and perfect Day. So that, when the true Light arose, it might be known by the Rays which it had shed before; and the most perfect Dispensation might be contemplated and adulated by the Shadows and Figures of it which had been given in past Ages.

From GOD's appointing a Tabernacle to be made for him amongst the Israelites, we may rationally conclude, and lay upon it as a Declaration, that he has not forsaken the Covenant of Mercy, or is full (as it is not with) people amongst them, that he has a Communion with them, and yet is enough unto them that dwell upon him. But in a more particular Manner, we may look upon it as a Type of that wonderful Event of the blessed Son of GOD, who was made Flesh, and dwelt amongst us, and we saw his Glory,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

and we saw his Charity,

and we saw his Power,

and we saw his Wisdom,

and we saw his Knowledge,

and we saw his Understanding,

and we saw his Love,

and we saw his Mercy,

and we saw his Grace,

and we saw his Truth,

and we saw his Faith,

and we saw his Hope,

It is his Offering be a Burnt-offering] Which was wholly given to GOD, and consumed upon his Altar, and that the Priests and Offerer had any Share of it, 1. Lev. vii. 9. and 2. Ex. 29. of the Chapter. It is the principal Sacrifice, and the first mentioned here, being that which speaks of Good-will of the Offerer, and his Argument of Heart, 2. Chron. xix. 11. and best prepared for pure and unperverted Devotion of the Worshipper to GOD, then dedicating themselves wholly to his Service, Rom. xii. 1. The Legs, as well as the Inwards, were therefore to beward and offered all together upon the Altar, to show that both the outward and inward Man, the external Reason of the Body, and the internal Devotion of the Mind, are to be wholly consecrated to that Sacrifice which is acceptable to GOD.

L. chomopis a Male.] There were a couple of eggs, and therefore appointed to be offered in whole burnt offering.

Wash at Blemishes.] The Sacrifices were to be free from any natural Blemishes, in Token of that Purity and unblemished Sincerity, which ought to accompany all our Religious Services.

He shall offer it of Love, as in the W. H. M.] This is already proposed in 20. 2. and therefore it ought undoubtedly to be rendered, for Goodness, or Acceptance, i. e. that he may gain Acceptance with God; in which Sense the same Word occurs Ps. lxxviii. 78. Ps. lvi. 7. lx. 7. and is understood here by the LXX, and most other Versions.

At the Door of the Tabernacle] Where the Altar of Burnt-offering was placed, Exod. xl. 6, 29. Here it is required to be offered, and no where else, upon Pain of being cut off from GOD'S People, Ch. xvii. 4, 7. Because this was the Altar consecrated to the true GOD, and to offer Sacrifice upon any other Altar had a Tendency to Schism, and opened a Door to Pagan Superstition and Idolatry.

Before the Lord.] Before the Place where the Divine Majesty dwelt by terrible symbols of his Presence.

4 And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt-offering : and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him.

He shall put his Hand upon the Head of the Burnt-Offer. ] See the Rite explained, Exod. xxix. 10. It was accompanied with Prayer and Confession of Sins, as is gathered from Lev. xvi. 5, 21. and the same Passage shews that the Offerer laid both Hands upon the Victim.

*It shall be accepted for him, to make Atonement for him.] i. e. It shall be so accepted as to recommend him to the Favour and Friendship of GOD. Not that any Gifts or Sacrifices, though never so costly, can of themselves avail ought to obtain the Favour of GOD, or make Atonement for Sins; but they were always acceptable to GOD, in Consideration of that most estimably worthy Sacrifice, which was a real and full Atonement for the Sins of the World, viz. JESUS CHRIST, the Son of GOD, who offered himself to purchase a Reconciliation for us.*

5 And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD : and the priests Aaron's sons shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar, that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

And he shall kill the Bullock] That is, the Person who offered it, for every Man might kill his own Sacrifice. The Offerer was debarred from killing the Victim only when he was not clean, as 2 Chron. xxx. 17. But in public Sacrifices the Victim was killed by the High-Priest, Lev. ix. 15, 18.

And the Priests shall bring the Blood, &c.] The Blood was considered as containing the Life, Gen. ix. 4. Lev. xvii. 11. and therefore the Priest's sprinkling it upon the Altar was a Kind of Substitution of the Life of the Victim, as a Ransom for the Life of the Offerer. The Blood was to be offered by the Priest alone, which, as Le Clerc observes, served to remind the Person who brought the Victim, that he was in a sinful State, and so not worthy to have Access to GOD but through a Mediator.

6 And he shall flay the burnt-offering, and cut it into his pieces.

7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire.

This Fire was originally kindled from Heaven, when the first Sacrifices were offered, Cb. ix. 24. and was always kept burning upon the Altar, Cb. vi. 13. and therefore this Expression of putting Fire upon the Altar, is to be understood not of kindling, but feeding the Fire with fresh Fuel, or disposing and putting it in Order.

8 And the priests Aaron's sons shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar.

9 But his servants and his horses drank of the water, and the people that were with him, and they were vexed, because the water was bitter. And he said unto his servants, What shall we do? They answered him, We have no other thing, save only asses' and oxen's dung, to cast upon the water.

The  $\Gamma$  function can be written in the form of a series, which is valid for  $|z| > 1$  and  $\Re z > 0$ . If  $z = 1 + i\epsilon$ , then  $\Gamma(1 + i\epsilon) = 1 - \gamma\epsilon + O(\epsilon^2)$ , where  $\gamma$  is the Euler constant. The function  $\Gamma(1 + i\epsilon)$  is analytic in the region  $\Re z > 0$  and  $|\Im z| < \infty$ . The function  $\Gamma(1 + i\epsilon)$  is analytic in the region  $\Re z > 0$  and  $|\Im z| < \infty$ . The function  $\Gamma(1 + i\epsilon)$  is analytic in the region  $\Re z > 0$  and  $|\Im z| < \infty$ .

1. A. And, as a further illustration of the value of the old sp. of the present, I have to mention that he shall bring it to the same value as the old sp.

The Marwari is a people of the Punjab, and the Marwari community in the United States is a small group of immigrants from that region. The Marwari community in the United States is a small group of immigrants from that region. The Marwari community in the United States is a small group of immigrants from that region.

II And he that hath been a witness to the altar northward before the Lord, shall say, I have seen the Lord's sons that he hath laid down to die about on the altar.

12 And he shall cut it into three pieces, he shall bind and he shall bind the part that is in the middle, in order on the wood that is on the fire and he shall put on the altar.

13 But he shall wash the jewels and the vessels with water, and the priest shall bring the vessels, burn it upon the altar, and eat the fat.

17. And if the burnt offering shall be offered by thee to the Lord thy God, as I have commanded thee, thou shalt offer it with doves, or of young pigeons.

Those who were not able to afford the offering of a pure Gournay, offered a Bird. No doubt, however, that this offering was accepted. It has been said that the offering of a great Bird to honor a King was a worship of GOD, and that by an Offering of Flour, as appears in the 10th Chapter of the Ithaws, that it was not the God but the Dilection of the King that GOD regarded.

He shall bring In Offering—Turtledoves—or—Pigeons—] Mammals observes, that these Birds were the poorest and cheapest, and consequently so cheap, that the poorest Sort could afford to bring this Oblation. They were not the most delicious Prey, or of the coardest kind, but such as were of the gentlest and least, innocent, and wholesome Nature, and so preserving the Purity and Innocence of Mind which became our Way to GOD.

15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and wring off his head, and burn it on the altar: and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar.

19 And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and call it beside the altar on the east-part, by the place of the ashes.

That he was to separate from the Sacrifice, that it might be clean, and cast it as far as might be from the most holy Place, which was on the West Part, to teach, that Moral Unclean-ness was to be removed from the Worship of God.

17 And he shall cleave it, with the wires thereof, but shall not divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt-sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

Here GOD comforteth the Poor, by promising the full Acceptance of his small Sacrifice, as of the Bull, Ram, or Goat, of the richer Sort. For where there is a willing Mind, the Offering is accepted, according to what a Man hath, 2 Cor. viii. 12. The Heart is the Sacrifice that GOD demands, and if that be offered, the smallest Oblation will find Acceptance.

C H A P. II.

1 Of the meat offering of flour with oil and incense. 12 Of the incense of the fragrant spices.

And of the offering of Milk, and of Fat, and of the Fat of the Kidney, &c. This is different from the Oblation of the first fruits, Lev. 12. no Part of the offering is to be burnt in the fire. Milk was in this Mince, or Free-Offering, Lev. 13. This seems to have been a suppliance of Corn, or to GOD, in the way of the first fruits of the Flock, and to bring them to Ministry. It consisted from the Milk Offering was that of the first fruits of Corn, filled only of green Barley of Corn, or new Corn, thus the Levitic of the Hark, Lev. 16. whereas that to GOD was the Flour of old Corn.

17 And thou shalt put olive oil, and thy hand knoweth thereon: it is a meat offering.

16 And the priest shall burn the memorial of it, part of the beaten corn thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

C H A P. III.

1 (C) the year-offering of the land. 6 And at the feast, either a lamb, or a ewe.

AND if his oblation be a sacrifice of peace-offering, if he offer it of the herd, whether it be a male or female; he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD.

The Peace-Offerings were principally Offerings of Thanksgiving, in the Peace, i. e. for Mercies received; for Peace, in the Hebrew Language, signifies all Manner of Prosperity and Happiness. Hence they are called Peace-Offerings for Thanksgiving, Lev. vii. 15. Sometimes again they were offered by Way of Vow, in Hope of Peace, or future Blessings, Is. xxi. 16. and Psalm. vii. 14. Job. i. 16. And sometimes they were offered without any antecedent Obligation of a Vow, in which Case they were called Freewill Offerings, Lev. vii. 11, 15. These Sacrifices which were called Sin Offerings and Trespass-Offerings, supposed the Offender obnoxious, and GOD displeased, and they were appointed for Atonement and Reconciliation. But Peace-Offerings, supposed GOD reconciled to the Offender, and him to be at Peace with GOD. In Testimony of which Reconciliation, the Offender was here admitted to partake of the Altar. For whereas in the Holocausts the Altar consumed all the Flesh of the Sacrifice, neither Priest nor People being allowed to partake; and in the Sin and Trespass-Offerings, though the Priests did partake, yet the Offerers had no Share; in these Peace-Offerings the Offerers themselves were allowed to partake of the Sacrifice, and to feast upon it. They did partake of the Lord's Table, and that was a Sign of Favour and Friendship: For eating together was always esteemed so; and was therefore used of old in making Covenants and Agreements.

- And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: And Aaron's sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

And he shall lay his Hand upon the Head of his Offering. See on C. 1. 4. Here the laying on of Hands might denote the same as in the former Case, viz. the Offerer's devoting the Sacrifice wholly to GOD. This Ceremony of laying on the Hands was in Peace-offering accompanied with a solemn Thanksgiving to GOD, and Acknowledgement of those Mercies which were the Occasion of it. This laying on of Hands, says Conradus, signifies Devotion and Faith, with Acknowledgement of the Divine Benefits, for which we can offer nothing of our own, but only return to GOD what we have received; that we may understand Gratitude and Thanksgiving to be the greatest of Services.

The Purple Ball upon the Blood, &c.] See on Ch. i. 5.

; And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace-offering, an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards.

For the Reasons of offering the Fat, see on Ex. xxix. 13.

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

5 And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt-sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

Ugole, Parro, & C. (1991). Il sistema di irrigazione di
Castelluccio di Stabia. Roma: Ministero delle Infrastrutture e dei Trasporti.

6 ¶ And if his offering for a sin be a bullock, or a goat, offering unto the Lord, he shall lay his hands upon the head of the bullock, or upon the head of the goat, and shall slay it before the Lord.

6. In the case of a child, the child's name shall be substituted for the name of the person in the preceding paragraph.

[illegible]

And as the Bill is intended to be the subject of no ordinary, and hence no special, scrutiny of the Legislature, and as it is a subject of the highest importance, it is respectfully suggested that the bill should be referred to a select committee of three or more members of the Legislature.

[illegible]

10 And the two led away, and the first of on them, which was by the middle, and above the head, and the middle, and the away.

it. And the people shall learn to love it;
it is the food of the coming, made for the Lord.

[illegible]

12 ¶ And if his offering be a gift, then he shall offer it before the Lord.

13 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about.

14 And he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire unto the Lord; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards.

15 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it thou shalt take away.

16 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire, for a sweet savour. All the fat of the Lamb's.

17. It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood.

That we eat rent's Fat nor Blood] Partly out of Reverence to GOD, in whom Honour the Fat and Blood were appropriated to the Altar; and partly, according to Idolatry, in Obedience to a superstitious Practice that prevailed amongst the Priests of those Times, who were wont to eat the Blood of their Sacrifices, imagining that hereby they were admitted to Society with their Gods, and enabled to foretel Things to come.

C H A P. IV.

1 Of the offering for sin committed through ignorance. 3 For the use of the priest. 13 For the congregation. 22 For a victim. 27 For an, private person.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the Lord concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them :

The next Kind of Sacrifices appointed, were for Expiation of personal and of legal Impurities, called detestable Sin-Offences. The first sort of these were for Sins of Ignorance, and Surprise, the second for Commission of any Things expressly forbidden ; and either by the High-Priest, ver. 3. or by the whole Body of the Community, ver. 13. or by their Rulers, ver. 22. or by any one of the common People, ver. 25. In order to excite the People to greater Diligence in the Study of their Laws and Religion, a Sin-Offering is imposed by Way of Fine, viz. on those who sinned through Ignorance or Inadvertence ; but this is to be understood only in Things made of such particular Care, where the Plea of Ignorance could be admitted : For as to notorious Violation of the moral Law, in the Case of Murder, for Instance, Adultery, or the Worship of Idols, in such Cases Ignorance of the Law could be no Excuse, because there are knowable by the Light of Reason, and therefore could not be reckoned Sins of Ignorance, but presumptuous Sins ; and for them no expiatory Sacrifice was admitted, Nam. xvi. 30.

Shall sin through Ignorance. ] And his Sin come afterwards to his Lot, which is for that understood, as appears from ver. 23.

And shall bring an offering for his Sin, or some such Expression. For it is first said, that all Sins of Ignorance are to be atoned for by certain Rites ; then it is shewn how these Rites are to differ, according to the different Characters of the Offenders, and according as the Offence is public or private.

3 If the priest that is anointed, do sin according to the sin of the people, then let him bring for his sin which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish, unto the LORD for a sin-offering.

As relating to the Sin of the People. ] In the Manner before mentioned, ver. 2. or, as the Word may be rendered, If he sin in the Crime of the People, viz. by misinforming them, or drawing them into Error by his Example.

For a Sin-Offering. ] The Hebrew Word Cbattab signifies either Sin or Sin-Offering. According to the same Idiom CHRIST is said to have been made Sin for us, 1. e. a Sin-Offering, 2 Cor. v. 21.

4 And he shall bring the bullock unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the LORD ; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD.

5 And the priest that is anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the vail of the sanctuary.

Before the Veil of the Sanctuary. ] Which parted the Holy Place from the Sanctuary. This Sprinkling of the Blood by the Priest was a Sort of Substitution of the Blood of the Victim instead of his own, in Acknowledgment of the Demerit of his Sin. It became him to make his Confession and Atonement in the Sanctuary itself, where he had frequent Access to minister in divine Service ; but for others, it sufficed to make Expiation in the Court of the Tabernacle, their Place of Worship, by sprinkling of the Blood upon the Altar of Burnt-Offering, ver. 30.

7 And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation ; and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt-offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

And the Priest shall put some of the Blood upon the Horns of the Altar of Sweet Incense. ] This Rite served to put the Priest in Mind that Sin rendered him unworthy to offer Incense, Prayers, or any Service to God ; that it rendered the very Altar and Sanctuary which he touched, in a certain Sense, polluted, Lev. xvi. 19.

Shall pour all the Blood. ] i. e. And the rest of the Blood, which is plainly understood.

8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the sin-offering ; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards.

9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the lobe above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall be taken away,

10 As it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace-offerings : and the priest shall lay them upon the ear of the burnt offering.

11 And the skin of the bullock, and all his flesh, with his head, and with his legs, and his inward, and his dung, 12 Even the whole bullock shall be carried without the camp, unto a clean place, where ashes are poured out, and burn him on the wood with fire : where the ashes are poured out, shall he be burnt.

The whole Bullock shall be carried out of the Camp. ] Of other Sin-Offences the Priest was to eat, Lev. vi. 26. but of this, being for himself, he was not to taste, because he was in a State of Guilt. Its being carried without the Camp, which was consecrated by the Divine Presence residing in the Midst of it, served to express the Abominableness of Sin in the Sight of GOD. Yet it was to be burnt in a clean and decent Place, where no dead Carcases, Dung, or other Filth was laid ; to denote, that nothing relating to the Service of GOD should be treated in a rude or negligent Manner.

And burn him on the Wood with Fire. ] Not upon an Altar, but upon the Ground, which, as Maimonides observes, served also to denote the Odiousness of Sin.

13 ¶ And if the whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD, concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty :

14 When the sin which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD : and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD.

The Elders—shall lay their Hands. ] Some of them at least, in the Name of the People as their Representatives.

16 And the priest that is anointed, shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation.

17 And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, even before the vail.

18 And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar, which is before the LORD, that is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt-offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the altar.

20 And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a sin-offering, so shall he do with this : and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock : it is a sin-offering for the congregation.

22 ¶ When a ruler hath sinned, and done somewhat through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD his God, concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty ;

And is guilty. ] It ought rather to be translated, and is sensible of his Guilt, as the same Word signifies, Thy. v. 15.

who knows the secret Thoughts of the Heart. Now the Temples here mentioned are of this kind, and therefore emphatically said to be committed against the Lord.

And he unto his Neighbour, in that he hath so delivered to keep;
By Breach of Trust in any Goods committed to his Care, and Denial of the Fact, when brought upon his Oath before the Jury.

On a Full Stop] Heb. In putting the Hand, alluding to the Form of making Contracts, by the Parties giving the Hand to each other. So it may either signify in carrying on a common Trade, by joint Stock, or in any Matter of Trust for which he gave his Hand and put his Faith to another.

Quædam leges taken out of the Laws,] By Robbery or Stealth; for the Word signifies both. That it not being punished among the Jews with Death, they tendered an Oath to those who were accused or suspected of it, to clear themselves from the Imputation, Lev. lxxiii. 11.

Or have descended in Nig. Men.] Rather, defrauded his Neighbour, as Mal. iii. 5. where it signifies, to defraud an Hiringling of his Wages, and to oppress the Widow and Fatherless by Acts of Injustice.

3 Or have found that which was lost, and lieth concerning it, and sweareth falsely ; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein :

And forareth faith,] The Thief, or he that was suspected of Theft, was, among the Jews, put to his Oath to purge and clear himself, where there wanted sufficient Proof, Ex. xxii. 11.

In any of all these that a Man doeth.] In any of these Acts of Injustice, which, to the Reproach of Human Nature, are common among Men: for that is the Meaning of the Phrase, that a Man doeth.

4 Then it shall be, because he hath sinned and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found,

Then it shall be, because he hath sinned, and is guilty,} It ought to be rendered, When he hath sinned, and is sensible of his Guilt, or acknowledges his Guilt, as the Word Asham signifies, Hos. v. 15. For to say he is guilty, after having sinned to grievously as before mentioned, would be superfluous. But the Meaning is; "If the offending Party, without being legally detected, makes a free and voluntary Confession of his Injustice, either to his injured Neighbour, or before the Judge, he shall be obliged only to make immediate Restitution of the Principal, either in Kind or in full Value, and then to add a fifth Part more, as an Amends for the Damage sustained." And this removes any seeming Contradiction between this Law and that in Ex. xxii. 1, 7, 9. which provides, that the Restitution made should in some Cases be five-fold, in some fourfold, in others double; for that relates to such as persisted in the Offence till they were discovered, and legally convicted by Witnesses; but this, to such as being touched with a Sense of their Sin, came voluntarily and acknowledged their Crime, without being convicted.

5 Or all that about which he hath sworn falsely ; he shall even restore it in the principal, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, in the day of his trespass-offering.

6 And he shall bring his trespass-offering unto the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest.

7 And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him, for any thing of all that he had done, in trespassing therein.

8 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, say-

And the Lord spake unto Moses,] Here begins a new Subject, and if our Bibles were rightly divided, it ought to begin a new Chapter; as it is in Junius and Tremellius, who join the first seven Verses of this Chapter to the former,

9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt-offering: (It is the burnt-offering, because of the burning upon the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire shall be burning in it.

Commander John A. B. ... ... of the ...
 People should be aware that ... he now gives his attention to the ...
 the Federal Office ...

for a night in the garden bed,  $M \rightarrow R$ .

in the Journal of the Royal Society of Medicine, in the Medical News, and the Medical Record.
 C. L. S. is the Secretary of the American Medical Association, and put the Society of the American

Prior to Pong's confession by Cheung, it was known that the sacrifice was burning on the altar at the temple during the Yung<sup>6</sup> Day ceremony, which is observed by all the Morning Sarnito, which was a new "Meditation" for the day, was the Time of the Lord's Prayer, and the singing of the "Gloria" and the "Credo" to some extent, and the singing of the "Gloria" and the "Credo" to some extent, and the singing of the "Gloria" and the "Credo" to some extent.

When the Sim-OPC is in a Ready state, the user can remove the battery and thief. Parts of the thief can be replaced without the need to replace the entire unit.

And the For the People folks say, "It may be a good idea, but it's not a good idea. For the People is a good idea, but it's not a good idea."

Price of all connecting Papers. One Year, 50 Cents. Single Copies, 10 Cents.
Also paid by carrying, or led and mail to him, by the 10 And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath consumed with the burnt-offering on the altar, and he shall put them behind the altar:

And taking of the  $\frac{1}{2}$  = 1, the Fraction = 1 and  $\frac{1}{2}$  = 1, the Page of Old MSS. C. 41 B. ought to be translated, It is on the Fraction named the Two-fifths on the Library; for  $\frac{1}{2}$  to 1, might not only signify  $\frac{1}{2}$  but  $\frac{1}{5}$  as Gen. xxx. 36. Num. v. 29. 10 in the 12th Book, C. 14. 23. and many other Places.

11 And he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ark without the camp, unto a clean place.

And he shall put off his Garments,] When the Priest is to carry the Ashes out of the Tabernacle, he shall dress himself in his common Apparel, or in some Habit of less Dignity than those Garments wherein he ministred.

12 And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it, it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt-offering in order upon it, and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace-offerings.

And the Fire upon the Altar ſhall be burning in it, it ſhall not be put out: } As the Altar was at firſt lighted from Heaven, Gen. ix. 24 ſo it rendered the Service more ſolemn and venerable, that all their Sacrifices were conſumed by an uninterrupted Continuation of the ſame celeſtial Flame, which the Priests, watching Day and Night for that Purpoſe, fed with conſtant Fuel.

13 The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar: it shall never go out.

14 ¶ And this is the law of the meat-offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it before the Lord, before the altar.

These Directions relate to the Duties of the Priests on this Occasion.

The Priests was first to present it to the Lord before the Altar, as prescribed Ch. ii. 8. and then to burn an handful of it upon the Altar.

15 And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the meat-offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meat-offering, and shall burn it upon the altar, for a sweet savour, even the memorial of it unto the LORD.

The Memorial of it] See C. ii. 2.

1. And

16 And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place: in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it.

[And the Remainder thereof shall Aaron and his Sons eat.] Unless they had some legal Uncleaness upon them, Le. xxii. 6. This preserved the Dignity of the Sacrifice, to have it only eaten by the Priest, and by them only in the holy Place.

[Unleavened Bread shall it be eaten.] There is nothing in the Hebrew to answer either to unleavened or Bread; so it ought undoubtedly to be translated, unleavened it shall be eaten, as is prescribed Ch. ii. 11. and Ch. x. 12. As to the Reasons why unleavened Bread was preferred to leavened, see on Exod. xii. 8.

[In the holy Place, in the Court of the Tabernacle, &c.] The Tabernacle, or Sanctuary was divided into three distinct Apartments, viz. the Holy Place or Court, wherein stood the Altar of Burnt-Offering; the Inner Place within the first Vail, which we may call the most holy Place, wherein was the golden Altar of Incense, upon which the Priests offered Incense daily at the Time of the Morning and Evening Sacrifice; lastly, the Holy Place within the second Vail, wherein was the Ark, the Mercy Seat, and Cherubims, which is commonly called Kodesh Kadoshim, the Holy of Holies, or the most holy Place.

17 It shall not be baken with leaven: I have given it unto them for their portion of my offerings made by fire: it is most holy, as is the sin-offering, and as the trespass offering.

[As is the Sin-Offering, and as the Trespass-Offering.] See ver. 26. and Ch. vi. 6.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it: It shall be a statute for ever in your generations concerning the offerings of the Lord made by fire: Every one that toucheth them shall be holy.

[It shall be a Statute for ever, &c.] i. e. As long as the Law about Sacrifices shall last.

[Every one that toucheth them shall be holy.] The Meaning is, that as none but Priests and consecrated Persons were to touch the Sacred Things, so neither were they to eat thereof unless they were holy, i. e. free from all legal Defilement.

19 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of Aaron, and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the Lord, in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat-offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night.

[In the Day when he is anointed.] It may also be rendered, from the Day; for it was to be offered by the Priest, not only upon the Day of his Consecration, but ever after daily, as long as he continued in his Office; whence it is called here, a Meat-Offering perpetual. The Priests were not all bound to offer this Sacrifice every Day, but only he who was in Waiting, to whom it belonged to offer the daily Burnt-Sacrifice, he did it in the Name of all the rest.

21 In a pan it shall be made with oil, and when it is baken, thou shalt bring it in: and the baken pieces of the meat-offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the Lord.

22 And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead, shall offer it: It is a statute for ever unto the Lord, it shall be wholly burnt.

23 For every meat-offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.

[Every Meat-Offering for the Priest shall be wholly burnt.] The Priest had all the Meat or Bread-Offerings of the People, except a Handful that was offered to the Lord, Ch. ii. 2, 3. but of their own Meat-Offering they were not to taste; because, says Maimonides, as the Priests themselves offered their Oblation to GOD, had they applied it to their own Use, it would have been all one as offering nothing. See an other Reason, Lev. x. 17. viz. Their eating the Sin-Offerings of the People was considered as an Expiation or bearing their Iniquity; but their being prohibited to eat of their own Sin-Offering, was to teach them that they could not atone for their own Iniquity.

24 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin-offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed, shall the sin-offering be killed before the Lord: it is most holy.

26 The priest that offereth it for sin, shall eat it: in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

[The Priest that offereth it for Sin, shall eat it.] Though the Person who offered the Sin-Offering was not permitted to eat of the sacrifice himself, being confined to a most strict state, and to abstain from holding Communion with GOD, which was the Meaning of Eating of the Sacrifice; yet he was admitted to that Privilege by Proxy, and GOD, by allowing the Priest, or the Representative of the People, to partake of the sacrifice, shewed himself reconciled to the People.

27 Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled, in the holy place.

This was appointed out of Reverence to the Place, which being holy, was not to remain upon any Garment, whether of the Priest or of the Offerer, but to be washed out, viz. in the holy Place, i. e. in the Court of the Sanctuary.

28 But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden, shall be broken: and if it be sodden in a brazen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water.

[The earthen Vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken.] In understanding this Passage, it is to be observed, that it relates not to the consecrated Vessels of the Tabernacle, for none of these were of Earth, Exod. xxv. 16. but to such Vessels as were sometimes employed by private Persons in dividing the Meat of their Sacrifices, whereof we have an Example 1 Sam. ii. 12, 14. Now with Respect to these the Law enjoins, that all earthen Vessels wherein the Flesh of a Sacrifice had been boiled should be broken; that so what retained the smallest Tincture of the Holy Things might not be profaned by being afterwards employed in common Use.

[If it be sodden in a brazen Pot, it shall be scoured, &c.] Vessels of Brass, being more solid, and less apt to imbibe, might be thoroughly cleansed from all Tincture of the Sacrifice by washing and scouring; and therefore all that is required as to them is, that they be well scoured and washed before they be employed in common Use.

29 All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy.

30 And no sin offering whereof any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile withal in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.

[And no Sin-Offering, whereof any of the Blood is brought into the Tabernacle—shall be eaten.] Rather, But no Sin-Offering, &c. Of this Kind were the Sin-Offerings for the High-Priest, Ch. iv. 3. and for the whole Congregation, either upon particular Occasion, Ch. iv. 13. or upon the Day of general Atonement, Ch. xvi. 2. These Sacrifices were of all others the most holy, and therefore were to be wholly consumed, and none of them applied to a common Use.

C H A P. VII.

1 The law of the trespass-offering, 11 and of the peace-offering, 12 whether it be for a thanksgiving, 16 or a vow, or a free-will offering. 22 The fat, 26 and the blood are forbidden. 28 The priests' portion in the peace-offerings.

Likewise this is the law of the trespass-offering: it is most holy.

Here the Priests are directed in their Office about Trespass Offerings, as the People had done before. As to the Difference between the Sin-Offering and the Trespass Offering, see on Ch. v. 6.

2 In the place where they kill the burnt-offering, shall they kill the trespass-offering: and the blood

LORD, even the soul that catch it, shall be cut off from his people.

This restrains the Prohibition against eating of Fat, to the Fat of thick Cattle, which were made Use of in Burnt-Offerings. And some think it reasonable to limit it further, namely, to that Part of the Fat or Suet which was appointed to be burned on the Altar.

26 Moreover, ye shall eat no manner of blood, whether of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

Lev. xvi. 7. D. 11.] This is added to signify that they might not make Use of the blood of those Beasts which they killed at home, rather than of those slain at the Altar.

27 Whatsoever soul it is that catch any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

28 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

29 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace-offerings unto the LORD, shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings.

He that offereth the sacrifice of his Peace-Offerings shall bring his Oblation, &c. Lev. xvi. 29.] Some understand it thus; "Before he shall offer his sacrifice, he shall see that GOD has his 'Part' of it. 'Peace-Offering.' Or, Whosoever brought the Sacrifice, or oblation, should also bring his Oblation (Korban) that is a 'Share' of Bread-Offering together with it. But it seems to me, more than that the Offerer was to present his Offering himself, and not by another, as the next Words explain it.

30 His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a wave-offering before the LORD.

His own Hands shall bring the Offerings of the Lord made by Fire.] The Sacrifice being slain and divided, the Priest was to put what belonged unto the Lord into the Man's own Hands, viz. the Fat, with the Breast and Shoulder, that he might present them himself unto the LORD.

That the Breast may be waved, &c.] See on Exod. xxix. 24, 27. By this Ceremony it was consecrated to GOD.

31 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for an heave-offering, of the sacrifices of your peace-offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron that offereth the blood of the peace-offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the wave-breast, and the heave-shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel, from off the sacrifices of their peace-offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest, and unto his sons, by a statute for ever, from among the children of Israel.

For the Wave-Breast, and the Heave-Shoulder.] Heb. The Breast of Exaltation, and the Shoulder of Exaltation; i. e. these Parts which are consecrated to me by lifting or Exalting them up towards Heaven.

By a Statute for Ever.] An Ordinance to continue so long as the Law of sacrifice should remain. And the Equity of it remains still: For as they who waited at the Altar were Partakers with the Altar, even so hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, and live of the Gospel, 1 Cor. ix. 13, 14. Or in other Words, the Ministers of Religion, who devote their Time and Labour to the Service of the Publick, have a Right to be maintained by the Publick.

35 ¶ This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them, to minister unto the LORD in the priests office:

This is the Portion of the anointing, &c.] i. e. This is their Portion in Right of their Union to the Priest's Office.

In the Day when he presented them, &c.] Fejoni may signify from the Day, as well as in the Day. See Ch. vi. 20. So the whole may be rendered, "This is appointed their Portion by GOD, from the Day that he has made them draw near to minister, &c."

36 Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that he anointed them, by a statute for ever, throughout their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt-offering, of the meat-offering, and of the sin-offering, and of the trespass-offering, and of the consecrations, and of the sacrifice of the peace-offerings:

38 Which the LORD commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their oblations unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

In Mount Sinai,] Rather, By Mount Sinai; for Moses had been some Time come down from the Mount, and these Commands were given him from the Tabernacle, Lev. i. 1. But he and the People were still in the Wilderness of Sinai, as it is in the last Words of the Verse, v. 1. in that Tract of Land adjoining to Mount Sinai which was desert and thinly inhabited, and therefore called the Wilderness of Sinai.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Moses consecrateth Aaron and his sons. 14 The sin-offering. 18 The burnt-offering. 22 The ram of consecration. 31 The place and time of their consecration.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a bullock for the sin-offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread.

All sufficient and needful Directions having been thus given Moses about Sacrifices, and the Rites belonging to them, he is now ordered by GOD to set about the Consecration of the Priests, by robing, anointing, and sacrificing for them, according to the particular Injunctions given before in Exod. xxviii. xxix. and xxx. Chapters. And pursuant thereto he is appointed to assemble the Heads and Representatives of the People, as Witnesses that these Persons, and their Successors after them, were not Intruders into the sacred Office, but were solemnly and specially appointed to it by GOD himself.

And the Garments.] See on Exod. xxviii. 2, 4.

And the anointing Oil,] See on Exod. xxx. 25.

And a Bullock for the Sin-Offering, and a Basket of unleavened Bread,] See on Exod. xxix. 1, 2.

3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

And gather thou all the Congregation together,] By their Heads and Representatives, called the Elders of Israel, Ch. ix. 1. It is likely also that as many of the People as the Place would conveniently hold, met together to be Spectators of the Solemnity.

4 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water.

At the Laver mentioned Exod. xl. 30. He begins their Consecration by Washing having first washed himself as Priest for the Time, Exod. xxix. 4. xl. 31.

7 And he put upon him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and cloathed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.

And

And he put upon him the Coat, and girded him with the Girdle.] The Coat was an inner Garment worn next the Body, Lev. xviii. 29 and therefore it could be soiled no less than if it were with a Girdle. Hence Lev. xvi. 4 touching the Priest touching the Altar, for this being looked upon as the Girdle, which at the same Time made fast all the other Garments. See on Exod. xxix. 5.

8 And he put the breast plate upon him: also he put in the breast plate the Urim and Thummim.

9 And he put the miter upon his head; also upon the miter, even upon his fore-front did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the Lord commanded Moses.

See Notes on Exod. xxviii. 36, 37, 38.

10 And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle, and all that was therein, and sanctified them.

Consecrated them by Unction for the religious Use to which they were designed, Exod. xxix. 26, and xl. 9, 10, 11.

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar, and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them.

12 And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him to sanctify him.

He poured.] This shews, that there was a plentiful Effusion of this holy Oil upon Aaron's Head. To which Ps. cxxiii. 2 alludes. The Reader will observe, that though the Consecration of Aaron and his Sons be mentioned here, together with the Consecration of the Tabernacle and its Furniture, yet some Time intervened between the two.

13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon them; as the Lord commanded Moses.

As directed Exod. xxviii. 40.

14 And he brought the bullock for the sin-offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin-offering.

See Exod. xxix. 1, 10, 14.

15 And he slew it, and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar; and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.

And Moses took the Blood and put it upon the Horns of the Altar.] See on Exod. xxix. 12.

And purified the Altar.] This Ceremony of touching the Altar with the Blood, emphatically signified, that all the Services which sinful Mortals offer to GOD partake of their Impurity; that the very Altar which consecrates their Oblations is defiled by their unhallowed Touch. But the sprinkling it with the Blood of the Victim, which by divine Appointment was substituted and accepted instead of the forfeited Blood of the Sinner, betokened Repentance, Purification, and the Removal of Guilt: on which Account the Altar is said to be purged and purified by this Action.

16 And he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar.

17 But the bullock and his hide, his flesh and his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the Lord commanded Moses.

As commanded Exod. xxix. 14. The Priests were not to eat of their own Sin-Offering, Lev. iv. 12, nor of their own Meat-Offering, Lev. vi. 23, to teach them that they could not make a proper Atonement for their own Sins, much less for the Sins of others; though GOD was pleased to appoint their eating the Sin-Offering of others to be a Sign to the People of GOD's accepting their Sacrifice; and their eating the Sin-Offering is therefore not to be taken for a Sin-Offering, as some have thought.] See on Lev. vi. 23, and Lev. x. 17. See also Lev. x. 17 and Lev. ix. 7.

18 ¶ And he brought the ram for the offering of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

See the Explanation Exod. xxix. 1.

19 And he killed it, and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the altar round about.

20 And he cut the ram into pieces, and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

21 And he washed the inwards and the liver in water; and Moses burnt the whole: and upon the altar it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord; as the Lord commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

The Ram of Consecration.] For a Peace Offering, Lev. x. 11, 12, 31, 32. The Offering which in these Sacrifices is offered, is most rational; for first there was a knowledge of sinfulness, (Lev. 14) and an Acknowledgment of it in Unbelief. This followed the whole Burnt Offering, Lev. 15, which was a Sign of their devoting themselves heartily wholly to the Service of GOD. See on Lev. 13. After which followed this offering, which was a Peace Offering, appears from Lev. 17 and betokened their being brought in Levant with GOD, and his continual Communion with him, and partake of his sacred Feast.

23 And he slew it, and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

See on Exod. xxix. 20.

24 And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25 And he took the fat, and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and the right shoulder.

See on Exod. xxix. 13, 22.

26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the Lord, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder.

27 And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hand, and waved them for a wave-offering before the Lord.

28 And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar, upon the burnt-offering: they were consecrations for a sweet savour: it is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

They were Consecration for a Sweet Savour.] i. e. They were Ceremonies instituted in order to consecrate them to GOD, and render them acceptable as his Ministers. See Exod. xxix. 33.

29 And Moses took the breast and waved it for a wave-offering before the Lord: for of the ram of consecration it was Moses's part; as the Lord commanded Moses.

And Moses took the Breast and waved it, &c.] See on Exod. xxix. 26, 27.

It was Moses's Part;] Usually the Shoulder, as well as the Breast, was given to the Priest, Lev. vii. 31, 32. Here Moses, who officiates as Priest, has the Breast only.

30 And Mose took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron's head, and upon his garments, and upon his sons' heads, and upon their garments, with him: and thus anointed Aaron and his sons.

31 And Mose said unto Aaron, and to his sons, Put on the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and there eat it with the bread of shew-bread: for it is of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

Leviticus, 29. LXX. and most Version. Under it, as I have commanded, &c. GOD, which seems more proper. For there is no Mention of Mose having given Aaron this Command before.

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the blood shall be burnt with fire.

33 And ye shall be at the door of the tabernacle on the seventh day, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall ye consecrate you.

Aaron and his sons were at the Door of the Tabernacle seven Days.] It is said that Aaron and his sons were at the Door of the Tabernacle, but at the Door of the Tabernacle, that the Consecration was performed, Lev. 3. 31, 35. might imply they came into the Sanctuary till the Ceremony was completed. The expression might not be understood so strictly, as if they were not allowed the Liberty to stir for seven Days from the Door of the Tabernacle: it seems to import no more than that they were to attend regularly, or be at no great Distance, till the Ceremony was completed, or that some or other of them were to keep Watch there Night and Day.

For seven Days.] Perhaps to denote that they were consecrated to the Service of that GOD who had created all Things in the Space of six Days. See on Exod. xxix. 30.

34 As he hath done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

As he hath done this Day, so the Lord hath commanded to do, &c.] Or, as he hath done this Day, so the Lord hath commanded to do, &c.] He hath commanded all the Ceremonies of Consecration, which are performed this Day, to be repeated seven Days successively.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night, seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

Therefore shall ye abide at the Door of the Tabernacle—Day and Night.] i. e. Apply yourselves assiduously to the Worship of GOD, and the Business of your Consecration; let nothing divert you from this sacred Duty.

Keep the Charge of the Lord.] i. e. Be careful to observe this Law, which GOD hath given you: or, in general, attend to the Duties of your sacred Function, Num. viii. 26.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

C H A P. IV.

1 The sin-offering of Aaron for himself and the people. 8 The sin-offering of the people. 12 and the burnt-offering for himself. 15 The offerings for the people. 23 Moses and Aaron bless the people, and the glory of the LORD is seen. 24 Fire cometh from the Lord upon the altar.

AN D it came to pass on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel;

And it came to pass on the eighth Day.] On the next Day after their Consecration, which lasted seven Days, Ch. viii. 33, 35.

2 And he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sin-offering, and a ram for a burnt-offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

This is the first Sacrifice that was offered to GOD by a High Priest of the Order of Aaron. It was for a Sin-Offering, for all Sins in general, not for any determinate One, Ch. vi. 7.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin-offering; and a calf, and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish for a burnt-offering;

Unto the Children of Israel—speak, &c.] Take ye a Kid of the Goats.] The Hebrew Word is Ser, which signifies a He-Goat. Moses assigns this Reason why so many He-Goats were appointed for sacrifice, namely, that the most prevailing Idolatry of those Times was that of the Idol to Diana, who were wont to appear in the Form of Goats: for which he quotes, Gen. 30. 32. They call no more for the Service of the Idol; which we translate, unto Diana; but he translates it, unto Goats; for the Word Serim is but the plural Number of Ser, a He-Goat.

The same Order is observed here that was at Aaron's Consecration; first a Sin-Offering, then a Burnt-Offering, then a Peace-Offering, Ch. viii. 22.

4 Also a bullock and a ram, for peace-offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a meat offering mingled with oil: for to day the LORD will appear unto you.

Will give you an illustrious Token of his Presence, by kindling Fire from the Shechinah to consume the Sacrifice, Lev. 23. 24. and therefore it is fit that you prepare and sanctify yourselves with all Kinds of sacrifice, that you may be qualified to be Partakers of the Blessing.

5 And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

Before the Tabernacle, the Habitation of the Divine Glory. Their Elders laid their Hands upon the Head of the Victim, in the Name of the whole Congregation, Ch. iv. 14.

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded, that ye should do: and the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt-offering, and make an atonement for thyself and for the people: and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

Make an Atonement for thyself, and for the People;.] First for his own Sins, and then for the People's, Heb. vii. 27. This was the great Imperfection of the Aaronical Priests, that they were Sinners like other Men, and by Reason hereof bound, as for the People, so also for themselves, to offer for Sins, Heb. v. 3. This Imperfection is remedied by the Gospel Dispensation; for our High-Priest is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from Sinners, &c. Heb. vii. 26.

Here we may observe an internal Proof of the Divinity of these Commands. In other Religions we find the Priests setting themselves up as perfectly holy, expecting to be distinguished as if they were something more than Men. But here they are set upon a Level with the rest of the People; they acknowledge themselves Sinners like other Men, and that they stand in Need of an Atonement to be made for them. Certainly, if we consider what Human Nature is, we can scarcely believe that an High Priest, whose Office and Dignity it was to make an Atonement for the Sins of his People, would confess that he himself was under Sin, and needed an Atonement, unless he had been influenced by something more than the Spirit of a Man. For this was manifestly to lessen his Dignity, to introduce Imperfection into his Office and Institution, and to give his People a contemptible Opinion of him. Thus, had Moses and Aaron acted of themselves as Men, would certainly have been the Strain of their Reasoning; and accordingly we find, that it was the constant Practice of the Priests and Legislators over all the World besides, to possess their People with the most profound Veneration for them, and to pretend to extraordinary Perfection and Purity, which their People could not attain to. They offered sacrifices as an Atonement for the Sins of others, but none for their own. And indeed natural Reason seems to dictate, that he who is to make Atonement for the Sins of others, ought to have nothing to atone for himself. But

GOD,

[illegible]

Then hence we may draw the full Persuasion of the Necessity of the Religion. For if, as it is proved, that the Church is in a State of Sin, it was necessary to have had a Prince, and a Parliament of such Mediators, to offer up their Prayers to Heaven, and to be accepted of them; and yet, as Human Nature is weak, and Prone to Sin, you might make to Hobbes, and to your veriest Enemies, that you are certain, there are none, but what need a Declaration of our Affirmation to be made, for the sake of, to render our selves poor, and consequently are unfit to attend in share for others. Therefore, the Religion which propounds a heavenly Prince, a Divine Mediator, and Intercession for us, can never claim the Divine approbation, perfectly well pleaded, but evident above the highest Effects, the utmost Efficacy, and of being of Divine Original. For indeed Men stood in Need of a Mediator, and that they did, has been the Confession of the whole World, and is fully every Body, then certainly a perfect and full Mediator was necessary. But where was such a one to be found on Earth? He must needs come down from Heaven for the Purpose, as the Christian SAVIOUR did, he last of his kind was, and was the Form of a Servant, and was made in the likeness of Man, that he might give us Grace, and then he does as our great High Priest, the Mediator of the New Covenant, to make Intercession for us.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and flew the calf of the sin-offering, which was for himself.

And the Journal (2/1/91) indicated it to be true; it was necessary for the 14th March Week.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar.

By the Altar here is meant not the Altar of Incense, but of Burnt-Offering. For although it is ordered, Lev. vi. that the High-Priest should carry some of the Blood of his Sin Offering unto the Sanctuary, and put it upon the Horns of the Altar of Incense, yet at present Aaron not being fully consecrated, nor having Access into the holy Place, till he had prepared his Way thither by this first Sacrifice in the Court, he was the effect to observe the same Rites of Expiation as a private Person.

10 But the fat and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin-offering he burnt upon the altar; as the Lord commanded Moses.

11 And the flesh and the hide be burnt with fire, without the camp.

See Notes on Exer. 1, 14.

12 And he flew the burnt offering, and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 And they presented the burnt-offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

See Cz. i. 8, 9.

14 And he did wash the inward's and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt-offering, on the altar.

That is, he burnt the Inwards and the Legs, with the rest of the Ram, Levi 2. which he had laid before upon the Altar, to be all consumed together, as the Manner was in Burnt Offerings. See on Ch. i. 8, 9.

15. ¶ And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat which was the sin-offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first.

And he brought the People's Offering, Having finished his own Sacrifices, he became qualified to make Supplication for the People.

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are illiterate has increased by 100 million. The number of people who are illiterate in the world is now 1 billion. The number of people who are illiterate in the world is now 1 billion.

Journal of Management Education 30(6)p.789-804
© The Author(s) 2006

1. Journal of the American Medical Association, 277: 1001-1002, 1997.

[illegible]

THE HANCOCK COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, in and for the County of Hancock, State of Maine, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the report of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Hancock, Maine, for the year ending December 31, 1907, as the same appears from the records of said Board.

[illegible]

10 And the fire of the full sheaf of the reaper, the harp, and last when the reaper is done, and the kidneys, and the cold, and the liver.

20 And they put the fat upon the carcasses, and they burnt the fat up on the altar :

THE Journal of the Philosophy of Language Association is published quarterly by the GODDARD INSTITUTE OF LINGUISTICS, and distributed upon request.

On the left, the hands and the right foot of the figure waved for a wave-offering before the image of the Mother, commended.

They were first presented to GOD, and then before the Priests' Penon. See on c. 6. v. 34.

22 And Aaron lift up his hand to the people, and blessed them; and came down from offering of the sin-offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace-offerings.

But thus lift up his Hand towards the People Ps. 134. by his Hand towards that Part of the Heavens which he had pitched, in Token of his imploring the Divine Presence there. Ps. 134. v. 2. which blessing is at two things, one is the usual Sign in Benedictions was to Touch the Feet of the Priest of the Pot in prayer Ex. 29. 7. Gen. 28. 14. Wash his Feet in the Font of our Saviour John 13. 8. Apoc. 1. 15. Rev. 1. 15. As thus cast down his Head to the Earth Gen. 22. 18. Mat. 26. 39. Mark 14. 35. John 17. 6. 1 Cor. 11. 2. 1 Tim. 2. 8. 2 Tim. 1. 4. Heb. 1. 12. 1 Pet. 1. 20. 1 Pet. 3. 15. 1 Pet. 4. 1. 1 Pet. 5. 6. 1 Pet. 5. 12. 2 Pet. 1. 18. 2 Pet. 3. 18. 1 John 1. 9. 1 John 2. 1. 1 John 2. 27. 1 John 3. 21. 1 John 3. 22. 1 John 4. 19. 1 John 4. 20. 1 John 4. 21. 1 John 4. 22. 1 John 4. 23. 1 John 4. 24. 1 John 5. 1. 1 John 5. 2. 1 John 5. 3. 1 John 5. 4. 1 John 5. 5. 1 John 5. 6. 1 John 5. 7. 1 John 5. 8. 1 John 5. 9. 1 John 5. 10. 1 John 5. 11. 1 John 5. 12. 1 John 5. 13. 1 John 5. 14. 1 John 5. 15. 1 John 5. 16. 1 John 5. 17. 1 John 5. 18. 1 John 5. 19. 1 John 5. 20. 1 John 5. 21. 1 John 5. 22. 1 John 5. 23. 1 John 5. 24. 1 John 5. 25. 1 John 5. 26. 1 John 5. 27. 1 John 5. 28. 1 John 5. 29. 1 John 5. 30. 1 John 5. 31. 1 John 5. 32. 1 John 5. 33. 1 John 5. 34. 1 John 5. 35. 1 John 5. 36. 1 John 5. 37. 1 John 5. 38. 1 John 5. 39. 1 John 5. 40. 1 John 5. 41. 1 John 5. 42. 1 John 5. 43. 1 John 5. 44. 1 John 5. 45. 1 John 5. 46. 1 John 5. 47. 1 John 5. 48. 1 John 5. 49. 1 John 5. 50. 1 John 5. 51. 1 John 5. 52. 1 John 5. 53. 1 John 5. 54. 1 John 5. 55. 1 John 5. 56. 1 John 5. 57. 1 John 5. 58. 1 John 5. 59. 1 John 5. 60. 1 John 5. 61. 1 John 5. 62. 1 John 5. 63. 1 John 5. 64. 1 John 5. 65. 1 John 5. 66. 1 John 5. 67. 1 John 5. 68. 1 John 5. 69. 1 John 5. 70. 1 John 5. 71. 1 John 5. 72. 1 John 5. 73. 1 John 5. 74. 1 John 5. 75. 1 John 5. 76. 1 John 5. 77. 1 John 5. 78. 1 John 5. 79. 1 John 5. 80. 1 John 5. 81. 1 John 5. 82. 1 John 5. 83. 1 John 5. 84. 1 John 5. 85. 1 John 5. 86. 1 John 5. 87. 1 John 5. 88. 1 John 5. 89. 1 John 5. 90. 1 John 5. 91. 1 John 5. 92. 1 John 5. 93. 1 John 5. 94. 1 John 5. 95. 1 John 5. 96. 1 John 5. 97. 1 John 5. 98. 1 John 5. 99. 1 John 5. 100. 1 John 5. 101. 1 John 5. 102. 1 John 5. 103. 1 John 5. 104. 1 John 5. 105. 1 John 5. 106. 1 John 5. 107. 1 John 5. 108. 1 John 5. 109. 1 John 5. 110. 1 John 5. 111. 1 John 5. 112. 1 John 5. 113. 1 John 5. 114. 1 John 5. 115. 1 John 5. 116. 1 John 5. 117. 1 John 5. 118. 1 John 5. 119. 1 John 5. 120. 1 John 5. 121. 1 John 5. 122. 1 John 5. 123. 1 John 5. 124. 1 John 5. 125. 1 John 5. 126. 1 John 5. 127. 1 John 5. 128. 1 John 5. 129. 1 John 5. 130. 1 John 5. 131. 1 John 5. 132. 1 John 5. 133. 1 John 5. 134. 1 John 5. 135. 1 John 5. 136. 1 John 5. 137. 1 John 5. 138. 1 John 5. 139. 1 John 5. 140. 1 John 5. 141. 1 John 5. 142. 1 John 5. 143. 1 John 5. 144. 1 John 5. 145. 1 John 5. 146. 1 John 5. 147. 1 John 5. 148. 1 John 5. 149. 1 John 5. 150. 1 John 5. 151. 1 John 5. 152. 1 John 5. 153. 1 John 5. 154. 1 John 5. 155. 1 John 5. 156. 1 John 5. 157. 1 John 5. 158. 1 John 5. 159. 1 John 5. 160. 1 John 5. 161. 1 John 5. 162. 1 John 5. 163. 1 John 5. 164. 1 John 5. 165. 1 John 5. 166. 1 John 5. 167. 1 John 5. 168. 1 John 5. 169. 1 John 5. 170. 1 John 5. 171. 1 John 5. 172. 1 John 5. 173. 1 John 5. 174. 1 John 5. 175. 1 John 5. 176. 1 John 5. 177. 1 John 5. 178. 1 John 5. 179. 1 John 5. 180. 1 John 5. 181. 1 John 5. 182. 1 John 5. 183. 1 John 5. 184. 1 John 5. 185. 1 John 5. 186. 1 John 5. 187. 1 John 5. 188. 1 John 5. 189. 1 John 5. 190. 1 John 5. 191. 1 John 5. 192. 1 John 5. 193. 1 John 5. 194. 1 John 5. 195. 1 John 5. 196. 1 John 5. 197. 1 John 5. 198. 1 John 5. 199. 1 John 5. 200. 1 John 5. 201. 1 John 5. 202. 1 John 5. 203. 1 John 5. 204. 1 John 5. 205. 1 John 5. 206. 1 John 5. 207. 1 John 5. 208. 1 John 5. 209. 1 John 5. 210. 1 John 5. 211. 1 John 5. 212. 1 John 5. 213. 1 John 5. 214. 1 John 5. 215. 1 John 5. 216. 1 John 5. 217. 1 John 5. 218. 1 John 5. 219. 1 John 5. 220. 1 John 5. 221. 1 John 5. 222. 1 John 5. 223. 1 John 5. 224. 1 John 5. 225. 1 John 5. 226. 1 John 5. 227. 1 John 5. 228. 1 John 5. 229. 1 John 5. 230. 1 John 5. 231. 1 John 5. 232. 1 John 5. 233. 1 John 5. 234. 1 John 5. 235. 1 John 5. 236. 1 John 5. 237. 1 John 5.

And he died there. This was a Part of the Prayers collected from the B. meetings, and was given out at the Anniversary of the P. Priests, Dec. 8. 1766. It was the same as that which was in the Evangelical Magazine delivered to him by an G. D. at the same time, wherein he and the other P. Priests add, Ps. 136. 2. Ps. 136. vi. 24. And some think he said that verse, Ps. 136. 2.

pronounced the Bl. fruit to rank as one of the "Bl. frs." which supplied, from T. J. xx. 29, to have food upon the ground.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto all the people.

As Mr. G. had been appointed to Take care of the Congregation,
It being now about the Time of the Evening Sacrifice, he went into the Sanctuary to burn Incense upon the Golden Altar according to the Law, Levit. xvi. 13. and xxv. 6. &c. &c. with him, to instruct him, in likely, how to perform the other Parts of his Service, which were to be done only in the holy Place.

And came out, and I . . . (Ps. 137: 7) They came out, and both of them together pronounced this Prayer, or Benediction, upon the People. And we may suppose, that immediately upon their pronouncing that Part of the Benediction, The Lord made his Face to look upon them—the Lord kept on Countenance against them, Num. vi. 25. the Divine Glory appeared.

And the Glory of the Lord appeared.] That Glory which filled the Tabernacle, Exod. xl. 35. now appeared without, and shone upon all the People with a splendid and most delightful Brightness.

24 And there came a fire out from before the Lord, and consumed upon the altar the burnt-offering, and the fat: when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

And there came a Fire out from before the Lord.] That Glory which now appeared unto them sent out Flashes of Fire, which burnt up the Sacrifice. See on Ch. x. 2. This celestial Fire the Priests are ordered to keep always burning upon the Altar, Lev. vi. 13. and it is said to have lasted till the Time of Solomon, when GOD sent Fire anew from Heaven, to consume the Sacrifices which he offered at the Dedication of the Temple. And that again is said to have been preserved till the Destruction of that first Temple.

And there came a Fire out from before the Lord.] This betokened GOD's Acceptance, Judges vi. 21. xiii. 23. Hence that Expression, Ps. xxi. 3. Remember all his Offering, and accept (Heb. turn to Ache) his Burnt-Sacrifice. It seems most natural and easy to take this Burnt-Offering, and its Fat, for the Evening Sacrifice, which concluding the Work of the Day, GOD gave a special Token of his Acceptance of all the other Sacrifices, by continuing this. And likewise publicly testified his Approbation of the Ministry of Aaron, whose Authority was hereby established by Miracle. In the same Manner was the Place of Worship dedicated in the Time of David, 1 Chron. xvi. 26. Thus also was the Temple of Solomon dedicated by Fire from Heaven, 2 Chron. vii. 1. And this was the Authority of Elijah, to restore the true Religion, Malachi i. 10. xii. 18.

When all the people saw, they shouted.] They shouted for Joy, as the Word properly signifies, lifting up their Voices to GOD, in exultation of Praise, as they did when the Fire came down at the Consecration of Solomon's Temple. When the People saw it they praised the Lord, saying, For he is good, for his Mercy endureth for ever, 2 Chron. vii. 3.

And fell on their Faces.] Prostrated themselves before GOD with awful Veneration. Thus religious Fear was intermingled with then Joy, such as is described, Psal. ii. 11.

C H A P. X.

1 Nadab and Abihu, for offering of strange fire, are burnt by fire: 6 Aaron and his sons are forbidden to mourn for them. 8 The priests are forbidden when they are to go into the tabernacle. 12 The law of eating the holy things. 16 Aaron's excuse for transgressing them.

AND Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the Lord, which he commanded them not.

And Nadab and Abihu, the Sons of Aaron.] He had other Sons, but these were his two eldest, Exod. vi. 23.

Took either of them his Censer.] Censer, that is, a certain Vessel in which they put Coals of Fire for burning Incense. This is supposed to have happened on the last Day of their Consecration, when Fire came down from Heaven, Ch. ix. 24. Their Fault was, that they offered Incense with what is here called strange Fire; i. e. common Fire; or Fire not taken from the Altar. Thus Incense, which was not such as was prescribed, is called strange Incense, Exod. xxx. 9.

Which he commanded them not.] This is what we call a Mistake, where more is understood than is expressed: It implies not only that they did it of their own proper Motion, without any Command or Authority from GOD, but that they did it against his express Command. In this Sense the Expression is used, Jer. xxii. 35. For though there is no Law extant, prohibiting to offer common Fire, yet it is not to be supposed they would have been condemned to Death, had they not either done something which GOD had expressly forbidden, or omitted what he had expressly commanded. As strange Incense (i. e. other Incense than GOD had appointed) is expressly forbidden, Exod. xxx. 9. so strange Fire is implicitly forbidden Lev. i. vi. 12. as afterwards GOD sheweth, Lev. xvi. 12. It is not easy to say whence two such excellent Persons, who had the Honour to be with GOD upon the Mount, Exod. xxiv. 1. 9. 12. could be guilty of this fatal Error. Some think they had drank too liberally at the Feast upon the Peace-Offerings, which made them forget themselves; because of the Prohibition against drinking Wine, or strong Liquor, which rendered by fall the Relation of this Event, Lev. x.

2 And there went out fire from the Lord, and devoured them, and they died before the Lord.

There went out Fire—and devoured them.] Not reduced then Bodies to Ashes, as the Word signifies in the End of the foregoing Chapter, but struck them dead in a Moment, as with Lightning; for their Vestments remained entire, Lev. x. 5. To take off from our Surprize at this great Severity, let it be considered, that the wisest Legislators have always judged it necessary to inflict a heavy Punishment upon the first Transgressors of a Law, especially in Cases of great Moment, in order to deter others from the like Offence. Had this first Irregularity been connived at in the inferior Priests, it might have emboldened them, and much more the High-Priests, to introduce further and more important Innovations, to the total Subversion of established Order and Decency.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

This awful Stroke having wounded Aaron with deep Anguish, Moses endeavours to allay his Sorrows, by representing to him how very faulty his two Sons had been, and how agreeable their Punishment was to the Wisdom of the Divine Government, and what good Ends it might serve.

The Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me.] To sanctify, or to consecrate to GOD, is in Scripture Language, to perform those Acts of Piety and Devotion which by the Mind abstracted from the World, and fixed in such, and immediate Attention upon GOD. Now this being the great Privilege and Duty of the Priests, hence they, in a peculiar Manner, are mentioned as the Men who draw near to GOD, Ex. xix. 22. Num. xvi. 5. Besides, they approached nearer than others to the most holy Place, where GOD was peculiarly present. See Ex. xlii. 13. Now had they who were to be Leaders to the People, and shew them an Example, been licensed to violate the sacred Institutions of Divine Worship, what would it to others have done? Therefore GOD declares he would, in a special Manner, be sanctified by them. Though we nowhere read these very Words which Moses ascribes to GOD, yet we have the Sense of them, Ex. xix. 22. Let the Priests which come near to the Lord sanctify themselves, lest the Lord break forth upon them. Or we may understand the Words to have been delivered by GOD to Moses at this very Time, to satisfy him of the Reason of inflicting so signal a Severity. It is to shew that he will be sanctified, or had in Reverence by them that come nigh him. They then only sanctified and glorified GOD when they dispensed to his People, as Parts of his Religion, what he had commanded: But when they varied from it, and performed what he commanded not, then they assumed to themselves a Power that belonged not to them, then they acted of themselves; and so, instead of glorifying GOD, sought their own Glory.

One great End and Purpose of the Laws which GOD gave to the Israelites was, to bring them back to that original State which Man was designed for, and which he can alone be made happy by, viz. a hearkening to the Word and Directions of GOD, instead of following his own Imaginations. As not hearkening to the Words of GOD, was the Beginning of Error and Misery to Man, so has it continued ever since, and Man is ever propense to it. It seems therefore to have been highly necessary, and entirely agreeable to that infinite Wisdom with which GOD governs, that this first hearkening to their own Imaginations in the People, which he had vouchsafed to give peculiar Laws to, should be thus signally punished, it possible to deter them from that which would most certainly in the End corrupt all his most wise Laws, and render ineffectual all his gracious Designs towards them. Alas! what sad Errors have Mankind drawn from the Holy Scriptures themselves, by joining their own Imaginations to the Word of GOD! Ah! wretched Blindness and Self-Opinion! we wrest even these Treasures of all Knowledge, and all Truth, to our Destruction: We come not to them, to be solely directed by them in all Things, but to support our own Imaginations. We cannot be content with what they say to us, but must needs join something to them of our own. If we would indeed diligently and strictly keep to what is enjoined in them, without turning therefrom to the Right Hand or to the Left, or without adding to the Word which is commanded, or diminishing ought from it; then indeed we should soon see that they contain all that is true, all that is just, all that is wise, all that is lovely, all that is pure, all that is able to build us up unto SALVATION.

Before all the People I will be glorified.] I will vindicate the Honour of my Laws by inflicting Punishment upon the Transgressors of them, Ezek. xlviii. 22. We glorify GOD when we think and speak of him with pious Awe and Veneration, such as becomes the the Glory and transcendent Excellence of his Nature. Even those who have not yet attained to so much of the Love of Religion as to glorify GOD out of Love and final Duty, are yet led by the Force of Bondage, and Motives of Fear, or servile Fear, to glorify his Power, and dread the Violation of his Laws. Thus the Men of Bethsemei gave Glory to GOD, when they saw some Thousands smote with Death, for profanely looking into the Ark; and they said, How shall we stand before our holy Lord GOD? See 1 Sam. vi. 19.

And Aaron beheld. [His Reverence of the Duty made him submissive and resigned to the divine Will. He silently adored the divine Providence in this awful Dispensation, without Murmuring or Complaint; being satisfied that GOD had a wise and good Design in executing this Judgment upon his Son. Ps. xxix. 9. Or he was struck dumb with Grief, for Grief is sometimes too big for Utterance. Thus extraordinary Sorrow is best expressed by Silence, Lam. ii. 10. Ps. xlviii. 5.

4 And Moses called Mishal and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

Come near, carry your Brethren. i. e. Your Kinsmen; for all near Kindred are called Brethren in scripture. Without this special Order these two Persons could not have been admitted into the Sanctuary, being not of the Family of the Priests. Moses calls them to this Office, not the Sons of Aaron, who would have been defiled by touching the Dead, and so unfit for serving at the Altar, Ch. xvi. 12.

Out of the Camp. According to the Manner of burying in ancient Times; which was not performed in Cities, or in the Midst of dwelling Places, but in Caves and Places of Retirement in the Fields.

5 So they went near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.

And carried them in their Coats out, &c. In their linen Vestments wherein they ministered; which being defiled by their Carcasses, were no longer fit to be used in Divine Service.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar his sons, Uncover not your heads, neither rend your clothes; lest you die, and lest wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled.

And Moses said unto Aaron, and—his Sons, uncover not your Heads, i. e. Use not the Habit and Gesture of Mourners.

Neither rend your Cloaths; Which was another Rite of Mourning, not only among the  Jews, but among almost all People in ancient Times. The Design of this Prohibition seems to have been, to teach them that the Service of GOD was not to be interrupted by any human Accidents or Customs. Besides, it being esteemed indecent in those Countries for Mourners to come into the Presence of their Kings, (as appears by the History of Ezra, Ch. iv. 2.) it would have appeared unbecomly for those who attended upon the Divine Majesty to be seen in such a Habit.

And lest Wrath come upon all the People; Not that the People were to be punished, or incur the Divine Displeasure for the Error of their Priests; but the Meaning is, that this would be a great Misfortune to the People, that they should suffer greatly by the Loss of their Priests, who were to bless them, and teach them, and make Atonement for their Sins.

7 And ye shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest you die: for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

For the anointing Oil of the Lord is upon you. You are devoted and consecrated by a solemn Unction, Ch. viii. 12. to the Service of GOD, and of the Publick; which must not be omitted, out of Respect to any Person whatsoever. The Ministers of Religion ought to consider that this Law is still binding upon them as to the Spirit and Intention of it. They ought to be so heavenly-minded, of such elevated Affections, as to maintain an unbroken manly Fortitude, amidst all the Calamities and Afflictions, both private and publick, which are incident to Humanity in its present State. Though Religion does not require that they should divest themselves entirely of their Passions, yet they ought to be an Example to others how to moderate those Passions, and keep them within due Bounds; especially they must not be so swallowed up with the Sorrows of the World, as to incapacitate themselves for discharging their Duty to GOD.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying, Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it is a statute for ever throughout your generations.

This was a just Obligation, as was observed in the Ministry of Isaac and Benjamin, who were to be sober and temperate, and to abstain from strong drink, as is expressed in the Book of Judges. And therefore, it was one of the Levitical Laws, that the Priests were to be sober and temperate, and to abstain from strong drink, as is expressed in the Book of Leviticus. And this was a just Obligation, as was observed in the Ministry of Isaac and Benjamin, who were to be sober and temperate, and to abstain from strong drink, as is expressed in the Book of Judges. And this was a just Obligation, as was observed in the Ministry of Isaac and Benjamin, who were to be sober and temperate, and to abstain from strong drink, as is expressed in the Book of Judges.

But the learned Dr. Maimonides observes, that the Heart sinking within him upon what was said in Lev. x. 9. he would have taken some various Pretext, to support his party against the Load of Sin, that now pressed upon him; and that this occasioned the Commotion and new Variation; and there seems to be some Reason for this. Ch. x. 9. may observe it is immediately and directly added to the former.

10 And that ye may put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean.

11 And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

Here is the Reason of the Precept, that preserving their Minds from being clouded, as Acad's and Abel's were, who put no Difference between holy and common Fire, they might both be able themselves to teach holy Things with a due Distinction, and also to teach the People how to behave in the Worship of GOD.

12 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar his sons that were left. Take the meat-offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it is most holy.

And Moses spake unto Aaron—take the Meat-Offering, &c. Moses being apprehensive that Aaron, in the Contusion of his Grief for the Loss of his two Sons, might be apt to forget, or omit some Part of his Duty, here puts him in Mind of it; repeating to him the Order about eating the Remains of the Meat-Offering, Ch. vi. 15, 17. and about the Shoulder and Breast, Ch. vii. 31, 32. The former of which the Priests alone might eat, and that in the holy Place only; the other might be eaten in any decent Place by them and their Families.

13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due and thy sons due of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded.

In the holy Place. i. e. In the Court of the Tabernacle. See on Ch. vi. 16.

14 And the wave-breast, and heave-shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace-offerings of the children of Israel.

15 The heave-shoulder, and the wave-breast shall they bring, with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave-offering before the LORD, and it shall be thine, and thy sons with thee, by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

16 ¶ And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin-offering, and behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron, which were left alive, saying,

And Moses diligently sought the Goat of the Sin-Offering. Which had been offered for the People, Ch. ix. 15.

“ tion he has laid upon us, though the Reasons for it may always,
“ be very obvious ; for this would surely incline us, by Act or “ implicit Obedience, to secure to ourselves Happiness, and “ Health.

But that I may let the Test-stages occurring to the Child in of trial from these Prohibitions in a stronger Light, I shall make the following Observations on the Foods they were forbid to use, with this farther Remark, that in us, even in our cold Climate, would commonly be Rules laid down by the wise Legislator of the Yam; Languors would be more frequent among us, as we should be much more subject to be affected by epidemical Distempers, and acute Diarrhoea of all Sorts, which carry off at least two thirds of Mankind. Nor would chronic and Affections perhaps be so terrible, and difficult to conquer, as they are at present.

“ It must be remembered, that the Climate the Children of “ Israel lived in was very hot; and that therefore every Species of “ Aliment which is improper to be eaten in our Climate, on Ac“ count of its Tendency to an excessive Putrefaction, was much “ more pernicious in the warm Country inhabited by the Israelites.

" The Animals torbiden the Feet were Bled. This ex" tremely subject to an alkaline Putrefaction, and the Juices " formed from it are highly acidulent, and subject to putridy.
 " For the same Reason, all Animals whatever, killed without be" ing suffered to bleed sufficiently, are improper Food. It is well " known to common Observers, that the more succulent and " juicy the Flesh of Animals is, the more subject it is to Putre" faction.

" If an Animal has been heated by hunting, there Remains a further Reason to let it bleed, in order to let in the Tendency to Putrefaction it acquires by exertion and Heat; and thus we find it directed, Loc. xvii. 13.

"Animals which die of themselves are unwholesome, both as "they do not bleed, and as their Juices are generally in an ac"tual State of Putrefaction, or near it, before they die. And "we find the Flesh of such Animals rotten in the above quoted
 "Chapter, ver. 15."

He then goes on to shew the Unwholeness of the several Animals here forbidden; and, as his Remarks are both curious and solid, we have inserted them in the following Exposition under their respective Heads.

3 Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is cloven-footed, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that shall ye eat.

Whatever parteth the Hoof, and is cloven footed, &c.) There are not assigned as Reasons why such and such Animals are proper Food, but only as Marks whereby to distinguish them. In some Animals the Hoofs are solid, and not at all divided, as Horses, Asses, and Mules; others are divided into several Parts, like Trees, as Lions, Wolves, Dogs, of which Moses speaks Gen. 27. a third Sort are cloven, or divided into two Parts, as Oxen, Deer, Sheep, Goats, &c. These last are of two Kind, for in some the Hoof is divided, but not cloven quite through, as the Camel, in other it is both parted and cloven, which are therefore allowed by this Law to be clean Creatures.

The Author of the Medit and Dietary observes, that under his Prohibition (namely, of Beasts which do not both divide the hoof and chew the Cud) are included all Beasts, or Pigs, and hogs which eat Flesh, whose Juices are highly acidulent, for many Reasons. All Animals of the Bird, and Fish Kind, are likewise here prohibited. And we find that the Flesh of all these is difficult to be digested and dissolved by the vital Powers, and that the Juices are rank and acidulent, perhaps, because they are frequently heated by the habitual Exercise they are obliged to do for the Service of Man.

And whereas the Cud among the Rapt. [c.] Such are Oxen, Sheep and Goats, which for Want of the upper Fore-teeth cannot chew their Food perfectly at once; nor can the Stomach make a perfect Digestion till it be ground a second Time. And therefore such Creatures are provided with a double Stomach; an upper, into which the Food goes down after the first Chewing; and another, into which it is sent after it hath been grinded a second Time. Such Animals as chew the Cud are less and more wholesome, because they grind and digest their Food better, and consequently yield a lighter and more nutritious Food than others.

4 Nevertheless, these shall ye not eat, of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof : as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof ; he is unclean unto you.

any of the forementioned Marks were wanting, such Creatures might be eaten; for the Laws of moral and unchangeable obligation must still take Place of those which are positive and hence, according to the theorem of the preceding section,  $H_j$  is a  $\mathfrak{U}_j$ -b.

[illegible]

5 And the cory, becauf he cleav'd the shield, but discometh not the foot: he is thus an an' o' foot.

And the Com<sup>ly</sup> H<sup>ly</sup> Scaphium. I don't doubt that we call fire the Word in it. It's not clear that it's a species of Rat, somewhat between a Gnu and a Rat, which lives both in Egypt and Peru. This Animal acts in the same manner here given, for it chews the Cud, but it's not the Cud, is frequent in those Countries, and dwells in rocky places, as the Gnu, chews not the Cud, but not the R<sup>at</sup> as the as Scaphium does, P<sup>l</sup>. civ. 18. P<sup>l</sup>. cv. 18. The animal is not Ground; and what is still the case, it's not clear to have been anciently known, but it's not clear to Spain. Now as the penitence of the Scaphium is that Juice must be cut quarterly, much more so Purification, and the more their flesh must be unwholen.

6 And the hare, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof: he is unclean unto you.

Lepus Hircus is only found in the East. The Hare is not so common, probably because he is a Ruminant, and the stomachs of these Animals have much more to do with the Food, than the Hare has only the Stomach, and cloven Hoof. It is agreed that the original Word Lepus is rightly sent of the Hare, and thus the Jews and Arabs it, who bestowed the name on it, as we learn from Picturæ. The Hare is remarkable for being extremely timorous, and this makes it use a great deal of Exercise, by Way of Precaution, when it goes to look for Food, and at the Approach of any Danger, either real or imaginary. This habitual Exercise probably contributes to the Excretion of the Salts. We find in Effect that the Hare has a very high Taste, even in our cold Climate; and this high Taste may, in a manner, be an Evidence, that the Animal Flesh which gives it is strongly inclined to an alkaline Putrefaction.

7 And the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be cloven-footed; yet he cheweth not the cud: he is unclean to you.

[At the same, &c.] This Article is remarkable for its tone, and feeling on all manner of Ordure, even Caricature itself. Thus Way; and therefore, a Scandalising in the Min. is set forth as an Emblem of Impurity, by Writers sacred and profane, Eccl. iii. 22.

And Mammalia alleges its Filthiness was the chief Reason of its Flesh being prohibited. Ughas adds another, that it was apt to breed the Leprosy, a Dileite incident to those Countries. The same, says the Author of the Medicinal Dictionary, is the only Animal in the Creation subject to the Leprosy; and also something very like what we call the King's Evil, called in Zanzibar Sereja, from Sereja a Sow. The Measles is another filthy and contagious Disease, which this Animal is often infected with. In this Distemper all the fleshy Parts are full of numerous little round, white, and hard Substances, somewhat like small Stones. Hence it must appear to every reasonable Observer, that the Flesh of this Beast, as an Aliment, must be highly improper for People subject to Leprosies, as the few appear to have been, and who were Inhabitants of a warm Climate, which is every Thing more inclinable to Putrefaction. And, notwithstanding these Considerations, this Animal's Way of living is lazy and unactive, and the Flesh is continually rising upon plainly shews, that its Flesh is full of vicious and gross Juices, fit to produce Humours of the same Nature in those who eat it.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcass shall ye not touch: they are unclean to you.

9. ¶ These shall ye eat, of all that are in the water: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the water, in the seas, and in the rivers; them shall ye eat.

10. And all that have not fins nor scales in the seas, and in the river, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing, which is in the waters, they shall be an abomination unto you:

And the Fishes without Fins nor Scales—shall be an Abomination unto you. These are what medicinal Writers call Piscines, the soft kind of Fish. And all Sorts of Fish are very subject to an acidine Putrefaction, so those without Scales incline sooner and more to Putrefaction, than those furnished with Scales; and still Fish most of all. And it may be laid down as a certain Rule, that of all Sorts of Animals, whether terrestrial or aquatic, those which putrefy soonest incline the Juices of our Bodies more to Putrefaction, when used as Food, and so are least fit for Aliment.

11. They shall be even an abomination unto you: ye shall not eat of their Flesh, but you shall have their carcases in abomination.

12. Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

13. ¶ And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls, they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the osprey,

And these are they which ye shall have in Abomination among the Fowls. Next, as to Fowls and Birds of several Species, all such as are rapacious, and live upon Prey, as the Eagle and several kinds, Hawks, Kites, Vultures, Ravens, &c. are forbidden, seemingly upon a moral as well as natural Account, their Flesh being neither so good in itself as that of others, nor so fit to be used by a Society that was consecrated to GOD, and professed greater Innocency, Justice, and Purity, than the Rest of the World. Dr. James observes, that all these Fowls are highly acidine, and so more inclined to Putrefaction, both as they are Birds of Prey, and as their habitual Exercise is great.

The Eagle. Whose Flesh is hard, and whose Nature is very rapacious. Origen is of Opinion, that Moses prohibited the Eagle, the Hawk, and some other Birds, to be eaten by the Israelites, because they were employed by the Egyptians and other Nations in their Divination; that so he might guard them against the idolatrous Worshipping of them, it being absurd to worship an unclean Beast.

The Osprey. From the Latin Osprey, a Kind of Eagle, so called from breaking the Bones of its Prey, which it does by carrying them up on high, and then letting them fall down upon a Rock.

The Osprey. Another kind of Eagle, the same with the Haliaetus, or Sea-Eagle, as it is here rendered by the LXX. Beheret think it rather means the Melanotus, or black Eagle, which Homer mentions, Il. xvi. 252. as the strongest and swiftest of Birds.

14. And the vulture, and the kite after his kind:

The Vulture, and the Kite. Known Birds of Prey. Beheret takes the Word Aya, which we render a Vulture, to be a Kind of Hawk, the same which the Ancients called Ayalus, a Bird celebrated for its Sharp-sightedness, Job. xxxviii. 36.

15. Every raven after his kind:

Every Raven. All Interpreters agree that the Hebrew Word Gareb, signifies a Raven, from Gareb, the Evening, so called on Account of its Color.

16. And the owl, and the night-hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,

And the Owl. The original Word signifies a Bird which inhabits solitary and desolate Places, as appears from Is. xlii. 21. xxvii. 13. and Jer. l. 35. which Description agrees well to the Owl.

And the Night-hawk. Beheret takes the Hebrew Word Athachmas, which we translate Night-hawk, for the Male Osprey; for the Word signifies impetus or persecution, being derived from chamas to debauch, which remark belongs to the Osprey, a Creature intemperately unattracted to its Eggs and Young, Job. xxxix. 14.

And the Cuckow. According to the LXX and Vulgate a Daffer, or Sea-mew; which I translate a Daffer, &c.

The Hawk. The Hebrew Word Ay, signifies a Hawk, as appears from Is. lvi. 9. rendering the Hebrew Word Ay, a Hawk, as it is here rendered. One knows there are various kinds of Hawks. Pliny mentions a Hawk no bigger than a term, &c. &c.

17. And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,

And the little Owl. The Hebrew Word Ay, signifies a Hawk, as appears from Is. lvi. 9. rendering the Hebrew Word Ay, a Hawk, as it is here rendered. One knows there are various kinds of Hawks. Pliny mentions a Hawk no bigger than a term, &c. &c.

The Cormorant. The Hebrew Word Ay, signifies a Hawk, as appears from Is. lvi. 9. rendering the Hebrew Word Ay, a Hawk, as it is here rendered. One knows there are various kinds of Hawks. Pliny mentions a Hawk no bigger than a term, &c. &c.

The great Owl. The LXX and Vulgate render it the Hebrew Word Ay, which is a Hawk, as appears from Is. lvi. 9. rendering the Hebrew Word Ay, a Hawk, as it is here rendered. One knows there are various kinds of Hawks. Pliny mentions a Hawk no bigger than a term, &c. &c.

18. And the swan, and the pelican, and the great eagle.

And the Swan. The Hebrew Word Tam, signifies a Hawk, as appears from Is. lvi. 9. rendering the Hebrew Word Tam, a Hawk, as it is here rendered. One knows there are various kinds of Hawks. Pliny mentions a Hawk no bigger than a term, &c. &c.

And the Pelican. With this Verse in the LXX agrees the Hebrew Word Kan, which is a Hawk, as appears from Is. lvi. 9. rendering the Hebrew Word Kan, a Hawk, as it is here rendered. One knows there are various kinds of Hawks. Pliny mentions a Hawk no bigger than a term, &c. &c.

And the Great Eagle. Of Isaiah's Eagle, for Isaiah is a Hawk, as appears from Is. lvi. 9. rendering the Hebrew Word Isaiah, a Hawk, as it is here rendered. One knows there are various kinds of Hawks. Pliny mentions a Hawk no bigger than a term, &c. &c.

19. And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

And the Stork. Heb. Clafus, which in part signifies a Hawk, as appears from Is. lvi. 9. rendering the Hebrew Word Clafus, a Hawk, as it is here rendered. One knows there are various kinds of Hawks. Pliny mentions a Hawk no bigger than a term, &c. &c.

The Heron. The Hebrew Word is Amur, which Beheret takes to be a Kind of Eagle, the same that the Greeks call Amur, as appears from Is. lvi. 9. rendering the Hebrew Word Amur, a Hawk, as it is here rendered. One knows there are various kinds of Hawks. Pliny mentions a Hawk no bigger than a term, &c. &c.

The Lapwing. So the Word is rendered by the LXX and Vulgate Version. Which Rendering Beheret thinks the most probable. The Lapwing is a Bird which perpetually on the Wing, and which feeds on Insects. The Flesh is of a very high Taste, and near to a State of Putrefaction.

And the Bat. Moses begins his Catalogue of Birds with the noblest, and ends it with the vilest, which is a Bat; an Animal of a dubious Kind, between a Bird and a Mole. It feeds on Insects, as Dr. James observes, and so is improper Food for the Inhabitants of very warm Climates.

20. All fowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

All Fowls that creep. The Word signifies any Animal or Reptile Creature, especially of the Reptile or Insect Kind, as appears from Is. lvi. 9. rendering the Hebrew Word Amur, a Hawk, as it is here rendered. One knows there are various kinds of Hawks. Pliny mentions a Hawk no bigger than a term, &c. &c.

21 Yet tuck may ye eat of every flying creature thing that goeth upon a foot, which hee keep above their feet, to leap withall upon the earth.

W. white-legged (cf. F. longicauda). This is a description of the lower series, which four smaller ones have two larger ones, by means whereof they breed.

22 Then each of them ye may call the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind.

The Large Indian Rat.—The Big Indian Wood Rat is sometimes a common Name for all Locusts, but here signifies a peculiar Sort of them. The Name (from Rata, import. a Multitude, no Animal being more prolific.

the End-Lough]. The Hebrew Word is Sellam, which in the Glossary imports a Converse. As it is not easy to determine what Species of Locust this is, nor has it any Name in modern Languages, it might be better, in a Translation, to retain the original Name.

The Beetle.] The Hebrew, Hargol, is in the Opinion of good Critics not fully translated a Beetle, for none ever eat Beetles; nor are they four-footed, with Legs to leap withal. It is rather to be taken for another Sort of Locusts unknown to us. Beetles derives it from the Hebrew HARGALA, to march or a Leg Tramp: which is very applicable to the C. Infest, whose Armies cover the Country sometimes for twelve or fifteen Miles.

The Chrysomelids {Chrysomelidae}. The Hebrew Chayim is another Species of Locust. Chayim derives it from the Arabic Chayim, because they fly in such swarms as sometimes to enrich, or darken the Soil. But how to distinguish this Locust from the other, no easy Matter. Ludolphus says, Hargel hath a Black on its Back, and a Tail, Ardeh hath neither, Sellam hath a Black but no Tail, and Chageb a Tail but no Black. It is evident, that before our Saviour's Time these several kinds of Locusts were well known, since John the Baptist had no other Diet but Locust and wild Honey.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcase of them, shall be unclean until the even.

For they ye shall be unclean,] If they did either eat of them, or so much as touch the Carcase of them, they were not for that Day to come into the Tabernacle, to eat of any holy Thing, nor to converse freely with their Neighbour.

Until the Even.] i. e. Such Persons shall keep apart by themselves, all that Day; for their Day began in the Evening. See on Gen. i. 5. It appears from the following Verse, that as a Sign of their legal Uncleanneſs, they were to bathe in Water, which was the usual Rite of Purification in ſuch Caſes.

25 And whosoever beareth touch of the carcase of them, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

26 The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not cloven-footed, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them, shall be unclean.

The Carcasses of every Beast, &c.—are unclean.] They were prohibited to touch their dead Carcasses, but not to touch their Bodies when alive; for they used Camels, Horses, Asses, &c. for necessary service. See ver. 31.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts, that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whose toucheth their carcase, shall be unclean until the even.

Whatsoever goeth upon his Paws—these are unclean.] The same Rule to hold for such Creatures as have Feet somewhat resembling Hands. For so it is in the Hebrews, whatsoever goeth upon his Hands, as Apes, Lions, Bears, Dogs, Cats, &c.

28 And he that beareth the carcase of them, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean unto you.

29 ¶ These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth: the

What I, and the people, and I, are doing is to build.

1. Improvement of the system of the 10 formation of the

[illegible]

1. Chlorophyll a and Chlorophyll b were determined by the method of Arar and Collins (1971).

The first of these is the Journal of the American Medical Association, which has been the most influential of the medical journals in the United States. A Journal of the American Medical Association article is a highly visible endorsement, with which Health Affairs has been associated since its inception. The Journal of the American Medical Association is a highly visible journal, and its endorsement went to a great deal of effort.

30 And the fiver, and the claver, and hazard, and the nut, and the red,

And the Forest,] He has also collected the following that Species of Leptodactylus with the Leptodactylus of the Difference that it may be distinguished from the points, which in the present case, and it for the Leptodactylus to the same
Forest, the Leptodactylus of the Leptodactylus.

And the opinion of Acceding to the ancient Interpreters, the Hedra is the Species of Lizard, which is the King of insects, and the most dangerous Creature. He that is bitten by the green Lizard, within Forty days Must, by the old Serpent.

[illegible]

which lies in the North Atlantic, the Neptunia of the Neptunia, which, in the Palmadras, figures the Neptunia.

Verfe we translate a Sorcerer. It is plain that it is a Sort of Fox; as here, in all Probability, it is a Sort of Lizard. Bachart takes it for the Chameleon, and derives the Name from Naphar, to leamble; which agrees well to the Chameleon, that is always going and sucking in the fresh Air; whence some have fancied that it lived upon Air. The learned Author of the Medicinal Dictionary observes, that all these Reptiles are extremely subject to Putrefaction, as are Reptiles of almost every Kind; the smell of them, when putrified, is extremely offensive; and hence we must conclude that Salts to be highly exalted, and their Juices alkalient to a great Degree.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth touch them when they be alive, shall be unclean until the even.

32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or stick, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even; so it shall be cleansed.

Upon relation to any of them above—said "a" will "a" be washed—, i.e. it shall not be used till it be clean, by washing in Water.

33 And every earthen vessel, whereinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and ye shall break it.

Every carbon  $H_2$  molecule reacts on the surface of the catalyst. This is predicted by the kinetic model of the reaction of  $H_2$  and  $CO$ , and, being possible, was put into the kinetic equation.

34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which jiz was a corneth, shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every jiz vessel, shall be unclean.

The authors are grateful to Prof. J. H. Duerksen, University of Alberta, for his critical reading of the manuscript.

is before named, came upon an Meat, which might otherwise be lawfully eaten, it made it unclean also.

35 And every thing, whereupon any part of their carcase falleth, shall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down: for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you.

Ranges for Pots.] The LXX. and most of the ancient Versions, have Chetropides, or Pots with Feet. So Le Clerc, Calmet, and others, translate it simply Pots; and the Reason of the Thing shews that the Word ought to be so rendered: For as the Oven was for Bread, so the Pots were for Flesh; and under these two are comprehended all Vessels wherein they either baked or boiled.

36 Nevertheless, a fountain or pit, wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean: but that which toucheth their carcase, shall be unclean.

Nevertheless a Fountain or Pit, wherein there is Plenty of Water, shall be clean.] What we render Pit, signifies a Cistern; such as were commonly used in those hot Countries for receiving Rain Water. This Exception was a merciful Provision for their speedy cleansing from their legal Pollutions, as well as of general Benefit, considering the Scarcity of Fountains and Rivers in those Countries.

37 And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing-feed which is to be sown; it shall be clean.

But other Grain, not intended for Seed, was made unclean. The Reason of this Difference is plain, because Seed sown went through many Alterations before it could become Food, which took away all the Taint or Pollution.

38 But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon; it shall be unclean unto you.

The Meaning seems to be, if Water be put upon it to prepare it for Food; and so it is distinguished from Seed to be sown.

39 And if any beast of which ye may eat, die; he that toucheth the carcase thereof, shall be unclean until the even.

If any Beast—die.] Viz. of itself, which, doubtless was unwholesome, as having died of some Disease.

40 And he that eateth of the carcase of it, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: he also that beareth the carcase of it, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

If he eat of it ignorantly: for such as did it knowingly were to be cut off. Num. xv. 30.

41 And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, shall be an abomination: it shall not be eaten.

42 Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth; them ye shall not eat, for they are an abomination.

Perhaps Moses prohibits these Insects because some of the neighbouring People used them for Food, as the Phrygians did those called Xylphagi, a kind of Worm breeding in the Bark of Trees, or in rotten Wood, and all of these Kinds are certainly unwholesome.

43 Ye shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby.

Ye shall not defile your Consciences by transgressing these Laws, nor render yourselves abominable in the sight of GOD, who for wise Reasons hath commanded you to abstain from certain Meats, which are used by other Nations.

44 For I am the LORD your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

Sanctify yourselves.] Sanctification here is primarily to be understood not of moral, but ceremonial Purity or Holiness, 2 Sam. vi. 4. But as these ceremonial Institutions were Images of Internal Purity, so the Text may be understood in its ultimate Intention to signify that moral Purification which all who worship a holy GOD are bound to study, in Conformity to that unblemished Model of moral Rectitude. Hence it is applied as a Means to enforce the study of moral Purity upon the Professors of Christianity, As he who hath called you to holiness will in all Manner of Conversation, because it is written, be ye holy, for I am holy, 1 Pet. i. 15, 16. Thus the Passage is understood by the most solid of the Jersey Interpreters. And therefore Martin concludes his Treatise of unclean Meats thus: “The Purity of the Body bringeth one unto the Purity of the Soul; and the Purity of the Soul is a Means to make us like unto GOD; as it is written, be ye holy, for I am holy, and ye shall be holy, for I am holy.” Thus the simple Meaning of the Passage is this; that as the Iews were a People peculiarly devoted to GOD, so they were to be distinguished by a Peculiarity of Diet, which by reminding them of their peculiar Relation to GOD, served emblematically to figure, and as a Sign to put them in Mind of their Obligation to study moral Purity.

45 For I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

For I am the Lord, &c.] I am JEHOVAH your GOD. See on Exod. iii. 15. The Meaning is, “I JEHOVAH, who am distinguished from all other Gods, am your peculiar God: I reign, have separated you from all other Peoples; therefore ye must be holy, i. e. distinguished from all other Nations, by peculiar Manners and Institutions, and especially make a Distinction between Meats clean and unclean in your Diet, that you may know yourselves to be set apart from the other Nations of the World, and shew yourselves to other Nations to be a People peculiarly devoted to GOD.”

That bringeth you up out of the Land of Egypt.] See on Exod. xx. 2.

46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth:

47 To make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten, and the beast that may not be eaten.

C H A P. XII.

1 The purification of a woman after child birth: 6 The offerings for her purifying.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and borne a man-child: then she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean.

This legal Uncleanness may denote the Impurity of our Conception, and our Birth.

3 And in the eighth day, the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

This Circumstance of circumcising the Child on the eighth Day agreed with the Law for all other young Children, which was not fit to be offered to GOD before the eighth Day, Exod. xxii. 30.

4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days: she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the Sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled.

9 ¶ When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest:

When the Plague of Leprosy is in a Man, &c.] i. e. When Symptoms of a Plague of Leprosy are in a Man, &c. If the Priest plainly sees it has reach'd not only the Skin, and changed the Hair, but even into the very Flesh, that he can see the Whiteness there, as well as in the Skin, he shall look upon it as an evident Case, and without shutting him up at Home for further Trial, shall judge it a Leprosy that has been long breeding, and of the worst kind, and accordingly remove the Person out of the Camp, that he may dwell by himself, &c.

10 And the priest shall see him: and behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be quick raw flesh in the rising,

Quick raw Flesh in the Rising.] According to our Version the Meaning is, if the Skin be broken through, so that the quick raw Flesh appear. But quick Flesh, or living Flesh, according to the Hebrew, signifies hard Flesh, or Flesh not corrupted. So the Meaning is, if it had broken through the Skin, and affected the hard Flesh with white Spots. Or rather, as Le Clerc renders it, Though the Flesh appear sound in the Place where the spot is.

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague, from his head even to his foot, where-soever the priest looketh;

13 Then the priest shall consider: and behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.

If the Leprosy have covered all his Flesh.] It may seem pretty strange, that a Man who is all over leproous should be pronounced clean, and yet one who is but partially leproous, be unclean. But the Sense seems to be this; if Whiteness was over all the Body of any one, it was not a Sign of a Leprosy; whereas if only some Parts of the Skin were unusually white, and the rest of the natural Colour, this preternatural Whiteness was to be deemed to arise from a Leprosy, and so became unclean. Thus by the Leprosy covering all the Flesh, is only meant, if the Body was all over white as if a Leprosy had covered the whole Flesh.

It is all turned white, he is clean.] This Sort of Breaking-out was rather a Relief to the Body than a Disease, and there was no Danger in this Eruption; just as among us those who have the Measles or Small-Pox are likely to do well, when they come out every where, but not when they stick in the Skin. The most solid Account of this Matter is, that this Kind of Leprosy which covered all the Body was not infectious, and for that Reason, he who was affected with it is here pronounced clean. In Confirmation of this we are told, that this white or universal Leprosy is not attended with an itching, as in the other Kinds.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

When raw Flesh appeareth in him.] Heb. When living Flesh appeareth in him, i. e. when some of the Flesh appears in its sound and natural State, the rest of the Skin being white. This was a Token of Nature's being unable to throw out all the leproous Humour into the Skin, and of its working inward. Consequently the Person in that State was to be pronounced unclean.

15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy.

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white; he shall come unto the priest:

Or if the raw Flesh turn again, &c.] The Particle or in this Place is plainly adverbial, and ought to be translated and. The Sense is, If those Spots in the Flesh which had for some Time appeared of a vivid ruddy Colour, like that of the Life, or like Flesh in its living natural State; if those vivid Spots shall again turn white, so that the Body shall again become of one Colour, white all over; then the Priest shall pronounce him clean, as in the Case mentioned ver. 13.

17 And the priest shall see him: and behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is clean.

18 ¶ The Bile also, in which, ever in the skin thereof, was a bile, and is healed,

This is another particular Case, when an old Ulcer happened to break out anew, so as to have the Appearance of a Leprosy. If the Part plainly appears to the Priest to have the Symptoms of a Leprosy, viz. a white Ring, or rather a white Spot, together with a white Ring, or rather a white Spot, and at the same Time it is healed, and the Skin is become white, it is then turned to the Leprosy. If the Symptoms were dubious, he was to be counsel'd for a Week upon Suspicion; and then if it kept at a Stand, and gave no further Signs, it was to be judged only a common Ulcer.

19 And in the place of the bile there be a white rising, or a bright spot white, and four what reddish, and it be shewed to the priest;

And in the place of the bile there be a white rising, &c.] The Word white is not only white, but glister. Here the Reducible is white, and the white is the Sense, so that instead of white, or glister, it may be rendered exceeding white, or intensely glistering; which agrees to the Description of the Leprosy in other Places, ver. 10. 2 Kings v. 27. in all which Places the white is said to be white. So ver. 10. But it is said, the white white should be both very white, and exceedingly white.

20 And if when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair there be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the skin.

21 But if the priest look on it, and behold, there be no white hairs there, and it be not lower than the skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days.

22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning bile; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

It is a burning Bile.] Heb. It is the Burning of an Inflammation, i. e. It is the burnt Mark of an Inflammation, which sometimes leaves a white Scar behind it, resembling the Whiteness of a Leprosy.

24 ¶ Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white;

Another Case was that of the Symptoms of a Leprosy appearing in some Part of the Body that had been burnt, or where there had been an Inflammation. The Words in our Version are hardly intelligible. In the Hebrew they run thus: Or when in the Skin of the Flesh there shall have been a Burning of Fire, and the Soundness of the Burning shall be a white bright Spot, whether it be in the Skin or not.

The quick Flesh that burneth.] Heb. The quick Flesh that burneth; i. e. the Place which had been burnt, and is healed; in which Case the Skin used to bear a white Mark.

25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest look on it, and behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days.

27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it a rising of the burning; and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.

It is a Rising of the Burning.] It is so called, because it is a Mark or Sign of the Burning, for when a Burning is healed, it leaves only a Scar, not a Rising or Tumour.

In inflammation of the Burning.] It is a rising of the Burning Mark.

29 ¶ If a man or woman hath a plague upon the head or the beard,

Another Case was the Leprosy in the Head or Beard. The Case of this seems to be that Kind of Disease, which Pier says, came into Leish in the Middle of the Reign of Abimelech, and was called Molechia, because it commonly began in the Chin; and was so filthy, that any Death was preferable to it. In this Sort of Leprosy, Maimonides tells us, the Hair on the Head or Beard fell off by the Roots, and the Place of the Hair remained bare.

30 Then the priest shall see the plague: and behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin, and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard.

Besides the common symptoms afore mentioned, one certain Sign of its being a Leprosy was, that, instead of black Hair, as in other Kinds of this Disease, there was yellow Hair in this, and not so thick as the black.

31 And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague of the scall, seven days.

It ought to be rendered, that there be no black Hair: Hebrew וְאֵין שָׁחַר שְׁחָר. See ver. 55. The Sense is, If the Spot be not deeper than the Skin, and yet other Signs render it suspicious, particularly if the Hair be yellow, so that there remain no black Hair, (for black Hair was a Sign of Soundness, ver. 57) the Case was doubtful, and therefore the Person was to be shut up seven Days for further Tryal. This Explication removes all Appearance of Contradiction between this Verse and Verse 32, where black Hair is mentioned as a Mark of Soundness.

32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not in sight deeper than the skin;

The Priest shall look on the Plague.] So it is called because it had a Resemblance of a Plague of Leprosy.

And behold, if the Scall spread not.] The Nature of the Disease was to spread itself from the Chin all over the Face and other Parts, with a filthy Scurf upon the Skin, which is here called a Scall.

33 He shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave: and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall, seven days more.

The Place where the Scall appeared was not to be shaven; because the Priest was to observe of what Colour it was, and in it was.

34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall: and behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing;

36 Then the priest shall look on him: and behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean.

If after the Scall had been at a Stand a good while, it began to spread much, the Priest was not to look for any other Token, but immediately declare him a Leper.

37 But if the scall be in his skin at a stand, and there is black hair grown up there, the scall is healed, he is clean: and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

The Hair being so often mentioned, it is probable that the Country was black, with a certain blackness, that the Priest might find it in Inquiry.

38 ¶ If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots, or white long spots;

39 Then the priest shall look, and behold, if the bright spots be in the skin of their flesh, whether white, or a freckled spot that groweth in the skin, he is clean.

When there was no other Symptom but the bright spots in the Skin, the Priest was to declare him clean, and not a Leper, unless the spots were perfectly white, and there was any Cloudiness in them, or a blackness in the spots.

40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he is bald: yet he is clean.

41 And he that hath his hair fallen off from the top part of his head toward his face, he is bald: yet he is clean.

And he that hath his hair fallen off from the top part of his head toward his face.] The Disease of the two Verses is to be understood of the same Person, who is here called He that is bald, and He that is bald toward his face, which is a bald head, and a bald forehead, taken for a sign of Leprosy.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or in the bald forehead, a white reddish sore, it is a leprosy that is come up in his bald head, or in his bald forehead.

And if there be in the bald head, or in the bald forehead, a white reddish sore.] To be translated, And if there be in the bald head, or in the bald forehead, a white reddish sore.

43 Then the priest shall look upon it: and behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh;

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean, his plague is in his head.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean.

And the Leper—his Clothes shall be rent.] Whatever Leper is found and declared by the Priest to be a Leper, shall be in the Condition, and in all Respects behave as a Man, that he might sensibly declare his altered Condition.

His Clothes shall be rent.] In the Manner of Mourning.

And his Head bare.] Another Token of Mourning.

And he shall put a Covering upon his upper lip.] Either with his Hand, or with the Skirt of his Garment; this being a sign both of Mourning, Lev. xvi. 17, 22 and Shame, Job. xli. 7. By covering the Lip was signified, according to the Hebrew Doctors, that the Leper was not to salute any Man all the Days of his Unclean.

And he shall cry, Unclean, unclean.] This was required partly that others might avoid the infection, partly that they might avoid legal Pollutions, as appears by the next Verse. To this Jeremiah plainly alludes, Jer. xvi. 15.

46 All the days wherein the plague shall be in him, he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone, without the camp shall his habitation be.

47 ¶ The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment,

Having

Having appointed their Rules to judge of the Leper's Defilement in Persons, the next were how to know it in Things; particularly in Garments of Linen, Woollen, Linnen, &c. which it seems were not only to be infected with Leprosy, but to give evident Signs of it being infected, though this is a Matter now but little understood, there being no Instances of it now-a-days. The Infection which adheres, now, to Houses and Cloaths after some contagious Distempers being of a quite different Nature.

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof, of linen or of woollen, whether in a skin, or in any thing made of skin :

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest.

50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague, seven days.

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin; the plague is a fretting leprosy; it is unclean.

It is a fretting Leprosy.] The Word Mamereth, which we translate Fretting, is variously rendered. Bechart derives it from an Arabic Root, signifying to irritate, or exasperate. So when the Leprosy is sharp and pungent, eating into the Garment, it is called Mamereth, a rankling, fretting, or corrosive Leprosy.

52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the priest shall look, and behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin;

54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more.

55 And the priest shall look on the plague after that it is washed: and behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, and the plague be not spread; it is unclean, thou shalt burn it in the fire; it is fret inward, whether it be bare within or without.

If the Plague have not changed its Colour, and the Plague be not spread.] i. e. If Washing had not altered that vicious Colour mentioned ver. 49. though the Plague had not spread. For so the Particle ought to be rendered here, as in ver. 31.

It is fret inward.] Though it did not spread in Breadth, yet it fretted in Depth.

Whether it be bare within or without.] The Meaning is, whether the Leprosy have eaten into the right Side of the Garment, or into the wrong Side. For this Sort of Leprosy was wont to eat off the Nap of the Cloth, and make it thread-bare.

56 And if the priest look, and behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof.

If it had changed its Colour from Green or Red, and was become dusky, then the Priest was to cut out that Part of the Garment where the Spot was.

57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a spreading plague: thou shalt burn that wherein the plague is, with fire.

If after the Spot was out, the neighbouring Parts appeared to have a Tincture of the vicious Colour, it was to be taken for a Demonstration of a spreading Leprosy.

58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy, in the garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skin, to pronounce it unclean, or to pronounce it unclean.

C H A P. XIV

1 The rites and manner of cleansing the Leper. 48 The cleansing of the Leper.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 This shall be the law of the leper, in the day of his cleansing: he shall be brought unto the priest:

The Priests being now instructed how to judge of the Leper, the next Directions are about the Kinds and Manner of those sacrifices that were requisite to the Cleansing of the Leper before he was re-admitted into the civil and religious Privileges of the Levitical Community.

He shall be brought unto the Priest.] To some Place without the Camp where the Priest shall appoint to meet with him. See the next Verse compared with Chap. 14.

3 And the priest shall go forth out of the camp, and the priest shall look, and behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper;

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed, two birds alive, and clean, and cedar-wood, and scarlet, and hyssop.

Two Birds alive—and Cedar-wood, and scarlet, and Hyssop.] The Hyssop bound with scarlet round a stick of Cedar-wood, served for an Apergillum, or Instrument to sprinkle the Blood and Water. And both Diophrastes and Pary inform us, that the Juice or Resin of Cedar, together with Hyssop, were reckoned medicinal for cutaneous Distempers; that the former was in particular of Service to cure the Elephantiasis, a species of the Leprosy; and that Hyssop was of Virtue to dissolve Spots, and recover the Colour of the Skin; and this might be the Reason why these Things were prescribed upon this Occasion. By Scarlet is here meant Redder Wool, which, perhaps, was likewise considered as a Remedy to such Distempers, for the same Diophrastes tells us it was used to lay some of it upon Wounds. Many moral and metaphysical Reasons are given for the Use of these Particulars, which are only conjectural. We shall only mention that of Abul-Lamel, who imagines that these four Things signified the Leper to be cured of the four Evils he laboured under; the living Bird denoting that his dead Flesh was restored to Life; the Cedar-wood, which is not easily corrupted, that he was cured of his Putrefaction; the Redder Wool, that he was restored to his good Complexion; and the Hyssop, which is purgative, and in that Country of a very odorous Smell, that his Disease was purged off, and the Stench of it gone.

5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel, over running water.

Over running Water.] i. e. The earthen Vessel was filled with Fountain or River Water, and the Bird killed over the Vessel. Water being more limpid and refined by running, was therefore more proper for Purification.

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar-wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird, in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water.

7 And he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy, seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field.

And shall let the living Bird loose.] To shew that the Leper was restored to a free Conversation with his Neighbours, as the Bird was with the rest of its Kind.

8 And he that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven days.

13 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

14 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

15 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

16 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

17 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

18 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

19 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

20 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

21 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

And wave them, [See on Exod. xxix. 27.]

22 And he shall slay the lamb, in the place where he shall kill the sin-offering and the burnt-offering, in the holy place: for as the sin-offering, so is the trespass-offering: it is most holy.

Both of them were to be eaten by the Priests in the Court of GOD's House, Ch. vii. 7. and therefore were equally holy. See on Ch. ii. 3.

23 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and the priest shall put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

The same Ceremony was used in the Consecration of the Priests, Ch. viii. 24. As to the Leper, the exact Performance of so many ceremonial Signs in the Face of the Church, served to justify all Men that he was perfectly purified, and so authorized to affiliate himself with the rest of GOD's People. See Matt. viii. 4.

24 And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand:

25 And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger, seven times before the LORD.

Before the Lord,] i. e. Before the Sanctuary, where Jehovah was peculiarly present.

26 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand, shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass-offering.

Upon the Blood of the Trespass-Offering,] i. e. Upon the same Part which was before sprinkled with the Blood, &c. as it is more clearly expressed, ver. 28.

27 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

28 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

29 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

30 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

31 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

32 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

33 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

34 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

35 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

36 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

37 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

38 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

39 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

40 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

41 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

42 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

43 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

atonement for him that is to be cleansed, before the LORD.

32 This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertained to his cleanness.

33 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession;

Hence some infer that this Plague was a supernatural Stroke, and that it began in the Houses, which were not infected by the Inhabitants, but the Inhabitants by the Houses. But it cannot justly be inferred from this Expression of God's putting the Plague in a House, that the Stroke was supernatural; since, as has been said before, in the Scripture Style to ascribe all Events to GOD. And we think, that this Language is not more pious than it is strictly just and philosophical. For what are all the Events in the natural World, but the Effects of that Constitution of Nature which GOD has appointed, and over which he constantly presides?

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were a plague in the house:

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague; that all that is in the house be not made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house.

37 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house, with hollow strokes, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall;

With hollow Strokes] There was the same Kind of Mark of Leprosy in a House, as in the Body of a Man; for as in the one, if there was a Spot in the Skin deeper than the Flesh, Ch. xiii. 3. it was a leprous Symptom; so, in the other, if there appeared hollow, or depressed Strokes in the Wall. This shews of what a corroding Nature this Disease must have been, to eat into the very Walls.

Greenish or Reddish] Rather bright Green or bright Red, which was the Mark of Leprosy in a Garment, Ch. xiii. 49.

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days.

If at first Sight the Infection had eaten but a little Way into the Walls, or Wood, the Priest was to order the House to be shut up for a Week, to see how it would proceed.

39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house;

If at the Week's End he found it spread, or to have eaten deeper into the Parts affected, he was to judge it the leprous Plague; and to order every such Part to be pulled out, or knocked down, and new and fresh Stuff to be put in its Room. The whole House to be all over scraped clean, and new plaistered over. The old Plaister, along with the infected Parts, to be thrown into some common Sink or Dunghil.

40 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones, in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into an unclean place without the city.

41 And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off, without the city into an unclean place.

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaister the house.

43 And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plaistered;

44 Then the priest shall come and look, and hold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the house: it is unclean.

If, upon a third Inspection, after this Cleansing and Repairing, he finds the Infection to break out again, he is to pronounce it an incurable Leprosy, and shall order the House to be pulled down, Stick and Stone, and all its Material to be thrown away, as no further fit to be used.

A fretting Leprosy] Of the same Nature with that in a Garment, which could not be stopped, Ch. xiii. 51.

45 And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house: and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

46 Moreover, he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up, shall be unclean until the even.

Whoever lodges, eat, or but enters into such a House, during the Time of its Suspicion and Excommunication by the Priest, shall be defiled for that Day, and shall wash his Clothes and his Body, before he comes into Company, or to the Tabernacle to worship.

47 And he that lieth in the house, shall wash his clothes: and he that eateth in the house, shall wash his clothes.

48 And if the priest shall come in, and look at on it, and behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plaistered: then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.

49 And he shall take to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar-wood, and scarlet, and hyssop.

50 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel, over running water.

51 And he shall take the cedar-wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar-wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet.

53 But he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an atonement for the house: and it shall be clean.

And make an Atonement for the House] Cleanse it so as to be fit for any Man to dwell in it. See on Lev. 18.

54 This is the law for all manner plague of leprosy, and scall,

55 And for the leprosy of a garment, and of an house,

56 And for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot:

57 To teach when it is unclean, and when it is clean: this is the law of leprosy.

C H A P. XV.

1 Laws about other uncleanesses of men, 19 and of women, 23 and of the manner of purifying them.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

After this, Moses and Aaron are instructed in some other Case which were to be accounted Matters of legal Uncleaness, in Man or Woman; on Account whereof they were to be debarred from Conversation, and the Worship of the Sanctuary, for some Time, and obliged to perform certain Ceremonies for their Purification. These, though in the Main aiming at the same Design with the foregoing

1. Of the Cases, &c. touching the N. Office. For of Purity, and of the Purity of the Mind, GOD, who is the Author of all our Graces, intended a Law to preserve in moderate Indulgences, and to this.

2. Speak unto the Children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man hath a running issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean.

Heb. 12. 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8. 9. 10. 11. 12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100. When Physicians call a running issue, or Running of the Reins, a Disease commonly proceeding from a low Condition of Life. Such a one was in a State of Leprosy, all the while it was upon him, though it might sometimes cease running, to the person. If it proceeded merely from an acute accidental Cause, as by Malignancy, or by a Strain in the Bladder, by carrying too great a Burden, or by violent leaping, the Man was not diseased with it, nor concerned in this Law.

3. And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.

This Law was founded in Equity, since the Disease here mentioned could hardly be contracted without excessive Lewdness; and, for Reason known to Physicians, it was proper that such a Man should be interdicted for a Time from the Use of the Marriage Bed.

4. Every bed whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean: and every thing whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean.

Every Thing that he toucheth, his Bed, his Chair, his Desk, &c. are all unclean, and unfit to be used by any Body but himself; and must be either cleansed with Water, or broken in Pieces, according as the Nature of the Thing is. And whoever toucheth him, or any Thing that he useth; whoever chargeth to catch any of his Spittle, or to touch but his Hands, unless they were clean washed, Lev. 15. 7. was defiled for that Day, and oblig'd to wash his Clothes and his Body, before he could go into Company, or to the Place of publick Worship.

This being cut off from all Communication with Mankind, and being shunned and avoided by every one as an Abomination, could not but tend to render them extremely careful how they brought upon themselves so loathsome a Disease.

5. And whosoever toucheth his bed, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

6. And he that sitteth on any thing whereon he sit that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

7. And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

8. And if he that hath the issue spit upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

9. And what saddle soever he rideth upon, that hath the issue, shall be unclean.

And what Saddle soever, &c.] The Hebrew Merchants may signify a Chariot or other Vehicle, in which Sense it occurs, 1 Kings 10. 26.

10. And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him, shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth any of those things, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

11. And whosoever he toucheth that hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

And hath not rinsed his Hands in Water.] This may refer either to the Man who is unclean, or to the Man whom he toucheth. It seems most reasonable to understand it of the former, who, if he had any necessary Occasion to touch another Person, was oblig'd first to wash his Hands. The Rabbins, who understand it of the latter, take Hands to be here put for the whole Body.

12. And the seventh of each, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13. And when he that hath an issue, is cleansed of his issue, then he shall number to himself seven days, for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

And he shall be clean, &c.] So as he may be company with his Neighbour, without defiling them, and he may not be unclean till many of the religious sacrifices were offered.

14. And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtle doves, or two young pigeons, and come before the Lord, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest.

15. And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord, for his issue.

Restore him to the State of those who are fully clean, and qualify him for partaking of holy Things.

16. And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.

17. And every garment, and every skin whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.

18. The woman also with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall wash themselves in water, and be unclean until the even.

This Law serv'd both to preserve a due Regard to natural Purity and Cleanliness, and to restrain from the immoderate Use of the Marriage Bed.

And he unclean until the Even.] So as they should not dare to approach the Sanctuary for that Day, Until Even; i. e. till next Day began.

19. ¶ And if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days: and whosoever toucheth her, shall be unclean until the even.

She shall be put apart seven Days.] During the Time of her monthly Infirmity she was not to lie with her Husband, nor to approach the Sanctuary. See Lev. 24. 19. and Ch. xviii. 19.

20. And every thing that she lieth upon in her separation, shall be unclean: every thing also that she sitteth upon, shall be unclean.

For this Regulation there seems to have been a sufficient natural Reason in that hot Climate.

21. And whosoever toucheth her bed, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

22. And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

23. And if it be on her bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the even.

24. And if any man lie with her at all, and her flow be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days: and all the bed whereon he lieth, shall be unclean.

If any Man be with her at all, &c.] i. e. Unwittingly, for if it was done with the Knowledge of the Parties, both of them were to be cut off, Ch. xx. 18.

There was great Reason for keeping Men from the Company of Women in this Condition, if what some observe be true, that Leprosies and other Diseases were thereby propagated. However we may apprehend no Inconvenience from lying with Women in their their influence, which is not to be stated as a Cause of Consequence, follow from the Cause of Effect, of the World. An excellent Author of Opinion, that a Communication with a man-fair's Woman was forbidden by the Law upon this very Account, left, says he, the coming to men with such an uncouth Embrace, the Zeal the old contract Cause of Disorder. Mary, or rather GOD the Author of Moral Law, by this Prohibition, as in many other Instances, committed the Safety of the People of Israel.

25. And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the time of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: they shall be unclean.

20. Every bed whereon she hath all the days of her illness, shall be unto her as the bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon shall be unclean, as the uncleannets of her separation.

27 And whosoever toucheth those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

28 But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.

So as to be restored to common Conversation, but not admitted to the Sanctuary, till, in Testimony of her Gratitude to GOD, she has brought an Offering in the same Manner as in the Café 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8. 9. 10. 11. 12. 13. 14.

29 And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

This reference is to the monthly Return, but to the Case last mentioned, ver. 25. The Woman cured of that Disease was, upon her first Approach to the Sanctuary, to pay her Acknowledgment to GOD, the Giver of Health, by presenting the Sin-Offering here mentioned. Not as if such Uncleanness was considered as a Sin, or as if such Diseases were the Punishment of particular Sins, or always inflicted upon Persons more wicked than their Neighbours; but because all the Ills of Life are justly to be reckoned the Punishments and Fruits of Sin. Hence it is that CHRIST said to those whom he cured of Disease, thy Sin are forgiven; i. e. Thou art released from those Maladies which are the Fruits of Sin.

30 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, and the priest shall make an atonement for her before the Lord, for the issue of her uncleanness.

51 Thus shall ye separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that is among them.

This shews that one main Design of these Laws was to impress the Minds of that carnal People with a high Respect and Veneration towards the Worship of GOD, and whatever bore the Name of sacred. And indeed it could not but have a considerable Influence this Way, since there were so many Sorts of legal Pollution, that it became a Business of great Care and Circumspection, to approach the Divine Presence with such Purity and Decorum as they ought.

32 This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith :

33 And of her that is sick of her flowers, and of him that hath an illue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lieth with her which is unclean.

CHAPTER XVI.

11 The smothering fire. 15 In the burning of the People.
20 Of the great part. 24 Of the nation.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, The death of the two sons of Aaron, who have offered before the Lord, and died.

This Chapter would have naturally followed the 60th Chapter, where the Death of those two Persons is related; it that being a given Occasion for declaring the Inconvenience of Presiding in the Uncleanliness that unqualify an Isaacite for approaching a Sanctuary.

2 And the Lord said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come now at all times into the holy place within the vail, before the mercy-seat, which is upon the ark; that he do not die: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy-seat.

In the Holy Place without the Vail, the High Priest, or one of the inferior Priests, went every Day, Morning at Evening, when they offered Incense. But into this Holy Place and into the Vail, commonly called the most Holy Place, as none but the High Priest was to enter, so neither was he to enter into it at all Times, as into a common Place of Worship, or to perform Divine Service there at his own Pleasure. He entered into it ordinary only once a Year, upon a certain Day, and the great Day of Expiation for the Transgressions of the whole People of the Nation. See on Lev. 29. 30, 34, compared with Lev. 16. 29. &c. Heb. ix. 7. But upon extraordinary Occasions he might also enter into it often, as when it was to consecrate the Offerings of GOD; or when the Tabernacle was taken down, or to prepare according to the journeying of the People.

Perhaps the Sons of Maer is exiled into the Mag H - Maer in to offer Incense, which might be the Reason of giving the Maer at that Time.

For I am appointed in the Clouds of the Mercy-Seat.] The latter Apartment he was to look upon as the Place of the special Residence of the Divine Glory, and therefore not to enter thither but when appointed, and in such Manner as GOD directed. The Cloud here is distinct from that mentioned, Ex. xl. 34, 35, for that was on the Outside of the Tabernacle, and ascended from the Glory that was within the Tabernacle. But this seems to be understood of the Smoke of the Incense which the High Priest burnt, when he entered into the most holy Place, which was the Cloud wherewith the Mercy-Seat was then covered.

3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place, with a young bullock for a sin-offering, and a ram for a burnt-offering.

Preparatory to his Entering on this solemn Piece of Service, the High-Priest was first to offer two Sacrifices in behalf of himself and his Family, as appears from Lev. 6. viz. a Bullock for a Sin-Offering, (for no other Sacrifice was allowed for the Sin of an High-Priest, Ch. iv. 3.) in Confession of his Infirmities and Transgressions, and to put him in Mind that he was but an imperfect Intercessor with GOD, Heb. viii. 27. ix. 7. Next he was to offer a Ram for a Burnt-Offering, in Token of his Dedicating himself wholly to GOD, with Promise of new Obedience. See on Lev. i. 3.

4 He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with the linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired : these are holy garments ; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and ſo put them on.

Upon other Day, when the High-Priest officiated, he was bound to put on all the Garments mentioned Ex. xxviii. 4. four of which were called the golden Garments, because there was a Mixture of Gold in them; but on this Day he put on only those four linen Garments here specified, which were the Habit of the ordinary Priests as well as his. This seems to have been in Token of Humiliation, because this Day was appointed for a general Repentance and Confession of Sin.

On this high Festival the High-Priest was to wear nothing but Linen, which is a more proper emblem of Purity than Woolen, both because it washes whiter, and is more easily cleansed.

These are Holy Garments,] i. e. They are peculiarly holy To be used only when he was in the Exercise of this solemn Part of his sacred Office.

Therefore he shall wash his Face in Water, and so put them on.
Besides the Washing of the Hands and Feet, as upon other Days, at the Beginning of Divine Service, Ex. cxx. 19, 20. the High-Priest was, on this Day, to wash his Face, or his whole Body, before he put on these Holy Garments, and entered on the solemn Service of the Day: which significant Rite fully b. tokened that within the vail, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy-seat, and before the mercy-seat.

Upon the Mercy-Seat, &c.] This should rather be rendered, By the Mercy-seat, and by, &c. the Mercy-seat.

16 And he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation that remaineth among them, in the midst of their uncleanness.

This annual Ceremony of Sprinkling the Blood in the Place of God's peculiar Residence, which was accompanied with solemn Supplication, spoke an Acknowledgement that the Sins of Priests and People, committed in the foregoing Year, had rendered their Place of Worship unfit for GOD's Habitation, as being seated among an unclean People. And therefore the Priest offered the Victim's Blood, as a Sign of their having forfeited their own Blood or Life, praying that it might be accepted in their Stead.

Because of their Transgressions in all their Sins] Which is not to be limited merely to legal Pollutions, but includes also such moral Impurities as are appointed in this Book to be expiated by Sacrifice, Lev. iv. 2. v. 1. vi. 2.

And he shall do for the Tabernacle of the Congregation.] When he had done all this within the Vail, he was to do the same without, in the Sanctuary.

17 And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

And there shall be no Man in the Tabernacle, &c.] None of the Levites, nor of the other Priests, who might enter into the Tabernacle upon other Occasions, were to have Access thither upon this solemn Occasion.

18 And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about.

And he shall go out unto the Altar that is before the Lord,] To the Altar of Burnt-Offering, which was in the outer Court, and is said to be before the Lord, Ex. xxix. 11. because it stood before the Tabernacle, the Symbol of the Divine Presence. Thus the High Priest was to complete the Purification of the whole Tabernacle, stained, as it were, with the Guilt of a sinful People, Heb. x. 3.

19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20 ¶ And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness.

The fore-mentioned Rites being performed, the High-Priest is to proceed to the second Part of the People's Sin-Offering, viz. the live or scape Goat; which having presented at the Tabernacle Door, he is to lay both his Hands upon its Head, making humble Confession of the People's innumerable Transgressions, and praying that the Punishment of them might be laid upon the Head of this Goat, and what was done to him might serve instead of what was justly due to the Offenders. After which solemn Confession and Prayer, the Goat is to be carried by an appointed Officer, and turned loose into the barren Wilderness, to shift for itself.

22 And the goat shall bear upon him, all their iniquities, unto a land not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness.

This Action of sending away into the Wilderness, a Land of Forgetfulness, the Goat, over which the Sins of the People were confessed, and to which they were figuratively transferred, signified, that upon their sincere Repentance GOD would no more remember their past Offences.

23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there.

All that he did about the Scape-Goat was at the Door of the Tabernacle, which being done, he entered into the Tabernacle itself, to perform the rest of the Service.

And shall put off the Linen Garments, &c.] Having finished the solemn deprecatory Offering, he was to put off those Garments which were appropriated to this Occasion.

And shall leave them there.] Maimonides and others say they were never to be used more, either by him, or any Body else, and that new ones were made every Year.

24 And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt-offering, and the burnt-offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people.

In the Holy Place, i. e. in the Court of the Tabernacle, where stood the Altar of Burnt-Offering, and the sacred Laver. See ch. vi. 16. Here the High Priest was to wash or sprinkle his whole Body, that he might purify himself after he had touched the Goat which bore their Iniquities, just as the Man that carried him into the Wilderness was to wash after it, ver. 26. Which Rite signified that the Creature was made so polluted and abominable by being a Substitute for Sinners, that none could touch it without contracting some Pollution.

And put on his Garments,] Being now to enter upon a Service of a more joyous Kind, he was to put on his other Garments, which the Jews called his golden Garments, wherein he officiated on other Days.

And come forth,] To the Altar of Burnt Offerings.

And offer his Burnt-Offering, and the Burnt-Offering of the People.] To signify in his own Name, and in the Name of the People, that they and their Posterity would be henceforth wholly devoted to the Observance of the Divine Laws, (see Lev. i. 3.) by which Rite the Atonement was completed.

25 And the fat of the sin-offering shall he burn upon the altar.

26 And he that let go the goat for the scape-goat, shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp.

27 And the bullock for the sin-offering, and the goat for the sin-offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall one carry forth without the camp, and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung.

28 And he that burneth them, shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

And he that burneth them shall wash his Clothes,] Being defiled by touching the Sacrifices, that were charged with so many Sins.

29 ¶ And this shall be a statute for ever unto you: that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you.

In the seventh Month,] Of the sacred Year, which began with Abib, answering to our March; consequently the seventh Month, or Tisri, answered to our September.

On the tenth Day of the Month,] Maimonides says this Day was chosen for a Day of Repentance, rather than any other, because it was the Day on which Moses came down from the Mount with the second Tables, and proclaimed to the People the Remission of their great Sin, in worshipping the golden Calf.

It shall afflict your Soul.] Abstin from eating and drinking, from all servile Labour, and carnal Recreations, and employ the Day in Confession of Sins, and other Duties of Repentance.

30 For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

That is, GOD hath appointed the High-Priest on that Day to perform the above-mentioned expiatory Rites, as a solemn Sign and Pledge of your obtaining the Pardon and Remission of your Sins, upon your Repentance; and therefore since he impowered him to declare you clean, and absolved from all your Ignorances, Errors, and Infirmities, if you expect to reap the Benefit of this Declaration, you must give signs of true Penitence by afflicting your Souls in the Manner now prescribed.

31 It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls by a statute for ever.

It shall be a Sabbath of Rest unto you.] Heb. It shall be a Sabbath of Sabbaths unto you; i. e. a high Sabbath, like that of the seventh Day, on which no Manner of servile Work might be done. See Exod. xxxi. 15. and xxxv. 2.

32 And the priest whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his fathers stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments.

The Priest whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate.] It ought to be translated, He shall be anointed, and he shall be consecrated; as the Vulgate hath it. For an active Verb without a Person, is frequently in Scripture to be taken passively; the well observing where of will tend to the removing many Difficulties. For Example; those Words of Isaai quoted Jer. xiii. 39. 40. He hath blinded their Eyes, and hardened their Heart, import merely, their Eyes were blinded, and their Heart hardened; as it is expressed Isa. xxviii. 27. compared with Isa. vi. 9. Matt. xiii. 14, 15. So, he hardened Pharaoh's Heart, is equivalent to his Heart was hardened, ver. 22. So, he moved David, 2 Sam. xxiv. 1. ought to be translated, David was moved, viz. by his own evil Heart, or by Satan's Instigation, as 1 Chron. xxi. 1.

33 And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar: and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.

34 And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

To make an Atonement for the Children of Israel, for all their Sins.] Meaning all such Sins as were capable of being expiated by the Law, the most of which were Sins of Ignorance, Heb. ix. 7. The Hebrew Doctors justly observe, that all these Rites of Expiation, however solemnly performed, availed nothing in the Sight of GOD without Repentance, and sincere Resolutions of new Obedience; and indeed all these Sacrifices and other Rites of Expiation, were nothing else but outward Signs, and solemn public Testimonies of the pious Dispositions of the Mind, without which the most pompous Forms of external Worship are but solemn Mockery, Isa. i. 10, 11.

C H A P. XVII.

1 The blood of all slain Leaps must be offered at the door of the tabernacle. 10 All eating of blood is forbidden. 15 And all that dieth alone, or is torn.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, saying,

3 What man soever there be of the house of Israel, that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat in the camp, or that killeth it out of the camp,

What Man soever—of the House of Israel—killeth an Ox, &c.] Not merely for Food, or common Use, as some understand it.

but for Sacrifice, the Reason of the Prohibition being, that if they should eat of the flesh, they should be guilty of Idolatry, Lev. xvii. 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

4 And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer a burnt-offering unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD; blood shall be imparted unto that man, and that man shall be cut off from among his people:

Blood shall be imparted.] i. e. he shall be guilty of the Offence, as a Minister, or one who is entrusted with the Blood, Which severe Penalty was enacted for those who were guilty of Idolatry.

Shall be cut off.] i. e. he shall be cut off by Death, though in other Places it signifies to denote Exclusion from the Church of Israel.

5 To the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle or the congregation unto the priest, and offer them for peace-offerings unto the LORD.

Which they offer in the open Field.] But not in the Sanctuaries the Levites sacrifice any where in the Fields, High-Places, and Mountains.

6 And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a sweet favour unto the LORD.

7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto devils, after whom they have gone a whoring: This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.

And they shall no more offer their Sacrifices unto Devils.] A Sin which they and their Fathers had been long guilty of, especially in Egypt, as appears from Deut. xxxii. 17. Jer. xvi. 14. Ezek. xx. 7. xxiii. 2, 3. And some of them continued to practise the same in the Wilderness, Amos. v. 25, 26 compared with Deut. xii. 8. The Hebrew Word, which we render Devils, is Gozim, which primarily signifies Goats, and hence denotes the Idols (probably deified dead Men) who were worshipped under the Symbol of Goats. It is the same Word that we translate Goats, Isa. xiii. 21. What gives Light to so obscure a Passage is what we read in Maimonides, that the Zulian Idolaters worshipped Demons under the Figure of Goats, imagining them to appear in that Form, whence they called them by the Name of Goats, or Goat-like Demons; with Kites horribly impure, after the Manner of the idolatrous Pagans.

After whom they have gone a whoring.] This also in Scripture is equivalent to that of committing Idolatry. But here it has a peculiar Propriety, and denotes their having worshipped their Goats, or goat-like Demons, with Kites horribly impure, after the Manner of the idolatrous Pagans.

8 ¶ And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a burnt-offering or sacrifice,

Or of the Stranger, shall he sojourn among you.] Such Strangers as were circumcised, and had thereby embraced the Jewish Religion, for otherwise they were not of the Community of Israel, from which they are threatened to be cut off, Lev. xx. 9. if they did not observe this Law.

9 And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD.

It is not clear that this is a W-maximal ideal, but it is a D-maximal ideal, and it is not a height-1 prime. Whenever  $\mathfrak{p} \in \text{ht}(\mathfrak{p}) = 1$ ,  $\mathfrak{p} \cap \mathfrak{p}^* = \mathfrak{p}$ , and  $\mathfrak{p}^$  is maximal. In general,  $\mathfrak{p} \cap \mathfrak{p}^$  is maximal if and only if  $\mathfrak{p} \cap \mathfrak{p}^* = \mathfrak{p}$ , and  $\mathfrak{p}^*$  is maximal. (See [10, Corollary 4.1].)

[illegible]

But we have to be realistic. Because of the large number of people who are already in the welfare state, it is not possible to get rid of it completely. What we have to do is to make it more efficient and to make it more fair. We have to make sure that the law is not just a piece of paper, but that it is actually being followed. We have to make sure that the law is not just a set of rules, but that it is actually being followed. We have to make sure that the law is not just a set of rules, but that it is actually being followed.

21 And he shall bear the offering unto the Lord, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and a sacrifice of incense.

[illegible]

21 And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the Lord, for his sin which he hath done: and the sin which he hath done, shall be forgiven him.

23 ¶ And when ye shall come into the land, and find late planted all manner of trees for food; then ye shall count the fruit thereof as uncuttimed.
Three years shall it be as uncuttimed unto you:
it shall not be eaten of.

Another copy of a now given will, that, we are told, is the Fund of Caracas, they should never make. One of the Fund of say 100, which they planted there, till that with Yearly Growth, when it was to be offered to GOD, in grateful Acknowledgment of his Goodness.

Several Reasons are given for this Law. The next is, that this, that the Fruit of the first two or three Year Growth being but scanty, waterish, and unconcocted, was not fit to be offered to GOD, to whom they ought to present the best of every Thing. And Men were also prohibited to eat thereof, lest they should have seemed profane, in using the Fruit of a Tree which was not first consecrated to GOD by this Act of Religion.

We shall count the Fruit thereof as unincumbered,] i. e. Unclean.

24 But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy to praise the Lord centul.

*In the Fourth Year, all the Fruit of the Trees, to wit, of the Land [wheat] Heb. Kithah Hallelul Lachzakah. Is given to the Levites for the Priests of Jehovah: i. e. commuted to the Priests of Jehovah.
Those sacred Feasts are called Priests, from the Hymns that were there sung in Honour of GOD. Hence Jah is, what we render They made merry, is in the Original, they celebrated Priests, or Feasts of Joy. So Mel's Meaning is, that in the fourth Year those fruits were to be brought to the Place where Mel made Food, and that to be eaten before the Lord, with Bread and Thanksgiving, in the same Manner as they eat the bread Tythes, *Deut. xii. 17, 18.

25 And in the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit thereof, that it may yield unto you the increase thereof: I am the LORD your God.

In the Fifth Year of the Great Flood, &c. You shall eat it as other common Food.

That it may yield unto you the Increase thereof. The Text to the 23d and 24th Verses; Ye shall do as here commanded, that the Lord may abundantly yield to you its Increase: For upon their Obedience such Blessings are promised, Lev. xxvi. 3, 4.

I am the Lord.] Who bestowed this Land upon you, and by whose Blessing alone you may expect to receive the Increase thereof abundantly, and therefore to me let your Praise fruits be consecrated.

26 ¶ Ye shall not eat any thing with the blood :
neither shall ye use enchantment, nor oblige oaths.

Neither shall ye use Inchantment,] It is not cert. in what particular Superstitious Usage is here forbidden. The LXX take it to be, called Jugum, or Divination by the Flight of Birds. For so it is the 1990s, the number of people in the United States who are 65 years of age or older has increased by 50 percent, and the number of people 75 years of age or older has increased by 100 percent. The number of people 85 years of age or older has increased by 200 percent. The number of people 95 years of age or older has increased by 400 percent. The number of people 100 years of age or older has increased by 1,000 percent. The number of people 105 years of age or older has increased by 2,000 percent. The number of people 110 years of age or older has increased by 4,000 percent. The number of people 115 years of age or older has increased by 8,000 percent. The number of people 120 years of age or older has increased by 16,000 percent. The number of people 125 years of age or older has increased by 32,000 percent. The number of people 130 years of age or older has increased by 64,000 percent. The number of people 135 years of age or older has increased by 128,000 percent. The number of people 140 years of age or older has increased by 256,000 percent. The number of people 145 years of age or older has increased by 512,000 percent. The number of people 150 years of age or older has increased by 1,024,000 percent. The number of people 155 years of age or older has increased by 2,048,000 percent. The number of people 160 years of age or older has increased by 4,096,000 percent. The number of people 165 years of age or older has increased by 8,192,000 percent. The number of people 170 years of age or older has increased by 16,384,000 percent. The number of people 175 years of age or older has increased by 32,768,000 percent. The number of people 180 years of age or older has increased by 65,536,000 percent. The number of people 185 years of age or older has increased by 131,072,000 percent. The number of people 190 years of age or older has increased by 262,144,000 percent. The number of people 195 years of age or older has increased by 524,288,000 percent. The number of people 200 years of age or older has increased by 1,048,576,000 percent. The number of people 205 years of age or older has increased by 2,097,152,000 percent. The number of people 210 years of age or older has increased by 4,194,304,000 percent. The number of people 215 years of age or older has increased by 8,388,608,000 percent. The number of people 220 years of age or older has increased by 16,777,216,000 percent. The number of people 225 years of age or older has increased by 33,554,432,000 percent. The number of people 230 years of age or older has increased by 67,108,864,000 percent. The number of people 235 years of age or older has increased by 134,217,728,000 percent. The number of people 240 years of age or older has increased by 268,435,456,000 percent. The number of people 245 years of age or older has increased by 536,870,912,000 percent. The number of people 250 years of age or older has increased by 1,073,741,824,000 percent. The number of people 255 years of age or older has increased by 2,147,483,648,000 percent. The number of people 260 years of age or older has increased by 4,294,967,296,000 percent. The number of people 265 years of age or older has increased by 8,589,934,592,000 percent. The number of people 270 years of age or older has increased by 17,179,869,184,000 percent. The number of people 275 years of age or older has increased by 34,359,738,368,000 percent. The number of people 280 years of age or older has increased by 68,719,476,736,000 percent. The number of people 285 years of age or older has increased by 137,438,953,472,000 percent. The number of people 290 years of age or older has increased by 274,877,906,944,000 percent. The number of people 295 years of age or older has increased by 549,755,813,888,000 percent. The number of people 300 years of age or older has increased by 1,099,511,627,776,000 percent. The number of people 305 years of age or older has increased by 2,199,023,255,552,000 percent. The number of people 310 years of age or older has increased by 4,398,046,511,104,000 percent. The number of people 315 years of age or older has increased by 8,796,093,022,208,000 percent. The number of people 320 years of age or older has increased by 17,592,186,044,416,000 percent. The number of people 325 years of age or older has increased by 35,184,372,088,832,000 percent. The number of people 330 years of age or older has increased by 70,368,744,177,664,000 percent. The number of people 335 years of age or older has increased by 140,737,488,355,328,000 percent. The number of people 340 years of age or older has increased by 281,474,976,710,656,000 percent. The number of people 345 years of age or older has increased by 562,949,953,421,312,000 percent. The number of people 350 years of age or older has increased by 1,125,899,906,842,624,000 percent. The number of people 355 years of age or older has increased by 2,251,799,813,685,248,000 percent. The number of people 360 years of age or older has increased by 4,503,599,627,370,496,000 percent. The number of people 365 years of age or older has increased by 9,007,199,254,740,992,000 percent. The number of people 370 years of age or older has increased by 18,014,398,509,481,984,000 percent. The number of people 375 years of age or older has increased by 36,028,797,018,963,968,000 percent. The number of people 380 years of age or older has increased by 72,057,594,037,927,936,000 percent. The number of people 385 years of age or older has increased by 144,115,188,075,855,872,000 percent. The number of people 390 years of age or older has increased by 288,230,376,151,711,744,000 percent. The number of people 395 years of age or older has increased by 576,460,752,303,423,488,000 percent. The number of people 400 years of age or older has increased by 1,152,921,504,606,846,976,000 percent. The number of people 405 years of age or older has increased by 2,305,843,009,213,693,952,000 percent. The number of people 410 years of age or older has increased by 4,611,686,018,427,387,904,000 percent. The number of people 415 years of age or older has increased by 9,223,372,036,854,775,808,000 percent. The number of people 420 years of age or older has increased by 18,446,744,073,709,551,616,000 percent. The number of people 425 years of age or older has increased by 36,893,488,147,419,103,232,000 percent. The number of people 430 years of age or older has increased by 73,786,976,294,838,206,464,000 percent. The number of people 435 years of age or older has increased by 147,573,952,589,676,412,928,000 percent. The number of people 440 years of age or older has increased by 295,147,905,179,352,825,856,000 percent. The number of people 445 years of age or older has increased by 590,295,810,358,705,651,712,000 percent. The number of people 450 years of age or older has increased by 1,180,591,620,717,411,303,424,000 percent. The number of people 455 years of age or older has increased by 2,361,183,241,434,822,606,848,000 percent. The number of people 460 years of age or older has increased by 4,722,366,482,869,645,213,696,000 percent. The number of people 465 years of age or older has increased by 9,444,732,965,739,290,427,392,000 percent. The number of people 470 years of age or older has increased by 18,889,465,931,478,580,854,784,000 percent. The number of people 475 years of age or older has increased by 37,778,931,862,957,161,709,568,000 percent. The number of people 480 years of age or older has increased by 75,557,863,725,914,323,419,136,000 percent. The number of people 485 years of age or older has increased by 151,115,727,451,828,646,838,272,000 percent. The number of people 490 years of age or older has increased by 302,231,454,903,657,293,676,544,000 percent. The number of people 495 years of age or older has increased by 604,462,909,807,314,587,353,088,000 percent. The number of people 500 years of age or older has increased by 1,208,925,819,614,629,174,706,176,000 percent. The number of people 505 years of age or older has increased by 2,417,851,639,229,258,349,412,352,000 percent. The number of people 510 years of age or older has increased by 4,835,703,278,458,516,698,824,704,000 percent. The number of people 515 years of age or older has increased by 9,671,406,556,917,033,397,649,408,000 percent. The number of people 520 years of age or older has increased by 19,342,813,113,834,066,795,298,816,000 percent. The number of people 525 years of age or older has increased by 38,685,626,227,668,133,590,597,632,000 percent. The number of people 530 years of age or older has increased by 77,371,252,455,336,267,181,195,264,000 percent. The number of people 535 years of age or older has increased by 154,742,504,910,672,534,362,390,528,000 percent. The number of people 540 years of age or older has increased by 309,485,009,821,345,068,724,781,056,000 percent. The number of people 545 years of age or older has increased by 618,970,019,642,690,137,449,562,112,000 percent. The number of people 550 years of age or older has increased by 1,237,940,039,285,380,274,899,124,224,000 percent. The number of people 555 years of age or older has increased by 2,475,880,078,570,760,549,798,248,448,000 percent. The number of people 560 years of age or older has increased by 4,951,760,157,141,521,099,596,496,896,000 percent. The number of people 565 years of age or older has increased by 9,903,520,314,283,042,199,193,993,792,000 percent. The number of people 570 years of age or older has increased by 19,807,040,628,566,084,398,387,987,584,000 percent. The number of people 575 years of age or older has

[illegible]

$\mathcal{Y} = \mathcal{Y}_1 \cup \mathcal{Y}_2 \cup \mathcal{Y}_3 \cup \mathcal{Y}_4 \cup \mathcal{Y}_5 \cup \mathcal{Y}_6 \cup \mathcal{Y}_7 \cup \mathcal{Y}_8 \cup \mathcal{Y}_9 \cup \mathcal{Y}_{10}$ where  $\mathcal{Y}_1 = \{1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100\}$
 $\mathcal{Y}_2 = \{101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200\}$
 $\mathcal{Y}_3 = \{201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300\}$
 $\mathcal{Y}_4 = \{301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400\}$
 $\mathcal{Y}_5 = \{401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500\}$
 $\mathcal{Y}_6 = \{501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600\}$
 $\mathcal{Y}_7 = \{601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700\}$
 $\mathcal{Y}_8 = \{701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793,$

Thymus is a genus of plants in the family Lamiaceae. It is a member of the subfamily Thymeloideae, which is part of the order Lamiales. The genus is named after the Greek word thymos, which means "courage" or "bravery". There are about 350 species of Thymus in the world, and they are found in a wide range of habitats, from alpine meadows to coastal dunes. Many species of Thymus are used as ornamental plants, and some are used in traditional medicine. The genus is also important in the study of plant evolution and systematics.

[illegible]

of NY shall be made available to the public for the duration of the project, and shall be made available to the public.

[illegible]

For the Dead (H's F = a S), i. e. for a soul departed.

No print any Marks up you.] This some refer it to the manner, to those Marks and Prints which the Gentiles, in the Transitions of their Grief, were wont to make in their Flesh, in order to appease the angry infernal Powers. Others refer it to the imprinting of Marks upon their Bodies, as Tokens to what Deity they belonged. Thus Hieronymus tells us, that he who devoted himself to Mars received a Mark, giving up hence to that God. And the Carvings of the Priests of the Solar Goddess, to whom all manner of sacrifices were offered, were in their Necks. And this Practice is alluded to Rom. xiii. 16, 17, and I. xiii. 16.

20 ¶ Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore, lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness.

It is hardly to be imagined that any Man would be the Instrument of prostituting his own Daughter, but from some desperate Motive. The Story, in all Probability, the English Gentleman told is the unvarnished Character of Parent prostitution, seen in the Characters in Honour of some Person Distant, &c. For we are told in Practice, among the Heathens, &c. the Priests of Venus, &c. other impure Divinities, to prostitute themselves to the Advantage of that Divinity, who was thereby conceived to have more converse with the Divinity itself.

Example, and Whoredom punished by the sanction of Religion overflow the Land.

30 Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary : I am the Lord.

[illegible]

of the  $\mathcal{H}^1$ -norm. As shown in Proposition 4.1, the  $\mathcal{H}^1$ -norm of the solution of the problem (2.1) can be bounded by the  $\mathcal{H}^1$ -norm of the data. In the next section, we shall prove that the  $\mathcal{H}^1$ -norm of the solution of the problem (2.1) is bounded by the  $\mathcal{H}^1$ -norm of the data.

and the other, the Perverse, such was the Perverse-ness of the People, that they would not be deterred from their idolatrous Practices, and would not be brought to repentance, till they were brought to the Place, where they should receive their Reward, and then they turned back upon the Shoulder.

31 ¶ Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

Regard not them that have familiar spirits.] i. e. Them that have a Spirit of Guile or Deceit, in that Spirit being here put for the Gift which were supposed to be communicated by Demons or Familiar Spirits, just as the Word Spirit is put for spiritual Gifts, 1 Cor. xii. 32. 1 7. iv. 1.

The Reason of this Prohibition must be, either that those Familiar Spirits with whom they had Commerce, were of an impure Diabolical Nature, and were apt to procure Intercourse with them, Rites profane were used; or that those who pretended to a Familiarity with Demons were mere Impostors, suborned by the idolatrous Priests and others, who, in order to support the Credit of established Polytheism and Idolatry, pretended to the Gift of Prophecy or Divination, and amused the credulous Vulgar with dark and ambiguous Predictions, which were capable of answering the Event which ever Way is fall out. And on this Account, all Intercourse with those Pretenders to Prophecy and Inspiration was prohibited to the People, on Pain of Death, lest such unlawful Commerce had proved a snare to them, and an Inlet to Idolatry.

Neither seek after Wizards.] The Hebrew Word Yadegnum comes from yadeg, to know, and seems to import the same as those we call Chaldean Magicians or Enchanters. Their Knowledge they pretended to obtain, say Magicians, by putting the Bane of a certain Beast into their Mouths, and using certain Hume and Admiration, which threw them into Convulsions, and in those Fits they uttered their Predictions.

Do not be defiled by them.] The Insinuations of Computers, Wizards, or Fortune-Tellers, have a Tendency to corrupt and defile Men's Minds with Superstition, and to create a Distrust of the Divine Providence, on which it is both our Duty and Happiness to rely, with Patience and Security.

32 ¶ Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and fear thy God: I am the LORD.

Thou shalt rise up before the hoary Head.] To pay Honour to those who are our Superiors in Age, is one of the plainest Dictates of Nature, and accordingly has been inculcated by all civilized Nations. Among the Lacedaemonians there was a Law established, that the Aged be honoured as Parents. And in this, says Hesiodus, the Egyptians agree with the Lacedaemonians, that their young Men, when they meet an Elder, turn aside to give the Way, and rise up at his Approach. To the same Purpose Plato has these memorable Words; "That young Men should glory in obeying the Laws, for this is all one as obeying GOD; and next, in reverencing their Superiors in Age, those especially who have passed their Days honourably." And therefore, in the more uncorrupted Ages, it was looked upon as a portentous Crime for young Men not to reverence the Aged.

And fear thy God.] Who has stamped a venerable Character upon old Men; especially on such as are grown old in Wisdom and Virtue; who has appointed these Distinctions of Mankind for the better Government of the World, and is the Avenger of those who are not able to defend themselves.

33 ¶ And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vex him.

The narrow-minded Jer. understand this only of such Strangers as were become Profelytes to their Religion. But Reason and common Humanity shew it to be meant of all Strangers in general. And what puts this beyond Doubt, is the Motive added in the End of the Verse, For ye were Strangers in the Land of Egypt; not Profelytes to their Religion, but Strangers.

34 But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born amongst you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

And thou shalt love him as thyself.] See this explained ver. 18.

For ye were Strangers in the Land of Egypt.] Therefore let the Remembrance of what your Condition was in Egypt move you to shew Kindness and Humanity to those who are so bound among yourselves in the same Condition. This Plea has been ar-ready observed, proves to a Demonstration, that by Strangers here are to be understood, not merely Profelytes to their Religion, but all Strangers in general who happened to live in the Land of Egypt, as they did among the Israelites.

35 ¶ Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in mete-yard, in weight, or in measure.

Ye shall do no Unrighteousness in Judgment.] Though the Word, which we translate Judgment, generally signifies the Hearing and Decision of Causes, yet it sometimes denotes, in general, the conducting or regulating of any Affair, as Job xiii. 12. Thou shalt be order the Cause, i. e. in the Hebrew, Thou shalt be the Judge, or Regulation of the Cause. So here it signifies the Conduct or Regulation of Life, as it he had said, In all your Dealings with every Part of Mankind be exact to the Rule of Justice.

In Mete-Yard.] By which they measured Lands, Cloth, &c. For the Word Metre is the Measure of continued Quantity.

In Weight.] By which they paid and received Money in those Days, Gold Brads and Iron, &c.

Or in Measure.] Heb. Mejurah, which denotes the Measure of discrete Quantity, as of Corn, Salt, &c. and of Liquid, as Wine, Oil, &c.

36 Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Just Weights.] Heb. Stora of Ephahs, because they made Use of Stones for Weights.

A just Ephah, and a just Hin shall ye have.] These two Words Ephah and Hin comprehend all Sorts of Measures of Things, whether wet or dry. For the Ephah, see Exod. xvi. 36. for the Hin, Exod. xxix. 40. For preventing all Fraud in their Weights and Measures, the Standard of them was kept in the Sanctuary, as appears from Exod. xxx. 13. compared with 1 Cor. xxi. 20.

I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the Land of Egypt.] This is the general Reason to enforce their Obedience, which is repeated in this Chapter about a dozen Times. See the Particulars explained on Exod. xx. 2.

37 Therefore shall ye observe all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: I am the LORD.

We ought not to pass over the two foregoing Chapters without some Reflections. From the Prohibition in the former of such shameful Vices and horrible Crimes, which are yet mentioned as the Doings of the Egyptian and Canaanitish Nations, we may understand how Mankind had corrupted their Ways. For we cannot reasonably suppose that these Nations only were thus depraved, that they only had wandered from the right Way; but rather that all the neighbouring Nations, and probably all Mankind, had fallen in a greater or less Degree into a shameful Corruption of Manners, into the most absurd, shameful, and criminal Errors.

Egypt was at this Time considered as the Seat and Nurse of all Science, all Learning, all Wisdom. Her Fame was spread abroad among the Nations, they acknowledged her to be the wisest amongst them, and they sought for Wisdom and Direction from her Mouth. But, alas! Mankind have ever fallen by their own Wisdom, the Imaginations of the Thoughts of Men have been always vain and foolish, and the more they have magnified themselves in these, into the greater, more absurd, and impious Errors, have they fallen. And thus the Wisdom of Egypt became the most absurd and impious Folly; in endeavouring to be accounted wise they became foolish; while they studied in following their own Imaginations to exalt themselves, they fell into the most wretched Blindness, and the most absurd and impious Ignorance. They went astray so very far in the Ways of Error, as to hold the Cattle of the Field, yea, various Beasts, Reptiles, and Insects, — to be God, Widd. xi. 15. nay, they worshipped as Gods even Jack and Onions, and many other Plants of the Field. In short, in their Divine Worship they committed almost every Impiety, and practised every satirish Absurdity. That they had no less corrupted their Ways, and were no less ignorant, in regard to moral Duties, we may reasonably conclude from what is mentioned in the foregoing Chapter, and other Accounts. And if the reputed Mistress of Science and Knowledge was thus blind and foolish, how great must needs be the Blindness of her Followers. And accordingly, both from what is said in the Scriptures, and from the most ancient Accounts, we have Grounds to conclude, that the Inhabitants of all the Earth at that Time were gone into the most absurd and impious Error; that they esteemed as Wisdom the most foolish Absurdities; and that there was no Impiety so great but they practised, and thought it Godliness. And even the chosen Seed of Israel were gone into all the Abominations of Egypt.

But let us turn our Eyes from this disgraceful and shocking View of Human Nature, to the bright Scene of Purity, Justice, 12 And if a man lie with his daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have committed a great abomination; their blood shall be upon them.

[The Law of Leviticus. 12.] An abominable Mixture, proves that a man and a Woman are not made, and makes great Punishment follow.

13 If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

14 And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.

15 And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast.

16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

17 And if a man shall take his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, to be his wife, he hath committed a wickedness, and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his father's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

[The Law of Leviticus. 17.] A Sister, Half-Sister, Brother, or Half-Brother, that are near, are punished with Death.

18 And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

Here the Sentence of Death is pronounced upon them, where as in Ch. xv. 24. it is only said, the Man should be uncle in her Days. But the Distinction is, that Ch. xv. 24. is to be understood of lying with her ignorantly, when the Woman was not yet set apart; but this other is meant of doing it presumptuously, after she was set apart; and so as to be guilty of a publick Contempt, and wilful Violation of the Law.

19 And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister: for he uncovereth his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity.

[They shall bear their iniquity.] It not being said they shall die, or be cut off; and this Transgression not being so high as some of the former; we may understand these Words in general, that such Persons shall be liable to Punishment, either from the civil Magistrate, or GOD himself.

20 And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin, they shall die childless.

[They shall die childless.] The Meaning may be either that Providence shall frustrate the End of such Marriages, and curse that incestuous Union with Barrenness; or, that the Offspring shall die before the Parents by an untimely Death.

21 And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness, they shall be childless.

22 ¶ Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: that the land whither I bring you to dwell therein, spue you not out.

Left ye be brought to the same miserable Desolation to which the present Inhabitants shall soon be reduced. See on Le. xviii. 25.

23 And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they com-mured all these things, and therefore I abhor them.

24 But I have said unto you, Ye shall not defile their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey. I have the LORD your God, which have separated you from all people.

[The Law of Leviticus. 24.] [The Law of Leviticus. 25.] This is pronounced by GOD himself.

[The Law of Leviticus. 26.] [The Law of Leviticus. 27.] Both by positive Laws, and legal Decretes, he doth separate you from all the People of the Earth, that you may distinguish yourselves by the Purity of your Manners.

25 Ye shall therefore put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

[The Law of Leviticus. 28.] [The Law of Leviticus. 29.] For the same Purpose I have instructed a Priest to be set apart, and the rest of the World in your very Duty to keep you from making Conversation with you, and thus to distinguish yourselves from all other People.

[The Law of Leviticus. 30.] [The Law of Leviticus. 31.] See on Ch. xi. 44.

26 And ye shall be holy unto me: for I the LORD am holy, and have severed you from all people, that ye should be mine.

See on Ch. xi. 44.

27 ¶ A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them.

C H A P. XXI.

1 Of the mourning of priests. 7, 13 Of their marriages. 16 The priests that have blemishes must not minister in the sanctuary.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people.

The next Laws concerned the Behaviour and personal Qualifications of the Priests, being such as were intended to denote the Dignity, and preserve the Honour of the holy Function. And first, they were not to defile themselves by touching a dead Body, preparing it for Burial, or being present at a Funeral, or coming into the Tent where a dead Body was; because by these Things they would have been legally polluted for no less than seven Days (Num. xix. 11, 14, 16.) and consequently unfit for performing the Duties of their Station.

2 But for his kin, that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

Here the Case of very near Relations is excepted, since it would have been hard to restrain them from paying the last Duties of natural Affection to a Parent, a Wife, a Child, or a Brother, and GOD always prefers Mercy to Sacrifice. Yet, for particular Reason, this same Exception is taken away in the Case of the High-Priest. Lev. xxi. 12.

3 And for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had no husband: for her may he be defiled.

[For his Sister a Virgin which hath had no Husband.] No Husband to take Care of her Funeral, which was therefore a needful Office of Charity to her Brother, or such a Parent. Here there is no Mention of a Wife. But we should rightly observe, that it was needless to mention her wife, by the Laws of GOD and Man, was dearer to him than either Father or Mother.

no English cluster in  $Z$ ,  $Z$  containing a loop,  $\bar{b}$  not appearing a limit map, or a leaf, or a root, or a cut node, or any other topology.

On the other hand, apologies. The Hill and Daily Express explain it of the importance of the Middle East and Pakistan. As with the other articles, the Telegraph is again the best one.

19 Or a man that is broken footed, or broken-handed,

25. Or crook, bent, or a sharp, or that hath a blemish in the eye, or be filmy, or scabbed, or hath his flesh broken;

On 2 Dec. 1902, Onan was baptised by Rev. John, who is both a Deacon and a Minister of the Gospel, and a very intelligent and able man, and a Member of the American Presbyterian Church, the Duke's wife and children being present, with all bodily strength and vigour.

(1)  $\frac{1}{2} \leq \frac{a}{b} \leq \frac{1}{2} + \frac{1}{2} \frac{1}{b}$  or  $\frac{1}{2} \leq \frac{a}{b} \leq \frac{1}{2} + \frac{1}{2} \frac{1}{b}$ , or both a Rupture, a

20. Notice that I did a blunder, of the kind of Achan's people, of which enough to offer the offering of the Lord was by this, he had a blunder, but did not come right to offer the fruit of his God.

— as I have at the board of his Grace, & W of the most noble and of the City.

The same day I put down by name all the children who had been taken from their parents, and that Part of the Families who have given up their Children, Parents, which no Man that was legally married could do.

24. Only he shall not go in unto the veil, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that he pollute not my sanctuary: for I the Lord do sanctify them.

That he perceived no Sorrow,} That he might not make others think hardly of Religion.

Place for my service.

24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.

C H A P. VIII

1 The first of these is the fact that the population of the Lake region to the north of the lake is small. The 11th of the population may not be the same as the 17th of the population of the lake. The 20th of the population of the lake is the same as the 20th of the population of the lake.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they profane not my holy name, which they hallow unto me: I am the Lord.

The foregoing Rules relate to the personal Qualifications of Priests, have followed the usual Canon relating to the Privilege, which they and their Clergies had of curing their Sins of the Sacrilege ; from which it is plain, which Canon is intended to remind them of that Rule of a Cardinal's Duty whereby their Worthiness is to be judged of GOD.

The first Canon is, that no part of the property of any Part of a consecrated Victim, who he is under any Degree of legal Uncertainty; for that is the meaning of Quod est in Altari non licet tangere. Neither were they, in that case, to eat of the first-fruits, which were also consecrated. 1 COR. X. viii. 12, 13. But they might eat of the Tithes which were allowed for their constant Maintenance.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever be be of all your feed, among your generations, that goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the Lord, having his uncleanness upon him, that but I will be out of them my pocket. I will not lose it.

[illegible]

4. What man loveth of the feed of Asses, or of loper, or hath a running gill, he shall not eat of the holy thing, until he be clean. And whoso toucheth any thing that toucheth on earth daily, only man's hole feed goeth for unclean.

7. Or whosoever receiveth any thing, whereby he may be made a friend to whom he may take such satisfaction as he hath :

6 The foul which hath covered any city shall be unclean until cleansed, and shall be out of the holy things, untils he washeth with water.

And when the time came for him to die, and God had sent him to the living, he came to his rest.

8. That which doth offend the eye, shall be cut off, and he shall not eat to defile himself, and shall be clean from the Lord.

c. They shall do nothing to offend the Lord, and they bear the testimony that Christ is the Son of the living God, and that Jesus doth live again.

The Priests themselves were likewise like the Zingis and a number of even the Sages had to be made Privileged, although called by the Catholicon Prêtres, and the fore-mentioned Penalty.

10 There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing:
a sojourner of the priests, or an hired servant shall not eat of the holy thing.

There shall no Stranger eat of it. [Levi. 24.] By Levi Thing here is meant, that Portion of the Sacrifices which belonged to the Priests. See on Ch. xvi. 22. And by Stranger is not meant one of another Nation, in Distinction from a native Jew, but one who was not of the Priests own Family, whether Yew or Gentile Proselyte, as the following Words explain.

A Stranger, or Guest. Prædictus The Boarder or Intimate, one who dwells in his House, but is no Part of his Family.

11 But if the priest buy any soul with his money, he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house: they shall eat of his meat.

But, it's Pity they are Sold - [1844.] Those Slaves might be either such of the own Nation, as through Poverty were necessitated to sell themselves, (see Vol. 3 p. 43) or of other Nations, viz. 44, 45, who being prohibited to the Yoruba Religion, became Part of the Priests Family, and so were permitted to eat of his consecrated Meat.

12 If the priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things.

It is the Daughter of a young Gentleman, called Stanger, &c. Un- to one who is not of the Family of the Philips, Stanger being here used as in 1704, 1705.

13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat; but there shall no thing be put thereof.

14 ¶ And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest, with the holy thing.

The Meaning is, that he should be obliged to pay the full Worth of it, and a fifth Part more.

15. And

16 And thou shalt profess the holy things of the callation of Israel, which they offered to the Lord.

17 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¶

18 ¶ And thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, ¶

19 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

20 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

21 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

22 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

23 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

24 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

25 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

26 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

27 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

28 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

29 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

30 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

31 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

32 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

33 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

34 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

35 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

36 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

37 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

38 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

39 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

40 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

41 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

42 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

43 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

44 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

45 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

46 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

47 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

C H A P. XXIII.

1 Of the Israel's own meetings. 2 The Sabbath. 3 The feast of unleavened bread. 4 The feast of Pentecost. 5 The feast of Harvest. 6 The feast of Tabernacles. 7 The feast of Trumpets. 8 The feast of Atonement. 9 The feast of Dedication. 10 The feast of Purification. 11 The feast of the Passover. 12 The feast of the Unleavened Bread. 13 The feast of the Pentecost. 14 The feast of the Harvest. 15 The feast of the Tabernacles. 16 The feast of the Trumpets. 17 The feast of the Atonement. 18 The feast of the Dedication. 19 The feast of the Purification. 20 The feast of the Passover. 21 The feast of the Unleavened Bread. 22 The feast of the Pentecost. 23 The feast of the Harvest. 24 The feast of the Tabernacles. 25 The feast of the Trumpets. 26 The feast of the Atonement. 27 The feast of the Dedication. 28 The feast of the Purification. 29 The feast of the Passover. 30 The feast of the Unleavened Bread. 31 The feast of the Pentecost. 32 The feast of the Harvest. 33 The feast of the Tabernacles. 34 The feast of the Trumpets. 35 The feast of the Atonement. 36 The feast of the Dedication. 37 The feast of the Purification. 38 The feast of the Passover. 39 The feast of the Unleavened Bread. 40 The feast of the Pentecost. 41 The feast of the Harvest. 42 The feast of the Tabernacles. 43 The feast of the Trumpets. 44 The feast of the Atonement. 45 The feast of the Dedication. 46 The feast of the Purification. 47 The feast of the Passover. 48 The feast of the Unleavened Bread. 49 The feast of the Pentecost. 50 The feast of the Harvest. 51 The feast of the Tabernacles. 52 The feast of the Trumpets. 53 The feast of the Atonement. 54 The feast of the Dedication. 55 The feast of the Purification. 56 The feast of the Passover. 57 The feast of the Unleavened Bread. 58 The feast of the Pentecost. 59 The feast of the Harvest. 60 The feast of the Tabernacles. 61 The feast of the Trumpets. 62 The feast of the Atonement. 63 The feast of the Dedication. 64 The feast of the Purification. 65 The feast of the Passover. 66 The feast of the Unleavened Bread. 67 The feast of the Pentecost. 68 The feast of the Harvest. 69 The feast of the Tabernacles. 70 The feast of the Trumpets. 71 The feast of the Atonement. 72 The feast of the Dedication. 73 The feast of the Purification. 74 The feast of the Passover. 75 The feast of the Unleavened Bread. 76 The feast of the Pentecost. 77 The feast of the Harvest. 78 The feast of the Tabernacles. 79 The feast of the Trumpets. 80 The feast of the Atonement. 81 The feast of the Dedication. 82 The feast of the Purification. 83 The feast of the Passover. 84 The feast of the Unleavened Bread. 85 The feast of the Pentecost. 86 The feast of the Harvest. 87 The feast of the Tabernacles. 88 The feast of the Trumpets. 89 The feast of the Atonement. 90 The feast of the Dedication. 91 The feast of the Purification. 92 The feast of the Passover. 93 The feast of the Unleavened Bread. 94 The feast of the Pentecost. 95 The feast of the Harvest. 96 The feast of the Tabernacles. 97 The feast of the Trumpets. 98 The feast of the Atonement. 99 The feast of the Dedication. 100 The feast of the Purification.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¶ 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, ¶

Two Lambs—for a Sacrifice of Peace-Offerings,] Double the Number of what was commonly offered, Lev. iii. 5.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the first-fruits, for a wave-offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

They shall be holy to the Lord for the Priest,] In Peace-Offerings, for private Persons, the Priest had only the Bread and right Shoulder, Lev. vii. 34. the rest, having the Blood and Fat which were for the Altar, was eaten by the Offerer and his Friends. But Peace-Offerings for the whole Congregation were most holy, and therefore might be eaten by none but the Priests, even as Sin-Offerings, and other Offerings which are called most holy.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the self-same day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: It shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

This Festival was partly commemorative of GOD's Goodness in giving the Law from Mount Sinai, on the fiftieth Day after their coming out of Egypt; and partly gratulatory for the fair Hopes of completing their Harvest.

22 ¶ And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleanings of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the LORD your God.

This Law is mentioned before Ch. xiv. 9, 10. but here repeated with great Propriety, upon Occasion of this Thanksgiving Feast, since it was a just Expression of their Gratitude to GOD for the Blessings of Harvest, to show Liberality to the Poor, in Conformity to his Example, who had been so liberal to them; and since GOD had filled their Hearts with Food and Gladness, it became them to make the Poor Partakers of their Joy, Deut. xvi. 11, 14.

23 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation.

In the seventh Month,] The seventh Month of the ecclesiastical Year, which was the first of the civil, answering to our September.

A Memorial of blowing of Trumpets,] To record or remember, in Scripture Stile, signifies often to celebrate, or commemorate with Praise, Pf. xx. 7. lji. xvi. 13. lxii. 6. See also the Title of Pf. xxxviii. and lxi. Therefore the Words may be rendered, a Festival for commemorating or praising God with the Sound of Trumpets. See Pf. cl. 3. In this Manner the first of each Month was wont to be celebrated; but in a special Manner the Beginning of this seventh Month, which was the first Month of the civil Year. See on Num. x. 10. Pf. lxxxii. 3. For what was the seventh Month after the Institution of the Passover, was formerly the first Month in the civil Year. This Feast was kept with great solemnity, the Trumpets sounded from Sun-rising to Sun setting. The Priest who sounded the Trumpet began with the usual Prayer, Blessed be God who hath sanctified us by his Precepts, &c. subjoining this Thanksgiving: Blessed be God who hath preserved us in life, and brought us to this Time. When all was ended, the People repeated aloud these Words of Pf. lxxxix. 15. Blessed is the People that know the joyful Sound, &c. Maimonides considers this Festival as designed not only to proclaim the new Year, but as a solemn Warning to repent and prepare for the coming of the great Day of Atonement which was at Hand.

25 Ye shall do no servile work therein; but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

About which Directions are given, Num. xxix. 2.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

27 Also on the tenth day of this seventh month, there shall be a day of atonement, it shall be an holy convocation unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And ye shall do no work in that day: for it is a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God.

29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall forget to keep this day, he shall be cut off among his people.

When this Affliction was, and other Particulars in the foregoing Verses, see on Ch. xvi. 29, 30.

30 And whatsoever soul it be that shall not work in that same day, the same soul shall be cut off among his people.

31 Ye shall observe the manner of this feast, a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls in the ninth day of the month at even: from even unto even shall ye celebrate your sabbath.

A Sabbath of Rest,] Heb. a Sabbath of Suffering, or a Day of most solemn Rest.

33 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD.

There were two Purposes of the Institution of this Festival, both mentioned in this Chapter. One was to give Thanks for the Fruits of the Earth which were then gathered, Lev. xxiii. 39. The other, and that the principal, was in thankful Commemoration of their having dwelt in Booths forty Years, Lev. xxiii. 42. under the Divine Protection, Lev. xxiii. 43. On which Account it was called the Festival of Tabernacles, because they then dwelt in Booths, or Tabernacles, for seven Days. Compare Lev. 42 with Num. viii. 16.

35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

36 Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you, and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a solemn assembly, and ye shall do no servile work therein.

The Sacrifices for all the Days of this Festival are particularly specified, Num. xxix. 13, &c.

It is a solemn Assembly,] The Word Glatzavet, which we render solemn Assembly, signifies properly a Detention, or Cessation, viz. from Labour; and thence signifies a Festival, 2 Kings ii. 23. Amos v. 21. Here and in Num. xxix. 35. &c. Num. viii. 18. it denotes the peculiar solemnity with which the last Day of this Festival was celebrated.

37 These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt-offering, and a meat-offering, a sacrifice, and drink-offerings, every thing upon his day:

By Sacrifice here, as distinguished from Burnt Offerings, seems to be meant a Sin-Offering, which is ordered throughout the xxviii. and xxix. Chapters of Numbers, to accompany the Burnt-offerings upon all these Festivals.

38 Besides the sabbaths of the LORD, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your free-will offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.

39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.

Here is no new Injunction, but only a Repetition of the former Command, Lev. 34. in order to introduce the Reason of the Institution of this Festival, and the particular Manner of celebrating it, which are subjoined in the fourth and following Verses. Therefore the Hebrew Particle ach should not have been translated also, but justly, or truly, as we render it in many other Places.

And on the eighth Day shall be a Sabbath.] This Day seems to have been added to the Festival as a solemn Thanksgiving to GOD for enriching the Year with his Goodness, and enriching the Land with the Bounties of Harvest; as the other Days were a Feast in Commemoration of their dwelling in Tents; for they did not dwell in Tabernacles on this eighth Day, but only on the seven preceding, as appears from ver. 42.

40 And ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm-trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

And ye shall take you—Boughs, &c.] In order to build them Booths, or Arbours, on the Roofs of their Houses, and in their Courts, Neb. viii. 15. What we render Boughs may be translated the Fruit of goodly Trees, as the Word signifies, Ezek. xix. 12. and so the Hebrews understand it, who were wont to form their Berchs or Branches laden with Fruit, on which they rejoiced together.

Ye shall rejoice before the Lord.] These seven Days were spent in feasting and rejoicing, with Thanks to GOD, who had brought them from a barren Wilderness to a Land abounding with Fig-trees, Vines, and Pomegranates, and other goodly and fruitful Trees. Amongst other Joy of this Festival, we are told the highest was that of drawing and pouring out Water; concerning which the Talmudists say, He that never saw the Rjspring of drawing of Water, knows not what Rejoicing is. This Custom seems to have been in Memory of that miraculous Water which issued from the Rock in the Wilderness, whereby they were saved from perishing; and so it served to excite their Thankfulness to GOD, who had changed their thirsty Desert into a Land of Water-Springs. Deut. viii. 7, 8.

41 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year: It shall be a statute for ever in your generations, ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born, shall dwell in booths:

43 That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

44 And Moses declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

C H A P. XXIV.

1 Ordinances concerning the Lamps, 5 and the shew-bread. 10 Shelomith's son blasphemeth. 13 He is ordered by God to be put to death, which is to be done to all Blasphemers. 17 The law concerning murder repeated.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure oil-olive, beaten, for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually.

After the foregoing Particulars relating to the annual Festivals and Assemblies, and all Things prepared for the Tabernacle Service, he proceeds to put the Israelites in Mind of executing the Orders before given them, about providing, at the publick Charge, all Materials for the daily Service, Exod. xxx. 11, 16. and, in particular, a sufficient Quantity of Oil for the Lamps of the golden Candlestick, Exod. xxvii. 20, 21. which was to burn continually in the holy Place, without the Vail; the Priests in waiting being obliged to keep this Candlestick clean and pure, and to trim and supply the Lamps Morning and Evening.

3 Without the vail of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning, before the LORD continually: It shall be a statute for ever in your generations.

4 He shall order the lamps upon the pure candlestick before the LORD continually.

The pure Candlestick.] So called either because of its resplendent Brightness, or because it was of pure Gold, Exod. xxxi. 8.

Before the Lord.] Because it was before the Ark where GOD was peculiarly present.

5 ¶ And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth-deals shall be in one cake.

Two Tenth-deals shall be in one Cake.] i. e. Two Omers, or two tenth Parts of an Ephah, consisting of about six Quarts of English Measure, Exod. xvi. 36. So that they must have been of a vastly large Size.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the LORD.

Thou shalt set them in two Rows.] One piled upon another.

7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

And thou shalt put pure Frankincense, &c.] On the Top of each Row was set a golden Dish with an Handful of the best Frankincense therein.

That it may be on the Bread for a Memorial.] Or, that it may be for the Bread; i. e. in order to be burnt upon the Altar at the Week's End, instead of the Bread; for a Memorial, i. e. in Honour of GOD, or to commemorate his Name. See on Lev. ii. 2.

8 Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

Being taken from the Children of Israel.] At whose Charge they were provided, Neb. x. 32, 33.

By an everlasting Covenant.] By a Law which they had all agreed to observe, Exod. xxiv. 3. and which was to continue as long as that Dispensation remained.

9 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons, and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him, of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, by a perpetual statute.

Of the Offerings of the Lord made by Fire.] The Frankincense and the Bread were but one Offering, and the Frankincense being burnt instead of the Bread, a Part for the whole, ver. 7. hence the Bread too is reckoned among the Offerings made by Fire.

10 ¶ And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel; and this son of the Israelitish woman, and a man of Israel strove together in the camp;

Whose Father was an Egyptian.] An Egyptian by Birth, but became a Proselyte to the Jewish Religion. He was probably of those who went along with the Israelites when they came out of Egypt, Exod. xii. 38.

11 And the Israelitish woman's son blasphemed the name of the LORD, and cursed: and they brought him unto Moses (and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan)

Blasphemed the Name of the Lord, and cursed.] Heb. pierced, or struck through the Name. See on ver. 16. Sentence being given against him, he uttered Blasphemy against GOD; perhaps renouncing his Allegiance to JEHOVAH, as God of the Jews; and cursed those Judges who condemned him. His Inclination to this Crime he is thought to have acquired from his Countrymen the Egyptians, who, according to Porphry, were great Blasphemers. They demanded Favours of their Gods, threatening to punish them, if they refused to grant what they asked. It is remarkable, that the Hebrew has only blasphemed the Name, i. e. the tremendous Name of GOD, which is THE NAME by Way of Eminence; Jehovah being here omitted, as it is thought, out of Reverence, because such Wickedness as this ought not to be even named.

12 And they put him in ward, that the mind of the LORD might be shewed them.

That the Mind of the Lord might be shewed them.] Heb. That it might be expounded to them according to the Mouth of the Lord; i. e.

That

That Moses might pronounce Sentence upon him, as the LORD should direct him. They might justly infer from Laws in similar Instances, Exod. xxi. 17. xxii. 28. that the Criminal ought to die, but might be in Doubt about the Kind of Death.

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

Probably by a Voice from the Mercy-Seat, as Nm. vii. 89.

14 Bring forth him that hath cursed, without the camp, and let all that heard him, lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

Let all that heard him lay their Hands upon his Head,] This Ceremony imported, that they had given a true Testimony against him, and that they solemnly declared and imprecated Blood to be upon his own Head, saying, I lay my Blood be upon thy Head, if thou thyself, who, by thy Blasphemy, hast brought this Evil upon thee.

Let all the Congregation stone him,] Every one was to throw a Stone at the Blasphemer, to testify that he felt himself wounded with the Blow which those impious Persons levelled at the Deity. The Law which GOD enacted on this Head, is considered by some not as one of those political Laws restrained to the Jews alone, but as a moral Law obligatory on all Men. And it is observed, that the Emperor Justinian in like Manner condemned Blasphemers to Death. Others bored their Tongues through with an hot Iron, or branded them in the Forehead, to the End that every Body might be warned to avoid all Correspondence with such intamous Persons. It becomes those who are intrusted with the Sword of Justice to consider how far they are bound by this Law, which proceeded from the Mouth of GOD himself, to punish those Blasphemies and horrid Impieties, which are but too common amongst us, to the Disgrace not only of Christians, but of a civilized Nation. And from hence we may learn, how shocking the blaspheming of our GOD should be in our Ears, and with what Resolution we should endeavour to correct it in others.

15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God, shall bear his sin.

Upon this Occasion a new Law is made, in express Terms, against Blasphemy.

Shall bear his Sin,] i. e. He shall be punished at the Discretion of the Legislator.

16 And he that blasphemeth the name of the LORD, he shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as he that is born in the land, when he blasphemeth the name of the LORD, shall be put to death.

The Malignity of this Crime does not consist in any real Injury which it does to GOD, for his Throne is secure against all Insult from the most audacious of his Creatures; it all the Curses which their hellish Rage can invent had their utmost Accomplishment, his Happiness would remain undisturbed; thy W's kedegs may hurt a Man, but let thy Transgressions be multiplied, what dost thou unto him? But Blasphemy is an Indication of a Mind mad with impious Rage, and strikes at the Root of all Religion, which is the Basis of Society, and the main Source of that Happiness which distinguishes Men from Brutes. And therefore Crimes of this Kind undoubtedly fall within the Cognizance of the civil Magistrate, who is the Guardian of the Peace and Security of the Society.

17 ¶ And he that killeth any man, shall surely be put to death.

This Law is given before, Exod. xxi. 12. But there it is only, he that smiteth a Man, so that he die: Here he that killeth any Man, a Gentile as well as a Jew; which seems to be so expressed, on Purpose to teach the Jews, that not only in the Case of Impiety and Blasphemy towards GOD, but also of Murder, and every other Act of Injustice, they were to have one and the same Law for the Stranger as well as for those of their own Country, as is expressly declared, ver. 22.

18 And he that killeth a beast, shall make it good: beast for beast.

See on Exod. xxi. 33, 34.

19 And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour; as he hath done, so shall it be done unto him:

20 Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again.

21 And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it: and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.

22 Ye shall have one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for I am the LORD your God.

For I am the LORD your God,] Who will neither favour your wickedness, nor turn his face from your iniquity: but do equal justice to all.

23 ¶ And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed, out of the camp, and stone him with stones: and the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 The law concerning a sabbath unto the children of Israel, saying, The LORD hath said unto Moses, saying, I have given thee the Sabbath, as a sign between me and the children of Israel, that thou mayest know that I am the LORD thy God.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, in mount Sinai, saying,

The Lord spake unto Moses in Mount Sinai,] i. e. In the Wilderness of Sinai, or near Mount Sinai, as the Hebr. Particle signifies in other Places, Jer. vi. 13. 1 Sam. xix. 1. 1 Kings vii. 3. Isa. xxvi. 2. For they did not remove from this Wilderness till the twentieth Day of the seventh Month after their coming out of Egypt, Num. x. 11, 12.

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath unto the LORD.

That is, a Rest from being tilled or sown. See on Exod. xxiii. 11. where the Design of this Law is explained.

3 Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof.

4 But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.

A Sabbath for the Lord,] In Honour of GOD, and as an Acknowledgment that their Land was his. See on Exod. xiii. 11. The Belief of GOD's being the CREATOR of the World is so essentially necessary to the very Being of Religion, that in order to propagate and preserve the Memory of that Event, the Law of Moses not only instituted a weekly Sabbath, whereby the Hebr. were distinguished from all other Nations, as the Worshipers of that GOD who, in six Days, created the World; but also a sabbatical Year at the End of every six Years, as a publick Testimony, that their Land was consecrated to the same GOD, and that he had settled them in it as his true Worshipers. Another wise and merciful End of the Institution was, for the Rest and Relief of the Poor; for not only had they a Cessation this Year from all servile Labour, but a general Release from Debt, Deut. xv. 2. and that their Minds might be the better for it, as well as their Bodies, this Year was also appointed for instructing the People in the Law, at one of their solemn general Meetings, Deut. xxxi. 10.

Neither sow—nor prune,] These two Words comprehend all the Methods of cultivating their Fields or Trees, as ploughing, digging, dunging, &c.

5 That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest, thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes grapes of thy vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.

That which groweth of its own Accord; Either from Seed which fell casually from the last Year's Harvest, or from the old Roots which sprouted again.

Thou shalt not reap, nor gather; i. e. They were not to look upon any Thing that grew this Year as their peculiar Property, nor to lay up in Store, but only gather what they wanted any where for present Use, in Common with others, as the following Words explain. Proudly's and Servants, Rich and Poor, had all an equal Privilege. One Man's Beast was to graze as freely as another's; all were to live at Rest, and enjoy the Comforts of this Law, the merciful Appointment of Heaven.

It is a Year of Rest unto the Land. This seems to have been one Purpose of the Institution, that the Land might lie fallow, in order to recruit its Strength.

6 And the sixth of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee,

The Sabbath of the Land; Sabbath here signifies the accidental Crop that grew in the sabbatical Year.

All the Fruits of the Earth this Year were to be perfectly in common, for Jes and Gentiles, Men and Cattle, the Owners as well as others. Though the Lands would produce little without sowing, yet their Vine and other Fruit-trees, even without pruning, would yield a considerable Increase; so that the poorer Sort might cheer their Hearts this Year with generous Wine.

7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

8 ¶ And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years, and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.

Besides this seventh Year's Rest, GOD now appoints it as another perpetual Ordinance, that every fiftieth Year should be celebrated as an extraordinary Year of Rest, Freedom, and Rejoicing. Publick Notice to be given of it through the whole Country, by Sound of Trumpet, upon the great Expiation Day, the tenth of the seventh Month, answering to our September. On this Year, every ancient Owner of Lands and Estates that had been alienated by Sale, was to be restored to his Possession; and every Israelitish Slave set at perfect Liberty, to return to the Family he belonged to. So that how often soever a Man's Estate had been sold or alienated from one Jubile to another, or how many Hands soever it had passed through, yet in fifty Years the Estate must return to the Heirs of the Persons who were first possessed of it. This excellent Constitution provided against an ambitious Designs of private Persons, or Persons in Authority, against the publick Liberty; for no Person, in any of the Tribes, was allowed by this Constitution to procure such Estates as could give them Hopes of Success in oppressing their Brethren and Fellow-Subjects. They had no Riches to bribe indigent Persons to assist them, nor could there at any Time be any considerable Number of indigent Persons to be corrupted. The Power in the Hands of so many Freeholders in each Tribe, was unspeakably superior to any Power in the Hands of one, or of a few Men, that it is impossible to conceive how any such ambitious Designs should succeed, if any Persons should have been found so weak as to attempt them.

Beside, this equal and moderate Provision for every Person, wisely cut off the Means of Luxury, with the Temptations to it from Example. It almost necessarily put the whole Hebrew Nation upon Industry and Frugality, and yet gave to every one such a Property, with such an easy State of Liberty, that they had sufficient Reason to esteem and value them, and endeavour to preserve and maintain them. To which we may add, that hereby a wise Provision was made for fixing the Jeser to the Land of Canaan, and keeping them united, since all their Possessions were so entailed, that the right Heir never could be wholly excluded from his Estate; it served to preserve a perfect Distinction of Tribes and Families, for which End their Genealogies were of Necessity to be carefully kept, that they might be able to prove their Right to the Inheritance of their Ancestors; by which Means the Tribe and Family of the Messiah was fully ascertained when he was born, without which he could not have been proved of the Tribe of Judah and Lineage of David, as was foretold of him by the Jesayo Prophets.

9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the jubile to sound, on the tenth day of the seventh month; in the day of atonement, shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.

On the tenth Day of the seventh Month; The Year of Jubile began on the first Day of the seventh Month, which was the Commencement of the Civil Year, Exod. xii. 2. But the Slaves were not set at Liberty, nor the Lands restored to their original Proprietors, till the tenth Day, which was the great Day of Expiation, a fit Time of shewing Mercy to others, when they received Pardon from GOD. And from the first Day to the tenth there was nothing but feasting and rejoicing among the Slaves.

10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you, and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

Ye shall hallow the fiftieth Year; Distinguish it from all other Years.

And ye shall return every Man unto his Possession; His Field or House, (if in the Country, or in Villages, and unwall'd Towns, ver. 31.) which were still his Possession, because they were not sold absolutely, but only till the Jubile Year, ver. 15. This Law was an excellent Preservative of the Liberty and Property of every individual Member of the Commonwealth.

And ye shall return every Man unto his Family; As the Land which had been alienated returned to the first Owner, so such as had been sold for Servants into another Family now returned free to their own; which is to be understood of such Slaves as had not accepted of the seventh Year's Release, but were bound through the Ear to serve for ever, i. e. till the Jubile, Exod. xxi. 6.

11 A jubile shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.

12 For it is the jubile, it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the year of this jubile ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 And if thou sell ought unto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbour's hand; ye shall not oppress one another.

In Sales and Alienations ye shall not impose upon each other, the Seller by demanding too much, nor the Buyer by giving too little.

15 According to the number of years after the jubile, thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee:

The Purchase of all Lands, Houses, or Estates, were to be at a Price proportionable to the greater or less Number of Years that remained from the Time of Purchase to the next Year of Jubile. Thus there was no Shadow of Injustice in this Law, nor had the Purchaser of an Estate any Reason to complain of it, since in the Sale of Lands Regard was always had to the Year of Jubile, and they sold at a higher or lower Price, according as the Jubile was at a greater or smaller Distance.

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

Ye shall not oppress one another; By seeking to turn your Brother out of the perpetual Possession of his Lands, as Ahab did to Naboth, 1 Kings xxi. 2.

But thou shalt fear thy God; The best Proof Men can give of their fearing GOD, is to abstain from Evil, Prov. xvi. 6.

18 ¶ Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and ye shall dwell in the land in safety.

19 And

